Item 14. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law permits a corporation, under specified circumstances, to indemnify its directors, officers, employees or agents against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlements actually and reasonably incurred by them in connection with any action, suit or proceeding brought by third parties by reason of the fact that they were or are directors, officers, employees or agents of the corporation, if such directors, officers, employees or agents acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reason to believe their conduct was unlawful. In a derivative action, i.e., one by or in the right of the corporation, indemnification may be made only for expenses actually and reasonably incurred by directors, officers, employees or agents in connection with the defense or settlement of an action or suit, and only with respect to a matter as to which they shall have acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made if such person shall have been adjudged liable to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that the defendant directors, officers, employees or agents are fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses despite such adjudication of liability.

Section 102(b)(7) of the Delaware General Corporation Law provides that a certificate of incorporation may contain a provision eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director provided that such provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director:

- (1) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders;
- (2) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;
- (3) under Section 174 (relating to liability for unauthorized acquisitions or redemptions of, or dividends on, capital stock) of the Delaware General Corporation Law; or
- (4) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law further authorizes a corporation to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation against any liability asserted against and incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of such person's status as such.

Our amended and restated certificate of incorporation provides that we may, to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware General Corporation Law, indemnify all persons whom it may indemnify under Delaware law and contains provisions permitted by Section 102(b)(7) of the Delaware General Corporation Law.

Our certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide that:

- we are required to indemnify our directors and officers, subject to very limited exceptions;
- we may indemnify other employees and agents, subject to very limited exceptions;
- we are required to advance expenses, as incurred, to our directors and officers in connection with a legal proceeding, subject to very limited exceptions; and
- we may advance expenses, as incurred, to our employees and agents in connection with a legal proceeding.

The indemnification provisions in our amended and restated certificate of incorporation and bylaws may be sufficiently broad to permit indemnification of our directors and officers for liabilities arising under the Securities Act.

Reference is also made to the form of Underwriting Agreement, filed with this registration statement as Exhibit 1, which provides for the indemnification of our officers, directors and controlling persons against certain liabilities.

We have obtained an insurance policy providing for indemnification of officers and directors and certain other persons against liabilities and expenses incurred by any of them in certain stated proceedings and conditions.

Item 15. Recent Sales of Unregistered Securities

On August 2, 2006, Cinemark Holdings, Inc. was formed as a Delaware holding company of Cinemark, Inc. On October 5, 2006, our subsidiary, Cinemark USA, Inc., completed the acquisition of Century Theatres, Inc., for a purchase price of approximately $681 million and the assumption of debt of Century. A portion of the purchase price consisted of the issuance of 10,024,776 shares of our common stock. The closing of the acquisition of Century involved the following transactions:

- Pursuant to a stock purchase agreement, dated August 7, 2006, and amendment thereto, dated October 4, 2006, among Cinemark USA, Inc., Century and Syufy Enterprise, LP, Cinemark USA, Inc. acquired approximately 77% of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Century.
- Pursuant to a contribution and exchange agreement, dated August 7, 2006, by and between Syufy, Cinemark, Inc., Century Theatres Holdings, LLC and Cinemark Holdings, Inc., Syufy contributed the remaining shares of capital stock of Century to Cinemark Holdings in exchange for 10,024,776 shares of Cinemark Holdings.
- Pursuant to a share exchange agreement, dated August 7, 2006, by and among Cinemark Holdings, Inc. and then current stockholders of Cinemark, Inc., the stockholders, immediately prior to the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the purchase agreement and the contribution and exchange agreement referenced above, exchanged their 82,531,243 shares of common stock of Cinemark, Inc. for an equal number of shares of Cinemark Holdings common stock.

In December 2006, we issued 4,603 shares upon the exercise of options outstanding under our 2006 Long Term Incentive Plan.

The sales and issuances of securities described above were deemed to be exempt from registration under the Securities Act in reliance upon Section 4(2) of the Securities Act or Regulation D or Rule 701 promulgated thereunder.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Cinemark Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), and certain stockholders of the Company named in Schedule 2 attached hereto (the “Selling Stockholders”) propose to sell an aggregate of 28,000,000 shares (the “Firm Stock”) of the Company’s common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the “Common Stock”). Of the 28,000,000 shares of the Firm Stock, 13,888,889 shares are being sold by the Company and 14,111,111 shares by the Selling Stockholders. The Firm Stock and the Option Stock, if purchased, are hereinafter collectively called the “Stock.” This is to confirm the agreement concerning the purchase of the Stock from the Company and the Selling Stockholders by the Underwriters. Lehman Brothers Inc., Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC, Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated and Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated shall act as representatives (the “Representatives”) of the Underwriters.

SECTION 1. Representations, Warranties and Agreements of the Company. The Company represents, warrants and agrees that:

(a) A registration statement on Form S-1 relating to the Stock has (i) been prepared by the Company in conformity in all material respects with the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and the rules and regulations (the “Rules and Regulations”) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) thereunder; (ii) been filed with the Commission under the Securities Act; and (iii) become effective under the Securities Act. Copies of such registration statement and any amendment thereto have been made available by the Company to you. As used in this Agreement:

(i) “Applicable Time” means ___[a.m.][p.m.] (New York City time) on the date of this Agreement;

(ii) “Effective Date” means the date and time as of which such registration statement, or the most recent post-effective amendment thereto, if any, was declared effective by the Commission;

(iii) “Issuer Free Writing Prospectus” means each “free writing prospectus” (as defined in Rule 405 of the Rules and Regulations) prepared by or on behalf of the Company or used or referred to by the Company in connection with the offering of the Stock;

(iv) “Preliminary Prospectus” means any preliminary prospectus relating to the Stock included in such registration statement or filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) of the Rules and Regulations;

(v) “Pricing Disclosure Package” means, as of the Applicable Time, the most recent Preliminary Prospectus, together with each Issuer Free Writing Prospectus filed or used by the Company on or before the Applicable Time (which Issuer Free Writing Prospectuses are identified on Schedule 3 attached hereto), other than a road show that is an Issuer Free Writing Prospectus but is not required to be filed under Rule 433 of the Rules and Regulations;

(vi) “Prospectus” means the final prospectus relating to the Stock, as filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) of the Rules and Regulations; and

(vii) “Registration Statement” means such registration statement, as amended as of the Effective Date, including any Preliminary Prospectus or the Prospectus and all exhibits to such registration statement.

Any reference herein to the “most recent Preliminary Prospectus” shall be deemed to refer to the latest Preliminary Prospectus included in the Registration Statement or filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) prior to or on the date hereof. [Any reference herein to the term “Registration Statement” shall be deemed to include the abbreviated registration statement to register additional shares of Common Stock under Rule 462(b) of the Rules and Regulations (the “Rule 462(b) Registration Statement”).] The Commission has not issued any order preventing or suspending the use of any Preliminary Prospectus or the Prospectus or suspending the effectiveness of the Registration Statement, and no proceeding or examination for such purpose has been instituted or, to the Company’s knowledge, threatened by the Commission.

(b) The Company was not at the time of filing of the Registration Statement an “ineligible issuer” in accordance with Rule 405 and Rule 164(h)(2) of the Rules and Regulations.

(c) The Registration Statement conformed on the Effective Date, and on the date hereof conforms, in all material respects, and any amendment to the Registration Statement filed after the date hereof will conform in all material respects when filed, to the requirements of the Securities Act and the Rules and Regulations. The most recent Preliminary Prospectus conformed, and the Prospectus will conform, in all material respects when filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) and on the applicable Delivery Date to the requirements of the Securities Act and the Rules and Regulations.

(d) The Registration Statement did not, as of the Effective Date, contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading; provided that no representation or warranty is made as to information contained in or omitted from the Registration Statement in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to the Company through the Representatives by or on behalf of any Underwriter specifically for inclusion therein, which information is specified in Section 10(f).

(e) The Prospectus will not, as of its date and on the applicable Delivery Date, contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; provided that no representation or warranty is made as to information contained in or omitted from the Prospectus in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to the Company through the Representatives by or on behalf of any Underwriter specifically for inclusion therein, which information is specified in Section 10(f).

(f) The Pricing Disclosure Package (together with the information included on Schedule 4 attached hereto) did not, as of the Applicable Time, contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; provided that no representation or warranty is made as to information contained in or omitted from the Pricing Disclosure Package in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to the Company through the Representatives by or on behalf of any Underwriter specifically for inclusion therein, which information is specified in Section 10(f).

(g) Each Issuer Free Writing Prospectus (including, without limitation, any road show that is a free writing prospectus under Rule 433), when considered together with the Pricing Disclosure Package (together with the information included on Schedule 4 hereto), did not, as of the Applicable Time, contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; provided that no representation or warranty is made as to information contained in or omitted from the Pricing Disclosure Package in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to the Company through the Representatives by or on behalf of any Underwriter specifically for inclusion therein, which information is specified in Section 10(f).

(h) Each Issuer Free Writing Prospectus conformed or will conform in all material respects to the requirements of the Securities Act and the Rules and Regulations on the date of first use, and the Company has complied with all prospectus delivery and any filing requirements applicable to such Issuer Free Writing Prospectus pursuant to the Rules and Regulations. The Company has not made any offer relating to the Stock that would constitute an Issuer Free Writing Prospectus, other than as listed on Schedule 3 hereto, without the prior written consent of the Representatives. The Company has retained in accordance with the Rules and Regulations all Issuer Free Writing Prospectuses that were not required to be filed pursuant to the Rules and Regulations. The Company has taken all actions necessary under Rule 433(d)(8) of the Rules and Regulations so that any “road show” (as defined in Rule 433) in connection with the offering of the Stock will not be required to be filed pursuant to the Rules and Regulations.

(i) The Company and each of its subsidiaries (as defined in Section 19) have been duly organized and are validly existing as corporations or other business organizations, as applicable, in good standing under the laws of their respective jurisdictions of incorporation or organization, as applicable, are duly qualified to do business and are in good standing as foreign corporations or other business organizations, as applicable, in each jurisdiction in which their respective ownership or lease of property or the conduct of their respective businesses requires such qualification, and have all power and authority necessary to own or hold their respective properties and to conduct the businesses in which they are engaged, except where the failure to be so qualified or in good standing would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on the condition (financial or otherwise), properties, business or prospects of the Company and its subsidiaries taken as a whole (a “Material Adverse Effect”). None of the subsidiaries of the Company (other than Cinemark, Inc., CNMK Holdings, Inc., Cinemark USA, Inc., CNMK Investments, Inc., CNMK Texas Properties, Ltd., Cinemark Partners II, Ltd., Cinemark de Mexico, S.A. Cinemark Media, Inc. and Cinemark Brasil, S.A. (collectively, the “Significant Subsidiaries”)) is a “significant subsidiary” (as defined in Rule 405 of the Rules and Regulations).

(j) The Company has an authorized capitalization as of December 31, 2006 as set forth under the “Actual” column in the “Capitalization” section of each of the most recent Preliminary Prospectus and the Prospectus, and all of the issued shares of capital stock of the Company have been duly authorized and validly issued, are fully paid and non-assessable, conform in all material respects to the description thereof contained in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus and were issued in compliance with federal and state securities laws and not in violation of any preemptive right, resale right, right of first refusal or similar right. All of the Company’s options, warrants and other rights to purchase or exchange any securities for shares of the Company's capital stock have been duly authorized and validly issued, conform in all material respects to the description thereof contained in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus and were issued in compliance with federal and state securities laws. All of the issued shares of capital stock or membership interests, as applicable, of each subsidiary of the Company have been duly authorized, validly issued and are fully paid and non-assessable and, except as described in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus and for directors' qualifying shares for foreign subsidiaries, are owned directly or indirectly by the Company, free and clear of all liens, encumbrances, equities or claims, other than the liens and encumbrances imposed thereon pursuant to the Credit Agreement, dated as of October 5, 2006, among the Company, Cinemark, Inc., CNMK Holdings, Inc., Cinemark USA, Inc. and the banks, financial institutions and other parties signatory thereto, as amended by the First Amendment thereto, dated as of March 14, 2007 (which are described in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus) and any liens, encumbrances, equities or claims as would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect.

(k) The shares of the Stock to be issued and sold by the Company to the Underwriters hereunder have been duly authorized and, when issued and delivered against payment therefor in accordance with this Agreement, will be validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable; the Stock will conform to the descriptions thereof contained in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus, will be issued in compliance with federal and state securities laws and will be free of statutory and contractual preemptive rights, rights of first refusal and similar rights.

(l) The Company has all requisite corporate power and authority to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under this Agreement. This Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Company.

(m) The execution, delivery and performance by the Company of this Agreement, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and the application of the proceeds from the sale of the Stock as described under "Use of Proceeds" in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus do not and will not (i) conflict with or result in a breach or violation of any of the terms or provisions of, or constitute a default under, any indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, loan agreement, lease, pledge or other agreement or instrument to which the Company or any of its subsidiaries is a party or by which the Company or any of its subsidiaries is bound or to which any of the property or assets of the Company or any of its subsidiaries is subject, (ii) result in any violation of the provisions of the charter or bylaws of the Company or the charter or bylaws or any joint venture, partnership, limited liability company, shareholders' or other agreement or organizational document of any of the Company's subsidiaries, or (iii) result in any violation of any statute or any order, rule or regulation of any court or governmental agency or body (whether domestic or foreign) having jurisdiction over the Company or any of its subsidiaries or any of their properties or assets except in the case of clauses (i) and (iii), such conflicts, breaches or violations that in the aggregate would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect, or impair the ability of the Company to perform its obligations under this Agreement; and, except for the registration of the Stock under the Securities Act and such consents, approvals, authorizations, registrations or qualifications as may be required under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. ("NASD") and under applicable state or foreign securities laws in connection with the purchase and distribution of the Stock by the Underwriters, no consent, approval, authorization or order of, or filing or registration with, any such court or governmental agency or body (whether domestic or foreign) is required for the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement, the consummation by the Company of the transactions contemplated hereby and the application of the proceeds from the sale of the Stock as described under “Use of Proceeds” in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus.

(n) Except as described in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus, there are no contracts, agreements or understandings between the Company and any person granting such person the right to require the Company to file a registration statement under the Securities Act with respect to any securities of the Company owned or to be owned by such person or to require the Company to include such securities in the securities registered pursuant to the Registration Statement or in any securities being registered pursuant to any other registration statement filed by the Company under the Securities Act.

(o) Except as described in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus, the Company has not sold or issued any shares of Common Stock during the six-month period preceding the date of the Prospectus, including any sales pursuant to Rule 144A under, or Regulations D or S of, the Securities Act other than shares issued pursuant to employee benefit plans, qualified stock options plans or other employee compensation plans or pursuant to outstanding options, rights or warrants.

(p) Neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries has sustained, since the date of the latest audited financial statements included in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus, any loss or interference with its business from fire, explosion, flood or other calamity, whether or not covered by insurance, or from any labor dispute or court or governmental action, order or decree (whether domestic or foreign) otherwise than as set forth or contemplated in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus except where such losses or interferences would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect; and, since such date, there has not been any change in the capital stock (other than shares issued pursuant to employee benefit plans, qualified stock options plans or other employee compensation plans or pursuant to outstanding options, rights or warrants, in each case as such plans, options rights or warrants are described in each of the most recent Preliminary Prospectus and the Prospectus) or increase in the long-term debt of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or any adverse change, or any development involving a prospective adverse change, that would reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect, otherwise than as set forth or contemplated in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus.

(q) Since the date as of which information is given in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus, and except as otherwise disclosed in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus, the Company has not (i) issued or granted any securities, (ii) incurred any material liability or obligation, direct or contingent, other than liabilities and obligations which were incurred in the ordinary course of business, (iii) entered into any material transaction not in the ordinary course of business or (iv) declared or paid any dividend on its capital stock.

(r) The historical financial statements (including the related notes and supporting schedules) included in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus comply as to form in all material respects with the requirements of Regulation S-X under the Securities Act and present fairly in all material respects the financial position, results of operations and cash flows of the entities purported to be shown thereby at the dates and for the periods indicated, and have been prepared in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States applied on a consistent basis throughout the periods involved. The assumptions used in the preparation of the pro forma financial statements included in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus provide a reasonable basis for presenting the significant effects directly attributable to the transactions and events described therein, the related pro forma adjustments give appropriate effect to those assumptions, and the pro forma columns reflect the proper application of those adjustments to the historical financial statement amounts in such pro forma financial statements. The pro forma financial information included in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus comply as to form in all material respects with the applicable requirements of Regulation S-X under the Act.

(s) Deloitte & Touche LLP, who have certified certain financial statements of the Company, whose report appears in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus and who have delivered the initial letter referred to in Section 9(h)(i) hereof, are independent public accountants as required by the Securities Act and the Rules and Regulations. Grant Thornton LLP, who have certified certain financial statements of Century Theatres, Inc., whose report appears in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus and who have delivered the initial letter referred to in Section 9(h)(i) hereof, are independent public accountants as required by the Securities Act and the Rules and Regulations.

(t) The Company and each of its subsidiaries have good and marketable title in fee simple to all real property and good and marketable title to all personal property owned by them, in each case free and clear of all liens, encumbrances and defects, except such as are described in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus or such as would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect; and, except as described in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus, all assets held under lease by the Company and its subsidiaries are held by them under valid, subsisting and enforceable leases, except such as are described in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus or such as would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect.

(u) The Company and each of its subsidiaries carry, or are covered by, insurance in such amounts and covering such risks which the Company believes are adequate for the conduct of their respective businesses and the value of their respective properties.

(v) The Company and each of its subsidiaries own or possess adequate rights to use all material patents, patent applications, trademarks, service marks, trade names, trademark registrations, service mark registrations, copyrights and licenses necessary for the conduct of their respective businesses and have no reason to believe that the conduct of their respective businesses will conflict with, and have not received any notice of any claim of conflict with, any such rights of others that, if determined adversely to the Company or any of its subsidiaries would reasonably be likely to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect.

(w) Except as described in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus, there are no legal or governmental proceedings (whether domestic or foreign) pending to which the Company or any of its subsidiaries is a party or of which any property or assets of the Company or any of its subsidiaries is the subject which, if determined adversely to the Company or any of its subsidiaries, would reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect; and to the best of the Company's knowledge, no such proceedings are threatened or contemplated by governmental authorities or threatened by others.

(x) There are no contracts or other documents which are required to be described in the Registration Statement or the most recent Preliminary Prospectus or filed as exhibits to the Registration Statement by the Securities Act or by the Rules and Regulations that are not described or filed as required.

(y) No relationship, direct or indirect, exists between or among the Company on the one hand, and the directors, officers, stockholders, customers or suppliers of the Company on the other hand, which is required to be described in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus which is not so described.

(bb) The Company and each of its subsidiaries have filed (or obtained extensions to file) all federal, state, local and foreign income and franchise tax returns required to be filed through the date hereof, except where the failure to so file would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect, and have paid all taxes due thereon, other than those (i) currently payable without penalty or interest or (ii) being contested in good faith and by appropriate proceedings and for which, in the case of both (i) and (ii), adequate reserves have been established on the books and records of the Company in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States. No tax deficiency has been

(cc) Neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries (i) is in violation of (A), in the case of the Company, its charter or bylaws or (B) in the case of any of the Company's subsidiaries, its charter or bylaws or any of its joint venture, partnership, limited liability company, shareholders' or other agreement or organizational document as the case may be, (ii) is in default in any respect, and no event has occurred which, with notice or lapse of time or both, would constitute such a default, in the due performance or observance of any term, covenant or condition contained in any indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, loan agreement, lease, pledge or other agreement or instrument to which it is a party or by which it is bound or to which any of its properties or assets is subject or (iii) is in violation in any respect of any law, ordinance, governmental rule, regulation or court decree (whether domestic or foreign) to which it or its property or assets may be subject or has failed to obtain any material license, permit, certificate, franchise or other governmental authorization or permit (whether domestic or foreign) necessary to the ownership of its property or to the conduct of its business, except in the case of clauses (ii) and (iii), such defaults, events, violations or failures that would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect.

(dd) The Company and each of its subsidiaries (i) make and keep accurate books and records and (ii) maintain and has maintained effective internal control over financial reporting as defined in Rule 13a-15 under the Exchange Act and a system of internal accounting controls sufficient to provide reasonable assurance that (A) transactions are executed in accordance with management's general or specific authorization, (B) transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of the Company's financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States and to maintain accountability for its assets, (C) access to the Company's assets is permitted only in accordance with management's general or specific authorization and (D) the recorded accountability for the Company's assets is compared with existing assets at reasonable intervals and appropriate action is taken with respect to any differences.

(ee) (i) The Company has established and maintain disclosure controls and procedures (as such term is defined in Rule 13a-15 under the Exchange Act), (ii) such disclosure controls and procedures are designed to ensure that the information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports they will file or submit under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to management of the Company, including their respective principal executive officers and principal financial officers, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure to be made and (iii) such disclosure controls and procedures are effective in all material respects to perform the functions for which they were established.

(ff) There is and has been no failure on the part of the Company and any of the Company's directors or officers, in their capacities as such, to comply with the provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the rules and regulations promulgated in connection therewith.

(gg) Neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries, nor to the best of the Company's knowledge, any director, officer, agent, employee or other person associated with or acting on behalf of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, has used any corporate or organizational funds for any unlawful contribution, gift, entertainment or other unlawful expense relating to political activity; made any direct or indirect unlawful payment to any foreign or domestic government official or employee from corporate funds; violated or is in violation of any provision of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977; or made any bribe, rebate, payoff, influence payment, kickback or other unlawful payment.

(hh) The operations of the Company and its subsidiaries are and have been conducted at all times in compliance with applicable financial recordkeeping and reporting requirements of the Currency and Foreign Transactions Reporting Act of 1970, as amended, the money laundering statutes of all jurisdictions, the rules and regulations thereunder and any related or similar rules, regulations or guidelines, issued, administered or enforced by any governmental agency (collectively, the "Money Laundering Laws") and no action, suit or proceeding by or before any court or governmental agency, authority or body or any arbitrator involving the Company or any of its subsidiaries with respect to the Money Laundering Laws is pending or, to the knowledge of the Company, threatened, except, in each case, as would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect.

(ii) Neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries nor, to the knowledge of the Company, any director, officer, agent, employee or affiliate of the Company or any of its subsidiaries is currently subject to any U.S. sanctions administered by the Office of Foreign Assets Control of the U.S. Treasury Department ("OFAC"); and the Company will not directly or indirectly use the proceeds of the offering, or lend, contribute or otherwise make available such proceeds to any subsidiary, joint venture partner or other person or entity, for the purpose of financing the activities of any person currently subject to any U.S. sanctions administered by OFAC.

(jj) There has been no storage, disposal, generation, manufacture, refinement, transportation, handling or treatment of toxic wastes, medical wastes, hazardous wastes or hazardous substances by the Company or any of its subsidiaries (or, to the knowledge of the Company, any of their predecessors in interest) at, upon or from any of the property now or previously owned or leased by the Company or its subsidiaries in violation of any applicable law, ordinance, rule, regulation, order, judgment, decree or permit or which would require remedial action under any applicable law, ordinance, rule, regulation, order, judgment, decree or permit, except for any violation or remedial action which would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect; there has been no material spill, discharge, leak, emission, injection, escape, dumping or release of any kind onto such property or into the environment surrounding such property of any toxic wastes, medical wastes, solid wastes, hazardous wastes or hazardous substances due to or caused by the Company or any of its subsidiaries or with respect to which the Company or any of its subsidiaries have knowledge, except for any such spill, discharge, leak, emission, injection, escape, dumping or release which would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect; and the terms "hazardous wastes", "toxic wastes", "hazardous substances" and "medical wastes" shall have the meanings specified in any applicable local, state, federal and foreign laws or regulations with respect to environmental protection.

(kk) The Company is not and, as of each Delivery Date after giving effect to the issuance and sale of the Stock and the application of the net proceeds therefrom as described in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus, will not be, an “investment company” as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended.

(ll) The industry, statistical and market-related data included in each of the most recent Preliminary Prospectus and the Prospectus are derived from sources that the Company reasonably and in good faith believes to be accurate, reasonable and reliable, and such data agrees with the sources from which they were derived.

(mm) The Company has not taken, directly or indirectly, any action designed to cause or result in, or which has constituted or which might reasonably be expected to constitute, the stabilization or manipulation of the price of any security of the Company in connection with this transaction.

(nn) The Company has not distributed and, prior to the later to occur of any Delivery Date and completion of the distribution of the Stock, will not distribute any offering material in connection with the offering and sale of the Stock other than any Preliminary Prospectus, the Prospectus, any Issuer Free Writing Prospectus to which the Representatives have consented in accordance with Section 1(h) or 6(a)(vi).

(oo) The Stock has been approved for listing, subject to official notice of issuance and evidence of satisfactory distribution, on the New York Stock Exchange.

Any certificate signed by any officer of the Company and delivered to the Representatives or counsel for the Underwriters in connection with the offering of the Stock shall be deemed a representation and warranty by the Company, as to matters covered thereby, to each Underwriter.

SECTION 2. Representations, Warranties and Agreements of the Selling Stockholders. Each Selling Stockholder, severally and not jointly, represents, warrants and agrees that:

(a) Neither such Selling Stockholder nor any person acting on behalf of such Selling Stockholder (other than, if applicable, the Company and the Underwriters) has used, prior to the completion of the Underwriters’ distribution of the Stock, any “free writing prospectus” (as defined in Rule 405), relating to the Stock.

(b) Such Selling Stockholder has, and immediately prior to any Delivery Date such Selling Stockholder will have, good and valid title to or a valid “security entitlement” within the meaning of Section 8-501 of the New York Uniform Commercial Code (the “UCC”) in respect of, the shares of Stock to be sold by such Selling Stockholder hereunder on such Delivery Date, free and clear of all liens, encumbrances, equities or claims. Upon payment for the Stock to be sold by such Selling Stockholder, delivery of such Stock, as directed by the Underwriters, to Cede & Co. (“Cede”) or such other nominee as may be designated by The Depository Trust Company (“DTC”), registration of such Stock in the name of Cede or such other nominee and the crediting of such Stock on the books of DTC to securities accounts of the Underwriters (assuming that neither DTC nor any such Underwriter has notice of any adverse claim (within the meaning of Section 8-105 of the UCC) to such Stock), (i) under Section 8-501 of the UCC, the Underwriters will acquire a valid security entitlement in respect of such Stock and (ii) no action based on any valid "adverse claim," within the meaning of Section 8-102 of the UCC, to such Stock may be asserted against the Underwriters with respect to such security entitlement. (g) Such Selling Stockholder is not prompted to sell shares of Common Stock by any material negative information concerning the Company that is not set forth in the Registration Statement, the Pricing Disclosure Package and the Prospectus.

Any certificate signed by any officer of any Selling Stockholder and delivered to the Representatives or counsel for the Underwriters in connection with the offering of the Stock shall be deemed a representation and warranty by such Selling Stockholder, as to matters covered thereby, to each Underwriter.

SECTION 3. Purchase of the Stock by the Underwriters. On the basis of the representations and warranties contained in, and subject to the terms and conditions of, this Agreement, the Company agrees to sell 28,000,000 shares of the Firm Stock and each Selling Stockholder agrees to sell the number of shares of the Firm Stock set forth opposite its name in Schedule 2 hereto, severally and not jointly, to the several Underwriters and each of the Underwriters, severally and not jointly, agrees to purchase the number of shares of the Firm Stock set forth opposite that Underwriter's name in Schedule 1 hereto. Each Underwriter shall be obligated to purchase from the Company, and from each Selling Stockholder, that number of shares of the Firm Stock that represents the same proportion of the number of shares of the Firm Stock to be sold by the Company and by each Selling Stockholder as the number of shares of the Firm Stock set forth opposite the name of such Underwriter in Schedule 1 hereto represents of the total number of shares of the Firm Stock to be purchased by all of the Underwriters pursuant to this Agreement. The respective purchase obligations of the Underwriters with respect to the Firm Stock shall be rounded among the Underwriters to avoid fractional shares, as the Representatives may determine.

In addition, each Selling Stockholder grants to the Underwriters an option to purchase up to the number of shares of Option Stock set forth opposite such Selling Stockholder's name in Schedule 2 hereto, severally and not jointly. Such option is exercisable in the event that the Underwriters sell more shares of Common Stock than the number of Firm Stock in the offering and as set forth in Section 5 hereof. Any such election to purchase Option Stock shall be made in proportion to the maximum number of shares of Option Stock to be sold by each Selling Stockholder as set forth in Schedule 2 hereto. Each Underwriter agrees, severally and not jointly, to purchase the number of shares of Option Stock (subject to such adjustments to eliminate fractional shares as the Representatives may determine) that bears the same proportion to the total number of shares of Option Stock to be sold on such Delivery Date as the number of shares of Firm Stock set forth in Schedule 1 hereto opposite the name of such Underwriter bears to the total number of shares of Firm Stock.

The price of both the Firm Stock and any Option Stock purchased by the Underwriters shall be $ per share.

The Company and the Selling Stockholders shall not be obligated to deliver any of the Firm Stock or Option Stock to be delivered on the applicable Delivery Date, except upon payment for all such Stock to be purchased on such Delivery Date as provided herein.

Time shall be of the essence, and delivery at the time and place specified pursuant to this Agreement is a further condition of the obligation of each Underwriter hereunder. The Company and the Selling Stockholders shall deliver the Firm Stock through the facilities of DTC unless the Representatives shall otherwise instruct.

The option granted in Section 3 will expire 30 days after the date of this Agreement and may be exercised in whole or from time to time in part by written notice being given to the Company and the Selling Stockholders by the Representatives; provided that if such date falls on a day that is not a business day, the option granted in Section 3 will expire on the next succeeding business day. Such notice shall set forth the aggregate number of shares of Option Stock as to which the option is being exercised, the names in which the shares of Option Stock are to be registered, the denominations in which the shares of Option Stock are to be issued and the date and time, as determined by the Representatives, when the shares of Option Stock are to be delivered; provided, however, that this date and time shall not be earlier than the Initial Delivery Date nor earlier than the second business day after the date on which the option shall have been exercised nor later than the fifth business day after the date on which the option shall have been exercised. Each date and time the shares of Option Stock are delivered is sometimes referred to as an “Option Stock Delivery Date,” and the Initial Delivery Date and any Option Stock Delivery Date are sometimes each referred to as a “Delivery Date.”

(iii) They have carefully examined the Registration Statement, the Prospectus and the Pricing Disclosure Package, and, in their opinion, (A)(1) the Registration Statement, as of the Effective Date, (2) the Prospectus, as of its date and on the applicable Delivery Date, or (3) the Pricing Disclosure Package (together with the information included on Schedule 4 hereto, as of the Applicable Time, did not and do not contain any untrue statement of a material fact and did not and do not omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, and (B) since the Effective Date, no event has occurred that should have been set forth in a supplement or amendment to the Registration Statement, the Prospectus or any Issuer Free Writing Prospectus that has not been so set forth;

(k) Each Selling Stockholder shall have furnished to the Representatives on such Delivery Date a certificate, dated such Delivery Date, signed by, or on behalf of, the Selling Stockholder stating that the representations and warranties of the Selling Stockholder contained herein are true and correct on and as of such Delivery Date and that the Selling Stockholder has complied with all its agreements contained herein and has satisfied all the conditions on its part to be performed or satisfied hereunder at or prior to such Delivery Date.

(l) Except as described in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus, (i) neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries shall have sustained since the date of the latest audited financial statements included in the most recent Preliminary Prospectus any loss or interference with its business from fire, explosion, flood or other calamity, whether or not covered by insurance, or from any labor dispute or court or governmental action, order or decree, or (ii) since such date there shall not have been any change in the capital stock or long-term debt of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or any change, or any development involving a prospective change, in or affecting the condition (financial or otherwise), stockholders' equity, results of operations, properties, business or prospects of the Company and its subsidiaries taken as a whole, the effect of which, in any such case described in clause (i) or (ii), is, in the judgment of the Representatives, so material and adverse as to make it impracticable or inadvisable to proceed with the public offering or the delivery of the Stock being delivered on such Delivery Date on the terms and in the manner contemplated in the Prospectus.

(m) Subsequent to the execution and delivery of this Agreement (i) no downgrading shall have occurred in the rating accorded the Company's or any of its subsidiaries' debt securities by any "nationally recognized statistical rating organization," as that term is defined by the Commission for purposes of Rule 436(g)(2) of the Rules and Regulations and (ii) no such organization shall have publicly announced that it has under surveillance or review, with possible negative implications, its rating of any of the Company's or any of its subsidiaries' debt securities.

(n) Subsequent to the execution and delivery of this Agreement there shall not have occurred any of the following: (i) trading in securities generally on the New York Stock Exchange or the American Stock Exchange or in the over-the-counter market, or trading in any securities of the Company on any exchange or in the over-the-counter market, shall have been suspended or materially limited or the settlement of such trading generally shall have been materially disrupted or minimum prices shall have been established on any such exchange or such market by the Commission, by such exchange or by any other regulatory body or governmental authority having jurisdiction, (ii) a banking moratorium shall have been declared by federal or state authorities, (iii) the United States shall have become engaged in hostilities (for the avoidance of doubt, excluding the current hostilities in Iraq), there shall have been an escalation in hostilities involving the United States or there shall have been a declaration of a national emergency or war by the United States or (iv) there shall have occurred such a material adverse change in general economic, political or financial conditions, including without limitation as a result of terrorist activities after the date hereof, (or the effect of international conditions on the financial markets in the United States shall be such) as to make it, in the judgment of the Representatives, impracticable or inadvisable to proceed with the public offering or delivery of the Stock being delivered on such Delivery Date on the terms and in the manner contemplated in the Prospectus.

(o) The New York Stock Exchange, Inc. shall have approved the Stock for listing, subject only to official notice of issuance and evidence of satisfactory distribution.

(p) The Lock-Up Agreements among Lehman Brothers Inc., on behalf of the Underwriters, and the officers, directors and stockholders of the Company set forth in Schedule 5 hereto, delivered to Lehman Brothers Inc. on or before the date of this Agreement, shall be in full force and effect on such Delivery Date.

All opinions, letters, evidence and certificates mentioned above or elsewhere in this Agreement shall be deemed to be in compliance with the provisions hereof only if they are in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to counsel for the Underwriters. The Representatives may in their sole discretion waive on behalf of the Underwriters compliance with any conditions to the obligations of the Underwriters hereunder.

SECTION 10. Indemnification and Contribution.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each Underwriter, its directors, officers and employees and each person, if any, who controls any Underwriter within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act, and each Selling Stockholder, its directors, officers and employees, and each person, if any, who controls any Selling Stockholder within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act, from and against any loss, claim, damage or liability, joint or several, or any action in respect thereof (including, but not limited to, any loss, claim, damage, liability or action relating to purchases and sales of Stock), to which that Underwriter, Selling Stockholder, director, officer, employee or controlling person may become subject, under the Securities Act or otherwise, insofar as such loss, claim, damage, liability or action arises out of, or is based upon, (i) any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in (A) any Preliminary Prospectus, the Registration Statement or the Prospectus or in any amendment or supplement thereto, (B) any Issuer Free Writing Prospectus or in any amendment or supplement thereto, (C) any Permitted Issuer Information used or referred to in any "free writing prospectus" (as defined in Rule 405) used or referred to by any Underwriter or (D) any "road show" (as defined in Rule 433) not constituting an Issuer Free Writing Prospectus (a "Non-Prospectus Road Show"), or (ii) the omission or alleged omission to state in any Preliminary Prospectus, the Registration Statement, the Prospectus, any Issuer Free Writing Prospectus or in any amendment or supplement thereto, or in any Permitted Issuer Information, any Non-Prospectus Road Show, any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, and shall reimburse each Underwriter and Selling Stockholder and each such director, officer, employee or controlling person promptly upon demand for any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by that Underwriter, Selling Stockholder, director, officer, employee or controlling person in connection with investigating or defending or preparing to defend against any such loss, claim, damage, liability or action as such expenses are incurred; provided, however, that the Company shall not be liable to any Underwriter in any such case to the extent that any such loss, claim, damage, liability or action arises out of, or is based upon, any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission made in any Preliminary Prospectus, the Registration Statement, the Prospectus, any Issuer Free Writing Prospectus or in any such amendment or supplement thereto or in any Permitted Issuer Information or Non-Prospectus Road Show, in reliance upon and in conformity with written information concerning such Underwriter furnished to the Company through the Representatives by or on behalf of any Underwriter specifically for inclusion therein which information consists solely of the information specified in Section 10(f); and provided, further, that the Company shall not be liable to any Selling Stockholder or to any director, officer, employee or controlling person of that Selling Stockholder to the extent that any such loss, claim, damage, liability or action arises out of, or is based upon, any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission made in any Preliminary Prospectus, the Registration Statement, the Prospectus, any Issuer Free Writing Prospectus or in any such amendment or supplement thereto or in any Permitted Issuer Information or Non-Prospectus Road Show, in reliance upon and in conformity with written information concerning any Selling Stockholder furnished to the Company by or on behalf of any Selling Stockholder specifically for inclusion therein. The foregoing indemnity agreement is in addition to any liability which the Company may otherwise have to (i) any Underwriter or to any director, officer, employee or controlling person of that Underwriter or (ii) any Selling Stockholder or to any director, officer, employee or controlling person of that Selling Stockholder.

(b) Each Selling Stockholder, severally but not jointly, shall indemnify and hold harmless each Underwriter, its directors, officers and employees, and each person, if any, who controls any Underwriter within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act, from and against any loss, claim, damage or liability, joint or several, or any action in respect thereof (including, but not limited to, any loss, claim, damage, liability or action relating to purchases and sales of Stock), to which that Underwriter, director, officer, employee or controlling person may become subject, under the Securities Act or otherwise, insofar as such loss, claim, damage, liability or action arises out of, or is based upon, (i) any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any Preliminary Prospectus, the Registration Statement, the Prospectus, any Issuer Free Writing Prospectus or in any amendment or supplement thereto or in any Permitted Issuer Information, any Non-Prospectus Road Show or any "free writing prospectus" (as defined in Rule 405), prepared by or on behalf of such Selling Stockholder or used or referred to by such Selling Stockholder in connection with the offering of the Stock in violation of Section 7(d) (a "Selling Stockholder Free Writing Prospectus"), or (ii) the omission or alleged omission to state in any Preliminary Prospectus, Registration Statement, the Prospectus, any Issuer Free Writing Prospectus or in any amendment or supplement thereto or in any Permitted Issuer Information, any Non-Prospectus Road Show or any Selling Stockholder Free Writing Prospectus, any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, and shall reimburse each Underwriter, its directors, officers and employees and each such controlling person promptly upon demand for any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by that Underwriter, its directors, officers and employees or controlling persons in connection with investigating or defending or preparing to defend against any such loss, claim, damage, liability or action as such expenses are incurred; provided, however, that each Selling Stockholder shall be liable in any such case only to the extent that any such loss, claim, damage, liability or action arises out of, or is based upon, any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission made in any Preliminary Prospectus, the Registration Statement, the Prospectus, any Issuer Free Writing Prospectus or any such amendment or supplement or in any Permitted Issuer Information or Non-Prospectus Road Show in reliance upon and in conformity with written information concerning such Selling Stockholder furnished to the Company by such Selling Stockholder specifically for inclusion therein or arises out of, or is based upon, any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission made in any Selling Stockholder Free Writing Prospectus. The liability of each Selling Stockholder under the indemnity agreement contained in this paragraph shall be limited to an amount equal to the total net proceeds from the offering of the shares of the Stock purchased under this Agreement received by such Selling Stockholder, as set forth in the table on the cover page of the Prospectus. The foregoing indemnity agreement is in addition to any liability that the Selling Stockholders may otherwise have to any Underwriter or any officer, employee or controlling person of that Underwriter.

(c) Each Underwriter, severally and not jointly, shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company, each Selling Stockholder, their respective directors, officers and employees, and each person, if any, who controls the Company or such Selling Stockholder within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act, from and against any loss, claim, damage or liability, joint or several, or any action in respect thereof, to which the Company, such Selling Stockholder or any such director, officer, employee or controlling person may become subject, under the Securities Act or otherwise, insofar as such loss, claim, damage, liability or action arises out of, or is based upon, (i) any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any Preliminary Prospectus, the Registration Statement, the Prospectus, any Issuer Free Writing Prospectus or in any amendment or supplement thereto or in any Non-Prospectus Road Show, or (ii) the omission or alleged omission to state in any Preliminary Prospectus, the Registration Statement, the Prospectus, any Issuer Free Writing Prospectus or in any amendment or supplement thereto or in any Non-Prospectus Road Show, any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, but in each case only to the extent that the untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission was made in reliance upon and in conformity with written information concerning such Underwriter furnished to the Company through the Representatives by or on behalf of that Underwriter specifically for inclusion therein which information is limited to the information specified in Section 10(f), and shall reimburse the Company and any such director, officer or controlling person for any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by the Company, such Selling Stockholder or any such director, officer, employee or controlling person in connection with investigating or defending or preparing to defend against any such loss, claim, damage, liability or action as such expenses are incurred. The foregoing indemnity agreement is in addition to any liability that any Underwriter may otherwise have to the Company, such Selling Stockholder or any such director, officer, employee or controlling person.

(d) Promptly after receipt by an indemnified party under this Section 10 of notice of any claim or the commencement of any action, the indemnified party shall, if a claim in respect thereof is to be made against the indemnifying party under this Section 10, notify the indemnifying party in writing of the claim or the commencement of that action; provided, however, that the failure to notify the indemnifying party shall not relieve it from any liability which it may have under this Section 10 except to the extent it has been materially prejudiced by such failure and, provided further, that the failure to notify the indemnifying party shall not relieve it from any liability which it may have to an indemnified party otherwise than under this Section 10. If any such claim or action shall be brought against an indemnified party, and it shall notify the indemnifying party thereof, the indemnifying party shall be entitled to participate therein and, to the extent that it wishes, jointly with any other similarly notified indemnifying party, to assume the defense thereof with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the indemnified party. After notice from the indemnifying party to the indemnified party of its election to assume the defense of such claim or action, the indemnifying party shall not be liable to the indemnified party under this Section 10 for any legal or other expenses subsequently incurred by the indemnified party in connection with the defense thereof other than reasonable costs of investigation; provided, however, that the indemnified party shall have the right to employ counsel to represent jointly the indemnified party and those other indemnified parties and their respective directors, officers, employees and controlling persons who may be subject to liability arising out of any claim in respect of which indemnity may be sought under this Section 10 if (i) the indemnified party and the indemnifying party shall have so mutually agreed; (ii) the indemnifying party has failed within a reasonable time to retain counsel reasonably satisfactory to the indemnified party; (iii) the indemnified party and its directors, officers, employees and controlling persons shall have reasonably concluded that there may be legal defenses available to them that are different from or in addition to those available to the indemnifying party; or (iv) the named parties in any such proceeding (including any impleaded parties) include both the indemnified parties or their respective directors, officers, employees or controlling persons, on the one hand, and the indemnifying party, on the other hand, and representation of both sets of parties by the same counsel would be inappropriate due to actual or potential differing interests between them, and in any such event the fees and expenses of such separate counsel shall be paid by the indemnifying party. No indemnifying party shall (i) without the prior written consent of the indemnified parties (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), settle or compromise or consent to the entry of any judgment with respect to any pending or threatened claim, action, suit or proceeding in respect of which indemnification or contribution may be sought hereunder (whether or not the indemnified parties are actual or potential parties to such claim or action) unless such settlement, compromise or consent includes an unconditional release of each indemnified party from all liability arising out of such claim, action, suit or proceeding and does not include any findings of fact or admissions of fault or culpability as to the indemnified party, or (ii) be liable for any settlement of any such action effected without its written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), but if settled with the consent of the indemnifying party or if there be a final judgment for the plaintiff in any such action, the indemnifying party agrees to indemnify and hold harmless any indemnified party from and against any loss or liability by reason of such settlement or judgment.

(e) If the indemnification provided for in this Section 10 shall for any reason be unavailable to or insufficient to hold harmless an indemnified party under Section 10(a), 10(b) or 10(c) in respect of any loss, claim, damage or liability, or any action in respect thereof, referred to therein, then each indemnifying party shall, in lieu of indemnifying such indemnified party, contribute to the amount paid or payable by such indemnified party as a result of such loss, claim, damage or liability, or action in respect thereof, (i) in such proportion as shall be appropriate to reflect the relative benefits received by the Company and the Selling Stockholders, on the one hand, and the Underwriters, on the other, from the offering of the Stock or (ii) if the allocation provided by clause (i) above is not permitted by applicable law, in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect not only the relative benefits referred to in clause (i) above but also the relative fault of the Company and the Selling Stockholders, on the one hand, and the Underwriters, on the other, with respect to the statements or omissions that resulted in such loss, claim, damage or liability, or action in respect thereof, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative benefits received by the Company and the Selling Stockholders, on the one hand, and the Underwriters, on the other, with respect to such offering shall be deemed to be in the same proportion as the total net proceeds from the offering of the Stock purchased under this Agreement (before deducting expenses) received by the Company and the Selling

Stockholders, as set forth in the table on the cover page of the Prospectus, on the one hand, and the total underwriting discounts and commissions received by the Underwriters with respect to the shares of the Stock purchased under this Agreement, as set forth in the table on the cover page of the Prospectus, on the other hand. The relative fault shall be determined by reference to whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or omission or alleged omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by the Company, the Selling Stockholders or the Underwriters, the intent of the parties and their relative knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such statement or omission. The Company, the Selling Stockholders and the Underwriters agree that it would not be just and equitable if contributions pursuant to this Section 10(e) were to be determined by pro rata allocation (even if the Underwriters were treated as one entity for such purpose) or by any other method of allocation that does not take into account the equitable considerations referred to herein. The amount paid or payable by an indemnified party as a result of the loss, claim, damage or liability, or action in respect thereof, referred to above in this Section shall be deemed to include, for purposes of this Section 10(e), any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by such indemnified party in connection with investigating or defending any such action or claim. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 10(e), (i) no Underwriter shall be required to contribute any amount in excess of the amount by which the total price at which the Stock underwritten by it and distributed to the public was offered to the public exceeds the amount of any damages which such Underwriter has otherwise paid or become liable to pay by reason of any untrue or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission and (ii) no Selling Stockholder shall be required to contribute any amount in excess of the total net proceeds from the offering of the shares of the Stock purchased under this Agreement received by such Selling Stockholder. No person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation. The Underwriters' obligations to contribute as provided in this Section 10(e) are several in proportion to their respective underwriting obligations and not joint.

(f) The Underwriters severally confirm and the Company and each Selling Stockholder acknowledges and agrees that the statements regarding delivery of shares by the Underwriters set forth on the cover page of, and the concession and reallowance figures and the paragraphs relating to stabilization, electronic distribution and discretionary sales by the Underwriters appearing under the caption "Underwriting" in, the most recent Preliminary Prospectus and the Prospectus constitute the only information concerning such Underwriters furnished in writing to the Company by or on behalf of the Underwriters specifically for inclusion in any Preliminary Prospectus, the Registration Statement, the Prospectus, any Issuer Free Writing Prospectus or in any amendment or supplement thereto or in any Non-Prospectus Road Show.

SECTION 11. Defaulting Underwriters. If, on any Delivery Date, any Underwriter defaults in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, the remaining non-defaulting Underwriters shall be obligated to purchase the Stock that the defaulting Underwriter agreed but failed to purchase on such Delivery Date in the respective proportions which the number of shares of the Firm Stock set forth opposite the name of each remaining non-defaulting Underwriter in Schedule 1 hereto bears to the total number of shares of the Firm Stock set forth opposite the names of all the remaining non-defaulting Underwriters in Schedule 1 hereto; provided, however, that the remaining non-defaulting Underwriters shall not be obligated to purchase any of the Stock on such Delivery Date if the total number of shares of the Stock that the defaulting Underwriter or Underwriters agreed but failed to purchase on such date exceeds 9.09% of the total number of shares of the Stock to be purchased on such Delivery Date, and any remaining non-defaulting Underwriter shall not be obligated to purchase more than 110% of the number of shares of the Stock that it agreed to purchase on such Delivery Date pursuant to the terms of Section 3. If the foregoing maximums are exceeded, the remaining non-defaulting Underwriters, or those other underwriters satisfactory to the Representatives who so agree, shall have the right, but shall not be obligated, to purchase, in such proportion as may be agreed upon among them, all the Stock to be purchased on such Delivery Date. If the remaining Underwriters or other underwriters satisfactory to the Representatives do not elect to purchase the shares that the defaulting Underwriter or Underwriters agreed but failed to purchase on such Delivery Date, this Agreement (or, with respect to any Option Stock Delivery Date, the obligation of the Underwriters to purchase, and of the Company to sell, the Option Stock) shall terminate without liability on the part of any non-defaulting Underwriter or the Company or the Selling Stockholders, except that the Company will continue to be liable for the payment of expenses to the extent set forth in Sections 8 and 13. As used in this Agreement, the term “Underwriter” includes, for all purposes of this Agreement unless the context requires otherwise, any party not listed in Schedule 1 hereto that, pursuant to this Section 11, purchases Stock that a defaulting Underwriter agreed but failed to purchase.

Nothing contained herein shall relieve a defaulting Underwriter of any liability it may have to the Company and the Selling Stockholders for damages caused by its default. If other Underwriters are obligated or agree to purchase the Stock of a defaulting or withdrawing Underwriter, either the Representatives or the Company may postpone the Delivery Date for up to seven full business days in order to effect any changes that in the opinion of counsel for the Company or counsel for the Underwriters may be necessary in the Registration Statement, the Prospectus or in any other document or arrangement.

SECTION 12. Termination. The obligations of the Underwriters hereunder may be terminated by the Representatives by notice given to and received by the Company and the Selling Stockholders prior to delivery of and payment for the Firm Stock if, prior to that time, any of the events described in Sections 9(l), 9(m) or 9(n), shall have occurred or if the Underwriters shall decline to purchase the Stock for any reason permitted under this Agreement.

SECTION 13. Reimbursement of Underwriters' Expenses. If (a) the Company or any Selling Stockholder shall fail to tender the Stock for delivery to the Underwriters for any reason or (b) the Underwriters shall decline to purchase the Stock for any reason permitted under this Agreement, the Company will reimburse the Underwriters for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including fees and disbursements of counsel) incurred by the Underwriters in connection with this Agreement and the proposed purchase of the Stock, and upon demand the Company shall pay the full amount thereof to the Representatives. If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 11 by reason of the default of one or more Underwriters, neither the Company nor any Selling Stockholder shall be obligated to reimburse any defaulting Underwriter on account of those expenses.

SECTION 14. Research Analyst Independence. The Company acknowledges that the Underwriters' research analysts and research departments are required to be independent from their respective investment banking divisions and are subject to certain regulations and internal policies, and that such Underwriters' research analysts may hold views and make statements or investment recommendations and/or publish research reports with respect to the Company and/or the offering that differ from the views of their respective investment banking divisions. The Company and the Selling Stockholders hereby waive and release, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any claims that the Company or the Selling Stockholders may have against the Underwriters with respect to any conflict of interest that may arise from the fact that the views expressed by their independent research analysts and research departments may be different from or inconsistent with the views or advice communicated to the Company or the Selling Stockholders by such Underwriters' investment banking divisions. The Company and the Selling Stockholders acknowledge that each of the Underwriters is a full service securities firm and as such from time to time, subject to applicable securities laws, may effect transactions for its own account or the account of its customers and hold long or short positions in debt or equity securities of the companies that may be the subject of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

SECTION 15. No Fiduciary Duty. The Company and the Selling Stockholders acknowledge and agree that in connection with this offering, sale of the Stock or any other services the Underwriters may be deemed to be providing hereunder, notwithstanding any preexisting relationship, advisory or otherwise, between the parties or any oral representations or assurances previously or subsequently made by the Underwriters: (i) no fiduciary or agency relationship between the Company, Selling Stockholders and any other person, on the one hand, and the Underwriters, on the other, exists; (ii) the Underwriters are not acting as advisors, expert or otherwise, to either the Company or the Selling Stockholders, including, without limitation, with respect to the determination of the public offering price of the Stock, and such relationship between the Company and the Selling Stockholders, on the one hand, and the Underwriters, on the other, is entirely and solely commercial, based on arms-length negotiations; (iii) any duties and obligations that the Underwriters may have to the Company or Selling Stockholders shall be limited to those duties and obligations specifically stated herein; and (iv) the Underwriters and their respective affiliates may have interests that differ from those of the Company and the Selling Stockholders. The Company and the Selling Stockholders hereby waive any claims that the Company or the Selling Stockholders may have against the Underwriters with respect to any breach of fiduciary duty in connection with this offering.

SECTION 16. Notices, Etc. All statements, requests, notices and agreements hereunder shall be in writing, and:

(a) if to the Underwriters, shall be delivered or sent by mail or facsimile transmission to the Representatives, c/o Lehman Brothers Inc., 745 Seventh Avenue, New York, New York 10019, Attention: Syndicate Registration (Fax: 646-834-8133), with a copy, in the case of any notice pursuant to Section 10(d), to the Director of Litigation, Office of the General Counsel, Lehman Brothers Inc., 399 Park Avenue, 10th Floor, New York, New York 10022 (Fax: 212-520-0421);

(b) if to the Company, shall be delivered or sent by mail or facsimile transmission to the address of the Company set forth in the Registration Statement, Attention: Michael Cavalier (Fax: 972-665-1004), with a copy to Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer & Feld,

L.L.P., Attention: Terry M. Schpok, P.C., 1700 Pacific Avenue, Suite 4100, Dallas, Texas 75201; and

(c) if to any Selling Stockholder, shall be delivered or sent by mail or facsimile transmission to such Selling Stockholder at the address set forth on Schedule 2 hereto.

Any such statements, requests, notices or agreements shall take effect at the time of receipt thereof. The Company and the Selling Stockholders shall be entitled to act and rely upon any request, consent, notice or agreement given or made on behalf of the Underwriters by the Representatives.

SECTION 17. Persons Entitled to Benefit of Agreement. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Underwriters, the Company, the Selling Stockholders and their respective personal representatives and successors. This Agreement and the terms and provisions hereof are for the sole benefit of only those persons, except that (A) the representations, warranties, indemnities and agreements of the Company and the Selling Stockholders contained in this Agreement shall also be deemed to be for the benefit of the directors, officers and employees of the Underwriters and each person or persons, if any, who control any Underwriter within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act, (B) the representations, warranties, indemnities and agreements of the Company contained in Section 10(a) of this Agreement shall be deemed to be for the benefit of the directors, officers and employees of the Selling Stockholders, and each person, if any, who controls any Selling Stockholder within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act, and (C) the indemnity agreement of the Underwriters contained in Section 10(c) of this Agreement shall be deemed to be for the benefit of the directors of the Company, the officers of the Company who have signed the Registration Statement and any person controlling the Company within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act and of the directors, officers and employees, and each person, if any, who controls any Selling Stockholder within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act. Nothing in this Agreement is intended or shall be construed to give any person, other than the persons referred to in this Section 17, any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or in respect of this Agreement or any provision contained herein.

SECTION 18. Survival. The respective indemnities, representations, warranties and agreements of the Company, the Selling Stockholders and the Underwriters contained in this Agreement or made by or on behalf of them, respectively, pursuant to this Agreement, shall survive the delivery of and payment for the Stock and shall remain in full force and effect, regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of any of them or any person controlling any of them.

SECTION 19. Definition of the Terms "Business Day" and "Subsidiary". For purposes of this Agreement, (a) "business day" means each Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday or Friday that is not a day on which banking institutions in New York are generally authorized or obligated by law or executive order to close and (b) "subsidiary" has the meaning set forth in Rule 405 of the Rules and Regulations.

SECTION 20. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York.

SECTION 21. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts and, if executed in more than one counterpart, the executed counterparts shall each be deemed to be an original but all such counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

SECTION 22. Headings. The headings herein are inserted for convenience of reference only and are not intended to be part of, or to affect the meaning or interpretation of, this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties to this Agreement hereby agree as follows:

1. Board of Directors.

(i) two representatives designated by the Mitchell Investors (determined by a vote of the Mitchell Investors owning a majority of the Stockholder Shares held by all Mitchell Investors) (the “Mitchell Nominees”), who shall be initially: Lee Roy Mitchell and one other individual to be nominated by Lee Roy Mitchell; provided that at least one of such Mitchell Nominees shall be Independent so long as the Company is required by NYSE Rules to have a majority of Independent directors on the Board;

(ii) five representatives designated by MDCP (the “MDCP Nominees”) provided that at least three of such MDCP Nominees shall be Independent so long as the Company is required by NYSE Rules to have a majority of Independent directors on the Board;

(iii) one representative designated by the Quadrangle Investors (the “Quadrangle Nominee”), who shall initially be Peter Ezersky; provided that such Quadrangle Nominee shall be Independent so long as the Company is required by NYSE Rules to have a majority of Independent directors on the Board; and

(iv) one representative designated by the Syufy Investor (the “Syufy Nominee”), who shall initially be Raymond W. Syufy; and one Observer (as defined below) designated by the Syufy Investor in accordance with Section 1(a)(iv) below, who shall initially be Joseph A. Syufy.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that a Person loses its right to designate a director for appointment or nomination in accordance with Section 1(c) below, the director designated by such Person may be removed at the request of a majority of the Board (excluding such director or directors) upon the occurrence of such event and the total authorized number of directors may be reduced upon such action by a majority of the Board (excluding such director or directors) by the number of directors that such Person loses its rights to nominate.

(c) The representatives designated hereunder by any Stockholder shall be nominated or appointed, as the case may be, to serve as a Class I, Class II or Class III director (as defined in the Company’s Certificate of Incorporation), as the case may be, as set forth on the Schedule of Directors attached hereto. The initial term of each Class I, Class II and Class III Director shall expire as set forth in the Company’s Certificate of Incorporation. Any director designated by a Stockholder hereunder to fill a vacancy on the board of directors shall be designated as the same class of director as the director whose termination of services as a director created such vacancy or to fill a vacancy as listed on the Schedule of Directors.

(d) The Company shall pay the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by each director in connection with attending the meetings of the Board and any committee thereof.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein,

(i) at such time as the Mitchell Investors and their Permitted Transferees hold in the aggregate less than 3% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock; the rights of the Mitchell Investors under this Section 1 to nominate any Mitchell Nominee shall terminate automatically and cease to have any further force or effect. In the event that the Mitchell Investors and their Permitted Transferees hold in the aggregate less than 3% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, the Mitchell Investors shall have the right to designate one observer to the Board (an “Observer”), which shall either be Lee Roy Mitchell or Tandy Mitchell. An Observer shall be entitled to attend all meetings of the Board but shall not be entitled to (x) attend meetings of the Board with counsel which may constitute privileged communications, (y) attend meetings of the Board which include topics of discussion which may constitute a conflict of interest between the Company and the Mitchell Investors, or (z) vote on any matters voted on by the Board. The determination of whether a conflict of interest exists for purposes of clause (y) in the immediately preceding sentence shall be made by a majority of the Board. If such a determination is made prior to a Board meeting, the Board shall provide written notice to the Mitchell Investors setting forth in reasonable detail the basis for such conflict of interest. Such a determination may be made during an ongoing Board meeting by a majority of the Board and, upon such determination, the Observer shall immediately leave the meeting. Upon the conclusion of the discussion (including any action by the Board thereon) which constitutes a conflict of interest between the Company and the Mitchell Investors, the Observer shall be invited to return to the meeting. The Mitchell Investors’ right to designate an Observer shall terminate automatically and cease to have any further force or effect upon the earlier to occur of (i) the Observer designated under this Section 1(e)(i) is not Lee Roy Mitchell or Tandy Mitchell; and (ii) the Mitchell Investors and their Permitted Transferees cease to hold in the aggregate at least 2% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock. The right of the Mitchell Investors to designate an Observer hereunder shall not be transferable or assignable under any circumstances;

(ii) the rights of the Mitchell Investors under this Section 1 shall terminate automatically and cease to have any further force or effect at such time as the Mitchell Investors and their Permitted Transferees hold, directly or indirectly, more than a 5% interest of any business (other than the Company) that owns, operates or manages theatres with more than 800 movie screens in the aggregate in the Western Hemisphere;

(iii) the rights of the Quadrangle Investors under this Section 1 to nominate the Quadrangle Nominee shall terminate automatically and cease to have any further force or effect at such time as the Quadrangle Investors and their Permitted Transferees hold in the aggregate less than 3% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock. In the event that the Quadrangle Investors and their Permitted Transferees hold in the aggregate less than 3% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, the Quadrangle Investors shall have the right to designate an Observer, which shall be a member or employee of Quadrangle Group LLC. An Observer shall be entitled to attend all meetings of the Board but shall not be entitled to (x) attend meetings of the Board with the Company’s counsel or the Board’s special counsel which may constitute privileged communications, (y) attend meetings of the Board which include topics of discussion which may constitute a conflict of interest between the Company and the Quadrangle Investors or (z) vote on any matters voted on by the Board. The determination of whether a conflict of interest exists for purpose of clause (y) in the immediately preceding sentence shall be made by a majority of the Board. If such a determination is made prior to a Board meeting, the Board shall provide written notice to the Quadrangle Investors setting forth in reasonable detail the basis for such conflict of interest. Such a determination may be made during an ongoing Board meeting by a majority of the Board and upon such determination the Observer shall immediately leave the meeting. Upon the conclusion of the discussion (including any action by the Board thereon) which constitutes a conflict of interest between the Company and the Quadrangle Investors, the Observer shall be invited to return to the meeting. The Quadrangle Investors' right to designate an Observer shall terminate automatically and cease to have any further force or effect upon the earlier to occur of (i) the Observer designated under this Section 1(e)(iii) is not a member or employee of Quadrangle Group LLC (it being understood and agreed that, should the current Observer at any time cease to be a member or employee of Quadrangle Group LLC, the Quadrangle Investors' right to designate an Observer shall not terminate unless the Quadrangle Investors do not designate a replacement Observer who is a member or employee of the Quadrangle Group LLC within 5 business days thereof); and (ii) the Quadrangle Investors and their Permitted Transferees cease to hold in the aggregate at least 2% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock. The rights of the Quadrangle Investors to nominate the Quadrangle Director or designate an Observer hereunder shall not be transferable or assignable under any circumstances, except to a Permitted Transferee of the Quadrangle Investors;

(iv) the rights of the Syufy Investor under this Section 1 to nominate the Syufy Nominee shall terminate automatically and cease to have any further force or effect at such time as the Syufy Investor and its Permitted Transferees hold in the aggregate less than 3% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock. In addition, the rights of the Syufy Investor under this Section 1 to nominate the Syufy Nominee and designate an Observer shall terminate automatically and cease to have any further force or effect at such time as (1) the Syufy Investor, Raymond W. Syufy or Joseph Syufy breach the terms of Section 3 of the Non-Competition and Non-Disclosure Agreement, dated August 7, 2006, by and among the Syufy Investor, Raymond W. Syufy, Joseph Syufy and the Company (the "Syufy Non-Competition Agreement") (this clause (1), a "Non-Curable Termination Event") or (2) the Syufy Investor or its Permitted Transferees, Raymond Syufy or Joseph Syufy (each, a "Syufy Person") holds, directly or indirectly, any interest of any business (other than the Company) that owns, operates or manages movie theatres that are not drive-in theaters (a "Competing Business") but where such ownership would not violate Section 3 of the Syufy Non-Competition Agreement (this clause (2), a "Curable Termination Event"); provided that the foregoing loss of rights upon the ownership, operation or management of a Competing Business shall not apply to (i) holding up to a 5% interest in any publicly traded company; or (ii) holding an ownership interest in a Competing Business that (x) owns, operates or manages less than 100 screens in the aggregate in any one or more states in which the Company does not, at the time the Syufy Person first acquires such ownership interest, own, operate or manage a movie theater and/or (y) owns, operates or manages less than 32 screens in the aggregate in any one or more states in which the Company, at the time the Syufy Person first acquires such ownership interest, owns, operates or manages a movie theater. For purposes of calculating the number of screens for purposes of clause (ii) of the foregoing sentence, movie screens acquired by a Syufy Person following an event of default under a lease under which the Syufy Person is the lessor and which gives such lessor the right to regain possession of and operate such theatre shall be disregarded unless the Syufy Person demolishes and rebuilds a new theatre on the property. In the event that the rights of the Syufy Investor to nominate the Syufy Nominee terminates by reason of a Curable Termination Event, the Syufy Investor shall have the right to cure such Curable Termination Event and the Syufy Investor's rights to nominate the Syufy Nominee and designate an Observer shall be reinstated at such time as there is no longer a Curable Termination Event in effect. In the event that the Syufy Investor and its Permitted Transferees hold in the aggregate less than 3% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, the Syufy Investor shall continue to have the right to designate an Observer, which shall be a director of the general partner of, or an executive officer of, Syufy Enterprises; provided, however, that this right to designate an Observer shall not be granted to the Syufy Investor if the Syufy Investor is in violation of the terms of the preceding sentence. An Observer shall be entitled to attend all meetings of the Board but shall not be entitled to (x) attend meetings of the Board with the Company's counsel or the Board's special counsel which may constitute privileged communications, (y) attend meetings of the Board which include topics of discussion which may constitute a conflict of interest between the Company and the Syufy Investor or (z) vote on any matters voted on by the Board. The determination of whether a conflict of interest exists for purpose of clause (y) in the immediately preceding sentence shall be made by a majority of the Board. If such a determination is made prior to a Board meeting, the Board shall provide written notice to the Syufy Investor setting forth in reasonable detail the basis for such conflict of interest. Such a determination may be made during an ongoing Board meeting by a majority of the Board and upon such determination the Observer shall immediately leave the meeting. Upon the conclusion of the discussion (including any action by the Board thereon) which constitutes a conflict of interest between the Company and the Syufy Investor, the Observer shall be invited to return to the meeting. The Syufy Investor's right to designate an Observer shall terminate automatically and cease to have any further force or effect upon the earlier to occur of (i) the Observer designated under this Section 1(e)(iii) is not a director of the general partner or an executive officer of Syufy Enterprises (it being understood and agreed that, should the current Observer at any time cease to be a director of the general partner or an executive officer of Syufy Enterprises, the Syufy Investor's right to designate an Observer shall not terminate unless the Syufy Investor does not designate a replacement Observer who is a member of the board of directors of the general partner or an executive officer of Syufy Enterprises within 5 business days thereof); and (ii) the Syufy Investor and their Permitted Transferees cease to hold in the aggregate at least 2% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock. The rights of the Syufy Investor to nominate the Syufy Nominee or designate an Observer hereunder shall not be transferable or assignable under any circumstances, except to a Permitted Transferee of the Syufy Investor; and

(v) the rights of MDCP under this Section 1 shall terminate automatically and cease to have any further force or effect at such time as MDCP and its Permitted Transferees hold in the aggregate less than 3% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock.

(f) At every meeting of the Board, or a committee thereof, for which Directors are appointed or are nominated to stand for election by stockholders of the Company, each Stockholder will have the right to designate those persons to be appointed or nominated for election to the Board for each Retiring Director that was a prior Nominee of such Stockholder in accordance with this Section 1.

(g) If a vacancy occurs because of the death, disability, disqualification, resignation or removal of a Nominee, the Stockholders who designated such person shall be entitled to designate such person's successors in accordance with this Agreement and the Board, subject to a determination of the Board in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that such action would not constitute a breach of its fiduciary duties or applicable law, shall fill the vacancy with such successor Nominee.

(h) If a Nominee is not nominated or elected to the Board because of the Nominee's death, disability, disqualification, withdrawal as a nominee or for other reason is unavailable or unable to serve on the Board, the Stockholder who designated such person shall be entitled to designate promptly another Nominee and the director position for which such Nominee was nominated shall not be filled pending such designation.

2. Company Obligations.

(a) The Company agrees to use its best efforts to assure that (i) each Nominee is included in the Board's slate of nominees to the stockholders for each election of directors; and (ii) each Nominee is included in the proxy statement prepared by management of the Company in connection with soliciting proxies for every meeting of the stockholders of the Company called with respect to the election of members of the Board, and at every adjournment or postponement thereof, and on every action or approval by written consent of the stockholders of the Company or the Board with respect to the election of members of the Board.

(b) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Company shall not be obligated to cause to be nominated for election to the Board or recommend to the stockholders the election of any Nominee (i) who fails to submit to the Company on a timely basis such questionnaires as the Company may reasonably require of its directors generally and such other information as the Company may reasonably request in connection with the preparation of its filings under the Securities Laws; or (ii) the Board or the Nominating Committee determines in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that such action would constitute a breach of its fiduciary duties or applicable law or violate the Company's Certificate of Incorporation; provided, however, that upon the occurrence of either (i) or (ii) above, the Company shall promptly notify the applicable Stockholder of the occurrence of such event and permit the applicable Stockholder to provide an alternate Nominee sufficiently in advance of any Board action, the meetings of the stockholders called or written action of stockholders with respect to such election of nominees and the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to perform its obligations under Section 2(a) with respect to such alternate Nominee (provided that if the Company provides at least 45 days advance notice of the occurrence of any such event such alternative nominee must be designated by the applicable Stockholder not less than 30 days in advance of any Board action, notice of meeting of the stockholders or written action of stockholders with respect to such election of nominees). The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to perform its obligations under Section 2(a) with respect to such alternate Nominee provided, in no event shall the Company be obligated to postpone, reschedule or delay any scheduled meeting of the stockholders with respect to such election of Nominees.

(c) At any time a vacancy occurs because of the death, disability, resignation or removal of a Nominee, then the Board, or any committee thereof, shall not fill such vacancy until the earliest to occur of (i) such Stockholder has designated a successor Nominee and the Board has filled the vacancy and appointed such successor Nominee; (ii) such Stockholder fails to designate a successor Nominee within 30 business days after receiving notification of the vacancy from the Company; and (iii) such Stockholder has specifically waived its right under this Section 2(c).

(d) At any time that any Stockholder shall have any rights of designation under this Section 2, the Company shall not take any action to reduce the size of the Board from 9, except as provided herein.

3. Termination of Stockholders Agreement. Upon the Effective Time, the Stockholders Agreement shall be hereby terminated and of no further force and effect, and no party thereto shall have any surviving obligations, rights, or duties thereunder after the Effective Time. In the event the Effective Time does not occur on or before the earlier of (i) June 30, 2007 or (ii) the termination of the Underwriting Agreement, this Agreement shall, without further action, become null and void and of no further force and effect.

4.03 Rent Payments. Rent and other sums to be paid by Tenant shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America. All payments shall be made by Tenant to Landlord without notice or demand.

ARTICLE V

TAXES, ASSESSMENTS AND UTILITIES

5.01 Impositions.

A) The term "Impositions" shall mean all real estate taxes, duties or assessments (special or otherwise), water and sewer rents, whether ordinary or extraordinary, general or special, foreseen or unforeseen, of any kind and nature whatsoever, which, at any time during the Lease Term, shall be assessed or levied, or be attributable in any manner to the Entire Premises, or the rents receivable therefrom, or any part thereof or any use thereon or any facility located therein or used in connection therewith, whether or not any of the foregoing shall be a so-called "real estate tax" expressly excluding, however, any other items arising directly or indirectly out of any act or omission of Landlord, any of Landlord's predecessors in title or any other person occurring prior to the commencement of the Term. From and after the Initial Rent Due Date, Tenant shall pay all Impositions assessed, levied or attributable to the Entire Premises and/or the Improvements on the Entire Premises. All Impositions or installments thereof payable with respect to the tax year in which this Lease shall commence, and all Impositions or installments thereof with respect to the tax year in which this Lease shall terminate, shall be pro-rated on a daily basis; provided, however, that assessments or escape assessments assessed as a result of this Lease and/or the construction of Tenant Improvements by Tenant shall not be prorated and shall be paid solely by Tenant; and provided further that assessments attributable to Tenant Improvements made in the final year of the Lease shall be paid solely by Tenant if Tenant demolishes the Tenant Building.

B) With respect to Impositions which are assessed on any Buildings exclusive of the Entire Premises, Tenant shall pay all such impositions. With respect to Impositions which by law may be paid in installments over a period of time, Tenant shall be deemed to have elected (the "Installment Election") to pay such Impositions over the longest period of time permitted by law, regardless of whether Tenant has in fact so elected. With respect to each year in which the Installment Election is effective and with respect to the Impositions associated with Landlord's Buildings subject to the Installment Election, Landlord's share of such Imposition(s) for each year shall be the pro rata share of the amount which would be required to be paid to the collecting authority as if Tenant had in fact made the Installment Election. Landlord shall pay all such real property taxes to the Tenant prior to delinquency. In the event Tenant fails to pay to Landlord such real property taxes as provided herein, Landlord shall pay Tenant in addition interest thereon at the rate of 18% per annum from the delinquency date until such payment has been made.

5.02 Exceptions from Impositions; Charges in Lieu of Impositions.

A) Nothing herein contained shall require Tenant to pay any estate, inheritance, succession, capital levy, corporate franchise, gross receipts, transfer, or income tax of Landlord, nor shall any of the same be deemed to be included within the term "Impositions" as defined herein.

B) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article V, if at any time after the date of this Lease the present method of taxation or assessment shall be changed so that in lieu of, as a substitute for (whether in whole or in part) or as a supplement to (provided such supplemental tax relates to real estate or revenues from real estate and not to other property or business as well) the taxes now levied, assessed or imposed on real estate and buildings and Improvements thereon, a tax shall be imposed, assessed or levied wholly or partly on the Rent, or a tax, assessment, levy or charge, measured or based, in whole or in part, on the Entire Premises or on the rents derived therefrom, shall be imposed on Landlord, then Tenant shall pay taxes so measured or based only to the extent that such taxes would be payable if the Entire Premises were the only property of Landlord subject to such taxes, or the income from operation of the Entire Premises were Landlord's only income, as the case may be. In the event of such assessment, Landlord would pay Tenant any such assessment related to any Buildings other than the Leased Premises located on the Entire Premises.

5.04 Contest of Taxes. Tenant at its sole cost and expense may by appropriate legal proceedings conducted in good faith and with due diligence, contest the amount or validity or application, in whole or in part, of any Imposition or lien therefor, or any other lien, encumbrance or charge against the Premises arising from work done or materials provided to or for Tenant. Tenant shall give Landlord reasonable notice of, and information pertaining to, such contest and regular progress reports with respect thereto. Landlord shall cooperate with any effort pursued by Tenant in accordance with this Section 5.04. Tenant shall indemnify, protect and hold harmless Landlord and the Premises from any lien or liability with respect to any such Imposition or contest thereof, including all costs and expenses related thereto. Landlord shall provide Tenant with copies of notice when received by Landlord from the taxing authorities of any assessments or reassessments of the Premises in sufficient time (but in no event later than thirty (30) days after Landlord's receipt of the same) to enable Tenant to contest the same in accordance with the provisions of this Section 5.04.

5.05 Utilities. Tenant shall pay before delinquency, directly to the appropriate company or governmental agency, all charges for all utilities, including, but not limited to, water, gas, electricity, sewer, power, telephone, other communication services and refuse disposal consumed on the Entire Premises including the Common Area but exclusive of Landlord's buildings.

5.06 Personal Property Taxes. During the term of this Lease, Tenant shall pay before delinquency any and all personal property taxes levied or assessed against any personal property located upon the Premises. If Tenant fails to timely pay such taxes and a lien is filed against the Premises, Landlord may discharge such lien, if Tenant fails to discharge such lien within ten (10) days following Tenant's receipt of notice from Landlord, including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees, together with interest at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum from the date of expenditure, such additional rent being due and payable within ten (10) days of notice thereof.

ARTICLE VI

6.01 Acquisition of Insurance Policies. Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, procure and maintain, or cause to be procured and maintained, during the entire Term the insurance described in this Section (or its then available equivalent), and shall name Landlord and any other parties requested by Landlord as an additional insured.

6.02 Types of Required Insurance. Tenant shall procure and maintain the following:

During the term hereof, Tenant shall keep Tenant's Building (excluding foundations, footings and underground improvements) and personal property as well as all Improvements on the Common area, (Landlord's Buildings excluded), including, but not limited to, signs, outdoor lighting fixtures and fences insured in the name of Landlord and Tenant against damage or destruction by fire and the perils commonly covered under the extended coverage endorsement (with vandalism and malicious mischief coverage) excluding earthquake and flood, but including Builders Risk, to the extent of not less than the full replacement value thereof less any deductible applicable to all of Tenant's theatres insured under a blanket policy. Tenant shall be responsible for determining the amount of fire and extended coverage insurance to be maintained subject to Landlord's consent, which consent is not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The proceeds of such insurance in case of loss or damage shall be held in trust and applied on account of the obligation of Tenant to repair and/or rebuild the Leased Premises pursuant to the Article captioned "Damage Clause" to the extent that such proceeds are required for such purpose. The insurance required to be carried by Tenant under this paragraph may be covered under a so-called "blanket" policy covering other operations of Tenant and its affiliates. Tenant shall name Landlord and any parties requested by Landlord and any holder of a mortgage on Tenant's Building pursuant to a standard mortgage clause with respect to the foregoing hazard insurance, provided such holder agrees with Landlord in writing to disburse such insurance proceeds to Landlord for, and periodically during the course of, repair and restoration of Tenant's Building as set forth in this Lease.

6.03 Terms of Insurance. The policies required under Section 6.02 shall name Landlord as additional insured. Tenant shall provide to Landlord certificates of insurance and copies of policies obtained by Tenant hereunder promptly upon the request of Landlord Further, all policies of insurance described in Section 6.02 shall:

C) Expressly provide that Landlord shall not be required to give notice of accidents or claims and that Landlord shall have no liability for premiums.

D) Be written by insurance companies having a Bests rating of "A-" or better, and such insurance companies shall be reasonably acceptable to Landlord.

6.04 Landlord's Acquisition of Insurance. If Tenant at any time during the Term fails to procure or maintain insurance required hereunder or to pay the premiums therefor, Landlord shall have the right to procure the same and to pay any and all premiums thereon, and any amounts paid by Landlord in connection with the acquisition of insurance shall be immediately due and payable as additional rent, and Tenant shall pay to Landlord upon demand the full amount so paid and expended by Landlord. Any policies of insurance obtained by Landlord covering physical damage to the Premises shall contain a waiver of subrogation against Tenant if and to the extent such waiver is obtainable and if Tenant pays to Landlord on demand the additional costs, if any, incurred in obtaining such waiver.

6.05 Insurance Money and Other Funds Held in Trust. All insurance money or condemnation proceeds as provided in Article XIV, received by the Tenant shall be turned over to Landlord and held in trust by Landlord and, except as provided otherwise in Section 6.06, shall be applied as follows:

First, to any Leasehold Mortgagee as required under the terms of its Leasehold Mortgage provided that such Mortgage was of record and secured a loan made or committed to Landlord in compliance with all of the terms and conditions of this Lease prior to the occurrence of such loss; second, for the purpose of defraying the cost of repairing, restoring, replacing and/or rebuilding any structure or improvement on or in the Premises as required as provided in Section 6.06 hereof; and third, if the damaged or destroyed structure or improvement is not repaired, restored, replaced or rebuilt as hereinafter provided, said funds shall be disposed of as provided in Section 6.06. Any of said funds in the hands of the Tenant or Landlord at the end of the Term hereof shall be disposed of as set forth in Section 6.06 (A).

6.06 Application or Proceeds of Physical Damage Insurance. In case of any insurance policies as described in Section 6.02 (B) (Physical Property Damage Insurance) the application of insurance proceeds from damage or loss to property shall be determined in part in accordance with Article XVII hereof and, in the event of any such repair, replacement, restoration or rebuilding, the Landlord shall disburse the proceeds of the insurance collected to Tenant to pay the cost of such work upon certificate of satisfactory progress and/or completion in form satisfactory to Landlord by the licensed architect or engineer in charge of the work. Upon completion of such repair, replacement, restoration or rebuilding in accordance with the provisions of this Lease, and the full payment therefor (so no liens, encumbrances or claims with respect thereto can be asserted against the Premises, this Lease, Landlord or Tenant), any insurance proceeds received by the Landlord or Tenant with respect to the damage or destruction involved, and not used, shall remain the property of Landlord.

A) Distribution of Unutilized Proceeds. At the termination of this Lease, such insurance proceeds or condemnation awards received and held by the Landlord and not used for repair, replacement or reconstruction ("Available Proceeds"), shall be disposed as follows:

(1) First, Landlord shall be awarded an amount sufficient to remove any improvements not repaired and to return the Property to the level of adjacent streets ("grade level"); and

(2) Second, any remainder shall be paid to Landlord.

6.07 Cooperation for Insurance Proceeds. Landlord and Tenant shall each cooperate with the other in order to obtain the largest possible recovery and execute any and all consents and other instruments and take all other actions reasonably necessary or desirable to effectuate the same and cause such proceeds to be paid as hereinbefore provided. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, neither party shall carry any insurance concurrent in coverage and contributing in the event of loss with any insurance required to be furnished by the other hereunder if the effect of separate insurance would be to reduce the protection or the payment to be made under such party's insurance or under the insurance required to be furnished by the other.

6.08 Waiver of Right of Recovery. Landlord and Tenant hereby release each other from any and all liability and responsibility to one another and, to the extent legally possible to do so on behalf of their respective insurers and anyone claiming through or under either of them, by way of subrogation or otherwise, hereby waive any liability for any and all loss or damage which is of the type covered by fire and extended coverage insurance described in this Article, irrespective of any negligence on the part of the other party which may have contributed to or caused such loss. Every insurance policy carried by either party with respect to the Premises or Tenant's Building or land or improvements adjoining the Premises owned or leased by Landlord shall (if it can be so written and does not result in a material additional premium) include provisions denying to the insurer subrogation rights against the other party and any fee or leasehold mortgage to the extent such rights have been waived by the insured prior to the occurrence of damage or loss. If the waiver of subrogation otherwise is not effective, each party covenants that it will obtain for the benefit of the other party an express waiver of any right of subrogation which the insurer of such party may acquire against the other party by virtue of the payment of any such loss covered by such insurance. In the event either party is by law, statute, governmental regulation, economically unfeasible or other factor beyond such party's reasonable control unable to obtain a waiver of the right of subrogation for the benefit of the other party, then, during any period of time when such waiver is unobtainable, said party shall be deemed not to have released any subrogated claim of its insurance carrier against the other party, and during the same period of time the other party shall be deemed not to have released the party who has been unable to obtain such waiver from any claims they or their insurance carriers may assert which otherwise would have been released pursuant to this Section. In the event that either party is unable to obtain such waiver of the right of subrogation for the benefit of the other party, such party shall, within thirty (30) days of receiving notice of such inability, give the other party written notice of such inability.

The notice is considered to have been received when a party to this Lease receives from the condemning agency or entity a Notice of Intended Taking, in writing, containing a description or map of the Taking reasonably defining the extent of the Taking.

E) "Award" means compensation paid for the Taking, whether pursuant to judgment or by agreement or otherwise.

14.02 Notice to Other Party. The party hereto receiving any notice of the kinds specified below shall promptly give the other party notice of the receipt, contents, and date of the notice received:

- A) Notice of Intended Taking;
- B) Service of any legal process relating to condemnation of the Premises or improvements;
- C) Notice in connection with any proceedings or negotiations with respect to such a condemnation; or
- D) Notice of intent or willingness to make or negotiate a private purchase, sale or transfer in lieu of condemnation.

14.03 Total Taking — Effect on Rent and Term. On a Total Taking, Tenant's obligation to pay Rent shall terminate on, and Tenant's interest in the leasehold shall continue until, the date of Taking, at which time this Lease shall terminate.

14.04 Distribution of Award for Taking. On a Taking, all sums, including, but not limited to, damages and interest awarded for the value of the real estate taken, shall be apportioned and paid by the governmental body taking the Premises as follows:

- A) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any, for the Fair Market Value of all buildings and other improvements on the Premises;
- B) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any, for severance damages
- C) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any, for the "bonus value" of this leasehold estate. The bonus value is the amount by which the fair market rental value on the open market exceeds the contract rent (the amount called for in this Lease);
- D) To Tenant, the amount awarded, if any, for loss of goodwill and relocation expenses;
- E) To Landlord, any other award which will not reduce the amount which otherwise would be awarded to Tenant; and
- F) To Landlord, any balance.

Tenant shall only be entitled to payments under this Section 14.04 out of amounts awarded by the governmental body taking the Premises.

14.05 Partial Taking — Rent Adjustments. On a Partial Taking, the Lease shall remain in full force and effect covering the remaining Premises, except that the total Rent as otherwise provided herein shall be reduced in the same ratio as the percentage of the area of the Premises taken bears to the total area of the Premises.

14.06 Partial Taking — Option to Terminate. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event of a Partial Taking, if more than thirty percent (30%) of the Building or fifty (50%) of the parking is taken by a condemnation or sold under the threat of condemnation, then Tenant may terminate this Lease as of the date the condemning authority takes title or possession, whichever occurs first, by delivering written notice to the other within ten (10) days after receipt of written notice of such taking (or in the absence of such notice, within ten (10) days after the condemning authority takes possession).

14.07 Separate Tenant's Award. In the event of a Taking, Tenant may make a separate claim with respect to lost business, lost profits, goodwill, moving expenses and other related damages against the acquiring governmental Agency.

ARTICLE XV

DEFAULT

15.01 Tenant's Default. The occurrence of any of the following shall constitute a default or event of default by Tenant:

A) Failure to pay Annual Rent or any other monetary amount when due as provided herein, if the failure continues for ten (10) days after first written notice has been given to Tenant by Landlord;

B) Failure to perform any of Tenant's non-monetary obligations under this Lease, provided however, Tenant shall have thirty (30) days from receipt of written notice by Landlord to cure each such default. If Tenant cannot reasonably cure such default within said thirty (30) day period, Tenant shall not be in default of this Lease if Tenant commences to cure the breach within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the breach.

C) Tenant shall file a petition in voluntary bankruptcy under the bankruptcy code of the United States or any similar Law, State or Federal Law, now or hereafter in effect.

15.02 Landlord's Remedies Cumulative. Landlord shall have the following remedies set forth in subsections (A) through (G) below if Tenant commits a default, except as provided in Section 15.03. These remedies are not exclusive and may be exercised concurrently or successively, they are cumulative in addition to any remedies now or later allowed by law or equity:

A) Bring Suit for Performance. Landlord may bring suit for the collection of the Rent or other amounts for which Tenant is then in default, or for the performance of any other covenant or agreement devolving upon Tenant, all without having to enter into possession or terminate this Lease;

B) Re-Entry Without Termination. Pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1954.4, Landlord may re-enter the Premises, by legal proceedings (or without legal proceedings if the Premises have been abandoned), and take possession thereof, without thereby terminating this Lease, and thereupon Landlord may expel all persons and remove all property therefrom, without becoming liable to prosecution therefor, and relet the Premises or a portion or portions thereof, and receive the rent therefrom, applying the same first to the payment of the reasonable expenses of such re-entry and the reasonable cost of such reletting, and then to the payment of the Rent and other amounts for which Tenant is then in default; the balance, if any, to be paid to Tenant, who, whether or not the Premises are relet, shall remain liable for any deficiency. It is agreed that the commencement and prosecution of any action by Landlord in forcible entry and detainer, ejectment, or otherwise, or the appointment of a receiver, or any execution of any decree obtained in any action to recover possession of the Premises, or any re-entry, shall not be construed as an election to terminate this Lease unless Landlord shall, in writing, expressly exercise its election to declare the Lease Term hereunder ended and to terminate this Lease, and unless this Lease be expressly terminated, such re-entry or entry by Landlord, whether had or taken under summary proceedings or otherwise, shall not be deemed to have absolved or discharged Tenant from any of its obligations and liabilities for the remainder of the Lease Term. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary or other provisions of this Section 15.02(B), Tenant shall have the right to sublet the Premises, assign its interest in the Lease, or both, subject to Landlord's prior right, during any continuance of Tenant's default, to relet the Premises or a portion or portions thereof.

C) Termination of Lease and Lessee's Right to Possession. No act by Landlord, other than giving Tenant written notice of termination of this Lease, shall in fact terminate the Lease. Upon termination of the Lease, neither Landlord nor Tenant shall have any future rights or obligations under the Lease except that Landlord shall have the right to recover from Tenant the following:

(1) The worth, at the time of the award, of the unpaid Rent that had been earned at the time of termination of this Lease;

(2) The worth, at the time of the award, of the amount by which the unpaid Rent that would have been earned after the date of termination of this Lease until the time of award exceeds the amount of the loss of Rent that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided;

(3) The worth, at the time of the award, of the amount by which the unpaid Rent for the balance of the Term after the time of award exceeds the amount of the loss of Rent that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided; and

(4) Any other amount, and court costs, necessary to compensate Landlord for all detriment proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform his obligations under the Lease or which, in the ordinary course of things, would be likely to result therefrom.

(5) For any other sums due.

D) Definitions. As used herein, the following phrases shall be interpreted as follows:

(1) "The worth, at the time of the award," as used in subsections 15.02(C)(1) and (2) above, is to be computed by allowing interest at the maximum lawful rate. "The worth, at the time of the award," as referred to in subsection 15.02(C)(3) above, is to be computed by discounting the amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco at the time of the award, plus one percent (1%).

(2) As used herein, the term "time of award" shall mean either the date upon which Tenant pays to Landlord the amount recoverable by Landlord as hereinabove set forth or the date of entry of any determination, order, or judgment of any court or other legally constituted body determining the amount recoverable, whichever first occurs.

E) Surrender. Promptly after notice of termination, Tenant shall surrender and vacate the Premises and all improvements in broom-clean condition, and Landlord may re-enter and take possession of the Premises and all remaining improvements and eject all parties in possession or eject some and not others, or eject none. Termination under subsection 15.02(C) shall not relieve Tenant from the payment of any sum due to Landlord or from any claim for damages previously accrued or then accruing against Tenant.

F) Appointment of Receiver. If Tenant defaults under Section 15.02 Landlord shall have the right to have a receiver appointed to collect rent from any subtenants. Neither the filing of a petition for the appointment of a receiver nor the appointment itself shall constitute an election by Landlord to terminate this Lease.

G) Landlord's Right to Cure Tenant's Default. Landlord, at any time after Tenant is in default under Section 15.01 herein, may cure the default at Tenant's expense. If Landlord, at any time, by reason of Tenant's default, pays any sum or does any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Landlord shall be immediately reimbursed from Tenant to Landlord, together with interest at eighteen percent (18%) per annum computed from the date of such expenditure until the date of reimbursement by Tenant.

15.03 Landlord's Default.

A) The occurrence of the following shall constitute a default by Landlord: Breach of any provision of this Lease if the breach is not cured within thirty (30) days after written notice by Tenant; provided, however, that if the breach cannot reasonably be cured within such thirty (30) day period, Landlord shall not be in default of this Lease if Landlord commences to cure the breach within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the default.

B) Tenant, at any time after Landlord is in default under paragraph (A) above, may cure the default at Landlord's expense. If Tenant at any time, by reason of Landlord's default, pays any sum or does any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Tenant shall be immediately reimbursed by Landlord, together with interest at eighteen percent (18%) per annum determined at the time the expenditure is made by Tenant computed from the date of such expenditure until the date of reimbursement by Landlord. If Landlord fails to make such payment(s) within fifteen (15) days after Tenant's written demand, Tenant shall be entitled to offset any amount due from Landlord against the next Rent payment due under this Lease.

15.04 Waiver of Redemption. Tenant hereby expressly waives any and all rights of redemption granted by or under any present or future laws in the event of Tenant being dispossessed or removed from the Premises upon the termination of this Lease because of default by Tenant hereunder.

15.05 Dispute Resolution. Landlord and Tenant desire by provisions of this Section 15.05 to establish procedures to facilitate the informal and inexpensive resolution of any dispute arising out of this Lease by mutual cooperation and without resort to litigation. To accomplish this objective, Landlord and Tenant agree to follow the procedures set forth below if and when a dispute arises between them under this Lease.

A) Description of Dispute. The complaining party shall provide by notice a written description of the alleged breach by the other party. This description shall explain the nature of the complaint and the Lease provision(s) on which it is based. The complaining party shall also set forth a proposed solution to the problem including a specific time frame within which the parties must act. The party receiving the letter of complaint must respond in writing within ten (10) days with an explanation, including references to the relevant parts of the Lease and a response to the proposed solution. Within ten (10) days of receipt of this response, the parties must meet and discuss options for resolving the dispute. The complaining party must initiate the scheduling of the resolution meeting.

B) Mediation. A settlement conference shall be held within thirty (30) days of the unsuccessful resolution meeting or as soon as practical thereafter. The settlement conference shall be held in the County of San Francisco, California.

C) Arbitration. With respect to disputes which the parties have been unable to resolve informally or by mediation, the parties agree to submit the dispute for final and binding arbitration if the dispute has not otherwise been settled. The parties agree that the arbitration must be initiated within one (1) year after the date of the written description of the alleged breach and that the failure to initiate arbitration within the one (1) year period constitutes an absolute bar to the initiation of any proceedings. An arbitration shall be deemed initiated for the purposes of this section by demand therefor being sent by certified mail to the other party which notice shall contain a description of the dispute, the amount involved and the remedies sought. The parties shall have the right to representation by counsel throughout the arbitration proceedings. All rulings, decisions, and awards of the arbitrators shall be in conformance with California law. The award may be judicially enforced pursuant to §1285 et seq of the California Code of Civil Procedure. Each party shall bear their own costs of legal counsel and the fees for witnesses, unless otherwise determined by the arbitrator as part of the award. The parties may establish the scope of discovery by agreement. If the parties cannot agree, the arbitrator will have discretion to define the limits of discovery and to allow discovery upon a showing of good cause, utilizing the following guidelines:

(1) The arbitrator shall balance the benefits of discovery against the burdens and expenses to the parties and the goals of arbitration as an alternative to traditional litigation.

(2) The arbitrator shall have discretion to order pre-hearing exchange of information, including but not limited to, the production of requested documents and exchanges of summaries of testimony of proposed witnesses.

(3) The deposition of the claimant(s) and respondent(s) and form sets of interrogatories approved by the Judicial Council shall be allowed as a matter of right. There shall be an early and prompt designation and exchange of the names and addresses of expert witnesses who may be called upon to testify at the arbitration hearing. Their depositions, special interrogatories, requests for admission and all other discovery shall be allowed only upon a showing of good cause.

15.06 Attorneys' Fees. Should any action or proceeding, be commenced between the parties to this Lease concerning said Premises, this Lease, or the rights and duties of either in relation thereto, the party, Landlord, or Tenant, prevailing in such action or proceeding shall be entitled, in addition to such other relief as may be granted in the action or proceeding, to a reasonable sum as and for its attorneys' fees therein which shall be determined by the arbitrator(s) hearing such action or proceeding.

DAMAGE OR DESTRUCTION

17.01 Repairs, Alterations and Further Improvements.

A) Tenant's Obligation to Repair. If the Premises or the improvements to the Common Area are damaged by any peril after the Commencement date of the Lease, Tenant shall restore the Leased Premises or the Common Area improvements unless the Lease is terminated pursuant to Section 17.01 B. If this Lease is not so terminated, then upon receipt of the insurance proceeds by Landlord (if insurance proceeds are available) and the issuance of all necessary governmental permits, Tenant shall promptly commence and diligently prosecute to completion the restoration of the Leased Premises or the Common Area improvements to the extent then allowed by Law, to substantially the same condition in which the Leased Premises or the Common Area Improvements were immediately prior to such damage..

(B) Damage in Excess of Fifty Percent (50%). If the cost of repairing or reconstructing said damage or destruction to its former condition and form is in excess of Fifty percent (50%) and if such reconstruction or rebuilding cannot be made under then existing laws, ordinances, statutes or regulations of any governmental authority applicable thereto the Term shall end as of the date of such damage or destruction. If, however, such reconstruction or rebuilding can be made under such existing laws, ordinances, statutes and regulations (or can be so made with minor and non-material changes to the former condition and form of the property damaged or destroyed), Tenant shall effect such repair or restoration.

17.02 Prompt Repair. If Tenant, pursuant to the terms hereof, is obligated to repair, replace, reconstruct or rebuild any structures, improvements or other property as hereinabove provided, the same shall be effected at Tenant's cost and expense (which may be paid from insurance proceeds available as above provided) and Tenant shall diligently commence and continuously carry out such repair, replacement, reconstruction or rebuilding, to full completion as soon as possible, except to the extent of delays due to strikes, lockouts, shortages of labor or materials after due diligence in obtaining the same, governmental restrictions, fire, casualty, riot, act of God, act of the public enemy, or other causes beyond the reasonable control of Tenant after the exercise of due diligence, including diligence in contracting, and the exercise of rights under contracts, with contractors and suppliers.

17.03 Rent Adjustment. This Lease and the Term shall not terminate or be terminated because of damage to or destruction of any structure or improvement on or in the Premises except under and in accordance with the provisions hereinabove contained. Tenant shall not be entitled to any compensation or damages from Landlord for loss of Tenant's property or any inconvenience or annoyance caused by such restoration.

ARTICLE XVIII

18.01 Limitation on Liability. The liability of Landlord hereunder or in connection with the Premises or Entire Premises shall be limited to its interest in the Premises and/or Entire Premises, as the case may be, and in no event shall any other assets of Landlord be subject to any claim arising out of or in connection with the Lease, Premises, or Entire Premises.

18.02 Modification. No modification, waiver, amendment, discharge, or change of this Lease shall be valid unless the same is in writing and signed by the party against which the enforcement of such modification, waiver, amendment, discharge, or change is or may be sought.

18.03 Severability. In the event any term, covenant, condition, provision, or agreement contained herein is held to be invalid, void, or otherwise unenforceable, by any court of competent jurisdiction, such holding shall in no way affect the validity or enforceability of any other term, covenant, condition, provision, or agreement contained herein.

A) Except as otherwise in this Lease provided, a bill, demand, statement, consent, notice or communication which Landlord may desire or be required to give to Tenant shall be deemed sufficiently given or rendered if in writing, delivered personally to Tenant or sent by certified (return receipt requested) or private express mail courier (postage fully prepaid) addressed to Tenant to the addresses set forth in Section 18.10 below or at such other address(es) as Tenant shall designate by notice given as herein provided. Rejection or refusal to accept a notice, request, demand, or the inability to deliver same because of a changed address of which no notice was given shall be deemed to be a receipt of the notice, request or demand sent.

Tenant and Landlord may change their respective addresses for purposes of this section by giving written notice of such change to the other.

18.11 Entire Agreement. This Lease and the exhibits attached set forth the entire agreement between the parties. Except as specifically set forth herein, there are no agreements, representations, or warranties whatsoever as to any matter. Any prior agreements, conversations, or writings are merged herein, superseded hereby, and extinguished.

18.12 Sale or Transfer of Premises. Landlord shall promptly notify Tenant in writing of any sale or transfer of the Premises or any assignment of Landlord's interest in this Lease, giving the name and address of the assignee or new owner, as the case may be, and instructions regarding the payment of rent or any other amount required to be paid by Tenant hereunder. In the event of any transfer or assignment of Landlord's interest in this Lease or any change in, or transfer of, title in and to the Premises of any part thereof, whether voluntary or involuntary, or by act of Landlord or by operation of law, Tenant shall be under no obligation to pay rent or other charges payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder, thereafter accruing, until Tenant shall have been notified in writing of such transfer, assignment, or change in title, and given satisfactory proof thereof, and the withholding of rent or other charges payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder, in the meantime shall not be deemed a default upon the part of Tenant. Landlord may assign this Lease and convey its title to the Premises, subject to this Lease, at any time. In the event of such assignment of this Lease, Landlord shall have no further obligations under this Lease, except for liabilities which shall have accrued prior to the date of such assignment and transfer and that the assignee assumes in writing Landlord's obligations hereunder accruing on and after the effective date of the assignment.

18.13 Force Majeure. In the event that Tenant shall be delayed or hindered in or prevented from the performance of any act other than Tenant's obligation to make payments of rent, and other charges required hereunder, by reason of strikes, lockouts, unavailability of materials, failure of power, restrictive governmental laws or regulations, riots, insurrections, the default of Landlord, war, or other reason beyond its control, then performance of such act shall be excused for the period of the delay, and the period for the performance of such act shall be extended for a period equivalent to the period of such delay. Notwithstanding the foregoing, lack of funds shall not be deemed to be a cause beyond the control of Tenant.

18.14 Waiver. No term, covenant, or condition of this Lease can be waived except in writing, signed by the party making the waiver, Landlord or Tenant, as the case may be. No waiver of any default hereunder shall be implied from any omission by either party to take any action on account of such default if such default persists or is repeated, and no express waiver shall affect any default other than the default specified in the express waiver, and that only for the time and to the extent therein stated. The acceptance by Landlord of Rent or partial Rent with knowledge of the breach of any of the covenants of this Lease by Tenant shall not be deemed a waiver of any such breach. One or more waivers of any breach of any covenant, term, or condition of this Lease shall not be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same covenant, term, or condition. The consent or approval by either party shall not be deemed to waive or render unnecessary that party's consent to or approval of any subsequent similar act.

18.15 Estoppel Certificate. Either party hereto shall, within twenty (20) days notice from the other party (referred to as the "Requesting Party"), execute and deliver to the Requesting Party, in recordable form, a certificate stating that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect, or in full force and effect as modified, and stating the modifications. The certificate also shall state the amount of current monthly rent, the dates to which the rent has been paid in advance, the amount of prepaid rent, and any other information with respect to this Lease reasonably requested by the Requesting Party. Failure to deliver the certificate within the twenty (20) days shall be conclusive upon the party failing to deliver the certificate for the benefit of the party requesting the certificate and any successor to the party requesting the certificate, that this Lease is in full force and effect, and has not been modified except as may be represented by the party requesting the certificate, and that rent and other charges have not been paid for any period after date of the notice requesting the certificate.

18.16 Number and Gender. Whenever the context requires the singular number, it shall include the plural, the plural the singular, and the use of any gender shall include all genders.

18.17 No Holding Over. Tenant shall have no right to holdover after the end of the Term. Should Tenant or any Leasehold Mortgagee succeeding to the interest of Tenant hold over in possession after the expiration date, such holding over shall not be deemed to extend the Lease or renew this Lease; and Tenant shall pay a pro-rated daily amount equal to one hundred twenty percent (120%) of the Annual Rent in effect immediately preceding the expiration date until Tenant vacates the Premises.

18.18 Mechanics Liens. Tenant shall discharge, by payment, bonding or otherwise, any mechanics liens filed against the Premises or the Entire Premises in connection with Tenant's work and/or any alterations or other work done by or on behalf of Tenant in the Premises within thirty (30) days after Tenant receives notice of the filing of such lien, and Landlord shall cooperate with Tenant at no expense to Landlord, in order to accomplish such discharge. Should Tenant fail to so discharge any such mechanics lien, Landlord shall have the right to remove such mechanics liens and charge all costs thereof, including without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, to Tenant as additional rent plus interest at 18%.

18.19 Relationship of Parties. Nothing contained in this Lease shall be construed to create the relationship of principal and agent, partnership, joint venture or any other relationship between the parties hereto other than the relationship of Landlord and Tenant. Nothing contained herein shall in any way impose any liability upon the stockholders, officers or directors of Landlord or stockholders, officers, directors or trustees of Tenant should such parties be corporate entities.

18.20 Time of the Essence. Time is of the essence with respect to Tenant's payment of rent and other monetary obligations to Landlord under this Lease.

18.21 Facsimile Copies. Tenant and Landlord (i) have each agreed to permit the use, from time to time and where appropriate, of telecopied signatures in order to expedite the transaction contemplated by this Lease, (ii) each intend to be bound by its respective telecopied signature, (iii) are each aware that the other will rely on the telecopied signature, and (iv) each acknowledge such reliance and waive any defenses to the enforcement of the documents effecting the transaction contemplated by this Lease based on a telecopied signature.

18.22 Anti-Merger. The voluntary or otherwise surrender of this Lease by Tenant, or a mutual cancellation of this Lease shall not work a merger but shall at the option of Landlord either:

A) Terminate any existing subleases or subtenancies; or

B) Operate as an assignment to Landlord (and assumption by Landlord) of any subleases or subtenancies.

1. The second sentence of Section 2.01(a) of the Lease is hereby deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Landlord shall not be liable for any damage to persons or property located in, on or about the Premises resulting from or in connection with the Development, and Tenant waives and shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Landlord from any and all claims asserted by Tenant or Tenant's officers, agents, employees, contractors, licensees, invitees or guests arising from damage resulting from or in connection with the Development (except to the extent such damage is caused by the willful act or gross negligence of Landlord; provided, however, that Landlord shall not be liable for any consequential damages, including, without limitation, any claim for loss of profit or business).

C. Surrender

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease, upon the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease and promptly following Tenant's receipt of a cost estimate thereof from Landlord, Tenant shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to the cost of demolishing the improvements located on the Premises and removing all surface debris therefrom to Landlord's reasonable satisfaction, as such cost estimate is determined by Landlord in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion; provided, however, that Tenant may remove any or all of Tenant's furniture, fixtures and equipment (the "FF&E") from the Premises, so long as such removal occurs within forty-five (45) days after the Termination Date and Tenant repairs all extraordinary damage caused by such removal. SUCH REDACTED INFORMATION HAS BEEN FILED SEPARATELY WITH THE COMMISSION PURSUANT TO THE CONFIDENTIAL TREATMENT REQUEST.

Execution VersionFOURTH AMENDMENT TO LEASE

(Stadium 14, Sacramento)

THIS FOURTH AMENDMENT TO LEASE AGREEMENT (this “Amendment”) is entered into as of August 7, 2006 to be effective as of the Effective Date (as defined hereinbelow) by and between SYUFY ENTERPRISES, L.P., a California limited partnership (“Landlord”), and CENTURY THEATRES, INC., a California corporation (“Tenant”).

R E C I T A L S:

A. Landlord (then known as Syufy Enterprises (“Original Landlord”)) and Century Theatres of California Inc., a California corporation (“Original Tenant”), entered into a certain Lease dated as of September 30, 1995 (the “Original Lease”), for certain premises located in Sacramento, California.

B. The Original Lease has been previously amended by that certain (i) First Amendment to Lease dated as of September 1, 2000 (the “First Amendment”), (ii) Second Amendment to Lease dated as of April 15, 2005 (the “Second Amendment”), and (iii) Third Amendment to Lease dated as of September 29, 2005 (the “Third Amendment”; the Original Lease as heretofore amended is referred to herein as the “Lease”).

C. Tenant has succeeded to the interests and assumed the obligations of Original Tenant as the lessee under the Lease.

D. Landlord has succeeded to the interests and assumed the obligation of Original Landlord as the lessor under the Lease.

E. Landlord and Tenant now desire to further amend the Amended Lease, upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Amendment.

NOW THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt, adequacy and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Lease is hereby modified and amended, and Landlord and Tenant hereby agree, as follows:

1. Recitals Incorporated: Certain Defined Terms. The Recitals set forth above are incorporated into this Amendment and shall be deemed terms and provisions hereof, the same as if fully set forth in this Paragraph 1. Capitalized terms that are used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed to such terms in the Lease.

2. Effectiveness. The parties are entering into this Amendment in connection with the contemplated acquisition of all the outstanding capital stock of Century Theatres, Inc. by Cinemark Holdings, Inc. and Cinemark USA, Inc. (the “Acquisition”) pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement dated as of the date hereof (the “Stock Purchase Agreement”). This Amendment shall become automatically effective upon, and only upon, the closing of the Acquisition (the “Effective Date”). In the event the Acquisition is not consummated and the Stock Purchase Agreement is terminated, this Agreement shall become void ab initio and of no force and effect.

3. Initial Term of Lease and Extension Options Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease but subject to the provisions of the Lease applicable to the exercise an validity of such Renewal Terms, the Initial Term of the Lease is hereby extended to and shall expire on  and rather than Renewal Terms of each (as provided in the Lease), Tenant shall have the option to extend the Initial Term for consecutive Renewal Terms of each, followed by  additional and final Renewal Term of

4. Landlord's Recapture Right. If, at any time during the term of the Lease, Tenant fails to satisfy the Operating Condition (defined below), for reasons other than Excused Closure (defined below), and such failure continues for six (6) consecutive months or more, then upon notice from Landlord to Tenant at any time thereafter (provided that the Operating Condition remains unsatisfied), Landlord shall have the right to terminate the Lease and to recapture the Leased Premises, without payment to Tenant, effective upon the date set forth in Landlord's termination notice (but not sooner than 30 days after the date of the termination notice).

The term "Operating Condition" shall mean and require that the entire Leased Premises is being continuously operated and regularly open for business to the general public as a motion picture theater complex in accordance with the Lease, at least on such days and at such times that a majority of Century's and Cinemark's other motion picture theater complexes in the County of Sacramento typically are open and operating. The term "Excused Closure" shall mean (i) periods of construction, alterations, renovation, remodeling and repair of the Leased Premises undertaken in accordance with this Lease (including repairs and restoration following damage or destruction due to fire or other casualty) provided that Tenant (A) prosecutes such work to completion with reasonable diligence, (B) exercises its reasonable efforts to minimize the length of time of such closure, and (C) exercises its reasonable efforts to limit the number of motion picture screens at the Premises that are not operated due to such closure, (ii) periods when Tenant cannot practicably operate its business in the Premises as a consequence of force majeure; and (iii) additional periods, not to exceed four (4) days in any Lease Year, when Tenant in its sole discretion elects not to operate its business in the Leased Premises.

5. Self-Insurance of Property/Casualty Risks. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Lease, during any period in which Tenant maintains a Net Worth (as defined below) of at least One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000.00), Tenant may self insure the so-called "physical property damage insurance" otherwise required to be maintained by Tenant pursuant to the Lease. As used herein, the "Net Worth" of Tenant at any given time shall mean an amount equal to the sum of (A) the product of (1) Tenant's so-called EBITDA (i.e., earnings before interest, income taxes, depreciation and amortization), calculated in accordance with commercially reasonable past practice preceding the Effective Date by Tenant's parent corporation, over the 12-month period immediately preceding the time of measurement, multiplied by (2) eight (8), plus (B) the amount of cash and cash equivalents held by Tenant on the most recent anniversary of Tenant's annual insurance renewal date, minus (C) the amount of outstanding funded debt of Tenant on such determination date.

6. Damage and Destruction – Repairs by Tenant. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, the following shall apply to repairs and restoration upon damage or destruction:

(A) Tenant's Obligation to Repair. If the Leased Premises are damaged or destroyed by any peril after the Commencement Date of this Lease, then Tenant shall repair the damage and restore the Leased Premises in accordance with this (A) and (B), except as provided in subsection (B) hereinbelow. Unless Tenant is not required to effect the repairs and restoration pursuant to subsection (B) below, Tenant shall promptly apply for and diligently seek to obtain all necessary governmental permits and approvals for the repair and restoration of the Leased Premises and, upon issuance of such governmental permits and approvals, promptly commence and diligently prosecute the completion of the repairs and restoration of the Leased Premises (to the extent permitted by applicable law) to substantially the same condition in which the Leased Premises were immediately prior to such damage or destruction (subject to any alterations which Tenant would be permitted to make to the Leased Premises pursuant to this Lease).

(B) Damage in Excess of 20%. If the Leased Premises are damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty which occurs in the last two years of the Initial Term or any Renewal Term and Tenant has no further options to extend the term of the Lease, and if the cost to repair such damage or to restore the Leased Premises as required in Section (A) exceeds twenty percent (20%) of the replacement cost of the Leased Premises (as determined by an independent architect selected by Tenant and approved by Landlord in Landlord's reasonable discretion) and such damage makes it impracticable to operate the Leased Premises in the reasonable business judgment of Tenant, then (i) Tenant shall have the option, upon notice to Landlord not later than one hundred eighty (180) days following the occurrence of the applicable casualty, not to undertake the repairs and restoration of the Leased Premises, and (ii) if Tenant so elects not to undertake the repairs and restoration, then Tenant nevertheless shall raze Tenant's Building and remove from the Leased Premises all building materials and debris and all underground installations that serve only the Leased Premises (including the footings and foundations of Tenant's Building and the utility lines serving Tenant's Building) and restore the surface of the Premises to a graded and landscaped surface.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, the proceeds of any property insurance maintained by Tenant (including proceeds of self-insurance, if applicable), net of actual-out-of-pocket costs to adjust and settle the loss, shall be distributed to and used by Tenant, in accordance with the Lease.

7. Permitted Assignments and Release. Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, the following shall apply and control:

Subject to the next sentence, Tenant may sublet or assign this Lease only upon receipt of Landlord's written consent which consent Landlord agrees shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned. Notwithstanding anything in this Lease to the contrary, it is agreed that at any time during the term of this Lease, Tenant may, without Landlord's consent or approval (but only upon prior written notice to Landlord), assign this Lease or sublet the Leased Premises to: (i) any wholly-owned subsidiary of Tenant, (ii) any corporation, trust, partnership or individual that owns fifty percent (50%) or more of the issued and outstanding stock of Tenant, or (iii) any legal entity that is engaged in the motion picture exhibition business and operates motion picture theater complexes containing at least 100 theater screens (auditoria), excluding the Leased Premises and any other premises concurrently being acquired from Tenant. A change in control of Tenant shall not constitute an assignment of this Lease requiring Landlord's consent or approval, provided, however, that if any assignee under clause (i) above ceases to be a wholly owned subsidiary of Tenant, then the same shall be deemed to constitute an assignment which is prohibited without Landlord's approval under Article XI of the Lease.

If Tenant shall assign this Lease pursuant to clause (ii) or clause (iii) above, and provided that (A) the assignee assumes in writing all obligations of Tenant under the Lease and delivers such executed written assumption to Landlord, and (B) Landlord shall have received from assignee's chief financial officer or controller a certification that the Net Worth of the assignee (determined as provided above) equals or exceeds $100,000,000.00 calculated in accordance with Cinemark USA, Inc.'s methodology in calculating Net Worth as set forth in Section 5 hereof, then Tenant shall be released of any and all liability thereafter arising under the Lease. Except as expressly provided above, no assignment, subletting or other transfer of the Lease or the Leased Premises shall relieve or release Tenant from any liabilities or obligations arising under the Lease.

8. Leasehold Financing. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, Tenant shall have the right, without Landlord's consent to encumber the leasehold estate created under the Lease and/or to grant a security interest in Tenant's removable trade fixtures, furnishings and equipment located within the Leased Premises (but not to encumber Landlord's fee interest in the Premises), to secure financing provided to Tenant by any bank, thrift institution, insurance company or other institutional lender. Tenant agrees to notify Landlord of any such encumbrance. With respect to any such leasehold financing (and provided that Tenant is not in default under the Lease beyond any applicable notice or cure period), upon thirty (30) days' prior written request from Tenant, Landlord will execute and deliver to the secured lender a "Landlord's Agreement" in the form attached hereto as Exhibit "A-1".

9. Memorandum of Lease. On the Effective Date, Landlord and Tenant will enter into and record a short form memorandum of the Lease, in the form of Exhibit "A-2" attached hereto or otherwise in proper form for recording. Tenant shall be solely responsible for the cost of recording the memorandum, including (if applicable) any transfer taxes that may be due and payable in connection with the Lease.

10. Gross Sales. Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary the definition of Gross Sales shall be as follows:

“Gross Sales” shall mean the total amount of all revenues (whether in cash or credit) generated or derived from the conduct of any business at the Leased Premises, including (without limitation) all box office receipts of or at the Leased Premises (including receipts from tickets or gift certificates redeemed at the Leased Premises regardless of the point of sale), as well as any and all receipts from the sale of goods, services, merchandise, beverages, food, vending machines and video games at the Leased Premises; provided, however, that the following shall be excluded from “Gross Sales” (i) credits and refunds made with respect to admissions or other sales otherwise included in Gross Sales, (ii) all federal, state, county and city admission taxes, sales and use taxes, entertainment taxes, royalty taxes, gross receipt taxes and other similar taxes now or hereafter imposed and owing to the taxing authority by Tenant (whether such taxes are collected from customers separately from the selling price of admission tickets or absorbed by Tenant); (iii) receipts from the sale of gift certificates or tickets sold but not redeemed at the Leased Premises; (iv) with respect to any tickets or admissions ordered or paid for over the internet and redeemed at the Leased Premises, the portion (if any) of the sale price that exceeds Tenant’s actual box-office ticket price; (v) sales price for merchandise returned, (vi) amounts retained by credit card issuers, (vii) sales outside of the ordinary course of business, (viii) amount of credit card sales deemed uncollectible, (ix) advertising revenues including without limitation media, sponsorship, and promotional advertising of any kind, and (x) the receipts of or from so-called “four-wall deals” with a party that is not affiliated with Tenant, except that the portion thereof or other amounts paid to Tenant in connection with such “four-wall deals” shall be included in “Gross Sales” under this Lease. Commissions or surcharges paid to agencies or other third parties not affiliated with Tenant for selling tickets or processing credit card transactions, and any sums paid to third parties not affiliated with Tenant for the use or rental of vending machines, pay telephones, amusement machines and other similar devices shall be deducted from “Gross Sales” (if and to the extent previously included in “Gross Sales”).

11. Taxes. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Lease or this Amendment to the contrary, if during the ten (10) year period immediately following the Effective Date, any sale or change in ownership of the Premises (or against the Entire Premises, if the Premises are not separately assessed) is consummated by Landlord and, as a result, all or part of the Premises (or Entire Premises, if applicable) are reassessed (a “Reassessment”) for real property tax purposes by the appropriate governmental authority under the terms of Proposition 13 (as adopted by the voters of the State of California in the June 1978 election) or the terms of Article XIII A of the Constitution of the State of California, then the terms of this Section shall apply. For purposes of this Section, the term “Tax Increase” shall mean that portion of the annual real estate taxes assessed against the Premises (or the Entire Premise, if applicable), as calculated immediately following the Reassessment, that is attributable solely to the Reassessment. Accordingly, a Tax Increase shall not include any portion of the real estate taxes, as calculated immediately following the Reassessment, that is:

- (i) Attributable to the assessment of the value of the Premises (or Entire Premises, if applicable) prior to the Effective Date;

- (ii) Attributable to the annual inflationary increases in real estate taxes; or
- (iii) Attributable to the sale of Landlord's ownership interest in Tenant on or about the Effective Date, or attributable to the execution of this Amendment or any extension of the Term of this Lease on the Effective Date or thereafter.

During the five (5) year period immediately following the Effective Date, Tenant shall not be obligated to pay any portion of any Tax Increase relating to a Reassessment.

Commencing on the fifth anniversary of the Effective Date, and continuing until the tenth anniversary of the Effective Date, Tenant shall be obligated to pay annually only the portion of a Tax Increase relating to a Reassessment that is equal to (or less than) an increase of four percent (4%) per annum, compounded annually, from the Effective Date, in the annual amount owed by Tenant for real estate taxes under the terms of the Lease, from the annual amount owed by Tenant for real estate taxes under the terms of the Lease in calendar 2006.

The terms and provisions of this Section shall not apply to any increase in real estate taxes which results from or is attributable to any occurrence, fact or circumstance other than a sale by Landlord of Landlord's interest in the Premises or a transfer effected by Landlord which is treated as a sale by the local taxing authorities under Proposition 13 (excluding those matters identified in clause (iii) above). This Section shall not apply from and after the tenth (10th) anniversary of the Effective Date of this Amendment.

12. Alterations by Tenant.

Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, the following shall apply and control:

Tenant shall have the right from time to time, at its sole cost and expense, to make non-structural interior alterations, improvements, or changes in the Leased Premises as Tenant shall deem necessary or beneficial consistent with Tenant's exclusive use of the Leased Premises as a motion picture theatre complex and if Tenant undertakes such work, Tenant must pursue such work until completion. Tenant shall fully and completely indemnify Landlord against any mechanics' or other liens in connection with the making of such alterations and changes, and shall pay all costs, expenses, and charges thereof. Alterations, changes and improvements shall be performed in a first-class manner and must comply with all laws, zoning regulations and ordinances, and any conditions on permits issued pursuant thereto. If it is necessary in Tenant's reasonable judgment to close any of the motion picture screens during the period in which any of Tenant's work permitted hereunder is performed, said closure(s) shall be effected only in accordance with the provisions governing an "Excused Closure", as that term is defined in Section 5 of this Amendment hereof.

13. Rooftop Equipment and Access. Tenant shall have the exclusive right to install, operate, repair, replace and maintain satellite dishes and/or other communication transmission devices (collectively "Rooftop Equipment") on the roof of the theatre necessary or appropriate to accept any transmission of signals to the theatre for all permitted uses, including without limitation, for movies, advertising, concerts, telecasts, corporate meetings or communications and the like; but Tenant shall be prohibited from entering into any leases or licenses with any third parties for retransmission from such Rooftop Equipment, and Tenant shall not retransmit such signals to a third party outside of the Leased Premises. Landlord shall not use, or permit any person or entity (other than Tenant), to use the roof or exterior walls of the theatre for any purpose whatsoever, and Landlord agrees not to enter into any leases or licenses with third parties for the use of the theater rooftop. Landlord shall be responsible for any damage to the rooftop caused by the Landlord or a third party that enters onto the theatre rooftop with Landlord's permission, and Landlord shall indemnify and hold Tenant harmless from all loss, cost, damage or expense which Tenant incurs as a result of the acts or omissions of said third party or their agents or employer. Tenant hereby indemnifies and agrees to hold Landlord and Landlord's successors and assigns harmless from all loss, cost, damage or expense which Landlord incurs as a result of the actions of Tenant, or its agents or employees in installing and utilizing Rooftop Equipment as permitted hereunder.

14. Alterations and Development by Landlord. Landlord agrees that with respect to the Entire Premises, the following restrictions shall apply to Landlord's usage and improvement thereof:

- (i) Any alterations or new construction to the Entire Premises or contiguous property owned or controlled by Landlord or its affiliates as of the Effective Date (the "Contiguous Property") may be made without Tenant's consent only if such alterations or new construction do not materially and adversely affect Tenant's operations (including, without limitation, parking, access, ingress and egress to the theatre building and visibility of the theatre building and/or on-building theatre signage). Any such alterations or new construction on the Entire Premises and any cross parking or cross access arrangements between the Entire Premises and the Contiguous Property will first be submitted to Tenant for approval, not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed, and Tenant shall be required to identify the manner in which Tenant's operations are so affected. If Landlord and Tenant are unable to agree on whether such alteration or new construction materially and adversely affects Tenant's operations, including without limitation, parking, access, ingress and egress and visibility, the parties agree to submit the issue to binding arbitration pursuant to the Lease.
 - (ii) Landlord shall not lease, sell or use any space on Non-leased Premises or the Contiguous Property for operating a motion picture theatre.
 - (iii) Subject to existing leases, licenses and operating agreements, Landlord shall not lease, license, enter into an operating agreement for, sell or use any space on Nonleased Premises for operating the following: a bowling alley; a bar or lounge (other than a bar or lounge that is connected with a restaurant, deriving 50% of its revenues from the sale of food), a liquor store (other than first-class or upper-end wine and liquor store such as "BevMo"); a bulk candy store, (other than upperend candy stores such as Godiva, Sees, Rocky Mountain Chocolates and similar concepts); a popcorn store; a massage parlor or adult (i.e., pornographic) book store.

- (iv) Landlord shall not place any carts, kiosks or other temporary structures selling food and/or beverages within common areas of the Entire Premises unless such carts, kiosks or other structures are more than 500 feet from the theatre. Such carts and kiosks may not sell any food or beverages sold in the theatre. Landlord shall not place any vending machines selling food and/or beverages on the common areas of the Entire Premises unless such vending machines are more than 500 feet from the theatre.
- (v) Any new buildings shall be limited to retail, restaurant, residential and/or office uses.

15. Permitted Use and Operations. From and after the Effective Date, Tenant shall be permitted to use and operate the Leased Premises as and only as: a first-class motion picture theatre complex (whether operated as a so-called "first-run" theatre, a "second run" theatre, and/or an "art house" theatre). In no event shall Tenant be permitted to operate the Leased Premises as a so-called "adult" theater complex.

16. No Obligation To Continuously Operate Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease or otherwise, Landlord hereby acknowledges that Tenant shall not be required to continuously operate and open for business in or from the Premises and any election by Tenant to cease operations at the Premises shall not constitute a default or breach of the terms and conditions of the Lease.

17. Removal of Equipment, Surrender and Demolition. Upon the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of the Lease, and provided Tenant is not in default under the Lease beyond applicable notice and cure periods, and said earlier termination is not due to Tenant's default under the Lease, then for a period extending forty-five (45) days beyond the date of said expiration or termination, Tenant shall be permitted to remove any and all furniture, fixtures and equipment owned and installed by Tenant in, on or to the Leased Premises. Such removal shall be: (a) at Tenant's sole cost and expense; (b) conducted in such manner that no liens or claims shall arise or exist in connection therewith; (c) conducted in a manner to avoid unreasonable interference with the activities of Landlord and subsequent tenants or occupants upon the Leased Premises and Tenant shall repair all damages caused by such removal.

Upon surrender of the Leased Premises by Tenant and removal of its equipment pursuant to the terms of the Lease and this Amendment, Landlord shall be responsible for the cost of any demolition of the Leased Premises and site grading and restoration as a result. Such demolition shall be undertaken in Landlord's sole discretion and at such times, manner and upon such events as Landlord solely shall determine.

18. California Remedies. Landlord's remedies upon a default under the Lease shall include, without limitation, the following:

Even though Tenant has breached the Lease and/or abandoned the Premises, this Lease shall continue in effect for so long as Landlord does not terminate Tenant's right to possession, and Landlord may enforce all of its rights and remedies under this Lease, including (but without limitation) the right to recover Rent as it becomes due. Landlord has the remedy described in Section 1951.4 of the Civil Code of the State of California or any successor code section (Landlord may continue the Lease in effect after Tenant's breach and abandonment and recover rent as it becomes due, if Tenant has the right to sublet or assign, subject only to reasonable limitations). Acts of maintenance, preservation or efforts to lease the Premises or the appointment of receiver upon application of Landlord to protect Landlord's interest under this Lease shall not constitute an election to terminate Tenant's right to possession.

19. Termination of Lease and Lessee's Right to Possession. Section 15.02(C) of the Lease shall be deemed deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

"If an event of default occurs, Landlord shall have the right, with or without notice or demand, immediately (after expiration of the applicable grace periods) to terminate this Lease, and at any time thereafter recover possession of the Premises or any part thereof and expel and remove therefrom Tenant and any other person occupying the same, by any lawful means, and again repossess and enjoy the Premises without prejudice to any of the remedies that Landlord may have under this Lease, or at law or equity by reason of Tenant's default or of such termination. Should Landlord terminate this Lease pursuant to foregoing, Landlord shall have all the rights and remedies of a landlord provided by Section 1951.2 of the Civil Code of the State of California, or successor code section. Upon such termination, in addition to any other rights and remedies to which Landlord may be entitled at law or in equity, Landlord shall be entitled to recover from Tenant:

- (1) the worth at the time of award of the unpaid Rent which had been earned at the time of termination;
- (2) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent which would have been earned after termination until the time of award exceeds the amount of such Rent loss that the Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided;
- (3) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent for the balance of the Term after the time of award exceeds the amount of such Rent loss that the Tenant proves could be reasonably avoided;
- (4) any other amount, and court costs, necessary to compensate Landlord for all the detriment proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform its obligations under this Lease or which, in the ordinary course of things, would be likely to result therefrom; and
- (5) for any other sums due."

20. Notices. The notices provisions of the Lease, as the case may be, shall be deemed deleted in their entirety and replaced with the following:

- (a) Except as otherwise expressly and specifically in this Lease provided, a bill, demand, statement, consent, notice or other communication ("notice") which either party may desire or be required to give to the other party shall be deemed sufficiently given or rendered if in writing, delivered personally to the party to be charged therewith or sent by certified mail (return receipt requested) or private express mail courier service (postage or delivery or courier fees fully prepaid) addressed to such party at the addresses set forth in subparagraph (c) below (including the addresses for copies of notices) and/or at such other address(es) as such party shall designate to the other party by notice given as herein provided. If Landlord is notified of the identity and address of Tenant's Leasehold Mortgagee, Landlord shall give such party any notice served upon Tenant hereunder to the last known address of such Leasehold Mortgagee as provided by Tenant to Landlord by certified mail or private express courier service. If Tenant is notified of the identity and address of Landlord's mortgagee, Tenant shall give such mortgagee any notice served upon Landlord hereunder to the last known address of such mortgagee as provided by Landlord to Tenant, by certified mail or private express courier service.

(b) Any notice given in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section shall be deemed effective upon the earlier of (i) if the notice is personally delivered, the date actually received by intended recipient, (ii) if the notice is sent by certified mail, five (5) days after the same is mailed, or (iii) if the notice is sent by private overnight courier service (e.g., Federal Express, DHL or similar courier), one (1) day after the same is delivered to or picked up by such courier. Rejection or refusal to accept a notice or the inability to deliver same because of a changed address of which no notice was given shall be deemed to be a receipt of the notice sent. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Lease, no provision in this Lease shall preclude service of notices in accordance with Section 1162 of the California Code of Civil Procedure or any similar and/or successor code sections.

Tenant shall concurrently with the delivery of such statement, pay to Landlord any Percentage Rent due for such Lease Year.

The receipt by Landlord of any statement or any payment of Percentage Rent for any period shall not bind it as to the correctness of the statement or the payment. Landlord shall within three years after the receipt of any such statement be entitled to an audit of such Gross Sales. Such audit shall be limited to the determination of the Gross Sales as defined in this Lease and shall be conducted during normal business hours at the principal place of business of Tenant. If it is determined as a result of such audit that there has been a deficiency in the payment of Percentage Rent, then such deficiency shall become immediately due and payable with interest at the annual rate of 18% from the date when said payment should have been made until paid. Any information gained from such statements or inspection shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed other than to carry out the purposes hereof.

4.03 Rent Payments. Rent and other sums to be paid by Tenant shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America. All payments shall be made by Tenant to Landlord without notice or demand.

4.05 Late Payment of Rent. In the event that any monthly installment of rent is not paid within ten (10) days after such payment is past due, Tenant shall pay Landlord interest on such unpaid rent at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum computed from the date such rent installment was due until the date actually paid.

A) The term "Impositions" shall mean all real estate taxes, duties or assessments (special or otherwise), water and sewer rents, whether ordinary or extraordinary, general or special, foreseen or unforeseen, of any kind and nature whatsoever, which, at any time during the Lease Term, shall be assessed or levied, or be attributable in any manner to the Entire Premises, or the rents receivable therefrom, or any part thereof or any use thereon or any facility located therein or used in connection therewith, whether or not any of the foregoing shall be a so-called "real estate tax" expressly excluding, however, any such items arising directly or indirectly out of any act or omission of Landlord, any of Landlord's predecessors in title or any other person occurring prior to the commencement of the Term. From and after the Initial Rent Due Date, Tenant shall pay when due all Impositions (exclusive of Landlord's Buildings, if any) assessed, levied or attributable to the Entire Premises and/or the Improvements on the Entire Premises (exclusive of Landlord's Buildings, if any).. All Impositions or installments thereof payable with respect to the tax year in which this Lease shall commence, and all Impositions or installments thereof with respect to the tax year in which this Lease shall terminate, shall be pro-rated on a daily basis; provided, however, that assessments or escape assessments assessed as a result of this Lease and/or the construction of Tenant Improvements by Tenant shall not be prorated and shall be paid solely by Tenant; and provided further that assessments attributable to Tenant Improvements made in the final year of the Lease shall be paid solely by Tenant if Tenant demolishes the Tenant Building.

B) In the event Tenant fails to pay such real property taxes as provided herein, Landlord may, but shall not be required to, pay the same, and any amount so paid by Landlord shall immediately thereafter become due to Landlord from Tenant as Additional Rent with interest thereon at the rate of 18% per annum from the date of Landlord's payment plus any fine, penalty, interest or cost which is levied by the taxing authority for such late payment.

C) Landlord will pay, before the last day on which payment may be made without penalty or interest, all Impositions which shall be levied against Landlord's Buildings, if any.

5.02 Exceptions from Impositions; Charges in Lieu of Impositions.

A) Nothing herein contained shall require Tenant to pay any estate, inheritance, succession, capital levy, corporate franchise, gross receipts, transfer, or income tax of Landlord, nor shall any of the same be deemed to be included within the term "Impositions" as defined herein.

B) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article V, if at any time after the date of this Lease the present method of taxation or assessment shall be changed so that in lieu of, as a substitute for (whether in whole or in part) or as a supplement to (provided such supplemental tax relates to real estate or revenues from real estate and not to other property or business as well) the taxes now levied, assessed or imposed on real estate and buildings and Improvements thereon, a tax shall be imposed, assessed or levied wholly or partly on the Rent, or a tax, assessment, levy or charge, measured or based, in whole or in part, on the Premises or on the rents derived therefrom, shall be imposed on Landlord, then Tenant shall pay taxes so measured or based only to the extent that such taxes would be payable if the Premises were the only property of Landlord subject to such taxes, or the income from operation of the Premises were Landlord's only income, as the case may be.

5.03 Contest of Taxes. Tenant at its sole cost and expense may by appropriate legal proceedings conducted in good faith and with due diligence, contest the amount or validity or application, in whole or in part, of any Imposition or lien therefor, or any other lien, encumbrance or charge against the Premises arising from work done or materials provided to or for Tenant. Tenant shall give Landlord reasonable notice of, and information pertaining to, such contest and regular progress reports with respect thereto. Landlord shall cooperate with any effort pursued by Tenant in accordance with this Section 5.03. Tenant shall indemnify, protect and hold harmless Landlord and the Premises from any lien or liability with respect to any such Imposition or contest thereof, including all costs and expenses related thereto. Landlord shall provide Tenant with copies of notice when received by Landlord from the taxing authorities of any assessments or reassessments of the Premises in sufficient time (but in no event later than thirty (30) days after Landlord's receipt of the same) to enable Tenant to contest the same in accordance with the provisions of this Section 5.03.

5.04 Utilities. Tenant shall pay before delinquency, directly to the appropriate company or governmental agency, all charges for all utilities consumed on the Entire Premises exclusive of Landlord's Buildings, if any. Any utility improvements presently serving the Entire Premises shall be maintained, repaired and replaced by Tenant, at Tenant's expense.

5.06 Personal Property Taxes. During the term of this Lease, Tenant shall pay before delinquency any and all personal property taxes levied or assessed against any personal property located upon the Premises. If Tenant fails to timely pay such taxes and a lien is filed against the Premises, Landlord may discharge such lien, if Tenant fails to discharge such lien within ten (10) days following Tenant's receipt of notice from Landlord, including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees, together with interest at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum from the date of expenditure, such additional rent being due and payable within ten (10) days of notice thereof.

ARTICLE VI INSURANCE

6.01 Acquisition of Insurance Policies. Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, procure and maintain, or cause to be procured and maintained, during the entire Term the insurance described in this Section (or its then available equivalent), and shall name Landlord and any other parties requested by Landlord as an additional insured.

6.02 Types of Required Insurance. Tenant shall procure and maintain the following:

A) Commercial General Liability Insurance. Commercial general liability insurance insuring against injuries or damages to persons or property sustained in, on or about the Entire Premises, Premises, Common Area and the appurtenances thereto, including the sidewalks and alleyways adjacent thereto, with limits of liability no less than Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000) per occurrence and in the aggregate.

B) Physical Property Damage Insurance. During the term hereof, Tenant shall keep Tenant's Building (excluding foundations, footings and underground improvements) as well as any and all improvements on the Common Area and personal property insured in the name of Landlord and Tenant against damage or destruction by fire and the perils commonly covered under the extended coverage endorsement (with vandalism and malicious mischief coverage) including Builder's Risk but excluding earthquake and flood to the extent of not less than 100% of the full replacement cost thereof less any deductible applicable to all of Tenant's theatres insured under a blanket policy. Tenant shall be responsible for determining the amount of fire and extended coverage insurance to be maintained subject to Landlord's consent, which consent is not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The proceeds of such insurance in case of loss or damage shall be held in trust and applied on account of the obligation of Tenant to repair and/or rebuild the Leased Premises pursuant to the Article captioned "Damage Clause" to the extent that such proceeds are required for such purpose. The insurance required to be carried by Tenant under this paragraph may be covered under a so-called "blanket" policy covering other operations of Tenant and its affiliates. Upon written request, Tenant shall name Landlord and any parties requested by Landlord and the holder of the first mortgage on Tenant's Building pursuant to a standard mortgage clause with respect to the foregoing hazard insurance, provided such holder agrees with Tenant in writing to disburse such insurance proceeds to Landlord for, and periodically during the course of, repair and restoration of Tenant's Building as set forth in this Lease.

6.03 Terms of Insurance. The policies required under Section 6.02 shall name Landlord as additional insured. Tenant shall provide to Landlord certificates of insurance and copies of policies obtained by Tenant hereunder promptly upon the request of Landlord. Further, all policies of insurance described in Section 6.02 shall:

A) Be written as primary policies not contributing with and not in excess of coverage that Landlord may carry.

B) Contain an endorsement providing that the amount of coverage will not be reduced with respect to Landlord except after twenty (20) days prior written notice from insurance company to Landlord and such coverage may not be canceled with respect to Landlord except after thirty (30) days' prior written notice from insurance company to Landlord.

C) Expressly provide that Landlord shall not be required to give notice of accidents or claims and that Landlord shall have no liability for premiums.

D) Be written by insurance companies having a Bests rating of "A-" or better, and such insurance companies shall be reasonably acceptable to Landlord.

6.04 Landlord's Acquisition of Insurance. If Tenant at any time during the Term fails to procure or maintain insurance required hereunder or to pay the premiums therefor, Landlord shall have the right to procure the same and to pay any and all premiums thereon, and any amounts paid by Landlord in connection with the acquisition of insurance shall be immediately due and payable as additional rent, and Tenant shall pay to Landlord upon demand the full amount so paid and expended by Landlord. Any policies of insurance obtained by Landlord covering physical damage to the Premises shall contain a waiver of subrogation against Tenant if and to the extent such waiver is obtainable and if Tenant pays to Landlord on demand the additional costs, if any, incurred in obtaining such waiver.

6.05 Insurance Money and Other Funds Held in Trust. All insurance money or proceeds received by the Tenant and/or Landlord shall be held in trust by Landlord and, except as provided otherwise in Section 6.06, shall be applied as follows:

First, for the purpose of defraying the cost of repairing, restoring, replacing and/or rebuilding any structure or improvement on or in the Premises as required as provided in Section 6.06 hereof; and Second, if the damaged or destroyed structure or improvement is not repaired, restored, replaced or rebuilt as hereinafter provided, said funds shall be disposed of as provided in Section 6.06. Any of said funds in the hands of the Tenant at the end of the Term hereof shall be disposed of as set forth in Section 6.06 (A).

6.06 Application or Proceeds of Physical Damage Insurance. In case of any insurance policies as described in Section 6.02 (B) (Physical Property Damage Insurance) the application of insurance proceeds from damage or loss to property shall be determined in part in accordance with Article XVI hereof and, in the event of any such repair, replacement, restoration or rebuilding, the Tenant and Landlord shall apply the proceeds of the insurance collected to the cost of such work upon certificate of satisfactory progress and/or completion in form satisfactory to Tenant and Landlord by the licensed architect or engineer in charge of the work. Any amounts payable to Tenant or any Affiliate of Tenant for work or services performed or materials provided as part of any such repair, replacement, restoration or rebuilding shall not exceed competitive rates for such services or materials and Tenant shall, upon request of Landlord, make available to Landlord and its representatives all books and records of Tenant relating to such work, services and materials. Upon completion of such repair, replacement, restoration or rebuilding in accordance with the provisions of this Lease, and the full payment therefor (so no liens, encumbrances or claims with respect thereto can be asserted against the Premises, this Lease, Landlord or Tenant), any insurance proceeds received by the Tenant or Landlord with respect to the damage or destruction involved, and not used, shall be and remain the property of Landlord.

A) Distribution of Unutilized Proceeds. At the termination of this Lease, such insurance proceeds or condemnation awards received and held by the Tenant and not used for repair, replacement or reconstruction ("Available Proceeds"), shall be disposed as follows:

(1) First, Landlord shall be awarded an amount sufficient to remove any improvements not repaired and to return the Property to the level of adjacent streets ("grade level"); and

(2) Second, any remainder shall be paid to Landlord.

6.07 Cooperation for Insurance Proceeds. Landlord and Tenant shall each cooperate with the other in order to obtain the largest possible recovery and execute any and all consents and other instruments and take all other actions reasonably necessary or desirable to effectuate the same and cause such proceeds to be paid as hereinbefore provided. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, neither party shall carry any insurance concurrent in coverage and contributing in the event of loss with any insurance required to be furnished by the other hereunder if the effect of separate insurance would be to reduce the protection or the payment to be made under such party's insurance or under the insurance required to be furnished by the other.

6.08 Waiver of Right of Recovery. Landlord and Tenant hereby release each other from any and all liability and responsibility to one another and, to the extent legally possible to do so on behalf of their respective insurers and anyone claiming through or under either of them, by way of subrogation or otherwise, hereby waive any liability for any and all loss or damage which is of the type covered by fire and extended coverage insurance described in this Article, irrespective of any negligence on the part of the other party which may have contributed to or caused such loss. Every insurance policy carried by either party with respect to the Premises or Tenant's Building or land or improvements adjoining the Premises owned or leased by Landlord shall (if it can be so written and does not result in a material additional premium) include provisions denying to the insurer subrogation rights against the other party and any fee or leasehold mortgage to the extent such rights have been waived by the insured prior to the occurrence of damage or loss. If the waiver of subrogation otherwise is not effective, each party covenants that it will obtain for the benefit of the other party an express waiver of any right of subrogation which the insurer of such party may acquire against the other party by virtue of the payment of any such loss covered by such insurance. In the event either party is by law, statute, governmental regulation, economically unfeasible or other factor beyond such party's reasonable control unable to obtain a waiver of the right of subrogation for the benefit of the other party, then, during any period of time when such waiver is unobtainable, said party shall be deemed not to have released any subrogated claim of its insurance carrier against the other party, and during the same period of time the other party shall be deemed not to have released the party who has been unable to obtain such waiver from any claims they or their insurance carriers may assert which otherwise would have been released pursuant to this Section. In the event that either party is unable to obtain such waiver of the right of subrogation for the benefit of the other party, such party shall, within thirty (30) days of receiving notice of such inability, give the other party written notice of such inability.

ARTICLE VII
MAINTENANCE, REPAIRS AND ALTERATIONS

7.01 Alterations — Changes.

A) At any time and from time to time during the Lease Term, Tenant may, at its sole expense, make any alterations, additions or changes, whether structural or nonstructural, to any portion or all of any Improvements which may exist at any time and from time to time on any portion of the Premises, and may, at its option, construct new Improvements on the Premises, or remove or demolish Improvements on the Premises, provided that all such alterations or changes in Improvements and new Improvements shall be performed in a first-class manner and must comply with all laws, zoning regulations and ordinances, and any conditions on permits issued pursuant thereto. If the change, alteration or addition is structural or exterior in nature Landlord's written approval shall be first obtained, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

B) Tenant shall at all times keep the Entire Premises, Premises or any part thereof, free and clear of all liens and claims for labor or material and free and clear of all attachments, executions and notices.

C) Upon termination of this Lease, Tenant may, at its option, remove any personal property and trade fixtures including, but not limited to theatre seats, projection and sound equipment, snack bar equipment and computers.

7.02 Repairs — Maintenance.

A) Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, maintain and repair the Entire Premises and Tenant's Building and all improvements on the Entire Premises exclusive of Landlord's Buildings if any and including all exterior lighting and signs.

B) Tenant shall also be responsible for any losses or damages resulting to Landlord's Buildings, if any, from any materials, substances or liquids which are leaked or discharged from any area outside Landlord's Buildings, if any, unless such leakage or discharge is caused by Landlord or Landlord's agents or employees.

Tenant shall commence all of the repairs and maintenance within 3 days after receiving notice thereof from Landlord (provided that in the case of an emergency Tenant shall commence such work immediately upon receiving notice) and shall be diligently completed in a good and workmanlike manner. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord shall have the right and option (but not the obligation) to undertake any such repair, maintenance or other items, in which event Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for all of the costs thereof within 30 days after Landlord's request therefor. If Tenant fails to reimburse Landlord within the 30 day period, Tenant shall pay Landlord in addition interest thereon at the rate of 18% per annum until such payment has been made.

ARTICLE VIII

ENVIRONMENTAL MATTERS

8.01 Definition. For purposes of this Article VIII, the term “Hazardous Material” means (a) any substance, product, waste or other material of any nature whatsoever which is or becomes listed, regulated, or addressed pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 9601, et seq. (“CERCLA”); the Hazardous Materials Transportation Act, 49 U.S.C. Section 1801, et seq.; the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 6901, et seq. (“RCRA”); the Toxic Substances Control Act, 15 U.S.C. Section 2601 et seq.; the Clean Water Act, 33 U.S.C. Section 1251, et seq.; the California Hazardous Waste Control Act, Health and Safety Code Section 25100, et seq.; the California Hazardous Substance Account Act, Health and Safety Code Section 25330, et seq.; the California Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act, Health and Safety Code Section 25249.5, et seq.; California Health and Safety Code Section 25280, et seq. (Underground Storage of Hazardous Substances); the California Hazardous Waste Management Act, Health and Safety Code Section 25170.1, et seq.; California Health and Safety Code Section 25501, et seq. (Hazardous Materials Response Plans and Inventory); or the California Porter-Cologne Water Quality Control Act, Water Code Section 13000, et seq., all as amended, or any other federal, state or local statute, law, ordinance, resolution, code, rule, regulation, order or decree regulating, relating to, or imposing liability or standards of conduct concerning any hazardous, toxic or dangerous waste, substance or material, as now or at any time hereafter in effect; (b) any substance, product, waste or other material of any nature whatsoever which may give rise to liability under any of the above statutes or under any statutory or common law theory based on negligence, trespass, intentional tort, nuisance or strict liability or under any reported decisions of a state or federal court; (c) petroleum or crude oil, other than petroleum and petroleum products contained within regularly operated motor vehicles; (d) asbestos; (e) subsurface gas; (f) urea formaldehyde foam insulation; (g) poly chlorinated biphenyls (“PCBs”); and freon and other chlorofluorocarbons.

8.02 Tenant’s Responsibilities and Landlord Indemnity.

A) Tenant shall not cause or permit any Hazardous Materials to be brought upon, stored, used, generated, released into the environment or disposed of, on, in, under or about the Entire Premises, the Common Area, or any other portion of the Premises by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees, in violation of any law. Upon the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease, Tenant covenants to remove from the Premises, and/or Entire Premises at its sole cost and expense, any and all Hazardous Materials, including any equipment or systems containing Hazardous Materials, which are brought upon, stored, used, generated or released into the environment at or above actionable levels by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Tenant hereby indemnifies and defends (with counsel experienced and competent in litigating issues of Hazardous Materials) Landlord and agrees to hold Landlord, the Premises and the Entire Premises free and harmless from and against any and all claims, judgments, damages, penalties, fines, costs, liabilities and losses (including, without limitation, diminution in the value of the Premises, damages for the loss or restriction on use of rentable space or of any amenity of the Premises, and sums paid in settlement of claims, attorneys’ fees, consultant fees and expert fees) which arise directly or indirectly from the presence of actionable levels of Hazardous Materials on, in or about the Premises which is through Tenant’s (or its agents, employees, contractors or invitees) acts or omissions brought upon, stored, used, generated or released into the environment by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees (referred to as "Tenant's Environmental Acts"). This indemnification by Tenant of Landlord includes, without limitation, any and all costs incurred in connection with any investigation of site conditions or any clean up, remedial, removal or restoration work required by any federal, state or local governmental agency or political subdivision because of the presence of such Hazardous Materials in, on or about the Premises, or the soil or ground water on or under the Premises or any portion thereof due to Tenant's Environmental Acts. Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of any release of Hazardous Materials in the Premises, which Tenant becomes aware of during the term of this Lease, caused by Tenant's Environmental Acts. Landlord agrees to indemnify, defend and hold Tenant harmless from all claims, judgments, damages, penalties, fines, costs, resulting from the presence of Hazardous Materials on or about the Premises, (i) on the Commencement Date of this Lease, and/or (ii) during or after the term of this Lease, if the presence of Hazardous Materials results from any cause other than Tenant's Environmental Acts.

B) Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of, and shall promptly provide Landlord with true, correct, complete and legible copies of all of the following environmental items relating to the Premises which may be filed or prepared by or on behalf of, or delivered to or served upon Tenant: reports filed pursuant to any self-reporting requirements, reports filed pursuant to any applicable laws or this Lease, all permit applications, permits, monitoring reports, workplace exposure and community exposure warnings or notices and all other reports, disclosures, plans or documents (excluding those which may be reasonably characterized as confidential) relating to water discharges, air pollution, waste generation or disposal, underground storage tanks or Hazardous Materials.

C) In addition to Tenant's routine reporting obligations described in (B) above, Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of, and shall promptly provide Landlord with true, correct, complete and legible copies of all of the following environmental items relating to the Premises which may be filed or prepared by or on behalf of, or delivered to or served upon, Tenant: all orders, reports, listings and correspondence (excluding those which may be reasonably considered confidential) of or concerning the release, investigation of, compliance, clean up, remedial and corrective actions, and abatement of Hazardous Materials whether or not required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by or given pursuant to any applicable laws, and all complaints, pleading and other legal documents filed against Tenant related to Tenant's use, handling, storage or disposal of Hazardous Materials. In the event of a release of any Hazardous Materials in, on or about the Premises, Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord and provide Landlord with copies of all reports and correspondence with or from all governmental agencies, authorities or any other persons relating to such release.

D) Landlord, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall have the right, but not the obligation, to join and participate in any legal proceedings or actions initiated in connection with any claims or causes of action arising out of the storage, generation, use or disposal by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees, of Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises caused by Tenant's Environmental Acts which results in (i) injury to any person, (ii) injury to or any contamination of the Premises or (iii) injury to or contamination of any real or personal property wherever situated. Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall promptly take all actions necessary to return the Premises to the condition existing prior to the introduction of such Hazardous Materials to the Premises and to remedy or repair any such injury or contamination. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall not, without Landlord's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or denied or conditioned or delayed, take any remedial action in response to the presence of any Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises or enter into any settlement agreement, consent decree or other compromise with any governmental agency with respect to any Hazardous Materials claims; provided, however, Landlord's prior written consent shall not be necessary in the event that the presence of Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises (i) poses an immediate threat to the health, safety or welfare of any individual or (ii) is of such nature that an immediate remedial response is necessary and it is not possible to obtain Landlord's consent before taking such action.

8.03 Remedial Work. In the event any investigation or monitoring of site conditions or any clean-up, containment, restoration, removal or other remedial work ("Remedial Work") is required (a) under any applicable federal, state or local law or regulation, (b) by any judicial, arbitral or administrative order, (c) to comply with any agreements affecting the Premises or (d) to maintain the Premises in a standard of environmental condition which presents no risk to safety or health, prevents the release of any hazardous materials to adjacent property and otherwise is consistent with the prudent ownership of property of the character of the Premises and/or Tenant's Building and if such Remedial Work is required as a direct result of Tenant's Environmental Acts, then Tenant at Tenant's sole cost and expense, including without limitation, any taxes or penalties assessed in connection with the Remedial Work, shall perform or cause to be performed such Remedial Work; and if such Remedial Work is required for any reason other than Tenant's Environmental Acts, then, Landlord, at Landlord's sole cost and expense, including without limitation, any taxes or penalties assessed in connection with the Remedial Work, shall perform or cause to be performed such Remedial Work. All Remedial Work shall be conducted (i) in a diligent and timely fashion by licensed contractors acting under the supervision of a consulting environmental engineer, (ii) pursuant to a detailed written plan for the Remedial Work approved by any public or private agencies or persons with a legal or contractual right to such approval, (iii) with such insurance coverage pertaining to liabilities arising out of the Remedial Work as is then customarily maintained with respect to such activities, and (iv) only following receipt of any required permits, licenses or approvals. The selection of the Remedial Work contractors, any disclosures to or agreements with any public or private agencies or parties relating to Remedial Work and the written plan for the Remedial Work (and any changes thereto) each shall be subject to the other party's prior written approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, denied, conditioned or delayed. In addition, the party doing the Remedial Work shall submit to the other party, promptly upon receipt or preparation, copies of any and all reports, studies, analyses, correspondence, governmental comments or approvals, proposed removal or other remedial work contracts and similar information prepared or received by such party in connection with any Remedial Work or Hazardous Materials relating to the Premises. In the event the party responsible therefor should fail to commence or cause to be commenced in a timely fashion, or fail diligently to prosecute to completion, such Remedial Work, the other party (following written notice) may, but shall not be required to, cause such Remedial Work to be performed, and all costs and expenses thereof, or incurred in connection therewith (i) in the case where Tenant is the responsible party, shall be paid as additional rent due and payable within thirty (30) days of Landlord's invoice therefor, or (ii) in the case where Landlord is the responsible party, shall be paid by Landlord to Tenant within thirty (30) days of Tenant's invoice therefor, and if not timely paid by Landlord, in addition to all other rights and remedies, Tenant shall have the right of offset against rent which may become due. Neither party shall be obligated to perform Remedial Work under this Section while it is contesting the application of any law, regulation or order, provided the other party is not exposed to any additional liability, risk or damages. Obligations under this Section are solely for the benefit of the parties, their successors, and assigns and any subtenants of this Lease, and not for any other third parties.

8.04 Maintenance of Premises.

A) Subject to Landlord's obligation under Section 8.02(A), Tenant at its sole cost and expense shall keep and maintain the Premises in compliance with, and shall not cause or permit the Premises to be in violation of, any federal, state or local laws, statutes, ordinances, orders, guidelines, rules or regulations relating to health and safety, to industrial hygiene or to environmental conditions on, under or about the Premises, including, but not limited to, air, soil and ground water conditions.

B) Tenant shall be liable and responsible for any Hazardous Materials which Tenant causes to be brought onto the Premises.

8.05 Landlord's Responsibilities and Tenant's Indemnity.

A) Landlord shall not cause or permit any Hazardous Materials to be brought upon, stored, used, generated, released into the environment or disposed of, on, in, under or about the Entire Premises, the Common Area, or any other portion of the Premises by Landlord, its agents, employees, tenants, contractors or invitees, in violation of any law.

B) Landlord shall promptly notify Tenant of, and shall promptly provide Tenant with true, correct, complete and legible copies of, all of the following environmental items relating to the Entire Premises which may be filed or prepared by or on behalf of, or delivered to or served upon, Landlord: all orders, reports, listings and correspondence (even those which may be considered confidential) of or concerning the release, investigation of, compliance, clean up, remedial and corrective actions, and abatement of Hazardous Materials whether or not required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by or given pursuant to any applicable laws, and all complaints, pleading and other legal documents filed against Landlord related to Landlord's or Landlord's other tenant's use, handling, storage or disposal of Hazardous Materials. In the event of a release of any Hazardous Materials in, on or about the Entire Premises, Landlord shall promptly notify Tenant and provide Tenant with copies of all reports and correspondence with or from all governmental agencies, authorities or any other persons relating to such release.

C) Except for the obligations of Tenant as set forth in this Article VIII, Landlord shall exonerate, indemnify, pay and protect, defend and hold harmless (with counsel reasonably approved by Tenant) and save Tenant and Tenant's successors and assigns, and their directors, trustees, beneficiaries, officers, shareholders, employees and agents (collectively, Tenant's "Related Parties"), harmless from and against any claims (including, without limitation, third party claims for personal injury or real or personal property damage), actions, administrative proceedings (including informal proceedings), judgments, damages, punitive damages, penalties, fines, costs, taxes, assessments, liabilities (including sums paid in settlement of claims), interest or losses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses (including any such fees and expenses incurred in enforcing this provision or collecting any sums due hereunder), consultant fees, and expert fees, together with all other costs and expenses of any kind or nature (collectively, the "Costs") that arise directly or indirectly in connection with the presence, suspected presence, release or suspected release of any Hazardous Materials in or into the air, soil, groundwater, surface water or improvements at, on, about, under or within the Premises, or any portion thereof, or elsewhere in connection with the transportation of Hazardous Materials to or from the Premises or the Entire Premises. In the event Tenant or any of its Related Parties shall suffer or incur any such Costs, Landlord shall pay to Tenant or such Related Party the total of all such Costs suffered or incurred by Tenant or such Related party upon demand therefor. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the indemnification provided by this Section 8.05 shall specifically cover Costs, including capital, operating and maintenance costs, incurred in connection with any investigation or monitoring of site conditions, any clean-up, containment, remedial, removal or restoration work required or performed by any federal, state or local governmental agency or political subdivision or performed by any nongovernmental entity or person because of the presence, suspected presence, release or suspected release of any Hazardous Materials in or into the air, soil, groundwater, surface water or improvements, at, on, about, under or within the Premises (or any portion thereof), or elsewhere in connection with the transportation of, Hazardous Materials to or from the Premises and any claims of third parties for loss or damage due to such Hazardous Materials.

8.06 Landlord Inspection. Landlord and Landlord's agents and employees shall have the right, but not the obligation, to inspect, investigate, sample and/or monitor the Premises, including any soil, water, ground water or other sampling, and any other testing, digging, drilling or analyses, at any time to determine whether Tenant is complying with the terms of this Article VIII, and in connection therewith, Tenant shall provide Landlord with full access to all relevant facilities, records and personnel. If Tenant is in default with any of the provisions of this Article VIII, Landlord and Landlord's agents and employees shall have the right, but not the obligation, without limitation upon any of Landlord's other rights and remedies under this Lease, to immediately enter upon the Premises and to discharge Tenant's obligations under this Article VIII at Tenant's expense, notwithstanding any other provisions of this Lease. Landlord and Landlord's agents and employees shall endeavor to minimize interference with Tenant's business. All sums reasonably disbursed, deposited or incurred by Landlord in connection therewith, including, but not limited to, all costs, expenses and actual attorneys' fees, shall be due and payable by Tenant to Landlord, as an item of additional rent, on demand by Landlord, together with interest thereon at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum.

8.07 Effect of Termination.

A) Upon termination of this Lease, Tenant shall advise Landlord in writing whether or not, to the best of Tenant's knowledge, Tenant is in default of any provision of this Article VIII and if it is in default, the specific nature of such default.

B) All liabilities of Landlord and Tenant, respectively, under this Article VIII, accrued as of the date this Lease terminates, shall survive such termination.

ARTICLE IX IMPROVEMENTS

9.01 Tenant Improvements. Tenant at its sole cost and expense shall complete all the required on-site and off-site improvements, including all signs, required for the development of the Entire Premises. In addition Tenant shall construct a motion picture theater building on the Premises containing approximately sixty thousand (60,000) square feet with sixteen auditoriums. Landlord will provide Tenant with a site and building allowance of $4,992,180.00. The site and building allowance will be paid by Landlord to Tenant the latter of July 1, 1996 or the date Tenant opens to the public for business.

9.02 Hold Harmless. Except to the extent attributable to the intentional or negligent acts or omissions of Landlord or Landlord's agents, employees, contractors, tenants, or invitees, Tenant shall indemnify, protect, defend and hold harmless Landlord and the Premises from and against all claims and liabilities arising by virtue of or relating to construction of by Tenant of Tenant's Building or Improvements or repairs made at any time to the Premises including repairs, restoration and rebuilding and all other activities of Tenant on or with respect to the Premises. If Tenant is required to defend any action or proceeding pursuant to this Section to which action or proceeding Landlord is made a party, Landlord shall also be entitled to appear, defend, or otherwise take part in the matter involved, at its election, by counsel of its own choosing, and to the extent Landlord is indemnified under this Section, Tenant shall bear the cost of Landlord's defense, including attorney's fees; provided, however, Tenant shall be liable for attorney's fees only if single legal counsel (or a single firm of legal counsel) cannot represent both Landlord and Tenant without there arising an actual or potential conflict of interests.

9.03 Permits; Compliance With Codes. As a further condition of such subordination, Landlord, Tenant and the Mortgagee shall enter into a non-disturbance and attornment agreement in a form reasonably acceptable to all parties executing such instrument.

ARTICLE XIII
CONDEMNATION — EMINENT DOMAIN

13.01 Definitions. The following definitions apply in construing provisions of this Lease relating to a taking of or damage to all or any part of the Entire Premises or Improvements or Parking or any interest in them by eminent domain or inverse condemnation:

A) "Taking" means that taking or damaging, including severance damage, by eminent domain or by inverse condemnation for any public or quasi-public use under any statute. The transfer of title may be either a transfer resulting from the recording of a final order in condemnation or a voluntary transfer or conveyance to the condemning agency or entity under threat of condemnation, in avoidance of an exercise of eminent domain, or while condemnation proceedings are pending. The Taking shall be considered to take place as of the date on which the right to compensation and damages accrues under the law applicable to the Premises, unless the condemnor also takes actual physical possession of the Premises or a part thereof, in which case the date of Taking for the purposes of this Lease shall be the later of the date on which the right to compensation and damages accrues or the date physical possession is taken by the condemnor.

B) "Total Taking" means the Taking of the fee title to all the Premises and the Improvements on the Premises, which shall be considered to include any offsite improvements effected by Tenant to serve the Premises or the improvements or the parking on the Entire Premises.

C) "Partial Taking" means any Taking (including any damaging) of a portion of the Premises, the Common Area, or any Improvements or parking thereon which is not a Total Taking.

D) "Notice of Intended Taking" means any notice or notification on which a reasonably prudent man would rely and which he would interpret as expressing an existing intention of Taking as distinguished from a mere preliminary inquiry or proposal. It includes, but is not limited to, the service of a condemnation summons and complaint on a party to this Lease. The notice is considered to have been received when a party to this Lease receives from the condemning agency or entity a Notice of Intended Taking, in writing, containing a description or map of the Taking reasonably defining the extent of the Taking.

E) "Award" means compensation paid for the Taking, whether pursuant to judgment or by agreement or otherwise.

13.02 Notice to Other Party. The party hereto receiving any notice of the kinds specified below shall promptly give the other party notice of the receipt, contents, and date of the notice received:

- A) Notice of Intended Taking;
- B) Service of any legal process relating to condemnation of the Premises or improvements;
- C) Notice in connection with any proceedings or negotiations with respect to such a condemnation; or
- D) Notice of intent or willingness to make or negotiate a private purchase, sale or transfer in lieu of condemnation.

13.03 Total Taking — Effect on Rent and Term. On a Total Taking, Tenant's obligation to pay Rent shall terminate on, and Tenant's interest in the leasehold shall continue until, the date of Taking, at which time this Lease shall terminate.

13.04 Distribution of Award for Taking. On a Taking, all sums, including, but not limited to, damages and interest awarded for the value of the real estate taken, shall be apportioned and paid by the governmental body taking the Premises as follows:

- A) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any for the Fair Market Value of all Land, buildings and other improvements on the Entire Premises and all Severance Damages.
- B) To Tenant, the amount awarded, if any, for loss of goodwill, lost business, lost profits, relocation expenses and fixtures; and
- C) To Landlord, any balance.

Tenant shall only be entitled to payments under this Section 13.04 out of amounts awarded by the governmental body taking the Premises.

13.05 Partial Taking — Rent Adjustments. On a Partial Taking, the Lease shall remain in full force and effect covering the remaining Premises, except that the total Rent as otherwise provided herein shall be reduced in the same ratio as the percentage of the area of the Premises or the parking taken bears to the total area of the Premises or the parking.

13.06 Partial Taking — Option to Terminate. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event of a Partial Taking, if more than thirty-three percent (33%) of the Building or thirty-three (33%) of the parking is taken by condemnation or sold under the threat of condemnation, then Tenant may terminate this Lease as of the date the condemning authority takes title or possession, whichever occurs first, by delivering written notice to the other within ten (10) days after receipt of written notice of such taking (or in the absence of such notice, within ten (10) days after the condemning authority takes possession).

13.07 Separate Tenant's Award. In the event of a Taking, Tenant may make a separate claim with respect to lost business, lost profits, goodwill, moving expenses, fixtures and relocation expenses against the acquiring governmental Agency.

ARTICLE XIV DEFAULT

14.01 Tenant's Default. The occurrence of any of the following shall constitute a default or event of default by Tenant:

A) Failure to pay Annual Fixed Rent or any other monetary amount when due as provided herein, if the failure continues for ten (10) days after first written notice has been given to Tenant by Landlord;

B) Failure to perform any of Tenant's non-monetary obligations under this Lease, provided however, Tenant shall have thirty (30) days from receipt of written notice by Landlord to cure each such default. If Tenant cannot reasonably cure such default within said thirty (30) day period, Tenant shall not be in default of this Lease if Tenant commences to cure the breach within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the breach.

14.02 Landlord's Remedies Cumulative. Landlord shall have the following remedies set forth in subsections (A) through (G) below if Tenant commits a default, except as provided in Section 15.03. These remedies are not exclusive and may be exercised concurrently or successively, they are cumulative in addition to any remedies now or later allowed by law or equity:

A) Bring Suit for Performance. Landlord may bring suit for the collection of the Rent or other amounts for which Tenant is then in default, or for the performance of any other covenant or agreement devolving upon Tenant, all without having to enter into possession or terminate this Lease;

B) Re-Entry Without Termination. Pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1954.4, Landlord may re-enter the Premises, by legal proceedings (or without legal proceedings if the Premises have been abandoned), and take possession thereof, without thereby terminating this Lease, and thereupon Landlord may expel all persons and remove all property therefrom, without becoming liable to prosecution therefor, and relet the Premises or a portion or portions thereof, and receive the rent therefrom, applying the same first to the payment of the reasonable expenses of such re-entry and the reasonable cost of such reletting, and then to the payment of the Rent and other amounts for which Tenant is then in default; the balance, if any, to be paid to Tenant, who, whether or not the Premises are relet, shall remain liable for any deficiency. It is agreed that the commencement and prosecution of any action by Landlord in forcible entry and detainer, ejectment, or otherwise, or the appointment of a receiver, or any execution of any decree obtained in any action to recover possession of the Premises, or any re-entry, shall not be construed as an election to terminate this Lease unless Landlord shall, in writing, expressly exercise its election to declare the Lease Term hereunder ended and to terminate this Lease, and unless this Lease be expressly terminated, such re-entry or entry by Landlord, whether had or taken under summary proceedings or otherwise, shall not be deemed to have absolved or discharged Tenant from any of its obligations and liabilities for the remainder of the Lease Term. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary or other provisions of this Section 14.02(B), Tenant shall have the right to sublet the Premises, assign its interest in the Lease, or both, subject to Landlord's prior right, during any continuance of Tenant's default, to relet the Premises or a portion or portions thereof.

C) Termination of Lease and Lessee's Right to Possession. No act by Landlord, other than giving Tenant written notice of termination of this Lease, shall in fact terminate the Lease. Upon termination of the Lease, neither Landlord nor Tenant shall have any future rights or obligations under the Lease except that Landlord shall have the right to recover from Tenant the following:

(1) The worth, at the time of the award, of the unpaid Rent that had been earned at the time of termination of this Lease;

(2) The worth, at the time of the award, of the amount by which the unpaid Rent that would have been earned after the date of termination of this Lease until the time of award exceeds the amount of the loss of Rent that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided;

(3) The worth, at the time of the award, of the amount by which the unpaid Rent for the balance of the Term after the time of award exceeds the amount of the loss of Rent that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided; and

(4) Any other amount, and court costs, necessary to compensate Landlord for all detriment proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform his obligations under the Lease or which, in the ordinary course of things, would be likely to result therefrom.

D) Definitions. As used herein, the following phrases shall be interpreted as follows:

(1) "The worth, at the time of the award," as used in subsections 14.02(C)(1) and (2) above, is to be computed by allowing interest at the maximum lawful rate. "The worth, at the time of the award," as referred to in subsection 14.02(C)(3) above, is to be computed by discounting the amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco at the time of the award, plus one percent (1%).

(2) As used herein, the term "time of award" shall mean either the date upon which Tenant pays to Landlord the amount recoverable by Landlord as hereinabove set forth or the date of entry of any determination, order, or judgment of any court or other legally constituted body determining the amount recoverable, whichever first occurs.

E) Surrender. Promptly after notice of termination, Tenant shall surrender and vacate the Premises and all improvements in broom-clean condition, and Landlord may re-enter and take possession of the Premises and all remaining improvements and eject all parties in possession or eject some and not others, or eject none. Termination under subsection 14.02(C) shall not relieve Tenant from the payment of any sum due to Landlord or from any claim for damages previously accrued or then accruing against Tenant.

F) Appointment of Receiver. If Tenant defaults under Section 14.02(C), Landlord shall have the right to have a receiver appointed to collect rent from any subtenants. Neither the filing of a petition for the appointment of a receiver nor the appointment itself shall constitute an election by Landlord to terminate this Lease.

G) Landlord's Right to Cure Tenant's Default. Landlord, at any time after Tenant is in default under Section 14.01 herein, may cure the default at Tenant's expense. If Landlord, at any time, by reason of Tenant's default, pays any sum or does any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Landlord shall be immediately reimbursed from Tenant to Landlord, together with interest at eighteen percent (18%) per annum computed from the date of such expenditure until the date of reimbursement by Tenant.

14.03 Landlord's Default.

A) The occurrence of the following shall constitute a default by Landlord. Breach of any provision of this Lease if the breach is not cured within thirty (30) days after written notice by Tenant; provided, however, that if the breach cannot reasonably be cured within such thirty (30) day period, Landlord shall not be in default of this Lease if Landlord commences to cure the breach within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the default.

B) Tenant, at any time after Landlord is in default under paragraph (A) above, may cure the default at Landlord's expense. If Tenant at any time, by reason of Landlord's default, pays any sum or does any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Tenant shall be immediately reimbursed by Landlord, together with interest at eighteen percent (18%) per annum determined at the time the expenditure is made by Tenant computed from the date of such expenditure until the date of reimbursement by Landlord. If Landlord fails to make such payment(s) within fifteen (15) days after Tenant's written demand, Tenant shall be entitled to offset any amount due from Landlord against the next Rent payment due under this Lease.

14.04 Waiver of Redemption. Tenant hereby expressly waives any and all rights of redemption granted by or under any present or future laws in the event of Tenant being dispossessed or removed from the Premises upon the termination of this Lease because of default by Tenant hereunder.

14.05 Dispute Resolution. Landlord and Tenant desire by provisions of this Section 14.05 to establish procedures to facilitate the informal and inexpensive resolution of any dispute arising out of this Lease by mutual cooperation and without resort to litigation. To accomplish this objective, Landlord and Tenant agree to follow the procedures set forth below if and when a dispute arises between them under this Lease.

A) Description of Dispute. The complaining party shall provide by notice a written description of the alleged breach by the other party. This description shall explain the nature of the complaint and the Lease provision(s) on which it is based. The complaining party shall also set forth a proposed solution to the problem including a specific time frame within which the parties must act. The party receiving the letter of complaint must respond in writing within ten (10) days with an explanation, including references to the relevant parts of the Lease and a response to the proposed solution. Within ten (10) days of receipt of this response, the parties must meet and discuss options for resolving the dispute. The complaining party must initiate the scheduling of the resolution meeting.

B) Mediation. A settlement conference shall be held within thirty (30) days of the unsuccessful resolution meeting or as soon as practical thereafter.

C) Arbitration. With respect to disputes which the parties have been unable to resolve informally or by mediation, the parties agree to submit the dispute for final and binding arbitration if the dispute has not otherwise been settled. The parties agree that the arbitration must be initiated within one (1) year after the date of the written description of the alleged breach and that the failure to initiate arbitration within the one (1) year period constitutes an absolute bar to the initiation of any proceedings. An arbitration shall be deemed initiated for the purposes of this section by demand therefor being sent by certified mail to the other party, which notice shall contain a description of the dispute, the amount involved and the remedies sought. The parties shall have the right to representation by counsel throughout the arbitration proceedings. Arbitration shall be conducted under the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association.

14.06 Attorneys' Fees. Should any action or proceeding, be commenced between the parties to this Lease concerning said Premises, this Lease, or the rights and duties of either in relation thereto, the party, Landlord, or Tenant, prevailing in such action or proceeding shall be entitled, in addition to such other relief as may be granted in the action or proceeding, to a reasonable sum as and for its attorneys' fees therein which shall be determined by the arbitrator(s) hearing such action or proceeding.

If, however, such reconstruction or rebuilding can be made under such existing laws, ordinances, statutes and regulations (or can be so made with minor and non-material changes to the former condition and form of the property damaged or destroyed), but the cost of so repairing or reconstructing such damage or destruction is in excess of the Fifty percent (50%) provided for in subparagraph (A)(1) of this Section 16.01, Tenant shall have the absolute right to treat such damage as under subparagraph (A)(1) of this Section 16.01 as if the damage or destruction met the description thereof set forth in the first sentence of that Section if Tenant (i) gives

B) Any notice, request, demand or communication by Tenant to Landlord must be in writing and delivered personally to Landlord or sent by certified (return receipt requested) or private express courier (postage fully prepaid), addressed to Landlord to the addresses set forth in Section 17.11 below or at such other address(es) as Landlord shall designate by notice given as herein provided. If Tenant is notified of the identity and address of Landlord's mortgagee or beneficiary under a deed of trust, or ground or underlying lessor, Tenant shall give such party notice of any default by Landlord hereunder by certified or private express mail carrier.

C) The time of the rendition of such bills or statements and of the giving of such consents, notices, demands, requests or communications (collectively "notice") by Tenant or Landlord shall be deemed to be the earlier of (i) the date received by Tenant with respect to a notice to Tenant, and the date received by Landlord with respect to a notice to Landlord (ii) if the notice is sent by certified mail, five (5) days after the same is mailed, or (iii) if the notice is sent by private overnight courier (e.g., Federal Express or similar courier), one (1) day after the same is delivered to or picked up by such courier. Rejection or refusal to accept a notice, request, demand, or the inability to deliver same because of a changed address of which no notice was given shall be deemed to be a receipt of the notice, request or demand sent.

17.11 Addresses for Notices to Landlord and Tenant.

Notices to are to be delivered, mailed or couriered to the following address(es):

To Landlord:	Syufy Enterprises 150 Golden Gate Ave. San Francisco, CA 94102
To Tenant:	Century Theatres of California, Inc. 150 Golden Gate Avenue San Francisco, CA 94102 Attention: Real Estate Department

Tenant and Landlord may change their respective addresses for purposes of this section by giving written notice of such change to the other.

17.12 Entire Agreement. This Lease and the exhibits attached set forth the entire agreement between the parties. Except as specifically set forth herein, there are no agreements, representations, or warranties whatsoever as to any matter. Any prior agreements, conversations, or writings are merged herein, superseded hereby, and extinguished.

17.13 Sale or Transfer of Premises. Landlord shall promptly notify Tenant in writing of any sale or transfer of the Premises or any assignment of Landlord's interest in this Lease, giving the name and address of the assignee or new owner, as the case may be, and instructions regarding the payment of rent or any other amount required to be paid by Tenant hereunder. In the event of any transfer or assignment of Landlord's interest in this Lease or any change in, or transfer of, title in and to the Premises of any part thereof, whether voluntary or involuntary, or by act of Landlord or by operation of law, Tenant shall be under no obligation to pay rent or other charges payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder, thereafter accruing, until Tenant shall have been notified in writing of such transfer, assignment, or change in title, and given satisfactory proof thereof, and the withholding of rent or other charges payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder, in the meantime shall not be deemed a default upon the part of Tenant. Landlord may assign this Lease and convey its title to the Premises, subject to this Lease, at any time. In the event of such assignment of this Lease, Landlord shall have no further obligations under this Lease, except for liabilities which shall have accrued prior to the date of such assignment and transfer and that the assignee assumes in writing Landlord's obligations hereunder accruing on and after the effective date of the assignment.

17.14 Force Majeure. In the event that Tenant shall be delayed or hindered in or prevented from the performance of any act other than Tenant's obligation to make payments of rent, and other charges required hereunder, by reason of strikes, lockouts, unavailability of materials, failure of power, restrictive governmental laws or regulations, riots, insurrections, the default of Landlord, war, or other reason beyond its control, then performance of such act shall be excused for the period of the delay, and the period for the performance of such act shall be extended for a period equivalent to the period of such delay. Notwithstanding the foregoing, lack of funds shall not be deemed to be a cause beyond the control of Tenant.

17.15 Waiver. No term, covenant, or condition of this Lease can be waived except in writing, signed by the party making the waiver, Landlord or Tenant, as the case may be. No waiver of any default hereunder shall be implied from any omission by either party to take any action on account of such default if such default persists or is repeated, and no express waiver shall affect any default other than the default specified in the express waiver, and that only for the time and to the extent therein stated. The acceptance by Landlord of Rent or partial Rent with knowledge of the breach of any of the covenants of this Lease by Tenant shall not be deemed a waiver of any such breach. One or more waivers of any breach of any covenant, term, or condition of this Lease shall not be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same covenant, term, or condition. The consent or approval by either party shall not be deemed to waive or render unnecessary that party's consent to or approval of any subsequent similar act.

17.16 Estoppel Certificate. Either party hereto shall, within twenty (20) days notice from the other party (referred to as the "Requesting Party"), execute and deliver to the Requesting Party, in recordable form, a certificate stating that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect, or in full force and effect as modified, and stating the modifications. The certificate also shall state the amount of current monthly rent, the dates to which the rent has been paid in advance, the amount of prepaid rent, and any other information with respect to this Lease reasonably requested by the Requesting Party. Failure to deliver the certificate within the twenty (20) days shall be conclusive upon the party failing to deliver the certificate for the benefit of the party requesting the certificate and any successor to the party requesting the certificate, that this Lease is in full force and effect, and has not been modified except as may be represented by the party requesting the certificate, and that rent and other charges have not been paid for any period after date of the notice requesting the certificate.

17.17 Number and Gender. Whenever the context requires the singular number, it shall include the plural, the plural the singular, and the use of any gender shall include all genders.

17.18 No Holding Over. Tenant shall have no right to holdover after the end of the Term. Should Tenant or any Leasehold Mortgagee succeeding to the interest of Tenant hold over in possession after the expiration date, such holding over shall not be deemed to extend the Lease or renew this Lease; and Tenant shall pay a pro-rated daily amount equal to one hundred twenty percent (120%) of the Annual Rent in effect immediately preceding the expiration date until Tenant vacates the Premises.

17.19 Mechanics Liens. Tenant shall discharge, by payment, bonding or otherwise, any mechanics liens filed against the Premises or the Entire Premises in connection with Tenant's work and/or any alterations or other work done by or on behalf of Tenant in the Premises within thirty (30) days after Tenant receives notice of the filing of such lien, and Landlord shall cooperate with Tenant at no expense to Landlord, in order to accomplish such discharge. Should Tenant fail to so discharge any such mechanics lien, Landlord shall have the right to remove such mechanics liens and charge all costs thereof, including without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, to Tenant as additional rent plus interest at 18%.

17.20 Relationship of Parties. Nothing contained in this Lease shall be construed to create the relationship of principal and agent, partnership, joint venture or any other relationship between the parties hereto other than the relationship of Landlord and Tenant. Nothing contained herein shall in any way impose any liability upon the stockholders, officers or directors of Landlord or stockholders, officers, directors or trustees of Tenant should such parties be corporate entities.

17.21 Time of the Essence. Time is of the essence with respect to Tenant's payment of rent and other monetary obligations to Landlord under this Lease.

17.22 Facsimile Copies. Tenant and Landlord (i) have each agreed to permit the use, from time to time and where appropriate, of telecopied signatures in order to expedite the transaction contemplated by this Lease, (ii) each intend to be bound by its respective telecopied signature, (iii) are each aware that the other will rely on the telecopied signature, and (iv) each acknowledge such reliance and waive any defenses to the enforcement of the documents effecting the transaction contemplated by this Lease based on a telecopied signature.

17.23 Anti-Merger. The voluntary or otherwise surrender of this Lease by Tenant, or a mutual cancellation of this Lease shall not work a merger but shall at the option of Landlord either:

A) Terminate any existing subleases or subtenancies; or

B) Operate as an assignment to Landlord (and assumption by Landlord) of any subleases or subtenancies.

Executed as of the date first written above.

This Second Amendment to Lease (this “Amendment”) dated April 15, 2005 is executed by and between Syufy Enterprises, L.P., a California limited partnership (“Landlord”) and Century Theatres, Inc., a California corporation (“Tenant”).

Witnesseth:

Whereas, Landlord and Century Theatres of California, Inc., a California corporation, entered into a lease dated December 1, 1995, as amended by that certain First Amendment to Lease, dated September 1, 2000 between Landlord and Century Theatres, Inc., a Delaware corporation (as amended, the “Lease”), for a motion picture building and related parking (the “Premises”) located at Red Elk Drive and Big Horn Boulevard, Laguna, County of Sacramento, California and known as Century Laguna 16; capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Lease; and

Whereas, Century Theatres, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Century Theatres (DE)”), succeeded Century Theatres of California, Inc., as Tenant; and

Whereas, Century Theatres (DE) assumed all obligations of Century Theatres of California, Inc., as set forth in the Lease; and

Whereas, Century Theatres, Inc., a California corporation, has succeeded Century Theatres (DE) as Tenant; and

Whereas, Century Theatres, Inc., a California corporation, has assumed all obligations of Century Theatres (DE), as set forth in the Lease; and

Whereas, the parties desire now to amend the Lease to revise and clarify certain obligations between the parties, as hereinafter provided;

Now, Therefore, the parties hereto mutually agree that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary therein, the Lease shall be amended as follows:

A. Landlord’s Right to Develop

1. After the first sentence of Section 2.01 (a) of the Lease, the following is hereby inserted:

Tenant expressly agrees that Landlord shall have the right, but shall have no obligation, to demolish, renovate, remodel, reconstruct or otherwise alter or develop in any manner the Entire Premises or any portion thereof for any and all uses beyond the Permitted Use (the “Development”) without Tenant’s consent; provided, however, that the Development shall not materially interfere with the Permitted Use or impede Tenant’s access to the Premises other than as expressly set forth herein. In addition to developing some or all of the Entire Premises that are outside of the

Century Laguna 16 — Laguna, California

Building, Landlord's Development rights set forth above shall include the rights to develop and lease at least one (1) pad for retail purposes substantially as shown on Exhibit A attached hereto (the "Retail Pad") and all roof-top and other exterior communication and advertising rights on or about the Entire Premises, including, without limitation, the exclusive right to install, locate, maintain, use, replace and repair satellite dishes and other roof-top communications equipment on the roof of the Building. In connection with the foregoing, (a) Tenant agrees that Tenant shall have no right to lease or otherwise allow any third party to access or use the roof of the Building or any portion of the Premises for any use other than the Permitted Use and (b) in the event that Landlord develops and leases the Retail Pad, at Landlord's option, Tenant shall enter into a reciprocal parking agreement granting Landlord and the Retail Pad tenant(s) nonexclusive access to and use, without charge or restriction, of the parking areas serving the Premises and described in the Lease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord and Tenant agree that in connection with the Development, Landlord may, among other things, require Tenant to remove up to two hundred (200) theatre seats from the Premises (the "Agreed Upon Reduction") in order to accommodate the parking requirements of both Tenants' use of the Premises and the Development, as such parking requirements are reasonably determined by Landlord. In no event shall Tenant be entitled to an abatement of Rent or consideration of any kind in connection with the Agreed Upon Reduction.

2. Tenant hereby waives all claims of any nature whatsoever Tenant may now have or may hereafter have against Landlord relating in any manner to, directly or indirectly, the Development. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Landlord shall not be liable for any damage to persons or property located in, on or about the Premises resulting from or in connection with the Development, and Tenant waives and shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Landlord from any and all claims asserted by Tenant or Tenant's officers, agents, employees, contractors, licensees, invitees or guests arising from damage resulting from or in connection with the Development (except to the extent such damage is caused by the willful act or gross negligence of Landlord; provided, however, that Landlord shall not be liable for any consequential damages, including, without limitation, any claim for loss of profit or business).

B. Surrender

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease, upon the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease and promptly following Tenant's receipt of a cost estimate thereof from Landlord, Tenant shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to the cost of demolishing the improvements located on the Premises and removing all surface debris therefrom to Landlord's reasonable satisfaction, as such cost estimate is determined by Landlord in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion; provided, however, that Tenant may remove any or all of Tenant's furniture, fixtures and equipment (the "FF&E") from the Premises, so long as such removal occurs within forty-five (45) days after the Termination Date and Tenant repairs all extraordinary damage caused by such removal. Except as set forth above, from and after the Termination Date, the parties shall have no further rights under the Lease nor further obligations with respect to the

Century Laguna 16 — Laguna, California

Premises, except for any rights or obligations which expressly survive the termination of the Lease in accordance with the provisions thereof or at law.

C. Miscellaneous

2. This Amendment to Lease is hereby executed and shall be effective as of the date first written above. All other conditions of the Lease shall remain in full force and effect.

3. This Amendment shall bind and inure to the benefit of Landlord and Tenant and their respective legal representatives and successors and assigns.

4. Each party hereby specifically represents and warrants that its execution of this Amendment has been duly authorized by all necessary corporate or other action, and that this Amendment when fully signed and delivered shall constitute a binding agreement of such party, enforceable in accordance with its terms.

SUCH REDACTED INFORMATION HAS BEEN FILED SEPARATELY WITH THE COMMISSION PURSUANT TO THE CONFIDENTIAL TREATMENT REQUEST.

(Laguna)

THIS FOURTH AMENDMENT TO LEASE AGREEMENT (this “Amendment”) is entered into as of August 7, 2006 to be effective as of the Effective Date (as defined hereinbelow) by and between SYUFY ENTERPRISES, L.P., a California limited partnership (“Landlord”), and CENTURY THEATRES, INC., a California corporation (“Tenant”).

R E C I T A L S:

A. Landlord (then known as Syufy Enterprises, a California limited partnership (“Original Landlord”)) and Century Theatres of California, Inc., a California corporation (“Original Tenant”), entered into a certain Lease dated as of December 1, 1995 (the “Original Lease”), for certain premises located in Laguna, Elk Grove, California.

B. The Original Lease has been previously amended by that certain (i) First Amendment to Lease dated as of September 1, 2000 (the “First Amendment”), (ii) Second Amendment to Lease dated as of April 15, 2005 (the “Second Amendment”) and (iii) Third Amendment to Lease dated as of September 29, 2005 (the “Third Amendment”; the Original Lease as heretofore amended is referred to herein as the “Lease”).

C. Tenant has succeeded to the interests and assumed the obligations of Original Tenant as the lessee under the Lease.

D. Landlord has succeeded to the interests and assumed the obligation of Original Landlord as the lessor under the Lease.

E. Landlord and Tenant now desire to further amend the Amended Lease, upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Amendment.

NOW THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt, adequacy and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Lease is hereby modified and amended, and Landlord and Tenant hereby agree, as follows:

1. Recitals Incorporated: Certain Defined Terms. The Recitals set forth above are incorporated into this Amendment and shall be deemed terms and provisions hereof, the same as if fully set forth in this Paragraph 1. Capitalized terms that are used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed to such terms in the Lease.

2. Effectiveness. The parties are entering into this Amendment in connection with the contemplated acquisition of all the outstanding capital stock of Century Theatres, Inc. by Cinemark Holdings, Inc. and Cinemark USA, Inc. (the “Acquisition”) pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement dated as of the date hereof (the “Stock Purchase Agreement”). This Amendment shall become automatically effective upon, and only upon, the closing of the Acquisition (the “Effective Date”). In the event the Acquisition is not consummated and the Stock Purchase Agreement is terminated, this Agreement shall become void ab initio and of no force and effect.

3. Initial Term of Lease and Extension Options. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease but subject to the provisions of the Lease applicable to the exercise an validity of such Renewal Terms, the Initial Term of the Lease is hereby extended to and shall expire on  and rather than  Renewal Terms of  each (as provided in the Lease), Tenant shall have the option to extend the Initial Term for  consecutive Renewal Terms of  each, followed by  additional and final Renewal Term of .

4. Landlord's Recapture Right. If, at any time during the term of the Lease, Tenant fails to satisfy the Operating Condition (defined below), for reasons other than Excused Closure (defined below), and such failure continues for six (6) consecutive months or more, then upon notice from Landlord to Tenant at any time thereafter (provided that the Operating Condition remains unsatisfied), Landlord shall have the right to terminate the Lease and to recapture the Leased Premises, without payment to Tenant, effective upon the date set forth in Landlord's termination notice (but not sooner than 30 days after the date of the termination notice).

The term "Operating Condition" shall mean and require that the entire Leased Premises is being continuously operated and regularly open for business to the general public as a motion picture theater complex in accordance with the Lease, at least on such days and at such times that a majority of Century's and Cinemark's other motion picture theater complexes in the County of Sacramento typically are open and operating. The term "Excused Closure" shall mean (i) periods of construction, alterations, renovation, remodeling and repair of the Leased Premises undertaken in accordance with this Lease (including repairs and restoration following damage or destruction due to fire or other casualty) provided that Tenant (A) prosecutes such work to completion with reasonable diligence, (B) exercises its reasonable efforts to minimize the length of time of such closure, and (C) exercises its reasonable efforts to limit the number of motion picture screens at the Premises that are not operated due to such closure; (ii) periods when Tenant cannot practicably operate its business in the Premises as a consequence of force majeure; and (iii) additional periods, not to exceed four (4) days in any Lease Year, when Tenant in its sole discretion elects not to operate its business in the Leased Premises.

5. Self-Insurance of Property/Casualty Risks. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Lease, during any period in which Tenant maintains a Net Worth (as defined below) of at least One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000.00), Tenant may self insure the so-called "physical property damage insurance" otherwise required to be maintained by Tenant pursuant to the Lease. As used herein, the "Net Worth" of Tenant at any given time shall mean an amount equal to the sum of (A) the product of (1) Tenant's so-called EBITDA (i.e., earnings before interest, income taxes, depreciation and amortization), calculated in accordance with commercially reasonable past practice preceding the Effective Date by Tenant's parent corporation, over the 12-month period immediately preceding the time of measurement, multiplied by (2) eight (8), plus (B) the amount of cash and cash equivalents held by Tenant on the most recent anniversary of Tenant's annual insurance renewal date, minus (C) the amount of outstanding funded debt of Tenant on the determination date.

6. Damage and Destruction — Repairs by Tenant. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, the following shall apply to repairs and restoration upon damage or destruction:

(A) Tenant's Obligation to Repair. If the Leased Premises are damaged or destroyed by any peril after the Commencement Date of this Lease, then Tenant shall repair the damage and restore the Leased Premises in accordance with this Section, except as provided in subsection (B) hereinbelow. Unless Tenant is not required to effect the repairs and restoration pursuant to subsection (B) below, Tenant shall promptly apply for and diligently seek to obtain all necessary governmental permits and approvals for the repair and restoration of the Leased Premises and, upon issuance of such governmental permits and approvals, promptly commence and diligently prosecute the completion of the repairs and restoration of the Leased Premises (to the extent permitted by applicable law) to substantially the same condition in which the Leased Premises were immediately prior to such damage or destruction (subject to any alterations which Tenant would be permitted to make to the Leased Premises pursuant to this Lease).

(B) Damage in Excess of 20%. If the Leased Premises are damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty which occurs in the last two years of the Initial Term or any Renewal Term and Tenant has no further options to extend the term of the Lease, and if the cost to repair such damage or to restore the Leased Premises as required in subsection (A) exceeds twenty percent (20%) of the replacement cost of the Leased Premises (as determined by an independent architect selected by Tenant and approved by Landlord in Landlord's reasonable discretion) and such damage makes it impracticable to operate the Leased Premises in the reasonable business judgment of Tenant, then (i) Tenant shall have the option, upon notice to Landlord not later than one hundred eighty (180) days following the occurrence of the applicable casualty, not to undertake the repairs and restoration of the Leased Premises, and (ii) if Tenant so elects not to undertake the repairs and restoration, then Tenant nevertheless shall raze Tenant's Building and remove from the Leased Premises all building materials and debris and all underground installations that serve only the Leased Premises (including the footings and foundations of Tenant's Building and the utility lines serving Tenant's Building) and restore the surface of the Premises to a graded and landscaped surface.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, the proceeds of any property insurance maintained by Tenant (including proceeds of self-insurance, if applicable), net of actual-out-of-pocket costs to adjust and settle the loss, shall be distributed to and used by Tenant, in accordance with the Lease.

7. Permitted Assignments and Release. Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, the following shall apply and control:

Subject to the next sentence, Tenant may sublet or assign this Lease only upon receipt of Landlord's written consent which consent Landlord agrees shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned. Notwithstanding anything in this Lease to the contrary, its is agreed that at any time during the term of this Lease, Tenant may, without Landlord's consent or approval (but only upon prior written notice to Landlord), assign this Lease or sublet the Leased Premises to: (i) any wholly-owned subsidiary of Tenant, (ii) any corporation, trust, partnership or individual that owns fifty percent (50%) or more of the issued and outstanding stock of Tenant, or (iii) any legal entity that is engaged in the motion picture exhibition business and operates motion picture theater complexes containing at least 100 theater screens (auditoria), excluding the Leased Premises and any other premises concurrently being acquired from Tenant. A change in control of Tenant shall not constitute an assignment of this Lease requiring Landlord's consent or approval, provided, however, that if any assignee under clause (i) above ceases to be a wholly owned subsidiary of Tenant, then the same shall be deemed to constitute an assignment which is prohibited without Landlord's approval under Article XI of the Lease.

If Tenant shall assign this Lease pursuant to clause (ii) or clause (iii) above, and provided that (A) the assignee assumes in writing all obligations of Tenant under the Lease and delivers such executed written assumption to Landlord, and (B) Landlord shall have received from assignee's chief financial officer or controller a certification that the Net Worth of the assignee (determined as provided above) equals or exceeds $100,000,000.00 calculated in accordance with Cinemark USA, Inc.'s methodology in calculating Net Worth as set forth in Section 5 hereof, then Tenant shall be released of any and all liability thereafter arising under the Lease. Except as expressly provided above, no assignment, subletting or other transfer of the Lease or the Leased Premises shall relieve or release Tenant from any liabilities or obligations arising under the Lease.

8. Leasehold Financing. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, Tenant shall have the right, without Landlord's consent to encumber the leasehold estate created under the Lease and/or to grant a security interest in Tenant's removable trade fixtures, furnishings and equipment located within the Leased Premises (but not to encumber Landlord's fee interest in the Premises), to secure financing provided to Tenant by any bank, thrift institution, insurance company or other institutional lender. Tenant agrees to notify Landlord of any such encumbrance. With respect to any such leasehold financing (and provided that Tenant is not in default under the Lease beyond any applicable notice or cure period), upon thirty (30) days' prior written request from Tenant, Landlord will execute and deliver to the secured lender a "Landlord's Agreement" in the form attached hereto as Exhibit "A-1".

9. Memorandum of Lease. On the Effective Date, Landlord and Tenant will enter into and record a short form memorandum of the Lease, in the form of Exhibit "A-2" attached hereto or otherwise in proper form for recording. Tenant shall be solely responsible for the cost of recording the memorandum, including (if applicable) any transfer taxes that may be due and payable in connection with the Lease.

10. Gross Sales. Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary the definition of Gross Sales shall be as follows:

“Gross Sales” shall mean the total amount of all revenues (whether in cash or credit) generated or derived from the conduct of any business at the Leased Premises, including (without limitation) all box office receipts of or at the Leased Premises (including receipts from tickets or gift certificates redeemed at the Leased Premises regardless of the point of sale), as well as any and all receipts from the sale of goods, services, merchandise, beverages, food, vending machines and video games at the Leased Premises; provided, however, that the following shall be excluded from “Gross Sales” (i) credits and refunds made with respect to admissions or other sales otherwise included in Gross Sales, (ii) all federal, state, county and city admission taxes, sales and use taxes, entertainment taxes, royalty taxes, gross receipt taxes and other similar taxes now or hereafter imposed and owing to the taxing authority by Tenant (whether such taxes are collected from customers separately from the selling price of admission tickets or absorbed by Tenant); (iii) receipts from the sale of gift certificates or tickets sold but not redeemed at the Leased Premises; (iv) with respect to any tickets or admissions ordered or paid for over the internet and redeemed at the Leased Premises, the portion (if any) of the sale price that exceeds Tenant’s actual box-office ticket price; (v) sales price for merchandise returned, (vi) amounts retained by credit card issuers, (vii) sales outside of the ordinary course of business, (viii) amount of credit card sales deemed uncollectible, (ix) advertising revenues including without limitation media, sponsorship, and promotional advertising of any kind, and (x) the receipts of or from so-called “four-wall deals” with a party that is not affiliated with Tenant, except that the portion thereof or other amounts paid to Tenant in connection with such “four-wall deals” shall be included in “Gross Sales” under this Lease. Commissions or surcharges paid to agencies or other third parties not affiliated with Tenant for selling tickets or processing credit card transactions, and any sums paid to third parties not affiliated with Tenant for the use or rental of vending machines, pay telephones, amusement machines and other similar devices shall be deducted from “Gross Sales” (if and to the extent previously included in “Gross Sales”).

11. Taxes. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Lease or this Amendment to the contrary, if during the ten (10) year period immediately following the Effective Date, any sale or change in ownership of the Premises (or against the Entire Premises, if the Premises are not separately assessed) is consummated by Landlord and, as a result, all or part of the Premises (or Entire Premises, if applicable) are reassessed (a “Reassessment”) for real property tax purposes by the appropriate governmental authority under the terms of Proposition 13 (as adopted by the voters of the State of California in the June 1978 election) or the terms of Article XIII A of the Constitution of the State of California, then the terms of this Section shall apply. For purposes of this Section, the term “Tax Increase” shall mean that portion of the annual real estate taxes assessed against the Premises (or the Entire Premise, if applicable), as calculated immediately following the Reassessment, that is attributable solely to the Reassessment. Accordingly, a Tax Increase shall not include any portion of the real estate taxes, as calculated immediately following the Reassessment, that is:

- (i) Attributable to the assessment of the value of the Premises (or Entire Premises, if applicable) prior to the Effective Date;
- (ii) Attributable to the annual inflationary increases in real estate taxes; or
- (iii) Attributable to the sale of Landlord's ownership interest in Tenant on or about the Effective Date, or attributable to the execution of this Amendment or any extension of the Term of this Lease on the Effective Date or thereafter.

During the five (5) year period immediately following the Effective Date, Tenant shall not be obligated to pay any portion of any Tax Increase relating to a Reassessment.

Commencing on the fifth anniversary of the Effective Date, and continuing until the tenth anniversary of the Effective Date, Tenant shall be obligated to pay annually only the portion of a Tax Increase relating to a Reassessment that is equal to (or less than) an increase of four percent (4%) per annum, compounded annually, from the Effective Date, in the annual amount owed by Tenant for real estate taxes under the terms of the Lease, from the annual amount owed by Tenant for real estate taxes under the terms of the Lease in calendar 2006.

The terms and provisions of this Section shall not apply to any increase in real estate taxes which results from or is attributable to any occurrence, fact or circumstance other than a sale by Landlord of Landlord's interest in the Premises or a transfer effected by Landlord which is treated as a sale by the local taxing authorities under Proposition 13 (excluding those matters identified in clause (iii) above). This Section shall not apply from and after the tenth (10th) anniversary of the Effective Date of this Amendment.

12. Alterations by Tenant.

Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, the following shall apply and control:

Tenant shall have the right from time to time, at its sole cost and expense, to make interior alterations, improvements, or changes in the Leased Premises as Tenant shall deem necessary or beneficial in Tenant's use of the Leased Premises as a motion picture theatre complex, including (without limitation) the conversion to stadium seating of the auditoria (if any) in the Leased Premises. Tenant shall fully and completely indemnify Landlord against any mechanics' or other liens in connection with the making of such alterations and changes, and shall pay all costs, expenses, and charges thereof. Any alterations, improvements or changes by Tenant must be consistent with the use and operation of the Leased Premises as a motion picture theatre complex. Tenant shall be required to complete all alterations, improvements and changes undertaken by Tenant. Alterations, changes and improvements shall be performed in a first-class manner and must comply with all laws, zoning regulations and ordinances, and any conditions on permits issued pursuant thereto. If it is necessary in Tenant's reasonable judgment to close any of the motion picture screens during the period in which any of Tenant's work permitted hereunder is performed, said closure(s) shall be effected only in accordance with the provisions governing an "Excused Closure", as that term is defined in Section 4 of this Amendment.

13. Rooftop Equipment and Access. Tenant shall have the exclusive right to install, operate, repair, replace and maintain satellite dishes and/or other communication transmission devices (collectively "Rooftop Equipment") on the roof of the theatre necessary or appropriate to accept any transmission of signals to the theatre for all permitted uses, including without limitation, for movies, advertising, concerts, telecasts, corporate meetings or communications and the like; but Tenant shall be prohibited from entering into any leases or licenses with any third parties for retransmission from such Rooftop Equipment, and Tenant shall not retransmit such signals to a third party outside of the Leased Premises. Landlord shall not use, or permit any person or entity (other than Tenant), to use the roof or exterior walls of the theatre for any purpose whatsoever, and Landlord agrees not to enter into any leases or licenses with third parties for the use of the theater rooftop. Landlord shall be responsible for any damage to the rooftop caused by the Landlord or a third party that enters onto the theatre rooftop with Landlord's permission, and Landlord shall indemnify and hold Tenant harmless from all loss, cost, damage or expense which Tenant incurs as a result of the acts or omissions of said third party or their agents or employer. Tenant hereby indemnifies and agrees to hold Landlord and Landlord's successors and assigns harmless from all loss, cost, damage or expense which Landlord incurs as a result of the actions of Tenant, or its agents or employees in installing and utilizing Rooftop Equipment as permitted hereunder.

14. Alterations and Development by Landlord. Landlord agrees that with respect to the Entire Premises, the following restrictions shall apply to Landlord's usage and improvement thereof:

- (i) Any alterations or new construction to the Entire Premises or contiguous property owned or controlled by Landlord or its affiliates as of the Effective Date (the "Contiguous Property") may be made without Tenant's consent only if such alterations or new construction do not materially and adversely affect Tenant's operations (including, without limitation, parking, access, ingress and egress to the theatre building and visibility of the theatre building and/or on-building theatre signage). Any such alterations or new construction on the Entire Premises and any cross parking or cross access arrangements between the Entire Premises and the Contiguous Property will first be submitted to Tenant for approval, not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed, and Tenant shall be required to identify the manner in which Tenant's operations are so affected. If Landlord and Tenant are unable to agree on whether such alteration or new construction materially and adversely affects Tenant's operations, including without limitation, parking, access, ingress and egress and visibility, the parties agree to submit the issue to binding arbitration pursuant to the Lease.
- (ii) Landlord shall not lease, sell or use any space on Non-leased Premises or the Contiguous Property for operating a motion picture theatre.
- (iii) Subject to existing leases, licenses and operating agreements, Landlord shall not lease, license, enter into an operating agreement for, sell or use any space on Non-leased Premises for operating the following: a bowling alley; a bar or lounge (other than a bar or lounge that is connected with a restaurant, deriving 50% of its revenues from the sale of food); a liquor store (other than first-class or upper-end wine or liquor store such as “BevMo”); a bulk candy store, (other than upper-end candy stores such as Godiva, Sees, Rocky Mountain Chocolates and similar concepts); a popcorn store; a massage parlor or adult (i.e., pornographic) book store.

- (iv) Landlord shall not place any carts, kiosks or other temporary structures selling food and/or beverages within common areas of the Entire Premises unless such carts, kiosks or other structures are more than 500 feet from the theatre. Such carts and kiosks may not sell any food or beverages sold in the theatre. Landlord shall not place any vending machines selling food and/or beverages on the common areas of the Entire Premises unless such vending machines are more than 500 feet from the theatre.
- (v) Any new buildings shall be limited to retail, restaurant, residential and/or office uses.

15. Permitted Use and Operations. From and after the Effective Date, Tenant shall be permitted to use and operate the Leased Premises as and only as: a first-class motion picture theatre complex (whether operated as a so-called “first-run” theatre, a “second-run” theatre, and/or an “art house” theatre). In no event shall Tenant be permitted to operate the Leased Premises as a so-called “adult” theater complex.

16. No Obligation To Continuously Operate. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease or otherwise, Landlord hereby acknowledges that Tenant shall not be required to continuously operate and open for business in or from the Premises and any election by Tenant to cease operations at the Premises shall not constitute a default or breach of the terms and conditions of the Lease.

17. Removal of Equipment, Surrender and Demolition. Upon the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of the Lease, and provided Tenant is not in default under the Lease beyond applicable notice and cure periods, and said earlier termination is not due to Tenant’s default under the Lease, then for a period extending forty-five (45) days beyond the date of said expiration or termination, Tenant shall be permitted to remove any and all furniture, fixtures and equipment owned and installed by Tenant in, on or to the Leased Premises. Such removal shall be: (a) at Tenant’s sole cost and expense; (b) conducted in such manner that no liens or claims shall arise or exist in connection therewith; (c) conducted in a manner to avoid unreasonable interference with the activities of Landlord and subsequent tenants or occupants upon the Leased Premises and Tenant shall repair all damages caused by such removal.

Upon surrender of the Leased Premises by Tenant and removal of its equipment pursuant to the terms of the Lease and this Amendment, Landlord shall be responsible for the cost of any demolition of the Leased Premises and site grading and restoration as a result except as otherwise provided in the Lease. Such demolition shall be undertaken in Landlord’s sole discretion and at such times, manner and upon such events as Landlord solely shall determine.

18.  Rent Conversion and Early Termination.

(a) As of the Effective Date hereof, the parties have been made aware of the possibility that a new motion picture theatre complex may be developed and operated in the  located in South Sacramento, California (the "Nearby Theatre").

(b) If the Nearby Theatre opens for business and thereafter during any consecutive twelve (12) calendar month period (the "First Test Period"), the Theatre Level Cash Flow ("TLCF"), as defined in Exhibit "A-3" hereto, for the Leased Premises over such First Test Period is less than , then upon notice from Tenant to Landlord at any time when the TLCF over the most current trailing twelve (12) month period was  or within forty-five (45) days after such Test Period, the  Rent Conversion (defined below) will become effective; provided, however, that such notice and Tenant's right pursuant to the  Rent Conversion as provided in this subparagraph (b) shall be void and ineffective unless Tenant shall have satisfied the Operating Condition (defined in Section 3 above) throughout the First Test Period. In order to be effective, Tenant's notice to Landlord under this subparagraph (b) shall include a written certification to Landlord from Tenant's chief financial officer or controller confirming that the TLCF for the First Test Period is less than . Provided Tenant has satisfied the aforesaid conditions, then effective as of the first day of the first calendar month following Landlord's receipt of Tenant's notice as provided above and thereafter so long as Tenant continues to satisfy the Operating Condition, in lieu of Base Rent and Percentage Rent otherwise due under the Lease (but not in lieu of Tenant's share of Impositions or any other amounts payable by Tenant under the Lease, which will continue to be due and payable by Tenant as provided in the Lease) Tenant shall pay to Landlord on a monthly basis an amount equal to  of Tenant's Gross Sales, as defined in Section 10 above (the "* Rent Conversion"). Such amount shall be paid by Tenant monthly in arrears on or before the thirtieth (30th) day after the end of each calendar month. Within sixty (60) days after the end of each fiscal year, Tenant shall provide a written certification of Tenant's Gross Sales for the applicable period, executed by the chief financial officer or controller of Tenant, which shall be subject to the same year-end reporting and reconciliation procedures and the verification and audit rights of Landlord that apply to Percentage Rent under this Lease.

(c) (i) If the Rent Conversion occurs and thereafter during any consecutive twelve (12) calendar month period (the "Second Test Period"), the TLCF for the Leased Premises is less than , then Tenant shall have the right to be exercised by written notice to Landlord at any time when the TLCF over the most current trailing twelve (12) month period was  or within forty-five (45) days after such Second Test Period, to terminate the Lease as provided below in this subparagraph (c); provided, however, that such notice and Tenant's right to terminate the Lease as provided in this subparagraph (c) shall be void and ineffective unless Tenant shall have satisfied the Operating Condition (defined above) continuously throughout the Second Test Period. In order to be effective, Tenant's notice to Landlord under this subparagraph (c) shall include a written certification to Landlord from Tenant's chief financial officer or controller that the TLCF for the Second Test Period is less than . Provided Tenant has satisfied the aforesaid conditions, then this Lease shall be terminated effective as of the date which is thirty (30) days after the expiration of the termination notice.

(ii) If the Rent Conversion occurs, and if at anytime thereafter, Tenant reasonably determines that it is necessary or appropriate to undertake in any prospective 12-month period (the "Cap Ex Test Period"), aggregate capital expenditures (i.e., expenditures required to be capitalized rather than expensed under Tenant's normal income tax accounting procedures) for any repairs and maintenance to the Leased Premises in excess of  which Tenant is otherwise unwilling to make, then, Tenant shall have the right and option to terminate the Lease upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to Landlord, subject to the following terms and conditions: (A) Tenant's notice of termination shall specify in reasonable detail the applicable capital expenditures (the "Cap Ex Projects"), the projected commencement date of each Cap Ex Project and the estimated costs thereof (the "Projected Cap Ex Costs"), prior to incurring same and prior to the commencement of the Cap Ex Test Period; (B) Landlord shall have the ability (but not the obligation) to nullify Tenant's exercise of the termination option set forth in this subclause (ii) by delivering written notice to Tenant within ten (10) business days after the date of its receipt of Tenant's termination notice stating either that (1) Landlord shall reimburse Tenant for the amount by which the actual cost incurred by Tenant (within 30 days of receipt of reasonable documentation of such expense) during the Cap Ex Test Period for the identified Cap Ex Projects (but not more than the Projected Cap Ex Costs) , or (2) Landlord waives its right to terminate this Lease pursuant to Section 18(d) below during the applicable Cap Ex Test Period; (C) if Landlord so nullifies Tenant's purported termination, then Tenant shall be required to undertake the Cap Ex Projects not later than thirty (30) days after the applicable dates specified in Tenant's notice of termination and thereafter to diligently prosecute the Cap Ex Projects to completion, at Tenant's sole cost and expense (subject to reimbursement from Landlord as provided above, if applicable); and (D) if Tenant fails to undertake and complete the identified Cap Ex Projects as aforesaid, then (x) such failure shall constitute a default by Tenant under the Lease, and (y) Landlord's termination rights under Section 18(d) below will be immediately reinstated (notwithstanding the waiver pursuant to clause (2) above, if applicable).

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Lease, including Section 16 above, if Tenant elects to terminate this Lease pursuant to this Section 17 and Landlord demolishes the theatre building of the Leased Premise within twelve (12) months after the date of termination, then Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the actual out-of-pocket costs incurred by Landlord to demolish the theatre building (including, without limitation, the costs to remove from the Leased Premises all building materials and debris and all footings, foundations, utility lines and other underground installations that serve the Leased Premises and the costs to restore the surface of the Premises to a graded and landscaped surface); provided, however, that Tenant's reimbursement obligations shall not exceed an amount equal to the product of  psf multiplied by the ground floor area of the theatre building (in square feet). Tenant shall pay the amount due under this paragraph within thirty (30) days after receiving Landlord's written demand for reimbursement, which shall include reasonable supporting documentation confirming the costs so incurred by Landlord. Tenant's obligations under this paragraph shall expressly survive the termination of the Lease.

(d) If the Rent Conversion occurs, then Landlord shall have the right at anytime thereafter to terminate this Lease upon not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Tenant.

19. California Remedies. Landlord's remedies upon a default under the Lease shall include, without limitation, the following:

Even though Tenant has breached the Lease and/or abandoned the Premises, this Lease shall continue in effect for so long as Landlord does not terminate Tenant's right to possession, and Landlord may enforce all of its rights and remedies under this Lease, including (but without limitation) the right to recover Rent as it becomes due. Landlord has the remedy described in Section 1951.4 of the Civil Code of the State of California or any successor code section (Landlord may continue the Lease in effect after Tenant's breach and abandonment and recover rent as it becomes due, if Tenant has the right to sublet or assign, subject only to reasonable limitations). Acts of maintenance, preservation or efforts to lease the Premises or the appointment of receiver upon application of Landlord to protect Landlord's interest under this Lease shall not constitute an election to terminate Tenant's right to possession.

20. Termination of Lease and Lessee's Right to Possession. Section 15.02(C) of the Lease shall be deemed deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

"If an event of default occurs, Landlord shall have the right, with or without notice or demand, immediately (after expiration of the applicable grace periods) to terminate this Lease, and at any time thereafter recover possession of the Premises or any part thereof and expel and remove therefrom Tenant and any other person occupying the same, by any lawful means, and again repossess and enjoy the Premises without prejudice to any of the remedies that Landlord may have under this Lease, or at law or equity by reason of Tenant's default or of such termination. Should Landlord terminate this Lease pursuant to foregoing, Landlord shall have all the rights and remedies of a landlord provided by Section 1951.2 of the Civil Code of the State of California, or successor code section. Upon such termination, in addition to any other rights and remedies to which Landlord may be entitled at law or in equity, Landlord shall be entitled to recover from Tenant:

- (1) the worth at the time of award of the unpaid Rent which had been earned at the time of termination;
- (2) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent which would have been earned after termination until the time of award exceeds the amount of such Rent loss that the Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided;
- (3) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent for the balance of the Term after the time of award exceeds the amount of such Rent loss that the Tenant proves could be reasonably avoided;
- (4) any other amount, and court costs, necessary to compensate Landlord for all the detriment proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform its obligations under this Lease or which, in the ordinary course of things, would be likely to result therefrom; and
- (5) for any other sums due."

21. Notices. The notices provisions of the Lease, as the case may be, shall be deemed deleted in their entirety and replaced with the following:

(a) Except as otherwise expressly and specifically in this Lease provided, a bill, demand, statement, consent, notice or other communication (“notice”) which either party may desire or be required to give to the other party shall be deemed sufficiently given or rendered if in writing, delivered personally to the party to be charged therewith or sent by certified mail (return receipt requested) or private express mail courier service (postage or delivery or courier fees fully prepaid) addressed to such party at the addresses set forth in subparagraph (c) below (including the addresses for copies of notices) and/or at such other address(es) as such party shall designate to the other party by notice given as herein provided. If Landlord is notified of the identity and address of Tenant’s Leasehold Mortgagee, Landlord shall give such party any notice served upon Tenant hereunder to the last known address of such Leasehold Mortgagee as provided by Tenant to Landlord by certified mail or private express courier service. If Tenant is notified of the identity and address of Landlord’s mortgagee, Tenant shall give such mortgagee any notice served upon Landlord hereunder to the last known address of such mortgagee as provided by Landlord to Tenant, by certified mail or private express courier service.

(b) Any notice given in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section shall be deemed effective upon the earlier of (i) if the notice is personally delivered, the date actually received by intended recipient, (ii) if the notice is sent by certified mail, five (5) days after the same is mailed, or (iii) if the notice is sent by private overnight courier service (e.g., Federal Express, DHL or similar courier), one (1) day after the same is delivered to or picked up by such courier. Rejection or refusal to accept a notice or the inability to deliver same because of a changed address of which no notice was given shall be deemed to be a receipt of the notice sent. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Lease, no provision in this Lease shall preclude service of notices in accordance with Section 1162 of the California Code of Civil Procedure or any similar and/or successor code sections.

(c) Addresses for Notices to Landlord and Tenant.

Notices are to be delivered, mailed or couriered to the following address(es):

22. Miscellaneous Amendments. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, whenever any of the terms “Leased Premises”, “Demised Premises” or “Premises” (and whether or not capitalized) is used herein, it shall be understood to mean the “premises leased hereby”; and whenever the term “Entire Premises” is used herein (and whether or not capitalized), it shall be understood to mean all of the contiguous land and buildings owned by Landlord at this location, which include the premises leased hereby. The term “Non-leased Premises” shall mean the Entire Premises less the Leased Premises.

23. Prior Amendments. All of the provisions of the First Amendment are hereby deleted in their entirety and of no further force and effect except for (i) the first grammatical paragraph of Paragraph A concerning the definition of Consumer Price Index and (ii) Paragraph E concerning the Indemnity and Hold Harmless. Tenant shall concurrently with the delivery of such statement, pay to Landlord any Percentage Rent due for such Lease Year.

Such audit shall be limited to the determination of the Gross Sales as defined in this Lease and shall be conducted during normal business hours at the principal place of business of Tenant. ARTICLE V

TAXES, ASSESSMENTS AND UTILITIES

5.01 Impositions.

A) The term "Impositions" shall mean all real estate taxes, duties or assessments (special or otherwise), water and sewer rents, whether ordinary or extraordinary, general or special, foreseen or unforeseen, of any kind and nature whatsoever, which, at any time during the Lease Term, shall be assessed or levied, or be attributable in any manner to the Entire Premises, or the rents receivable therefrom, or any part thereof or any use thereon or any facility located therein or used in connection therewith, whether or not any of the foregoing shall be a so-called "real estate tax" expressly excluding, however, any other items arising directly or indirectly out of any act or omission of Landlord, any of Landlord's predecessors in title or any other person occurring prior to the commencement of the Term. From and after the Initial Rent Due Date, Tenant shall pay all Impositions assessed, levied or attributable to the Entire Premises and/or the Improvements on the Entire Premises. All Impositions or installments thereof payable with respect to the tax year in which this Lease shall commence, and all Impositions or installments thereof with respect to the tax year in which this Lease shall terminate, shall be pro-rated on a daily basis; provided, however, that assessments or escape assessments assessed as a result of this Lease and/or the construction of Tenant Improvements by Tenant shall not be prorated and shall be paid solely by Tenant; and provided further that assessments attributable to Tenant Improvements made in the final year of the Lease shall be paid solely by Tenant if Tenant demolishes the Tenant Building.

B) With respect to Impositions which are assessed on any Buildings exclusive of the Entire Premises, Tenant shall pay all such impositions. With respect to impositions which by law may be paid in installments over a period of time, Tenant shall be deemed to have elected (the "Installment Election") to pay such Impositions over the longest period of time permitted by law, regardless of whether Tenant has in fact so elected. With respect to each year in which the Installment Election is effective and with respect to the Impositions associated with Landlord's Buildings subject to the Installment Election, Landlord's share of such Imposition(s) for each year shall be the pro rata share of the amount which would be required to be paid to the collecting authority as if Tenant had in fact made the Installment Election. Landlord shall pay all such real property taxes to the Tenant prior to delinquency. In the event Tenant fails to pay to Landlord such real property taxes as provided herein, Landlord shall pay Tenant in addition interest thereon at the rate of 18% per annum from the delinquency date until such payment has been made.

5.02 Exceptions from Impositions; Charges in Lieu of Impositions.

A) Nothing herein contained shall require Tenant to pay any estate, inheritance, succession, capital levy, corporate franchise, gross receipts, transfer, or income tax of Landlord, nor shall any of the same be deemed to be included within the term "Impositions" as defined herein.

B) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article V, if at any time after the date of this Lease the present method of taxation or assessment shall be changed so that in lieu of, as a substitute for (whether in whole or in part) or as a supplement to (provided such supplemental tax relates to real estate or revenues from real estate and not to other property or business as well) the taxes now levied, assessed or imposed on real estate and buildings and Improvements thereon, a tax shall be imposed, assessed or levied wholly or partly on the Rent, or a tax, assessment, levy or charge, measured or based, in whole or in part, on the Entire Premises or on the rents derived therefrom, shall be imposed on Landlord, then Tenant shall pay taxes so measured or based only to the extent that such taxes would be payable if the Entire Premises were the only property of Landlord subject to such taxes, or the income from operation of the Entire Premises were Landlord's only income, as the case may be. In the event of such assessment, Landlord would pay Tenant any such assessment related to any Buildings other than the Leased Premises located on the Entire Premises.

5.04 Contest of Taxes. Tenant at its sole cost and expense may by appropriate legal proceedings conducted in good faith and with due diligence, contest the amount or validity or application, in whole or in part, of any Imposition or lien therefor, or any other lien, encumbrance or charge against the Premises arising from work done or materials provided to or for Tenant. Tenant shall give Landlord reasonable notice of, and information pertaining to, such contest and regular progress reports with respect thereto. Landlord shall cooperate with any effort pursued by Tenant in accordance with this Section 5.04. Tenant shall indemnify, protect and hold harmless Landlord and the Premises from any lien or liability with respect to any such Imposition or contest thereof, including all costs and expenses related thereto. Landlord shall provide Tenant with copies of notice when received by Landlord from the taxing authorities of any assessments or reassessments of the Premises in sufficient time (but in no event later than thirty (30) days after Landlord's receipt of the same) to enable Tenant to contest the same in accordance with the provisions of this Section 5.04.

5.05 Utilities. Tenant shall pay before delinquency, directly to the appropriate company or governmental agency, all charges for all utilities, including, but not limited to, water, gas, electricity, sewer, power, telephone, other communication services and refuse disposal consumed on the Entire Premises including the Common Area but exclusive of Landlord's buildings.

5.06 Personal Property Taxes. During the term of this Lease, Tenant shall pay before delinquency any and all personal property taxes levied or assessed against any personal property located upon the Premises. If Tenant fails to timely pay such taxes and a lien is filed against the Premises, Landlord may discharge such lien, if Tenant fails to discharge such lien within ten (10) days following Tenant's receipt of notice from Landlord, including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees, together with interest at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum from the date of expenditure, such additional rent being due and payable within ten (10) days of notice thereof.

INSURANCE

6.01 Acquisition of Insurance Policies. Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, procure and maintain, or cause to be procured and maintained, during the entire Term the insurance described in this Section (or its then available equivalent), and shall name Landlord and any other parties requested by Landlord as an additional insured.

6.02 Types of Required Insurance. Tenant shall procure and maintain the following:

A) Commercial General Liability Insurance. Commercial general liability insurance insuring against injuries or damages to persons or property sustained in, on or about the Entire Premises (exclusive of the interior of Landlord's Buildings), Leased Premises, Common Area and the appurtenances thereto, including the sidewalks and alleyways adjacent thereto, with limits of liability no less than Ten Million Dollars ($10,000,000) per occurrence and in the aggregate.

B) Physical Property Damage Insurance. During the term hereof, Tenant shall keep Tenant's Building (excluding foundations, footings and underground improvements) and personal property as well as all Improvements on the Common area, (Landlord's Buildings excluded), including, but not limited to, signs, outdoor lighting fixtures and fences insured in the name of Landlord and Tenant against damage or destruction by fire and the perils commonly covered under the extended coverage endorsement (with vandalism and malicious mischief coverage) excluding earthquake and flood to the extent of not less than the full replacement value thereof less any deductible applicable to all of Tenant's theatres insured under a blanket policy. Tenant shall be responsible for determining the amount of fire and extended coverage insurance to be maintained subject to Landlord's consent, which consent is not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The proceeds of such insurance in case of loss or damage shall be held in trust and applied on account of the obligation of Tenant to repair and/or rebuild the Leased Premises pursuant to the Article captioned "Damage Clause" to the extent that such proceeds are required for such purpose. The insurance required to be carried by Tenant under this paragraph may be covered under a so-called "blanket" policy covering other operations of Tenant and its affiliates. Tenant shall name Landlord and any parties requested by Landlord and any holder of a mortgage on Tenant's Building pursuant to a standard mortgage clause with respect to the foregoing hazard insurance, provided such holder agrees with Landlord in writing to disburse such insurance proceeds to Landlord for, and periodically during the course of, repair and restoration of Tenant's Building as set forth in this Lease.

6.03 Terms of Insurance. The policies required under Section 6.02 shall name Landlord as additional insured. Tenant shall provide to Landlord certificates of insurance and copies of policies obtained by Tenant hereunder promptly upon the request of Landlord. Further, all policies of insurance described in Section 6.02 shall:

A) Be written as primary policies not contributing with and not in excess of coverage that Landlord may carry.

B) Contain an endorsement providing that the amount of coverage will not be reduced with respect to Landlord except after thirty (30) days prior written notice from insurance company to Landlord and such coverage may not be canceled with respect to Landlord except after thirty (30) days' prior written notice from insurance company to Landlord.

C) Expressly provide that Landlord shall not be required to give notice of accidents or claims and that Landlord shall have no liability for premiums.

D) Be written by insurance companies having a Bests rating of "A-" or better, and such insurance companies shall be reasonably acceptable to Landlord.

6.04 Landlord's Acquisition of Insurance. If Tenant at any time during the Term fails to procure or maintain insurance required hereunder or to pay the premiums therefor, Landlord shall have the right to procure the same and to pay any and all premiums thereon, and any amounts paid by Landlord in connection with the acquisition of insurance shall be immediately due and payable as additional rent, and Tenant shall pay to Landlord upon demand the full amount so paid and expended by Landlord. Any policies of insurance obtained by Landlord covering physical damage to the Premises shall contain a waiver of subrogation against Tenant if and to the extent such waiver is obtainable and if Tenant pays to Landlord on demand the additional costs, if any, incurred in obtaining such waiver.

6.05 Insurance Money and Other Funds Held in Trust. All insurance money or condemnation proceeds as provided in Article XIV, received by the Tenant shall be turned over to Landlord and held in trust by Landlord and, except as provided otherwise in Section 6.06, shall be applied as follows:

First, to any Leasehold Mortgagee as required under the terms of its Leasehold Mortgage provided that such Mortgage was of record and secured a loan made or committed to Landlord in compliance with all of the terms and conditions of this Lease prior to the occurrence of such loss; second, for the purpose of defraying the cost of repairing, restoring, replacing and/or rebuilding any structure or improvement on or in the Premises as required as provided in Section 6.06 hereof, and third, if the damaged or destroyed structure or improvement is not repaired, restored, replaced or rebuilt as hereinafter provided, said funds shall be disposed of as provided in Section 6.06. Any of said funds in the hands of the Tenant or Landlord at the end of the Term hereof shall be disposed of as set forth in Section 6.06 (A).

6.06 Application or Proceeds of Physical Damage Insurance. In case of any insurance policies as described in Section 6.02 (B) (Physical Property Damage Insurance) the application of insurance proceeds from damage or loss to property shall be determined in part in accordance with Article XVII hereof and, in the event of any such repair, replacement, restoration or rebuilding, the Landlord shall disburse the proceeds of the insurance collected to Tenant to pay the cost of such work upon certificate of satisfactory progress and/or completion in form satisfactory to Landlord by the licensed architect or engineer in charge of the work. Upon completion of such repair, replacement, restoration or rebuilding in accordance with the provisions of this Lease, and the full payment therefor (so no liens, encumbrances or claims with respect thereto can be asserted against the Premises, this Lease, Landlord or Tenant), any insurance proceeds received by the Landlord or Tenant with respect to the damage or destruction involved, and not used, shall remain the property of Landlord.

A) Distribution of Unutilized Proceeds. At the termination of this Lease, such insurance proceeds or condemnation awards received and held by the Landlord and not used for repair, replacement or reconstruction ("Available Proceeds"), shall be disposed as follows:

(1) First, Landlord shall be awarded an amount sufficient to remove any improvements not repaired and to return the Property to the level of adjacent streets ("grade level"); and

(2) Second, any remainder shall be paid to Landlord.

6.07 Cooperation for Insurance Proceeds. Landlord and Tenant shall each cooperate with the other in order to obtain the largest possible recovery and execute any and all consents and other instruments and take all other actions reasonably necessary or desirable to effectuate the same and cause such proceeds to be paid as hereinbefore provided. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, neither party shall carry any insurance concurrent in coverage and contributing in the event of loss with any insurance required to be furnished by the other hereunder if the effect of separate insurance would be to reduce the protection or the payment to be made under such party's insurance or under the insurance required to be furnished by the other.

6.08 Waiver of Right of Recovery. Landlord and Tenant hereby release each other from any and all liability and responsibility to one another and, to the extent legally possible to do so on behalf of their respective insurers and anyone claiming through or under either of them, by way of subrogation or otherwise, hereby waive any liability for any and all loss or damage which is of the type covered by fire and extended coverage insurance described in this Article, irrespective of any negligence on the part of the other party which may have contributed to or caused such loss. Every insurance policy carried by either party with respect to the Premises or Tenant's Building or land or improvements adjoining the Premises owned or leased by Landlord shall (if it can be so written and does not result in a material additional premium) include provisions denying to the insurer subrogation rights against the other party and any fee or leasehold mortgage to the extent such rights have been waived by the insured prior to the occurrence of damage or loss. If the waiver of subrogation otherwise is not effective, each party covenants that it will obtain for the benefit of the other party an express waiver of any right of subrogation which the insurer of such party may acquire against the other party by virtue of the payment of any such loss covered by such insurance. In the event either party is by law, statute, governmental regulation, economically unfeasible or other factor beyond such party's reasonable control unable to obtain a waiver of the right of subrogation for the benefit of the other party, then, during any period of time when such waiver is unobtainable, said party shall be deemed not to have released any subrogated claim of its insurance carrier against the other party, and during the same period of time the other party shall be deemed not to have released the party who has been unable to obtain such waiver from any claims they or their insurance carriers may assert which otherwise would have been released pursuant to this Section. In the event that either party is unable to obtain such waiver of the right of subrogation for the benefit of the other party, such party shall, within thirty (30) days of receiving notice of such inability, give the other party written notice of such inability.

ARTICLE VII

MAINTENANCE, REPAIRS AND ALTERATIONS

7.01 Alterations — Changes.

A) At any time and from time to time during the Lease Term, Tenant may, at its sole expense, make any alterations, additions or changes, whether structural or nonstructural, to any portion or all of any Improvements which may exist at any time and from time to time on any portion of the Premises, and may, at its option, construct new Improvements on the Premises, or remove or demolish Improvements on the Premises, provided that all such alterations or changes in Improvements and new Improvements shall be performed in a first-class manner and must comply with all laws, zoning regulations and ordinances, and any conditions on permits issued pursuant thereto. If the change, alteration or addition is structural or exterior in nature Landlord's written approval shall be first obtained.

B) Tenant shall at all times keep the Premises or any part thereof, free and clear of all liens and claims for labor or material and free and clear of all attachments, executions and notices.

(C) Upon termination of this Lease, Tenant may not remove any personal property and trade fixtures including, but not limited to theatre seats, projection and sound equipment, snack bar equipment and computers.

7.02 Repairs — Maintenance. Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, maintain the Entire Premises which shall include the Common Area, driveways, parking, landscaping, signs, fences, lighting and any and all improvements (exclusive of Landlord's Buildings) in first class condition and make such structural and non-structural, ordinary and extraordinary, foreseen and unforeseen repairs such that the Entire Premises (exclusive of Landlord's Buildings) shall not be in violation of any law or covenant recorded as of the Effective Date.

A) Tenant shall not cause or permit any Hazardous Materials to be brought upon, stored, used, generated, released into the environment or disposed of, on, in, under or about the Entire Premises, the Common Area, or any other portion of the Premises by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees, in violation of any law. Upon the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease, Tenant covenants to remove from the Premises, and/or Entire Premises at its sole cost and expense, any and all Hazardous Materials, including any equipment or systems containing Hazardous Materials, which are brought upon, stored, used, generated or released into the environment at or above actionable levels by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Tenant hereby indemnifies and defends (with counsel experienced and competent in litigating issues of Hazardous Materials) Landlord and agrees to hold Landlord, the Premises and the Entire Premises free and harmless from and against any and all claims, judgments, damages, penalties, fines, costs, liabilities and losses (including, without limitation, diminution in the value of the Premises, damages for the loss or restriction on use of rentable space or of any amenity of the Premises, and sums paid in settlement of claims, attorneys' fees, consultant fees and expert fees) which arise directly or indirectly from the presence of actionable levels of Hazardous Materials on, in or about the Premises which is through Tenant's (or its agents, employees, contractors or invitees) acts or omissions brought upon, stored, used, generated or released into the environment by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees (referred to as "Tenant's Environmental Acts"). This indemnification by Tenant of Landlord includes, without limitation, any and all costs incurred in connection with any investigation of site conditions or any clean up, remedial, removal or restoration work required by any federal, state or local governmental agency or political subdivision because of the presence of such Hazardous Materials in, on or about the Premises, or the soil or ground water on or under the Premises or any portion thereof due to Tenant's Environmental Acts. Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of any release of Hazardous Materials in the Premises, which Tenant becomes aware of during the term of this Lease, caused by Tenant's Environmental Acts. Landlord agrees to indemnify, defend and hold Tenant harmless from all claims, judgments, damages, penalties, fines, costs, resulting from the presence of Hazardous Materials on or about the Premises, (i) on the Commencement Date of this Lease, and/or (ii) during or after the term of this Lease, if the presence of Hazardous Materials results from any cause other than Tenant's Environmental Acts.

B) Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of, and shall promptly provide Landlord with true, correct, complete and legible copies of all of the following environmental items relating to the Premises which may be filed or prepared by or on behalf of, or delivered to or served upon Tenant: reports filed pursuant to any self-reporting requirements, reports filed pursuant to any applicable laws or this Lease, all permit applications, permits, monitoring reports, workplace exposure and community exposure warnings or notices and all other reports, disclosures, plans or documents (excluding those which may be reasonably characterized as confidential) relating to water discharges, air pollution, waste generation or disposal, underground storage tanks or Hazardous Materials.

C) In addition to Tenant's routine reporting obligations described in (B) above, Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of, and shall promptly provide Landlord with true, correct, complete and legible copies of, all of the following environmental items relating to the Premises which may be filed or prepared by or on behalf of, or delivered to or served upon, Tenant: all orders, reports, listings and correspondence (excluding those which may be reasonably considered confidential) of or concerning the release, investigation of, compliance, clean up, remedial and corrective actions, and abatement of Hazardous Materials whether or not required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by or given pursuant to any applicable laws, and all complaints, pleading and other legal documents filed against Tenant related to Tenant's use, handling, storage or disposal of Hazardous Materials. In the event of a release of any Hazardous Materials in, on or about the Premises, Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord and provide Landlord with copies of all reports and correspondence with or from all governmental agencies, authorities or any other persons relating to such release.

D) Landlord, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall have the right, but not the obligation, to join and participate in any legal proceedings or actions initiated in connection with any claims or causes of action arising out of the storage, generation, use or disposal by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees, of Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises caused by Tenant's Environmental Acts which results in (i) injury to any person, (ii) injury to or any contamination of the Premises or (iii) injury to or contamination of any real or personal property wherever situated. Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall promptly take all actions necessary to return the Premises to the condition existing prior to the introduction of such Hazardous Materials to the Premises and to remedy or repair any such injury or contamination. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall not, without Landlord's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or denied or conditioned or delayed, take any remedial action in response to the presence of any Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises or enter into any settlement agreement, consent decree or other compromise with any governmental agency with respect to any Hazardous Materials claims; provided, however, Landlord's prior written consent shall not be necessary in the event that the presence of Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises (i) poses an immediate threat to the health, safety or welfare of any individual or (ii) is of such nature that an immediate remedial response is necessary and it is not possible to obtain Landlord's consent before taking such action.

8.03 Remedial Work. In the event any investigation or monitoring of site conditions or any clean-up, containment, restoration, removal or other remedial work ("Remedial Work") is required (a) under any applicable federal, state or local law or regulation, (b) by any judicial, arbitral or administrative order, (c) to comply with any agreements affecting the Premises or (d) to maintain the Premises in a standard of environmental condition which presents no risk to safety or health, prevents the release of any hazardous materials to adjacent property and otherwise is consistent with the prudent ownership of property of the character of the Premises and/or Tenant's Building and if such Remedial Work is required as a direct result of Tenant's Environmental Acts, then Tenant at Tenant's sole cost and expense, including without limitation, any taxes or penalties assessed in connection with the Remedial Work, shall perform or cause to be performed such Remedial Work; and if such Remedial Work is required for any reason other than Tenant's Environmental Acts, then, Landlord, at Landlord's sole cost and expense, including without limitation, any taxes or penalties assessed in connection with the Remedial Work, shall perform or cause to be performed such Remedial Work. All Remedial Work shall be conducted (i) in a diligent and timely fashion by licensed contractors acting under the supervision of a consulting environmental engineer, (ii) pursuant to a detailed written plan for the Remedial Work approved by any public or private agencies or persons with a legal or contractual right to such approval, (iii) with such insurance coverage pertaining to liabilities arising out of the Remedial Work as is then customarily maintained with respect to such activities, and (iv) only following receipt of any required permits, licenses or approvals. The selection of the Remedial Work contractors, any disclosures to or agreements with any public or private agencies or parties relating to Remedial Work and the written plan for the Remedial Work (and any changes thereto) each shall be subject to the other party's prior written approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, denied, conditioned or delayed. In addition, the party doing the Remedial Work shall submit to the other party, promptly upon receipt or preparation, copies of any and all reports, studies, analyses, correspondence, governmental comments or approvals, proposed removal or other remedial work contracts and similar information prepared or received by such party in connection with any Remedial Work or Hazardous Materials relating to the Premises. In the event the party responsible therefor should fail to commence or cause to be commenced in a timely fashion, or fail diligently to prosecute to completion, such Remedial Work, the other party (following written notice) may, but shall not be required to, cause such Remedial Work to be performed, and all costs and expenses thereof, or incurred in connection therewith (i) in the case where Tenant is the responsible party, shall be paid as additional rent due and payable within thirty (30) days of Landlord's invoice therefor, or (ii) in the case where Landlord is the responsible party, shall be paid by Landlord to Tenant within thirty (30) days of Tenant's invoice therefor, and if not timely paid by Landlord, in addition to all other rights and remedies, Tenant shall have the right of offset against rent which may become due. Neither party shall be obligated to perform Remedial Work under this Section while it is contesting the application of any law, regulation or order, provided the other party is not exposed to any additional liability, risk or damages. Obligations under this Section are solely for the benefit of the parties, their successors, and assigns and any subtenants of this Lease, and not for any other third parties.

8.04 Maintenance of Premises.

A) Subject to Tenant's obligation under Section 8.02(A), Tenant at its sole cost and expense shall keep and maintain the Premises in compliance with, and shall not cause or permit the Premises to be in violation of, any federal, state or local laws, statutes, ordinances, orders, guidelines, rules or regulations relating to health and safety, to industrial hygiene or to environmental conditions on, under or about the Premises, including, but not limited to, air, soil and ground water conditions.

B) Tenant shall be liable and responsible for any Hazardous Materials which Tenant causes to be brought onto the Premises.

8.05 Landlord's Responsibilities and Tenant's Indemnity.

A) Landlord shall not, without prior advance notice to Tenant, cause or permit any Hazardous Materials to be brought upon, stored, used, generated, released into the environment or disposed of, on, in, under or about the Entire Premises, the Common Area, or any other portion of the Premises by Landlord, its agents, employees, tenants, contractors or invitees, in violation of any law.

B) Landlord shall promptly notify Tenant of, and shall promptly provide Tenant with true, correct, complete and legible copies of, all of the following environmental items relating to the Entire Premises which may be filed or prepared by or on behalf of, or delivered to or served upon, Landlord: all orders, reports, listings and correspondence (even those which may be considered confidential) of or concerning the release, investigation of, compliance, clean up, remedial and corrective actions, and abatement of Hazardous Materials whether or not required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by or given pursuant to any applicable laws, and all complaints, pleading and other legal documents filed against Landlord related to Landlord's or Landlord's other tenant's use, handling, storage or disposal of Hazardous Materials. In the event of a release of any Hazardous Materials in, on or about the Entire Premises, Landlord shall promptly notify Tenant and provide Tenant with copies of all reports and correspondence with or from all governmental agencies, authorities or any other persons relating to such release.

C) Except for the obligations of Tenant as set forth in this Article VIII, Landlord shall exonerate, indemnify, pay and protect, defend and hold harmless (with counsel reasonably approved by Tenant) and save Tenant and Tenant's successors and assigns, and their directors, trustees, beneficiaries, officers, shareholders, employees and agents (collectively, Tenant's "Related Parties"), harmless from and against any claims (including, without limitation, third party claims for personal injury or real or personal property damage), actions, administrative proceedings (including informal proceedings), judgments, damages, punitive damages, penalties, fines, costs, taxes, assessments, liabilities (including sums paid in settlement of claims), interest or losses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses (including any such fees and expenses incurred in enforcing this provision or collecting any sums due hereunder), consultant fees, and expert fees, together with all other costs and expenses of any kind or nature (collectively, the "Costs") that arise directly or indirectly in connection with the presence, suspected presence, release or suspected release of any Hazardous Materials in or into the air, soil, groundwater, surface water or improvements at, on, about, under or within the Premises, or any portion thereof, or elsewhere in connection with the transportation of Hazardous Materials to or from the Premises or the Entire Premises. In the event Tenant or any of its Related Parties shall suffer or incur any such Costs, Landlord shall pay to Tenant or such Related Party the total of all such Costs suffered or incurred by Tenant or such Related party upon demand therefor. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the indemnification provided by this Section 8.05 shall specifically cover Costs, including capital, operating and maintenance costs, incurred in connection with any investigation or monitoring of site conditions, any clean-up, containment, remedial, removal or restoration work required or performed by any federal, state or local governmental agency or political subdivision or performed by any nongovernmental entity or person because of the presence, suspected presence, release or suspected release of any Hazardous Materials in or into the air, soil, groundwater, surface water or improvements, at, on, about, under or within the Premises (or any portion thereof), or elsewhere in connection with the transportation of, Hazardous Materials to or from the Premises and any claims of third parties for loss or damage due to such Hazardous Materials.

If Tenant is in default with any of the provisions of this Article VIII, Landlord and Landlord's agents and employees shall have the right, but not the obligation, without limitation upon any of Landlord's other rights and remedies under this Lease, to immediately enter upon the Premises and to discharge Tenant's obligations under this Article VIII at Tenant's expense, notwithstanding any other provisions of this Lease. Landlord and Landlord's agents and employees shall endeavor to minimize interference with Tenant's business. All sums reasonably disbursed, deposited or incurred by Landlord in connection therewith, including, but not Limited to, all costs, expenses and actual attorneys' fees, shall be due and payable by Tenant to Landlord, as an item of additional rent, on demand by Landlord, together with interest thereon at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum.

CONDEMNATION — EMINENT DOMAIN

14.01 Definitions. The following definitions apply in construing provisions of this Lease relating to a taking of or damage to all or any part of the Entire Premises or Improvements or Parking or any interest in them by eminent domain or inverse condemnation:

A) "Taking" means that taking or damaging, including severance damage, by eminent domain or by inverse condemnation for any public or quasi-public use under any statute. The transfer of title may be either a transfer resulting from the recording of a final order in condemnation or a voluntary transfer or conveyance to the condemning agency or entity under threat of condemnation, in avoidance of an exercise of eminent domain, or while condemnation proceedings are pending. The Taking shall be considered to take place as of the date on which the right to compensation and damages accrues under the law applicable to the Premises, unless the condemnor also takes actual physical possession of the Premises or a part thereof, in which case the date of Taking for the purposes of this Lease shall be the later of the date on which the right to compensation and damages accrues or the date physical possession is taken by the condemnor.

B) "Total Taking" means the Taking of the fee title to all the Premises and the Improvements on the Premises, which shall be considered to include any offsite improvements effected by Tenant to serve the Premises or the improvements or the parking on the Premises.

C) "Partial Taking" means any Taking (including any damaging) of a portion of the Premises, the Common Area, or any Improvements or parking thereon which is not a Total Taking.

D) "Notice of Intended Taking" means any notice or notification on which a reasonably prudent man would rely and which he would interpret as expressing an existing intention of Taking as distinguished from a mere preliminary inquiry or proposal. It includes, but is not limited to, the service of a condemnation summons and complaint on a party to this Lease. The notice is considered to have been received when a party to this Lease receives from the condemning agency or entity a Notice of Intended Taking, in writing, containing a description or map of the Taking reasonably defining the extent of the Taking.

E) "Award" means compensation paid for the Taking, whether pursuant to judgment or by agreement or otherwise.

14.02 Notice to Other Party. The party hereto receiving any notice of the kinds specified below shall promptly give the other party notice of the receipt, contents, and date of the notice received:

- A) Notice of Intended Taking;
- B) Service of any legal process relating to condemnation of the Premises or improvements;
- C) Notice in connection with any proceedings or negotiations with respect to such a condemnation; or
- D) Notice of intent or willingness to make or negotiate a private purchase, sale or transfer in lieu of condemnation.

14.03 Total Taking — Effect on Rent and Term. On a Total Taking, Tenant's obligation to pay Rent shall terminate on, and Tenant's interest in the leasehold shall continue until, the date of Taking, at which time this Lease shall terminate.

14.04 Distribution of Award for Taking. On a Taking, all sums, including, but not limited to, damages and interest awarded for the value of the real estate taken, shall be apportioned and paid by the governmental body taking the Premises as follows:

- A) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any, for the Fair Market Value of all buildings and other improvements on the Premises;
- B) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any, for severance damages
- C) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any, for the "bonus value" of this leasehold estate. The bonus value is the amount by which the fair market rental value on the open market exceeds the contract rent (the amount called for in this Lease);
- D) To Tenant, the amount awarded, if any, for loss of goodwill and relocation expenses;
- E) To Landlord, any other award which will not reduce the amount which otherwise would be awarded to Tenant; and
- F) To Landlord, any balance.

Tenant shall only be entitled to payments under this Section 14.04 out of amounts awarded by the governmental body taking the Premises.

14.05 Partial Taking — Rent Adjustments. On a Partial Taking, the Lease shall remain in full force and effect covering the remaining Premises, except that the total Rent as otherwise provided herein shall be reduced in the same ratio as the percentage of the area of the Premises taken bears to the total area of the Premises.

14.06 Partial Taking — Option to Terminate. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event of a Partial Taking, if more than thirty percent (30%) of the Building or fifty (50%) of the parking is taken by a condemnation or sold under the threat of condemnation, then Tenant may terminate this Lease as of the date the condemning authority takes title or possession, whichever occurs first, by delivering written notice to the other within ten (10) days after receipt of written notice of such taking (or in the absence of such notice, within ten (10) days after the condemning authority takes possession).

14.07 Separate Tenant's Award. In the event of a Taking, Tenant may make a separate claim with respect to lost business, lost profits, goodwill, moving expenses and other related damages against the acquiring governmental Agency.

DEFAULT

15.01 Tenant's Default. The occurrence of any of the following shall constitute a default or event of default by Tenant:

A) Failure to pay Annual Rent or any other monetary amount when due as provided herein, if the failure continues for ten (10) days after first written notice has been given to Tenant by Landlord;

B) Failure to perform any of Tenant's non-monetary obligations under this Lease, provided however, Tenant shall have thirty (30) days from receipt of written notice by Landlord to cure each such default. If Tenant cannot reasonably cure such default within said thirty (30) day period, Tenant shall not be in default of this Lease if Tenant commences to cure the breach within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the breach.

C) Tenant shall file a petition in voluntary bankruptcy under the bankruptcy code of the United States or any similar Law, State or Federal Law, now or hereafter in effect.

15.02 Landlord's Remedies Cumulative. Landlord shall have the following remedies set forth in subsections (A) through (G) below if Tenant commits a default, except as provided in Section 15.03. These remedies are not exclusive and may be exercised concurrently or successively; they are cumulative in addition to any remedies now or later allowed by law or equity:

A) Bring Suit for Performance. Landlord may bring suit for the collection of the Rent or other amounts for which Tenant is then in default, or for the performance of any other covenant or agreement devolving upon Tenant, all without having to enter into possession or terminate this Lease;

B) Re-Entry Without Termination. Pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1954.4, Landlord may re-enter the Premises, by legal proceedings (or without legal proceedings if the Premises have been abandoned), and take possession thereof, without thereby terminating this Lease, and thereupon Landlord may expel all persons and remove all property therefrom, without becoming liable to prosecution therefor, and relet the Premises or a portion or portions thereof, and receive the rent therefrom, applying the same first to the payment of the reasonable expenses of such re-entry and the reasonable cost of such reletting, and then to the payment of the Rent and other amounts for which Tenant is then in default; the balance, if any, to be paid to Tenant, who, whether or not the Premises are relet, shall remain liable for any deficiency. It is agreed that the commencement and prosecution of any action by Landlord in forcible entry and detainer, ejectment, or otherwise, or the appointment of a receiver, or any execution of any decree obtained in any action to recover possession of the Premises, or any re-entry, shall not be construed as an election to terminate this Lease unless Landlord shall, in writing, expressly exercise its election to declare the Lease Term hereunder ended and to terminate this Lease, and unless this Lease be expressly terminated, such re-entry or entry by Landlord, whether had or taken under summary proceedings or otherwise, shall not be deemed to have absolved or discharged Tenant from any of its obligations and liabilities for the remainder of the Lease Term. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary or other provisions of this Section 15.02(B), Tenant shall have the right to sublet the Premises, assign its interest in the Lease, or both, subject to Landlord's prior right, during any continuance of Tenant's default, to relet the Premises or a portion or portions thereof.

C) Termination of Lease and Lessee's Right to Possession No act by Landlord, other than giving Tenant written notice of termination of this Lease, shall in fact terminate the Lease. Upon termination of the Lease, neither Landlord nor Tenant shall have any future rights or obligations under the Lease except that Landlord shall have the right to recover from Tenant the following:

(1) The worth, at the time of the award, of the unpaid Rent that had been earned at the time of termination of this Lease;

(2) The worth, at the time of the award, of the amount by which the unpaid Rent that would have been earned after the date of termination of this Lease until the time of award exceeds the amount of the loss of Rent that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided;

(3) The worth, at the time of the award, of the amount by which the unpaid Rent for the balance of the Term after the time of award exceeds the amount of the loss of Rent that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided; and

(4) Any other amount, and court costs, necessary to compensate Landlord for all detriment proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform his obligations under the Lease or which, in the ordinary course of things, would be likely to result therefrom.

(5) For any other sums due.

D) Definitions. As used herein, the following phrases shall be interpreted as follows:

(1) "The worth, at the time of the award," as used in subsections 15.02(C)(1) and (2) above, is to be computed by allowing interest at the maximum lawful rate. "The worth, at the time of the award," as referred to in subsection 15.02(C)(3) above, is to be computed by discounting the amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco at the time of the award, plus one percent (1%).

(2) As used herein, the term "time of award" shall mean either the date upon which Tenant pays to Landlord the amount recoverable by Landlord as hereinabove set forth or the date of entry of any determination, order, or judgment of any court or other legally constituted body determining the amount recoverable, whichever first occurs.

E) Surrender. Promptly after notice of termination, Tenant shall surrender and vacate the Premises and all improvements in broom-clean condition, and Landlord may re-enter and take possession of the Premises and all remaining improvements and eject all parties in possession or eject some and not others, or eject none. Termination under subsection 15.02(C) shall not relieve Tenant from the payment of any sum due to Landlord or from any claim for damages previously accrued or then accruing against Tenant.

F) Appointment of Receiver. If Tenant defaults under Section 15.02 Landlord shall have the right to have a receiver appointed to collect rent from any subtenants. Neither the filing of a petition for the appointment of a receiver nor the appointment itself shall constitute an election by Landlord to terminate this Lease.

G) Landlord's Right to Cure Tenant's Default Landlord, at any time after Tenant is in default under Section 15.01 herein, may cure the default at Tenant's expense. If Landlord, at any time, by reason of Tenant's default, pays any sum or does any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Landlord shall be immediately reimbursed from Tenant to Landlord, together with interest at eighteen percent (18%) per annum computed from the date of such expenditure until the date of reimbursement by Tenant.

15.03 Landlord's Default.

A) The occurrence of the following shall constitute a default by Landlord: Breach of any provision of this Lease if the breach is not cured within thirty (30) days after written notice by Tenant; provided, however, that if the breach cannot reasonably be cured within such thirty (30) day period, Landlord shall not be in default of this Lease if Landlord commences to cure the breach within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the default.

B) Tenant, at any time after Landlord is in default under paragraph (A) above, may cure the default at Landlord's expense. If Tenant at any time, by reason of Landlord's default, pays any sum or does any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Tenant shall be immediately reimbursed by Landlord, together with interest at eighteen percent (18%) per annum determined at the time the expenditure is made by Tenant computed from the date of such expenditure until the date of reimbursement by Landlord. If Landlord fails to make such payment(s) within fifteen (15) days after Tenant's written demand, Tenant shall be entitled to offset any amount due from Landlord against the next Rent payment due under this Lease.

15.04 Waiver of Redemption. Tenant hereby expressly waives any and all rights of redemption granted by or under any present or future laws in the event of Tenant being dispossessed or removed from the Premises upon the termination of this Lease because of default by Tenant hereunder.

15.05 Dispute Resolution. Landlord and Tenant desire by provisions of this Section 15.05 to establish procedures to facilitate the informal and inexpensive resolution of any dispute arising out of this Lease by mutual cooperation and without resort to litigation. To accomplish this objective, Landlord and Tenant agree to follow the procedures set forth below if and when a dispute arises between them under this Lease.

A) Description of Dispute. The complaining party shall provide by notice a written description of the alleged breach by the other party. This description shall explain the nature of the complaint and the Lease provision(s) on which it is based. The complaining party shall also set forth a proposed solution to the problem including a specific time frame within which the parties must act. The party receiving the letter of complaint must respond in writing within ten (10) days with an explanation, including references to the relevant parts of the Lease and a response to the proposed solution. Within ten (10) days of receipt of this response, the parties must meet and discuss options for resolving the dispute. The complaining party must initiate the scheduling of the resolution meeting.

B) Mediation. A settlement conference shall be held within thirty (30) days of the unsuccessful resolution meeting or as soon as practical thereafter. The settlement conference shall be held in the County of San Francisco, California.

C) Arbitration. With respect to disputes which the parties have been unable to resolve informally or by mediation, the parties agree to submit the dispute for final and binding arbitration if the dispute has not otherwise been settled. The parties agree that the arbitration must be initiated within one (1) year after the date of the written description of the alleged breach and that the failure to initiate arbitration within the one (1) year period constitutes an absolute bar to the initiation of any proceedings. An arbitration shall be deemed initiated for the purposes of this section by demand therefor being sent by certified mail to the other party which notice shall contain a description of the dispute, the amount involved and the remedies sought. The parties shall have the right to representation by counsel throughout the arbitration proceedings. All rulings, decisions, and awards of the arbitrators shall be in conformance with California law. The award may be judicially enforced pursuant to § 1285 et seq of the California Code of Civil Procedure. Each party shall bear their own costs of legal counsel and the fees for witnesses, unless otherwise determined by the arbitrator as part of the award. The parties may establish the scope of discovery by agreement. If the parties cannot agree, the arbitrator will have discretion to define the limits of discovery and to allow discovery upon a showing of good cause, utilizing the following guidelines:

(1) The arbitrator shall balance the benefits of discovery against the burdens and expenses to the parties and the goals of arbitration as an alternative to traditional litigation.

(2) The arbitrator shall have discretion to order pre-hearing exchange of information, including but not limited to, the production of requested documents and exchanges of summaries of testimony of proposed witnesses.

(3) The deposition of the claimant(s) and respondent(s) and form sets of interrogatories approved by the Judicial Council shall be allowed as a matter of right. There shall be an early and prompt designation and exchange of the names and addresses of expert witnesses who may be called upon to testify at the arbitration hearing. Their depositions, special interrogatories, requests for admission and all other discovery shall be allowed only upon a showing of good cause.

15.06 Attorneys' Fees. Should any action or proceeding, be commenced between the parties to this Lease concerning said Premises, this Lease, or the rights and duties of either in relation thereto, the party, Landlord, or Tenant, prevailing in such action or proceeding shall be entitled, in addition to such other relief as may be granted in the action or proceeding, to a reasonable sum as and for its attorneys' fees therein which shall be determined by the arbitrator(s) hearing such action or proceeding.

Witnesseth:

Whereas, Landlord and Century Theatres of California, Inc., a California corporation, entered into a lease dated September 30, 1995, as amended by that certain First Amendment to Lease, dated September 1, 2000 between Landlord and Century Theatres, Inc., a Delaware corporation (as amended, the “Lease”), for a motion picture building and related parking (the “Premises”) located at Century Capitol, 3690 Hillcap Avenue, San Jose, California; capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Lease; and

Whereas, Century Theatres, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Century Theatres (DE)”), succeeded Century Theatres of California, Inc., as Tenant; and

Whereas, Century Theatres (DE) assumed all obligations of Century Theatres of California, Inc., as set forth in the Lease; and

Whereas, Century Theatres, Inc., a California corporation, has succeeded Century Theatres (DE) as Tenant; and

Whereas, Century Theatres, Inc., a California corporation, has assumed all obligations of Century Theatres (DE), as set forth in the Lease; and

Whereas, the parties desire now to amend the Lease to revise and clarify certain obligations between the parties, as hereinafter provided;

Now, Therefore, the parties hereto mutually agree that the Lease shall be amended as follows:

A. Deletion of Renewal Option

The “Option to Extend Lease Term” set forth in Section 2.03 of the Lease is hereby deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

2.03 Option to Extend Lease Term

- A) Tenant may, at Tenant’s option, extend the Initial Term of this Lease for additional period of (the “Renewal Term”), subject to all the provisions of this Lease. Capitol 16 — San Jose, California

- B) Failure to duly exercise the option for the Renewal Term shall nullify the option.
- C) Tenant's right to the option to extend the Lease Term and Tenant's rights to the Renewal Term are subject to:
 - (1) This Lease being in full force and effect on the last day of the Initial Term.
 - (2) Compliance with the following procedure for exercising the option:
 - (a) At least nine (9) months before the last day of the Initial Term, Tenant shall give Landlord written notice exercising the option.
 - (b) Each party shall, at the request of the other, execute a memorandum acknowledging the fact that the option has been exercised. If the option is properly exercised by Tenant, the failure of Landlord to execute such memorandum shall not invalidate such option or the exercise thereof.
 - (3) Tenant is not in default at time of the exercise of the renewal and at the commencement of the Renewal Term.

B. Landlord's Right to Develop

- 1. The second sentence of Section 2.01 (a) of the Lease is hereby deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

Tenant expressly agrees that Landlord shall have the right, but shall have no obligation, to demolish, renovate, remodel, reconstruct or otherwise alter or develop in any manner the Entire Premises or any portion thereof for any and all uses beyond the Permitted Use (the "Development") without Tenant's consent; provided, however, that the Development shall not materially interfere with the Permitted Use or Tenant's access to the Premises. In addition to developing some or all of the Entire Premises that are outside of the Building, Landlord's Development rights set forth above shall include all roof-top and other exterior communication and advertising rights on or about the Entire Premises, including, without limitation, the exclusive right to install, locate, maintain, use, replace and repair satellite dishes and other roof-top communications equipment on the roof of the Building. In connection with the foregoing, Tenant agrees that Tenant shall have no right to lease or otherwise allow any third party to access or use the roof of the Building or any portion of the Premises for any use other than the Permitted Use.

- 2. Tenant hereby waives all claims of any nature whatsoever Tenant may now have or may hereafter have against Landlord relating in any manner to, directly or indirectly, the Development. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Landlord shall not be liable for any damage to persons or property located in, on or about the Premises resulting from or in connection with the Development, and Tenant waives and shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Landlord from any and all claims asserted by Tenant or Tenant's officers, agents, employees, contractors, licensees, invitees or guests arising from damage resulting from or in connection with the Development (except to the extent such damage is caused by the willful act or gross negligence of Landlord; provided, however, that Landlord shall not be liable for any consequential damages, including, without limitation, any claim for loss of profit or business).

C. Surrender

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease, upon the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease and promptly following Tenant's receipt of a cost estimate thereof from Landlord, Tenant shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to the cost of demolishing the improvements located on the Premises and removing all surface debris therefrom to Landlord's reasonable satisfaction, as such cost estimate is determined by Landlord in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion; provided, however, that Tenant may remove any or all of Tenant's furniture, fixtures and equipment (the "FF&E") from the Premises, so long as such removal occurs within forty-five (45) days after the Termination Date and Tenant repairs all extraordinary damage caused by such removal. Except as set forth above, from and after the Termination Date, the parties shall have no further rights under the Lease nor further obligations with respect to the Premises, except for any rights or obligations which expressly survive the termination of the Lease in accordance with the provisions thereof or at law.

D. Miscellaneous

1. This Amendment constitutes the entire understanding of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and all prior agreements, representations, and understandings between the parties, whether oral or written, are deemed null, all of the foregoing having been merged into this Amendment.

3. This Amendment shall bind and inure to the benefit of Landlord and Tenant and their respective legal representatives and successors and assigns.
4. Each party hereby specifically represents and warrants that its execution of this Amendment has been duly authorized by all necessary corporate or other action, and that this Amendment when fully signed and delivered shall constitute a binding agreement of such party, enforceable in accordance with its terms.
5. The parties acknowledge that each party and/or its counsel have reviewed and revised this Amendment and that no rule of construction to the effect that any ambiguities are to be resolved against the drafting party shall be employed in the interpretation of this Amendment or any amendments or exhibits to this Amendment or any document executed and delivered by either party in connection with this Amendment.

Capitol 16 — San Jose, California

6. This Amendment may be executed in counterparts each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement.

Execution VersionFOURTH AMENDMENT TO LEASE

(Capitol City, SJ)

THIS FOURTH AMENDMENT TO LEASE AGREEMENT (this “Amendment”) is entered into as of August 7, 2006 to be effective as of the Effective Date (as defined hereinbelow) by and between SYUFY ENTERPRISES, L.P., a California limited partnership (“Landlord”), and CENTURY THEATRES, INC., a California corporation (“Tenant”).

RECITALS:

A. Landlord (then known as Syufy Enterprises (the “Original Landlord”) and Century Theatres of California Inc., a California corporation (“Original Tenant”), entered into a certain Lease dated as of September 30, 1995 (the “Original Lease”), for certain premises located in San Jose, California.

B. The Original Lease has been previously amended by that certain (i) First Amendment to Lease dated as of September 1, 2000 (the “First Amendment”), (ii) Second Amendment to Lease dated as of April 15, 2005 (the “Second Amendment”), and (iii) Third Amendment to Lease dated as of September 29, 2005 (the “Third Amendment”; the Original Lease as heretofore amended is referred to herein as the “Lease”).

C. Tenant has succeeded to the interests and assumed the obligations of Original Tenant as the lessee under the Lease.

D. Landlord and Tenant now desire to further amend the Amended Lease, upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Amendment.

NOW THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt, adequacy and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Lease is hereby modified and amended, and Landlord and Tenant hereby agree, as follows:

1. Recitals Incorporated; Certain Defined Terms. The Recitals set forth above are incorporated into this Amendment and shall be deemed terms and provisions hereof, the same as if fully set forth in this Paragraph 1. Capitalized terms that are used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed to such terms in the Lease.

2. Effectiveness. The parties are entering into this Amendment in connection with the contemplated acquisition of all the outstanding capital stock of Century Theatres, Inc. by Cinemark Holdings, Inc. and Cinemark USA, Inc. (the “Acquisition”) pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement dated as of the date hereof (the “Stock Purchase Agreement”). This Amendment shall become automatically effective upon, and only upon, the closing of the Acquisition (the “Effective Date”). In the event the Acquisition is not consummated and the Stock Purchase Agreement is terminated, this Agreement shall become void ab initio and of no force and effect.

3. Initial Term of Lease and Extension Options. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease, the current Term of the Lease shall expire on the date that is  after the Effective Date hereof. Thereafter, the Term of this Lease shall automatically renew on a  basis unless Tenant delivers written notice to Landlord at least sixty (60) days prior to the then-current expiration date of the Term that Tenant elects not to extend the Term of the Lease.

4. Landlord's Recapture Right. If, at any time during the term of the Lease, Tenant fails to satisfy the Operating Condition (defined below), for reasons other than Excused Closure (defined below), and such failure continues for six (6) consecutive months or more, then upon notice from Landlord to Tenant at any time thereafter (provided that the Operating Condition remains unsatisfied), Landlord shall have the right to terminate the Lease and to recapture the Leased Premises, without payment to Tenant, effective upon the date set forth in Landlord's termination notice (but not sooner than 30 days after the date of the termination notice).

The term "Operating Condition" shall mean and require that the entire Leased Premises is being continuously operated and regularly open for business to the general public as a motion picture theater complex in accordance with the Lease, at least on such days and at such times that a majority of Century's and Cinemark's other motion picture theater complexes in the County of Santa Clara typically are open and operating. The term "Excused Closure" shall mean (i) periods of construction, alterations, renovation, remodeling and repair of the Leased Premises undertaken in accordance with this Lease (including repairs and restoration following damage or destruction due to fire or other casualty); provided that Tenant (A) prosecutes such work to completion with reasonable diligence, (B) exercises its reasonable efforts to minimize the length of time of such closure, and (C) exercises its reasonable efforts to limit the number of motion picture screens at the Premises that are not operated due to such closure; (ii) periods when Tenant cannot practicably operate its business in the Premises as a consequence of force majeure; and (iii) additional periods, not to exceed four (4) days in any Lease Year, when Tenant in its sole discretion elects not to operate its business in the Leased Premises.

5. Self-Insurance of Property/Casualty Risks. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Lease, during any period in which Tenant maintains a Net Worth (as defined below) of at least One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000.00), Tenant may self insure the so-called "physical property damage insurance" otherwise required to be maintained by Tenant pursuant to the Lease. As used herein, the "Net Worth" of Tenant at any given time shall mean an amount equal to the sum of (A) the product of (1) Tenant's so-called EBITDA (i.e., earnings before interest, income taxes, depreciation and amortization), calculated in accordance with commercially reasonable past practice preceding the Effective Date by Tenant's parent corporation, over the 12-month period immediately preceding the time of measurement, multiplied by (2) eight (8), plus (B) the amount of cash and cash equivalents held by Tenant on the most recent anniversary of Tenant's annual insurance renewal date, minus (C) the amount of outstanding funded debt of Tenant on such determination date.

6. Damage and Destruction — Repairs by Tenant. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, the following shall apply to repairs and restoration upon damage or destruction:

(A) Tenant's Obligation to Repair. If the Leased Premises are damaged or destroyed by any peril after the Commencement Date of this Lease, then Tenant shall repair the damage and restore the Leased Premises in accordance with this Section, except as provided in subsection (B) below. Unless Tenant is not required to effect the repairs and restoration pursuant to subsection (B) below, Tenant shall promptly apply for and diligently seek to obtain all necessary governmental permits and approvals for the repair and restoration of the Leased Premises and, upon issuance of such governmental permits and approvals, promptly commence and diligently prosecute the completion of the repairs and restoration of the Leased Premises (to the extent permitted by applicable law) to substantially the same condition in which the Leased Premises were immediately prior to such damage or destruction (subject to any alterations which Tenant would be permitted to make to the Leased Premises pursuant to this Lease).

(B) If the Leased Premises are damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty which occurs after the Effective Date hereof, and if the uninsured cost to repair such damage or to restore the Leased Premises (including deductibles) exceeds $50,000, then (i) Tenant shall have the option, upon notice to Landlord not later than one hundred eighty (180) days following the occurrence of the applicable casualty, not to undertake the repairs and restoration of the Leased Premises (provided, however, that Landlord may nullify Tenant's election not to undertake the repairs and restoration, within thirty (30) days after receiving Tenant's notice by confirming either (x) that Landlord shall reimburse Tenant for such excess costs within 30 days after the completion of the repairs and restoration and Landlord's receipt of reasonable supporting documentation of such costs or (y) that Landlord waives its right to terminate this Lease pursuant to Section 18 prior to the date which is 12 months after the repairs and restoration are completed), and (ii) if Tenant so elects not to undertake the repairs and restoration, then Tenant nevertheless shall raze Tenant's Building and remove from the Leased Premises all building materials and debris and all underground installations that serve only the Leased Premises (including the footings and foundations of Tenant's Building and the utility lines serving Tenant's Building) and restore the surface of the Premises to a graded and landscaped surface.

7. Permitted Assignments and Release. Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, the following shall apply and control:

Subject to the next sentence, Tenant may sublet or assign this Lease only upon receipt of Landlord's written consent which consent Landlord agrees shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned. Notwithstanding anything in this Lease to the contrary, it is agreed that at any time during the term of this Lease, Tenant may, without Landlord's consent or approval (but only upon prior written notice to Landlord), assign this Lease or sublet the Leased Premises to: (i) any wholly-owned subsidiary of Tenant, and (ii) any corporation, trust, partnership or individual that owns fifty percent (50%) or more of the issued and outstanding stock of Tenant. A change in control of Tenant shall not constitute an assignment of this Lease requiring Landlord's consent or approval, provided, however, that if any assignee under clause (i) above ceases to be a wholly owned subsidiary of Tenant, then the same shall be deemed to constitute an assignment which is prohibited without Landlord's approval under Article XI of the Lease.

No assignment, subletting or other transfer of the Lease or the Leased Premises shall relieve or release Tenant from any liabilities or obligations arising under the Lease.

8. Leasehold Financing. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, Tenant shall have the right, without Landlord's consent to encumber the leasehold estate created under the Lease and/or to grant a security interest in Tenant's removable trade fixtures, furnishings and equipment located within the Leased Premises (but not to encumber Landlord's fee interest in the Premises), to secure financing provided to Tenant by any bank, thrift institution, insurance company or other institutional lender. Tenant agrees to notify Landlord of any such encumbrance. With respect to any such leasehold financing (and provided that Tenant is not in default under the Lease beyond any applicable notice or cure period), upon thirty (30) days' prior written request from Tenant, Landlord will execute and deliver to the secured lender a "Landlord's Agreement" in the form attached hereto as Exhibit "A-I".

9. [Intentionally Omitted]

10. Gross Sales Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary the definition of Gross Sales shall be as follows:

"Gross Sales" shall mean the total amount of all revenues (whether in cash or credit) generated or derived from the conduct of any business at the Leased Premises, including (without limitation) all box office receipts of or at the Leased Premises (including receipts from tickets or gift certificates redeemed at the Leased Premises regardless of the point of sale), as well as any and all receipts from the sale of goods, services, merchandise, beverages, food, vending machines and video games at the Leased Premises; provided, however, that the following shall be excluded from "Gross Sales" (i) credits and refunds made with respect to admissions or other sales otherwise included in Gross Sales, (ii) all federal, state, county and city admission taxes, sales and use taxes, entertainment taxes, royalty taxes, gross receipt taxes and other similar taxes now or hereafter imposed and owing to the taxing authority by Tenant (whether such taxes are collected from customers separately from the selling price of admission tickets or absorbed by Tenant); (iii) receipts from the sale of gift certificates or tickets sold but not redeemed at the Leased Premises; (iv) with respect to any tickets or admissions ordered or paid for over the internet and redeemed at the Leased Premises, the portion (if any) of the sale price that exceeds Tenant's actual box-office ticket price; (v) sales price for merchandise returned, (vi) amounts retained by credit card issuers, (vii) sales outside of the ordinary course of business, (viii) amount of credit card sales deemed uncollectible, (ix) advertising revenues including without limitation media, sponsorship, and promotional advertising of any kind, and (x) the receipts of or from so-called "four-wall deals" with a party that is not affiliated with Tenant, except that the portion thereof or other amounts paid to Tenant in connection with such "four-wall deals" shall be included in "Gross Sales" under this Lease. Commissions or surcharges paid to agencies or other third parties not affiliated with Tenant for selling tickets or processing credit card transactions, and any sums paid to third parties not affiliated with Tenant for the use or rental of vending machines, pay telephones, amusement machines and other similar devices shall be deducted from "Gross Sales" (if and to the extent previously included in "Gross Sales").

11. Taxes. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Lease or this Amendment to the contrary, if during the ten (10) year period immediately following the Effective Date, any sale or change in ownership of the Premises (or against the Entire Premises, if the Premises are not separately assessed) is consummated by Landlord and, as a result, all or part of the Premises (or Entire Premises, if applicable) are reassessed (a "Reassessment") for real property tax purposes by the appropriate governmental authority under the terms of Proposition 13 (as adopted by the voters of the State of California in the June 1978 election) or the terms of Article XIII A of the Constitution of the State of California, then the terms of this Section shall apply. For purposes of this Section, the term "Tax Increase" shall mean that portion of the annual real estate taxes assessed against the Premises (or the Entire Premise, if applicable), as calculated immediately following the Reassessment, that is attributable solely to the Reassessment. Accordingly, a Tax Increase shall not include any portion of the real estate taxes, as calculated immediately following the Reassessment, that is:

- (i) Attributable to the assessment of the value of the Premises (or Entire Premises, if applicable) prior to the Effective Date;
- (ii) Attributable to the annual inflationary increases in real estate taxes; or
- (iii) Attributable to the sale of Landlord's ownership interest in Tenant on or about the Effective Date, or attributable to the execution of this Amendment or any extension of the Term of this Lease on the Effective Date or thereafter.

During the five (5) year period immediately following the Effective Date, Tenant shall not be obligated to pay any portion of any Tax Increase relating to a Reassessment.

Commencing on the fifth anniversary of the Effective Date, and continuing until the tenth anniversary of the Effective Date, Tenant shall be obligated to pay annually only the portion of a Tax Increase relating to a Reassessment that is equal to (or less than) an increase of four percent (4%) per annum, compounded annually, from the Effective Date, in the annual amount owed by Tenant for real estate taxes under the terms of the Lease, from the annual amount owed by Tenant for real estate taxes under the terms of the Lease in calendar 2006.

The terms and provisions of this Section shall not apply to any increase in real estate taxes which results from or is attributable to any occurrence, fact or circumstance other than a sale by Landlord of Landlord's interest in the Premises or a transfer effected by Landlord which is treated as a sale by the local taxing authorities under Proposition 13 (excluding those matters identified in clause (iii) above). This Section shall not apply from and after the tenth (10th) anniversary of the Effective Date of this Amendment.

12. Alterations by Tenant.

Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, the following shall apply and control:

Tenant shall have the right from time to time, at its sole cost and expense, to make non-structural interior alterations, improvements, or changes in the Leased Premises as Tenant shall deem necessary or beneficial consistent with Tenant's exclusive use of the Leased Premises as a motion picture theatre complex and if Tenant undertakes such work, Tenant must pursue such work until completion. Tenant shall fully and completely indemnify Landlord against any mechanics' or other liens in connection with the making of such alterations and changes, and shall pay all costs, expenses, and charges thereof. Alterations, changes and improvements shall be performed in a first-class manner and must comply with all laws, zoning regulations and ordinances, and any conditions on permits issued pursuant thereto. If it is necessary in Tenant's reasonable judgment to close any of the motion picture screens during the period in which any of Tenant's work permitted hereunder is performed, said closure(s) shall be effected only in accordance with the provisions governing an "Excused Closure", as that term is defined in Section 4 of this Amendment.

13. Rooftop Equipment and Access. Tenant shall have the exclusive right to install, operate, repair, replace and maintain satellite dishes and/or other communication transmission devices (collectively "Rooftop Equipment") on the roof of the theatre necessary or appropriate to accept any transmission of signals to the theatre for all permitted uses, including without limitation, for movies, advertising, concerts, telecasts, corporate meetings or communications and the like; but Tenant shall be prohibited from entering into any leases or licenses with any third parties for retransmission from such Rooftop Equipment, and Tenant shall not retransmit such signals to a third party outside of the Leased Premises. Landlord shall not use, or permit any person or entity (other than Tenant), to use the roof or exterior walls of the theatre for any purpose whatsoever, and Landlord agrees not to enter into any leases or licenses with third parties for the use of the theater rooftop. Landlord shall be responsible for any damage to the rooftop caused by the Landlord or a third party that enters onto the theatre rooftop with Landlord's permission, and Landlord shall indemnify and hold Tenant harmless from all loss, cost, damage or expense which Tenant incurs as a result of the acts or omissions of said third party or their agents or employer. Tenant hereby indemnifies and agrees to hold Landlord and Landlord's successors and assigns harmless from all loss, cost, damage or expense which Landlord incurs as a result of the actions of Tenant, or its agents or employees in installing and utilizing Rooftop Equipment as permitted hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant's exclusive rights are subject to any agreements entered into after the Effective Date by Landlord and a licensee or lessee regarding Rooftop Equipment provided that such Rooftop Equipment does not interfere with Tenant's Rooftop Equipment installed pursuant to this Section.

14. Permitted Use and Operations. From and after the Effective Date, Tenant shall be permitted to use and operate the Leased Premises as and only as a first-class motion picture theatre complex (whether operated as a so-called "first run" theater and/or an "art house" theatre. In no event shall Tenant be permitted to operate the Leased Premises as a so-called "second-run" or "adult" theater complex.

15. Removal of Equipment, Surrender and Demolition. Upon the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of the Lease, and provided Tenant is not in default under the Lease beyond applicable notice and cure periods, and said earlier termination is not due to Tenant's default under the Lease, then for a period extending forty-five (45) days beyond the date of said expiration or termination, Tenant shall be permitted to remove any and all furniture, fixtures and equipment owned and installed by Tenant in, on or to the Leased Premises. Such removal shall be: (a) at Tenant's sole cost and expense; (b) conducted in such manner that no liens or claims shall arise or exist in connection therewith; (c) conducted in a manner to avoid unreasonable interference with the activities of Landlord and subsequent tenants or occupants upon the Leased Premises and Tenant shall repair all damages caused by such removal.

Upon surrender of the Leased Premises by Tenant and removal of its equipment pursuant to the terms of the Lease and this Amendment, Landlord shall be responsible for the cost of any demolition of the Leased Premises and site grading and restoration as a result, except as otherwise provided in the Lease. Such demolition shall be undertaken in Landlord's sole discretion and at such times, manner and upon such events as Landlord solely shall determine

16. Alternate Rent. As of the Effective Date and if and for so long as Tenant continues to satisfy the Operating Condition (defined in Section 4 above), then in lieu of Base Rent and Percentage Rent otherwise due under the Lease (but not in lieu of Tenant's share of real estate taxes or any other amounts payable by Tenant under the Lease, which will continue to be due and payable by Tenant as provided in the Lease), Tenant shall pay to Landlord on a monthly basis an amount equal to  of Tenant's Gross Sales, as defined hereinabove. Such amount shall be paid by Tenant monthly in arrears on or before the thirtieth (30th) day after the end of each calendar month. Within sixty (60) days after the end of each fiscal year, Tenant shall provide a written certification of Tenant's Gross Sales for the prior year, executed by the chief financial officer or controller of Tenant, which shall be subject to the same year-end reporting and reconciliation procedures and the verification and audit rights of Landlord that apply to Percentage Rent under this Lease.

17. Early Termination — Tenant. (i) If, during any consecutive twelve (12) calendar month period after the Effective Date (the "Test Period"), the TLCF (defined on Exhibit "A-2" hereto) for the Leased Premises is less than , then Tenant shall have the right, to be exercised by written notice to Landlord at any time when the TLCF over the most current trailing twelve (12) month period was  or within forty-five (45) days after such Test Period, to terminate the Lease as provided below in this Section; provided, however, that such notice and Tenant's right to terminate the Lease as provided in this Section shall be void and ineffective unless Tenant shall have satisfied the Operating Condition (defined in Section 4 above) continuously throughout the Test Period. In order to be effective, Tenant's notice to Landlord under this Section shall include a written certification to Landlord from Tenant's chief financial officer or controller confirming that the TLCF for the Test Period is less than . Provided Tenant has satisfied the aforesaid conditions, then this Lease shall be terminated effective as of the date which is thirty (30) days after the termination notice.

(ii) If, at anytime during which Tenant is paying Alternate Rent, Tenant reasonably determines that it is necessary or appropriate to undertake in any prospective 12-month period (the "Cap Ex Test Period"), aggregate capital expenditures (i.e., expenditures required to be capitalized rather than expensed under Tenant's normal income tax accounting procedures) for any repairs and maintenance to the Leased Premises in excess of  which Tenant is otherwise unwilling to make, then, Tenant shall have the right and option to terminate the Lease upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to Landlord, subject to the following terms and conditions: (A) Tenant's notice of termination shall specify in reasonable detail the applicable capital expenditures (the "Cap Ex Projects"), the projected commencement date of each Cap Ex Project and the estimated costs thereof (the "Projected Cap Ex Costs"), prior to incurring same and prior to the commencement of the Cap Ex Test Period; (B) Landlord shall have the ability (but not the obligation) to nullify Tenant's exercise of the termination option set forth in this subclause (ii) by delivering written notice to Tenant within ten (10) business days after the date of its receipt of Tenant's termination notice stating either that (1) Landlord shall reimburse Tenant for the amount by which the actual cost incurred by Tenant (within 30 days of receipt of reasonable documentation of such expense) during the Cap Ex Test Period for the identified Cap Ex Projects (but not more than the Projected Cap Ex Costs) exceed , or (2) Landlord waives its right to terminate this Lease pursuant to Section 18 below during the applicable Cap Ex Test Period; (C) if Landlord so nullifies Tenant's purported termination, then Tenant shall be required to undertake the Cap Ex Projects not later than thirty (30) days after the applicable dates specified in Tenant's notice of termination and thereafter to diligently prosecute the Cap Ex Projects to completion, at Tenant's sole cost and expense (subject to reimbursement from Landlord as provided above, if applicable); and (D) if Tenant fails to undertake and complete the identified Cap Ex Projects as aforesaid, then (x) such failure shall constitute a default by Tenant under the Lease, and (y) Landlord's termination rights under Section 18 below will be immediately reinstated (notwithstanding the waiver pursuant to clause (2) above, if applicable).

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Lease, including Section 15 above, if Tenant elects to terminate this Lease pursuant to this Section and Landlord demolishes the theatre building of the Leased Premise within twelve (12) months after the date of termination, then Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the actual out-of-pocket costs incurred by Landlord to demolish the theatre building (including, without limitation, the costs to remove from the Leased Premises all building materials and debris and all footings, foundations, utility lines and other underground installations that serve the Leased Premises and the costs to restore the surface of the Premises to a graded and landscaped surface); provided, however, that Tenant's reimbursement obligations shall not exceed an amount equal to the product of  psf multiplied by the ground floor area of the theatre building (in square feet). Tenant shall pay the amount due under this paragraph within thirty (30) days after receiving Landlord's written demand for reimbursement, which shall include reasonable supporting documentation confirming the costs so incurred by Landlord. Tenant's obligations under this paragraph shall expressly survive the termination of the Lease.

18. Early Termination — Landlord. Landlord shall have the right, at anytime after the Effective Date of this Amendment, to terminate this Lease upon not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Tenant.

19. Restrictive Covenant. Landlord covenants and agrees that upon the termination of the Lease for any reason other than the default of the Tenant, no portion of the Entire Premises including the Leased Premises shall be used as a motion picture theater complex for a period of ten (10) years from the date of termination. The terms and provisions of this Section shall survive the termination of the Lease except that the foregoing restrictive covenant shall not apply if the Lease is terminated as a consequence of a default by Tenant. Such restrictive covenant shall run with the land. Landlord agrees to execute within thirty (30) days after the request by Tenant a restrictive covenant in form appropriate for recording containing the restrictions contained herein. Tenant shall be responsible for the cost of all such recording fees.

20. California Remedies. Landlord's remedies upon a default under the Lease shall include, without limitation, the following:

Even though Tenant has breached the Lease and/or abandoned the Premises, this Lease shall continue in effect for so long as Landlord does not terminate Tenant's right to possession, and Landlord may enforce all of its rights and remedies under this Lease, including (but without limitation) the right to recover Rent as it becomes due. Landlord has the remedy described in Section 1951.4 of the Civil Code of the State of California or any successor code section (Landlord may continue the Lease in effect after Tenant's breach and abandonment and recover rent as it becomes due, if Tenant has the right to sublet or assign, subject only to reasonable limitations). Acts of maintenance, preservation or efforts to lease the Premises or the appointment of receiver upon application of Landlord to protect Landlord's interest under this Lease shall not constitute an election to terminate Tenant's right to possession.

21. Termination of Lease and Lessee's Right to Possession. Section 15.02(C) of the Lease shall be deemed deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

"If an event of default occurs, Landlord shall have the right, with or without notice or demand, immediately (after expiration of the applicable grace periods) to terminate this Lease, and at any time thereafter recover possession of the Premises or any part thereof and expel and remove therefrom Tenant and any other person occupying the same, by any lawful means, and again repossess and enjoy the Premises without prejudice to any of the remedies that Landlord may have under this Lease, or at law or equity by reason of Tenant's default or of such termination. Should Landlord terminate this Lease pursuant to foregoing, Landlord shall have all the rights and remedies of a landlord provided by Section 1951.2 of the Civil Code of the State of California, or successor code section. Upon such termination, in addition to any other rights and remedies to which Landlord may be entitled at law or in equity, Landlord shall be entitled to recover from Tenant:

- (1) the worth at the time of award of the unpaid Rent which had been earned at the time of termination;
- (2) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent which would have been earned after termination until the time of award exceeds the amount of such Rent loss that the Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided;
- (3) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent for the balance of the Term after the time of award exceeds the amount of such Rent loss that the Tenant proves could be reasonably avoided;
- (4) any other amount, and court costs, necessary to compensate Landlord for all the detriment proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform its obligations under this Lease or which, in the ordinary course of things, would be likely to result therefrom; and

(5) for any other sums due.”

22. Notices. The notices provisions of the Lease, as the case may be, shall be deemed deleted in their entirety and replaced with the following:

(a) Except as otherwise expressly and specifically in this Lease provided, a bill, demand, statement, consent, notice or other communication (“notice”) which either party may desire or be required to give to the other party shall be deemed sufficiently given or rendered if in writing, delivered personally to the party to be charged therewith or sent by certified mail (return receipt requested) or private express mail courier service (postage or delivery or courier fees fully prepaid) addressed to such party at the addresses set forth in subparagraph (c) below (including the addresses for copies of notices) and/or at such other address(es) as such party shall designate to the other party by notice given as herein provided. If Landlord is notified of the identity and address of Tenant’s Leasehold Mortgagee, Landlord shall give such party any notice served upon Tenant hereunder to the last known address of such Leasehold Mortgagee as provided by Tenant to Landlord by certified mail or private express courier service. If Tenant is notified of the identity and address of Landlord’s mortgagee, Tenant shall give such mortgagee any notice served upon Landlord hereunder to the last known address of such mortgagee as provided by Landlord to Tenant, by certified mail or private express courier service.

(b) Any notice given in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section shall be deemed effective upon the earlier of (i) if the notice is personally delivered, the date actually received by intended recipient, (ii) if the notice is sent by certified mail, five (5) days after the same is mailed, or (iii) if the notice is sent by private overnight courier service (e.g., Federal Express, DHL or similar courier), one (1) day after the same is delivered to or picked up by such courier. Rejection or refusal to accept a notice or the inability to deliver same because of a changed address of which no notice was given shall be deemed to be a receipt of the notice sent. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Lease, no provision in this Lease shall preclude service of notices in accordance with Section 1162 of the California Code of Civil Procedure or any similar and/or successor code sections.

A) Beginning on the Initial Rent Due Date, Tenant shall pay to Landlord during the Lease Term a "Base Rent" of  The Base Rent is sometimes referred to herein as the "Minimum Monthly Rent" and shall be subject to adjustment every  after the Initial Rent Due Date as set forth in Section 4.01 B below.

In the event that the Consumer Price Index is not available, the successor or substitute index shall be used for the computations herein set forth. In the event that the Consumer Price Index or such successor or substitute index is not published, a reliable governmental or other non-partisan publication evaluating the information theretofore used in determining the Consumer Price Index shall be used by Landlord for the computations herein set forth. For the purposes of the computations herein set forth, the basis for any substitute or successor index or such governmental or non-partisan publication shall be converted to a basis of 100 only in the event that the basis used in such index or publication is less than 100.

4.02 Percentage Rent. In addition to the payment of Base Rent, Tenant shall pay to Landlord for each Lease Year during the Term of this Lease, as Percentage Rent a sum equal to the amount by which  of the Gross Sales for such Lease Year exceeds the Base Rent which is payable for such Lease Year equal to the quotient obtained by dividing the annual fixed rate for such Lease year by the percentage rate.

Gross Sales shall mean all box office receipts, sales of goods, merchandise, beverages, food, vending machines and video games. Gross sales shall exclude credits and refunds made with respect to admissions or other sales; all federal, state, county and city admission taxes, sales taxes and other similar taxes now or hereafter imposed (whether such taxes are collected from customers separately from the selling price of admission tickets or absorbed therein, and Tenant shall concurrently with the delivery of such statement, pay to Landlord any Percentage Rent due for such Lease Year.

The receipt by Landlord of any statement or any payment of Percentage Rent for any period shall not bind it as to the correctness of the statement or the Payment. Landlord shall within three years after the receipt of any such statement be entitled to an audit of such Gross Sales. Such audit shall be limited to the determination of the Gross Sales as defined in this Lease and shall be conducted during normal business hours at the principal place of business of Tenant. If it is determined as a result of such audit that there has been a deficiency in the payment of Percentage Rent, then such deficiency shall become immediately due any payable with interest at the annual rate of 18% from the date when said payment should have been made until paid. Any information gained from such statements or inspection shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed other than to carry out the purposes hereof. If such audit shall disclose that Tenant has understated the Gross Sales for such Lease Year by more than three (3%) and Landlord is entitled to any additional Annual Percentage Rent, Tenant shall pay to Landlord all of Landlord's reasonable cost of such audit.

4.03 Rent Payments. Rent and other sums to be paid by Tenant shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America. All payments shall be made by Tenant to Landlord without notice or demand.

4.04 Place for Payment of Rent. The Annual Rent and any other charges required to be paid by Tenant to Landlord shall be sent to Landlord at its principal place of business, or such other address as Landlord may direct in writing.

4.05 Late Payment of Rent. In the event that any monthly installment of rent is not paid within ten (10) days after first written notice from Landlord that such payment is past due, Tenant shall pay Landlord interest on such unpaid rent at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum computed from the date such rent installment was due until the date actually paid.

ARTICLE V

TAXES, ASSESSMENTS AND UTILITIES

5.01 Impositions.

A) The term "Impositions" shall mean all real estate taxes, duties or assessments (special or otherwise), water and sewer rents, whether ordinary or extraordinary, general or special, foreseen or unforeseen, of any kind and nature whatsoever, which, at any time during the Lease Term, shall be assessed or levied, or be attributable in any manner to the Entire Premises, or the rents receivable there from, or any part thereof or any use thereon or any facility located therein or used in connection therewith, whether or not any of the foregoing shall be a so-called "real estate tax" expressly excluding, however, any other items arising directly or indirectly out of any act or omission of Landlord, any of Landlord's predecessors in title or any other person occurring prior to the commencement of the Term. From and after the Initial Rent Due Date, Tenant shall pay all Impositions assessed, levied or attributable to the Entire Premises and/or the Improvements on the Entire Premises. All Impositions or installments thereof payable with respect to the tax year in which this Lease shall commence, and all Impositions or installments thereof with respect to the tax year in which this Lease shall terminate, shall be pro-rated on a daily basis; provided, however, that assessments or escape assessments assessed as a result of this Lease and/or the construction of Tenant Improvements by Tenant shall not be prorated and shall be paid solely by Tenant; and provided further that assessments attributable to Tenant Improvements made in the final year of the Lease shall be paid solely by Tenant if Tenant demolishes the Tenant Building.

B) With respect to Impositions which are assessed on any Buildings exclusive of the Leased Premises, Landlord shall pay Tenant all such impositions. With respect to Impositions which by law may be paid in installments over a period of time, Tenant shall be deemed to have elected (the "Installment Election") to pay such Impositions over the longest period of time permitted by law, regardless of whether Tenant has in fact so elected. With respect to each year in which the Installment Election is effective and with respect to the Impositions associated with Landlord's Buildings subject to the Installment Election, Landlord's share of such Imposition(s) for each year shall be the pro rata share of the amount which would be required to be paid to the collecting authority as if Tenant had in fact made the Installment Election. Landlord shall pay all such real property taxes to the Tenant prior to delinquency. In the event Tenant fails to pay to Landlord such real property taxes as provided herein, Landlord shall pay Tenant in addition interest thereon at the rate of 18% per annum from the delinquency date until such payment has been made.

5.02 Exceptions from Impositions; Charges in Lieu of Impositions.

A) Nothing herein contained shall require Tenant to pay any estate, inheritance, succession, capital levy, corporate franchise, gross receipts, transfer, or income tax of Landlord, nor shall any of the same be deemed to be included within the term "Impositions" as defined herein.

B) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article V, if at any time after the date of this Lease the present method of taxation or assessment shall be changed so that in lieu of, as a substitute for (whether in whole or in part) or as a supplement to (provided such supplemental tax relates to real estate or revenues from real estate and not to other property or business as well) the taxes now levied, assessed or imposed on real estate and buildings and Improvements thereon, a tax shall be imposed, assessed or levied wholly or partly on the Rent, or a tax, assessment, levy or charge, measured or based, in whole or in part, on the Entire Premises or on the rents derived therefrom, shall be imposed on Landlord, then Tenant shall pay taxes so measured or based only to the extent that such taxes would be payable if the Entire Premises were the only property of Landlord subject to such taxes, or the income from operation of the Entire Premises were Landlord's only income, as the case may be. In the event of such assessment, Landlord would pay Tenant any such assessment related to any Buildings other than the Leased Premises located on the Entire Premises.

5.04 Contest of Taxes. Tenant at its sole cost and expense may by appropriate legal proceedings conducted in good faith and with due diligence, contest the amount or validity or application, in whole or in part, of any Imposition or lien therefor, or any other lien, encumbrance or charge against the Premises arising from work done or materials provided to or for Tenant. Tenant shall give Landlord reasonable notice of, and information pertaining to, such contest and regular progress reports with respect thereto. Landlord shall cooperate with any effort pursued by Tenant in accordance with this Section 5.04. Tenant shall indemnify, protect and hold harmless Landlord and the Premises from any lien or liability with respect to any such Imposition or contest thereof, including all costs and expenses related thereto. Landlord shall provide Tenant with copies of notice when received by Landlord from the taxing authorities of any assessments or reassessments of the Premises in sufficient time (but in no event later than thirty (30) days after Landlord's receipt of the same) to enable Tenant to contest the same in accordance with the provisions of this Section 5.04.

5.05 Utilities. Tenant shall pay before delinquency, directly to the appropriate company or governmental agency, all charges for all utilities, including, but not limited to, water, gas, electricity, sewer, power, telephone, other communication services and refuse disposal consumed on the Entire Premises including the Common Area but exclusive of Landlord's buildings.

5.06 Personal Property Taxes. During the term of this Lease, Tenant shall pay before delinquency any and all personal property taxes levied or assessed against any personal property located upon the Premises. If Tenant fails to timely pay such taxes and a lien is filed against the Premises, Landlord may discharge such lien, if Tenant fails to discharge such lien within ten (10) days following Tenant's receipt of notice from Landlord, including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees, together with interest at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum from the date of expenditure, such additional rent being due and payable within ten (10) days of notice thereof.

INSURANCE

6.01 Acquisition of Insurance Policies. Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, procure and maintain, or cause to be procured and maintained, during the entire Term the insurance described in this Section (or its then available equivalent), and shall name Landlord and any other parties requested by Landlord as an additional insured.

6.02 Types of Required Insurance. Tenant shall procure and maintain the following:

A) Commercial General Liability Insurance. Commercial general liability insurance insuring against injuries or damages to persons or property sustained in, on or about the Entire Premises (exclusive of the interior of Landlord's Buildings), Leased Premises, Common Area and the appurtenances thereto, including the sidewalks and alleyways adjacent thereto, with limits of liability no less than Ten Million Dollars ($10,000,000) per occurrence and in the aggregate.

B) Physical Property Damage Insurance. During the term hereof, Tenant shall keep Tenant's Building (excluding foundations, footings and underground improvements) and personal property as well as all Improvements on the Common area, (Landlord's Buildings excluded), including, but not limited to, signs, outdoor lighting fixtures and fences insured in the name of Landlord and Tenant against damage or destruction by fire and the perils commonly covered under the extended coverage endorsement (with vandalism and malicious mischief coverage) excluding earthquake and flood to the extent of not less than the full replacement value thereof less any deductible applicable to all of Tenant's theatres insured under a blanket policy. Tenant shall be responsible for determining the amount of fire and extended coverage insurance to be maintained subject to Landlord's consent, which consent is not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The proceeds of such insurance in case of loss or damage shall be held in trust and applied on account of the obligation of Tenant to repair and/or rebuild the Leased Premises pursuant to the Article captioned "Damage Clause" to the extent that such proceeds are required for such purpose. The insurance required to be carried by Tenant under this paragraph may be covered under a so-called "blanket" policy covering other operations of Tenant and its affiliates. Tenant shall name Landlord and any parties requested by Landlord and any holder of a mortgage on Tenant's Building pursuant to a standard mortgage clause with respect to the foregoing hazard insurance, provided such holder agrees with Landlord in writing to disburse such insurance proceeds to Landlord for, and periodically during the course of, repair and restoration of Tenant's Building as set forth in this Lease.

6.03 Terms of Insurance. The policies required under Section 6.02 shall name Landlord as additional insured. Tenant shall provide to Landlord certificates of insurance and copies of policies obtained by Tenant hereunder promptly upon the request of Landlord. Further, all policies of insurance described in Section 6.02 shall:

A) Be written as primary policies not contributing with and not in excess of coverage that Landlord may carry.

B) Contain an endorsement providing that the amount of coverage will not be reduced with respect to Landlord except after thirty (30) days prior written notice from insurance company to Landlord and such coverage may not be canceled with respect to Landlord except after thirty (30) days' prior written notice from insurance company to Landlord.

C) Expressly provide that Landlord shall not be required to give notice of accidents or claims and that Landlord shall have no liability for premiums.

D) Be written by insurance companies having a Bests rating of "A-" or better, and such insurance companies shall be reasonably acceptable to Landlord

6.04 Landlord's Acquisition of Insurance. If Tenant at any time during the Term fails to procure or maintain insurance required hereunder or to pay the premiums therefor, Landlord shall have the right to procure the same and to pay any and all premiums thereon, and any amounts paid by Landlord in connection with the acquisition of insurance shall be immediately due and payable as additional rent, and Tenant shall pay to Landlord upon demand the full amount so paid and expended by Landlord. Any policies of insurance obtained by Landlord covering physical damage to the Premises shall contain a waiver of subrogation against Tenant if and to the extent such waiver is obtainable and if Tenant pays to Landlord on demand the additional costs, if any, incurred in obtaining such waiver.

6.05 Insurance Money and Other Funds Held in Trust. All insurance money or condemnation proceeds as provided in Article XIV, received by the Tenant shall be turned over to Landlord and held in trust by Landlord and, except as provided otherwise in Section 6.06, shall be applied as follows:

First, to any Leasehold Mortgagee as required under the terms of its Leasehold Mortgage provided that such Mortgage was of record and secured a loan made or committed to Landlord in compliance with all of the terms and conditions of this Lease prior to the occurrence of such loss; second, for the purpose of defraying the cost of repairing, restoring, replacing and/or rebuilding any structure or improvement on or in the Premises as required as provided in Section 6.06 hereof; and third, if the damaged or destroyed structure or improvement is not repaired, restored, replaced or rebuilt as hereinafter provided, said funds shall be disposed of as provided in Section 6.06. Any of said funds in the hands of the Tenant or Landlord at the end of the Term hereof shall be disposed of as set forth in Section 6.06 (A).

6.06 Application or Proceeds of Physical Damage Insurance. In case of any insurance policies as described in Section 6.02 (B) (Physical Property Damage Insurance) the application of insurance proceeds from damage or loss to property shall be determined in part in accordance with Article XVII hereof and, in the event of any such repair, replacement, restoration or rebuilding, the Landlord shall disburse the proceeds of the insurance collected to Tenant to pay the cost of such work upon certificate of satisfactory progress and/or completion in form satisfactory to Landlord by the licensed architect or engineer in charge of the work. Upon completion of such repair, replacement, restoration or rebuilding in accordance with the provisions of this Lease, and the full payment therefor (so no liens, encumbrances or claims with respect thereto can be asserted against the Premises, this Lease, Landlord or Tenant), any insurance proceeds received by the Landlord or Tenant with respect to the damage or destruction involved, and not used, shall remain the property of Landlord.

A) Distribution of Unutilized Proceeds. At the termination of this Lease, such insurance proceeds or condemnation awards received and held by the Landlord and not used for repair, replacement or reconstruction ("Available Proceeds"), shall be disposed as follows:

(1) First, Landlord shall be awarded an amount sufficient to remove any improvements not repaired and to return the Property to the level of adjacent streets ("grade level"); and

(2) Second, any remainder shall be paid to Landlord.

6.07 Cooperation for Insurance Proceeds. Landlord and Tenant shall each cooperate with the other in order to obtain the largest possible recovery and execute any and all consents and other instruments and take all other actions reasonably necessary or desirable to effectuate the same and cause such proceeds to be paid as hereinbefore provided. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, neither party shall carry any insurance concurrent in coverage and contributing in the event of loss with any insurance required to be furnished by the other hereunder if the effect of separate insurance would be to reduce the protection or the payment to be made under such party's insurance or under the insurance required to be furnished by the other.

6.08 Waiver of Right of Recovery. Landlord and Tenant hereby release each other from any and all liability and responsibility to one another and, to the extent legally possible to do so on behalf of their respective insurers and anyone claiming through or under either of them, by way of subrogation or otherwise, hereby waive any liability for any and all loss or damage which is of the type covered by fire and extended coverage insurance described in this Article, irrespective of any negligence on the part of the other party which may have contributed to or caused such loss. Every insurance policy carried by either party with respect to the Premises or Tenant's Building or land or improvements adjoining the Premises owned or leased by Landlord shall (if it can be so written and does not result in a material additional premium) include provisions denying to the insurer subrogation rights against the other party and any fee or leasehold mortgage to the extent such rights have been waived by the insured prior to the occurrence of damage or loss. If the waiver of subrogation otherwise is not effective, each party covenants that it will obtain for the benefit of the other party an express waiver of any right of subrogation which the insurer of such party may acquire against the other party by virtue of the payment of any such loss covered by such insurance. In the event either party is by law, statute, governmental regulation, economically unfeasible or other factor beyond such party's reasonable control unable to obtain a waiver of the right of subrogation for the benefit of the other party, then, during any period of time when such waiver is unobtainable, said party shall be deemed not to have released any subrogated claim of its insurance carrier against the other party, and during the same period of time the other party shall be deemed not to have released the party who has been unable to obtain such waiver from any claims they or their insurance carriers may assert which otherwise would have been released pursuant to this Section. In the event that either party is unable to obtain such waiver of the right of subrogation for the benefit of the other party, such party shall, within thirty (30) days of receiving notice of such inability, give the other party written notice of such inability.

ARTICLE VII

If the change, alteration or addition is structural or exterior in nature Landlord's written approval shall be first obtained.

B) Tenant shall at all times keep the Premises or any part thereof, free and clear of all liens and claims for labor or material and free and clear of all attachments, executions and notices.

A) Tenant shall not cause or permit any Hazardous Materials to be brought upon, stored, used, generated, released into the environment or disposed of, on, in, under or about the Entire Premises, the Common Area, or any other portion of the Premises by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees, in violation of any law. Upon the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease, Tenant covenants to remove from the Premises, and/or Entire Premises at its sole cost and expense, any and all Hazardous Materials, including any equipment or systems containing Hazardous Materials, which are brought upon, stored, used, generated or released into the environment at or above actionable levels by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Tenant hereby indemnifies and defends (with counsel experienced and competent in litigating issues of Hazardous Materials) Landlord and agrees to hold Landlord, the Premises and the Entire Premises free and harmless from and against any and all claims, judgments, damages, penalties, fines, costs, liabilities and losses (including, without limitation, diminution in the value of the Premises, damages for the loss or restriction on use of rentable space or of any amenity of the Premises, and sums paid in settlement of claims, attorneys' fees, consultant fees and expert fees) which arise directly or indirectly from the presence of actionable levels of Hazardous Materials on, in or about the Premises which is through Tenant's (or its agents, employees, contractors or invitees) acts or omissions brought upon, stored, used, generated or released into the environment by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees (referred to as "Tenant's Environmental Acts"). This indemnification by Tenant of Landlord includes, without limitation, any and all costs incurred in connection with any investigation of site conditions or any clean up, remedial, removal or restoration work required by any federal, state or local governmental agency or political subdivision because of the presence of such Hazardous Materials in, on or about the Premises, or the soil or ground water on or under the Premises or any portion thereof due to Tenant's Environmental Acts. Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of any release of Hazardous Materials in the Premises, which Tenant becomes aware of during the term of this Lease, caused by Tenant's Environmental Acts. Landlord agrees to indemnify, defend and hold Tenant harmless from all claims, judgments, damages, penalties, fines, costs, resulting from the presence of Hazardous Materials on or about the Premises, (i) on the Commencement Date of this Lease, and/or (ii) during or after the term of this Lease, if the presence of Hazardous Materials results from any cause other than Tenant's Environmental Acts.

B) Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of, and shall promptly provide Landlord with true, correct, complete and legible copies of all of the following environmental items relating to the Premises which may be filed or prepared by or on behalf of, or delivered to or served upon Tenant: reports filed pursuant to any self-reporting requirements, reports filed pursuant to any applicable laws or this Lease, all permit applications, permits, monitoring reports, workplace exposure and community exposure warnings or notices and all other reports, disclosures, plans or documents (excluding those which may be reasonably characterized as confidential) relating to water discharges, air pollution, waste generation or disposal, underground storage tanks or Hazardous Materials.

C) In addition to Tenant's routine reporting obligations described in (B) above, Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of, and shall promptly provide Landlord with true, correct, complete and legible copies of, all of the following environmental items relating to the Premises which may be filed or prepared by or on behalf of, or delivered to or served upon, Tenant: all orders, reports, listings and correspondence (excluding those which may be reasonably considered confidential) of or concerning the release, investigation of, compliance, clean up, remedial and corrective actions, and abatement of Hazardous Materials whether or not required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by or given pursuant to any applicable laws, and all complaints, pleading and other legal documents filed against Tenant related to Tenant's use, handling, storage or disposal of Hazardous Materials. In the event of a release of any Hazardous Materials in, on or about the Premises, Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord and provide Landlord with copies of all reports and correspondence with or from all governmental agencies, authorities or any other persons relating to such release.

D) Landlord, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall have the right, but not the obligation, to join and participate in any legal proceedings or actions initiated in connection with any claims or causes of action arising out of the storage, generation, use or disposal by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees, of Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises caused by Tenant's Environmental Acts which results in (i) injury to any person, (ii) injury to or any contamination of the Premises or (iii) injury to or contamination of any real or personal property wherever situated. Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall promptly take all actions necessary to return the Premises to the condition existing prior to the introduction of such Hazardous Materials to the Premises and to remedy or repair any such injury or contamination. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall not, without Landlord's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or denied or conditioned or delayed, take any remedial action in response to the presence of any Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises or enter into any settlement agreement, consent decree or other compromise with any governmental agency with respect to any Hazardous Materials claims; provided, however, Landlord's prior written consent shall not be necessary in the event that the presence of Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises (i) poses an immediate threat to the health, safety or welfare of any individual or (ii) is of such nature that an immediate remedial response is necessary and it is not possible to obtain Landlord's consent before taking such action.

8.03 Remedial Work. In the event any investigation or monitoring of site conditions or any clean-up, containment, restoration, removal or other remedial work ("Remedial Work") is required (a) under any applicable federal, state or local law or regulation, (b) by any judicial, arbitral or administrative order, (c) to comply with any agreements affecting the Premises or (d) to maintain the Premises in a standard of environmental condition which presents no risk to safety or health, prevents the release of any hazardous materials to adjacent property and otherwise is consistent with the prudent ownership of property of the character of the Premises and/or Tenant's Building and if such Remedial Work is required as a direct result of Tenant's Environmental Acts, then Tenant at Tenant's sole cost and expense, including without limitation, any taxes or penalties assessed in connection with the Remedial Work, shall perform or cause to be performed such Remedial Work; and if such Remedial Work is required for any reason other than Tenant's Environmental Acts, then, Landlord, at Landlord's sole cost and expense, including without limitation, any taxes or penalties assessed in connection with the Remedial Work, shall perform or cause to be performed such Remedial Work. All Remedial Work shall be conducted (i) in a diligent and timely fashion by licensed contractors acting under the supervision of a consulting environmental engineer, (ii) pursuant to a detailed written plan for the Remedial Work approved by any public or private agencies or persons with a legal or contractual right to such approval, (iii) with such insurance coverage pertaining to liabilities arising out of the Remedial Work as is then customarily maintained with respect to such activities, and (iv) only following receipt of any required permits, licenses or approvals. The selection of the Remedial Work contractors, any disclosures to or agreements with any public or private agencies or parties relating to Remedial Work and the written plan for the Remedial Work (and any changes thereto) each shall be subject to the other party's prior written approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, denied, conditioned or delayed. In addition, the party doing the Remedial Work shall submit to the other party, promptly upon receipt or preparation, copies of any and all reports, studies, analyses, correspondence, governmental comments or approvals, proposed removal or other remedial work contracts and similar information prepared or received by such party in connection with any Remedial Work or Hazardous Materials relating to the Premises. In the event the party responsible there for should fail to commence or cause to be commenced in a timely fashion, or fail diligently to prosecute to completion, such Remedial Work, the other party (following written notice) may, but shall not be required to, cause such Remedial Work to be performed, and all costs and expenses thereof, or incurred in connection therewith (i) in the case where Tenant is the responsible party, shall be paid as additional rent due and payable within thirty (30) days of Landlord's invoice therefor, or (ii) in the case where Landlord is the responsible party, shall be paid by Landlord to Tenant within thirty (30) days of Tenant's invoice therefor, and if not timely paid by Landlord, in addition to all other rights and remedies, Tenant shall have the right of offset against rent which may become due. Neither party shall be obligated to perform Remedial Work under this Section while it is contesting the application of any law, regulation or order, provided the other party is not exposed to any additional liability, risk or damages. Obligations under this Section are solely for the benefit of the parties, their successors, and assigns and any subtenants of this Lease, and not for any other third parties.

8.04 Maintenance of Premises.

A) Subject to Tenant's obligation under Section 8.02(A), Tenant at its sole cost and expense shall keep and maintain the Premises in compliance with, and shall not cause or permit the Premises to be in violation of, any federal, state or local laws, statutes, ordinances, orders, guidelines, rules or regulations relating to health and safety, to industrial hygiene or to environmental conditions on, under or about the Premises, including, but not limited to, air, soil and ground water conditions.

B) Tenant shall be liable and responsible for any Hazardous Materials which Tenant causes to be brought onto the Premises.

8.05 Landlord's Responsibilities and Tenant's Indemnity.

A) Landlord shall not, without prior advance notice to Tenant, cause or permit any Hazardous Materials to be brought upon, stored, used, generated, released into the environment or disposed of, on, in, under or about the Entire Premises, the Common Area, or any other portion of the Premises by Landlord, its agents, employees, tenants, contractors or invitees, in violation of any law.

B) Landlord shall promptly notify Tenant of, and shall promptly provide Tenant with true, correct, complete and legible copies of, all of the following environmental items relating to the Entire Premises which may be filed or prepared by or on behalf of, or delivered to or served upon, Landlord: all orders, reports, listings and correspondence (even those which may be considered confidential) of or concerning the release, investigation of, compliance, clean up, remedial and corrective actions, and abatement of Hazardous Materials whether or not required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by or given pursuant to any applicable laws, and all complaints, pleading and other legal documents filed against Landlord related to Landlord's or Landlord's other tenant's use, handling, storage or disposal of Hazardous Materials. In the event of a release of any Hazardous Materials in, on or about the Entire Premises, Landlord shall promptly notify Tenant and provide Tenant with copies of all reports and correspondence with or from all governmental agencies, authorities or any other persons relating to such release.

C) Except for the obligations of Tenant as set forth in this Article VIII, Landlord shall exonerate, indemnify, pay and protect, defend and hold harmless (with counsel reasonably approved by Tenant) and save Tenant and Tenant's successors and assigns, and their directors, trustees, beneficiaries, officers, shareholders, employees and agents (collectively, Tenant's "Related Parties"), harmless from and against any claims (including, without limitation, third party claims for personal injury or real or personal property damage), actions, administrative proceedings (including informal proceedings), judgments, damages, punitive damages, penalties, fines, costs, taxes, assessments, liabilities (including sums paid in settlement of claims), interest or losses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses (including any such fees and expenses incurred in enforcing this provision or collecting any sums due hereunder), consultant fees, and expert fees, together with all other costs and expenses of any kind or nature (collectively, the "Costs") that arise directly or indirectly in connection with the presence, suspected presence, release or suspected release of any Hazardous Materials in or into the air, soil, groundwater, surface water or improvements at, on, about, under or within the Premises, or any portion thereof, or elsewhere in connection with the transportation of Hazardous Materials to or from the Premises or the Entire Premises. In the event Tenant or any of its Related Parties shall suffer or incur any such Costs, Landlord shall pay to Tenant or such Related Party the total of all such Costs suffered or incurred by Tenant or such Related party upon demand therefor. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the indemnification provided by this Section 8.05 shall specifically cover Costs, including capital, operating and maintenance costs, incurred in connection with any investigation or monitoring of site conditions, any clean-up, containment, remedial, removal or restoration work required or performed by any federal, state or local governmental agency or political subdivision or performed by any nongovernmental entity or person because of the presence, suspected presence, release or suspected release of any Hazardous Materials in or into the air, soil, groundwater, surface water or improvements, at, on, about, under or within the Premises (or any portion thereof), or elsewhere in connection with the transportation of, Hazardous Materials to or from the Premises and any claims of third parties for loss or damage due to such Hazardous Materials.

If Tenant is in default with any of the provisions of this Article VIII, Landlord and Landlord's agents and employees shall have the right, but not the obligation, without limitation upon any of Landlord's other rights and remedies under this Lease, to immediately enter upon the Premises and to discharge Tenant's obligations under this Article VIII at Tenant's expense, notwithstanding any other provisions of this Lease. Landlord and Landlord's agents and employees shall endeavor to minimize interference with Tenant's business. All sums reasonably disbursed, deposited or incurred by Landlord in connection therewith, including, but not limited to, all costs, expenses and actual attorneys' fees, shall be due and payable by Tenant to Landlord, as an item of additional rent, on demand by Landlord, together with interest thereon at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum.

A) "Taking" means that taking or damaging, including severance damage, by eminent domain or by inverse condemnation for any public or quasi-public use under any statute. The transfer of title may be either a transfer resulting from the recording of a final order in condemnation or a voluntary transfer or conveyance to the condemning agency or entity under threat of condemnation, in avoidance of an exercise of eminent domain, or while condemnation proceedings are pending. The Taking shall be considered to take place as of the date on which the right to compensation and damages accrues under the law applicable to the Premises, unless the condemnor also takes actual physical possession of the Premises or a part thereof, in which case the date of Taking for the purposes of this Lease shall be the later of the date on which the right to compensation and damages accrues or the date physical possession is taken by the condemnor.

B) "Total Taking" means the Taking of the fee title to all the Premises and the Improvements on the Premises, which shall be considered to include any offsite improvements effected by Tenant to serve the Premises or the improvements or the parking on the Premises.

D) "Notice of Intended Taking" means any notice or notification on which a reasonably prudent man would rely and which he would interpret as expressing an existing intention of Taking as distinguished from a mere preliminary inquiry or proposal. It includes, but is not limited to, the service of a condemnation summons and complaint on a party to this Lease. The notice is considered to have been received when a party to this Lease receives from the condemning agency or entity a Notice of Intended Taking, in writing, containing a description or map of the Taking reasonably defining the extent of the Taking.

E) "Award" means compensation paid for the Taking, whether pursuant to judgment or by agreement or otherwise.

14.02 Notice to Other Party. The party hereto receiving any notice of the kinds specified below shall promptly give the other party notice of the receipt, contents, and date of the notice received:

- B) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any, for severance damages
- C) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any, for the "bonus value" of this leasehold estate. The bonus value is the amount by which the fair market rental value on the open market exceeds the contract rent (the amount called for in this Lease);
- D) To Tenant, the amount awarded, if any, for loss of goodwill and relocation expenses;
- E) To Landlord, any other award which will not reduce the amount which otherwise would be awarded to Tenant; and
- F) To Landlord, any balance.

Tenant shall only be entitled to payments under this Section 14.04 out of amounts awarded by the governmental body taking the Premises.

14.05 Partial Taking — Rent Adjustments. On a Partial Taking, the Lease shall remain in full force and effect covering the remaining Premises, except that the total Rent as otherwise provided herein shall be reduced in the same ratio as the percentage of the area of the Premises taken bears to the total area of the Premises.

14.06 Partial Taking — Option to Terminate. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event of a Partial Taking, if more than thirty percent (30%) of the Building or fifty (50%) of the parking is taken by a condemnation or sold under the threat of condemnation, then Tenant may terminate this Lease as of the date the condemning authority takes title or possession, whichever occurs first, by delivering written notice to the other within ten (10) days after receipt of written notice of such taking (or in the absence of such notice, within ten (10) days after the condemning authority takes possession).

14.07 Separate Tenant's Award. In the event of a Taking, Tenant may make a separate claim with respect to lost business, lost profits, goodwill, moving expenses and other related damages against the acquiring governmental Agency.

ARTICLE XV

DEFAULT

15.01 Tenant's Default. The occurrence of any of the following shall constitute a default or event of default by Tenant:

A) Failure to pay Annual Rent or any other monetary amount when due as provided herein, if the failure continues for ten (10) days after first written notice has been given to Tenant by Landlord;

B) Failure to perform any of Tenant's non-monetary obligations under this Lease, provided however, Tenant shall have thirty (30) days from receipt of written notice by Landlord to cure each such default. If Tenant cannot reasonably cure such default within said thirty (30) day period, Tenant shall not be in default of this Lease if Tenant commences to cure the breach within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the breach.

C) Tenant shall file a petition in voluntary bankruptcy under the bankruptcy code of the United States or any similar Law, State or Federal Law, now or hereafter in effect.

15.02 Landlord's Remedies Cumulative. Landlord shall have the following remedies set forth in subsections (A) through (G) below if Tenant commits a default, except as provided in Section 15.03. These remedies are not exclusive and may be exercised concurrently or successively; they are cumulative in addition to any remedies now or later allowed by law or equity:

A) Bring Suit for Performance. Landlord may bring suit for the collection of the Rent or other amounts for which Tenant is then in default, or for the performance of any other covenant or agreement devolving upon Tenant, all without having to enter into possession or terminate this Lease;

B) Re-Entry Without Termination. Pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1954.4, Landlord may re-enter the Premises, by legal proceedings (or without legal proceedings if the Premises have been abandoned), and take possession thereof, without thereby terminating this Lease, and thereupon Landlord may expel all persons and remove all property therefrom, without becoming liable to prosecution therefor, and relet the Premises or a portion or portions thereof, and receive the rent therefrom, applying the same first to the payment of the reasonable expenses of such re-entry and the reasonable cost of such reletting, and then to the payment of the Rent and other amounts for which Tenant is then in default; the balance, if any, to be paid to Tenant, who, whether or not the Premises are relet, shall remain liable for any deficiency. It is agreed that the commencement and prosecution of any action by Landlord in forcible entry and detainer, ejectment, or otherwise, or the appointment of a receiver, or any execution of any decree obtained in any action to recover possession of the Premises, or any re-entry, shall not be construed as an election to terminate this Lease unless Landlord shall, in writing, expressly exercise its election to declare the Lease Term hereunder ended and to terminate this Lease, and unless this Lease be expressly terminated, such re-entry or entry by Landlord, whether had or taken under summary proceedings or otherwise, shall not be deemed to have absolved or discharged Tenant from any of its obligations and liabilities for the remainder of the Lease Term. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary or other provisions of this Section 15.02(B), Tenant shall have the right to sublet the Premises, assign its interest in the Lease, or both, subject to Landlord's prior right, during any continuance of Tenant's default, to relet the Premises or a portion or portions thereof.

C) Termination of Lease and Lessee's Right to Possession. No act by Landlord, other than giving Tenant written notice of termination of this Lease, shall in fact terminate the Lease. Upon termination of the Lease, neither Landlord nor Tenant shall have any future rights or obligations under the Lease except that Landlord shall have the right to recover from Tenant the following:

- (1) The worth, at the time of the award, of the unpaid Rent that had been earned at the time of termination of this Lease;
- (2) The worth, at the time of the award, of the amount by which the unpaid Rent that would have been earned after the date of termination of this Lease until the time of award exceeds the amount of the loss of Rent that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided;
- (3) The worth, at the time of the award, of the amount by which the unpaid Rent for the balance of the Term after the time of award exceeds the amount of the loss of Rent that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided; and
- (4) Any other amount, and court costs, necessary to compensate Landlord for all detriment proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform his obligations under the Lease or which, in the ordinary course of things, would be likely to result therefrom.
- (5) For any other sums due.

D) Definitions. As used herein, the following phrases shall be interpreted as follows:

(1) "The worth, at the time of the award," as used in subsections 15.02(C)(1) and (2) above, is to be computed by allowing interest at the maximum lawful rate. "The worth, at the time of the award," as referred to in subsection 15.02(C)(3) above, is to be computed by discounting the amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco at the time of the award, plus one percent (1%).

(2) As used herein, the term "time of award" shall mean either the date upon which Tenant pays to Landlord the amount recoverable by Landlord as hereinabove set forth or the date of entry of any determination, order, or judgment of any court or other legally constituted body determining the amount recoverable, whichever first occurs.

E) Surrender. Promptly after notice of termination, Tenant shall surrender and vacate the Premises and all improvements in broom-clean condition, and Landlord may re-enter and take possession of the Premises and all remaining improvements and eject all parties in possession or eject some and not others, or eject none. Termination under subsection 15.02(C) shall not relieve Tenant from the payment of any sum due to Landlord or from any claim for damages previously accrued or then accruing against Tenant.

F) Appointment of Receiver. If Tenant defaults under Section 15.02 Landlord shall have the right to have a receiver appointed to collect rent from any subtenants. Neither the filing of a petition for the appointment of a receiver nor the appointment itself shall constitute an election by Landlord to terminate this Lease.

G) Landlord's Right to Cure Tenant's Default. Landlord, at any time after Tenant is in default under Section 15.01 herein, may cure the default at Tenant's expense. If Landlord, at any time, by reason of Tenant's default, pays any sum or does any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Landlord shall be immediately reimbursed from Tenant to Landlord, together with interest at eighteen percent (18%) per annum computed from the date of such expenditure until the date of reimbursement by Tenant.

15.03 Landlord's Default.

A) The occurrence of the following shall constitute a default by Landlord: Breach of any provision of this Lease if the breach is not cured within thirty (30) days after written notice by Tenant; provided, however, that if the breach cannot reasonably be cured within such thirty (30) day period, Landlord shall not be in default of this Lease if Landlord commences to cure the breach within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the default.

B) Tenant, at any time after Landlord is in default under paragraph (A) above, may cure the default at Landlord's expense. If Tenant at any time, by reason of Landlord's default, pays any sum or does any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Tenant shall be immediately reimbursed by Landlord, together with interest at eighteen percent (18%) per annum determined at the time the expenditure is made by Tenant computed from the date of such expenditure until the date of reimbursement by Landlord. If Landlord fails to make such payment(s) within fifteen (15) days after Tenant's written demand, Tenant shall be entitled to offset any amount due from Landlord against the next Rent payment due under this Lease.

15.04 Waiver of Redemption. Tenant hereby expressly waives any and all rights of redemption granted by or under any present or future laws in the event of Tenant being dispossessed or removed from the Premises upon the termination of this Lease because of default by Tenant hereunder.

15.05 Dispute Resolution. Landlord and Tenant desire by provisions of this Section 15.05 to establish procedures to facilitate the informal and inexpensive resolution of any dispute arising out of this Lease by mutual cooperation and without resort to litigation. To accomplish this objective, Landlord and Tenant agree to follow the procedures set forth below if and when a dispute arises between them under this Lease.

A) Description of Dispute. The complaining party shall provide by notice a written description of the alleged breach by the other party. This description shall explain the nature of the complaint and the Lease provision(s) on which it is based. The complaining party shall also set forth a proposed solution to the problem including a specific time frame within which the parties must act. The party receiving the letter of complaint must respond in writing within ten (10) days with an explanation, including references to the relevant parts of the Lease and a response to the proposed solution. Within ten (10) days of receipt of this response, the parties must meet and discuss options for resolving the dispute. The complaining party must initiate the scheduling of the resolution meeting.

B) Mediation. A settlement conference shall be held within thirty (30) days of the unsuccessful resolution meeting or as soon as practical thereafter. The settlement conference shall be held in the County of San Francisco, California.

C) Arbitration. With respect to disputes which the parties have been unable to resolve informally or by mediation, the parties agree to submit the dispute for final and binding arbitration if the dispute has not otherwise been settled. The parties agree that the arbitration must be initiated within one (1) year after the date of the written description of the alleged breach and that the failure to initiate arbitration within the one (1) year period constitutes an absolute bar to the initiation of any proceedings. An arbitration shall be deemed initiated for the purposes of this section by demand therefor being sent by certified mail to the other party which notice shall contain a description of the dispute, the amount involved and the remedies sought. The parties shall have the right to representation by counsel throughout the arbitration proceedings. All rulings, decisions, and awards of the arbitrators shall be in conformance with California law. The award may be judicially enforced pursuant to §1285 et seq of the California Code of Civil Procedure. Each party shall bear their own costs of legal counsel and the fees for witnesses, unless otherwise determined by the arbitrator as part of the award. The parties may establish the scope of discovery by agreement. If the parties cannot agree, the arbitrator will have discretion to define the limits of discovery and to allow discovery upon a showing of good cause, utilizing the following guidelines:

(1) The arbitrator shall balance the benefits of discovery against the burdens and expenses to the parties and the goals of arbitration as an alternative to traditional litigation.

(2) The arbitrator shall have discretion to order pre-hearing exchange of information, including but not limited to, the production of requested documents and exchanges of summaries of testimony of proposed witnesses.

(3) The deposition of the claimant(s) and respondent(s) and form sets of interrogatories approved by the Judicial Council shall be allowed as a matter of right. There shall be an early and prompt designation and exchange of the names and addresses of expert witnesses who may be called upon to testify at the arbitration hearing. Their depositions, special interrogatories, requests for admission and all other discovery shall be allowed only upon a showing of good cause.

15.06 Attorneys' Fees. Should any action or proceeding, be commenced between the parties to this Lease concerning said Premises, this Lease, or the rights and duties of either in relation thereto, the party, Landlord, or Tenant, prevailing in such action or proceeding shall be entitled, in addition to such other relief as may be granted in the action or proceeding, to a reasonable sum as and for its attorneys' fees therein which shall be determined by the arbitrator(s) hearing such action or proceeding.

If the Premises or the improvements to the Common Area are damaged by any peril after the Commencement date of the Lease, Tenant shall restore the Leased Premises or the Common Area improvements unless the Lease is terminated pursuant to Section 17.01 B. If this Lease is not so terminated, then upon receipt of the insurance proceeds by Landlord (if insurance proceeds are available) and the issuance of all necessary governmental permits, Tenant shall promptly commence and diligently prosecute to completion the restoration of the Leased Premises or the Common Area improvements to the extent then allowed by Law, to substantially the same condition in which the Leased Premises or the Common Area Improvements were immediately prior to such damage..

17.02 Prompt Repair. In the event of any transfer or assignment of Landlord's interest in this Lease or any change in, or transfer of, title in and to the Premises of any part thereof, whether voluntary or involuntary, or by act of Landlord or by operation of law, Tenant shall be under no obligation to pay rent or other charges payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder, thereafter accruing, until Tenant shall have been notified in writing of such transfer, assignment, or change in title, and given satisfactory proof thereof, and the withholding of rent or other charges payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder, in the meantime shall not be deemed a default upon the part of Tenant. Landlord may assign this Lease and convey its title to the Premises, subject to this Lease, at any time. In the event of such assignment of this Lease, Landlord shall have no further obligations under this Lease, except for liabilities which shall have accrued prior to the date of such assignment and transfer and that the assignee assumes in writing Landlord's obligations hereunder accruing on and after the effective date of the assignment.

The acceptance by Landlord of Rent or partial Rent with knowledge of the breach of any of the covenants of this Lease by Tenant shall not be deemed a waiver of any such breach. One or more waivers of any breach of any covenant, term, or condition of this Lease shall not be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same covenant, term, or condition. The consent or approval by either party shall not be deemed to waive or render unnecessary that party's consent to or approval of any subsequent similar act.

The certificate also shall state the amount of current monthly rent, the dates to which the rent has been paid in advance, the amount of prepaid rent, and any other information with respect to this Lease reasonably requested by the Requesting Party. Failure to deliver the certificate within the twenty (20) days shall be conclusive upon the party failing to deliver the certificate for the benefit of the party requesting the certificate and any successor to the party requesting the certificate, that this Lease is in full force and effect, and has not been modified except as may be represented by the party requesting the certificate, and that rent and other charges have not been paid for any period after date of the notice requesting the certificate.

18.18 Mechanics Liens. Tenant shall discharge, by payment, bonding or otherwise, any mechanics liens filed against the Premises or the Entire Premises in connection with Tenant's work and/or any alterations or other work done by or on behalf of Tenant in the Premises within thirty (30) days after Tenant receives notice of the filing of such lien, and Landlord shall cooperate with Tenant at no expense to Landlord, in order to accomplish such discharge. Should Tenant fail to so discharge any such mechanics lien, Landlord shall have the right to remove such mechanics liens and charge all costs thereof, including without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, to Tenant as additional rent plus interest at 18%.

18.19 Relationship of Parties. Nothing contained in this Lease shall be construed to create the relationship of principal and agent, partnership, joint venture or any other relationship between the parties hereto other than the relationship of Landlord and Tenant. Nothing contained herein shall in any way impose any liability upon the stockholders, officers or directors of Landlord or stockholders, officers, directors or trustees of Tenant should such parties be corporate entities.

Tenant and Landlord (i) have each agreed to permit the use, from time to time and where appropriate, of telecopied signatures in order to expedite the transaction contemplated by this Lease, (ii) each intend to be bound by its respective telecopied signature, (iii) are each aware that the other will rely on the telecopied signature, and (iv) each acknowledge such reliance and waive any defenses to the enforcement of the documents effecting the transaction contemplated by this Lease based on a telecopied signature.

18.22 Anti-Merger. The voluntary or otherwise surrender of this Lease by Tenant, or a mutual cancellation of this Lease shall not work a merger but shall at the option of Landlord either:

A) Terminate any existing subleases or subtenancies; or

B) Operate as an assignment to Landlord (and assumption by Landlord) of any subleases or subtenancies.

3. The following new Section 7.01(D) shall be inserted after Section 7.01(C):

In addition to developing some or all of the Entire Premises that are outside of the Building (which for all purposes herein shall include the New Theater), Landlord’s Development rights set forth above shall include all roof-top and other exterior communication and advertising rights on or about the Entire Premises, including, without limitation, the exclusive right to install, locate, maintain, use, replace and repair satellite dishes and other roof-top communications equipment on the roof of the Building. 2. Tenant hereby waives all claims of any nature whatsoever Tenant may now have or may hereafter have against Landlord relating in any manner to, directly or indirectly, the Development. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Landlord shall not be liable for any damage to persons or property located in, on or about the Premises resulting from or in connection with the Development, and Tenant waives and shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Landlord from any and all claims asserted by Tenant or Tenant’s officers, agents, employees, contractors, licensees, invitees or guests arising from damage resulting from or in connection with the Development (except to the extent such damage is caused by the willful act or gross negligence of Landlord; provided, however, that Landlord shall not be liable for any consequential damages, including, without limitation, any claim for loss of profit or business).

C. Surrender

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease, upon the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease and promptly following Tenant’s receipt of a cost estimate thereof from

Century Berryessa — San Jose, California

Except as set forth above, from and after the Termination Date, the parties shall have no further rights under the Lease nor further obligations with respect to the Premises, except for any rights or obligations which expressly survive the termination of the Lease in accordance with the provisions thereof or at law.

FOURTH AMENDMENT TO LEASE

(Berryessa)

THIS FOURTH AMENDMENT TO LEASE AGREEMENT (this “Amendment”) is entered into as of August 7, 2006 to be effective as of the Effective Date (as defined hereinbelow) by and between SYUFY ENTERPRISES, L.P., a California limited partnership (“Landlord”), and CENTURY THEATRES, INC., a California corporation (“Tenant”).

R E C I T A L S:

A. Landlord (then known as Syufy Enterprises, a California Limited Partnership) and Century Theatres of California Inc., a California corporation (“Original Tenant”), entered into a certain Lease dated as of September 30, 1995 (the “Original Lease”), for certain premises located in San Jose, California.

B. The Original Lease has been previously amended by (i) that certain First Amendment to Lease dated as of September 1, 2000 (the “First Amendment”), (ii) that certain Second Amendment to Lease dated as of April 15, 2005 (the “Second Amendment”), and (iii) that certain Third Amendment to Lease dated as of September 29, 2005 (the “Third Amendment”; the Original Lease as heretofore amended is referred to herein as the “Lease”).

C. Tenant has succeeded to the interests and assumed the obligations of Original Tenant as the lessee under the Lease.

D. Landlord and Tenant now desire to further amend the Amended Lease, upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Amendment.

NOW THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt, adequacy and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Lease is hereby modified and amended, and Landlord and Tenant hereby agree, as follows:

1. Recitals Incorporated; Certain Defined Terms. The Recitals set forth above are incorporated into this Amendment and shall be deemed terms and provisions hereof, the same as if fully set forth in this Paragraph 1. Capitalized terms that are used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed to such terms in the Lease.

2. Effectiveness. The parties are entering into this Amendment in connection with the contemplated acquisition of all the outstanding capital stock of Century Theatres, Inc. by Cinemark Holdings, Inc. and Cinemark USA, Inc. (the “Acquisition”) pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement dated as of the date hereof (the “Stock Purchase Agreement”). This Amendment shall become automatically effective upon, and only upon, the closing of the Acquisition (the “Effective Date”). In the event the Acquisition is not consummated and the Stock Purchase Agreement is terminated, this Agreement shall become void ab initio and of no force and effect.

3. Initial Term of Lease and Extension Options. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease, the current Term of the Lease shall expire on the date that is ***

 after the Effective Date hereof. Thereafter, the Term of this Lease shall automatically renew on a  basis unless Tenant delivers written notice to Landlord at least sixty (60) days prior to the then-current expiration date of the Term that Tenant elects not to extend the Term of the Lease.

4. Landlord's Recapture Right. If, at any time during the term of the Lease, Tenant fails to satisfy the Operating Condition (defined below), for reasons other than Excused Closure (defined below), and such failure continues for six (6) consecutive months or more, then upon notice from Landlord to Tenant at any time thereafter (provided that the Operating Condition remains unsatisfied), Landlord shall have the right to terminate the Lease and to recapture the Leased Premises, without payment to Tenant, effective upon the date set forth in Landlord's termination notice (but not sooner than 30 days after the date of the termination notice).

The term "Operating Condition" shall mean and require that the entire Leased Premises is being continuously operated and regularly open for business to the general public as a motion picture theater complex in accordance with the Lease, at least on such days and at such times that a majority of Century's and Cinemark's other motion picture theater complexes in the County of Santa Clara typically are open and operating. The term "Excused Closure" shall mean (i) periods of construction, alterations, renovation, remodeling and repair of the Leased Premises undertaken in accordance with this Lease (including repairs and restoration following damage or destruction due to fire or other casualty) provided that Tenant (A) prosecutes such work to completion with reasonable diligence, (B) exercises its reasonable efforts to minimize the length of time of such closure, and (C) exercises its reasonable efforts to limit the number of motion picture screens at the Premises that are not operated due to such closure; (ii) periods when Tenant cannot practicably operate its business in the Premises as a consequence of force majeure; and (iii) additional periods, not to exceed four (4) days in any Lease Year, when Tenant in its sole discretion elects not to operate its business in the Leased Premises.

5. Self-Insurance of Property/Casualty Risks. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Lease, during any period in which Tenant maintains a Net Worth (as defined below) of at least One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000.00), Tenant may self insure the so-called "physical property damage insurance" otherwise required to be maintained by Tenant pursuant to the Lease. As used herein, the "Net Worth" of Tenant at any given time shall mean an amount equal to the sum of (A) the product of (1) Tenant's so-called EBITDA (i.e., earnings before interest, income taxes, depreciation and amortization), calculated in accordance with commercially reasonable past practice preceding the Effective Date by Tenant's parent corporation, over the 12-month period immediately preceding the time of measurement, multiplied by (2) eight (8), plus (B) the amount of cash and cash equivalents held by Tenant on the most recent anniversary of Tenant's annual insurance renewal date, minus (C) the amount of outstanding funded debt of Tenant on such determination date.

6. Damage and Destruction — Repairs by Tenant Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, the following shall apply to repairs and restoration upon damage or destruction:

(A) Tenant's Obligation to Repair. If the Leased Premises are damaged or destroyed by any peril after the Commencement Date of this Lease, then Tenant shall repair the damage and restore the Leased Premises in accordance with this Section, except as provided in subsection (B) below. Unless Tenant is not required to effect the repairs and restoration pursuant to subsection (B) below, Tenant shall promptly apply for and diligently seek to obtain all necessary governmental permits and approvals for the repair and restoration of the Leased Premises and, upon issuance of such governmental permits and approvals, promptly commence and diligently prosecute the completion of the repairs and restoration of the Leased Premises (to the extent permitted by applicable law) to substantially the same condition in which the Leased Premises were immediately prior to such damage or destruction (subject to any alterations which Tenant would be permitted to make to the Leased Premises pursuant to this Lease).

(B) If the Leased Premises are damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty which occurs after the Effective Date hereof, and if the uninsured cost to repair such damage or to restore the Leased Premises (including deductibles) exceeds $50,000, then (i) Tenant shall have the option, upon notice to Landlord not later than one hundred eighty (180) days following the occurrence of the applicable casualty, not to undertake the repairs and restoration of the Leased Premises (provided, however, that Landlord may nullify Tenant's election not to undertake the repairs and restoration, within thirty (30) days after receiving Tenant's notice by confirming either (x) that Landlord shall reimburse Tenant for such excess costs within 30 days after the completion of the repairs and restoration and Landlord's receipt of reasonable supporting documentation of such costs or (y) that Landlord waives its right to terminate this Lease pursuant to Section 18 prior to the date which is 12 months after the repairs and restoration are completed), and (ii) if Tenant so elects not to undertake the repairs and restoration, then Tenant nevertheless shall raze Tenant's Building and remove from the Leased Premises all building materials and debris and all underground installations that serve only the Leased Premises (including the footings and foundations of Tenant's Building and the utility lines serving Tenant's Building) and restore the surface of the Premises to a graded and landscaped surface.

7. Permitted Assignments and Release. Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, the following shall apply and control:

Subject to the next sentence, Tenant may sublet or assign this Lease only upon receipt of Landlord's written consent which consent Landlord agrees shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned. Notwithstanding anything in this Lease to the contrary, it is agreed that at any time during the term of this Lease, Tenant may, without Landlord's consent or approval (but only upon prior written notice to Landlord), assign this Lease or sublet the Leased Premises to: (i) any wholly-owned subsidiary of Tenant, and (ii) any corporation, trust, partnership or individual that owns fifty percent (50%) or more of the issued and outstanding stock of Tenant. A change in control of Tenant shall not constitute an assignment of this Lease requiring Landlord's consent or approval, provided, however, that if any assignee under clause (i) above ceases to be a wholly owned subsidiary of Tenant, then the same shall be deemed to constitute an assignment which is prohibited without Landlord's approval under Article XI of the Lease. No assignment, subletting or other transfer of the Lease or the Leased Premises shall relieve or release Tenant from any liabilities or obligations arising under the Lease.

8. Leasehold Financing. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, Tenant shall have the right, without Landlord's consent to encumber the leasehold estate created under the Lease and/or to grant a security interest in Tenant's removable trade fixtures, furnishings and equipment located within the Leased Premises (but not to encumber Landlord's fee interest in the Premises), to secure financing provided to Tenant by any bank, thrift institution, insurance company or other institutional lender. Tenant agrees to notify Landlord of any such encumbrance. With respect to any such leasehold financing (and provided that Tenant is not in default under the Lease beyond any applicable notice or cure period), upon thirty (30) days' prior written request from Tenant, Landlord will execute and deliver to the secured lender a "Landlord's Agreement" in the form attached hereto as Exhibit "A-1".

9. [Intentionally Omitted].

10. Gross Sales. Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary the definition of Gross Sales shall be as follows:

"Gross Sales" shall mean the total amount of all revenues (whether in cash or credit) generated or derived from the conduct of any business at the Leased Premises, including (without limitation) all box office receipts of or at the Leased Premises (including receipts from tickets or gift certificates redeemed at the Leased Premises regardless of the point of sale), as well as any and all receipts from the sale of goods, services, merchandise, beverages, food, vending machines and video games at the Leased Premises; provided, however, that the following shall be excluded from "Gross Sales" (i) credits and refunds made with respect to admissions or other sales otherwise included in Gross Sales, (ii) all federal, state, county and city admission taxes, sales and use taxes, entertainment taxes, royalty taxes, gross receipt taxes and other similar taxes now or hereafter imposed and owing to the taxing authority by Tenant (whether such taxes are collected from customers separately from the selling price of admission tickets or absorbed by Tenant); (iii) receipts from the sale of gift certificates or tickets sold but not redeemed at the Leased Premises; (iv) with respect to any tickets or admissions ordered or paid for over the internet and redeemed at the Leased Premises, the portion (if any) of the sale price that exceeds Tenant's actual box-office ticket price; (v) sales price for merchandise returned, (vi) amounts retained by credit card issuers, (vii) sales outside of the ordinary course of business, (viii) amount of credit card sales deemed uncollectible, (ix) advertising revenues including without limitation media, sponsorship, and promotional advertising of any kind, and (x) the receipts of or from so-called "four-wall deals" with a party that is not affiliated with Tenant, except that the portion thereof or other amounts paid to Tenant in connection with such "four-wall deals" shall be included in "Gross Sales" under this Lease. Commissions or surcharges paid to agencies or other third parties not affiliated with Tenant for selling tickets or processing credit card transactions, and any sums paid to third parties not affiliated with Tenant for the use or rental of vending machines, pay telephones, amusement machines and other similar devices shall be deducted from "Gross Sales" (if and to the extent previously included in "Gross Sales").

11. Taxes. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Lease or this Amendment to the contrary, if during the ten (10) year period immediately following the Effective Date, any sale or change in ownership of the Premises (or against the Entire Premises, if the Premises are not separately assessed) is consummated by Landlord and, as a result, all or part of the Premises (or Entire Premises, if applicable) are reassessed (a "Reassessment") for real property tax purposes by the appropriate governmental authority under the terms of Proposition 13 (as adopted by the voters of the State of California in the June 1978 election) or the terms of Article XIII A of the Constitution of the State of California, then the terms of this Section shall apply. For purposes of this Section, the term "Tax Increase" shall mean that portion of the annual real estate taxes assessed against the Premises (or the Entire Premise, if applicable), as calculated immediately following the Reassessment, that is attributable solely to the Reassessment. Accordingly, a Tax Increase shall not include any portion of the real estate taxes, as calculated immediately following the Reassessment, that is:

- (i) Attributable to the assessment of the value of the Premises (or Entire Premises, if applicable) prior to the Effective Date;
- (ii) Attributable to the annual inflationary increases in real estate taxes; or
- (iii) Attributable to the sale of Landlord's ownership interest in Tenant on or about the Effective Date, or attributable to the execution of this Amendment or any extension of the Term of this Lease on the Effective Date or thereafter.

During the five (5) year period immediately following the Effective Date, Tenant shall not be obligated to pay any portion of any Tax Increase relating to a Reassessment.

Commencing on the fifth anniversary of the Effective Date, and continuing until the tenth anniversary of the Effective Date, Tenant shall be obligated to pay annually only the portion of a Tax Increase relating to a Reassessment that is equal to (or less than) an increase of four percent (4%) per annum, compounded annually, from the Effective Date, in the annual amount owed by Tenant for real estate taxes under the terms of the Lease, from the annual amount owed by Tenant for real estate taxes under the terms of the Lease in calendar 2006.

The terms and provisions of this Section shall not apply to any increase in real estate taxes which results from or is attributable to any occurrence, fact or circumstance other than a sale by Landlord of Landlord's interest in the Premises or a transfer effected by Landlord which is treated as a sale by the local taxing authorities under Proposition 13 (excluding those matters identified in clause (iii) above). This Section shall not apply from and after the tenth (10th) anniversary of the Effective Date of this Amendment

12. Alterations by Tenant.

Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, the following shall apply and control:

Tenant shall have the right from time to time, at its sole cost and expense, to make non-structural interior alterations, improvements, or changes in the Leased Premises as Tenant shall deem necessary or beneficial consistent with Tenant's exclusive use of the Leased Premises as a motion picture theatre complex and if Tenant undertakes such work, Tenant must pursue such work until completion. Tenant shall fully and completely indemnify Landlord against any mechanics' or other liens in connection with the making of such alterations and changes, and shall pay all costs, expenses, and charges thereof. Alterations, changes and improvements shall be performed in a first-class manner and must comply with all laws, zoning regulations and ordinances, and any conditions on permits issued pursuant thereto. If it is necessary in Tenant's reasonable judgment to close any of the motion picture screens during the period in which any of Tenant's work permitted hereunder is performed, said closure(s) shall be effected only in accordance with the provisions governing an "Excused Closure", as that term is defined in Section 4 of this Amendment.

13. Rooftop Equipment and Access. Tenant shall have the exclusive right to install, operate, repair, replace and maintain satellite dishes and/or other communication transmission devices (collectively "Rooftop Equipment") on the roof of the theatre necessary or appropriate to accept any transmission of signals to the theatre for all permitted uses, including without limitation, for movies, advertising, concerts, telecasts, corporate meetings or communications and the like; but Tenant shall be prohibited from entering into any leases or licenses with any third parties for retransmission from such Rooftop Equipment, and Tenant shall not retransmit such signals to a third party outside of the Leased Premises. Landlord shall not use, or permit any person or entity (other than Tenant), to use the roof or exterior walls of the theatre for any purpose whatsoever, and Landlord agrees not to enter into any leases or licenses with third parties for the use of the theater rooftop. Landlord shall be responsible for any damage to the rooftop caused by the Landlord or a third party that enters onto the theatre rooftop with Landlord's permission, and Landlord shall indemnify and hold Tenant harmless from all loss, cost, damage or expense which Tenant incurs as a result of the acts or omissions of said third party or their agents or employer. Tenant hereby indemnifies and agrees to hold Landlord and Landlord's successors and assigns harmless from all loss, cost, damage or expense which Landlord incurs as a result of the actions of Tenant, or its agents or employees in installing and utilizing Rooftop Equipment as permitted hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant's exclusive rights are subject to any agreements entered into after the Effective Date by Landlord and a licensee or lessee regarding Rooftop Equipment provided that such Rooftop Equipment does not interfere with Tenant's Rooftop Equipment installed pursuant to this Section.

14. Permitted Use and Operations. From and after the Effective Date, Tenant shall be permitted to use and operate the Leased Premises as and only as a first-class motion picture theatre complex (whether operated as a so called "first run" theatre and/or an "art house" theatre). In no event shall Tenant be permitted to operate the Leased Premises as a so-called "second-run" theater complex or a so-called "adult" theater complex.

15. Removal of Equipment, Surrender and Demolition. Upon the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of the Lease, and provided Tenant is not in default under the Lease beyond applicable notice and cure periods, and said earlier termination is not due to Tenant's default under the Lease, then for a period extending forty-five (45) days beyond the date of said expiration or termination, Tenant shall be permitted to remove any and all furniture, fixtures and equipment owned and installed by Tenant in, on or to the Leased Premises. Such removal shall be: (a) at Tenant's sole cost and expense; (b) conducted in such manner that no liens or claims shall arise or exist in connection therewith; (c) conducted in a manner to avoid unreasonable interference with the activities of Landlord and subsequent tenants or occupants upon the Leased Premises and Tenant shall repair all damages caused by such removal.

Upon surrender of the Leased Premises by Tenant and removal of its equipment pursuant to the terms of the Lease and this Amendment, Landlord shall be responsible for the cost of any demolition of the Leased Premises and site grading and restoration as a result, except as otherwise provided in the Lease. Such demolition shall be undertaken in Landlord's sole discretion and at such times, manner and upon such events as Landlord solely shall determine

16. Alternate Rent. As of the Effective Date and if and for so long as Tenant continues to satisfy the Operating Condition (defined above), then in lieu of Base Rent and Percentage Rent otherwise due under the Lease (but not in lieu of Tenant's share of Impositions or any other amounts payable by Tenant under the Lease, which will continue to be due and payable by Tenant as provided in the Lease), Tenant shall pay to Landlord on a monthly basis an amount equal to  of Tenant's Gross Sales, as defined hereinabove. Such amount shall be paid by Tenant monthly in arrears on or before the thirtieth (30th) day after the end of each calendar month. Within sixty (60) days after the end of each fiscal year, Tenant shall provide a written certification of Tenant's Gross Sales for the prior year, executed by the chief financial officer or controller of Tenant, which shall be subject to the same year-end reporting and reconciliation procedures and the verification and audit rights of Landlord that apply to Percentage Rent under this Lease.

17. Early Termination — Tenant. (i) If, during any consecutive twelve (12) calendar month period after the Effective Date (the "Test Period"), the TLCF (defined on Exhibit "A-2" hereto) for the Leased Premises is less than , then Tenant shall have the right, to be exercised by written notice to Landlord at any time when the TLCF over the most current trailing twelve (12) month period was  or within forty-five (45) days after such Test Period, to terminate the Lease as provided below in this Section; provided, however, that such notice and Tenant's right to terminate the Lease as provided in this Section shall be void and ineffective unless Tenant shall have satisfied the Operating Condition (defined in Section 4 above) continuously throughout the Test Period. In order to be effective, Tenant's notice to Landlord under this Section shall include a written certification to Landlord from Tenant's chief financial officer or controller confirming that the TLCF for the Test Period is less than . Provided Tenant has satisfied the aforesaid conditions, then this Lease shall be terminated effective as of the date which is thirty (30) days after the termination notice.

(ii) If, at anytime during which Tenant is paying Alternate Rent, Tenant reasonably determines that it is necessary or appropriate to undertake in any prospective 12-month period (the "Cap Ex Test Period"), aggregate capital expenditures (i.e., expenditures required to be capitalized rather than expensed under Tenant's normal income tax accounting procedures) for any repairs and maintenance to the Leased Premises in excess of  which Tenant is otherwise unwilling to make, then, Tenant shall have the right and option to terminate the Lease upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to Landlord, subject to the following terms and conditions: (A) Tenant's notice of termination shall specify in reasonable detail the applicable capital expenditures (the "Cap Ex Projects"), the projected commencement date of each Cap Ex Project and the estimated costs thereof (the "Projected Cap Ex Costs"), prior to incurring same and prior to the commencement of the Cap Ex Test Period; (B) Landlord shall have the ability (but not the obligation) to nullify Tenant's exercise of the termination option set forth in this subclause (ii) by delivering written notice to Tenant within ten (10) business days after the date of its receipt of Tenant's termination notice stating either that (1) Landlord shall reimburse Tenant for the amount by which the actual cost incurred by Tenant (within 30 days of receipt of reasonable documentation of such expense) during the Cap Ex Test Period for the identified Cap Ex Projects (but not more than the Projected Cap Ex Costs) exceed , or (2) Landlord waives its right to terminate this Lease pursuant to Section 18 below during the applicable Cap Ex Test Period; (C) if Landlord so nullifies Tenant's purported termination, then Tenant shall be required to undertake the Cap Ex Projects not later than thirty (30) days after the applicable dates specified in Tenant's notice of termination and thereafter to diligently prosecute the Cap Ex Projects to completion, at Tenant's sole cost and expense (subject to reimbursement from Landlord as provided above, if applicable); and (D) if Tenant fails to undertake and complete the identified Cap Ex Projects as aforesaid, then (x) such failure shall constitute a default by Tenant under the Lease, and (y) Landlord's termination rights under Section 18 below will be immediately reinstated (notwithstanding the waiver pursuant to clause (2) above, if applicable).

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Lease, including Section 15 above, if Tenant elects to terminate this Lease pursuant to this Section and Landlord demolishes the theatre building of the Leased Premise within twelve (12) months after the date of termination, then Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the actual out-of-pocket costs incurred by Landlord to demolish the theatre building (including, without limitation, the costs to remove from the Leased Premises all building materials and debris and all footings, foundations, utility lines and other underground installations that serve the Leased Premises and the costs to restore the surface of the Premises to a graded and landscaped surface); provided, however, that Tenant's reimbursement obligations shall not exceed an amount equal to the product of  psf multiplied by the ground floor area of the theatre building (in square feet). Tenant shall pay the amount due under this paragraph within thirty (30) days after receiving Landlord's written demand for reimbursement, which shall include reasonable supporting documentation confirming the costs so incurred by Landlord. Tenant's obligations under this paragraph shall expressly survive the termination of the Lease.

18. Early Termination — Landlord. Landlord shall have the right, at anytime after the Effective Date of this Amendment, to terminate this Lease upon not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Tenant.

19. California Remedies. Landlord's remedies upon a default under the Lease shall include, without limitation, the following:

Even though Tenant has breached the Lease and/or abandoned the Premises, this Lease shall continue in effect for so long as Landlord does not terminate Tenant's right to possession, and Landlord may enforce all of its rights and remedies under this Lease, including (but without limitation) the right to recover Rent as it becomes due. Landlord has the remedy described in Section 1951.4 of the Civil Code of the State of California or any successor code section (Landlord may continue the Lease in effect after Tenant's breach and abandonment and recover rent as it becomes due, if Tenant has the right to sublet or assign, subject only to reasonable limitations). Acts of maintenance, preservation or efforts to lease the Premises or the appointment of receiver upon application of Landlord to protect Landlord's interest under this Lease shall not constitute an election to terminate Tenant's right to possession.

20. Termination of Lease and Lessee's Right to Possession. Section 15.02(C) of the Lease shall be deemed deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

"If an event of default occurs, Landlord shall have the right, with or without notice or demand, immediately (after expiration of the applicable grace periods) to terminate this Lease, and at any time thereafter recover possession of the Premises or any part thereof and expel and remove therefrom Tenant and any other person occupying the same, by any lawful means, and again repossess and enjoy the Premises without prejudice to any of the remedies that Landlord may have under this Lease, or at law or equity by reason of Tenant's default or of such termination. Should Landlord terminate this Lease pursuant to foregoing, Landlord shall have all the rights and remedies of a landlord provided by Section 1951.2 of the Civil Code of the State of California, or successor code section. Upon such termination, in addition to any other rights and remedies to which Landlord may be entitled at law or in equity, Landlord shall be entitled to recover from Tenant:

- (1) the worth at the time of award of the unpaid Rent which had been earned at the time of termination;
- (2) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent which would have been earned after termination until the time of award exceeds the amount of such Rent loss that the Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided;
- (3) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent for the balance of the Term after the time of award exceeds the amount of such Rent loss that the Tenant proves could be reasonably avoided;
- (4) any other amount, and court costs, necessary to compensate Landlord for all the detriment proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform its obligations under this Lease or which, in the ordinary course of things, would be likely to result therefrom; and
- (5) for any other sums due."

21. Notices. The notices provisions of the Lease, as the case may be, shall be deemed deleted in their entirety and replaced with the following:

(a) Except as otherwise expressly and specifically in this Lease provided, a bill, demand, statement, consent, notice or other communication ("notice") which either party may desire or be required to give to the other party shall be deemed sufficiently given or rendered if in writing, delivered personally to the party to be charged therewith or sent by certified mail (return receipt requested) or private express mail courier service (postage or delivery or courier fees fully prepaid) addressed to such party at the addresses set forth in subparagraph (c) below (including the addresses for copies of notices) and/or at such other address(es) as such party shall designate to the other party by notice given as herein provided. If Landlord is notified of the identity and address of Tenant's Leasehold Mortgagee, Landlord shall give such party any notice served upon Tenant hereunder to the last known address of such Leasehold Mortgagee as provided by Tenant to Landlord by certified mail or private express courier service. If Tenant is notified of the identity and address of Landlord's mortgagee, Tenant shall give such mortgagee any notice served upon Landlord hereunder to the last known address of such mortgagee as provided by Landlord to Tenant, by certified mail or private express courier service.

(b) Any notice given in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section shall be deemed effective upon the earlier of (i) if the notice is personally delivered, the date actually received by intended recipient, (ii) if the notice is sent by certified mail, five (5) days after the same is mailed, or (iii) if the notice is sent by private overnight courier service (e.g., Federal Express, DHL or similar courier), one (1) day after the same is delivered to or picked up by such courier. Rejection or refusal to accept a notice or the inability to deliver same because of a changed address of which no notice was given shall be deemed to be a receipt of the notice sent. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Lease, no provision in this Lease shall preclude service of notices in accordance with Section 1162 of the California Code of Civil Procedure or any similar and/or successor code sections.

(c) Addresses for Notices to Landlord and Tenant.

For the purposes of the computations herein set forth, the basis for any substitute or successor index or such governmental or non-partisan publication shall be converted to a basis of 100 only in the event that the basis used in such index or publication is less than 100.

4.02 Percentage Rent.

In addition to the payment of Annual Fixed Rent, Tenant shall pay to Landlord for each Lease Year during the Term of this Lease, as Percentage Rent a sum equal to the amount by which  of the Gross Sales for such Lease Year exceeds the Annual Fixed Rent which is payable for such Lease Year equal to the quotient obtained by dividing the annual fixed rate for such Lease year by the percentage rate. Commissions paid to agencies or other third parties for selling tickets and any sums paid to third parties for the use or rental of vending machines, pay telephones or other amusement machines shall be deducted from Gross Sales.

Tenant agrees to furnish Landlord a statement certified by its chief financial or similar office of its Gross Sales within ninety (90) days after the close of each Lease Year and calculation of Percentage Rent, if any, due for such Lease Year. Tenant shall concurrently with the delivery of such statement, pay to Landlord any Percentage Rent due for such Lease Year.

The receipt by Landlord of any statement or any payment of Percentage Rent for any period shall not bind it as to the correctness of the statement or the payment. Landlord shall within three years after the receipt of any such statement be entitled to an audit of such Gross Sales. Such audit shall be limited to the determination of the Gross Sales as defined in this Lease and shall be conducted during normal business hours at the principal place of business of Tenant. If it is determined as a result of such audit that there has been a deficiency in the payment of Percentage Rent, then such deficiency shall become immediately due any payable with interest at the annual rate of 18% from the date when said payment should have been made until paid. Any information gained from such statements or inspection shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed other than to carry out the purposes hereof.

4.03 Rent Payments. Rent and other sums to be paid by Tenant shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America. All payments shall be made by Tenant to Landlord without notice or demand.

4.04 Place for Payment of Rent. The Annual Rent and any other charges required to be paid by Tenant to Landlord shall be sent to Landlord at its principal place of business, or such other address as Landlord may direct in writing.

4.05 Late Payment of Rent. In the event that any monthly installment of rent is not paid within ten (10) days after such payment is past due, Tenant shall pay Landlord interest on such unpaid rent at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum computed from the date such rent installment was due until the date actually paid.

A) The term "Impositions" shall mean all real estate taxes, duties or assessments (special or otherwise), water and sewer rents, whether ordinary or extraordinary, general or special, foreseen or unforeseen, of any kind and nature whatsoever, which, at any time during the Lease Term, shall be assessed or levied, or be attributable in any manner to the Entire Premises, or the rents receivable therefrom, or any part thereof or any use thereon or any facility located therein or used in connection therewith, whether or not any of the foregoing shall be a so-called "real estate tax" expressly excluding, however, any such items arising directly or indirectly out of any act or omission of Landlord, any of Landlord's predecessors in title or any other person occurring prior to the commencement of the Term. From and after the Initial Rent Due Date, Tenant shall pay when due all Impositions assessed, levied or attributable to the Entire Premises and/or the Improvements on the Entire Premises.. All Impositions or installments thereof payable with respect to the tax year in which this Lease shall commence, and all Impositions or installments thereof with respect to the tax year in which this Lease shall terminate, shall be pro-rated on a daily basis; provided, however, that assessments or escape assessments assessed as a result of this Lease and/or the construction of Tenant Improvements by Tenant shall not be prorated and shall be paid solely by Tenant; and provided further that assessments attributable to Tenant Improvements made in the final year of the Lease shall be paid solely by Tenant if Tenant demolishes the Tenant Building.

B) In the event Tenant fails to pay such real property taxes as provided herein, Landlord may, but shall not be required to, pay the same, and any amount so paid by Landlord shall immediately thereafter become due to Landlord from Tenant as Additional Rent with interest thereon at the rate of 18% per annum from the date of Landlord's payment plus any fine, penalty, interest or cost which is levied by the taxing authority for such late payment.

5.02 Exceptions from Impositions; Charges in Lieu of Impositions

A) Nothing herein contained shall require Tenant to pay any estate, inheritance, succession, capital levy, corporate franchise, gross receipts, transfer, or income tax of Landlord, nor shall any of the same be deemed to be included within the term "Impositions" as defined herein.

B) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article V, if at any time after the date of this Lease the present method of taxation or assessment shall be changed so that in lieu of, as a substitute for (whether in whole or in part) or as a supplement to (provided such supplemental tax relates to real estate or revenues from real estate and not to other property or business as well) the taxes now levied, assessed or imposed on real estate and buildings and Improvements thereon, a tax shall be imposed, assessed or levied wholly or partly on the Rent, or a tax, assessment, levy or charge, measured or based, in whole or in part, on the Premises or on the rents derived therefrom, shall be imposed on Landlord, then Tenant shall pay taxes so measured or based only to the extent that such taxes would be payable if the Premises were the only property of Landlord subject to such taxes, or the income from operation of the Premises were Landlord's only income, as the case may be.

5.03 Contest of Taxes. Tenant at its sole cost and expense may by appropriate legal proceedings conducted in good faith and with due diligence, contest the amount or validity or application, in whole or in part, of any Imposition or lien therefor, or any other lien, encumbrance or charge against the Premises arising from work done or materials provided to or for Tenant. Tenant shall give Landlord reasonable notice of, and information pertaining to, such contest and regular progress reports with respect thereto. Landlord shall cooperate with any effort pursued by Tenant in accordance with this Section 5.03. Tenant shall indemnify, protect and hold harmless Landlord and the Premises from any lien or liability with respect to any such Imposition or contest thereof, including all costs and expenses related thereto. Landlord shall provide Tenant with copies of notice when received by Landlord from the taxing authorities of any assessments or reassessments of the Premises in sufficient time (but in no event later than thirty (30) days after Landlord's receipt of the same) to enable Tenant to contest the same in accordance with the provisions of this Section 5.03.

5.04 Utilities. Tenant shall pay before delinquency, directly to the appropriate company or governmental agency, all charges for all utilities consumed on the Entire Premises exclusive of Landlord's Buildings, if any. Any utility improvements presently serving the Entire Premises shall be maintained, repaired and replaced by Tenant, at Tenant's expense.

5.06 Personal Property Taxes. During the term of this Lease, Tenant shall pay before delinquency any and all personal property taxes levied or assessed against any personal property located upon the Premises. If Tenant fails to timely pay such taxes and a lien is filed against the Premises, Landlord may discharge such lien, if Tenant fails to discharge such lien within ten (10) days following Tenant's receipt of notice from Landlord, including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees.

fees, together with interest at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum from the date of expenditure, such additional rent being due and payable within ten (10) days of notice thereof.

INSURANCE

6.01 Acquisition of Insurance Policies. Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, procure and maintain, or cause to be procured and maintained, during the entire Term the insurance described in this Section (or its then available equivalent), and shall name Landlord and any other parties requested by Landlord as an additional insured.

6.02 Types of Required Insurance. Tenant shall procure and maintain the following:

A) Commercial General Liability Insurance. Commercial general liability insurance insuring against injuries or damages to persons or property sustained in, on or about the Entire Premises, Premises, Common Area and the appurtenances thereto, including the sidewalks and alleyways adjacent thereto, with limits of liability no less than Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000) per occurrence and in the aggregate.

B) Physical Property Damage Insurance. During the term hereof, Tenant shall keep Tenant's Building (excluding foundations, footings and underground improvements) as well as any and all improvements on the Entire Premises and personal property insured in the name of Landlord and Tenant against damage or destruction by fire and the perils commonly covered under the extended coverage endorsement (with vandalism and malicious mischief coverage) including Builder's Risk but excluding earthquake and flood to the extent of not less than 100% of the full replacement cost thereof less any deductible applicable to all of Tenant's theatres insured under a blanket policy. Tenant shall be responsible for determining the amount of fire and extended coverage insurance to be maintained subject to Landlord's consent, which consent is not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The proceeds of such insurance in case of loss or damage shall be held in trust and applied on account of the obligation of Tenant to repair and/or rebuild the Leased Premises pursuant to the Article captioned "Damage Clause" to the extent that such proceeds are required for such purpose. The insurance required to be carried by Tenant under this paragraph may be covered under a so-called "blanket" policy covering other operations of Tenant and its affiliates. Upon written request, Tenant shall name Landlord and any parties requested by Landlord and the holder of the first mortgage on Tenant's Building pursuant to a standard mortgage clause with respect to the foregoing hazard insurance, provided such holder agrees with Tenant in writing to disburse such insurance proceeds to Landlord for, and periodically during the course of, repair and restoration of Tenant's Building as set forth in this Lease.

6.03 Terms of Insurance. The policies required under Section 6.02 shall name Landlord as additional insured. Tenant shall provide to Landlord certificates of insurance and copies of policies obtained by Tenant hereunder promptly upon the request of Landlord. Further, all policies of insurance described in Section 6.02 shall:

- A) Be written as primary policies not contributing with and not in excess of coverage that Landlord may carry.
- B) Contain an endorsement providing that the amount of coverage will not be reduced with respect to Landlord except after twenty (20) days prior written notice from insurance company to Landlord and such coverage may not be canceled with respect to Landlord except after thirty (30) days' prior written notice from insurance company to Landlord.
- C) Expressly provide that Landlord shall not be required to give notice of accidents or claims and that Landlord shall have no liability for premiums.
- D) Be written by insurance companies having a Bests rating of "A-" or better, and such insurance companies shall be reasonably acceptable to Landlord.

6.04 Landlord's Acquisition of Insurance. If Tenant at any time during the Term fails to procure or maintain insurance required hereunder or to pay the premiums therefor, Landlord shall have the right to procure the same and to pay any and all premiums thereon, and any amounts paid by Landlord in connection with the acquisition of insurance shall be immediately due and payable as additional rent, and Tenant shall pay to Landlord upon demand the full amount so paid and expended by Landlord. Any policies of insurance obtained by Landlord covering physical damage to the Premises shall contain a waiver of subrogation against Tenant if and to the extent such waiver is obtainable and if Tenant pays to Landlord on demand the additional costs, if any, incurred in obtaining such waiver.

6.05 Insurance Money and Other Funds Held in Trust. All insurance money or proceeds received by the Tenant and/or Landlord shall be held in trust by Landlord and, except as provided otherwise in Section 6.06, shall be applied as follows:

First, for the purpose of defraying the cost of repairing, restoring, replacing and/or rebuilding any structure or improvement on or in the Premises as required as provided in Section 6.06 hereof; and Second, if the damaged or destroyed structure or improvement is not repaired, restored, replaced or rebuilt as hereinafter provided, said funds shall be disposed of as provided in Section 6.06. Any of said funds in the hands of the Tenant at the end of the Term hereof shall be disposed of as set forth in Section 6.06 (A).

6.06 Application or Proceeds of Physical Damage Insurance. In case of any insurance policies as described in Section 6.02 (B) (Physical Property Damage Insurance) the application of insurance proceeds from damage or loss to property shall be determined in part in accordance with Article XVI hereof and, in the event of any such repair, replacement, restoration or rebuilding, the Tenant and Landlord shall apply the proceeds of the insurance collected to the cost of such work upon certificate of satisfactory progress and/or completion in form satisfactory to Tenant and Landlord by the licensed architect or engineer in charge of the work. Any amounts payable to Tenant or any Affiliate of Tenant for work or services performed or materials provided as part of any such repair, replacement, restoration or rebuilding shall not exceed competitive rates for such services or materials and Tenant shall, upon request of Landlord, make available to Landlord and its representatives all books and records of Tenant relating to such work, services and materials. Upon completion of such repair, replacement, restoration or rebuilding in accordance with the provisions of this Lease, and the full payment therefor (so no liens, encumbrances or claims with respect thereto can be asserted against the Premises, this Lease, Landlord or Tenant), any insurance proceeds received by the Tenant or Landlord with respect to the damage or destruction involved, and not used, shall be and remain the property of Landlord.

A) Distribution of Unutilized Proceeds. At the termination of this Lease, such insurance proceeds or condemnation awards received and held by the Tenant and not used for repair, replacement or reconstruction ("Available Proceeds"), shall be disposed as follows:

(1) First, Landlord shall be awarded an amount sufficient to remove any improvements not repaired and to return the Property to the level of adjacent streets ("grade level"); and

(2) Second, any remainder shall be paid to Landlord.

6.07 Cooperation for Insurance Proceeds. Landlord and Tenant shall each cooperate with the other in order to obtain the largest possible recovery and execute any and all consents and other instruments and take all other actions reasonably necessary or desirable to effectuate the same and cause such proceeds to be paid as hereinbefore provided. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, neither party shall carry any insurance concurrent in coverage and contributing in the event of loss with any insurance required to be furnished by the other hereunder if the effect of separate insurance would be to reduce the protection or the payment to be made under such party's insurance or under the insurance required to be furnished by the other.

6.08 Waiver of Right of Recovery. Landlord and Tenant hereby release each other from any and all liability and responsibility to one another and, to the extent legally possible to do so on behalf of their respective insurers and anyone claiming through or under either of them, by way of subrogation or otherwise, hereby waive any liability for any and all loss or damage which is of the type covered by fire and extended coverage insurance described in this Article, irrespective of any negligence on the part of the other party which may have contributed to or caused such loss. Every insurance policy carried by either party with respect to the Premises or Tenant's Building or land or improvements adjoining the Premises owned or leased by Landlord shall (if it can be so written and does not result in a material additional premium) include provisions denying to the insurer subrogation rights against the other party and any fee or leasehold mortgage to the extent such rights have been waived by the insured prior to the occurrence of damage or loss. If the waiver of subrogation otherwise is not effective, each party covenants that it will obtain for the benefit of the other party an express waiver of any right of subrogation which the insurer of such party may acquire against the other party by virtue of the payment of any such loss covered by such insurance. In the event either party is by law, statute, governmental regulation, economically unfeasible or other factor beyond such party's reasonable control unable to obtain a waiver of the right of subrogation for the benefit of the other party, then, during any period of time when such waiver is unobtainable, said party shall be deemed not to have released any subrogated claim of its insurance carrier against the other party, and during the same period of time the other party shall be deemed not to have released the party who has been unable to obtain such waiver from any claims they or their insurance carriers may assert which otherwise would have been released pursuant to this Section. In the event that either party is unable to obtain such waiver of the right of subrogation for the benefit of the other party, such party shall, within thirty (30) days of receiving notice of such inability, give the other party written notice of such inability.

ARTICLE VII

7.01 Alterations — Changes.

A) At any time and from time to time during the Lease Term, Tenant may, at its sole expense, make any alterations, additions or changes, whether structural or nonstructural, to any portion or all of any Improvements which may exist at any time and from time to time on any portion of the Premises, and may, at its option, construct new Improvements on the Premises, or remove or demolish Improvements on the Premises, provided that all such alterations or changes in Improvements and new Improvements shall be performed in a first-class manner and must comply with all laws, zoning regulations and ordinances, and any conditions on permits issued pursuant thereto. If the change, alteration or addition is structural or exterior in nature Landlord's written approval shall be first obtained, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

B) Tenant shall at all times keep the Entire Premises, Premises or any part thereof, free and clear of all liens and claims for labor or material and free and clear of all attachments, executions and notices.

C) Upon termination of this Lease, Tenant may, at its option, remove any personal property and trade fixtures including, but not limited to theatre seats, projection and sound equipment, snack bar equipment and computers.

7.02 Repairs — Maintenance.

A) Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, maintain and repair the Entire Premises and Tenant's Building and all improvements on the Entire Premises and including all exterior lighting and signs.

B) Tenant shall also be responsible for any losses or damages resulting from any materials, substances or liquids which are leaked or discharged from the Entire Premises.

Tenant shall commence all of the repairs and maintenance within 3 days after receiving notice thereof from Landlord (provided that in the case of an emergency Tenant shall commence such work immediately upon receiving notice) and shall be diligently completed in a good and workmanlike manner. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord shall have the right and option (but not the obligation) to undertake any such repair, maintenance or other items, in which event Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for all of the costs thereof within 30 days after Landlord's request therefor. If Tenant fails to reimburse Landlord within the 30 day period, Tenant shall pay Landlord in addition interest thereon at the rate of 18% per annum until such payment has been made.

ARTICLE VIII ENVIRONMENTAL MATTERS

8.01 Definition. For purposes of this Article VIII, the term "Hazardous Material" means (a) any substance, product, waste or other material of any nature whatsoever which is or becomes listed, regulated, or addressed pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 9601, et seq. ("CERCLA"); the Hazardous Materials Transportation Act, 49 U.S.C. Section 1801, et seq.; the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 6901, et seq. ("RCRA"); the Toxic Substances Control Act, 15 U.S.C. Section 2601 et seq.; the Clean Water Act, 33 U.S.C. Section 1251, et seq.; the California Hazardous Waste Control Act, Health and Safety Code Section 25100, et seq.; the California Hazardous Substance Account Act, Health and Safety Code Section 25330, et seq.; the California Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act, Health and Safety Code Section 25249.5, et seq.; California Health and Safety Code Section 25280, et seq. (Underground Storage of Hazardous Substances); the California Hazardous Waste Management Act, Health and Safety Code Section 25170.1, et seq.; California Health and Safety Code Section 25501, et seq. (Hazardous Materials Response Plans and Inventory); or the California Porter-Cologne Water Quality Control Act, Water Code Section 13000, et seq., all as amended, or any other federal, state or local statute, law, ordinance, resolution, code, rule, regulation, order or decree regulating, relating to, or imposing liability or standards of conduct concerning any hazardous, toxic or dangerous waste, substance or material, as now or at any time hereafter in effect; (b) any substance, product, waste or other material of any nature whatsoever which may give rise to liability under any of the above statutes or under any statutory or common law theory based on negligence, trespass, intentional tort, nuisance or strict liability or under any reported decisions of a state or federal court; (c) petroleum or crude oil, other than petroleum and petroleum products contained within regularly operated motor vehicles; (d) asbestos; (e) subsurface gas; (f) urea formaldehyde foam insulation; (g) poly chlorinated biphenyls ("PCBs"); and freon and other chlorofluorocarbons.

8.02 Tenant's Responsibilities and Landlord Indemnity.

A) Tenant shall not cause or permit any Hazardous Materials to be brought upon, stored, used, generated, released into the environment or disposed of, on, in, under or about the Entire Premises, the Common Area, or any other portion of the Premises by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees, in violation of any law. Upon the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease, Tenant covenants to remove from the Premises, and/or Entire Premises at its sole cost and expense, any and all Hazardous Materials, including any equipment or systems containing Hazardous Materials, which are brought upon, stored, used, generated or released into the environment at or above actionable levels by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Tenant hereby indemnifies and defends (with counsel experienced and competent in litigating issues of Hazardous Materials) Landlord and agrees to hold Landlord, the Premises and the Entire Premises free and harmless from and against any and all claims, judgments, damages, penalties, fines, costs, liabilities and losses (including, without limitation, diminution in the value of the Premises, damages for the loss or restriction on use of rentable space or of any amenity of the Premises, and sums paid in settlement of claims, attorneys' fees, consultant fees and expert fees) which arise directly or indirectly from the presence of actionable levels of Hazardous Materials on, in or about the Premises which is through Tenant's (or its agents, employees, contractors or invitees) acts or omissions brought upon, stored, used, generated or released into the environment by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees (referred to as "Tenant's Environmental Acts"). This indemnification by Tenant of Landlord includes, without limitation, any and all costs incurred in connection with any investigation of site conditions or any clean up, remedial, removal or restoration work required by any federal, state or local governmental agency or political subdivision because of the presence of such Hazardous Materials in, on or about the Premises, or the soil or ground water on or under the Premises or any portion thereof due to Tenant's Environmental Acts. Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of any release of Hazardous Materials in the Premises, which Tenant becomes aware of during the term of this Lease, caused by Tenant's Environmental Acts. Landlord agrees to indemnify, defend and hold Tenant harmless from all claims, judgments, damages, penalties, fines, costs, resulting from the presence of Hazardous Materials on or about the Premises, (i) on the Commencement Date of this Lease, and/or (ii) during or after the term of this Lease, if the presence of Hazardous Materials results from any cause other than Tenant's Environmental Acts.

B) Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of, and shall promptly provide Landlord with true, correct, complete and legible copies of all of the following environmental items relating to the Premises which may be filed or prepared by or on behalf of, or delivered to or served upon Tenant: reports filed pursuant to any self-reporting requirements, reports filed pursuant to any applicable laws or this Lease, all permit applications, permits, monitoring reports, workplace exposure and community exposure warnings or notices and all other reports, disclosures, plans or documents (excluding those which may be reasonably characterized as confidential) relating to water discharges, air pollution, waste generation or disposal, underground storage tanks or Hazardous Materials.

C) In addition to Tenant's routine reporting obligations described in (B) above, Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of, and shall promptly provide Landlord with true, correct, complete and legible copies of, all of the following environmental items relating to the Premises which may be filed or prepared by or on behalf of, or delivered to or served upon, Tenant: all orders, reports, listings and correspondence (excluding those which may be reasonably considered confidential) of or concerning the release, investigation of, compliance, clean up, remedial and corrective actions, and abatement of Hazardous Materials whether or not required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by or given pursuant to any applicable laws, and all complaints, pleading and other legal documents filed against Tenant related to Tenant's use, handling, storage or disposal of Hazardous Materials. In the event of a release of any Hazardous Materials in, on or about the Premises, Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord and provide Landlord with copies of all reports and correspondence with or from all governmental agencies, authorities or any other persons relating to such release.

D) Landlord, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall have the right, but not the obligation, to join and participate in any legal proceedings or actions initiated in connection with any claims or causes of action arising out of the storage, generation, use or disposal by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees, of Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises caused by Tenant's Environmental Acts which results in (i) injury to any person, (ii) injury to or any contamination of the Premises or (iii) injury to or contamination of any real or personal property wherever situated. Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall promptly take all actions necessary to return the Premises to the condition existing prior to the introduction of such Hazardous Materials to the Premises and to remedy or repair any such injury or contamination. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall not, without Landlord's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or denied or conditioned or delayed, take any remedial action in response to the presence of any Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises or enter into any settlement agreement, consent decree or other compromise with any governmental agency with respect to any Hazardous Materials claims; provided, however, Landlord's prior written consent shall not be necessary in the event that the presence of Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises (i) poses an immediate threat to the health, safety or welfare of any individual or (ii) is of such nature that an immediate remedial response is necessary and it is not possible to obtain Landlord's consent before taking such action.

8.03 Remedial Work. In the event any investigation or monitoring of site conditions or any clean-up, containment, restoration, removal or other remedial work ("Remedial Work") is required (a) under any applicable federal, state or local law or regulation, (b) by any judicial, arbitral or administrative order, (c) to comply with any agreements affecting the Premises or (d) to maintain the Premises in a standard of environmental condition which presents no risk to safety or health, prevents the release of any hazardous materials to adjacent property and otherwise is consistent with the prudent ownership of property of the character of the Premises and/or Tenant's Building and if such Remedial Work is required as a direct result of Tenant's Environmental Acts, then Tenant at Tenant's sole cost and expense, including without limitation, any taxes or penalties assessed in connection with the Remedial Work, shall perform or cause to be performed such Remedial Work; and if such Remedial Work is required for any reason other than Tenant's Environmental Acts, then, Landlord, at Landlord's sole cost and expense, including without limitation, any taxes or penalties assessed in connection with the Remedial Work, shall perform or cause to be performed such Remedial Work. All Remedial Work shall be conducted (i) in a diligent and timely fashion by licensed contractors acting under the supervision of a consulting environmental engineer, (ii) pursuant to a detailed written plan for the Remedial Work approved by any public or private agencies or persons with a legal or contractual right to such approval, (iii) with such insurance coverage pertaining to liabilities arising out of the Remedial Work as is then customarily maintained with respect to such activities, and (iv) only following receipt of any required permits, licenses or approvals. The selection of the Remedial Work contractors, any disclosures to or agreements with any public or private agencies or parties relating to Remedial Work and the written plan for the Remedial Work (and any changes thereto) each shall be subject to the other party's prior written approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, denied, conditioned or delayed. In addition, the party doing the Remedial Work shall submit to the other party, promptly upon receipt or preparation, copies of any and all reports, studies, analyses, correspondence, governmental comments or approvals, proposed removal or other remedial work contracts and similar information prepared or received by such party in connection with any Remedial Work or Hazardous Materials relating to the Premises. In the event the party responsible therefor should fail to commence or cause to be commenced in a timely fashion, or fail diligently to prosecute to completion, such Remedial Work, the other party (following written notice) may, but shall not be required to, cause such Remedial Work to be performed, and all costs and expenses thereof, or incurred in connection therewith (i) in the case where Tenant is the responsible party, shall be paid as additional rent due and payable within thirty (30) days of Landlord's invoice therefor, or (ii) in the case where Landlord is the responsible party, shall be paid by Landlord to Tenant within thirty (30) days of Tenant's invoice therefor, and if not timely paid by Landlord, in addition to all other rights and remedies, Tenant shall have the right of offset against rent which may become due. Neither party shall be obligated to perform Remedial Work under this Section while it is contesting the application of any law, regulation or order, provided the other party is not exposed to any additional liability, risk or damages. Obligations under this Section are solely for the benefit of the parties, their successors, and assigns and any subtenants of this Lease, and not for any other third parties.

8.04 Maintenance of Premises.

A) Subject to Landlord's obligation under Section 8.02(A), Tenant at its sole cost and expense shall keep and maintain the Premises in compliance with, and shall not cause or permit the Premises to be in violation of, any federal, state or local laws, statutes, ordinances, orders, guidelines, rules or regulations relating to health and safety, to industrial hygiene or to environmental conditions on, under or about the Premises, including, but not limited to, air, soil and ground water conditions.

B) Tenant shall be liable and responsible for any Hazardous Materials which Tenant causes to be brought onto the Premises.

8.05 Landlord's Responsibilities and Tenant's Indemnity.

A) Landlord shall not cause or permit any Hazardous Materials to be brought upon, stored, used, generated, released into the environment or disposed of, on, in, under or about the Entire Premises, the Common Area, or any other portion of the Premises by Landlord, its agents, employees, tenants, contractors or invitees, in violation of any law.

B) Landlord shall promptly notify Tenant of, and shall promptly provide Tenant with true, correct, complete and legible copies of, all of the following environmental items relating to the Entire Premises which may be filed or prepared by or on behalf of, or delivered to or served upon, Landlord: all orders, reports, listings and correspondence (even those which may be considered confidential) of or concerning the release, investigation of, compliance, clean up, remedial and corrective actions, and abatement of Hazardous Materials whether or not required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by or given pursuant to any applicable laws, and all complaints, pleading and other legal documents filed against Landlord related to Landlord's or Landlord's other tenant's use, handling, storage or disposal of Hazardous Materials. In the event of a release of any Hazardous Materials in, on or about the Entire Premises, Landlord shall promptly notify Tenant and provide Tenant with copies of all reports and correspondence with or from all governmental agencies, authorities or any other persons relating to such release.

C) Except for the obligations of Tenant as set forth in this Article VIII, Landlord shall exonerate, indemnify, pay and protect, defend and hold harmless (with counsel reasonably approved by Tenant) and save Tenant and Tenant's successors and assigns, and their directors, trustees, beneficiaries, officers, shareholders, employees and agents (collectively, Tenant's "Related Parties"), harmless from and against any claims (including, without limitation, third party claims for personal injury or real or personal property damage), actions, administrative proceedings (including informal proceedings), judgments, damages, punitive damages, penalties, fines, costs, taxes, assessments, liabilities (including sums paid in settlement of claims), interest or losses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses (including any such fees and expenses incurred in enforcing this provision or collecting any sums due hereunder), consultant fees, and expert fees, together with all other costs and expenses of any kind or nature (collectively, the "Costs") that arise directly or indirectly in connection with the presence, suspected presence, release or suspected release of any Hazardous Materials in or into the air, soil, groundwater, surface water or improvements at, on, about, under or within the Premises, or any portion thereof, or elsewhere in connection with the transportation of Hazardous Materials to or from the Premises or the Entire Premises. In the event Tenant or any of its Related Parties shall suffer or incur any such Costs, Landlord shall pay to Tenant or such Related Party the total of all such Costs suffered or incurred by Tenant or such Related party upon demand therefor. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the indemnification provided by this Section 8.05 shall specifically cover Costs, including capital, operating and maintenance costs, incurred in connection with any investigation or monitoring of site conditions, any clean-up, containment, remedial, removal or restoration work required or performed by any federal, state or local governmental agency or political subdivision or performed by any nongovernmental entity or person because of the presence, suspected presence, release or suspected release of any Hazardous Materials in or into the air, soil, groundwater, surface water or improvements, at, on, about, under or within the Premises (or any portion thereof), or elsewhere in connection with the transportation of, Hazardous Materials to or from the Premises and any claims of third parties for loss or damage due to such Hazardous Materials.

8.06 Landlord Inspection. Landlord and Landlord's agents and employees shall have the right, but not the obligation, to inspect, investigate, sample and/or monitor the Premises, including any soil, water, ground water or other sampling, and any other testing, digging, drilling or analyses, at any time to determine whether Tenant is complying with the terms of this Article VIII, and in connection therewith, Tenant shall provide Landlord with full access to all relevant facilities, records and personnel. If Tenant is in default with any of the provisions of this Article VIII, Landlord and Landlord's agents and employees shall have the right, but not the obligation, without limitation upon any of Landlord's other rights and remedies under this Lease, to immediately enter upon the Premises and to discharge Tenant's obligations under this Article VIII at Tenant's expense, notwithstanding any other provisions of this Lease. Landlord and Landlord's agents and employees shall endeavor to minimize interference with Tenant's business. All sums reasonably disbursed, deposited or incurred by Landlord in connection therewith, including, but not limited to, all costs, expenses and actual attorneys' fees, shall be due and payable by Tenant to Landlord, as an item of additional rent, on demand by Landlord, together with interest thereon at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum.

8.07 Effect of Termination.

A) Upon termination of this Lease, Tenant shall advise Landlord in writing whether or not, to the best of Tenant's knowledge, Tenant is in default of any provision of this Article VIII and if it is in default, the specific nature of such default.

B) All liabilities of Landlord and Tenant, respectively, under this Article VIII, accrued as of the date this Lease terminates, shall survive such termination.

ARTICLE IX
IMPROVEMENTS

9.01 Tenant Improvements. Tenant at its sole cost and expense shall complete all the required on-site and off-site improvements, including all signs, required for the development of the Entire Premises. In addition Tenant shall construct a motion picture theater building on the Premises containing approximately sixty thousand (50,000) square feet with fourteen auditoriums. Landlord will provide Tenant with a site and building allowance of $5,294,200.00. The site and building allowance will be paid by Landlord to Tenant the latter of July 1, 1996 or the date Tenant opens to the public for business.

9.02 Hold Harmless. Except to the extent attributable to the intentional or negligent acts or omissions of Landlord or Landlord's agents, employees, contractors, tenants, or invitees, Tenant shall indemnify, protect, defend and hold harmless Landlord and the Premises from and against all claims and liabilities arising by virtue of or relating to construction of by Tenant of Tenant's Building and Improvements or repairs made at any time to the Entire Premises including repairs, restoration and rebuilding and all other activities of Tenant on or with respect to the Premises. If Tenant is required to defend any action or proceeding pursuant to this Section to which action or proceeding Landlord is made a party, Landlord shall also be entitled to appear, defend, or otherwise take part in the matter involved, at its election, by counsel of its own choosing, and to the extent Landlord is indemnified under this Section, Tenant shall bear the cost of Landlord's defense, including attorney's fees; provided, however, Tenant shall be liable for attorney's fees only if single legal counsel (or a single firm of legal counsel) cannot represent both Landlord and Tenant without there arising an actual or potential conflict of interests.

9.03 Permits; Compliance With Codes. All building permits and other permits, licenses, permissions, consents and approvals required to be obtained from governmental agencies or third parties in connection with construction of the Improvements and any subsequent improvements, repairs, replacements or renewals to the Premises shall be acquired as required by applicable laws, ordinances or regulations. Landlord agrees to cooperate reasonably with Tenant and all governmental authorities having jurisdiction. Tenant shall cause all work on the Premises during the Term to be performed in accordance with all applicable laws and all directions and regulations of all governmental agencies and the representatives of such agencies having jurisdiction.

9.04 Ownership of Improvements.

A) During the Term of this Lease (including any renewals or extensions), the Improvements erected, constructed or located within the Premises, including without limitation all additions, alterations and improvements thereto or replacements thereof and all appurtenant fixtures, machinery and equipment installed therein, shall be and remain the property of Tenant. At the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, the Improvements and all additions, alterations and improvements thereto or replacements thereof and all appurtenant fixtures, machinery and equipment installed therein excluding moveable trade fixtures and personal property of Tenant, shall become the property of Landlord, unless and to the extent Tenant elects to remove any of the foregoing pursuant to Section 9.04 (B).

The removal of any of the foregoing shall be completed within thirty (30) days following the end of the Term hereof (including any renewals thereof or any earlier termination permitted by this Lease).

ARTICLE XI
ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING

11.01 Assignment and Subletting.

A) Tenant may assign the Lease and may sublease a portion or all of the Premises, subject to Landlord's approval which shall not be unreasonably withheld, provided Tenant remains liable for all Tenant obligations under this Lease, and any sublease shall be subject to all the provisions of this Lease. Landlord shall be entitled to all rent from any assignment or sublease in excess of the Annual Fixed Rent set forth in this Lease.

B) Any assignment of this Lease or any sublease of a portion or all of the Premises shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

C) Notwithstanding anything in this Lease to the contrary, it is agreed that at any time during the term of this Lease, Tenant may without Landlord's consent, assign this Lease (a) to any subsidiary or affiliate corporation of Tenant or of Tenant's parent corporation ("Parent Corporation") (so long as such corporation remains a subsidiary or affiliate of Tenant or of Tenant's Parent Corporation), or (b) to Tenant's Parent Corporation, or (c) to any corporation which acquires 50% or more of the issued and outstanding voting stock (or such lesser percentage as shall be sufficient to acquire voting control) of Tenant or of Tenant's Parent Corporation, provided that such corporation duly and validly then guarantees the performance of the obligations under this Lease.

11.02 Notice to Landlord. Tenant shall give notice to Landlord in writing of any assignment of the Lease ten (10) days prior to such event.

MORTGAGE SUBORDINATION

12.01 Existing Mortgages. If there is an existing mortgage or deed of trust ("Mortgage") lien affecting the interest of Landlord in the Premises or in any other part of the Entire Premises, then Landlord shall obtain and shall deliver to Tenant within fifteen (15) days after the Effective Date, a non-disturbance and attornment agreement in a form reasonably acceptable to such lender, Landlord and Tenant, executed by the Mortgagee (as defined below), wherein the Mortgagee shall agree to recognize the interest of Tenant and abide by the terms of this Lease in the event of any judicial foreclosure, private sale or deed in lieu of foreclosure, including the right to quiet enjoyment of the Premises, without any condition, limitation or restriction.

12.02 Future Mortgages. The rights of Tenant under this Lease shall be, at the option of Landlord, either subordinate or superior to any future mortgage on Landlord's interest in the Premises in favor of an institutional lender not affiliated with Landlord. Provided however, that as a condition to any subordination of this Lease, the mortgagees or beneficiaries of any deed of trust and their successors and assigns (the "Mortgagee") shall agree to recognize the interest of Tenant and abide by the terms of this Lease in the event of any foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure, including the right to quiet enjoyment of the Premises, without any condition, limitation or restriction. As a further condition of such subordination, Landlord, Tenant and the Mortgagee shall enter into a non-disturbance and attornment agreement in a form reasonably acceptable to all parties executing such instrument.

ARTICLE XIII

CONDEMNATION — EMINENT DOMAIN

13.01 Definitions. The following definitions apply in construing provisions of this Lease relating to a taking of or damage to all or any part of the Entire Premises or Improvements or Parking or any interest in them by eminent domain or inverse condemnation:

A) "Taking" means that taking or damaging, including severance damage, by eminent domain or by inverse condemnation for any public or quasi-public use under any statute. The transfer of title may be either a transfer resulting from the recording of a final order in condemnation or a voluntary transfer or conveyance to the condemning agency or entity under threat of condemnation, in avoidance of an exercise of eminent domain, or while condemnation proceedings are pending. The Taking shall be considered to take place as of the date on which the right to compensation and damages accrues under the law applicable to the Premises, unless the condemnor also takes actual physical possession of the Premises or a part thereof, in which case the date of Taking for the purposes of this Lease shall be the later of the date on which the right to compensation and damages accrues or the date physical possession is taken by the condemnor.

B) "Total Taking" means the Taking of the fee title to all the Premises and the Improvements on the Premises, which shall be considered to include any offsite improvements effected by Tenant to serve the Premises or the improvements or the parking on the Entire Premises.

C) "Partial Taking" means any Taking (including any damaging) of a portion of the Premises, the Common Area, or any Improvements or parking thereon which is not a Total Taking.

D) "Notice of Intended Taking" means any notice or notification on which a reasonably prudent man would rely and which he would interpret as expressing an existing intention of Taking as distinguished from a mere preliminary inquiry or proposal. It includes, but is not limited to, the service of a condemnation summons and complaint on a party to this Lease. The notice is considered to have been received when a party to this Lease receives from the condemning agency or entity a Notice of Intended Taking, in writing, containing a description or map of the Taking reasonably defining the extent of the Taking.

E) "Award" means compensation paid for the Taking, whether pursuant to judgment or by agreement or otherwise.

13.02 Notice to Other Party. The party hereto receiving any notice of the kinds specified below shall promptly give the other party notice of the receipt, contents, and date of the notice received:

A) Notice of Intended Taking;

B) Service of any legal process relating to condemnation of the Premises or improvements;

C) Notice in connection with any proceedings or negotiations with respect to such a condemnation; or

D) Notice of intent or willingness to make or negotiate a private purchase, sale or transfer in lieu of condemnation.

13.03 Total Taking — Effect on Rent and Term. On a Total Taking, Tenant's obligation to pay Rent shall terminate on, and Tenant's interest in the leasehold shall continue until, the date of Taking, at which time this Lease shall terminate.

13.04 Distribution of Award for Taking. On a Taking, all sums, including, but not limited to, damages and interest awarded for the value of the real estate taken, shall be apportioned and paid by the governmental body taking the Premises as follows:

A) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any for the Fair Market Value of all Land, buildings and other improvements on the Entire Premises and all Severance Damages.

B) To Tenant, the amount awarded, if any, for loss of goodwill, lost business, lost profits, relocation expenses and fixtures; and

C) To Landlord, any balance.

Tenant shall only be entitled to payments under this Section 13.04 out of amounts awarded by the governmental body taking the Premises.

13.05 Partial Taking — Rent Adjustments. On a Partial Taking, the Lease shall remain in full force and effect covering the remaining Premises, except that the total Rent as otherwise provided herein shall be reduced in the same ratio as the percentage of the area of the Premises or the parking taken bears to the total area of the Premises or the parking.

13.06 Partial Taking — Option to Terminate. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event of a Partial Taking, if more than thirty-three percent (33%) of the Building or thirty-three (33%) of the parking is taken by condemnation or sold under the threat of condemnation, then Tenant may terminate this Lease as of the date the condemning authority takes title or possession, whichever occurs first, by delivering written notice to the other within ten (10) days after receipt of written notice of such taking (or in the absence of such notice, within ten (10) days after the condemning authority takes possession).

13.07 Separate Tenant's Award. In the event of a Taking, Tenant may make a separate claim with respect to lost business, lost profits, goodwill, moving expenses, fixtures and relocation expenses against the acquiring governmental Agency.

ARTICLE XIV DEFAULT

14.01 Tenant's Default. The occurrence of any of the following shall constitute a default or event of default by Tenant:

A) Failure to pay Annual Fixed Rent or any other monetary amount when due as provided herein, if the failure continues for ten (10) days after first written notice has been given to Tenant by Landlord;

B) Failure to perform any of Tenant's non-monetary obligations under this Lease; provided however, Tenant shall have thirty (30) days from receipt of written notice by Landlord to cure each such default. If Tenant cannot reasonably cure such default within said thirty (30) day period, Tenant shall not be in default of this Lease if Tenant commences to cure the breach within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the breach.

14.02 Landlord's Remedies Cumulative. Landlord shall have the following remedies set forth in subsections (A) through (G) below if Tenant commits a default, except as provided in Section 15.03.

These remedies are not exclusive and may be exercised concurrently or successively; they are cumulative in addition to any remedies now or later allowed by law or equity:

A) Bring Suit for Performance. Landlord may bring suit for the collection of the Rent or other amounts for which Tenant is then in default, or for the performance of any other covenant or agreement devolving upon Tenant, all without having to enter into possession or terminate this Lease;

B) Re-Entry Without Termination. Pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1954.4, Landlord may re-enter the Premises, by legal proceedings (or without legal proceedings if the Premises have been abandoned), and take possession thereof, without thereby terminating this Lease, and thereupon Landlord may expel all persons and remove all property therefrom, without becoming liable to prosecution therefor, and relet the Premises or a portion or portions thereof, and receive the rent therefrom, applying the same first to the payment of the reasonable expenses of such re-entry and the reasonable cost of such reletting, and then to the payment of the Rent and other amounts for which Tenant is then in default; the balance, if any, to be paid to Tenant, who, whether or not the Premises are relet, shall remain liable for any deficiency. It is agreed that the commencement and prosecution of any action by Landlord in forcible entry and detainer, ejectment, or otherwise, or the appointment of a receiver, or any execution of any decree obtained in any action to recover possession of the Premises, or any re-entry, shall not be construed as an election to terminate this Lease unless Landlord shall, in writing, expressly exercise its election to declare the Lease Term hereunder ended and to terminate this Lease, and unless this Lease be expressly terminated, such re-entry or entry by Landlord, whether had or taken under summary proceedings or otherwise, shall not be deemed to have absolved or discharged Tenant from any of its obligations and liabilities for the remainder of the Lease Term. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary or other provisions of this Section 14.02(B), Tenant shall have the right to sublet the Premises, assign its interest in the Lease, or both, subject to Landlord's prior right, during any continuance of Tenant's default, to relet the Premises or a portion or portions thereof.

C) Termination of Lease and Lessee's Right to Possession. No act by Landlord, other than giving Tenant written notice of termination of this Lease, shall in fact terminate the Lease. Upon termination of the Lease, neither Landlord nor Tenant shall have any future rights or obligations under the Lease except that Landlord shall have the right to recover from Tenant the following:

(1) The worth, at the time of the award, of the unpaid Rent that had been earned at the time of termination of this Lease;

(2) The worth, at the time of the award, of the amount by which the unpaid Rent that would have been earned after the date of termination of this Lease until the time of award exceeds the amount of the loss of Rent that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided;

(3) The worth, at the time of the award, of the amount by which the unpaid Rent for the balance of the Term after the time of award exceeds the amount of the loss of Rent that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided; and

(4) Any other amount, and court costs, necessary to compensate Landlord for all detriment proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform his obligations under the Lease or which, in the ordinary course of things, would be likely to result therefrom.

D) Definitions. As used herein, the following phrases shall be interpreted as follows:

(1) "The worth, at the time of the award," as used in subsections 14.02(C)(1) and (2) above, is to be computed by allowing interest at the maximum lawful rate. "The worth, at the time of the award," as referred to in subsection 14.02(C)(3) above, is to be computed by discounting the amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco at the time of the award, plus one percent (1%).

(2) As used herein, the term "time of award" shall mean either the date upon which Tenant pays to Landlord the amount recoverable by Landlord as hereinabove set forth or the date of entry of any determination, order, or judgment of any court or other legally constituted body determining the amount recoverable, whichever first occurs.

E) Surrender. Promptly after notice of termination, Tenant shall surrender and vacate the Premises and all improvements in broom-clean condition, and Landlord may re-enter and take possession of the Premises and all remaining improvements and eject all parties in possession or eject some and not others, or eject none. Termination under subsection 14.02(C) shall not relieve Tenant from the payment of any sum due to Landlord or from any claim for damages previously accrued or then accruing against Tenant.

F) Appointment of Receiver. If Tenant defaults under Section 14.02(C), Landlord shall have the right to have a receiver appointed to collect rent from any subtenants. Neither the filing of a petition for the appointment of a receiver nor the appointment itself shall constitute an election by Landlord to terminate this Lease.

G) Landlord's Right to Cure Tenant's Default. Landlord, at any time after Tenant is in default under Section 14.01 herein, may cure the default at Tenant's expense. If Landlord, at any time, by reason of Tenant's default, pays any sum or does any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Landlord shall be immediately reimbursed from Tenant to Landlord, together with interest at eighteen percent (18%) per annum computed from the date of such expenditure until the date of reimbursement by Tenant.

14.03 Landlord's Default

A) The occurrence of the following shall constitute a default by Landlord: Breach of any provision of this Lease if the breach is not cured within thirty (30) days after written notice by Tenant; provided, however, that if the breach cannot reasonably be cured within such thirty (30) day period, Landlord shall not be in default of this Lease if Landlord commences to cure the breach within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the default.

B) Tenant, at any time after Landlord is in default under paragraph (A) above, may cure the default at Landlord's expense. If Tenant at any time, by reason of Landlord's default, pays any sum or does any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Tenant shall be immediately reimbursed by Landlord, together with interest at eighteen percent (18%) per annum determined at the time the expenditure is made by Tenant computed from the date of such expenditure until the date of reimbursement by Landlord. If Landlord fails to make such payment(s) within fifteen (15) days after Tenant's written demand, Tenant shall be entitled to offset any amount due from Landlord against the next Rent payment due under this Lease.

14.04 Waiver of Redemption. Tenant hereby expressly waives any and all rights of redemption granted by or under any present or future laws in the event of Tenant being dispossessed or removed from the Premises upon the termination of this Lease because of default by Tenant hereunder.

14.05 Dispute Resolution. Landlord and Tenant desire by provisions of this Section 14.05 to establish procedures to facilitate the informal and inexpensive resolution of any dispute arising out of this Lease by mutual cooperation and without resort to litigation. To accomplish this objective, Landlord and Tenant agree to follow the procedures set forth below if and when a dispute arises between them under this Lease.

A) Description of Dispute. The complaining party shall provide by notice a written description of the alleged breach by the other party. This description shall explain the nature of the complaint and the Lease provision(s) on which it is based. The complaining party shall also set forth a proposed solution to the problem including a specific time frame within which the parties must act. The party receiving the letter of complaint must respond in writing within ten (10) days with an explanation, including references to the relevant parts of the Lease and a response to the proposed solution. Within ten (10) days of receipt of this response, the parties must meet and discuss options for resolving the dispute. The complaining party must initiate the scheduling of the resolution meeting.

B) Mediation. A settlement conference shall be held within thirty (30) days of the unsuccessful resolution meeting or as soon as practical thereafter.

C) Arbitration. With respect to disputes which the parties have been unable to resolve informally or by mediation, the parties agree to submit the dispute for final and binding arbitration if the dispute has not otherwise been settled. The parties agree that the arbitration must be initiated within one (1) year after the date of the written description of the alleged breach and that the failure to initiate arbitration within the one (1) year period constitutes an absolute bar to the initiation of any proceedings. An arbitration shall be deemed initiated for the purposes of this section by demand therefor being sent by certified mail to the other party, which notice shall contain a description of the dispute, the amount involved and the remedies sought. The parties shall have the right to representation by counsel throughout the arbitration proceedings. Arbitration shall be conducted under the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association.

14.06 Attorneys' Fees. Should any action or proceeding, be commenced between the parties to this Lease concerning said Premises, this Lease, or the rights and duties of either in relation thereto, the party, Landlord, or Tenant, prevailing in such action or proceeding shall be entitled, in addition to such other relief as may be granted in the action or proceeding, to a reasonable sum as and for its attorneys' fees therein which shall be determined by the arbitrator(s) hearing such action or proceeding.

Tenant shall be responsible for all costs in excess of Insurance proceeds available All such work shall be carried on in accordance with Drawings prepared by a licensed architect or architects approved by Landlord (acting reasonably) if such an architect is reasonably required, given the scope and nature of the work. In disbursing insurance proceeds the Tenant and Landlord may rely upon and accept the certified determinations of such architect with respect to estimated costs, awarding of contracts, sufficiency of bonds, progress of construction, interpretation of plans and specifications, compliance with same, and completion of construction. No extras or changes in Drawings shall be made by Tenant without first giving written notice of such changes to Landlord and obtaining Landlord's approval thereof (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

If, however, such reconstruction or rebuilding can be made under such existing laws, ordinances, statutes and regulations (or can be so made with minor and non-material changes to the former condition and form of the property damaged or destroyed), but the cost of so repairing or reconstructing such damage or destruction is in excess of the Fifty percent (50%) provided for in subparagraph (A)(1) of this Section 16.01, Tenant shall have the absolute right to treat such damage as under subparagraph (A)(1) of this Section 16.01 as if the damage or destruction met the description thereof set forth in the first sentence of that Section if Tenant (i) gives notice to the effect to Landlord within such ninety (90) days period after Tenant's determination with respect to said damage or destruction; and (ii) promptly demonstrates to the reasonable satisfaction of any Leasehold Mortgagee (if any) that it can provide the funds required or that will be required under the provisions of subparagraph (A)(1) of this Section 16.01 to effect such repair or restoration, whereupon the provisions of said subparagraph (A) of this Section 16.01 shall be fully applicable to such damage or destruction.

If such damage or destruction occurs and renders all or a portion of the Improvements on the Premises untenantable, Rent shall thereafter not abate but continue for as long as and to the extent such Improvements are untenantable.

16.04 Damage During Last Two (2) Years of Term. If there occurs during the last ten (10) years of the Initial Term or at any time during a Renewal Period damage or destruction to any Improvement on or in the Premises and the costs of repairing, restoring, replacing or rebuilding the 17.12 Entire Agreement. This Lease and the exhibits attached set forth the entire agreement between the parties. Except as specifically set forth herein, there are no agreements, representations, or warranties whatsoever as to any matter. Any prior agreements, conversations, or writings are merged herein, superseded hereby, and extinguished.

17.13 Sale or Transfer of Premises. Landlord shall promptly notify Tenant in writing of any sale or transfer of the Premises or any assignment of Landlord's interest in this Lease, giving the name and address of the assignee or new owner, as the case may be, and instructions regarding the payment of rent or any other amount required to be paid by Tenant hereunder. In the event of any transfer or assignment of Landlord's interest in this Lease or any change in, or transfer of, title in and to the Premises of any part thereof, whether voluntary or involuntary, or by act of Landlord or by operation of law, Tenant shall be under no obligation to pay rent or other charges payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder, thereafter accruing, until Tenant shall have been notified in writing of such transfer, assignment, or change in title, and given satisfactory proof thereof, and the withholding of rent or other charges payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder, in the meantime shall not be deemed a default upon the part of Tenant. Landlord may assign this Lease and convey its title to the Premises, subject to this Lease, at any time. In the event of such assignment of this Lease, Landlord shall have no further obligations under this Lease, except for liabilities which shall have accrued prior to the date of such assignment and transfer and that the assignee assumes in writing Landlord's obligations hereunder accruing on and after the effective date of the assignment.

17.14 Force Majeure. In the event that Tenant shall be delayed or hindered in or prevented from the performance of any act other than Tenant's obligation to make payments of rent, and other charges required hereunder, by reason of strikes, lockouts, unavailability of materials, failure of power, restrictive governmental laws or regulations, riots, insurrections, the default of Landlord, war, or other reason beyond its control, then performance of such act shall be excused for the period of the delay, and the period for the performance of such act shall be extended for a period equivalent to the period of such delay. Notwithstanding the foregoing, lack of funds shall not be deemed to be a cause beyond the control of Tenant.

17.15 Waiver. No term, covenant, or condition of this Lease can be waived except in writing, signed by the party making the waiver, Landlord or Tenant, as the case may be. No waiver of any default hereunder shall be implied from any omission by either party to take any action on account of such default if such default persists or is repeated, and no express waiver shall affect any default other than the default specified in the express waiver, and that only for the time and to the extent therein stated. The acceptance by Landlord of Rent or partial Rent with knowledge of the breach of any of the covenants of this Lease by Tenant shall not be deemed a waiver of any such breach. One or more waivers of any breach of any covenant, term, or condition of this Lease shall not be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same covenant, term, or condition. The consent or approval by either party shall not be deemed to waive or render unnecessary that party's consent to or approval of any subsequent similar act.

17.16 Estoppel Certificate. Either party hereto shall, within twenty (20) days notice from the other party (referred to as the "Requesting Party"), execute and deliver to the Requesting Party, in recordable form, a certificate stating that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect, or in full force and effect as modified, and stating the modifications. The certificate also shall state the amount of current monthly rent, the dates to which the rent has been paid in advance, the amount of prepaid rent, and any other information with respect to this Lease reasonably requested by the Requesting Party. Failure to deliver the certificate within the twenty (20) days shall be conclusive upon the party failing to deliver the certificate for the benefit of the party requesting the certificate and any successor to the party requesting the certificate, that this Lease is in full force and effect, and has not been modified except as may be represented by the party requesting the certificate, and that rent and other charges have not been paid for any period after date of the notice requesting the certificate.

17.17 Number and Gender. Whenever the context requires the singular number, it shall include the plural, the plural the singular, and the use of any gender shall include all genders.

17.18 No Holding Over. Tenant shall have no right to holdover after the end of the Term. Should Tenant or any Leasehold Mortgagee succeeding to the interest of Tenant hold over in possession after the expiration date, such holding over shall not be deemed to extend the Lease or renew this Lease; and Tenant shall pay a pro-rated daily amount equal to one hundred twenty percent (120%) of the Annual Rent in effect immediately preceding the expiration date until Tenant vacates the Premises.

17.19 Mechanics Liens. Tenant shall discharge, by payment, bonding or otherwise, any mechanics liens filed against the Premises or the Entire Premises in connection with Tenant's work and/or any alterations or other work done by or on behalf of Tenant in the Premises within thirty (30) days after Tenant receives notice of the filing of such lien, and Landlord shall cooperate with Tenant at no expense to Landlord, in order to accomplish such discharge. Should Tenant fail to so discharge any such mechanics lien, Landlord shall have the right to remove such mechanics liens and charge all costs thereof, including without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, to Tenant as additional rent plus interest at 18%.

17.20 Relationship of Parties. Nothing contained in this Lease shall be construed to create the relationship of principal and agent, partnership, joint venture or any other relationship between the parties hereto other than the relationship of Landlord and Tenant. Nothing contained herein shall in any way impose any liability upon the stockholders, officers or directors of Landlord or stockholders, officers, directors or trustees of Tenant should such parties be corporate entities,

17.21 Time of the Essence. Time is of the essence with respect to Tenant's payment of rent and other monetary obligations to Landlord under this Lease.

17.22 Facsimile Copies. Tenant and Landlord (i) have each agreed to permit the use, from time to time and where appropriate, of telecopied signatures in order to expedite the transaction contemplated by this Lease, (ii) each intend to be bound by its respective telecopied signature, (iii) are each aware that the other will rely on the telecopied signature, and (iv) each acknowledge such reliance and waive any defenses to the enforcement of the documents effecting the transaction contemplated by this Lease based on a telecopied signature.

17.23 Anti-Merger. The voluntary or otherwise surrender of this Lease by Tenant, or a mutual cancellation of this Lease shall not work a merger but shall at the option of Landlord either:

A) Terminate any existing subleases or subtenancies; or

B) Operate as an assignment to Landlord (and assumption by Landlord) of any subleases or subtenancies.

Executed as of the date first written above.

In connection with the foregoing, Tenant agrees that Tenant shall have no right to lease or otherwise allow any third party to access or use the roof of the Building or any portion of the Premises for any use other than the Permitted Use.

2. Tenant hereby waives all claims of any nature whatsoever Tenant may now have or may hereafter have against Landlord relating in any manner to, directly or indirectly, the Development. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Landlord shall not be liable for any damage to persons or property located in, on or about the Premises resulting from or in connection with the Development, and Tenant waives and shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Landlord from any and all claims asserted by Tenant or Tenant's officers, agents, employees, contractors, licensees, invitees or guests arising from damage resulting from or in connection with the Development (except to the extent such damage is caused by the willful act or gross negligence of Landlord; provided, however, that Landlord shall not be liable for any consequential damages, including, without limitation, any claim for loss of profit or business).

B. Surrender

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease, upon the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease and promptly following Tenant's receipt of a cost estimate thereof from Landlord, Tenant shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to the cost of demolishing the improvements located on the Premises and removing all surface debris therefrom to Landlord's reasonable satisfaction, as such cost estimate is determined by Landlord in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion; provided, however, that Tenant may remove any or all of Tenant's furniture, fixtures and equipment (the "FF&E") from the Premises, so long as such removal occurs within forty-five (45) days after the Termination Date and Tenant repairs all extraordinary damage caused by such removal. Except as set forth above, from and after the Termination Date, the parties shall have no further rights under the Lease nor further obligations with respect to the Premises, except for any rights or obligations which expressly survive the termination of the Lease in accordance with the provisions thereof or at law.

C. Miscellaneous

(Folsom)

THIS FOURTH AMENDMENT TO LEASE AGREEMENT (this “Amendment”) is entered into as of August 7, 2006 to be effective as of the Effective Date (as defined hereinbelow) by and between SYUFY ENTERPRISES, L.P., a California limited partnership (“Landlord”), and CENTURY THEATRES, INC., a California corporation (“Tenant”).

R E C I T A L S:

A. Landlord (then known as Syufy Enterprises, a California limited partnership (“Original Landlord”)) and Century Theatres of California, Inc., a California corporation (“Original Tenant”), entered into a certain Lease dated as of December 1, 1995 (the “Original Lease”), for certain premises located in Folsom, California.

B. The Original Lease has been previously amended by (i) that certain First Amendment to Lease dated as of September 1, 2000 (the “First Amendment”), (ii) that certain Second Amendment to Lease dated as of April 15, 2005 (the “Second Amendment”), and (iii) that certain Third Amendment to Lease dated as of September 29, 2005 (the “Third Amendment”; the Original Lease as heretofore amended is referred to herein as the “Lease”).

C. Tenant has succeeded to the interests and assumed the obligations of Original Tenant as the lessee under the Lease.

D. Landlord has succeeded to the interests and assumed the obligation of Original Landlord as the lessor under the Lease.

E. Landlord and Tenant now desire to further amend the Amended Lease, upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Amendment.

NOW THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt, adequacy and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Lease is hereby modified and amended, and Landlord and Tenant hereby agree, as follows:

1. Recitals Incorporated: Certain Defined Terms. The Recitals set forth above are incorporated into this Amendment and shall be deemed terms and provisions hereof, the same as if fully set forth in this Paragraph 1. Capitalized terms that are used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed to such terms in the Lease.

2. Effectiveness. The parties are entering into this Amendment in connection with the contemplated acquisition of all the outstanding capital stock of Century Theatres, Inc. by Cinemark Holdings, Inc. and Cinemark USA, Inc. (the “Acquisition”) pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement dated as of the date hereof (the “Stock Purchase Agreement”). This Amendment shall become automatically effective upon, and only upon, the closing of the Acquisition (the “Effective Date”). In the event the Acquisition is not consummated and the Stock Purchase Agreement is terminated, this Agreement shall become void ab initio and of no force and effect.

3. Initial Term of Lease and Extension Options. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease but subject to the provisions of the Lease applicable to the exercise an validity of such Renewal Terms, the Initial Term of the Lease is hereby extended to and shall expire on  and rather than  Renewal Terms of  each (as provided in the Lease), Tenant shall have the option to extend the Initial Term for consecutive Renewal Terms of  each, followed by one (1) additional and final Renewal Term of ***

4. Landlord's Recapture Right. If, at any time during the term of the Lease, Tenant fails to satisfy the Operating Condition (defined below), for reasons other than Excused Closure (defined below), and such failure continues for six (6) consecutive months or more, then upon notice from Landlord to Tenant at any time thereafter (provided that the Operating Condition remains unsatisfied), Landlord shall have the right to terminate the Lease and to recapture the Leased Premises, without payment to Tenant, effective upon the date set forth in Landlord's termination notice (but not sooner than 30 days after the date of the termination notice).

The term "Operating Condition" shall mean and require that the entire Leased Premises is being continuously operated and regularly open for business to the general public as a motion picture theater complex in accordance with the Lease, at least on such days and at such times that a majority of Century's and Cinemark's other motion picture theater complexes in Sacramento, California metropolitan area typically are open and operating. The term "Excused Closure" shall mean (i) periods of construction, alterations, renovation, remodeling and repair of the Leased Premises undertaken in accordance with this Lease (including repairs and restoration following damage or destruction due to fire or other casualty) provided that Tenant (A) prosecutes such work to completion with reasonable diligence, (B) exercises its reasonable efforts to minimize the length of time of such closure, and (C) exercises its reasonable efforts to limit the number of motion picture screens at the Premises that are not operated due to such closure; (ii) periods when Tenant cannot practicably operate its business in the Premises as a consequence of force majeure; and (iii) additional periods, not to exceed four (4) days in any Lease Year, when Tenant in its sole discretion elects not to operate its business in the Leased Premises.

5. Self-Insurance of Property/Casualty Risks. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Lease, during any period in which Tenant maintains a Net Worth (as defined below) of at least One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000.00), Tenant may self insure the so-called "physical property damage insurance" otherwise required to be maintained by Tenant pursuant to the Lease. As used herein, the "Net Worth" of Tenant at any given time shall mean an amount equal to the sum of (A) the product of (1) Tenant's so-called EBITDA (i.e., earnings before interest, income taxes, depreciation and amortization), calculated in accordance with commercially reasonable past practice preceding the Effective Date by Tenant's parent corporation, over the 12-month period immediately preceding the time of measurement, multiplied by (2) eight (8), plus (B) the amount of cash and cash equivalents held by Tenant on the most recent anniversary of Tenant's annual insurance renewal date, minus (C) the amount of outstanding funded debt of Tenant on such determination date.

6. Damage and Destruction — Repairs by Tenant Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, the following shall apply to repairs and restoration upon damage or destruction:

(A) Tenant's Obligation to Repair. If the Leased Premises are damaged or destroyed by any peril after the Commencement Date of this Lease, then Tenant shall repair the damage and restore the Leased Premises in accordance with this Section, except as provided in subsection (B) hereinbelow. Unless Tenant is not required to effect the repairs and restoration pursuant to subsection (B) below, Tenant shall promptly apply for and diligently seek to obtain all necessary governmental permits and approvals for the repair and restoration of the Leased Premises and, upon issuance of such governmental permits and approvals, promptly commence and diligently prosecute the completion of the repairs and restoration of the Leased Premises (to the extent permitted by applicable law) to substantially the same condition in which the Leased Premises were immediately prior to such damage or destruction (subject to any alterations which Tenant would be permitted to make to the Leased Premises pursuant to this Lease).

(B) Damage in Excess of 20%. If the Leased Premises are damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty which occurs in the last two years of the Initial Term or any Renewal Term and Tenant has no further options to extend the term of the Lease, and if the cost to repair such damage or to restore the Leased Premises as required in subsection (A) exceeds twenty percent (20%) of the replacement cost of the Leased Premises (as determined by an independent architect selected by Tenant and approved by Landlord in Landlord's reasonable discretion) and such damage makes it impracticable to operate the Leased Premises in the reasonable business judgment of Tenant, then (i) Tenant shall have the option, upon notice to Landlord not later than one hundred eighty (180) days following the occurrence of the applicable casualty, not to undertake the repairs and restoration of the Leased Premises, and (ii) if Tenant so elects not to undertake the repairs and restoration, then Tenant nevertheless shall raze Tenant's Building and remove from the Leased Premises all building materials and debris and all underground installations that serve only the Leased Premises (including the footings and foundations of Tenant's Building and the utility lines serving Tenant's Building) and restore the surface of the Premises to a graded and landscaped surface.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, the proceeds of any property insurance maintained by Tenant (including proceeds of self-insurance, if applicable), net of actual-out-of-pocket costs to adjust and settle the loss, shall be distributed to and used by Tenant, in accordance with the Lease.

7. Permitted Assignments and Release. Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, the following shall apply and control:

Subject to the next sentence, Tenant may sublet or assign this Lease only upon receipt of Landlord's written consent which consent Landlord agrees shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned. Notwithstanding anything in this Lease to the contrary, it is agreed that at any time during the term of this Lease, Tenant may, without Landlord's consent or approval (but only upon prior written notice to Landlord), assign this Lease or sublet the Leased Premises to: (i) any wholly-owned subsidiary of Tenant, (ii) any corporation, trust, partnership or individual that owns fifty percent (50%) or more of the issued and outstanding stock of Tenant, or (iii) any legal entity that is engaged in the motion picture exhibition business and operates motion picture theater complexes containing at least 100 theater screens (auditoria), excluding the Leased Premises and any other premises concurrently being acquired from Tenant. A change in control of Tenant shall not constitute an assignment of this Lease requiring Landlord's consent or approval, provided, however, that if any assignee under clause (i) above ceases to be a wholly owned subsidiary of Tenant, then the same shall be deemed to constitute an assignment which is prohibited without Landlord's approval under Article XI of the Lease.

If Tenant shall assign this Lease pursuant to clause (ii) or clause (iii) above, and provided that (A) the assignee assumes in writing all obligations of Tenant under the Lease and delivers such executed written assumption to Landlord, and (B) Landlord shall have received from assignee's chief financial officer or controller a certification that the Net Worth of the assignee (determined as provided above) equals or exceeds $100,000,000.00 calculated in accordance with Cinemark USA, Inc.'s methodology in calculating Net Worth as set forth in Section 5 hereof, then Tenant shall be released of any and all liability thereafter arising under the Lease. Except as expressly provided above, no assignment, subletting or other transfer of the Lease or the Leased Premises shall relieve or release Tenant from any liabilities or obligations arising under the Lease.

8. Leasehold Financing. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, Tenant shall have the right, without Landlord's consent to encumber the leasehold estate created under the Lease and/or to grant a security interest in Tenant's removable trade fixtures, furnishings and equipment located within the Leased Premises (but not to encumber Landlord's fee interest in the Premises), to secure financing provided to Tenant by any bank, thrift institution, insurance company or other institutional lender. Tenant agrees to notify Landlord of any such encumbrance. With respect to any such leasehold financing (and provided that Tenant is not in default under the Lease beyond any applicable notice or cure period), upon thirty (30) days' prior written request from Tenant, Landlord will execute and deliver to the secured lender a "Landlord's Agreement" in the form attached hereto as Exhibit "A-1".

9. Memorandum of Lease. On the Effective Date, Landlord and Tenant will enter into and record a short form memorandum of the Lease, in the form of Exhibit "A-2" attached hereto or otherwise in proper form for recording. Tenant shall be solely responsible for the cost of recording the memorandum, including (if applicable) any transfer taxes that may be due and payable in connection with the Lease.

10. Gross Sales. Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary the definition of Gross Sales shall be as follows:

“Gross Sales” shall mean the total amount of all revenues (whether in cash or credit) generated or derived from the conduct of any business at the Leased Premises, including (without limitation) all box office receipts of or at the Leased Premises (including receipts from tickets or gift certificates redeemed at the Leased Premises regardless of the point of sale), as well as any and all receipts from the sale of goods, services, merchandise, beverages, food, vending machines and video games at the Leased Premises; provided, however, that the following shall be excluded from “Gross Sales” (i) credits and refunds made with respect to admissions or other sales otherwise included in Gross Sales, (ii) all federal, state, county and city admission taxes, sales and use taxes, entertainment taxes, royalty taxes, gross receipt taxes and other similar taxes now or hereafter imposed and owing to the taxing authority by Tenant (whether such taxes are collected from customers separately from the selling price of admission tickets or absorbed by Tenant); (iii) receipts from the sale of gift certificates or tickets sold but not redeemed at the Leased Premises; (iv) with respect to any tickets or admissions ordered or paid for over the internet and redeemed at the Leased Premises, the portion (if any) of the sale price that exceeds Tenant’s actual box-office ticket price; (v) sales price for merchandise returned, (vi) amounts retained by credit card issuers, (vii) sales outside of the ordinary course of business, (viii) amount of credit card sales deemed uncollectible, (ix) advertising revenues including without limitation media, sponsorship, and promotional advertising of any kind, and (x) the receipts of or from so-called “four-wall deals” with a party that is not affiliated with Tenant, except that the portion thereof or other amounts paid to Tenant in connection with such “four-wall deals” shall be included in “Gross Sales” under this Lease. Commissions or surcharges paid to agencies or other third parties not affiliated with Tenant for selling tickets or processing credit card transactions, and any sums paid to third parties not affiliated with Tenant for the use or rental of vending machines, pay telephones, amusement machines and other similar devices shall be deducted from “Gross Sales” (if and to the extent previously included in “Gross Sales”).

11. Taxes. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Lease or this Amendment to the contrary, if during the ten (10) year period immediately following the Effective Date, any sale or change in ownership of the Premises (or against the Entire Premises, if the Premises are not separately assessed) is consummated by Landlord and, as a result, all or part of the Premises (or Entire Premises, if applicable) are reassessed (a “Reassessment”) for real property tax purposes by the appropriate governmental authority under the terms of Proposition 13 (as adopted by the voters of the State of California in the June 1978 election) or the terms of Article XIII A of the Constitution of the State of California, then the terms of this Section shall apply. For purposes of this Section, the term “Tax Increase” shall mean that portion of the annual real estate taxes assessed against the Premises (or the Entire Premise, if applicable), as calculated immediately following the Reassessment, that is attributable solely to the Reassessment. Accordingly, a Tax Increase shall not include any portion of the real estate taxes, as calculated immediately following the Reassessment, that is:

- (i) Attributable to the assessment of the value of the Premises (or Entire Premises, if applicable) prior to the Effective Date;

(ii) Attributable to the annual inflationary increases in real estate taxes; or

(iii) Attributable to the sale of Landlord's ownership interest in Tenant on or about the Effective Date, or attributable to the execution of this Amendment or any extension of the Term of this Lease on the Effective Date or thereafter.

During the five (5) year period immediately following the Effective Date, Tenant shall not be obligated to pay any portion of any Tax Increase relating to a Reassessment.

Commencing on the fifth anniversary of the Effective Date, and continuing until the tenth anniversary of the Effective Date, Tenant shall be obligated to pay annually only the portion of a Tax Increase relating to a Reassessment that is equal to (or less than) an increase of four percent (4%) per annum, compounded annually, from the Effective Date, in the annual amount owed by Tenant for real estate taxes under the terms of the Lease, from the annual amount owed by Tenant for real estate taxes under the terms of the Lease in calendar 2006.

The terms and provisions of this Section shall not apply to any increase in real estate taxes which results from or is attributable to any occurrence, fact or circumstance other than a sale by Landlord of Landlord's interest in the Premises or a transfer effected by Landlord which is treated as a sale by the local taxing authorities under Proposition 13 (excluding those matters identified in clause (iii) above). This Section shall not apply from and after the tenth (10th) anniversary of the Effective Date of this Amendment.

12. Alterations by Tenant.

Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, the following shall apply and control:

Tenant shall have the right from time to time, at its sole cost and expense, to make interior alterations, improvements, or changes in the Leased Premises as Tenant shall deem necessary or beneficial in Tenant's use of the Leased Premises as a motion picture theatre complex, including (without limitation) the conversion to stadium seating of the auditoria (if any) in the Leased Premises. Tenant shall fully and completely indemnify Landlord against any mechanics' or other liens in connection with the making of such alterations and changes, and shall pay all costs, expenses, and charges thereof. Any alterations, improvements or changes by Tenant must be consistent with the use and operation of the Leased Premises as a motion picture theatre complex. Tenant shall be required to complete all alterations, improvements and changes undertaken by Tenant. Alterations, changes and improvements shall be performed in a first-class manner and must comply with all laws, zoning regulations and ordinances, and any conditions on permits issued pursuant thereto. If it is necessary in Tenant's reasonable judgment to close any of the motion picture screens during the period in which any of Tenant's work permitted hereunder is performed, said closure(s) shall be effected only in accordance with the provisions governing an "Excused Closure", as that term is defined in Section 4 of this Amendment.

13. Rooftop Equipment and Access. Tenant shall have the exclusive right to install, operate, repair, replace and maintain satellite dishes and/or other communication transmission devices (collectively "Rooftop Equipment") on the roof of the theatre necessary or appropriate to accept any transmission of signals to the theatre for all permitted uses, including without limitation, for movies, advertising, concerts, telecasts, corporate meetings or communications and the like; but Tenant shall be prohibited from entering into any leases or licenses with any third parties for retransmission from such Rooftop Equipment, and Tenant shall not retransmit such signals to a third party outside of the Leased Premises. Landlord shall not use, or permit any person or entity (other than Tenant), to use the roof or exterior walls of the theatre for any purpose whatsoever, and Landlord agrees not to enter into any leases or licenses with third parties for the use of the theater rooftop. Landlord shall be responsible for any damage to the rooftop caused by the Landlord or a third party that enters onto the theatre rooftop with Landlord's permission, and Landlord shall indemnify and hold Tenant harmless from all loss, cost, damage or expense which Tenant incurs as a result of the acts or omissions of said third party or their agents or employer. Tenant hereby indemnifies and agrees to hold Landlord and Landlord's successors and assigns harmless from all loss, cost, damage or expense which Landlord incurs as a result of the actions of Tenant, or its agents or employees in installing and utilizing Rooftop Equipment as permitted hereunder.

14. Alterations and Development by Landlord. Landlord agrees that with respect to the Entire Premises, the following restrictions shall apply to Landlord's usage and improvement thereof:

(a) Any alterations or new construction to the Entire Premises or contiguous property owned or controlled by Landlord or its affiliates as of the Effective Date (the "Contiguous Property") may be made without Tenant's consent only if such alterations or new construction do not materially and adversely affect Tenant's operations (including, without limitation, parking, access, ingress and egress to the theatre building and visibility of the theatre building and/or on-building theatre signage). Any such alterations or new construction on the Entire Premises and any cross parking or cross access arrangements between the Entire Premises and the Contiguous Property will first be submitted to Tenant for approval, not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed, and Tenant shall be required to identify the manner in which Tenant's operations are so affected. If Landlord and Tenant are unable to agree on whether such alteration or new construction materially and adversely affects Tenant's operations, including without limitation, parking, access, ingress and egress and visibility, the parties agree to submit the issue to binding arbitration pursuant to the Lease.

(b) Landlord shall not lease, sell or use any space on Non-leased Premises or the Contiguous Property for operating a motion picture theatre.

(c) Subject to existing leases, licenses and operating agreements, Landlord shall not lease, license, enter into an operating agreement for, sell or use any space on Non-leased Premises for operating the following: a bowling alley; a bar or lounge (other than a bar or lounge that is connected with a restaurant, deriving 50% of its revenues from the sale of food); a liquor store (other than first-class or upper-end wine or liquor store such as "BevMo"); a bulk candy store, (other than upper-end candy stores such as Godiva, Sees, Rocky Mountain Chocolates and similar concepts); a popcorn store; a massage parlor or adult (i.e., pornographic) book store.

(d) Landlord shall not place any carts, kiosks or other temporary structures selling food and/or beverages within common areas of the Entire Premises unless such carts, kiosks or other structures are more than 500 feet from the theatre. Such carts and kiosks may not sell any food or beverages sold in the theatre. Landlord shall not place any vending machines selling food and/or beverages on the common areas of the Entire Premises unless such vending machines are more than 500 feet from the theatre.

(e) Any new buildings shall be limited to retail, restaurant, residential and/or office uses.

15. Permitted Use and Operations. From and after the Effective Date, Tenant shall be permitted to use and operate the Leased Premises as and only as a first-class motion picture theatre complex (whether operated as a so-called “first run” theatre and/or an “art house” theatre. In no event shall Tenant be permitted to operate the Leased Premises as a so-called “second-run” theatre complex or as a so-called “adult” theatre complex.

16. Removal of Equipment, Surrender and Demolition. Upon the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of the Lease, and provided Tenant is not in default under the Lease beyond applicable notice and cure periods, and said earlier termination is not due to Tenant’s default under the Lease, then for a period extending forty-five (45) days beyond the date of said expiration or termination, Tenant shall be permitted to remove any and all furniture, fixtures and equipment owned and installed by Tenant in, on or to the Leased Premises. Such removal shall be: (a) at Tenant’s sole cost and expense; (b) conducted in such manner that no liens or claims shall arise or exist in connection therewith; (c) conducted in a manner to avoid unreasonable interference with the activities of Landlord and subsequent tenants or occupants upon the Leased Premises and Tenant shall repair all damages caused by such removal.

Upon surrender of the Leased Premises by Tenant and removal of its equipment pursuant to the terms of the Lease and this Amendment, Landlord shall be responsible for the cost of any demolition of the Leased Premises and site grading and restoration as a result, except as otherwise provided in the Lease. Such demolition shall be undertaken in Landlord’s sole discretion and at such times, manner and upon such events as Landlord solely shall determine.

17.  Rent Conversion and Early Termination.

(a) As of the Effective Date hereof, the parties have been made aware of the possibility that a new motion picture theatre complex may be developed and operated at the location of the  on the site which is approximately  acres on the  (the “Nearby Theatre”).

(b) If the Nearby Theatre opens for business and thereafter during any consecutive twelve (12) calendar month period (the “First Test Period”), the Theatre Level Cash Flow (“TLCF”), as defined in Exhibit “A-3” hereto, for the Leased Premises over such First Test Period is less than , then upon notice from Tenant to Landlord at any time when the TLCF over the most current trailing twelve (12) month period was  or within forty-five (45) days after such Test Period, the  Rent Conversion (defined below) will become effective; provided, however, that such notice and Tenant’s right pursuant to the  Rent Conversion as provided in this subparagraph (b) shall be void and ineffective unless Tenant shall have satisfied the Operating Condition (defined in Section 3 above) throughout the First Test Period. In order to be effective, Tenant's notice to Landlord under this subparagraph (b) shall include a written certification to Landlord from Tenant's chief financial officer or controller confirming that the TLCF for the First Test Period is less than . Provided Tenant has satisfied the aforesaid conditions, then effective as of the first day of the first calendar month following Landlord's receipt of Tenant's notice as provided above and thereafter so long as Tenant continues to satisfy the Operating Condition, in lieu of Base Rent and Percentage Rent otherwise due under the Lease (but not in lieu of Tenant's share of Impositions or any other amounts payable by Tenant under the Lease, which will continue to be due and payable by Tenant as provided in the Lease) Tenant shall pay to Landlord on a monthly basis an amount equal to  of Tenant's Gross Sales, as defined in Section 9 above (the "* Rent Conversion"). Such amount shall be paid by Tenant monthly in arrears on or before the thirtieth (30th) day after the end of each calendar month. Within sixty (60) days after the end of each fiscal year, Tenant shall provide a written certification of Tenant's Gross Sales for the applicable period, executed by the chief financial officer or controller of Tenant, which shall be subject to the same year-end reporting and reconciliation procedures and the verification and audit rights of Landlord that apply to Percentage Rent under this Lease.

(c) (i) If the  Rent Conversion occurs and thereafter during any consecutive twelve (12) calendar month period (the "Second Test Period"), the TLCF for the Leased Premises is less than , then Tenant shall have the right to be exercised by written notice to Landlord at any time when the TLCF over the most current trailing twelve (12) month period was  or within forty-five (45) days after such Second Test Period, to terminate the Lease as provided below in this subparagraph (c); provided, however, that such notice and Tenant's right to terminate the Lease as provided in this subparagraph (c) shall be void and ineffective unless Tenant shall have satisfied the Operating Condition (defined above) continuously throughout the Second Test Period. In order to be effective, Tenant's notice to Landlord under this subparagraph (c) shall include a written certification to Landlord from Tenant's chief financial officer or controller that the TLCF for the Second Test Period is less than . Provided Tenant has satisfied the aforesaid conditions, then this Lease shall be terminated effective as of the date which is thirty (30) days after the expiration of the termination notice.

(ii) If the  Rent Conversion occurs, and if at any time thereafter, Tenant reasonably determines that it is necessary or appropriate to undertake in any prospective 12-month period (the "Cap Ex Test Period"), aggregate capital expenditures (i.e., expenditures required to be capitalized rather than expensed under Tenant's normal income tax accounting procedures) for any repairs and maintenance to the Leased Premises in excess of  which Tenant is otherwise unwilling to make, then, Tenant shall have the right and option to terminate the Lease upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to Landlord, subject to the following terms and conditions: (A) Tenant's notice of termination shall specify in reasonable detail the applicable capital expenditures (the "Cap Ex Projects"), the projected commencement date of each Cap Ex Project and the estimated costs thereof (the "Projected Cap Ex Costs"), prior to incurring same and prior to the commencement of the Cap Ex Test Period; (B) Landlord shall have the ability (but not the obligation) to nullify Tenant's exercise of the termination option set forth in this subclause (ii) by delivering written notice to Tenant within ten (10) business days after the date of its receipt of Tenant's termination notice stating either that

(1) Landlord shall reimburse Tenant for the amount by which the actual cost incurred by Tenant (within 30 days of receipt of reasonable documentation of such expense) during the Cap Ex Test Period for the identified Cap Ex Projects (but not more than the Projected Cap Ex Costs) exceed , or (2) Landlord waives its right to terminate this Lease pursuant to Section 17(d) below during the applicable Cap Ex Test Period; (C) if Landlord so nullifies Tenant's purported termination, then Tenant shall be required to undertake the Cap Ex Projects not later than thirty (30) days after the applicable dates specified in Tenant's notice of termination and thereafter to diligently prosecute the Cap Ex Projects to completion, at Tenant's sole cost and expense (subject to reimbursement from Landlord as provided above, if applicable); and (D) if Tenant fails to undertake and complete the identified Cap Ex Projects as aforesaid, then (x) such failure shall constitute a default by Tenant under the Lease, and (y) Landlord's termination rights under Section 17(d) below will be immediately reinstated (notwithstanding the waiver pursuant to clause (2) above, if applicable).

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Lease, including Section 16 above, if Tenant elects to terminate this Lease pursuant to this Section 17 and Landlord demolishes the theatre building of the Leased Premise within twelve (12) months after the date of termination, then Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the actual out-of-pocket costs incurred by Landlord to demolish the theatre building (including, without limitation, the costs to remove from the Leased Premises all building materials and debris and all footings, foundations, utility lines and other underground installations that serve the Leased Premises and the costs to restore the surface of the Premises to a graded and landscaped surface); provided, however, that Tenant's reimbursement obligations shall not exceed an amount equal to the product of  psf multiplied by the ground floor area of the theatre building (in square feet). Tenant shall pay the amount due under this paragraph within thirty (30) days after receiving Landlord's written demand for reimbursement, which shall include reasonable supporting documentation confirming the costs so incurred by Landlord. Tenant's obligations under this paragraph shall expressly survive the termination of the Lease.

(d) If the  Rent Conversion occurs, then Landlord shall have the right at anytime thereafter to terminate this Lease upon not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Tenant.

18. Restrictive Covenant. Landlord covenants and agrees that upon the termination of the Lease for any reason other than the default of the Tenant, no portion of the Entire Premises including the Leased Premises shall be used as a motion picture theater complex for a period of 10 years from the date of termination. The terms and provisions of this Section shall survive the termination of the Lease except that the foregoing restrictive covenant shall not apply if the Lease is terminated as a consequence of a default by Tenant. Such restrictive covenant shall run with the land. Landlord agrees to execute within thirty (30) days after the request by Tenant a restrictive covenant in form appropriate for recording containing the restrictions contained herein. Tenant shall be responsible for the cost of all such recording fees.

19. California Remedies. Landlord's remedies upon a default under the Lease shall include, without limitation, the following:

Even though Tenant has breached the Lease and/or abandoned the Premises, this Lease shall continue in effect for so long as Landlord does not terminate Tenant's right to possession, and Landlord may enforce all of its rights and remedies under this Lease, including (but without limitation) the right to recover Rent as it becomes due. Landlord has the remedy described in Section 1951.4 of the Civil Code of the State of California or any successor code section (Landlord may continue the Lease in effect after Tenant's breach and abandonment and recover rent as it becomes due, if Tenant has the right to sublet or assign, subject only to reasonable limitations). Acts of maintenance, preservation or efforts to lease the Premises or the appointment of receiver upon application of Landlord to protect Landlord's interest under this Lease shall not constitute an election to terminate Tenant's right to possession.

20. Termination of Lease and Lessee's Right to Possession. Section 15.02(C) of the Lease shall be deemed deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

"If an event of default occurs, Landlord shall have the right, with or without notice or demand, immediately (after expiration of the applicable grace periods) to terminate this Lease, and at any time thereafter recover possession of the Premises or any part thereof and expel and remove therefrom Tenant and any other person occupying the same, by any lawful means, and again repossess and enjoy the Premises without prejudice to any of the remedies that Landlord may have under this Lease, or at law or equity by reason of Tenant's default or of such termination. Should Landlord terminate this Lease pursuant to foregoing, Landlord shall have all the rights and remedies of a landlord provided by Section 1951.2 of the Civil Code of the State of California, or successor code section. Upon such termination, in addition to any other rights and remedies to which Landlord may be entitled at law or in equity, Landlord shall be entitled to recover from Tenant:

- (1) the worth at the time of award of the unpaid Rent which had been earned at the time of termination;
- (2) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent which would have been earned after termination until the time of award exceeds the amount of such Rent loss that the Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided;
- (3) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent for the balance of the Term after the time of award exceeds the amount of such Rent loss that the Tenant proves could be reasonably avoided;
- (4) any other amount, and court costs, necessary to compensate Landlord for all the detriment proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform its obligations under this Lease or which, in the ordinary course of things, would be likely to result therefrom; and
- (5) for any other sums due."

21. Notices. The notices provisions of the Lease, as the case may be, shall be deemed deleted in their entirety and replaced with the following:

(a) Except as otherwise expressly and specifically in this Lease provided, a bill, demand, statement, consent, notice or other communication ("notice") which either party may desire or be required to give to the other party shall be deemed sufficiently given or rendered if in writing, delivered personally to the party to be charged therewith or sent by certified mail (return receipt requested) or private express mail courier service (postage or delivery or courier fees fully prepaid) addressed to such party at the addresses set forth in subparagraph (c) below (including the addresses for copies of notices) and/or at such other address(es) as such party shall designate to the other party by notice given as herein provided. If Landlord is notified of the identity and address of Tenant's Leasehold Mortgagee, Landlord shall give such party any notice served upon Tenant hereunder to the last known address of such Leasehold Mortgagee as provided by Tenant to Landlord by certified mail or private express courier service. If Tenant is notified of the identity and address of Landlord's mortgagee, Tenant shall give such mortgagee any notice served upon Landlord hereunder to the last known address of such mortgagee as provided by Landlord to Tenant, by certified mail or private express courier service.

(b) Any notice given in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section shall be deemed effective upon the earlier of (i) if the notice is personally delivered, the date actually received by intended recipient, (ii) if the notice is sent by certified mail, five (5) days after the same is mailed, or (iii) if the notice is sent by private overnight courier service (e.g., Federal Express, DHL or similar courier), one (1) day after the same is delivered to or picked up by such courier. Rejection or refusal to accept a notice or the inability to deliver same because of a changed address of which no notice was given shall be deemed to be a receipt of the notice sent. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Lease, no provision in this Lease shall preclude service of notices in accordance with Section 1162 of the California Code of Civil Procedure or any similar and/or successor code sections.

(c) Addresses for Notices to Landlord and Tenant.

22. Miscellaneous Amendments. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, whenever any of the terms “Leased Premises”, “Demised Premises” or “Premises” (and whether or not capitalized) is used herein, it shall be understood to mean the “premises leased hereby”; and whenever the term “Entire Premises” is used herein (and whether or not capitalized), it shall be understood to mean all of the contiguous land and buildings owned by Landlord at this location, which include the premises leased hereby. The term “Non-leased Premises” shall mean the Entire Premises less the Leased Premises.

A) Beginning on the Initial Rent Due Date, Tenant shall pay to Landlord during the Lease Term a "Base Rent" of  The Base Rent is sometimes referred to herein as the "Minimum Monthly Rent" and shall be subject to adjustment every after the Initial Rent Due Date as set forth, in Section 4.01 B below.

The Minimum Monthly Rent shall be increased (but never decreased) on the first day of the Lease Year and on the first day of each Lease Year thereafter during the Term by a percentage equal to the percentage of increase from the "base period" (as hereinafter defined in this Section) of the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers, Las Vegas Subgroup "All Items", (1982-84=100) (the "Consumer Price Index"); provided, however, in no event shall the Minimum Monthly Rent be increased by an amount that is less than  greater than the Minimum Monthly Rent payable before the adjustment date in question.

In the event that the Consumer Price Index is not available, the successor or substitute index shall be used for the computations herein set forth. In the event that the Consumer Price Index or such successor or substitute index is not published, a reliable governmental or other non-partisan publication evaluating the information theretofore used in determining the Consumer Price Index shall be used by Landlord for the computations herein set forth. For the purposes of the computations herein set forth, the basis for any substitute or successor index or such governmental or non-partisan publication shall be converted to a basis of 100 only in the event that the basis used in such index or publication is less than 100.

4.02 Percentage Rent. In addition to the payment of Base Rent, Tenant shall pay to Landlord for each Lease Year during the Term of this Lease, as Percentage Rent a sum equal to the amount by which  of the Gross Sales for such Lease Year exceeds the Base Rent which is payable for such Lease Year equal to the quotient obtained by dividing the annual fixed rate for such Lease year by the percentage rate.

Gross Sales shall mean all box office receipts, sales of goods, merchandise, beverages, food, vending machines and video games. Gross sales shall exclude credits and refunds made with respect to admissions or other sales; all federal, state, county and city admission taxes, sales taxes and other similar taxes now or hereafter imposed (whether such taxes are collected from customers separately from the selling price of admission tickets or absorbed therein, and actually paid over to the taxing authority by Tenant; commissions paid to agencies or other third parties for selling tickets; returned, exchanged, waived or Pass Admissions” including EBF charges on “Pass Admissions” and any sums paid to third parties for the use or rental of vending machines, pay telephones or other amusement machines.

Tenant agrees to furnish Landlord a statement certified by its chief financial or similar office of its Gross Sales within ninety (90) days after the close of each Lease Year and calculation of Percentage Rent, if any, due for such Lease Year. Tenant shall concurrently with the delivery of such statement, pay to Landlord any Percentage Rent due for such Lease Year.

The receipt by Landlord of any statement or any payment of Percentage Rent for any period shall not bind it as to the correctness of the statement or the Payment. Landlord shall within three years after the receipt of any such statement be entitled to an audit of such Gross Sales. Such audit shall be limited to the determination of the Gross Sales as defined in this Lease and shall be conducted during normal business hours at the principal place of business of Tenant. If it is determined as a result of such audit that there has been a deficiency in the payment of Percentage Rent, then such deficiency shall become immediately due any payable with interest at the annual rate of 18% from the date when said payment should have been made until paid. Any information gained from such statements or inspection shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed other than to carry out the purposes hereof. If such audit shall disclose that Tenant has understated the Gross Sales for such Lease Year by more than three (3%) and Landlord is entitled to any additional Annual Percentage Rent, Tenant shall pay to Landlord all of Landlord’s reasonable cost of such audit.

4.03 Rent Payments. Rent and other sums to be paid by Tenant shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America. All payments shall be made by Tenant to Landlord without notice or demand.

4.04 Place for Payment of Rent. The Annual Rent and any other charges required to be paid by Tenant to Landlord shall be sent to Landlord at its principal place of business, or such other address as Landlord may direct in writing.

4.05 Late Payment of Rent. In the event that any monthly installment of rent is not paid within ten (10) days after first written notice from Landlord that such payment is past due, Tenant shall pay Landlord interest on such unpaid rent at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum computed from the date such rent installment was due until the date actually paid.

ARTICLE V

TAXES, ASSESSMENTS AND UTILITIES

5.01 Impositions.

A) The term “Impositions” shall mean all real estate taxes, duties or assessments (special or otherwise), water and sewer rents, whether ordinary or extraordinary, general or special, foreseen or unforeseen, of any kind and nature whatsoever, which, at any time during the Lease Term, shall be assessed or levied, or be attributable in any manner to the Premises, or the rents receivable therefrom, or any part thereof or any use thereon or any facility located therein or used in connection therewith, whether or not any of the foregoing shall be a so-called “real estate tax” expressly excluding, however, any such items arising directly or indirectly out of any act or omission of Landlord, any of Landlord’s predecessors in title or any other person occurring prior to the commencement of the Term. From and after the Initial Rent Due Date, Tenant shall pay all Impositions assessed, levied or attributable to the Premises and/or the Improvements on the Premises. All Impositions or installments thereof payable with respect to the tax year in which this Lease shall commence, and all Impositions or installments thereof with respect to the tax year in which this Lease shall terminate, shall be pro-rated on a daily basis; provided, however, that assessments or escape assessments assessed as a result of this Lease and/or the construction of Tenant Improvements by Tenant shall not be prorated and shall be paid solely by Tenant; and provided further that assessments attributable to Tenant Improvements made in the final year of the Lease shall be paid solely by Tenant if Tenant demolishes the Tenant Building.

B) With respect to Impositions which by law may be paid in installments over a period of time, Landlord shall be deemed to have elected (the "Installment Election") to pay such Impositions over the longest period of time permitted by law, regardless of whether Landlord has in fact so elected. With respect to each year in which the Installment Election is effective and with respect to the Impositions associated with Tenant's premises subject to the Installment Election, Tenant's share of such Imposition(s) for each year shall be the pro rata share of the amount which would be required to be paid to the collecting authority as if Landlord had in fact made the Installment Election.

C) In the event the Premises are separately assessed by the taxing authority, Tenant shall pay all such real property taxes directly to the taxing authority prior to delinquency. In the event Tenant fails to pay such real property taxes as provided herein, Landlord may, but shall not be required to, pay the same, and any amount so paid by Landlord shall immediately thereafter become due to Landlord from Tenant as Additional Rent with interest thereon at the rate of 18% per annum from the date of Landlord's payment plus any fine, penalty, interest or cost which is levied by the taxing authority for such late payment.

D) In the event the Premises are not separately assessed by the taxing authority, Tenant shall pay all such real property taxes to the Landlord prior to delinquency. In the event Tenant fails to pay to Landlord such real property taxes as provided herein, Tenant shall pay Landlord in addition interest thereon at the rate of 18% per annum from the delinquency date until such payment has been made.

5.02 Proration of Taxes. If the Premises comprise a tax lot or lots with other property owned by Landlord or other parties ("Other Premises") assessed for real estate tax purposes, together with said Other Premises, immediately after the Commencement Date, Landlord and Tenant shall attempt to cause the appropriate taxing authorities to assess the Premises for real estate tax purposes separately from all Other Premises. During any period in which the Premises are assessed for real estate purposes, together with any Other Premises, Landlord will pay, before the last day on which payment may be made without penalty or interest, all Impositions which shall be levied against the Other Premises.

5.03 Exceptions from Impositions: Charges in Lieu of Impositions.

A) Nothing herein contained shall require Tenant to pay any estate, inheritance, succession, capital levy, corporate franchise, gross receipts, transfer, or income tax of Landlord, nor shall any of the same be deemed to be included within the term "Impositions" as defined herein.

B) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article V, if at any time after the date of this Lease the present method of taxation or assessment shall be changed so that in lieu of, as a substitute for (whether in whole or in part) or as a supplement to (provided such supplemental tax relates to real estate or revenues from real estate and not to other property or business as well) the taxes now levied, assessed or imposed on real estate and buildings and Improvements thereon, a tax shall be imposed, assessed or levied wholly or partly on the Rent, or a tax, assessment, levy or charge, measured or based, in whole or in part, on the Premises or on the rents derived therefrom, shall be imposed on Landlord, then Tenant shall pay taxes so measured or based only to the extent that such taxes would be payable if the Premises were the only property of Landlord subject to such taxes, or the income from operation of the Premises were Landlord's only income, as the case may be.

5.04 Contest of Taxes. Tenant at its sole cost and expense may by appropriate legal proceedings conducted in good faith and with due diligence, contest the amount or validity or application, in whole or in part, of any Imposition or lien therefor, or any other lien, encumbrance or charge against the Premises arising from work done or materials provided to or for Tenant. Tenant shall give Landlord reasonable notice of, and information pertaining to, such contest and regular progress reports with respect thereto.

Landlord shall cooperate with any effort pursued by Tenant in accordance with this Section 5.05. Tenant shall indemnify, protect and hold harmless Landlord and the Premises from any lien or liability with respect to any such Imposition or contest thereof, including all costs and expenses related thereto. Landlord shall provide Tenant with copies of notice when received by Landlord from the taxing authorities of any assessments or reassessments of the Premises in sufficient time (but in no event later than thirty (30) days after Landlord's receipt of the same) to enable Tenant to contest the same in accordance with the provisions of this Section 5.05.

5.05 Utilities. Tenant shall pay before delinquency, directly to the appropriate company or governmental agency, all charges for all utilities, including, but not limited to, water, gas, electricity, sewer, power, telephone, other communication services and refuse disposal consumed on the Premises.

5.06 Personal Property Taxes. During the term of this Lease, Tenant shall pay before delinquency any and all personal property taxes levied or assessed against any personal property located upon the Premises. If Tenant fails to timely pay such taxes and a lien is filed against the Premises, Landlord may discharge such lien, if Tenant fails to discharge such lien within ten (10) days following Tenant's receipt of notice from Landlord, including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees, together with interest at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum from the date of expenditure, such additional rent being due and payable within ten (10) days of notice thereof.

ARTICLE VI

INSURANCE

6.01 Acquisition of Insurance Policies. Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, procure and maintain, or cause to be procured and maintained, during the entire Term the insurance described in this Section (or its then available equivalent), and shall name Landlord and any other parties requested by Landlord as an additional insured.

6.02 Types of Required Insurance. Tenant shall procure and maintain the following:

A) Commercial General Liability Insurance. Commercial general liability insurance insuring against injuries or damages to persons or property sustained in, on or about the Premises, Common Area and the appurtenances thereto, including the sidewalks and alleyways adjacent thereto, with limits of liability no less than Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000) per occurrence and in the aggregate.

B) Builder's Risk Insurance. During any restorations, alterations or changes in the Premises that may be made by Tenant at a cost in excess of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000) per job, contingent liability and builder's risk insurance upon the entire work on the Premises to the current one hundred percent (100%) replacement value thereof against "all risks" of physical loss or damage to the property insured, excluding earthquake and/or other earth movements and flood.

C) Physical Property Damage Insurance. During the term hereof, Tenant shall keep Tenant's Building (excluding foundations and footings), all improvements on the Premises and personal property insured in the name of Landlord and Tenant against damage or destruction by fire and the perils commonly covered under the extended coverage endorsement (with vandalism and malicious mischief coverage) excluding earthquake and flood to the extent of not less than the full replacement value thereof less any deductible applicable to all of Tenant's theatres insured under a blanket policy. Tenant shall be responsible for determining the amount of fire and extended coverage insurance to be maintained subject to Landlord's consent, which consent is not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The proceeds of such insurance in case of loss or damage shall be held in trust and applied on account of the obligation of Tenant to repair and/or rebuild the Leased Premises pursuant to the Article captioned "Damage Clause" to the extent that such proceeds are required for such purpose. The insurance required to be carried by Tenant under this paragraph may be covered under a so-called "blanket" policy covering other operations of Tenant and its affiliates. Tenant shall name Landlord and any parties requested by Landlord and any holder of a mortgage on Tenant's Building pursuant to a standard mortgage clause with respect to the foregoing hazard insurance, provided such holder agrees with Landlord in writing to disburse such insurance proceeds to Landlord for, and periodically during the course of, repair and restoration of Tenant's Building as set forth in this Lease.

6.03 Terms of Insurance. The policies required under Section 6.02 shall name Landlord as additional insured. Tenant shall provide to Landlord certificates of insurance and copies of policies obtained by Tenant hereunder promptly upon the request of Landlord. Further, all policies of insurance described in Section 6.02 shall:

A) Be written as primary policies not contributing with and not in excess of coverage that Landlord may carry.

B) Contain an endorsement providing that the amount of coverage will not be reduced with respect to Landlord except after twenty (20) days prior written notice from insurance company to Landlord and such coverage may not be canceled with respect to Landlord except after thirty (30) days' prior written notice from insurance company to Landlord.

C) Expressly provide that Landlord shall not be required to give notice of accidents or claims and that Landlord shall have no liability for premiums.

D) Be written by insurance companies having a Bests rating of "A-" or better, and such insurance companies shall be reasonably acceptable to Landlord.

6.04 Landlord's Acquisition of Insurance. If Tenant at any time during the Term fails to procure or maintain insurance required hereunder or to pay the premiums therefor, Landlord shall have the right to procure the same and to pay any and all premiums thereon, and any amounts paid by Landlord in connection with the acquisition of insurance shall be immediately due and payable as additional rent, and Tenant shall pay to Landlord upon demand the full amount so paid and expended by Landlord. Any policies of insurance obtained by Landlord covering physical damage to the Premises shall contain a waiver of subrogation against Tenant if and to the extent such waiver is obtainable and if Tenant pays to Landlord on demand the additional costs, if any, incurred in obtaining such waiver.

6.05 Insurance Money and Other Funds Held in Trust. All insurance money or condemnation proceeds as provided in Article VIII, received by the Tenant shall be turned over to Landlord and held in trust by Landlord and, except as provided otherwise in Section 6.06, shall be applied as follows:

First, to any Leasehold Mortgagee as required under the terms of its Leasehold Mortgage provided that such Mortgage was of record and secured a loan made or committed to Landlord in compliance with all of the terms and conditions of this Lease prior to the occurrence of such loss; second, for the purpose of defraying the cost of repairing, restoring, replacing and/or rebuilding any structure or improvement on or in the Premises as required as provided in Section 6.06 hereof, and third, if the damaged or destroyed structure or improvement is not repaired, restored, replaced or rebuilt as hereinafter provided, said funds shall be disposed of as provided in Section 6.06. Any of said funds in the hands of the Tenant or Landlord at the end of the Term hereof shall be disposed of as set forth in Section 6.06 (A).

6.06 Application or Proceeds of Physical Damage Insurance. In case of any insurance policies as described in Section 6.02 (C) (Physical Property Damage Insurance) the application of insurance proceeds from damage or loss to property shall be determined in part in accordance with Article XVII hereof and, in the event of any such repair, replacement, restoration or rebuilding, the Landlord shall disburse the proceeds of the insurance collected to Tenant to pay the cost of such work upon certificate of satisfactory progress and/or completion in form satisfactory to Landlord by the licensed architect or engineer in charge of the work. Upon completion of such repair, replacement, restoration or rebuilding in accordance with the provisions of this Lease, and the full payment therefor (so no liens, encumbrances or claims with respect thereto can be asserted against the Premises, this Lease, Landlord or Tenant), any insurance proceeds received by the Landlord or Tenant with respect to the damage or destruction involved, and not used, shall remain the property of Landlord.

A) Distribution of Unutilized Proceeds. At the termination of this Lease, such insurance proceeds or condemnation awards received and held by the Landlord and not used for repair, replacement or reconstruction ("Available Proceeds"), shall be disposed as follows:

(1) First Landlord shall be awarded an amount sufficient to remove any improvements not repaired and to return the Property to the level of adjacent streets ("grade level"); and

(2) Second, any remainder shall be paid to Landlord.

6.07 Cooperation for Insurance Proceeds. Landlord and Tenant shall each cooperate with the other in order to obtain the largest possible recovery and execute any and all consents and other instruments and take all other actions reasonably necessary or desirable to effectuate the same and cause such proceeds to be paid as hereinbefore provided. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, neither party shall carry any insurance concurrent in coverage and contributing in the event of loss with any insurance required to be furnished by the other hereunder if the effect of separate insurance would be to reduce the protection or the payment to be made under such party's insurance or under the insurance required to be furnished by the other.

6.08 Waiver of Right of Recovery. Landlord and Tenant hereby release each other from any and all liability and responsibility to one another and, to the extent legally possible to do so on behalf of their respective insurers and anyone claiming through or under either of them, by way of subrogation or otherwise, hereby waive any liability for any and all loss or damage which is of the type covered by fire and extended coverage insurance described in this Article, irrespective of any negligence on the part of the other party which may have contributed to or caused such loss. Every insurance policy carried by either party with respect to the Premises or Tenant's Building or land or improvements adjoining the Premises owned or leased by Landlord shall (if it can be so written and does not result in a material additional premium) include provisions denying to the insurer subrogation rights against the other party and any fee or leasehold mortgage to the extent such rights have been waived by the insured prior to the occurrence of damage or loss. If the waiver of subrogation otherwise is not effective, each party covenants that it will obtain for the benefit of the other party an express waiver of any right of subrogation which the insurer of such party may acquire against the other party by virtue of the payment of any such loss covered by such insurance. In the event either party is by law, statute, governmental regulation, economically unfeasible or other factor beyond such party's reasonable control unable to obtain a waiver of the right of subrogation for the benefit of the other party, then, during any period of time when such waiver is unobtainable, said party shall be deemed not to have released any subrogated claim of its insurance carrier against the other party, and during the same period of time the other party shall be deemed not to have released the party who has been unable to obtain such waiver from any claims they or their insurance carriers may assert which otherwise would have been released pursuant to this Section. In the event that either party is unable to obtain such waiver of the right of subrogation for the benefit of the other party, such party shall within thirty (30) days of receiving notice of such inability, give the other party written notice of such inability.

ARTICLE VII

7.01 Alterations-Changes.

A) At any time and from time to time during the Lease Term Tenant may, at its sole expense, make any alterations, additions or changes, whether structural or nonstructural to any portion or all of any Improvements which may exist at any time and from time to time on any portion of the Premises, and may, at its option, construct new Improvements on the Premises, or remove or demolish Improvements on the Premises that all such alterations or changes in Improvements and new Improvement shall be performed in a first-class manner and must comply with all laws, zoning regulations and ordinances, and any conditions, on permits issued pursuant thereto. If the change, alteration or addition is structural or exterior in nature Landlord's written approval shall be first obtained.

B) Tenant shall at all times keep the Premises or any part thereof, free and clear of all liens and claims for labor or material and free and clear of all attachments, executions and notices.

(C) Upon termination of this Lease, Tenant may not remove any personal property and trade fixtures including, but not limited to theatre seats, projection and sound equipment, snack bar equipment and computers.

7.02 Repairs — Maintenance. Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, maintain the Premises in first class condition for a building of like kind and place and make such structural and non-structural, ordinary and extraordinary, foreseen and unforeseen repairs such that the Premises shall not be in violation of any law or covenant recorded as of the Effective Date.

ARTICLE VIII

Landlord agrees to indemnify, defend and hold Tenant harmless from all claims, judgments, damages, penalties, fines, costs, resulting from the presence of Hazardous Materials on or about the Premises, (i) on the Commencement Date of this Lease, and/or (ii) during or after the term of this Lease, if the presence of Hazardous Materials results from any cause other than Tenant's Environmental Acts.

B) Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of, and shall promptly provide Landlord with true, correct, complete and legible copies of all of the following environmental items relating to the Premises which may be filed or prepared by or on behalf of, or delivered to or served upon Tenant: reports filed pursuant to any self-reporting requirements, reports filed pursuant to any applicable laws or this Lease, all permit applications, permits, monitoring reports, workplace exposure and community exposure warnings or notices and all other reports, disclosures, plans or documents (excluding those which may be reasonably characterized as confidential) relating to water discharges, air pollution, waste generation or disposal, underground storage tanks or Hazardous Materials.

C) In addition to Tenant's routine reporting obligations described in (B) above, Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of, and shall promptly provide Landlord with true, correct, complete and legible copies of, all of the following environmental items relating to the Premises which may be filed or prepared by or on behalf of, or delivered to or served upon, Tenant: all orders, reports, listings and correspondence (excluding those which may be reasonably considered confidential) of or concerning the release, investigation of, compliance, clean up, remedial and corrective actions, and abatement of Hazardous Materials whether or not required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by or given pursuant to any applicable laws, and all complaints, pleading and other legal documents filed against Tenant related to Tenant's use, handling, storage or disposal of Hazardous Materials. In the event of a release of any Hazardous Materials in, on or about the Premises, Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord and provide Landlord with copies of all reports and correspondence with or from all governmental agencies, authorities or any other persons relating to such release.

D) Landlord, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall have the right but not the obligation, to join and participate in any legal proceedings or actions initiated in connection with any claims or causes of action arising out of the storage, generation, use or disposal by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees, of Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises caused by Tenant's Environmental Acts which results in (i) injury to any person, (ii) injury to or any contamination of the Premises or (iii) injury to or contamination of any real or personal property wherever situated. Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall promptly take all actions necessary to return the Premises to the condition existing prior to the introduction of such Hazardous Materials to the Premises and to remedy or repair any such injury or contamination. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall not, without Landlord's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or denied or conditioned or delayed, take any remedial action in response to the presence of any Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises or enter into any settlement agreement, consent decree or other compromise with any governmental agency with respect to any Hazardous Materials claims; provided, however, Landlord's prior written consent shall not be necessary in the event that the presence of Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises (i) poses an immediate threat to the health, safety or welfare of any individual or (ii) is of such nature that an immediate remedial response is necessary and it is not possible to obtain Landlord's consent before taking such action.

8.03 Remedial Work. In the event any investigation or monitoring of site conditions or any clean-up, containment, restoration, removal or other remedial work ("Remedial Work") is required (as) under any applicable federal, state or local law or regulation, (b) by any judicial, arbitral or administrative order, (c) to comply with any agreements affecting the Premises or (d) to maintain the Premises in a standard of environmental condition which presents no risk to safety or health, prevents the release of any hazardous materials to adjacent property and otherwise is consistent with the prudent ownership of property of the character of the Premises and/or Tenant's Building and if such Remedial Work is required as a direct result of Tenant's Environmental Acts, then Tenant at Tenant's sole cost and expense, including without limitation, any taxes or penalties assessed in connection with the Remedial Work, shall perform or cause to be performed such Remedial Work; and if such Remedial Work is required for any reason other than Tenant's Environmental Acts, then, Landlord, at Landlord's sole cost and expense, including without limitation, any taxes or penalties assessed in connection with the Remedial Work, shall perform or cause to be performed such Remedial Work. Neither party shall be obligated to perform Remedial Work under this Section while it is contesting the application of any law, regulation or order, provided the other party is not exposed to any additional liability, risk or damages. As a further condition of such subordination, Landlord, Tenant and the Mortgagee shall enter into a non-disturbance and attornment agreement in a form reasonably acceptable to all parties executing such instrument.

ARTICLE XIV CONDEMNATION — EMINENT DOMAIN

14.01 Definitions. The following definitions apply in construing provisions of this Lease relating to a taking of or damage to all or any part of the Entire Premises or Improvements or Parking or any interest in them by eminent domain or inverse condemnation:

A) "Taking" means that taking or damaging, including severance damage, by eminent domain or by inverse condemnation for any public or quasi-public use under any statute. The transfer of title may be either a transfer resulting from the recording of a final order in condemnation or a voluntary transfer or conveyance to the condemning agency or entity under threat of condemnation, in avoidance of an exercise of eminent domain, or while condemnation proceedings are pending. The taking shall be considered to take place as of the date on which the right to compensation and damages accrues under the law applicable to the Premises, unless the condemnor also takes actual physical possession of the Premises or a part thereof, in which case the date of Taking for the purpose of this Lease shall be the later of the date on which the right to compensation and damages accrues or the date physical possession is taken by the condemnor.

B) "Total Taking" means the Taking of the fee title to all the Premises and the Improvements on the Premises, which shall be considered to include any offsite improvements effected by Tenant to serve the Premises or the improvements or the parking on the Premises.

C) "Partial Taking" means any Taking (including any damaging) of a portion of the Premises, the Common Area, or any Improvements or parking thereon which is not a Total Taking.

D) "Notice of Intended Taking" means any notice or notification on which a reasonably prudent man would rely and which he would interpret as expressing an existing intention of Taking as distinguished from a mere preliminary inquiry or proposal. It includes, but is not limited to, the service of a condemnation summons and complaint on a party to this Lease. The notice is considered to have been received when a party to this Lease receives from the condemning agency or entity a Notice of Intended Taking, in writing, containing a description or map of the Taking reasonably defining the extent of the Taking.

E) "Award" means compensation paid for the Taking, whether pursuant to judgment or by agreement or otherwise.

14.02 Notice to Other Party. The party hereto receiving any notice of the kinds specified below shall promptly give the other party notice of the receipt, contents, and date of the notice received:

A) Notice of Intended Taking;

B) Service of any legal process relating to condemnation of the Premises or improvements;

C) Notice in connection with any proceedings or negotiations with respect to such a condemnation; or

D) Notice of intent or willingness to make or negotiate a private purchase, sale or transfer in lieu of condemnation.

14.03 Total Taking — Effect on Rent and Term. On a Total Taking, Tenant's obligation to pay Rent shall terminate on, and Tenant's interest in the leasehold shall continue until, the date of Taking, at which time this Lease shall terminate.

14.04 Distribution of Award for Taking. On a Taking, all sums, including, but not limited to, damages and interest awarded for the value of the real estate taken, shall be apportioned and paid by the governmental body taking the Premises as follows:

A) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any, for the Fair Market Value of all buildings and other improvements on the Premises;

B) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any, for severance damages

C) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any, for the "bonus value" of this leasehold estate without improvements. The bonus value is the amount by which the fair market rental value on the open market exceeds the contract rent (the amount called for in this Lease);

D) To Tenant, the amount awarded, if any, for loss of goodwill and relocation expenses;

E) To Tenant any other award which will not reduce the amount which otherwise would be awarded to Landlord; and

F) To Landlord, any balance.

Tenant shall only be entitled to payments under this Section 14.04 out of amounts awarded by the governmental body taking the Premises.

14.05 Partial Taking — Rent Adjustments. On a Partial Taking, the Lease shall remain in full force and effect covering the remaining Premises, except that the total Rent as otherwise provided herein shall be reduced in the same ratio as the percentage of the area of the Premises taken bears to the total area of the Premises.

14.06 Partial Taking — Option to Terminate. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event of a Partial Taking, if more than thirty percent (30%) of the Building or fifty (50%) of the parking is taken by a condemnation or sold under the threat of condemnation, then Tenant may terminate this Lease as of the date the condemning authority takes title or possession, whichever occurs first, by delivering written notice to the other within ten (10) days after receipt of written notice of such taking (or in the absence of such notice, within ten (10) days after the condemning authority takes possession).

14.07 Separate Tenant's Award. In the event of a Taking, Tenant may make a separate claim with respect to lost business, lost profits, moving expenses and other related damages against the acquiring governmental Agency.

ARTICLE XV

DEFAULT

15.01 Tenant's Default. The occurrence of any of the following shall constitute a default or event of default by Tenant:

A) Failure to pay Annual Rent or any other monetary amount when due as provided herein, if the failure continues for ten (10) days after first written notice has been given to Tenant by Landlord;

B) Failure to perform any of Tenant's non-monetary obligations under this Lease, provided however, Tenant shall have thirty (30) days from receipt of written notice by Landlord to cure each such default. If Tenant cannot reasonably cure such default within said thirty (30) day period, Tenant shall not be in default of this Lease if Tenant commences to cure the breach within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the breach.

C) Tenant shall file a petition in voluntary bankruptcy under the bankruptcy code of the United States or any similar Law, State or Federal Law, now or hereafter in effect.

15.02 Landlord's Remedies Cumulative. Landlord shall have the following remedies set forth in subsections (A) through (G) below if Tenant commits a default, except as provided in Section 15.03. These remedies are not exclusive and may be exercised concurrently or successively; they are cumulative in addition to any remedies now or later allowed by law or equity:

A) Bring Suit for Performance. Landlord may bring suit for the collection of the Rent or other amounts for which Tenant is then in default, or for the performance of any other covenant or agreement devolving upon Tenant, all without having to enter into possession or terminate this Lease;

B) Re-Entry Without Termination. Pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1954.4, Landlord may re-enter the Premises, by legal proceedings (or without legal proceedings if the Premises have been abandoned), and take possession thereof, without thereby terminating this Lease, and thereupon Landlord may expel all persons and remove all property therefrom, without becoming liable to prosecution therefor, and relet the Premises or a portion or portions thereof, and receive the rent therefrom, applying the same first to the payment of the reasonable expenses of such re-entry and the reasonable cost of such reletting, and then to the payment of the Rent and other amounts for which Tenant is then in default; the balance, if any, to be paid to Tenant, who, whether or not the Premises are relet, shall remain liable for any deficiency. It is agreed that the commencement and prosecution of any action by Landlord in forcible entry and detainer, ejectment, or otherwise, or the appointment of a receiver, or any execution of any decree obtained in any action to recover possession of the Premises, or any re-entry, shall not be construed as an election to terminate this Lease unless Landlord shall, in writing, expressly exercise its election to declare the Lease Term hereunder ended and to terminate this Lease, and unless this Lease be expressly terminated, such re-entry or entry by Landlord, whether had or taken under summary proceedings or otherwise, shall not be deemed to have absolved or discharged Tenant from any of its obligations and liabilities for the remainder of the Lease Term. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary or other provisions of this Section 15.02(B), Tenant shall have the right to sublet the Premises, assign its interest in the Lease, or both, subject to Landlord's prior right, during any continuance of Tenant's default, to relet the Premises or a portion or portions thereof.

C) Termination of Lease and Lessee's Right to Possession. No act by Landlord, other than giving Tenant written notice of termination of this Lease, shall in fact terminate the Lease. Upon termination of the Lease, neither Landlord nor Tenant shall have any future rights or obligations under the Lease except that Landlord shall have the right to recover from Tenant the following:

(1) The worth, at the time of the award, of the unpaid Rent that had been earned at the time of termination of this Lease;

(2) The worth, at the time of the award, of the amount by which the unpaid Rent that would have been earned after the date of termination of this Lease until the time of award exceeds the amount of the loss of Rent that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided;

(3) The worth, at the time of the award, of the amount by which the unpaid Rent for the balance of the Term after the time of award exceeds the amount of the loss of Rent that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided; and

(4) Any other amount, and court costs, necessary to compensate Landlord for all detriment proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform his obligations under the Lease or which, in the ordinary course of things, would be likely to result therefrom.

(5) For any other sums due.

D) Definitions. As used herein, the following phrases shall be interpreted as follows:

(1) "The worth, at the time of the award," as used in subsections 15.02(C)(1) and (2) above, is to be computed by allowing interest at the maximum lawful rate. "The worth, at the time of the award," as referred to in subsection 15.02(C)(3) above, is to be computed by discounting the amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco at the time of the award, plus one percent (1%).

(2) As used herein, the term "time of award" shall mean either the date upon which Tenant pays to Landlord the amount recoverable by Landlord as hereinabove set forth or the date of entry of any determination, order, or judgment of any court or other legally constituted body determining the amount recoverable, whichever first occurs.

E) Surrender. Promptly after notice of termination, Tenant shall surrender and vacate the Premises and all improvements in broom-clean condition, and Landlord may re-enter and take possession of the Premises and all remaining improvements and eject all parties in possession or eject some and not others, or eject none. Termination and under subsection 15.02(C) shall not relieve Tenant from the payment of any sum due to Landlord or from any claim for damages previously accrued or then accruing against Tenant.

F) Appointment of Receiver. If Tenant defaults under Section 15.02 Landlord shall have the right to have a receiver appointed to collect rent from any subtenants. Neither the filing of a petition for the appointment of a receiver nor the appointment itself shall constitute an election by Landlord to terminate this Lease.

G) Landlord's Right to Cure Tenant's Default. Landlord, at any time after Tenant is in default under Section 15.01 herein, may cure the default at Tenant's expense. If Landlord, at any time, by reason of Tenant's default, pays any sum or does any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Landlord shall be immediately reimbursed from Tenant to Landlord, together with interest at eighteen percent (18%) per annum computed from the date of such expenditure until the date of reimbursement by Tenant.

15.03 Landlord's Default.

A) The occurrence of the following shall constitute a default by Landlord: Breach of any provision of this Lease if the breach is not cured within thirty (30) days after written notice by Tenant; provided, however, that if the breach cannot reasonably be cured within such thirty (30) day period, Landlord shall not be in default of this Lease if Landlord commences to cure the breach within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the default.

B) Tenant, at any time after Landlord is in default under paragraph (A) above, may cure the default at Landlord's expense. If Tenant at any time, by reason of Landlord's default, pays any sum or does any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Tenant shall be immediately reimbursed by Landlord, together with interest at eighteen percent (18%) per annum determined at the time the expenditure is made by Tenant computed from the date of such expenditure until the date of reimbursement by Landlord. If Landlord fails to make such payment(s) within fifteen (15) days after Tenant's written demand, Tenant shall be entitled to offset any amount due from Landlord against the next Rent payment due under this Lease.

15.04 Waiver of Redemption. Tenant hereby expressly waives any and all rights of redemption granted by or under any present or future laws in the event of Tenant being dispossessed or removed from the Premises upon the termination of this Lease because of default by Tenant hereunder.

15.05 Dispute Resolution. Landlord and Tenant desire by provisions of this Section 15.05 to establish procedures to facilitate the informal and inexpensive resolution of any dispute arising out of this Lease by mutual cooperation and without resort to litigation. To accomplish this objective, Landlord and Tenant agree to follow the procedures set forth below if and when a dispute arises between them under this Lease.

A) Description of Dispute. The complaining party shall provide by notice a written description of the alleged breach by the other party. This description shall explain the nature of the complaint and the Lease provision(s) on which it is based. The complaining party shall also set forth a proposed solution to the problem including a specific time frame within which the parties must act. The party receiving the letter of complaint must respond in writing within ten (10) days with an explanation, including references to the relevant parts of the Lease and a response to the proposed solution. Within ten (10) days of receipt of this response, the parties must meet and discuss options for resolving the dispute. The complaining party must initiate the scheduling of the resolution meeting.

C) Arbitration. With respect to disputes which the parties have been unable to resolve informally or by mediation, the parties agree to submit the dispute for final and binding arbitration if the dispute has not otherwise been settled. The parties agree that the arbitration must be initiated within one (1) year after the date of the written description of the alleged breach and that the failure to initiate arbitration within the one (1) year period constitutes an absolute bar to the initiation of any proceedings. An arbitration shall be deemed initiated for the purposes of this section by demand therefor being sent by certified mail to the other party which notice shall contain a description of the dispute, the amount involved and the remedies sought. The parties shall have the right to representation by counsel throughout the arbitration proceedings. All rulings, decisions, and awards of the arbitrators shall be in conformance with California law. The parties may establish the scope of discovery by agreement. If the parties cannot agree, the arbitrator will have discretion to define the limits of discovery and to allow discovery upon a showing of good cause, utilizing the following guidelines:

(1) The arbitrator shall balance the benefits of discovery against the burdens and expenses to the parties and the goals of arbitration as an alternative to traditional litigation.

(2) The arbitrator shall have discretion to order pre-hearing exchange of information, including but not limited to, the production of requested documents and exchanges of summaries of testimony of proposed witnesses.

(3) The deposition of the claimant(s) and respondent(s) and form sets of interrogatories approved by the Judicial Council shall be allowed as a matter of right. There shall be an early and prompt designation and exchange of the names and addresses of expert witnesses who may be called upon to testify at the arbitration hearing. Their depositions, special interrogatories, requests for admission and all other discovery shall be allowed only upon a showing of good cause.

15.06 Attorneys' Fees. Should any action or proceeding, be commenced between the parties to this Lease concerning said Premises, this Lease, or the rights and duties of either in relation thereto, the party, Landlord, or Tenant, prevailing in such action or proceeding shall be entitled, in addition to such other relief as may be granted in the action or proceeding, to a reasonable sum as and for its attorneys' fees therein which shall be determined by the arbitrator(s) hearing such action or proceeding.

18.12 Sale or Transfer of Premises. Landlord shall promptly notify Tenant in writing of any sale or transfer of the Premises or any assignment of Landlord's interest in this Lease, giving the name and address of the assignee or new owner, as the case may be, and instructions regarding the payment of rent or any other amount required to be paid by Tenant hereunder. In the event of any transfer or assignment of Landlord's interest in this Lease or any change in, or transfer of, title in and to the Premises of any part thereof, whether voluntary or involuntary, or by act of Landlord or by operation of law, Tenant shall be under no obligation to pay rent or other charges payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder, thereafter accruing, until Tenant shall have been notified in writing of such transfer, assignment, or change in title, and given satisfactory proof thereof, and the withholding of rent or other charges payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder, in the meantime shall not be deemed a default upon the part of Tenant. Landlord may assign this Lease and convey its title to the Premises, subject to this Lease, at any time. In the event of such assignment of this Lease, Landlord shall have no further obligations under this Lease, except for liabilities which shall have accrued prior to the date of such assignment and transfer and that the assignee assumes in writing Landlord's obligations hereunder accruing on and after the effective date of the assignment.

18.13 Force Majeure. 18.14 Waiver. No term, covenant, or condition of this Lease can be waived except in writing, signed by the party making the waiver, Landlord or Tenant, as the case may be. No waiver of any default hereunder shall be implied from any omission by either party to take any action on account of such default if such default persists or is repeated, and no express waiver shall affect any default other than the default specified in the express waiver, and that only for the time and to the extent therein stated. The acceptance by Landlord of Rent or partial Rent with knowledge of the breach of any of the covenants of this Lease by Tenant shall not be deemed a waiver of any such breach. One or more waivers of any breach of any covenant, term, or condition of this Lease shall not be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same covenant, term, or condition. The consent or approval by either party shall not be deemed to waive or render unnecessary that party's consent to or approval of any subsequent similar act.

18.15 Estoppel Certificate. Either party hereto shall, within twenty (20) days notice from the other party (referred to as the "Requesting Party"), execute and deliver to the Requesting Party, in recordable form, a certificate stating that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect, or in full force and effect as modified, and stating the modifications. The certificate also shall state the amount of current monthly rent, the dates to which the rent has been paid in advance, the amount of prepaid rent, and any other information with respect to this Lease reasonably requested by the Requesting Party. Failure to deliver the certificate within the twenty (20) days shall be conclusive upon the party failing to deliver the certificate for the benefit of the party requesting the certificate and any successor to the party requesting the certificate, that this Lease is in full force and effect, and has not been modified except as may be represented by the party requesting the certificate, and that rent and other charges have not been paid for any period after date of the notice requesting the certificate.

18.16 Number and Gender. Whenever the context requires the singular number, it shall include the plural, the plural the singular, and the use of any gender shall include all genders.

18.17 No Holding Over. Tenant shall have no right to holdover after the end of the Term. Should Tenant or any Leasehold Mortgagee succeeding to the interest of Tenant hold over in possession after the expiration date, such holding over shall not be deemed to extend the Lease or renew this Lease; and Tenant shall pay a pro-rated daily amount equal to one hundred twenty percent (120%) of the Annual Rent in effect immediately preceding the expiration date until Tenant vacates the Premises.

18.18 Mechanics Liens. Tenant shall discharge, by payment, bonding or otherwise, any mechanics liens filed against the Premises or the Entire Premises in connection with Tenant's work and/or any alterations or other work done by or on behalf of Tenant in the Premises within thirty (30) days after Tenant receives notice of the filing of such lien, and Landlord shall cooperate with Tenant at no expense to Landlord, in order to accomplish such discharge. Should Tenant fail to so discharge any such mechanics lien, Landlord shall have the right to remove such mechanics liens and charge all costs thereof, including without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, to Tenant as additional rent plus interest at 18%.

18.19 Relationship of Parties. Nothing contained in this Lease shall be construed to create the relationship of principal and agent, partnership, joint venture or any other relationship between the parties hereto other than the relationship of Landlord and Tenant. Nothing contained herein shall in any way impose any liability upon the stockholders, officers or directors of Landlord or stockholders, officers, directors or trustees of Tenant should such parties be corporate entities.

18.20 Time of the Essence. Time is of the essence with respect to Tenant's payment of rent and other monetary obligations to Landlord under this Lease.

18.21 Facsimile Copies. Tenant and Landlord (i) have each agreed to permit the use, from time to time and where appropriate, of telecopied signatures in order to expedite the transaction contemplated by this Lease, (ii) each intend to be bound by its respective telecopied signature, (iii) are each aware that the other will rely on the telecopied signature, and (iv) each acknowledge such reliance and waive any defenses to the enforcement of the documents effecting the transaction contemplated by this Lease based on a telecopied signature.

18.22 Anti-Merger. The voluntary or otherwise surrender of this Lease by Tenant, or a mutual cancellation of this Lease shall not work a merger but shall at the option of Landlord either:

A) Terminate any existing subleases or subtenancies; or

B) Operate as an assignment to Landlord (and assumption by Landlord) of any subleases or subtenancies.

Execution VersionFOURTH AMENDMENT TO LEASE

(Henderson, Nevada)

THIS FOURTH AMENDMENT TO LEASE AGREEMENT (this "Amendment") is entered into as of August 7, 2006 to be effective as of the Effective Date (as defined hereinbelow) by and between SYUFY ENTERPRISES, L.P., a California limited partnership ("Landlord"), and CENTURY THEATRES, INC., a California corporation ("Tenant").

RECITALS:

A. Landlord (then known as Syufy Enterprises ("Original Landlord")) and Century Theatres of Nevada Inc., a Nevada corporation ("Original Tenant"), entered into a certain Lease dated as of September 30, 1995 (the "Original Lease"), for certain premises located in Henderson, Nevada.

B. The Original Lease has been previously amended by (i) that certain First Amendment to Lease dated as of September 1, 2000 (the "First Amendment"), (ii) that certain Second Amendment to Lease dated as of April 15, 2005 (the "Second Amendment"), and (iii) that certain Third Amendment to Lease dated as of September 29, 2005 (the "Third Amendment"; the Original Lease as heretofore amended is referred to herein as the "Lease").

C. Tenant has succeeded to the interests and assumed the obligations of Original Tenant as the lessee under the Lease.

D. Landlord has succeeded to the interests and assumed the obligation of Original Landlord as the lessor under the Lease.

E. Landlord and Tenant now desire to further amend the Amended Lease, upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Amendment.

NOW THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt, adequacy and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Lease is hereby modified and amended, and Landlord and Tenant hereby agree, as follows:

1. Recitals Incorporated; Certain Defined Terms. The Recitals set forth above are incorporated into this Amendment and shall be deemed terms and provisions hereof, the same as if fully set forth in this Paragraph 1. Capitalized terms that are used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed to such terms in the Lease.

2. Effectiveness. The parties are entering into this Amendment in connection with the contemplated acquisition of all the outstanding capital stock of Century Theatres, Inc. by Cinemark Holdings, Inc. and Cinemark USA, Inc. (the "Acquisition") pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement dated as of the date hereof (the "Stock Purchase Agreement"). This Amendment shall become automatically effective upon, and only upon, the closing of the Acquisition (the "Effective Date"). In the event the Acquisition is not consummated and the Stock Purchase Agreement is terminated, this Agreement shall become void ab initio and of no force and effect.

3. Initial Term of Lease and Extension Options. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease but subject to the provisions of the Lease applicable to the exercise an validity of such Renewal Terms, the Initial Term of the Lease is hereby extended to and shall expire on  and rather than  Renewal Terms of  each (as provided in the Lease), Tenant shall have the option to extend the Initial Term for  consecutive Renewal Terms of  each, followed by  additional and final Renewal Term of:

4. Landlord's Recapture Right. If, at any time during the term of the Lease, Tenant fails to satisfy the Operating Condition (defined below), for reasons other than Excused Closure (defined below), and such failure continues for six (6) consecutive months or more, then upon notice from Landlord to Tenant at any time thereafter (provided that the Operating Condition remains unsatisfied), Landlord shall have the right to terminate the Lease and to recapture the Leased Premises, without payment to Tenant, effective upon the date set forth in Landlord's termination notice (but not sooner than 30 days after the date of the termination notice).

The term "Operating Condition" shall mean and require that the entire Leased Premises is being continuously operated and regularly open for business to the general public as a motion picture theater complex in accordance with the Lease, at least on such days and at such times that a majority of Century's and Cinemark's other motion picture theater complexes in the State of Nevada typically are open and operating. The term "Excused Closure" shall mean (i) periods of construction, alterations, renovation, remodeling and repair of the Leased Premises undertaken in accordance with this Lease (including repairs and restoration following damage or destruction due to fire or other casualty) provided that Tenant (A) prosecutes such work to completion with reasonable diligence, (B) exercises its reasonable efforts to minimize the length of time of such closure, and (C) exercises its reasonable efforts to limit the number of motion picture screens at the Premises that are not operated due to such closure; (ii) periods when Tenant cannot practicably operate its business in the Premises as a consequence of force majeure; and (iii) additional periods, not to exceed four (4) days in any Lease Year, when Tenant in its sole discretion elects not to operate its business in the Leased Premises.

5. Self-Insurance of Property/Casualty Risks. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Lease, during any period in which Tenant maintains a Net Worth (as defined below) of at least One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000.00), Tenant may self insure the so-called "physical property damage insurance" otherwise required to be maintained by Tenant pursuant to the Lease. As used herein, the "Net Worth" of Tenant at any given time shall mean an amount equal to the sum of (A) the product of (1) Tenant's so-called EBITDA (i.e., earnings before interest, income taxes, depreciation and amortization), calculated in accordance with commercially reasonable past practice preceding the Effective Date by Tenant's parent corporation, over the 12-month period immediately preceding the time of measurement, multiplied by (2) eight (8), plus (B) the amount of cash and cash equivalents held by Tenant on the most recent anniversary of Tenant's annual insurance renewal date, minus (C) the amount of outstanding funded debt of Tenant on such determination date.

6. Damage and Destruction — Repairs by Tenant. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, the following shall apply to repairs and restoration upon damage or destruction:

(A) Tenant's Obligation to Repair. If the Leased Premises are damaged or destroyed by any peril after the Commencement Date of this Lease, then Tenant shall repair the damage and restore the Leased Premises in accordance with this (A) and (B), except as provided in subsection (B) hereinbelow. Unless Tenant is not required to effect the repairs and restoration pursuant to subsection (B) below, Tenant shall promptly apply for and diligently seek to obtain all necessary governmental permits and approvals for the repair and restoration of the Leased Premises and, upon issuance of such governmental permits and approvals, promptly commence and diligently prosecute the completion of the repairs and restoration of the Leased Premises (to the extent permitted by applicable law) to substantially the same condition in which the Leased Premises were immediately prior to such damage or destruction (subject to any alterations which Tenant would be permitted to make to the Leased Premises pursuant to this Lease).

(B) Damage in Excess of 20%. If the Leased Premises are damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty which occurs in the last two years of the Initial Term or any Renewal Term and Tenant has no further options to extend the term of the Lease, and if the cost to repair such damage or to restore the Leased Premises as required in Section (A) exceeds twenty percent (20%) of the replacement cost of the Leased Premises (as determined by an independent architect selected by Tenant and approved by Landlord in Landlord's reasonable discretion) and such damage makes it impracticable to operate the Leased Premises in the reasonable business judgment of Tenant, then (i) Tenant shall have the option, upon notice to Landlord not later than one hundred eighty (180) days following the occurrence of the applicable casualty, not to undertake the repairs and restoration of the Leased Premises, and (ii) if Tenant so elects not to undertake the repairs and restoration, then Tenant nevertheless shall raze Tenant's Building and remove from the Leased Premises all building materials and debris and all underground installations that serve only the Leased Premises (including the footings and foundations of Tenant's Building and the utility lines serving Tenant's Building) and restore the surface of the Premises to a graded and landscaped surface.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, the proceeds of any property insurance maintained by Tenant (including proceeds of self-insurance, if applicable), net of actual-out-of-pocket costs to adjust and settle the loss, shall be distributed to and used by Tenant, in accordance with the Lease.

7. Permitted Assignments and Release. Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, the following shall apply and control:

Subject to the next sentence, Tenant may sublet or assign this Lease only upon receipt of Landlord's written consent which consent Landlord agrees shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned. Notwithstanding anything in this Lease to the contrary, it is agreed that at any time during the term of this Lease, Tenant may, without Landlord's consent or approval (but only upon prior written notice to Landlord), assign this Lease or sublet the Leased Premises to: (i) any wholly-owned subsidiary of Tenant, (ii) any corporation, trust, partnership or individual that owns fifty percent (50%) or more of the issued and outstanding stock of Tenant, or (iii) any legal entity that is engaged in the motion picture exhibition business and operates motion picture theater complexes containing at least 100 theater screens (auditoria), excluding the Leased Premises and any other premises concurrently being acquired from Tenant. A change in control of Tenant shall not constitute an assignment of this Lease requiring Landlord's consent or approval, provided, however, that if any assignee under clause (i) above ceases to be a wholly owned subsidiary of Tenant, then the same shall be deemed to constitute an assignment which is prohibited without Landlord's approval under Article XI of the Lease.

If Tenant shall assign this Lease pursuant to clause (ii) or clause (iii) above, and provided that (A) the assignee assumes in writing all obligations of Tenant under the Lease and delivers such executed written assumption to Landlord, and (B) Landlord shall have received from assignee's chief financial officer or controller a certification that the Net Worth of the assignee (determined as provided above) equals or exceeds $100,000,000.00 calculated in accordance with Cinemark USA, Inc.'s methodology in calculating Net Worth as set forth in Section 5 hereof, then Tenant shall be released of any and all liability thereafter arising under the Lease. Except as expressly provided above, no assignment, subletting or other transfer of the Lease or the Leased Premises shall relieve or release Tenant from any liabilities or obligations arising under the Lease.

8. Leasehold Financing. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, Tenant shall have the right, without Landlord's consent to encumber the leasehold estate created under the Lease and/or to grant a security interest in Tenant's removable trade fixtures, furnishings and equipment located within the Leased Premises (but not to encumber Landlord's fee interest in the Premises), to secure financing provided to Tenant by any bank, thrift institution, insurance company or other institutional lender. Tenant agrees to notify Landlord of any such encumbrance. With respect to any such leasehold financing (and provided that Tenant is not in default under the Lease beyond any applicable notice or cure period), upon thirty (30) days' prior written request from Tenant, Landlord will execute and deliver to the secured lender a "Landlord's Agreement" in the form attached hereto as Exhibit "A-1".

9. Memorandum of Lease. On the Effective Date, Landlord and Tenant will enter into and record a short form memorandum of the Lease, in the form of Exhibit "A-2" attached hereto or otherwise in proper form for recording. Tenant shall be solely responsible for the cost of recording the memorandum, including (if applicable) any transfer taxes that may be due and payable in connection with the Lease.

10. Gross Sales. Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary the definition of Gross Sales shall be as follows:

“Gross Sales” shall mean the total amount of all revenues (whether in cash or credit) generated or derived from the conduct of any business at the Leased Premises, including (without limitation) all box office receipts of or at the Leased Premises (including receipts from tickets or gift certificates redeemed at the Leased Premises regardless of the point of sale), as well as any and all receipts from the sale of goods, services, merchandise, beverages, food, vending machines and video games at the Leased Premises; provided, however, that the following shall be excluded from “Gross Sales” (i) credits and refunds made with respect to admissions or other sales otherwise included in Gross Sales, (ii) all federal, state, county and city admission taxes, sales and use taxes, entertainment taxes, royalty taxes, gross receipt taxes and other similar taxes now or hereafter imposed and owing to the taxing authority by Tenant (whether such taxes are collected from customers separately from the selling price of admission tickets or absorbed by Tenant); (iii) receipts from the sale of gift certificates or tickets sold but not redeemed at the Leased Premises; (iv) with respect to any tickets or admissions ordered or paid for over the internet and redeemed at the Leased Premises, the portion (if any) of the sale price that exceeds Tenant’s actual box-office ticket price; (v) sales price for merchandise returned, (vi) amounts retained by credit card issuers, (vii) sales outside of the ordinary course of business, (viii) amount of credit card sales deemed uncollectible, (ix) advertising revenues including without limitation media, sponsorship, and promotional advertising of any kind, and (x) the receipts of or from so-called “four-wall deals” with a party that is not affiliated with Tenant, except that the portion thereof or other amounts paid to Tenant in connection with such “four-wall deals” shall be included in “Gross Sales” under this Lease. Commissions or surcharges paid to agencies or other third parties not affiliated with Tenant for selling tickets or processing credit card transactions, and any sums paid to third parties not affiliated with Tenant for the use or rental of vending machines, pay telephones, amusement machines and other similar devices shall be deducted from “Gross Sales” (if and to the extent previously included in “Gross Sales”).

11. Alterations by Tenant.

Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, the following shall apply and control:

Tenant shall have the right from time to time, at its sole cost and expense, to make interior alterations, improvements, or changes in the Leased Premises as Tenant shall deem necessary or beneficial in Tenant’s use of the Leased Premises as a motion picture theatre complex, including (without limitation) the conversion to stadium seating of the auditoria (if any) in the Leased Premises. Tenant shall fully and completely indemnify Landlord against any mechanics’ or other liens in connection with the making of such alterations and changes, and shall pay all costs, expenses, and charges thereof. Any alterations, improvements or changes by Tenant must be consistent with the use and operation of the Leased Premises as a motion picture theatre complex. Tenant shall be required to complete all alterations, improvements and changes that Tenant undertakes. Alterations, changes and improvements shall be performed in a first-class manner and must comply with all laws, zoning regulations and ordinances, and any conditions on permits issued pursuant thereto. If it is necessary in Tenant's reasonable judgment to close any of the motion picture screens during the period in which any of Tenant's work permitted hereunder is performed, said closure(s) shall be effected only in accordance with the provisions governing an "Excused Closure", as that term is defined in Section 4 of this Amendment.

12. Rooftop Equipment and Access. Tenant shall have the exclusive right to install, operate, repair, replace and maintain satellite dishes and/or other communication transmission devices (collectively "Rooftop Equipment") on the roof of the theatre necessary or appropriate to accept any transmission of signals to the theatre for all permitted uses, including without limitation, for movies, advertising, concerts, telecasts, corporate meetings or communications and the like; but Tenant shall be prohibited from entering into any leases or licenses with any third parties for retransmission from such Rooftop Equipment, and Tenant shall not retransmit such signals to a third party outside of the Leased Premises. Landlord shall not use, or permit any person or entity (other than Tenant), to use the roof or exterior walls of the theatre for any purpose whatsoever, and Landlord agrees not to enter into any leases or licenses with third parties for the use of the theater rooftop. Landlord shall be responsible for any damage to the rooftop caused by the Landlord or a third party that enters onto the theatre rooftop with Landlord's permission, and Landlord shall indemnify and hold Tenant harmless from all loss, cost, damage or expense which Tenant incurs as a result of the acts or omissions of said third party or their agents or employer. Tenant hereby indemnifies and agrees to hold Landlord and Landlord's successors and assigns harmless from all loss, cost, damage or expense which Landlord incurs as a result of the actions of Tenant, or its agents or employees in installing and utilizing Rooftop Equipment as permitted hereunder.

13. Alterations and Development by Landlord. Landlord agrees that with respect to the Entire Premises, the following restrictions shall apply to Landlord's usage and improvement thereof:

- (i) Any alterations or new construction to the Entire Premises or contiguous property owned or controlled by Landlord or its affiliates as of the Effective Date (the "Contiguous Property") may be made without Tenant's consent only if such alterations or new construction do not materially and adversely affect Tenant's operations (including, without limitation, parking, access, ingress and egress to the theatre building and visibility of the theatre building and/or on-building theatre signage). Any such alterations or new construction on the Entire Premises and any cross parking or cross access arrangements between the Entire Premises and the Contiguous Property will first be submitted to Tenant for approval, not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed, and Tenant shall be required to identify the manner in which Tenant's operations are so affected. If Landlord and Tenant are unable to agree on whether such alteration or new construction materially and adversely affects Tenant's operations, including without limitation, parking, access, ingress and egress and visibility, the parties agree to submit the issue to binding arbitration pursuant to the Lease.

- (ii) Landlord shall not lease, sell or use any space on Non-leased Premises or the Contiguous Property for operating a motion picture theatre.
- (iii) Subject to existing leases, licenses and operating agreements, Landlord shall not lease, license, enter into an operating agreement for, sell or use any space on Non-leased Premises for operating the following: a bowling alley; a bar or lounge (other than a bar or lounge that is connected with a restaurant, deriving 50% of its revenues from the sale of food); a liquor store (other than first-class or upper-end wine or liquor store such as "BevMo"); a bulk candy store, (other than upper-end candy stores such as Godiva, Sees, Rocky Mountain Chocolates and similar concepts); a popcorn store; a massage parlor or adult (i.e., pornographic) book store.
- (iv) Landlord shall not place any carts, kiosks or other temporary structures selling food and/or beverages within common areas of the Entire Premises unless such carts, kiosks or other structures are more than 500 feet from the theatre. Such carts and kiosks may not sell any food or beverages sold in the theatre. Landlord shall not place any vending machines selling food and/or beverages on the common areas of the Entire Premises unless such vending machines are more than 500 feet from the theatre.
- (v) Any new buildings shall be limited to retail, restaurant, residential and/or office uses.

14. Removal of Equipment, Surrender and Demolition. Upon the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of the Lease, and provided Tenant is not in default under the Lease beyond applicable notice and cure periods, and said earlier termination is not due to Tenant's default under the Lease, then for a period extending forty-five (45) days beyond the date of said expiration or termination, Tenant shall be permitted to remove any and all furniture, fixtures and equipment owned and installed by Tenant in, on or to the Leased Premises. Such removal shall be: (a) at Tenant's sole cost and expense; (b) conducted in such manner that no liens or claims shall arise or exist in connection therewith; (c) conducted in a manner to avoid unreasonable interference with the activities of Landlord and subsequent tenants or occupants upon the Leased Premises and Tenant shall repair all damages caused by such removal.

Upon surrender of the Leased Premises by Tenant and removal of its equipment pursuant to the terms of the Lease and this Amendment, Landlord shall be responsible for the cost of any demolition of the Leased Premises and site grading and restoration as a result, except as otherwise provided in the Lease. Such demolition shall be undertaken in Landlord's sole discretion and at such times, manner and upon such events as Landlord solely shall determine.

15.  Rent Conversion and Early Termination upon opening of Nearby Theatre.

- (a) If a motion picture theatre complex (other than motion picture theatre complexes that exist as of the Effective Date) located within  of the theatre (the "Nearby Theatre") commences operation after the Effective Date of this Amendment and thereafter during any consecutive twelve (12) calendar month period (the "First Test Period"), the Theatre Level Cash Flow ("TLCF"), as defined in Exhibit "A-3" hereto, for the Leased Premises is less than , then upon notice from Tenant to Landlord at any time when the most current trailing twelve (12) month period was  or within forty-five (45) days after such First Test Period, the  Rent Conversion (defined below) will become effective; provided, however, that such notice and Tenant's right to the  Rent Conversion as provided in this subparagraph (a) shall be void and ineffective unless Tenant shall have satisfied the Operating Condition (defined above) continuously throughout the First Test Period. In order to be effective, Tenant's notice to Landlord under this subparagraph (a) shall include a written certification to Landlord from Tenant's chief financial officer or controller confirming that the TLCF for the First Test Period is less than . Provided Tenant has satisfied the aforesaid conditions, then effective as of the first day of the first calendar month following Landlord's receipt of Tenant's notice as provided above and thereafter so long as Tenant continues to satisfy the Operating Condition, in lieu of Base Rent and Percentage Rent otherwise due under the Lease (but not in lieu of Tenant's share of Impositions or any other amounts payable by Tenant under the Lease, which will continue to be due and payable by Tenant as provided in the Lease) Tenant shall pay to Landlord on a monthly basis an amount equal to  of Tenant's Gross Sales, as defined in Section 10 above (the  Rent Conversion"). Such amount shall be paid by Tenant monthly in arrears on or before the thirtieth (30th) day after the end of each calendar month. Within sixty (60) days following the end of each fiscal year, Tenant shall provide certification of Tenant's Gross Sales for the applicable period, executed by the chief financial officer or the controller of Tenant, which shall be subject to the same year-end reporting and reconciliation procedures and the verification and audit rights of Landlord that apply to Percentage Rent under this Lease.

(b) (i) If the  Rent Conversion occurs and thereafter during any consecutive twelve (12) calendar month period (the "Second Test Period"), the TLCF for the Leased Premises is less than , then Tenant shall have the right, to be exercised by written notice to Landlord at any time when the most current trailing twelve (12) month period was  or within forty-five (45) days after such Second Test Period to terminate the Lease as provided below in this subparagraph (b); provided, however, that such notice and Tenant's right to terminate the Lease as provided in this subparagraph (b) shall be void and ineffective unless Tenant shall have satisfied the Operating Condition (defined above) continuously throughout the Second Test Period. In order to be effective, Tenant's notice to Landlord under this subparagraph (b) shall include a written certification to Landlord from Tenant's chief financial officer or controller that the TLCF for the Second Test Period is less than . Provided Tenant has satisfied the aforesaid conditions, then this Lease shall be terminated effective as of the date which is thirty (30) days after the termination notice.

(ii) If the  Rent Conversion occurs and if, at anytime thereafter Tenant reasonably determines that it is necessary or appropriate to undertake in any prospective 12-month period (the "Cap Ex Test Period"), aggregate capital expenditures (i.e., expenditures required to be capitalized rather than expensed under Tenant's normal income tax accounting procedures) for any repairs and maintenance to the Leased

Premises in excess of  which Tenant is otherwise unwilling to make, then, Tenant shall have the right and option to terminate the Lease upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to Landlord, subject to the following terms and conditions: (A) Tenant's notice of termination shall specify in reasonable detail the applicable capital expenditures (the "Cap Ex Projects"), the projected commencement date of each Cap Ex Project and the estimated costs thereof (the "Projected Cap Ex Costs"), prior to incurring same and prior to the commencement of the Cap Ex Test Period; (B) Landlord shall have the ability (but not the obligation) to nullify Tenant's exercise of the termination option set forth in this subclause (ii) by delivering written notice to Tenant within ten (10) business days after the date of its receipt of Tenant's termination notice stating either that (1) Landlord shall reimburse Tenant for the amount by which the actual cost incurred by Tenant (within 30 days of receipt of reasonable documentation of such expense) during the Cap Ex Test Period for the identified Cap Ex Projects (but not more than the Projected Cap Ex Costs) exceed , or (2) Landlord waives its right to terminate this Lease pursuant to Section 15(c) below during the applicable Cap Ex Test Period; (C) if Landlord so nullifies Tenant's purported termination, then Tenant shall be required to undertake the Cap Ex Projects not later than thirty (30) days after the applicable dates specified in Tenant's notice of termination and thereafter to diligently prosecute the Cap Ex Projects to completion, at Tenant's sole cost and expense (subject to reimbursement from Landlord as provided above, if applicable); and (D) if Tenant fails to undertake and complete the identified Cap Ex Projects as aforesaid, then (x) such failure shall constitute a default by Tenant under the Lease, and (y) Landlord's termination rights under Section 15(c) below will be immediately reinstated (notwithstanding the waiver pursuant to clause (2) above, if applicable).

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Lease, including Section 14 above, if Tenant elects to terminate this Lease pursuant to this Section 15 and Landlord demolishes the theatre building of the Leased Premise within twelve (12) months after the date of termination, then Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the actual out-of-pocket costs incurred by Landlord to demolish the theatre building (including, without limitation, the costs to remove from the Leased Premises all building materials and debris and all footings, foundations, utility lines and other underground installations that serve the Leased Premises and the costs to restore the surface of the Premises to a graded and landscaped surface); provided, however, that Tenant's reimbursement obligations shall not exceed an amount equal to the product of  psf multiplied by the ground floor area of the theatre building (in square feet). Tenant shall pay the amount due under this paragraph within thirty (30) days after receiving Landlord's written demand for reimbursement, which shall include reasonable supporting documentation confirming the costs so incurred by Landlord. Tenant's obligations under this paragraph shall expressly survive the termination of the Lease.

(c) If the  Rent Conversion occurs, then Landlord shall have the right at anytime thereafter to terminate this Lease upon not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Tenant.

16. Remedies. The references in Article XV of the Lease to California Code Sections shall be disregarded. In the event of a breach or default by Tenant which is not cured within the applicable cure periods (if any) set forth in the Lease, Landlord shall have any and all remedies now or later allowed by law or equity.

17. Intentionally Omitted.

18. Notices. The notices provisions of the Lease, as the case may be, shall be deemed deleted in their entirety and replaced with the following:

(a) Except as otherwise expressly and specifically in this Lease provided, a bill, demand, statement, consent, notice or other communication ("notice") which either party may desire or be required to give to the other party shall be deemed sufficiently given or rendered if in writing, delivered personally to the party to be charged therewith or sent by certified mail (return receipt requested) or private express mail courier service (postage or delivery or courier fees fully prepaid) addressed to such party at the addresses set forth in subparagraph (c) below (including the addresses for copies of notices) and/or at such other address(es) as such party shall designate to the other party by notice given as herein provided. If Landlord is notified of the identity and address of Tenant's Leasehold Mortgagee, Landlord shall give such party any notice served upon Tenant hereunder to the last known address of such Leasehold Mortgagee as provided by Tenant to Landlord by certified mail or private express courier service. If Tenant is notified of the identity and address of Landlord's mortgagee, Tenant shall give such mortgagee any notice served upon Landlord hereunder to the last known address of such mortgagee as provided by Landlord to Tenant, by certified mail or private express courier service.

(b) Any notice given in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section shall be deemed effective upon the earlier of (i) if the notice is personally delivered, the date actually received by intended recipient, (ii) if the notice is sent by certified mail, five (5) days after the same is mailed, or (iii) if the notice is sent by private overnight courier service (e.g., Federal Express, DHL or similar courier), one (1) day after the same is delivered to or picked up by such courier. Rejection or refusal to accept a notice or the inability to deliver same because of a changed address of which no notice was given shall be deemed to be a receipt of the notice sent. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Lease, no provision in this Lease shall preclude service of notices in accordance with applicable law.

A) Beginning on the Initial Rent Due Date, Tenant shall pay to Landlord during the Lease Term a "Base Rent" of  The Base Rent is sometimes referred to herein as the "Minimum Monthly Rent" and shall be subject to adjustment every  after the Initial Rent Due Date as set forth in Section 4.01 B below.

B) The Minimum Monthly Rent shall apply from the Rent Commencement Date through the end of the  Lease Year of the Term. The Minimum Monthly Rent shall be increased (but never decreased) on the first day of the  Lease Year and on the first day of each  Lease Year thereafter during the Term by a percentage equal to the percentage of increase from the "base period" (as hereinafter defined in this Section) of the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers, Las Vegas, Subgroup "All Items", (1982-84=100) (the "Consumer Price Index"); provided, however, in no event shall the Minimum Monthly Rent be increased by an amount that is less than  greater than the Minimum Monthly Rent payable before the adjustment date in question.

In the event that the Consumer Price Index is not available, the successor or substitute index shall be used for the computations herein set forth. In the event that the Consumer Price Index or such successor or substitute index is not published, a reliable governmental or other non-partisan publication evaluating the information theretofore used in determining the Consumer Price Index shall be used by Landlord for the computations herein set forth. For the purposes of the computations herein set forth, the basis for any substitute or successor index or such governmental or non-partisan publication shall be converted to a basis of 100 only in the event that the basis used in such index or publication is less than 100.

4.02 Percentage Rent. In addition to the payment of Base Rent, Tenant shall pay to Landlord for each Lease Year during the Term of this Lease, as Percentage Rent a sum equal to the amount by which  of the Gross Sales for such Lease Year exceeds the Base Rent which is payable for such Lease Year equal to the quotient obtained by dividing the annual fixed rate for such Lease year by the percentage rate.

Tenant agrees to furnish Landlord a statement certified by its chief financial or similar office of its Gross Sales within ninety (90) days after the close of each Lease Year and calculation of Percentage Rent, if any, due for such Lease Year. Tenant shall concurrently with the delivery of such statement, pay to Landlord any Percentage Rent due for such Lease Year.

The receipt by Landlord of any statement or any payment of Percentage Rent for any period shall not bind it as to the correctness of the statement or the Payment. Landlord shall within three years after the receipt of any such statement be entitled to an audit of such Gross Sales. Such audit shall be limited to the determination of the Gross Sales as defined in this Lease and shall be conducted during normal business hours at the principal place of business of Tenant. If it is determined as a result of such audit that there has been a deficiency in the payment of Percentage Rent, then such deficiency shall become immediately due any payable with interest at the annual rate of 18% from the date when said payment should have been made until paid. Any information gained from such statements or inspection shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed other than to carry out the purposes hereof. If such audit shall disclose that Tenant has understated the Gross Sales for such Lease Year by more than three (3%) and Landlord is entitled to any additional Annual Percentage Rent, Tenant shall pay to Landlord all of Landlord's reasonable cost of such audit.

4.03 Rent Payments Rent and other sums to be paid by Tenant shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America. All payments shall be made by Tenant to Landlord without notice or demand.

4.05 Late Payment of Rent. In the event that any monthly installment of rent is not paid within ten (10) days after first written notice from Landlord that such payment is past due, Tenant shall pay Landlord interest on such unpaid rent at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum computed from the date such rent installment was due until the date actually paid.

ARTICLE V

TAXES, ASSESSMENTS AND UTILITIES

5.01 Impositions.

A) The term "Impositions" shall mean all real estate taxes, duties or assessments (special or otherwise), water and sewer rents, whether ordinary or extraordinary, general or special, foreseen or unforeseen, of any kind and nature whatsoever, which, at any time during the Lease Term, shall be assessed or levied, or be attributable in any manner to the Premises, or the rents receivable therefrom, or any part thereof or any use thereon or any facility located therein or used in connection therewith, whether or not any of the foregoing shall be a so-called "real estate tax" expressly excluding, however, any such items arising directly or indirectly out of any act or omission of Landlord, any of Landlord's predecessors in title or any other person occurring prior to the commencement of the Term. From and after the Initial Rent Due Date, Tenant shall pay all Impositions assessed, levied or attributable to the Premises and/or the Improvements on the Premises. All Impositions or installments thereof payable with respect to the tax year in which this Lease shall commence, and all Impositions or installments thereof with respect to the tax year in which this Lease shall terminate, shall be pro-rated on a daily basis; provided, however, that assessments or escape assessments assessed as a result of this Lease and/or the construction of Tenant Improvements by Tenant shall not be prorated and shall be paid solely by Tenant; and provided further that assessments attributable to Tenant Improvements made in the final year of the Lease shall be paid solely by Tenant if Tenant demolishes the Tenant Building.

B) With respect to Impositions which by law may be paid in installments over a period of time, Landlord shall be deemed to have elected (the "Installment Election") to pay such Impositions over the longest period of time permitted by law, regardless of whether Landlord has in fact so elected. With respect to each year in which the Installment Election is effective and with respect to the Impositions associated with Tenant's premises subject to the Installment Election, Tenant's share of such Imposition(s) for each year shall be the pro rata share of the amount which would be required to be paid to the collecting authority as if Landlord had in fact made the Installment Election.

C) In the event the Premises are separately assessed by the taxing authority, Tenant shall pay all such real property taxes directly to the taxing authority prior to delinquency. In the event Tenant fails to pay such real property taxes as provided herein, Landlord may, but shall not be required to, pay the same, and any amount so paid by Landlord shall immediately thereafter become due to Landlord from Tenant as Additional Rent with interest thereon at the rate of 18% per annum from the date of Landlord's payment plus any fine, penalty, interest or cost which is levied by the taxing authority for such late payment.

D) In the event the Premises are not separately assessed by the taxing authority, Tenant shall pay all such real property taxes to the Landlord prior to delinquency. In the event Tenant fails to pay to Landlord such real property taxes as provided herein, Tenant shall pay Landlord in addition interest thereon at the rate of 18% per annum from the delinquency date until such payment has been made.

5.02 Proration of Taxes. If the Premises comprise a tax lot or lots with other property owned by Landlord or other parties ("Other Premises") assessed for real estate tax purposes, together with said Other Premises, immediately after the Commencement Date, Landlord and Tenant shall attempt to cause the appropriate taxing authorities to assess the Premises for real estate tax purposes separately from all Other Premises. During any period in which the Premises are assessed for real estate purposes, together with any Other Premises, Landlord will pay, before the last day on which payment may be made without penalty or interest, all Impositions which shall be levied against the Other Premises.

5.03 Exceptions from Impositions: Charges in Lieu of Impositions.

A) Nothing herein contained shall require Tenant to pay any estate, inheritance, succession, capital levy, corporate franchise, gross receipts, transfer, or income tax of Landlord, nor shall any of the same be deemed to be included within the term "Impositions" as defined herein.

B) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article V, if at any time after the date of this Lease the present method of taxation or assessment shall be changed so that in lieu of, as a substitute for (whether in whole or in part) or as a supplement to (provided such supplemental tax relates to real estate or revenues from real estate and not to other property or business as well) the taxes now levied, assessed or imposed on real estate and buildings and Improvements thereon, a tax shall be imposed, assessed or levied wholly or partly on the Rent, or a tax, assessment, levy or charge, measured or based, in whole or in part, on the Premises or on the rents derived therefrom, shall be imposed on Landlord, then Tenant shall pay taxes so measured or based only to the extent that such taxes would be payable if the Premises were the only property of Landlord subject to such taxes, or the income from operation of the Premises were Landlord's only income, as the case may be.

5.04 Contest of Taxes. Tenant at its sole cost and expense may by appropriate legal proceedings conducted in good faith and with due diligence, contest the amount or validity or application, in whole or in part, of any Imposition or lien therefor, or any other lien, encumbrance or charge against the Premises arising from work done or materials provided to or for Tenant. Tenant shall give Landlord reasonable notice of, and information pertaining to, such contest and regular progress reports with respect thereto.

Landlord shall cooperate with any effort pursued by Tenant in accordance with this Section 5.05. Tenant shall indemnify, protect and hold harmless Landlord and the Premises from any lien or liability with respect to any such Imposition or contest thereof, including all costs and expenses related thereto. Landlord shall provide Tenant with copies of notice when received by Landlord from the taxing authorities of any assessments or reassessments of the Premises in sufficient time (but in no event later than thirty (30) days after Landlord's receipt of the same) to enable Tenant to contest the same in accordance with the provisions of this Section 5.05.

5.05 Utilities. Tenant shall pay before delinquency, directly to the appropriate company or governmental agency, all charges for all utilities, including, but not limited to, water, gas, electricity, sewer, power, telephone, other communication services and refuse disposal consumed on the Premises.

5.06 Personal Property Taxes. During the term of this Lease, Tenant shall pay before delinquency any and all personal property taxes levied or assessed against any personal property located upon the Premises. If Tenant fails to timely pay such taxes and a lien is filed against the Premises, Landlord may discharge such lien, if Tenant fails to discharge such lien within ten (10) days following Tenant's receipt of notice from Landlord, including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees, together with interest at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum from the date of expenditure, such additional rent being due and payable within ten (10) days of notice thereof.

ARTICLE VI

INSURANCE

6.01 Acquisition of Insurance Policies. Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, procure and maintain, or cause to be procured and maintained, during the entire Term the insurance described in this Section (or its then available equivalent), and shall name Landlord and any other parties requested by Landlord as an additional insured.

6.02 Types of Required Insurance. Tenant shall procure and maintain the following:

A) Commercial General Liability Insurance. Commercial general liability insurance insuring against injuries or damages to persons or property sustained in, on or about the Premises, Common Area and the appurtenances thereto, including the sidewalks and alleyways adjacent thereto, with limits of liability no less than Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000) per occurrence and in the aggregate.

B) Builder's Risk Insurance. During any restorations, alterations or changes in the Premises that may be made by Tenant at a cost in excess of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000) per job, contingent liability and builder's risk insurance upon the entire work on the Premises to the current one hundred percent (100%) replacement value thereof against "all risks" of physical loss or damage to the property insured, excluding earthquake and/or other earth movements and flood.

C) Physical Property Damage Insurance. During the term hereof, Tenant shall keep Tenant's Building (excluding foundations and footings), all improvements on the Premises and personal property insured in the name of Landlord and Tenant against damage or destruction by fire and the perils commonly covered under the extended coverage endorsement (with vandalism and malicious mischief coverage) excluding earthquake and flood to the extent of not less than the full replacement value thereof less any deductible applicable to all of Tenant's theatres insured under a blanket policy. Tenant shall be responsible for determining the amount of fire and extended coverage insurance to be maintained subject to Landlord's consent, which consent is not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The proceeds of such insurance in case of loss or damage shall be held in trust and applied on account of the obligation of Tenant to repair and/or rebuild the Leased Premises pursuant to the Article captioned "Damage Clause" to the extent that such proceeds are required for such purpose. The insurance required to be carried by Tenant under this paragraph may be covered under a so-called "blanket" policy covering other operations of Tenant and its affiliates. Tenant shall name Landlord and any parties requested by Landlord and any holder of a mortgage on Tenant's Building pursuant to a standard mortgage clause with respect to the foregoing hazard insurance, provided such holder agrees with Landlord in writing to disburse such insurance

6.04 Landlord's Acquisition of Insurance. If Tenant at any time during the Term fails to procure or maintain insurance required hereunder or to pay the premiums therefor, Landlord shall have the right to procure the same and to pay any and all premiums thereon, and any amounts paid by Landlord in connection with the acquisition of insurance shall be immediately due and payable as additional rent, and Tenant shall pay to Landlord upon demand the full amount so paid and expended by Landlord. Any policies of insurance obtained by Landlord covering physical damage to the Premises shall contain a waiver of subrogation against Tenant if and to the extent such waiver is obtainable and if Tenant pays to Landlord on demand the additional costs, if any, incurred in obtaining such waiver.

6.05 Insurance Money and Other Funds Held in Trust. All insurance money or condemnation proceeds as provided in Article XIV, received by the Tenant shall be turned over to Landlord and held in trust by Landlord and, except as provided otherwise in Section 6.06, shall be applied as follows:

First, to any Leasehold Mortgagee as required under the terms of its Leasehold Mortgage provided that such Mortgage was of record and secured a loan made or committed to Landlord in compliance with all of the terms and conditions of this Lease prior to the occurrence of such loss; second, for the purpose of defraying the cost of repairing, restoring, replacing and/or rebuilding any structure or improvement on or in the Premises as required as provided in Section 6.06 hereof; and third, if the damaged or destroyed structure or improvement is not repaired, restored, replaced or rebuilt as hereinafter provided, said funds shall be disposed of as provided in Section 6.06. Any of said funds in the hands of the Tenant or Landlord at the end of the Term hereof shall be disposed of as set forth in Section 6.06 (A).

6.06 Application or Proceeds of Physical Damage Insurance. In case of any insurance policies as described in Section 6.02 (B) (Physical Property Damage Insurance) the application of insurance proceeds from damage or loss to property shall be determined in part in accordance with Article XVII hereof and, in the event of any such repair, replacement, restoration or rebuilding, the Landlord shall disburse the proceeds of the insurance collected to Tenant to pay the cost of such work upon certificate of satisfactory progress and/or completion in form satisfactory to Landlord by the licensed architect or engineer in charge of the work. Upon completion of such repair, replacement, restoration or rebuilding in accordance with the provisions of this Lease, and the full payment therefor (so no liens, encumbrances or claims with respect thereto can be asserted against the Premises, this Lease, Landlord or Tenant), any insurance proceeds received by the Landlord or Tenant with respect to the damage or destruction involved, and not used, shall remain the property of Landlord.

A) Distribution of Unutilized Proceeds. At the termination of this Lease, such insurance proceeds or condemnation awards received and held by the Landlord and not used for repair, replacement or reconstruction ("Available Proceeds"), shall be disposed as follows:

(1) First, Landlord shall be awarded an amount sufficient to remove any improvements not repaired and to return the Property to the level of adjacent streets ("grade level"); and

(2) Second, any remainder shall be paid to Landlord..

6.07 Cooperation for Insurance Proceeds. Landlord and Tenant shall each cooperate with the other in order to obtain the largest possible recovery and execute any and all consents and other instruments and take all other actions reasonably necessary or desirable to effectuate the same and cause such proceeds to be paid as hereinbefore provided. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, neither party shall carry any insurance concurrent in coverage and contributing in the event of loss with any insurance required to be furnished by the other hereunder if the effect of separate insurance would be to reduce the protection or the payment to be made under such party's insurance or under the insurance required to be furnished by the other.

6.08 Waiver of Right of Recovery. Landlord and Tenant hereby release each other from any and all liability and responsibility to one another and, to the extent legally possible to do so on behalf of their respective insurers and anyone claiming through or under either of them, by way of subrogation or otherwise, hereby waive any liability for any and all loss or damage which is of the type covered by fire and extended coverage insurance described in this Article, irrespective of any negligence on the part of the other party which may have contributed to or caused such loss. Every insurance policy carried by either party with respect to the Premises or Tenant's Building or land or improvements adjoining the Premises owned or leased by Landlord shall (if it can be so written and does not result in a material additional premium) include provisions denying to the insurer subrogation rights against the other party and any fee or leasehold mortgage to the extent such rights have been waived by the insured prior to the occurrence of damage or loss. If the waiver of subrogation otherwise is not effective, each party covenants that it will obtain for the benefit of the other party an express waiver of any right of subrogation which the insurer of such party may acquire against the other party by virtue of the payment of any such loss covered by such insurance. In the event either party is by law, statute, governmental regulation, economically unfeasible or other factor beyond such party's reasonable control unable to obtain a waiver of the right of subrogation for the benefit of the other party, then, during any period of time when such waiver is unobtainable, said party shall be deemed not to have released any subrogated claim of its insurance carrier against the other party, and during the same period of time the other party shall be deemed not to have released the party who has been unable to obtain such waiver from any claims they or their insurance carriers may assert which otherwise would have been released pursuant to this Section. In the event that either party is unable to obtain such waiver of the right of subrogation for the benefit of the other party, such party shall, within thirty (30) days of receiving notice of such inability, give the other party written notice of such inability.

ARTICLE VII

7.01 Alterations-Changes.

A) At any time and from time to time during the Lease Term, Tenant may, at its sole expense, make any alterations, additions or changes, whether structural or nonstructural, to any portion or all of any Improvements which may exist at any time and from time to time on any portion of the Premises, and may, at its option, construct new Improvements on the Premises, or remove or demolish Improvements on the Premises, provided that all such alterations or changes in Improvements and new Improvements shall be performed in a first-class manner and must comply with all laws, zoning regulations and ordinances, and any conditions on permits issued pursuant thereto. If the change, alteration or addition is structural or exterior in nature Landlord's written approval shall be first obtained.

B) Tenant shall at all times keep the Premises or any part thereof, free and clear of all liens and claims for labor or material and free and clear of all attachments, executions and notices.

(C) Upon termination of this Lease, Tenant may not remove any personal property and trade fixtures including, but not limited to theatre seats, projection and sound equipment, snack bar equipment and computers.

7.02 Repairs — Maintenance. Upon the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease, Tenant covenants to remove from the Premises, and/or Entire Premises at its sole cost and expense, any and all Hazardous Materials, including any equipment or systems containing Hazardous Materials, which are brought upon, stored, used, generated or released into the environment at or above actionable levels by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Tenant hereby indemnifies and defends (with counsel experienced and competent in litigating issues of Hazardous Materials) Landlord and agrees to hold Landlord, the Premises and the Entire Premises free and harmless from and against any and all claims, judgments, damages, penalties, fines, costs, liabilities and losses (including, without limitation, diminution in the value of the Premises, damages for the loss or restriction on use of rentable space or of any amenity of the Premises, and sums paid in settlement of claims, attorneys' fees, consultant fees and expert fees) which arise directly or indirectly from the presence of actionable levels of Hazardous Materials on, in or about the Premises which is through Tenant's (or its agents, employees, contractors or invitees) acts or omissions brought upon, stored, used, generated or released into the environment by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees (referred to as "Tenant's Environmental Acts"). This indemnification by Tenant of Landlord includes, without limitation, any and all costs incurred in connection with any investigation of site conditions or any clean up, remedial, removal or restoration work required by any federal, state or local governmental agency or political subdivision because of the presence of such Hazardous Materials in, on or about the Premises, or the soil or ground water on or under the Premises or any portion thereof due to Tenant's Environmental Acts. Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of any release of Hazardous Materials in the Premises, which Tenant becomes aware of during the term of this Lease, caused by Tenant's Environmental Acts. Landlord agrees to indemnify, defend and hold Tenant harmless from all claims, judgments, damages, penalties, fines, costs, resulting from the presence of Hazardous Materials on or about the Premises, (i) on the Commencement Date of this Lease, and/or (ii) during or after the term of this Lease, if the presence of Hazardous Materials results from any cause other than Tenant's Environmental Acts.

B) Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of, and shall promptly provide Landlord with true, correct, complete and legible copies of all of the following environmental items relating to the Premises which may be filed or prepared by or on behalf of, or delivered to or served upon Tenant: reports filed pursuant to any self-reporting requirements, reports filed pursuant to any applicable laws or this Lease, all permit applications, permits, monitoring reports, workplace exposure and community exposure warnings or notices and all other reports, disclosures, plans or documents (excluding those which may be reasonably characterized as confidential) relating to water discharges, air pollution, waste generation or disposal, underground storage tanks or Hazardous Materials.

C) In addition to Tenant's routine reporting obligations described in (B) above, Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of, and shall promptly provide Landlord with true, correct, complete and legible copies of, all of the following environmental items relating to the Premises which may be filed or prepared by or on behalf of, or delivered to or served upon, Tenant: all orders, reports, listings and correspondence (excluding those which may be reasonably considered confidential) of or concerning the release, investigation of, compliance, clean up, remedial and corrective actions, and abatement of Hazardous Materials whether or not required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by or given pursuant to any applicable laws, and all complaints, pleading and other legal documents filed against Tenant related to Tenant's use, handling, storage or disposal of Hazardous Materials. In the event of a release of any Hazardous Materials in, on or about the Premises, Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord and provide Landlord with copies of all reports and correspondence with or from all governmental agencies, authorities or any other persons relating to such release.

D) Landlord, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall have the right, but not the obligation, to join and participate in any legal proceedings or actions initiated in connection with any claims or causes of action arising out of the storage, generation, use or disposal by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees, of Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises caused by Tenant's Environmental Acts which results in (i) injury to any person, (ii) injury to or any contamination of the Premises or (iii) injury to or contamination of any real or personal property wherever situated. Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall promptly take all actions necessary to return the Premises to the condition existing prior to the introduction of such Hazardous Materials to the Premises and to remedy or repair any such injury or contamination. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall not, without Landlord's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or denied or conditioned or delayed, take any remedial action in response to the presence of any Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises or enter into any settlement agreement, consent decree or other compromise with any governmental agency with respect to any Hazardous Materials claims; provided, however, Landlord's prior written consent shall not be necessary in the event that the presence of Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises (i) poses an immediate threat to the health, safety or welfare of any individual or (ii) is of such nature that an immediate remedial response is necessary and it is not possible to obtain Landlord's consent before taking such action.

8.03 Remedial Work. In the event any investigation or monitoring of site conditions or any clean-up, containment, restoration, removal or other remedial work ("Remedial Work") is required (a) under any applicable federal, state or local law or regulation, (b) by any judicial, arbitral or administrative order, (c) to comply with any agreements affecting the Premises or (d) to maintain the Premises in a standard of environmental condition which presents no risk to safety or health, prevents the release of any hazardous materials to adjacent property and otherwise is consistent with the prudent ownership of property of the character of the Premises and/or Tenant's Building and if such Remedial Work is required as a direct result of Tenant's Environmental Acts, then Tenant at Tenant's sole cost and expense, including without limitation, any taxes or penalties assessed in connection with the Remedial Work, shall perform or cause to be performed such Remedial Work; and if such Remedial Work is required for any reason other than Tenant's Environmental Acts, then, Landlord, at Landlord's sole cost and expense, including without limitation, any taxes or penalties assessed in connection with the Remedial Work, shall perform or cause to be performed such Remedial Work. All Remedial Work shall be conducted (i) in a diligent and timely fashion by licensed contractors acting under the supervision of a consulting environmental engineer, (ii) pursuant to a detailed written plan for the Remedial Work approved by any public or private agencies or persons with a legal or contractual right to such approval, (iii) with such insurance coverage pertaining to liabilities arising out of the Remedial Work as is then customarily maintained with respect to such activities, and (iv) only following receipt of any required permits, licenses or approvals. The selection of the Remedial Work contractors, any disclosures to or agreements with any public or private agencies or parties relating to Remedial Work and the written plan for the Remedial Work (and any changes thereto) each shall be subject to the other party's prior written approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, denied, conditioned or delayed. In addition, the party doing the Remedial Work shall submit to the other party, promptly upon receipt or preparation, copies of any and all reports, studies, analyses, correspondence, governmental comments or approvals, proposed removal or other remedial work contracts and similar information prepared or received by such party in connection with any Remedial Work or Hazardous Materials relating to the Premises. In the event the party responsible therefor should fail to commence or cause to be commenced in a timely fashion, or fail diligently to prosecute to completion, such Remedial Work, the other party (following written notice) may, but shall not be required to, cause such Remedial Work to be performed, and all costs and expenses thereof, or incurred in connection therewith (i) in the case where Tenant is the responsible party, shall be paid as additional rent due and payable within thirty (30) days of Landlord's invoice therefor, or (ii) in the case where Landlord is the responsible party, shall be paid by Landlord to Tenant within thirty (30) days of Tenant's invoice therefor, and if not timely paid by Landlord, in addition to all other rights and remedies, Tenant shall have the right of offset against rent which may become due. Neither party shall be obligated to perform Remedial Work under this Section while it is contesting the application of any law, regulation or order, provided the other party is not exposed to any additional liability, risk or damages. Obligations under this Section are solely for the benefit of the parties, their successors, and assigns and any subtenants of this Lease, and not for any other third parties.

8.04 Maintenance of Premises.

A) Subject to Tenant's obligation under Section 8.02(A), Tenant at its sole cost and expense shall keep and maintain the Premises in compliance with, and shall not cause or permit the Premises to be in violation of, any federal, state or local laws, statutes, ordinances, orders, guidelines, rules or regulations relating to health and safety, to industrial hygiene or to environmental conditions on, under or about the Premises, including, but not limited to, air, soil and ground water conditions.

B) Tenant shall be liable and responsible for any Hazardous Materials which Tenant causes to be brought onto the Premises.

8.05 Landlord's Responsibilities and Tenant's Indemnity.

A) Landlord shall not, without prior advance notice to Tenant, cause or permit any Hazardous Materials to be brought upon, stored, used, generated, released into the environment or disposed of, on, in, under or about the Entire Premises, the Common Area, or any other portion of the Premises by Landlord, its agents, employees, tenants, contractors or invitees, in violation of any law.

B) Landlord shall promptly notify Tenant of, and shall promptly provide Tenant with true, correct, complete and legible copies of, all of the following environmental items relating to the Entire Premises which may be filed or prepared by or on behalf of, or delivered to or served upon, Landlord: all orders, reports, listings and correspondence (even those which may be considered confidential) of or concerning the release, investigation of, compliance, clean up, remedial and corrective actions, and abatement of Hazardous Materials whether or not required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by or given pursuant to any applicable laws, and all complaints, pleading and other legal documents filed against Landlord related to Landlord's or Landlord's other tenant's use, handling, storage or disposal of Hazardous Materials. In the event of a release of any Hazardous Materials in, on or about the Entire Premises, Landlord shall promptly notify Tenant and provide Tenant with copies of all reports and correspondence with or from all governmental agencies, authorities or any other persons relating to such release.

C) Except for the obligations of Tenant as set forth in this Article VIII, Landlord shall exonerate, indemnify, pay and protect, defend and hold harmless (with counsel reasonably approved by Tenant) and save Tenant and Tenant's successors and assigns, and their directors, trustees, beneficiaries, officers, shareholders, employees and agents (collectively, Tenant's "Related Parties"), harmless from and against any claims (including, without limitation, third party claims for personal injury or real or personal property damage), actions, administrative proceedings (including informal proceedings), judgments, damages, punitive damages, penalties, fines, costs, taxes, assessments, liabilities (including sums paid in settlement of claims), interest or losses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses (including any such fees and expenses incurred in enforcing this provision or collecting any sums due hereunder), consultant fees, and expert fees, together with all other costs and expenses of any kind or nature (collectively, the "Costs") that arise directly or indirectly in connection with the presence, suspected presence, release or suspected release of any Hazardous Materials in or into the air, soil, groundwater, surface water or improvements at, on, about, under or within the Premises, or any portion thereof, or elsewhere in connection with the transportation of Hazardous Materials to or from the Premises or the Entire Premises. In the event Tenant or any of its Related Parties shall suffer or incur any such Costs, Landlord shall pay to Tenant or such Related Party the total of all such Costs suffered or incurred by Tenant or such Related party upon demand therefor. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the indemnification provided by this Section 8.05 shall specifically cover Costs, including capital, operating and maintenance costs, incurred in connection with any investigation or monitoring of site conditions, any clean-up, containment, remedial, removal or restoration work required or performed by any federal, state or local governmental agency or political subdivision or performed by any nongovernmental entity or person because of the presence, suspected presence, release or suspected release of any Hazardous Materials in or into the air, soil, groundwater, surface water or improvements, at, on, about, under or within the Premises (or any portion thereof), or elsewhere in connection with the transportation of, Hazardous Materials to or from the Premises and any claims of third parties for loss or damage due to such Hazardous Materials.

If Tenant is in default with any of the provisions of this Article VIII, Landlord and Landlord's agents and employees shall have the right, but not the obligation, without Limitation upon any of Landlord's other rights and remedies under this Lease, to immediately enter upon the Premises and to discharge Tenant's obligations under this Article VIII at Tenant's expense, notwithstanding any other provisions of this Lease. Landlord and Landlord's agents and employees shall endeavor to minimize interference with Tenant's business. All sums reasonably disbursed, deposited or incurred by Landlord in connection therewith, including, but not limited to, all costs, expenses and actual attorneys' fees, shall be due and payable by Tenant to Landlord, as an item of additional rent, on demand by Landlord, together with interest thereon at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum.

Provided however, that as a condition to any subordination of this Lease, the mortgagees or beneficiaries of any deed of trust and their successors and assigns (the "Mortgagee") shall agree to recognize the interest of Tenant and abide by the terms of this Lease in the event of any foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure, including the right to quiet enjoyment of the Premises, without any condition, limitation or restriction. As a further condition of such subordination, Landlord, Tenant and the Mortgagee shall enter into a non-disturbance and attornment agreement in a form reasonably acceptable to all parties executing such instrument.

ARTICLE XIV
CONDEMNATION — EMINENT DOMAIN

14.01 Definitions. The following definitions apply in construing provisions of this Lease relating to a taking of or damage to all or any part of the Entire Premises or Improvements or Parking or any interest in them by eminent domain or inverse condemnation:

A) "Taking" means that taking or damaging, including severance damage, by eminent domain or by inverse condemnation for any public or quasi-public use under any statute. The transfer of title may be either a transfer resulting from the recording of a final order in condemnation or a voluntary transfer or conveyance to the condemning agency or entity under threat of condemnation, in avoidance of an exercise of eminent domain, or while condemnation proceedings are pending. The Taking shall be considered to take place as of the date on which the right to compensation and damages accrues under the law applicable to the Premises, unless the condemnor also takes actual physical possession of the Premises or a part thereof, in which case the date of Taking for the purposes of this Lease shall be the later of the date on which the right to compensation and damages accrues or the date physical possession is taken by the condemnor.

B) "Total Taking" means the Taking of the fee title to all the Premises and the Improvements on the Premises, which shall be considered to include any offsite improvements effected by Tenant to serve the Premises or the improvements or the parking on the Premises.

C) "Partial Taking" means any Taking (including any damaging) of a portion of the Premises, the Common Area, or any Improvements or parking thereon which is not a Total Taking.

D) "Notice of Intended Taking" means any notice or notification on which a reasonably prudent man would rely and which he would interpret as expressing an existing intention of Taking as distinguished from a mere preliminary inquiry or proposal. It includes, but is not limited to, the service of a condemnation summons and complaint on a party to this Lease. The notice is considered to have been received when a party to this Lease receives from the condemning agency or entity a Notice of Intended Taking, in writing, containing a description or map of the Taking reasonably defining the extent of the Taking.

E) "Award" means compensation paid for the Taking, whether pursuant to judgment or by agreement or otherwise.

14.02 Notice to Other Party. The party hereto receiving any notice of the kinds specified below shall promptly give the other party notice of the receipt, contents, and date of the notice received:

- A) Notice of Intended Taking;
- B) Service of any legal process relating to condemnation of the Premises or improvements;
- C) Notice in connection with any proceedings or negotiations with respect to such a condemnation; or
- D) Notice of intent or willingness to make or negotiate a private purchase, sale or transfer in lieu of condemnation.

14.03 Total Taking — Effect on Rent and Term. On a Total Taking, Tenant's obligation to pay Rent shall terminate on, and Tenant's interest in the leasehold shall continue until, the date of Taking at which time this Lease shall terminate.

14.04 Distribution of Award for Taking. On a Taking, all sums, including, but not limited to, damages and interest awarded for the value of the real estate taken, shall be apportioned and paid by the governmental body taking the Premises as follows:

- A) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any, for the Fair Market Value of all buildings and other improvements on the Premises;
- B) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any, for severance damages
- C) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any, for the "bonus value" of this leasehold estate. The bonus value is the amount by which the fair market rental value on the open market exceeds the contract rent (the amount called for in this Lease);
- D) To Tenant, the amount awarded, if any, for loss of goodwill and relocation expenses;
- E) To Landlord, any other award which will not reduce the amount which otherwise would be awarded to Tenant; and
- F) To Landlord, any balance.

Tenant shall only be entitled to payments under this Section 14.04 out of amounts awarded by the governmental body taking the Premises.

14.05 Partial Taking — Rent Adjustments. On a Partial Taking, the Lease shall remain in full force and effect covering the remaining Premises, except that the total Rent as otherwise provided herein shall be reduced in the same ratio as the percentage of the area of the Premises taken bears to the total area of the Premises.

14.06 Partial Taking — Option to Terminate. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event of a Partial Taking, if more than thirty percent (30%) of the Building or fifty (50%) of the parking is taken by a condemnation or sold under the threat of condemnation, then Tenant may terminate this Lease as of the date the condemning authority takes title or possession, whichever occurs first, by delivering written notice to the other within ten (10) days after receipt of written notice of such taking (or in the absence of such notice, within ten (10) days after the condemning authority takes possession).

14.07 Separate Tenant's Award. In the event of a Taking, Tenant may make a separate claim with respect to lost business, lost profits, goodwill, moving expenses and other related damages against the acquiring governmental Agency.

ARTICLE XV

DEFAULT

15.01 Tenant's Default. The occurrence of any of the following shall constitute a default or event of default by Tenant:

A) Failure to pay Annual Rent or any other monetary amount when due as provided herein, if the failure continues for ten (10) days after first written notice has been given to Tenant by Landlord;

B) Failure to perform any of Tenant's non-monetary obligations under this Lease, provided however, Tenant shall have thirty (30) days from receipt of written notice by Landlord to cure each such default. If Tenant cannot reasonably cure such default within said thirty (30) day period, Tenant shall not be in default of this Lease if Tenant commences to cure the breach within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the breach.

C) Tenant shall file a petition in voluntary bankruptcy under the bankruptcy code of the United States or any similar Law, State or Federal Law, now or hereafter in effect.

15.02 Landlord's Remedies Cumulative. Landlord shall have the following remedies set forth in subsections (A) through (G) below if Tenant commits a default, except as provided in Section 15.03. These remedies are not exclusive and may be exercised concurrently or successively; they are cumulative in addition to any remedies now or later allowed by law or equity:

A) Bring Suit for Performance. Landlord may bring suit for the collection of the Rent or other amounts for which Tenant is then in default, or for the performance of any other covenant or agreement devolving upon Tenant, all without having to enter into possession or terminate this Lease;

B) Re-Entry Without Termination. Pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1954.4, Landlord may re-enter the Premises, by legal proceedings (or without legal proceedings if the Premises have been abandoned), and take possession thereof, without thereby terminating this Lease, and thereupon Landlord may expel all persons and remove all property therefrom, without becoming liable to prosecution therefor, and relet the Premises or a portion or portions thereof, and receive the rent therefrom, applying the same first to the payment of the reasonable expenses of such re-entry and the reasonable cost of such reletting, and then to the payment of the Rent and other amounts for which Tenant is then in default; the balance, if any, to be paid to Tenant, who, whether or not the Premises are relet, shall remain liable for any deficiency. It is agreed that the commencement and prosecution of any action by Landlord in forcible entry and detainer, ejectment, or otherwise, or the appointment of a receiver, or any execution of any decree obtained in any action to recover possession of the Premises, or any re-entry, shall not be construed as an election to terminate this Lease unless Landlord shall, in writing, expressly exercise its election to declare the Lease Term hereunder ended and to terminate this Lease, and unless this Lease be expressly terminated, such re-entry or entry by Landlord, whether had or taken under summary proceedings or otherwise, shall not be deemed to have absolved or discharged Tenant from any of its obligations and liabilities for the remainder of the Lease Term. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary or other provisions of this Section 15.02(B), Tenant shall have the right to sublet the Premises, assign its interest in the Lease, or both, subject to Landlord's prior right, during any continuance of Tenant's default, to relet the Premises or a portion or portions thereof.

C) Termination of Lease and Lessee's Right to Possession. No act by Landlord, other than giving Tenant written notice of termination of this Lease, shall in fact terminate the Lease. Upon termination of the Lease, neither Landlord nor Tenant shall have any future rights or obligations under the Lease except that Landlord shall have the right to recover from Tenant the following:

(1) The worth, at the time of the award, of the unpaid Rent that had been earned at the time of termination of this Lease;

(2) The worth, at the time of the award, of the amount by which the unpaid Rent that would have been earned after the date of termination of this Lease until the time of award exceeds the amount of the loss of Rent that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided;

(3) The worth, at the time of the award, of the amount by which the unpaid Rent for the balance of the Term after the time of award exceeds the amount of the loss of Rent that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided; and

(4) Any other amount, and court costs, necessary to compensate Landlord for all detriment proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform his obligations under the Lease or which, in the ordinary course of things, would be likely to result therefrom.

(5) For any other sums due.

D) Definitions. As used herein, the following phrases shall be interpreted as follows:

(1) "The worth, at the time of the award," as used in subsections 15.02(C)(1) and (2) above, is to be computed by allowing interest at the maximum lawful rate. "The worth, at the time of the award," as referred to in subsection 15.02(C)(3) above, is to be computed by discounting the amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco at the time of the award, plus one percent (1%).

(2) As used herein, the term "time of award" shall mean either the date upon which Tenant pays to Landlord the amount recoverable by Landlord as hereinabove set forth or the date of entry of any determination, order, or judgment of any court or other legally constituted body determining the amount recoverable, whichever first occurs.

E) Surrender. Promptly after notice of termination, Tenant shall surrender and vacate the Premises and all improvements in broom-clean condition, and Landlord may re-enter and take possession of the Premises and all remaining improvements and eject all parties in possession or eject some and not others, or eject none. Termination under subsection 15.02(C) shall not relieve Tenant from the payment of any sum due to Landlord or from any claim for damages previously accrued or then accruing against Tenant.

F) Appointment of Receiver. If Tenant defaults under Section 15.02 Landlord shall have the right to have a receiver appointed to collect rent from any subtenants. Neither the filing of a petition for the appointment of a receiver nor the appointment itself shall constitute an election by Landlord to terminate this Lease.

G) Landlord's Right to Cure Tenant's Default. Landlord, at any time after Tenant is in default under Section 15.01 herein, may cure the default at Tenant's expense. If Landlord, at any time, by reason of Tenant's default, pays any sum or does any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Landlord shall be immediately reimbursed from Tenant to Landlord, together with interest at eighteen percent (18%) per annum computed from the date of such expenditure until the date of reimbursement by Tenant.

15.03 Landlord's Default.

A) The occurrence of the following shall constitute a default by Landlord: Breach of any provision of this Lease if the breach is not cured within thirty (30) days after written notice by Tenant; provided, however, that if the breach cannot reasonably be cured within such thirty (30) day period, Landlord shall not be in default of this Lease if Landlord commences to cure the breach within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the default.

B) Tenant, at any time after Landlord is in default under paragraph (A) above, may cure the default at Landlord's expense. If Tenant at any time, by reason of Landlord's default, pays any sum or does any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Tenant shall be immediately reimbursed by Landlord, together with interest at eighteen percent (18%) per annum determined at the time the expenditure is made by Tenant computed from the date of such expenditure until the date of reimbursement by Landlord. If Landlord fails to make such payment(s) within fifteen (15) days after Tenant's written demand, Tenant shall be entitled to offset any amount due from Landlord against the next Rent payment due under this Lease.

15.04 Waiver of Redemption. Tenant hereby expressly waives any and all rights of redemption granted by or under any present or future laws in the event of Tenant being dispossessed or removed from the Premises upon the termination of this Lease because of default by Tenant hereunder.

15.05 Dispute Resolution. Landlord and Tenant desire by provisions of this Section 15.05 to establish procedures to facilitate the informal and inexpensive resolution of any dispute arising out of this Lease by mutual cooperation and without resort to litigation. To accomplish this objective, Landlord and Tenant agree to follow the procedures set forth below if and when a dispute arises between them under this Lease.

A) Description of Dispute. The complaining party shall provide by notice a written description of the alleged breach by the other party. This description shall explain the nature of the complaint and the Lease provision(s) on which it is based. The complaining party shall also set forth a proposed solution to the problem including a specific time frame within which the parties must act. The party receiving the letter of complaint must respond in writing within ten (10) days with an explanation, including references to the relevant parts of the Lease and a response to the proposed solution. Within ten (10) days of receipt of this response, the parties must meet and discuss options for resolving the dispute. The complaining party must initiate the scheduling of the resolution meeting.

B) Mediation. A settlement conference shall be held within thirty (30) days of the unsuccessful resolution meeting or as soon as practical thereafter. The settlement conference shall be held in the County of San Francisco, California.

C) Arbitration. With respect to disputes which the parties have been unable to resolve informally or by mediation, the parties agree to submit the dispute for final and binding arbitration if the dispute has not otherwise been settled. The parties agree that the arbitration must be initiated within one (1) year after the date of the written description of the alleged breach and that the failure to initiate arbitration within the one (1) year period constitutes an absolute bar to the initiation of any proceedings. An arbitration shall be deemed initiated for the purposes of this section by demand therefor being sent by certified mail to the other party which notice shall contain a description of the dispute, the amount involved and the remedies sought. The parties shall have the right to representation by counsel throughout the arbitration proceedings. All rulings, decisions, and awards of the arbitrators shall be in conformance with California law. The award may be judicially enforced pursuant to §1285 et seq of the California Code of Civil Procedure. Each party shall bear their own costs of legal counsel and the fees for witnesses, unless otherwise determined by the arbitrator as part of the award. The parties may establish the scope of discovery by agreement. If the parties cannot agree, the arbitrator will have discretion to define the limits of discovery and to allow discovery upon a showing of good cause, utilizing the following guidelines:

(1) The arbitrator shall balance the benefits of discovery against the burdens and expenses to the parties and the goals of arbitration as an alternative to traditional litigation.

(2) The arbitrator shall have discretion to order pre-hearing exchange of information, including but not limited to, the production of requested documents and exchanges of summaries of testimony of proposed witnesses.

(3) The deposition of the claimant(s) and respondent(s) and form sets of interrogatories approved by the Judicial Council shall be allowed as a matter of right. There shall be an early and prompt designation and exchange of the names and addresses of expert witnesses who may be called upon to testify at the arbitration hearing. Their depositions, special interrogatories, requests for admission and all other discovery shall be allowed only upon a showing of good cause.

15.06 Attorneys' Fees. Should any action or proceeding, be commenced between the parties to this Lease concerning said Premises, this Lease, or the rights and duties of either in relation thereto, the party, Landlord, or Tenant, prevailing in such action or proceeding shall be entitled, in addition to such other relief as may be granted in the action or proceeding, to a reasonable sum as and for its attorneys' fees therein which shall be determined by the arbitrator(s) hearing such action or proceeding.

If the Premises or the improvements to the Common Area are damaged by any peril after the Commencement date of the Lease, Tenant shall restore the Leased Premises or the Common Area improvements unless the Lease is terminated pursuant to Section 17.01 B. If this Lease is not so terminated, then upon receipt of the insurance proceeds by Landlord (if insurance proceeds are available) and the issuance of all necessary governmental permits, Tenant shall promptly commence and diligently prosecute to completion the restoration of the Leased Premises or the Common Area improvements to the extent then allowed by Law, to substantially the same condition in which the Leased Premises or the Common Area Improvements were immediately prior to such damage.

17.02 Prompt Repair. In the event of any transfer or assignment of Landlord's interest in this Lease or any change in, or transfer of, title in and to the Premises of any part thereof, whether voluntary or involuntary, or by act of Landlord or by operation of law, Tenant shall be under no obligation to pay rent or other charges payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder, thereafter accruing, until Tenant shall have been notified in writing of such transfer, assignment, or change in title, and given satisfactory proof thereof, and the withholding of rent or other charges payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder, in the meantime shall not be deemed a default upon the part of Tenant. Landlord may assign this Lease and convey its title to the Premises, subject to this Lease, at any time. In the event of such assignment of this Lease, Landlord shall have no further obligations under this Lease, except for liabilities which shall have accrued prior to the date of such assignment and transfer and that the assignee assumes in writing Landlord's obligations hereunder accruing on and after the effective date of the assignment.

The acceptance by Landlord of Rent or partial Rent with knowledge of the breach of any of the covenants of this Lease by Tenant shall not be deemed a waiver of any such breach. One or more waivers of any breach of any covenant, term, or condition of this Lease shall not be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same covenant, term, or condition. The consent or approval by either party shall not be deemed to waive or render unnecessary that party's consent to or approval of any subsequent similar act.

18.15 Estoppel Certificate. Either party hereto shall, within twenty (20) days notice from the other party (referred to as the "Requesting Party"), execute and deliver to the Requesting Party, in recordable form, a certificate stating that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect, or in full force and effect as modified, and stating the modifications. The certificate also shall state the amount of current monthly rent, the dates to which the rent has been paid in advance, the amount of prepaid rent, and any other information with respect to this Lease reasonably requested by the Requesting Party. 18.18 Mechanics Liens. Tenant shall discharge, by payment, bonding or otherwise, any mechanics liens filed against the Premises or the Entire Premises in connection with Tenant's work and/or any alterations or other work done by or on behalf of Tenant in the Premises within thirty (30) days after Tenant receives notice of the filing of such lien, and Landlord shall cooperate with Tenant at no expense to Landlord, in order to accomplish such discharge. Should Tenant fail to so discharge any such mechanics lien, Landlord shall have the right to remove such mechanics liens and charge all costs thereof, including without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, to Tenant as additional rent plus interest at 18%.

18.19 Relationship of Parties. Nothing contained in this Lease shall be construed to create the relationship of principal and agent, partnership, joint venture or any other relationship between the parties hereto other than the relationship of Landlord and Tenant. Nothing contained herein shall in any way impose any liability upon the stockholders, officers or directors of Landlord or stockholders, officers, directors or trustees of Tenant should such parties be corporate entities.

18.22 Anti-Merger. The voluntary or otherwise surrender of this Lease by Tenant, or a mutual cancellation of this Lease shall not work a merger but shall at the option of Landlord either:

A) Terminate any existing subleases or subtenancies; or

B) Operate as an assignment to Landlord (and assumption by Landlord) of any subleases or subtenancies.

Second Amendment to Lease

This Second Amendment to Lease (this “Amendment”) dated April 15, 2005 is executed by and between Syufy Enterprises, L.P., a California limited partnership (“Landlord”) and Century Theatres, Inc., a California corporation (“Tenant”).

WITNESSETH:

Whereas, Landlord and Century Theatres of California, Inc., a California corporation, entered into a lease dated September 30, 1995, as amended by that certain First Amendment to Lease, dated September 1, 2000 between Landlord and Century Theatres, Inc., a Delaware corporation (as amended, the “Lease”), for a motion picture building and related parking (the “Premises”) located at Century 12 Park Redwood, 557 E. Bayshore, Redwood City, California; capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Lease; and

Whereas, Century Theatres, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Century Theatres (DE)”), succeeded Century Theatres of California, Inc., as Tenant; and

Whereas, Century Theatres (DE) assumed all obligations of Century Theatres of California, Inc., as set forth in the Lease; and

Whereas, Century Theatres, Inc., a California corporation, has succeeded Century Theatres (DE) as Tenant; and

Whereas, Century Theatres, Inc., a California corporation, has assumed all obligations of Century Theatres (DE), as set forth in the Lease; and

Whereas, the parties desire now to amend the Lease to revise and clarify certain obligations between the parties, as hereinafter provided;

Now, Therefore, the parties hereto mutually agree that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary therein, the Lease shall be amended as follows:

A. Abatement of Rent

From and after the date the movie theatre operated by Tenant and located  in downtown Redwood City (the “Downtown Theater”) opens for business (the “Opening Date”), Tenant’s obligation to pay Rent shall abate for the Term of the Lease; provided, however, that (i) Tenant shall at all times operate a first-class motion picture theatre showing only first-run films at the Premises, and (ii) Tenant shall not be in default under the Lease.

From and after the Opening Date, Landlord may but shall not be obligated to terminate the Lease by delivering written notice (the “Termination Notice”) to Tenant indicating the desired termination date (the “Termination Date”); provided, however, that if after the Opening Date Landlord has, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, executed a new lease for the Entire Premises and has obtained all necessary and appropriate entitlements and final approvals from all governmental or quasi-governmental authorities for the particular use contemplated by the new lease, and the appeal periods for all such entitlements and approvals have expired without the filing of an appeal, or if an appeal has been filed, such appeal has been resolved to Landlord's sole satisfaction, Landlord shall be obligated to terminate the Lease and the Termination Date shall be the date on which all of the aforesaid conditions have, in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion, been satisfied. If Landlord delivers a Termination Notice to Tenant as set forth above, then, as of the Termination Date, the parties shall have no further rights under the Lease nor further obligations with respect to the Premises, with the exception of any rights or obligations which expressly survive the termination of the Lease in accordance with the provisions thereof or at law.

Tenant expressly agrees that Landlord shall have the right, but shall have no obligation, to demolish, renovate, remodel, reconstruct or otherwise alter or develop in any manner the Entire Premises or any portion thereof for any and all uses beyond the Permitted Use (the "Development") without Tenant's consent; provided, however, that the Development shall not materially interfere with the Permitted Use or Tenant's access to the Premises. In addition to developing some or all of the Entire Premises that are outside of the Building, Landlord's Development rights set forth above shall include the right to develop at least two (2) retail pads anywhere in the Entire Premises, subject to Landlord's ability to provide sufficient additional parking to satisfy applicable governmental requirements, and all roof-top and other exterior communication and advertising rights on or about the Entire Premises, including, without limitation, the exclusive right to install, locate, maintain, use, replace and repair satellite dishes and other roof-top communications equipment on the roof of the Building. In connection with the foregoing, Tenant agrees that Tenant shall have no right to lease or otherwise allow any third party to access or use the roof of the Building or any portion of the Premises for any use other than the Permitted Use.

2. Tenant hereby waives all claims of any nature whatsoever Tenant may now have or may hereafter have against Landlord relating in any manner to, directly or indirectly, the Development. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Landlord shall not be liable for any damage to persons or property located in, on or about the Premises resulting from or in connection with the Development, and Tenant waives and shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Landlord from any and all claims asserted by Tenant or Tenant's officers, agents, employees, contractors, licensees, invitees or guests arising from damage resulting from or in connection with the Development (except to the extent such damage is caused by the willful act or gross negligence of Landlord; provided, however, that Landlord shall not be liable for any consequential damages, including, without limitation, any claim for loss of profit or business).

Redwood City 12 — Redwood City, California

D. Surrender

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease, upon the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease and promptly following Tenant's receipt of a cost estimate thereof from Landlord, Tenant shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to the cost of demolishing the improvements located on the Premises and removing all surface debris therefrom to Landlord's reasonable satisfaction, as such cost estimate is determined by Landlord in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion; provided, however, that Tenant may remove any or all of Tenant's furniture, fixtures and equipment (the "FF&E") from the Premises, so long as such removal occurs within forty-five (45) days after the Termination Date and Tenant repairs all extraordinary damage caused by such removal. Except as set forth above, from and after the Termination Date, the parties shall have no further rights under the Lease nor further obligations with respect to the Premises, except for any rights or obligations which expressly survive the termination of the Lease in accordance with the provisions thereof or at law.

Execution VersionFOURTH AMENDMENT TO LEASE

(Redwood City 12)

THIS FOURTH AMENDMENT TO LEASE AGREEMENT (this "Amendment") is entered into as of August 7, 2006 to be effective as of the Effective Date (as defined hereinbelow) by and between SYUFY ENTERPRISES, L.P., a California limited partnership ("Landlord"), and CENTURY THEATRES, INC., a California corporation ("Tenant").

RECITALS:

A. Landlord and Century Theatres of California, Inc., a California corporation ("Original Tenant"), entered into a certain Lease dated as of September 30, 1995 (the "Original Lease"), for certain premises located in Redwood City, California.

B. The Original Lease has been previously amended by that certain (i) First Amendment to Lease dated as of September 1, 2000 (the "First Amendment"), (ii) Second Amendment to Lease dated as of April 15, 2005 (the "Second Amendment"), and (iii) Third Amendment to Lease dated as of September 29, 2005 (the "Third Amendment"; the Original Lease as heretofore amended is referred to herein as the "Lease").

C. Tenant has succeeded to the interests and assumed the obligations of Original Tenant as the lessee under the Amended Lease.

D. Landlord and Tenant now desire to further amend the Amended Lease, upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Amendment.

NOW THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt, adequacy and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Amended Lease is hereby modified and amended, and Landlord and Tenant hereby agree, as follows:

1. Recitals Incorporated; Certain Defined Terms. The Recitals set forth above are incorporated into this Amendment and shall be deemed terms and provisions hereof, the same as if fully set forth in this Paragraph 1. Capitalized terms that are used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed to such terms in the Lease.

2. Effectiveness. The parties are entering into this Amendment in connection with the contemplated acquisition of all the outstanding capital stock of Century Theatres, Inc. by Cinemark Holdings, Inc. and Cinemark USA, Inc. (the "Acquisition") pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement dated as of the date hereof (the "Stock Purchase Agreement"). This Amendment shall become automatically effective upon, and only upon, the closing of the Acquisition (the "Effective Date"). In the event the Acquisition is not consummated and the Stock Purchase Agreement is terminated, this Agreement shall become void ab initio and of no force and effect.

3. Initial Term of Lease and Extension Options. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease, the current Term of the Lease shall expire on the date that is * after the Effective Date hereof. Thereafter, Tenant shall not have any options to renew or extend the Term of this Lease.

4. Operating Condition. Tenant covenants and agrees to continuously operate and regularly open the Leased Premises for business to the general public as a first-run motion picture theatre complex in accordance with the Lease, at least on such days and at such times that either the Nearby Theatre is open and operating or a majority of Century's and Cinemark's other first-run motion picture theatre complexes in the County of San Mateo typically are open and operating, subject to Excused Closures (defined below). (Tenant's obligations under this Section 4 are referred to herein as the "Operating Condition."). As used herein, "Excused Closure" shall mean (i) periods of construction, alterations, renovation, remodeling and repair of the Leased Premises undertaken in accordance with this Lease (including repairs and restoration following damage or destruction due to fire or other casualty), provided that Tenant (A) prosecutes such work to completion with reasonable diligence, (B) exercises its reasonable efforts to minimize the length of time of such closure, and (C) exercises its best efforts to limit the number of motion picture screens at the Premises that are not operated due to such closure; (ii) periods when Tenant cannot practicably operate its business in the Premises as a consequence of force majeure; and (iii) additional periods, not to exceed four (4) days in any Lease Year, when Tenant in its sole discretion elects not to operate its business in the Leased Premises.

5. Self-Insurance of Property/Casualty Risks. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Lease, during any period in which Tenant maintains a Net Worth (as defined below) of at least One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000.00), Tenant may self insure the so-called "physical property damage insurance" otherwise required to be maintained by Tenant pursuant to the Lease. As used herein, the "Net Worth" of Tenant at any given time shall mean an amount equal to the sum of (A) the product of (1) Tenant's so-called EBITDA (i.e., earnings before interest, income taxes, depreciation and amortization), calculated in accordance with commercially reasonable past practice preceding the Effective Date by Tenant's parent corporation, over the 12-month period immediately preceding the time of measurement, multiplied by (2) eight (8), plus (B) the amount of cash and cash equivalents held by Tenant on the most recent anniversary of Tenant's annual insurance renewal date, minus (C) the amount of outstanding funded debt of Tenant on such determination date.

6. Damage and Destruction — Repairs by Tenant. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, the following shall apply to repairs and restoration upon damage or destruction:

(A) If the Leased Premises are damaged or destroyed by any peril after the Commencement Date of this Lease, then Tenant shall repair the damage and restore the Leased Premises in accordance with this Section, except as provided in subsection (B) below. Unless Tenant is not required to effect the repairs and restoration pursuant to subsection (B) below, Tenant shall promptly apply for and diligently seek to obtain all necessary governmental permits and approvals for the repair and restoration of the Leased Premises and, upon issuance of such governmental permits and approvals, promptly commence and diligently prosecute the completion of the repairs and restoration of the Leased Premises (to the extent permitted by applicable law) to substantially the same condition in which the Leased Premises were immediately prior to such damage or destruction (subject to any alterations which Tenant would be permitted to make to the Leased Premises pursuant to this Lease).

(B) If the Leased Premises are damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty which occurs after the Effective Date and if the cost to repair such damage or to restore the Leased Premises as required in subsection (A) exceeds twenty percent (20%) of the replacement cost of the Lease Premises (as determined by an independent architect selected by Tenant and approved by Landlord in Landlord's reasonable discretion), then (i) Tenant may elect, upon notice to Landlord not later than thirty (30) days following the occurrence of the applicable casualty, not to undertake the repairs and restoration of the Leased Premises as provided in subsection (A) (provided, however, that Landlord may nullify Tenant's election not to undertake the repairs and restoration, within 30 days after receiving Tenant's notice, by confirming either (x) that Landlord shall reimburse Tenant for such excess costs within thirty (3) days after the completion of the repairs and restoration and Landlord's receipt of reasonable supporting documentation of such costs, or (y) that Landlord waives its right to terminate this Lease pursuant to Section 17 prior to the date which is 12 months after the repairs and restoration are completed), and (ii) if Tenant so elects not to undertake the repairs and restoration, then Tenant nevertheless shall raze Tenant's Building and remove from the Leased Premises all building materials and debris and all underground installations that serve only the Leased Premises (including the footings and foundations of Tenant's Building and the utility lines serving Tenant's Building) and restore the surface of the Premises to a graded and landscaped surface.

7. Permitted Assignments and Release. Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, the following shall apply and control:

Subject to the next sentence, Tenant may sublet or assign this Lease only upon receipt of Landlord's written consent which consent Landlord agrees shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned. Notwithstanding anything in this Lease to the contrary, it is agreed that at any time during the term of this Lease, Tenant may, without Landlord's consent or approval (but only upon prior written notice to Landlord), assign this Lease or sublet the Leased Premises to: (i) any wholly-owned subsidiary of Tenant, and (ii) any corporation, trust, partnership or individual that owns fifty percent (50%) or more of the issued and outstanding stock of Tenant. A change in control of Tenant shall not constitute an assignment of this Lease requiring Landlord's consent or approval, provided, however, that if any assignee under clause (i) above ceases to be a wholly owned subsidiary of Tenant, then the same shall be deemed to constitute an assignment which is prohibited without Landlord's approval under Article XI of the Lease.

No assignment, subletting or other transfer of the Lease or the Leased Premises shall relieve or release Tenant from any liabilities or obligations arising under the Lease.

8. Leasehold Financing. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, Tenant shall have the right, without Landlord's consent to encumber the leasehold estate created under the Lease and/or to grant a security interest in Tenant's removable trade fixtures, furnishings and equipment located within the Leased Premises (but not to encumber Landlord's fee interest in the Premises), to secure financing provided to Tenant by any bank, thrift institution, insurance company or other institutional lender. Tenant agrees to notify Landlord of any such encumbrance. With respect to any such leasehold financing (and provided that Tenant is not in default under the Lease beyond any applicable notice or cure period), upon thirty (30) days' prior written request from Tenant, Landlord will execute and deliver to the secured lender a "Landlord's Agreement" in the form attached hereto as Exhibit "A-I".

9. [Intentionally Omitted.]

10. Gross Sales. Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary the definition of Gross Sales shall be as follows:

"Gross Sales" shall mean the total amount of all revenues (whether in cash or credit) generated or derived from the conduct of any business at the Leased Premises, including (without limitation) all box office receipts of or at the Leased Premises (including receipts from tickets or gift certificates redeemed at the Leased Premises regardless of the point of sale), as well as any and all receipts from the sale of goods, services, merchandise, beverages, food, vending machines and video games at the Leased Premises; provided, however, that the following shall be excluded from "Gross Sales" (i) credits and refunds made with respect to admissions or other sales otherwise included in Gross Sales, (ii) all federal, state, county and city admission taxes, sales and use taxes, entertainment taxes, royalty taxes, gross receipt taxes and other similar taxes now or hereafter imposed and owing to the taxing authority by Tenant (whether such taxes are collected from customers separately from the selling price of admission tickets or absorbed by Tenant); (iii) receipts from the sale of gift certificates or tickets sold but not redeemed at the Leased Premises; (iv) with respect to any tickets or admissions ordered or paid for over the internet and redeemed at the Leased Premises, the portion (if any) of the sale price that exceeds Tenant's actual box-office ticket price; (v) sales price for merchandise returned, (vi) amounts retained by credit card issuers, (vii) sales outside of the ordinary course of business, (viii) amount of credit card sales deemed uncollectible, (ix) advertising revenues including without limitation media, sponsorship, and promotional advertising of any kind, and (x) the receipts of or from so-called "four-wall deals" with a party that is not affiliated with Tenant, except that the portion thereof or other amounts paid to Tenant in connection with such "four-wall deals" shall be included in "Gross Sales" under this Lease. Commissions or surcharges paid to agencies or other third parties not affiliated with Tenant for selling tickets or processing credit card transactions, and any sums paid to third parties not affiliated with Tenant for the use or rental of vending machines, pay telephones, amusement machines and other similar devices shall be deducted from "Gross Sales" (if and to the extent previously included in "Gross Sales").

11. Taxes. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Lease or this Amendment to the contrary, if during the ten (10) year period immediately following the Effective Date, any sale or change in ownership of the Premises (or against the Entire Premises, if the Premises are not separately assessed) is consummated by Landlord and, as a result, all or part of the Premises (or Entire Premises, if applicable) are reassessed (a "Reassessment") for real property tax purposes by the appropriate governmental authority under the terms of Proposition 13 (as adopted by the voters of the State of California in the June 1978 election) or the terms of Article XIII A of the Constitution of the State of California, then the terms of this Section shall apply. For purposes of this Section, the term "Tax Increase" shall mean that portion of the annual real estate taxes assessed against the Premises (or the Entire Premise, if applicable), as calculated immediately following the Reassessment, that is attributable solely to the Reassessment. Accordingly, a Tax Increase shall not include any portion of the real estate taxes, as calculated immediately following the Reassessment, that is:

- (i) Attributable to the assessment of the value of the Premises (or Entire Premises, if applicable) prior to the Effective Date;
- (ii) Attributable to the annual inflationary increases in real estate taxes; or
- (iii) Attributable to the sale of Landlord's ownership interest in Tenant on or about the Effective Date, or attributable to the execution of this Amendment or any extension of the Term of this Lease on the Effective Date or thereafter.

During the five (5) year period immediately following the Effective Date, Tenant shall not be obligated to pay any portion of any Tax increase relating to a Reassessment.

Commencing on the fifth anniversary of the Effective Date, and continuing until the tenth anniversary of the Effective Date, Tenant shall be obligated to pay annually only the portion of a Tax Increase relating to a Reassessment that is equal to (or less than) an increase of four percent (4%) per annum, compounded annually, from the Effective Date, in the annual amount owed by Tenant for real estate taxes under the terms of the Lease, from the annual amount owed by Tenant for real estate taxes under the terms of the Lease in calendar 2006.

The terms and provisions of this Section shall not apply to any increase in real estate taxes which results from or is attributable to any occurrence, fact or circumstance other than a sale by Landlord of Landlord's interest in the Premises or a transfer effected by Landlord which is treated as a sale by the local taxing authorities under Proposition 13 (excluding those matters identified in clause (iii) above). This Section shall not apply from and after the tenth (10th) anniversary of the Effective Date of this Amendment.

12. Alterations by Tenant.

Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, the following shall apply and control:

Tenant shall have the right from time to time, at its sole cost and expense, to make non-structural interior alterations, improvements, or changes in the Leased Premises as Tenant shall deem necessary or beneficial consistent with Tenant's exclusive use of the Leased Premises as a motion picture theatre complex and if Tenant undertakes such work, Tenant must pursue such work until completion. Tenant shall fully and completely indemnify Landlord against any mechanics' or other liens in connection with the making of such alterations and changes, and shall pay all costs, expenses, and charges thereof. Alterations, changes and improvements shall be performed in a first-class manner and must comply with all laws, zoning regulations and ordinances, and any conditions on permits issued pursuant thereto. If it is necessary in Tenant's reasonable judgment to close any of the motion picture screens during the period in which any of Tenant's work permitted hereunder is performed, said closure(s) shall be effected only in accordance with the provisions governing an "Excused Closure", as that term is defined in Section 4 of this Amendment.

13. Rooftop Equipment and Access. Tenant shall have the exclusive right to install, operate, repair, replace and maintain satellite dishes and/or other communication transmission devices (collectively "Rooftop Equipment") on the roof of the theatre necessary or appropriate to accept any transmission of signals to the theatre for all permitted uses, including without limitation, for movies, advertising, concerts, telecasts, corporate meetings or communications and the like; but Tenant shall be prohibited from entering into any leases or licenses with any third parties for retransmission from such Rooftop Equipment, and Tenant shall not retransmit such signals to a third party outside of the Leased Premises. Landlord shall not use, or permit any person or entity (other than Tenant), to use the roof or exterior walls of the theatre for any purpose whatsoever, and Landlord agrees not to enter into any leases or licenses with third parties for the use of the theater rooftop. Landlord shall be responsible for any damage to the rooftop caused by the Landlord or a third party that enters onto the theatre rooftop with Landlord's permission, and Landlord shall indemnify and hold Tenant harmless from all loss, cost, damage or expense which Tenant incurs as a result of the acts or omissions of said third party or their agents or employer. Tenant hereby indemnifies and agrees to hold Landlord and Landlord's successors and assigns harmless from all loss, cost, damage or expense which Landlord incurs as a result of the actions of Tenant, or its agents or employees in installing and utilizing Rooftop Equipment as permitted hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant's exclusive rights are subject to any agreements entered into after the Effective Date by Landlord and a licensee or lessee regarding Rooftop Equipment provided that such Rooftop Equipment does not interfere with Tenant's Rooftop Equipment installed pursuant to this Section.

14. Permitted Use and Operations. From and after the Effective Date, Tenant shall be permitted to use and operate the Leased Premises as and only as: a first-class first run motion picture theatre complex (whether operated as a so-called "first-run" theatre and/or an "art house" theatre) in accordance with the Operating Condition. In no event shall Tenant be permitted to operate the Leased Premises as a so-called "second run" or "adult" theater complex.

15. Removal of Equipment, Surrender and Demolition. Upon the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of the Lease, and provided Tenant is not in default under the Lease beyond applicable notice and cure periods, and said earlier termination is not due to Tenant's default under the Lease, then for a period extending forty-five (45) days beyond the date of said expiration or termination, Tenant shall be permitted to remove any and all furniture, fixtures and equipment owned and installed by Tenant in, on or to the Leased Premises. Such removal shall be: (a) at Tenant's sole cost and expense; (b) conducted in such manner that no liens or claims shall arise or exist in connection therewith; (c) conducted in a manner to avoid unreasonable interference with the activities of Landlord and subsequent tenants or occupants upon the Leased Premises and Tenant shall repair all damages caused by such removal.

Upon surrender of the Leased Premises by Tenant and removal of its equipment pursuant to the terms of the Lease and this Amendment, Landlord shall be responsible for the cost of any demolition of the Leased Premises and site grading and restoration as a result, except as otherwise provided in the Lease. Such demolition shall be undertaken in Landlord's sole discretion and at such times, manner and upon such events as Landlord solely shall determine.

16. Alternate Rent. As of the Effective Date and if and for so long as Tenant continues to satisfy the Operating Condition (as defined in Section 4 above) (but not during periods of Excused Closure), then in lieu of Base Rent and Percentage Rent otherwise due under the Lease (but not in lieu of Tenant's share of real estate taxes or any other amounts payable by Tenant under the Lease, which will continue to be due and payable by Tenant as provided in the Lease), Tenant shall pay to Landlord on a monthly basis an amount equal to  of Tenant's Gross Sales, as defined in Section 10 above. Such amount shall be paid by Tenant monthly in arrears on or before the thirtieth (30th) day after the end of each calendar month. Within sixty (60) days after the end of each fiscal year, Tenant shall provide a written certification of Tenant's Gross Sales for the prior year, executed by the chief financial officer or controller of Tenant, which shall be subject to the same year-end reporting and reconciliation procedures and the verification and audit rights of Landlord that apply to Percentage Rent under this Lease.

17. Early Termination — Landlord. Landlord shall have the right, at anytime after the Effective Date of this Amendment, to terminate this Lease upon not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Tenant.

18. ***

19. Restrictive Covenant. Landlord covenants and agrees that upon the termination of the Lease for any reason other than the default of the Tenant, no portion of the Entire Premises including the Leased Premises shall be used as a motion picture theater complex for a period of 20 years. The terms and provisions of this Section shall survive the termination of the Lease except that the foregoing restrictive covenant shall not apply if the Lease is terminated as a consequence of a default by Tenant. Such restrictive covenant shall run with the land. Landlord agrees to execute within thirty (30) days after the request by Tenant a restrictive covenant in form appropriate for recording containing the restrictions contained herein. Tenant shall be responsible for the cost of all such recording fees.

20. California Remedies. Landlord's remedies upon a default under the Lease shall include, without limitation, the following:

Even though Tenant has breached the Lease and/or abandoned the Premises, this Lease shall continue in effect for so long as Landlord does not terminate Tenant's right to possession, and Landlord may enforce all of its rights and remedies under this Lease, including (but without limitation) the right to recover Rent as it becomes due. Landlord has the remedy described in Section 1951.4 of the Civil Code of the State of California or any successor code section (Landlord may continue the Lease in effect after Tenant's breach and abandonment and recover rent as it becomes due, if Tenant has the right to sublet or assign, subject only to reasonable limitations). Acts of maintenance, preservation or efforts to lease the Premises or the appointment of receiver upon application of Landlord to protect Landlord's interest under this Lease shall not constitute an election to terminate Tenant's right to possession.

21. Termination of Lease and Lessee's Right to Possession. Section 15.02(C) of the Lease shall be deemed deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

"If an event of default occurs, Landlord shall have the right, with or without notice or demand, immediately (after expiration of the applicable grace periods) to terminate this Lease, and at any time thereafter recover possession of the Premises or any part thereof and expel and remove therefrom Tenant and any other person occupying the same, by any lawful means, and again repossess and enjoy the Premises without prejudice to any of the remedies that Landlord may have under this Lease, or at law or equity by reason of Tenant's default or of such termination. Should Landlord terminate this Lease pursuant to foregoing, Landlord shall have all the rights and remedies of a landlord provided by Section 1951.2 of the Civil Code of the State of California, or successor code section. Upon such termination, in addition to any other rights and remedies to which Landlord may be entitled at law or in equity, Landlord shall be entitled to recover from Tenant:

(A) the worth at the time of award of the unpaid Rent which had been earned at the time of termination;

(B) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent which would have been earned after termination until the time of award exceeds the amount of such Rent loss that the Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided;

(C) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent for the balance of the Term after the time of award exceeds the amount of such Rent loss that the Tenant proves could be reasonably avoided;

(D) any other amount, and court costs, necessary to compensate Landlord for all the detriment proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform its obligations under this Lease or which, in the ordinary course of things, would be likely to result therefrom; and

(E) for any other sums due."

22. Notices. The notices provisions of the Lease, as the case may be, shall be deemed deleted in their entirety and replaced with the following:

(a) Except as otherwise expressly and specifically in this Lease provided, a bill, demand, statement, consent, notice or other communication ("notice") which either party may desire or be required to give to the other party shall be deemed sufficiently given or rendered if in writing, delivered personally to the party to be charged therewith or sent by certified mail (return receipt requested) or private express mail courier service (postage or delivery or courier fees fully prepaid) addressed to such party at the addresses set forth in subparagraph (c) below (including the addresses for copies of notices) and/or at such other address(es) as such party shall designate to the other party by notice given as herein provided. If Landlord is notified of the identity and address of Tenant's Leasehold Mortgagee, Landlord shall give such party any notice served upon Tenant hereunder to the last known address of such Leasehold Mortgagee as provided by Tenant to Landlord by certified mail or private express courier service. If Tenant is notified of the identity and address of Landlord's mortgagee, Tenant shall give such mortgagee any notice served upon Landlord hereunder to the last known address of such mortgagee as provided by Landlord to Tenant, by certified mail or private express courier service.

(b) Any notice given in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section shall be deemed effective upon the earlier of (i) if the notice is personally delivered, the date actually received by intended recipient, (ii) if the notice is sent by certified mail, five (5) days after the same is mailed, or (iii) if the notice is sent by private overnight courier service (e.g., Federal Express, DHL or similar courier), one (1) day after the same is delivered to or picked up by such courier. Rejection or refusal to accept a notice or the inability to deliver same because of a changed address of which no notice was given shall be deemed to be a receipt of the notice sent. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Lease, no provision in this Lease shall preclude service of notices in accordance with Section 1162 of the California Code of Civil Procedure or any similar and/or successor code sections.

B) The Premises are being leased in their “as is” condition subject to Article VIII herein captioned “Environmental Matters”.

C) Landlord shall deliver possession of the Premises to Tenant on the Effective Date, free of all leases, tenancies and occupancies.

2.02 Term of Lease.

A) Tenant shall at all times during the Term of this Lease have the right to peacefully and quietly have, hold, occupy and enjoy the Premises, subject to the terms of this Lease without hindrance or molestation from Landlord or any person claiming by, from or under Landlord.

B) Failure to duly exercise the option for any Renewal Term shall nullify the option for the remaining Renewal Terms.

2.04 Covenant of Title; Authority and Quiet Possession; Transfer of Title.

(A) Landlord represents and warrants to Tenant that: (i) Landlord has full right and lawful authority to enter into and perform Landlord's obligations under this Lease for the term hereof, and has good and marketable title to the Entire Premises in fee simple, free and clear of all contracts, leases, tenancies, agreements, restrictions, violations, encumbrances or defects in title of any nature whatsoever which would restrict or prevent the use of or enjoyment by Tenant of the Leased Premises or the rights, easements or privileges granted Tenant under this Lease; (ii) this Lease shall not be subject or subordinate to any Mortgage except for such subordination as may be accomplished in accordance with the provisions of the article captioned "Estoppel Certificate, ect."; (iii) if Tenant shall have discharged the obligations herein set forth to be performed by Tenant, Tenant shall have and enjoy, during the term hereof, the quiet and undisturbed possession of the Leased Premises and all appurtenances appertaining thereto.

ARTICLE IV

4.01 Minimum Monthly Rent.

A) Beginning on the Initial Rent Due Date, Tenant shall pay to Landlord during the Lease Term a "Base Rent" of  . The Base Rent is sometimes referred to herein as the "Minimum Monthly Rent" and shall be subject to adjustment every  after the Initial Rent Due Date as set forth in Section 4.01 B below.

B) The Minimum Monthly Rent shall apply from the Rent Commencement Date through the end of the  Lease Year of the Term. The Minimum Monthly Rent shall be increased (but never decreased) on the first day of the  Lease Year and on the first day of each  Lease Year thereafter during the Term by a percentage equal to the percentage of increase from the "base period" (as hereinafter defined in this Section) of the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers, Los Angeles Subgroup "All Items", (1982-84=100) (the "Consumer Price Index"); provided, however, in no event shall the Minimum Monthly Rent be increased by an amount that is less than  greater than the Minimum Monthly Rent payable before the adjustment date in question.

In the event that the Consumer Price Index is not available, the successor or substitute index shall be used for the computations herein set forth. In the event that the Consumer Price Index or such successor or substitute index is not published, a reliable governmental or other non-partisan publication evaluating the information theretofore used in determining the Consumer Price Index shall be used by Landlord for the computations herein set forth. For the purposes of the computations herein set forth, the basis for any substitute or successor index or such governmental or non-partisan publication shall be converted to a basis of 100 only in the event that the basis used in such index or publication is less than 100.

4.02 Percentage Rent. In addition to the payment of Base Rent, Tenant shall pay to Landlord for each Lease Year during the Term of this Lease, as Percentage Rent a sum equal to the amount by which  of the Gross Sales for such Lease Year exceeds the Base Rent which is payable for such Lease Year equal to the quotient obtained by dividing the annual fixed rate for such Lease year by the percentage rate.

Gross Sales shall mean all box office receipts, sales of goods, merchandise, beverages, food, vending machines and video games. Gross sales shall exclude credits and refunds made with respect to admissions or other sales; all federal, state, county and city admission taxes, sales taxes and other similar taxes now or hereafter imposed (whether such taxes are collected from customers separately from the selling price of admission tickets or absorbed therein, and actually paid over to the taxing authority by Tenant; commissions paid to agencies or other third parties for selling tickets; returned, exchanged, waived or "Pass Admissions" including EBF charges on "Pass Admissions" and any sums paid to third parties for the use or rental of vending machines, pay telephones or other amusement machines.

Tenant agrees to furnish Landlord a statement certified by its chief financial or similar office of its Gross Sales within ninety (90) days after the close of each Lease Year and calculation of Percentage Rent, if any, due for such Lease Year. Tenant shall concurrently with the delivery of such statement, pay to Landlord any Percentage Rent due for such Lease Year.

The receipt by Landlord of any statement or any payment of Percentage Rent for any period shall not bind it as to the correctness of the statement or the Payment. Landlord shall within three years after the receipt of any such statement be entitled to an audit of such Gross Sales. Such audit shall be limited to the determination of the Gross Sales as defined in this Lease and shall be conducted during normal business hours at the principal place of business of Tenant. If it is determined as a result of such audit that there has been a deficiency in the payment of Percentage Rent, then such deficiency shall become immediately due any payable with interest at the annual rate of 18% from the date when said payment should have been made until paid. Any information gained from such statements or inspection shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed other than to carry out the purposes hereof. If such audit shall disclose that Tenant has understated the Gross Sales for such Lease Year by more than three (3%) and Landlord is entitled to any additional Annual Percentage Rent, Tenant shall pay to Landlord all of Landlord's reasonable cost of such audit.

4.03 Rent Payments. Rent and other sums to be paid by Tenant shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America. All payments shall be made by Tenant to Landlord without notice or demand.

4.04 Place for Payment of Rent. The Annual Rent and any other charges required to be paid by Tenant to Landlord shall be sent to Landlord at its principal place of business, or such other address as Landlord may direct in writing.

4.05 Late Payment of Rent. In the event that any monthly installment of rent is not paid within ten (10) days after first written notice from Landlord that such payment is past due, Tenant shall pay Landlord interest on such unpaid rent at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum computed from the date such rent installment was due until the date actually paid.

ARTICLE V

TAXES, ASSESSMENTS AND UTILITIES

5.01 Impositions.

A) The term "Impositions" shall mean all real estate taxes, duties or assessments (special or otherwise), water and sewer rents, whether ordinary or extraordinary, general or special, foreseen or unforeseen, of any kind and nature whatsoever, which, at any time during the Lease Term, shall be assessed or levied, or be attributable in any manner to the Premises, or the rents receivable therefrom, or any part thereof or any use thereon or any facility located therein or used in connection therewith, whether or not any of the foregoing shall be a so-called "real estate tax" expressly excluding, however, any such items arising directly or indirectly out of any act or omission of Landlord, any of Landlord's predecessors in title or any other person occurring prior to the commencement of the Term. From and after the Initial Rent Due Date, Tenant shall pay all Impositions assessed, levied or attributable to the Premises and/or the Improvements on the Premises. All Impositions or installments thereof payable with respect to the tax year in which this Lease shall commence, and all Impositions or installments thereof with respect to the tax year in which this Lease shall terminate, shall be pro-rated on a daily basis; provided, however, that assessments or escape assessments assessed as a result of this Lease and/or the construction of Tenant Improvements by Tenant shall not be prorated and shall be paid solely by Tenant; and provided further that assessments attributable to Tenant Improvements made in the final year of the Lease shall be paid solely by Tenant if Tenant demolishes the Tenant Building.

B) With respect to Impositions which by law may be paid in installments over a period of time, Landlord shall be deemed to have elected (the "Installment Election") to pay such Impositions over the longest period of time permitted by law, regardless of whether Landlord has in fact so elected. With respect to each year in which the Installment Election is effective and with respect to the Impositions associated with Tenant's premises subject to the Installment Election, Tenant's share of such Imposition(s) for each year shall be the pro rata share of the amount which would be required to be paid to the collecting authority as if Landlord had in fact made the Installment Election.

C) In the event the Premises are separately assessed by the taxing authority, Tenant shall pay all such real property taxes directly to the taxing authority prior to delinquency. In the event Tenant fails to pay such real property taxes as provided herein, Landlord may, but shall not be required to, pay the same, and any amount so paid by Landlord shall immediately thereafter become due to Landlord from Tenant as Additional Rent with interest thereon at the rate of 18% per annum from the date of Landlord's payment plus any fine, penalty, interest or cost which is levied by the taxing authority for such late payment.

D) In the event the Premises are not separately assessed by the taxing authority, Tenant shall pay all such real property taxes to the Landlord prior to delinquency. In the event Tenant fails to pay to Landlord such real property taxes as provided herein, Tenant shall pay Landlord in addition interest thereon at the rate of 18% per annum from the delinquency date until such payment has been made.

5.02 Proration of Taxes. If the Premises comprise a tax lot or lots with other property owned by Landlord or other parties ("Other Premises") assessed for real estate tax purposes, together with said Other Premises, immediately after the Commencement Date, Landlord and Tenant shall attempt to cause the appropriate taxing authorities to assess the Premises for real estate tax purposes separately from all Other Premises. During any period in which the Premises are assessed for real estate purposes, together with any Other Premises, Landlord will pay, before the last day on which payment may be made without penalty or interest, all Impositions which shall be levied against the Other Premises.

5.03 Exceptions from Impositions; Charges in Lieu of Impositions.

A) Nothing herein contained shall require Tenant to pay any estate, inheritance, succession, capital levy, corporate franchise, gross receipts, transfer, or income tax of Landlord, nor shall any of the same be deemed to be included within the term "Impositions" as defined herein.

B) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article V, if at any time after the date of this Lease the present method of taxation or assessment shall be changed so that in lieu of, as a substitute for (whether in whole or in part) or as a supplement to (provided such supplemental tax relates to real estate or revenues from real estate and not to other property or business as well) the taxes now levied, assessed or imposed on real estate and buildings and Improvements thereon, a tax shall be imposed, assessed or levied wholly or partly on the Rent, or a tax, assessment, levy or charge, measured or based, in whole or in part, on the Premises or on the rents derived therefrom, shall be imposed on Landlord, then Tenant shall pay taxes so measured or based only to the extent that such taxes would be payable if the Premises were the only property of Landlord subject to such taxes, or the income from operation of the Premises were Landlord's only income, as the case may be.

5.04 Contest of Taxes. Tenant at its sole cost and expense may by appropriate legal proceedings conducted in good faith and with due diligence, contest the amount or validity or application, in whole or in part, of any Imposition or lien therefor, or any other lien, encumbrance or charge against the Premises arising from work done or materials provided to or for Tenant. Tenant shall give Landlord reasonable notice of, and information pertaining to, such contest and regular progress reports with respect thereto.

Landlord shall cooperate with any effort pursued by Tenant in accordance with this Section 5.05. Tenant shall indemnify, protect and hold harmless Landlord and the Premises from any lien or liability with respect to any such Imposition or contest thereof, including all costs and expenses related thereto. Landlord shall provide Tenant with copies of notice when received by Landlord from the taxing authorities of any assessments or reassessments of the Premises in sufficient time (but in no event later than thirty (30) days after Landlord's receipt of the same) to enable Tenant to contest the same in accordance with the provisions of this Section 5.05.

5.05 Utilities. Tenant shall pay before delinquency, directly to the appropriate company or governmental agency, all charges for all utilities, including, but not limited to, water, gas, electricity, sewer, power, telephone, other communication services and refuse disposal consumed on the Premises.

5.06 Personal Property Taxes. During the term of this Lease, Tenant shall pay before delinquency any and all personal property taxes levied or assessed against any personal property located upon the Premises. If Tenant fails to timely pay such taxes and a lien is filed against the Premises, Landlord may discharge such lien, if Tenant fails to discharge such lien within ten (10) days following Tenant's receipt of notice from Landlord, including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees, together with interest at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum from the date of expenditure, such additional rent being due and payable within ten (10) days of notice thereof.

ARTICLE VI

INSURANCE

6.01 Acquisition of Insurance Policies. Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, procure and maintain, or cause to be procured and maintained, during the entire Term the insurance described in this Section (or its then available equivalent), and shall name Landlord and any other parties requested by Landlord as an additional insured.

6.02 Types of Required Insurance. Tenant shall procure and maintain the following:

A) Commercial General Liability Insurance. Commercial general liability insurance insuring against injuries or damages to persons or property sustained in, on or about the Premises, Common Area and the appurtenances thereto, including the sidewalks and alleyways adjacent thereto, with limits of liability no less than Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000) per occurrence and in the aggregate.

B) Builder's Risk Insurance. During any restorations, alterations or changes in the Premises that may be made by Tenant at a cost in excess of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000) per job, contingent liability and builder's risk insurance upon the entire work on the Premises to the current one hundred percent (100%) replacement value thereof against "all risks" of physical loss or damage to the property insured, excluding earthquake and/or other earth movements and flood.

C) Physical Property Damage Insurance. During the term hereof, Tenant shall keep Tenant's Building (excluding foundations and footings), all improvements on the Premises and personal property insured in the name of Landlord and Tenant against damage or destruction by fire and the perils commonly covered under the extended coverage endorsement (with vandalism and malicious mischief coverage) excluding earthquake and flood to the extent of not less than the full replacement value thereof less any deductible applicable to all of Tenant's theatres insured under a blanket policy. Tenant shall be responsible for determining the amount of fire and extended coverage insurance to be maintained subject to Landlord's consent, which consent is not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The proceeds of such insurance in case of loss or damage shall be held in trust and applied on account of the obligation of Tenant to repair and/or rebuild the Leased Premises pursuant to the Article captioned "Damage Clause" to the extent that such proceeds are required for such purpose. The insurance required to be carried by Tenant under this paragraph may be covered under a so-called "blanket" policy covering other operations of Tenant and its affiliates. Tenant shall name Landlord and any parties requested by Landlord and any holder of a mortgage on Tenant's Building pursuant to a standard mortgage clause with respect to the foregoing hazard insurance, provided such holder agrees with Landlord in writing to disburse such insurance proceeds to Landlord for, and periodically during the course of, repair and restoration of Tenant's Building as set forth in this Lease.

6.03 Terms of Insurance. The policies required under Section 6.02 shall name Landlord as additional insured. Tenant shall provide to Landlord certificates of insurance and copies of policies obtained by Tenant hereunder promptly upon the request of Landlord. Further, all policies of insurance described in Section 6.02 shall:

A) Be written as primary policies not contributing with and not in excess of coverage that Landlord may carry.

B) Contain an endorsement providing that the amount of coverage will not be reduced with respect to Landlord except after twenty (20) days prior written notice from insurance company to Landlord and such coverage may not be canceled with respect to Landlord except after thirty (30) days' prior written notice from insurance company to Landlord.

C) Expressly provide that Landlord shall not be required to give notice of accidents or claims and that Landlord shall have no liability for premiums.

D) Be written by insurance companies having a Bests rating of "A-" or better, and such insurance companies shall be reasonably acceptable to Landlord.

6.04 Landlord's Acquisition of Insurance. If Tenant at any time during the Term fails to procure or maintain insurance required hereunder or to pay the premiums therefor, Landlord shall have the right to procure the same and to pay any and all premiums thereon, and any amounts paid by Landlord in connection with the acquisition of insurance shall be immediately due and payable as additional rent, and Tenant shall pay to Landlord upon demand the full amount so paid and expended by Landlord. Any policies of insurance obtained by Landlord covering physical damage to the Premises shall contain a waiver of subrogation against Tenant if and to the extent such waiver is obtainable and if Tenant pays to Landlord on demand the additional costs, if any, incurred in obtaining such waiver.

6.05 Insurance Money and Other Funds Held in Trust. All insurance money or condemnation proceeds as provided in Article VIII, received by the Tenant shall be turned over to Landlord and held in trust by Landlord and, except as provided otherwise in Section 6.06, shall be applied as follows:

First, to any Leasehold Mortgagee as required under the terms of its Leasehold Mortgage provided that such Mortgage was of record and secured a loan made or committed to Landlord in compliance with all of the terms and conditions of this Lease prior to the occurrence of such loss; second, for the purpose of defraying the cost of repairing, restoring, replacing and/or rebuilding any structure or improvement on or in the Premises as required as provided in Section 6.06 hereof, and third, if the damaged or destroyed structure or improvement is not repaired, restored, replaced or rebuilt as hereinafter provided, said funds shall be disposed of as provided in Section 6.06. Any of said funds in the hands of the Tenant or Landlord at the end of the Term hereof shall be disposed of as set forth in Section 6.06 (A).

6.06 Application or Proceeds of Physical Damage Insurance. In case of any insurance policies as described in Section 6.02 (C) (Physical Property Damage Insurance) the application of insurance proceeds from damage or loss to property shall be determined in part in accordance with Article XVII hereof and, in the event of any such repair, replacement, restoration or rebuilding, the Landlord shall disburse the proceeds of the insurance collected to Tenant to pay the cost of such work upon certificate of satisfactory progress and/or completion in form satisfactory to Landlord by the licensed architect or engineer in charge of the work. Upon completion of such repair, replacement, restoration or rebuilding in accordance with the provisions of this Lease, and the full payment therefor (so no liens, encumbrances or claims with respect thereto can be asserted against the Premises, this Lease, Landlord or Tenant), any insurance proceeds received by the Landlord or Tenant with respect to the damage or destruction involved, and not used, shall remain the property of Landlord.

A) Distribution of Unutilized Proceeds. At the termination of this Lease, such insurance proceeds or condemnation awards received and held by the Landlord and not used for repair, replacement or reconstruction ("Available Proceeds"), shall be disposed as follows:

(1) First, Landlord shall be awarded an amount sufficient to remove any improvements not repaired and to return the Property to the level of adjacent streets ("grade level"); and

(2) Second, any remainder shall be paid to Landlord.

6.07 Cooperation for Insurance Proceeds. Landlord and Tenant shall each cooperate with the other in order to obtain the largest possible recovery and execute any and all consents and other instruments and take all other actions reasonably necessary or desirable to effectuate the same and cause such proceeds to be paid as hereinbefore provided. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, neither party shall carry any insurance concurrent in coverage and contributing in the event of loss with any insurance required to be furnished by the other hereunder if the effect of separate insurance would be to reduce the protection or the payment to be made under such party's insurance or under the insurance required to be furnished by the other.

6.08 Waiver of Right of Recovery. Landlord and Tenant hereby release each other from any and all liability and responsibility to one another and, to the extent legally possible to do so on behalf of their respective insurers and anyone claiming through or under either of them, by way of subrogation or otherwise, hereby waive any liability for any and all loss or damage which is of the type covered by fire and extended coverage insurance described in this Article, irrespective of any negligence on the part of the other party which may have contributed to or caused such loss. Every insurance policy carried by either party with respect to the Premises or Tenant's Building or land or improvements adjoining the Premises owned or leased by Landlord shall (if it can be so written and does not result in a material additional premium) include provisions denying to the insurer subrogation rights against the other party and any fee or leasehold mortgage to the extent such rights have been waived by the insured prior to the occurrence of damage or loss. If the waiver of subrogation otherwise is not effective, each party covenants that it will obtain for the benefit of the other party an express waiver of any right of subrogation which the insurer of such party may acquire against the other party by virtue of the payment of any such loss covered by such insurance. In the event either party is by law, statute, governmental regulation, economically unfeasible or other factor beyond such party's reasonable control unable to obtain a waiver of the right of subrogation for the benefit of the other party, then, during any period of time when such waiver is unobtainable, said party shall be deemed not to have released any subrogated claim of its insurance carrier against the other party, and during the same period of time the other party shall be deemed not to have released the party who has been unable to obtain such waiver from any claims they or their insurance carriers may assert which otherwise would have been released pursuant to this Section. In the event that either party is unable to obtain such waiver of the right of subrogation for the benefit of the other party, such party shall, within thirty (30) days of receiving notice of such inability, give the other party written notice of such inability.

safety or health, prevents the release of any hazardous materials to adjacent property and otherwise is consistent with the prudent ownership of property of the character of the Premises and/or Tenant's Building and if such Remedial Work is required as a direct result of Tenant's Environmental Acts, then Tenant at Tenant's sole cost and expense, including without limitation, any taxes or penalties assessed in connection with the Remedial Work, shall perform or cause to be performed such Remedial Work; and if such Remedial Work is required for any reason other than Tenant's Environmental Acts, then, Landlord, at Landlord's sole cost and expense, including without limitation, any taxes or penalties assessed in connection with the Remedial Work, shall perform or cause to be performed such Remedial Work. Obligations under this Section are solely for the benefit of the parties, their successors, and assigns and any subtenants of this Lease, and not for any other third parties.

CONDEMNATION — EMINENT DOMAIN

A) "Taking" means that taking or damaging, including severance damage, by eminent domain or by inverse condemnation for any public or quasi-public use under any statute. The transfer of title may be either a transfer resulting from the recording of a final order in condemnation or a voluntary transfer or conveyance to the condemning agency or entity under threat of condemnation, in avoidance of an exercise of eminent domain, or while condemnation proceedings are pending. The Taking shall be considered to take place as of the date on which the right to compensation and damages accrues under the law applicable to the Premises, unless the condemnor also takes actual physical possession of the Premises or a part thereof, in which case the date of Taking for the purposes of this Lease shall be the later of the date on which the right to compensation and damages accrues or the date physical possession is taken by the condemnor.

B) "Total Taking" means the Taking of the fee title to all the Premises and the Improvements on the Premises, which shall be considered to include any offsite improvements effected by Tenant to serve the Premises or the improvements or the parking on the Premises.

C) "Partial Taking" means any Taking (including any damaging) of a portion of the Premises, the Common Area, or any Improvements or parking thereon which is not a Total Taking.

D) "Notice of Intended Taking" means any notice or notification on which a reasonably prudent man would rely and which he would interpret as expressing an existing intention of Taking as distinguished from a mere preliminary inquiry or proposal. It includes, but is not limited to, the service of a condemnation summons and complaint on a party to this Lease. The notice is considered to have been received when a party to this Lease receives from the condemning agency or entity a Notice of Intended Taking, in writing, containing a description or map of the Taking reasonably defining the extent of the Taking.

E) "Award" means compensation paid for the Taking, whether pursuant to judgment or by agreement or otherwise.

14.02 Notice to Other Party. The party hereto receiving any notice of the kinds specified below shall promptly give the other party notice of the receipt, contents, and date of the notice received:

A) Notice of Intended Taking;

B) Service of any legal process relating to condemnation of the Premises or improvements;

C) Notice in connection with any proceedings or negotiations with respect to such a condemnation; or

D) Notice of intent or willingness to make or negotiate a private purchase, sale or transfer in lieu of condemnation.

A) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any, for the Fair Market Value of all buildings and other improvements on the Premises;

B) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any, for severance damages

C) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any, for the "bonus value" of this leasehold estate without improvements. The bonus value is the amount by which the fair market rental value on the open market exceeds the contract rent (the amount called for in this Lease);

D) To Tenant, the amount awarded, if any, for loss of goodwill and relocation expenses;

E) To Tenant, any other award which will not reduce the amount which otherwise would be awarded to Landlord; and

F) To Landlord, any balance.

Tenant shall only be entitled to payments under this Section 14.04 out of amounts awarded by the governmental body taking the Premises.

14.05 Partial Taking — Rent Adjustments. On a Partial Taking, the Lease shall remain in full force and effect covering the remaining Premises, except that the total Rent as otherwise provided herein shall be reduced in the same ratio as the percentage of the area of the Premises taken bears to the total area of the Premises.

14.06 Partial Taking — Option to Terminate. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event of a Partial Taking, if more than thirty percent (30%) of the Building or fifty (50%) of the parking is taken by a condemnation or sold under the threat of condemnation, then Tenant may terminate this Lease as of the date the condemning authority takes title or possession, whichever occurs first, by delivering written notice to the other within ten (10) days after receipt of written notice of such taking (or in the absence of such notice, within ten (10) days after the condemning authority takes possession).

14.07 Separate Tenant's Award. In the event of a Taking, Tenant may make a separate claim with respect to lost business, lost profits, moving expenses and other related damages against the acquiring governmental Agency.

ARTICLE XV

DEFAULT

15.01 Tenant's Default. The occurrence of any of the following shall constitute a default or event of default by Tenant:

A) Failure to pay Annual Rent or any other monetary amount when due as provided herein, if the failure continues for ten (10) days after first written notice has been given to Tenant by Landlord;

B) Failure to perform any of Tenant's non-monetary obligations under this Lease, provided however, Tenant shall have thirty (30) days from receipt of written notice by Landlord to cure each such default. If Tenant cannot reasonably cure such default within said thirty (30) day period, Tenant shall not be in default of this Lease if Tenant commences to cure the breach within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the breach.

C) Tenant shall file a petition in voluntary bankruptcy under the bankruptcy code of the United States or any similar Law, State or Federal Law, now or hereafter in effect.

15.02 Landlord's Remedies Cumulative. Landlord shall have the following remedies set forth in subsections (A) through (G) below if Tenant commits a default, except as provided in Section 15.03. These remedies are not exclusive and may be exercised concurrently or successively; they are cumulative in addition to any remedies now or later allowed by law or equity:

A) Bring Suit for Performance. Landlord may bring suit for the collection of the Rent or other amounts for which Tenant is then in default, or for the performance of any other covenant or agreement devolving upon Tenant, all without having to enter into possession or terminate this Lease;

B) Re-Entry Without Termination. Pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1954.4, Landlord may re-enter the Premises, by legal proceedings (or without legal proceedings if the Premises have been abandoned), and take possession thereof; without thereby terminating this Lease, and thereupon Landlord may expel all persons and remove all property therefrom, without becoming liable to prosecution therefor, and relet the Premises or a portion or portions thereof, and receive the rent therefrom; applying the same first to the payment of the reasonable expenses of such re-entry and the reasonable cost of such reletting, and then to the payment of the Rent and other amounts for which Tenant is then in default; the balance, if any, to be paid to Tenant, who, whether or not the Premises are relet, shall remain liable for any deficiency. It is agreed that the commencement and prosecution of any action by Landlord in forcible entry and detainer, ejectment, or otherwise, or the appointment of a receiver, or any execution of any decree obtained in any action to recover possession of the Premises, or any re-entry, shall not be construed as an election to terminate this Lease unless Landlord shall, in writing, expressly exercise its election to declare the Lease Term hereunder ended and to terminate this Lease, and unless this Lease be expressly terminated, such re-entry or entry by Landlord, whether had or taken under summary proceedings or otherwise, shall not be deemed to have absolved or discharged Tenant from any of its obligations and liabilities for the remainder of the Lease Term. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary or other provisions of this Section 15.02(B), Tenant shall have the right to sublet the Premises, assign its interest in the Lease, or both, subject to Landlord's prior right, during any continuance of Tenant's default, to relet the Premises or a portion or portions thereof.

C) Termination of Lease and Lessee's Right to Possession. No act by Landlord, other than giving Tenant written notice of termination of this Lease, shall in fact terminate the Lease. Upon termination of the Lease, neither Landlord nor Tenant shall have any future rights or obligations under the Lease except that Landlord shall have the right to recover from Tenant the following:

(1) The worth, at the time of the award, of the unpaid Rent that had been earned at the time of termination of this Lease;

(2) The worth, at the time of the award, of the amount by which the unpaid Rent that would have been earned after the date of termination of this Lease until the time of award exceeds the amount of the loss of Rent that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided;

(3) The worth, at the time of the award, of the amount by which the unpaid Rent for the balance of the Term after the time of award exceeds the amount of the loss of Rent that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided; and

(4) Any other amount, and court costs, necessary to compensate Landlord for all detriment proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform his obligations under the Lease or which, in the ordinary course of things, would be likely to result therefrom.

(5) For any other sums due.

D) Definitions. As used herein, the following phrases shall be interpreted as follows:

(1) "The worth, at the time of the award," as used in subsections 15.02(C)(1) and (2) above, is to be computed by allowing interest at the maximum lawful rate. "The worth, at the time of the award," as referred to in subsection 15.02(C)(3) above, is to be computed by discounting the amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco at the time of the award, plus one percent (1%).

(2) As used herein, the term "time of award" shall mean either the date upon which Tenant pays to Landlord the amount recoverable by Landlord as hereinabove set forth or the date of entry of any determination, order, or judgment of any court or other legally constituted body determining the amount recoverable, whichever first occurs.

E) Surrender. Promptly after notice of termination, Tenant shall surrender and vacate the Premises and all improvements in broom-clean condition, and Landlord may re-enter and take possession of the Premises and all remaining improvements and eject all: parties in possession or eject some and not others, or eject none. Termination under subsection 15.02(C) shall not relieve Tenant from the payment of any sum due to Landlord or from any claim for damages previously accrued or then accruing against Tenant.

F) Appointment of Receiver. If Tenant defaults under Section 15.02 Landlord shall have the right to have a receiver appointed to collect rent from any subtenants. Neither the filing of a petition for the appointment of a receiver nor the appointment itself shall constitute an election by Landlord to terminate this Lease.

G) Landlord's Right to Cure Tenant's Default Landlord, at any time after Tenant is in default under Section 15.01 herein, may cure the default at Tenant's expense. If Landlord, at any time, by reason of Tenant's default, pays any sum or does any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Landlord shall be immediately reimbursed from Tenant to Landlord, together with interest at eighteen percent (18%) per annum computed from the date of such expenditure until the date of reimbursement by Tenant.

15.03 Landlord's Default.

A) The occurrence of the following shall constitute a default by Landlord: Breach of any provision of this Lease if the breach is not cured within thirty (30) days after written notice by Tenant; provided, however, that if the breach cannot reasonably be cured within such thirty (30) day period, Landlord shall not be in default of this Lease if Landlord commences to cure the breach within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the default.

B) Tenant, at any time after Landlord is in default under paragraph (A) above, may cure the default at Landlord's expense. If Tenant at any time, by reason of Landlord's default, pays any sum or does any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Tenant shall be immediately reimbursed by Landlord, together with interest at eighteen percent (18%) per annum determined at the time the expenditure is made by Tenant computed from the date of such expenditure until the date of reimbursement by Landlord. If Landlord fails to make such payment(s) within fifteen (15) days after Tenant's written demand, Tenant shall be entitled to offset any amount due from Landlord against the next Rent payment due under this Lease.

15.4 Waiver of Redemption. Tenant hereby expressly waives any and all rights of redemption granted by or under any present or future laws in the event of Tenant being dispossessed or removed from the Premises upon the termination of this Lease because of default by Tenant hereunder.

15.5 Dispute Resolution. Landlord and Tenant desire by provisions of this Section 15.05 to establish procedures to facilitate the informal and inexpensive resolution of any dispute arising out of this Lease by mutual cooperation and without resort to litigation. To accomplish this objective, Landlord and Tenant agree to follow the procedures set forth below if and when a dispute arises between them under this Lease.

A) Description of Dispute. The complaining party shall provide by notice a written description of the alleged breach by the other party. This description shall explain the nature of the complaint and the Lease provision(s) on which it is based. The complaining party shall also set forth a proposed solution to the problem including a specific time frame within which the parties must act. The party receiving the letter of complaint must respond in writing within ten (10) days with an explanation, including references to the relevant parts of the Lease and a response to the proposed solution. Within ten (10) days of receipt of this response, the parties must meet and discuss options for resolving the dispute. The complaining party must initiate the scheduling of the resolution meeting.

B) Mediation. A settlement conference shall be held within thirty (30) days of the unsuccessful resolution meeting or as soon as practical thereafter. The settlement conference shall be held in the County of San Francisco, California.

C) Arbitration. With respect to disputes which the parties have been unable to resolve informally or by mediation, the parties agree to submit the dispute for final and binding arbitration if the dispute has not otherwise been settled. The parties agree that the arbitration must be initiated within one (1) year after the date of the written description of the alleged breach and that the failure to initiate arbitration within the one (1) year period constitutes an absolute bar to the initiation of any proceedings. An arbitration shall be deemed initiated for the purposes of this section by demand therefor being sent by certified mail to the other party which notice shall contain a description of the dispute, the amount involved and the remedies sought. The parties shall have the right to representation by counsel throughout the arbitration proceedings. All rulings, decisions, and awards of the arbitrators shall be in conformance with California law. The award may be judicially enforced pursuant to §1285 et seq of the California Code of Civil Procedure. Each party shall bear their own costs of legal counsel and the fees for witnesses, unless otherwise determined by the arbitrator as part of the award. The parties may establish the scope of discovery by agreement. If the parties cannot agree, the arbitrator will have discretion to define the limits of discovery and to allow discovery upon a showing of good cause, utilizing the following guidelines:

(1) The arbitrator shall balance the benefits of discovery against the burdens and expenses to the parties and the goals of arbitration as an alternative to traditional litigation.

(2) The arbitrator shall have discretion to order pre-hearing exchange of information, including but not limited to, the production of requested documents and exchanges of summaries of testimony of proposed witnesses.

(3) The deposition of the claimant(s) and respondent(s) and form sets of interrogatories approved by the Judicial Council shall be allowed as a matter of right. There shall be an early and prompt designation and exchange of the names and addresses of expert witnesses who may be called upon to testify at the arbitration hearing. Their depositions, special interrogatories, requests for admission and all other discovery shall be allowed only upon a showing of good cause.

15.06 Attorneys' Fees. Should any action or proceeding, be commenced between the parties to this Lease concerning said Premises, this Lease, or the rights and duties of either in relation thereto, the party, Landlord, or Tenant, prevailing in such action or proceeding shall be entitled, in addition to such other relief as may be granted in the action or proceeding, to a reasonable sum as and for its attorneys' fees therein which shall be determined by the arbitrator(s) hearing such action or proceeding.

ARTICLE XVII

17.01 Repairs, Alterations and Further Improvements.

A) Tenant's Obligation to Repair. If the Premises are damaged by any peril after the Commencement date of the Lease, Tenant shall restore the Leased Premises unless the Lease is terminated pursuant to Section 17.01 B. If this Lease is not so terminated, then upon receipt of the insurance proceeds by Landlord (if insurance proceeds are available) and the issuance of all necessary governmental permits, Tenant shall promptly commence and diligently prosecute to completion the restoration of the Leased Premises to the extent then allowed by Law, to substantially the same condition in which the Leased Premises were immediately prior to such damage..

(B) Damage in Excess of Fifty Percent(50%). If the cost of repairing or reconstructing said damage or destruction to its former condition and form is in excess of Fifty percent (50%) and if such reconstruction or rebuilding cannot be made under then existing laws, ordinances, statutes or regulations of any governmental authority applicable thereto the Term shall end as of the date of such damage or destruction. If, however, such reconstruction or rebuilding can be made under such existing laws, ordinances, statutes and regulations (or can be so made with minor and non-material changes to the former condition and form of the property damaged or destroyed), Tenant shall effect such repair or restoration.

17.02 Prompt Repair. If Tenant, pursuant to the terms hereof, is obligated to repair, replace, reconstruct or rebuild any structures, improvements or other property as hereinabove provided, the same shall be effected at Tenant's cost and expense (which may be paid from insurance proceeds available as above provided) and Tenant shall diligently commence and continuously carry out such repair, replacement, reconstruction or rebuilding, to full completion as soon as possible, except to the extent of delays due to strikes, lockouts, shortages of labor or materials after due diligence in obtaining the same, governmental restrictions, fire, casualty, riot, act of God, act of the public enemy, or other causes beyond the reasonable control of Tenant after the exercise of due diligence, including diligence in contracting, and the exercise of rights under contracts, with contractors and suppliers.

17.03 Rent Adjustment. This Lease and the Term shall not terminate or be terminated because of damage to or destruction of any structure or improvement on or in the Premises except under and in accordance with the provisions hereinabove contained. If such damage or destruction occurs and renders all or a portion of the Improvements on the Premises untenable, Rent shall not be abated. Tenant shall not be entitled to any compensation or damages from Landlord for loss of Tenant's property or any inconvenience or annoyance caused by such restoration.

ARTICLE XVIII

MISCELLANEOUS

18.01 Limitation on Liability. The liability of Landlord hereunder or in connection with the Premises or Entire Premises shall be limited to its interest in the Premises and/or Entire Premises, as the case may be, and in no event shall any other assets of Landlord be subject to any claim arising out of or in connection with the Lease, Premises, or Entire Premises.

18.02 Modification. No modification, waiver, amendment, discharge, or change of this Lease shall be valid unless the same is in writing and signed by the party against which the enforcement of such modification, waiver, amendment, discharge, or change is or may be sought.

In the event any term, covenant, condition, provision, or agreement contained herein is held to be invalid void, or otherwise unenforceable, by any court of competent jurisdiction, such holding shall in no way affect the validity or enforceability of any other term, covenant, condition, provision, or agreement contained herein.

All reference to section numbers herein shall mean the sections of this Lease.

18.09 Notices to Landlord and Tenant.

A) Except as otherwise in this Lease provided a bill, demand statement, consent, notice or communication which Landlord may desire or be required to give to Tenant shall be deemed sufficiently given or rendered if in writing, delivered personally to Tenant or sent by certified (return receipt requested) or private express mail courier (postage fully prepaid) addressed to Tenant to the addresses set forth in Section 18.12 below or at such other address(es) as Tenant shall designate by notice given as herein provided. C) The time of the rendition of such bills or statements and of the giving of such consents, notices, demands, requests or communications (collectively "notice") by Tenant or Landlord shall be deemed to be the earlier of (i) the date received by Tenant with respect to a notice to Tenant, and the date received by Landlord with respect to a notice to Landlord (ii) if the notice is sent by certified mail, five (5) days after the same is mailed, or (iii) if the notice is sent by private overnight courier (e.g., Federal Express or similar courier), one (1) day after the same is delivered to or picked up by such courier. Rejection or refusal to accept a notice, request, demand, or the inability to deliver same because of a changed address of which no notice was given shall be deemed to be a receipt of the notice, request or demand sent. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Lease, no provision in this Lease shall preclude service of notices in accordance with Section 1162 of the California Code of Civil Procedure or any similar and/or successor code sections.

18.10 Addresses for Notices to Landlord and Tenant.

18.11 Entire Agreement. This Lease and the exhibits attached set forth the entire agreement between the parties. Except as specifically set forth herein, there are no agreements, representations, or warranties whatsoever as to any matter. Any prior agreements, conversations, or writings are merged herein, superseded hereby, and extinguished.

18.12 Sale or Transfer of Premises. Landlord shall promptly notify Tenant in writing of any sale or transfer of the Premises or any assignment of Landlord's interest in this Lease, giving the name and address of the assignee or new owner, as the case may be, and instructions regarding the payment of rent or any other amount required to be paid by Tenant hereunder. In the event of any transfer or assignment of Landlord's interest in this Lease or any change in, or transfer of, title in and to the Premises of any part thereof, whether voluntary or involuntary, or by act of Landlord or by operation of law, Tenant shall be under no obligation to pay rent or other charges payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder, thereafter accruing, until Tenant shall have been notified in writing of such transfer, assignment, or change in title, and given satisfactory proof thereof, and the withholding of rent or other charges payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder, in the meantime shall not be deemed a default upon the part of Tenant. Landlord may assign this Lease and convey its title to the Premises, subject to this Lease, at any time. In the event of such assignment of this Lease, Landlord shall have no further obligations under this Lease, except for liabilities which shall have accrued prior to the date of such assignment and transfer and that the assignee assumes in writing Landlord's obligations hereunder accruing on and after the effective date of the assignment.

18.13 Force Majeure. In the event that Tenant shall be delayed or hindered in or prevented from the performance of any act other than Tenant's obligation to make payments of rent, and other charges required hereunder, by reason of strikes, lockouts, unavailability of materials, failure of power, restrictive governmental laws or regulations, riots, insurrections, the default of Landlord, war, or other reason beyond its control, then performance of such act shall be excused for the period of the delay, and the period for the performance of such act shall be extended for a period equivalent to the period of such delay. Notwithstanding the foregoing, lack of funds shall not be deemed to be a cause beyond the control of Tenant.

18.14 Waiver. No term, covenant, or condition of this Lease can be waived except in writing, signed by the party making the waiver, Landlord or Tenant, as the case may be. No waiver of any default hereunder shall be implied from any omission by either party to take any action on account of such default if such default persists or is repeated, and no express waiver shall affect any default other than the default specified in the express waiver, and that only for the time and to the extent therein stated. The acceptance by Landlord of Rent or partial Rent with knowledge of the breach of any of the covenants of this Lease by Tenant shall not be deemed a waiver of any such breach. One or more waivers of any breach of any covenant term, or condition of this Lease shall not be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same covenant, term, or condition. The consent or approval by either party shall not be deemed to waive or render unnecessary that party's consent to or approval of any subsequent similar act.

18.15 Estoppel Certificate. Either party hereto shall, within twenty (20) days notice from the other party (referred to as the "Requesting Party"), execute and deliver to the Requesting Party, in recordable form, a certificate stating that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect, or in full force and effect as modified, and stating the modifications. The certificate also shall state the amount of current monthly rent, the dates to which the rent has been paid in advance, the amount of prepaid rent, and any other information with respect to this Lease reasonably requested by the Requesting Party. Failure to deliver the certificate within the twenty (20) days shall be conclusive upon the party failing to deliver the certificate for the benefit of the party requesting the certificate and any successor to the party requesting the certificate, that this Lease is in full force and effect, and has not been modified except as may be represented by the party requesting the certificate, and that rent and other charges have not been paid for any period after date of the notice requesting the certificate.

18.16 Number and Gender. Whenever the context requires the singular number, it shall include the plural, the plural the singular, and the use of any gender shall include all genders.

18.17 No Holding Over. Tenant shall have no right to holdover after the end of the Term. Should Tenant or any Leasehold Mortgagee succeeding to the interest of Tenant hold over in possession after the expiration date, such holding over shall not be deemed to extend the Lease or renew this Lease; and Tenant shall pay a pro-rated daily amount equal to one hundred twenty percent (120%) of the Annual Rent in effect immediately preceding the expiration date until Tenant vacates the Premises.

18.18 Mechanics Liens. Tenant shall discharge, by payment, bonding or otherwise, any mechanics liens filed against the Premises or the Entire Premises in connection with Tenant's work and/or any alterations or other work done by or on behalf of Tenant in the Premises within thirty (30) days after Tenant receives notice of the filing of such lien, and Landlord shall cooperate with Tenant at no expense to Landlord, in order to accomplish such discharge. Should Tenant fail to so discharge any such mechanics lien, Landlord shall have the right to remove such mechanics liens and charge all costs thereof, including without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, to Tenant as additional rent plus interest at 18%.

18.19 Relationship of Parties. Nothing contained in this Lease shall be construed to create the relationship of principal and agent, partnership, joint venture or any other relationship between the parties hereto other than the relationship of Landlord and Tenant. Nothing contained herein shall in any way impose any liability upon the stockholders, officers or directors of Landlord or stockholders, officers, directors or trustees of Tenant should such parties be corporate entities.

18.20 Time of the Essence. Time is of the essence with respect to Tenant's payment of rent and other monetary obligations to Landlord under this Lease.

18.21 Facsimile Copies. Tenant and Landlord (i) have each agreed to permit the use, from time to time and where appropriate, of telecopied signatures in order to expedite the transaction contemplated by this Lease, (ii) each intend to be bound by its respective telecopied signature, (iii) are each aware that the other will rely on the telecopied signature, and (iv) each acknowledge such reliance and waive any defenses to the enforcement of the documents effecting the transaction contemplated by this Lease based on a telecopied signature.

18.22 Anti-Merger. The voluntary or otherwise surrender of this Lease by Tenant, or a mutual cancellation of this Lease shall not work a merger but shall at the option of Landlord either:

A) Terminate any existing subleases or subtenancies; or

B) Operate as an assignment to Landlord (and assumption by Landlord) of any subleases or subtenancies.

Execution VersionTHIRD AMENDMENT TO LEASE

(North Hollywood)

THIS THIRD AMENDMENT TO LEASE AGREEMENT (this "Amendment") is entered into as of August 7, 2006 to be effective as of the Effective Date (as defined hereinbelow) by and between SYUFY ENTERPRISES, L.P., a California limited partnership ("Landlord"), and CENTURY THEATRES, INC., a California corporation ("Tenant").

RECITALS:

A. Landlord and Century Theatres of California Inc., a California corporation ("Original Tenant"), entered into a certain Lease dated as of September 30, 1995 (the "Original Lease"), for certain premises located in North Hollywood, California.

B. The Original Lease has been previously amended by (i) that certain First Amendment to Lease dated as of September 1, 2000 (the "First Amendment"), and (ii) that certain Second Amendment to Lease dated as of April 15, 2005 (the "Second Amendment"; the Original Lease as heretofore amended is referred to herein as the "Lease").

C. Tenant has succeeded to the interests and assumed the obligations of Original Tenant as the lessee under the Lease.

D. Landlord and Tenant now desire to further amend the Lease, upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Amendment.

NOW THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt, adequacy and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Lease is hereby modified and amended, and Landlord and Tenant hereby agree, as follows:

1. Recitals Incorporated; Certain Defined Terms. The Recitals set forth above are incorporated into this Amendment and shall be deemed terms and provisions hereof, the same as if fully set forth in this Paragraph 1. Capitalized terms that are used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed to such terms in the Lease.

2. Effectiveness. The parties are entering into this Amendment in connection with the contemplated acquisition of all the outstanding capital stock of Century Theatres, Inc. by Cinemark Holdings, Inc. and Cinemark USA, Inc. (the "Acquisition") pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement dated as of the date hereof (the "Stock Purchase Agreement"). This Amendment shall become automatically effective upon, and only upon, the closing of the Acquisition (the "Effective Date"). In the event the Acquisition is not consummated and the Stock Purchase Agreement is terminated, this Agreement shall become void ab initio and of no force and effect.

3. Initial Term of Lease and Extension Options. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease, the current Term of the Lease shall expire on the date that is * after the Effective Date hereof. Thereafter, the Term of this Lease shall automatically renew on a * basis unless Tenant delivers written notice to Landlord at least sixty

(60) days prior to the then-current expiration date of the Term that Tenant elects not to extend the Term of the Lease.

4. Landlord's Recapture Right. If, at any time during the term of the Lease, Tenant fails to satisfy the Operating Condition (defined below), for reasons other than Excused Closure (defined below), and such failure continues for six (6) consecutive months or more, then upon notice from Landlord to Tenant at any time thereafter (provided that the Operating Condition remains unsatisfied), Landlord shall have the right to terminate the Lease and to recapture the Leased Premises, without payment to Tenant, effective upon the date set forth in Landlord's termination notice (but not sooner than 30 days after the date of the termination notice).

The term "Operating Condition" shall mean and require that the entire Leased Premises is being continuously operated and regularly open for business to the general public as a motion picture theater complex in accordance with the Lease, at least on such days and at such times that a majority of Century's and Cinemark's other motion picture theater complexes in the County of Los Angeles typically are open and operating. The term "Excused Closure" shall mean (i) periods of construction, alterations, renovation, remodeling and repair of the Leased Premises undertaken in accordance with this Lease (including repairs and restoration following damage or destruction due to fire or other casualty) provided that Tenant (A) prosecutes such work to completion with reasonable diligence, (B) exercises its reasonable efforts to minimize the length of time of such closure, and (C) exercises its reasonable efforts to limit the number of motion picture screens at the Premises that are not operated due to such closure; (ii) periods when Tenant cannot practicably operate its business in the Premises as a consequence of force majeure; and (iii) additional periods, not to exceed four (4) days in any Lease Year, when Tenant in its sole discretion elects not to operate its business in the Leased Premises.

5. Self-Insurance of Property/Casualty Risks. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Lease, during any period in which Tenant maintains a Net Worth (as defined below) of at least One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000.00), Tenant may self insure the so-called "physical property damage insurance" otherwise required to be maintained by Tenant pursuant to the Lease. As used herein, the "Net Worth" of Tenant at any given time shall mean an amount equal to the sum of (A) the product of (1) Tenant's so-called EBITDA (i.e., earnings before interest, income taxes, depreciation and amortization), calculated in accordance with commercially reasonable past practice preceding the Effective Date by Tenant's parent corporation, over the 12-month period immediately preceding the time of measurement, multiplied by (2) eight (8), plus (B) the amount of cash and cash equivalents held by Tenant on the most recent anniversary of Tenant's annual insurance renewal date, minus (C) the amount of outstanding funded debt of Tenant on the determination date.

6. Damage and Destruction — Repairs by Tenant. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, the following shall apply to repairs and restoration upon damage or destruction:

(A) Tenant's Obligation to Repair. If the Leased Premises are damaged or destroyed by any peril after the Commencement Date of this Lease, then Tenant shall repair the damage and restore the Leased Premises in accordance with this Section, except as provided in subsection (B) below. Unless Tenant is not required to effect the repairs and restoration pursuant to subsection (B) below, Tenant shall promptly apply for and diligently seek to obtain all necessary governmental permits and approvals for the repair and restoration of the Leased Premises and, upon issuance of such governmental permits and approvals, promptly commence and diligently prosecute the completion of the repairs and restoration of the Leased Premises (to the extent permitted by applicable law) to substantially the same condition in which the Leased Premises were immediately prior to such damage or destruction (subject to any alterations which Tenant would be permitted to make to the Leased Premises pursuant to this Lease).

(B) If the Leased Premises are damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty which occurs after the Effective Date hereof, and if the uninsured cost to repair such damage or to restore the Leased Premises (including deductibles) exceeds $50,000, then (i) Tenant shall have the option, upon notice to Landlord not later than one hundred eighty (180) days following the occurrence of the applicable casualty, not to undertake the repairs and restoration of the Leased Premises (provided, however, that Landlord may nullify Tenant's election not to undertake the repairs and restoration, within thirty (30) days after receiving Tenant's notice by confirming either (x) that Landlord shall reimburse Tenant for such excess costs within 30 days after the completion of the repairs and restoration and Landlord's receipt of reasonable supporting documentation of such costs or (y) that Landlord waives its right to terminate this Lease pursuant to Section 18 prior to the date which is 12 months after the repairs and restoration are completed), and (ii) if Tenant so elects not to undertake the repairs and restoration, then Tenant nevertheless shall raze Tenant's Building and remove from the Leased Premises all building materials and debris and all underground installations that serve only the Leased Premises (including the footings and foundations of Tenant's Building and the utility lines serving Tenant's Building) and restore the surface of the Premises to a graded and landscaped surface.

7. Permitted Assignments and Release. Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, the following shall apply and control:

Subject to the next sentence, Tenant may sublet or assign this Lease only upon receipt of Landlord's written consent which consent Landlord agrees shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned. Notwithstanding anything in this Lease to the contrary, it is agreed that at any time during the term of this Lease, Tenant may, without Landlord's consent or approval (but only upon prior written notice to Landlord), assign this Lease or sublet the Leased Premises to: (i) any wholly-owned subsidiary of Tenant, and (ii) any corporation, trust, partnership or individual that owns fifty percent (50%) or more of the issued and outstanding stock of Tenant. A change in control of Tenant shall not constitute an assignment of this Lease requiring Landlord's consent or approval, provided, however, that if any assignee under clause (i) above ceases to be a wholly owned subsidiary of Tenant, then the same shall be deemed to constitute an assignment which is prohibited without Landlord's approval under Article XI of the Lease. No assignment, subletting or other transfer of the Lease or the Leased Premises shall relieve or release Tenant from any liabilities or obligations arising under the Lease.

8. Leasehold Financing. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, Tenant shall have the right, without Landlord's consent to encumber the leasehold estate created under the Lease and/or to grant a security interest in Tenant's removable trade fixtures, furnishings and equipment located within the Leased Premises (but not to encumber Landlord's fee interest in the Premises), to secure financing provided to Tenant by any bank, thrift institution, insurance company or other institutional lender. Tenant agrees to notify Landlord of any such encumbrance. With respect to any such leasehold financing (and provided that Tenant is not in default under the Lease beyond any applicable notice or cure period), upon thirty (30) days' prior written request from Tenant, Landlord will execute and deliver to the secured lender a "Landlord's Agreement" in the form attached hereto as Exhibit "A-1".

9. [Intentionally Omitted].

10. Gross Sales Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary the definition of Gross Sales shall be as follows:

"Gross Sales" shall mean the total amount of all revenues (whether in cash or credit) generated or derived from the conduct of any business at the Leased Premises, including (without limitation) all box office receipts of or at the Leased Premises (including receipts from tickets or gift certificates redeemed at the Leased Premises regardless of the point of sale), as well as any and all receipts from the sale of goods, services, merchandise, beverages, food, vending machines and video games at the Leased Premises; provided, however, that the following shall be excluded from "Gross Sales" (i) credits and refunds made with respect to admissions or other sales otherwise included in Gross Sales, (ii) all federal, state, county and city admission taxes, sales and use taxes, entertainment taxes, royalty taxes, gross receipt taxes and other similar taxes now or hereafter imposed and owing to the taxing authority by Tenant (whether such taxes are collected from customers separately from the selling price of admission tickets or absorbed by Tenant); (iii) receipts from the sale of gift certificates or tickets sold but not redeemed at the Leased Premises; (iv) with respect to any tickets or admissions ordered or paid for over the internet and redeemed at the Leased Premises, the portion (if any) of the sale price that exceeds Tenant's actual box-office ticket price; (v) sales price for merchandise returned, (vi) amounts retained by credit card issuers, (vii) sales outside of the ordinary course of business, (viii) amount of credit card sales deemed uncollectible, (ix) advertising revenues including without limitation media, sponsorship, and promotional advertising of any kind, and (x) the receipts of or from so-called "four-wall deals" with a party that is not affiliated with Tenant, except that the portion thereof or other amounts paid to Tenant in connection with such "four-wall deals" shall be included in "Gross Sales" under this Lease. Commissions or surcharges paid to agencies or other third parties not affiliated with Tenant for selling tickets or processing credit card transactions, and any sums paid to third parties not affiliated with Tenant for the use or rental of vending machines, pay telephones, amusement machines and other similar devices shall be deducted from "Gross Sales" (if and to the extent previously included in "Gross Sales").

11. Taxes. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Lease or this Amendment to the contrary, if during the ten (10) year period immediately following the Effective Date, any sale or change in ownership of the Premises (or against the Entire Premises, if the Premises are not separately assessed) is consummated by Landlord and, as a result, all or part of the Premises (or Entire Premises, if applicable) are reassessed (a "Reassessment") for real property tax purposes by the appropriate governmental authority under the terms of Proposition 13 (as adopted by the voters of the State of California in the June 1978 election) or the terms of Article XIII A of the Constitution of the State of California, then the terms of this Section shall apply. For purposes of this Section, the term "Tax Increase" shall mean that portion of the annual real estate taxes assessed against the Premises (or the Entire Premise, if applicable), as calculated immediately following the Reassessment, that is attributable solely to the Reassessment. Accordingly, a Tax Increase shall not include any portion of the real estate taxes, as calculated immediately following the Reassessment, that is:

- (i) Attributable to the assessment of the value of the Premises (or Entire Premises, if applicable) prior to the Effective Date;
- (ii) Attributable to the annual inflationary increases in real estate taxes; or
- (iii) Attributable to the sale of Landlord's ownership interest in Tenant on or about the Effective Date, or attributable to the execution of this Amendment or any extension of the Term of this Lease on the Effective Date or thereafter.

During the five (5) year period immediately following the Effective Date, Tenant shall not be obligated to pay any portion of any Tax Increase relating to a Reassessment.

Commencing on the fifth anniversary of the Effective Date, and continuing until the tenth anniversary of the Effective Date, Tenant shall be obligated to pay annually only the portion of a Tax Increase relating to a Reassessment that is equal to (or less than) an increase of four percent (4%) per annum, compounded annually, from the Effective Date, in the annual amount owed by Tenant for real estate taxes under the terms of the Lease, from the annual amount owed by Tenant for real estate taxes under the terms of the Lease in calendar 2006.

The terms and provisions of this Section shall not apply to any increase in real estate taxes which results from or is attributable to any occurrence, fact or circumstance other than a sale by Landlord of Landlord's interest in the Premises or a transfer effected by Landlord which is treated as a sale by the local taxing authorities under Proposition 13 (excluding those matters identified in clause (iii) above). This Section shall not apply from and after the tenth (10th) anniversary of the Effective Date of this Amendment.

12. Alterations by Tenant.

Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, the following shall apply and control:

Tenant shall have the right from time to time, at its sole cost and expense, to make non-structural interior alterations, improvements, or changes in the Leased Premises as Tenant shall deem necessary or beneficial consistent with Tenant's exclusive use of the Leased Premises as a motion picture theatre complex and if Tenant undertakes such work, Tenant must pursue such work until completion. Tenant shall fully and completely indemnify Landlord against any mechanics' or other liens in connection with the making of such alterations and changes, and shall pay all costs, expenses, and charges thereof. Alterations, changes and improvements shall be performed in a first-class manner and must comply with all laws, zoning regulations and ordinances, and any conditions on permits issued pursuant thereto. If it is necessary in Tenant's reasonable judgment to close any of the motion picture screens during the period in which any of Tenant's work permitted hereunder is performed, said closure(s) shall be effected only in accordance with the provisions governing an "Excused Closure", as that term is defined in Section 4 of this Amendment.

13. Rooftop Equipment and Access. Tenant shall have the exclusive right to install, operate, repair, replace and maintain satellite dishes and/or other communication transmission devices (collectively "Rooftop Equipment") on the roof of the theatre necessary or appropriate to accept any transmission of signals to the theatre for all permitted uses, including without limitation, for movies, advertising, concerts, telecasts, corporate meetings or communications and the like; but Tenant shall be prohibited from entering into any leases or licenses with any third parties for retransmission from such Rooftop Equipment, and Tenant shall not retransmit such signals to a third party outside of the Leased Premises. Landlord shall not use, or permit any person or entity (other than Tenant), to use the roof or exterior walls of the theatre for any purpose whatsoever, and Landlord agrees not to enter into any leases or licenses with third parties for the use of the theater rooftop. Landlord shall be responsible for any damage to the rooftop caused by the Landlord or a third party that enters onto the theatre rooftop with Landlord's permission, and Landlord shall indemnify and hold Tenant harmless from all loss, cost, damage or expense which Tenant incurs as a result of the acts or omissions of said third party or their agents or employer. Tenant hereby indemnifies and agrees to hold Landlord and Landlord's successors and assigns harmless from all loss, cost, damage or expense which Landlord incurs as a result of the actions of Tenant, or its agents or employees in installing and utilizing Rooftop Equipment as permitted hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant's exclusive rights are subject to any agreements existing on the date hereof and any extensions thereof that may be exercised by the licensee or lessee thereunder regarding Rooftop Equipment. The lessee's or licensee's under such agreements may unilaterally extend or renew if and to the extent provided under such agreements, but Landlord may not renew or extend such agreements or extend such agreements unilaterally if such systems interfere with the transmission received by Tenant's Rooftop Equipment installed pursuant to this Section 12.

14. Permitted Use and Operations. From and after the Effective Date, Tenant shall be permitted to use and operate the Leased Premises as and only as a first-class motion picture theatre complex whether operated as a so-called "first run" theatre and/or an "art house" theatre. In no event shall Tenant be permitted to operate the Leased Premises as a so-called "second-run" theatre complex or a so-called "adult" theater complex.

15. Removal of Equipment, Surrender and Demolition. Upon the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of the Lease, and provided Tenant is not in default under the Lease beyond applicable notice and cure periods, and said earlier termination is not due to Tenant's default under the Lease, then for a period extending forty-five (45) days beyond the date of said

expiration or termination, Tenant shall be permitted to remove any and all furniture, fixtures and equipment owned and installed by Tenant in, on or to the Leased Premises. Such removal shall be: (a) at Tenant's sole cost and expense; (b) conducted in such manner that no liens or claims shall arise or exist in connection therewith; (c) conducted in a manner to avoid unreasonable interference with the activities of Landlord and subsequent tenants or occupants upon the Leased Premises and Tenant shall repair all damages caused by such removal.

Upon surrender of the Leased Premises by Tenant and removal of its equipment pursuant to the terms of the Lease and this Amendment, Landlord shall be responsible for the cost of any demolition of the Leased Premises and site grading and restoration as a result, except as otherwise provided in the Lease. Such demolition shall be undertaken in Landlord's sole discretion and at such times, manner and upon such events as Landlord solely shall determine

16. Alternate Rent. As of the Effective Date and if and for so long as Tenant continues to satisfy the Operating Condition (defined in Section 4 above), then in lieu of Base Rent and Percentage Rent otherwise due under the Lease (but not in lieu of Tenant's share of real estate taxes or any other amounts payable by Tenant under the Lease, which will continue to be due and payable by Tenant as provided in the Lease), Tenant shall pay to Landlord on a monthly basis an amount equal to  of Tenant's Gross Sales, as defined in Section 10 above. Such amount shall be paid by Tenant monthly in arrears on or before the thirtieth (30th) day after the end of each calendar month. Within sixty (60) days after the end of each fiscal year, Tenant shall provide a written certification of Tenant's Gross Sales for the prior year, executed by the chief financial officer or controller of Tenant, which shall be subject to the same year-end reporting and reconciliation procedures and the verification and audit rights of Landlord that apply to Percentage Rent under this Lease.

17. No Obligation To Continuously Operate Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease or otherwise, Landlord hereby acknowledges that Tenant shall not be required to continuously operate and open for business in or from the Premises and any election by Tenant to cease operations at the Premises shall not constitute a default or breach of the terms and conditions of the Lease.

18. Early Termination — Tenant. (i) If, during any consecutive twelve (12) calendar month period after the Effective Date (the "Test Period"), the TLCF (defined on Exhibit "A-2" hereto) for the Leased Premises is less than , then Tenant shall have the right, to be exercised by written notice to Landlord at any time when the TLCF over the most current trailing twelve (12) month period was  or within forty-five (45) days after such Test Period, to terminate the Lease as provided below in this Section; provided, however, that such notice and Tenant's right to terminate the Lease as provided in this Section shall be void and ineffective unless Tenant shall have satisfied the Operating Condition (defined in Section 4 above) continuously throughout the Test Period. In order to be effective, Tenant's notice to Landlord under this Section shall include a written certification to Landlord from Tenant's chief financial officer or controller confirming that the TLCF for the Test Period is less than . Provided Tenant has satisfied the aforesaid conditions, then this Lease shall be terminated effective as of the date which is thirty (30) days after the termination notice.

(ii) If, at anytime during which Tenant is paying Alternate Rent, Tenant reasonably determines that it is necessary or appropriate to undertake in any prospective 12-month period (the "Cap Ex Test Period"), aggregate capital expenditures (i.e., expenditures required to be capitalized rather than expensed under Tenant's normal income tax accounting procedures) for any repairs and maintenance to the Leased Premises in excess of  which Tenant is otherwise unwilling to make, then, Tenant shall have the right and option to terminate the Lease upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to Landlord, subject to the following terms and conditions: (A) Tenant's notice of termination shall specify in reasonable detail the applicable capital expenditures (the "Cap Ex Projects"), the projected commencement date of each Cap Ex Project and the estimated costs thereof (the "Projected Cap Ex Costs"), prior to incurring same and prior to the commencement of the Cap Ex Test Period; (B) Landlord shall have the ability (but not the obligation) to nullify Tenant's exercise of the termination option set forth in this subclause (ii) by delivering written notice to Tenant within ten (10) business days after the date of its receipt of Tenant's termination notice stating either that (1) Landlord shall reimburse Tenant for the amount by which the actual cost incurred by Tenant (within 30 days of receipt of reasonable documentation of such expense) during the Cap Ex Test Period for the identified Cap Ex Projects (but not more than the Projected Cap Ex Costs) exceed , or (2) Landlord waives its right to terminate this Lease pursuant to Section 19 below during the applicable Cap Ex Test Period; (C) if Landlord so nullifies Tenant's purported termination, then Tenant shall be required to undertake the Cap Ex Projects not later than thirty (30) days after the applicable dates specified in Tenant's notice of termination and thereafter to diligently prosecute the Cap Ex Projects to completion, at Tenant's sole cost and expense (subject to reimbursement from Landlord as provided above, if applicable); and (D) if Tenant fails to undertake and complete the identified Cap Ex Projects as aforesaid, then (x) such failure shall constitute a default by Tenant under the Lease, and (y) Landlord's termination rights under Section 19 below will be immediately reinstated (notwithstanding the waiver pursuant to clause (2) above, if applicable).

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Lease, including Section 15 above, if Tenant elects to terminate this Lease pursuant to this Section and Landlord demolishes the theatre building of the Leased Premise within twelve (12) months after the date of termination, then Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the actual out-of-pocket costs incurred by Landlord to demolish the theatre building (including, without limitation, the costs to remove from the Leased Premises all building materials and debris and all footings, foundations, utility lines and other underground installations that serve the Leased Premises and the costs to restore the surface of the Premises to a graded and landscaped surface); provided, however, that Tenant's reimbursement obligations shall not exceed an amount equal to the product of  psf multiplied by the ground floor area of the theatre building (in square feet). Tenant shall pay the amount due under this paragraph within thirty (30) days after receiving Landlord's written demand for reimbursement, which shall include reasonable supporting documentation confirming the costs so incurred by Landlord. Tenant's obligations under this paragraph shall expressly survive the termination of the Lease.

19. Early Termination — Landlord. Landlord shall have the right, at anytime after the Effective Date of this Amendment, to terminate this Lease upon not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Tenant.

20. California Remedies. Landlord's remedies upon a default under the Lease shall include, without limitation, the following:

Even though Tenant has breached the Lease and/or abandoned the Premises, this Lease shall continue in effect for so long as Landlord does not terminate Tenant's right to possession, and Landlord may enforce all of its rights and remedies under this Lease, including (but without limitation) the right to recover Rent as it becomes due. Landlord has the remedy described in Section 1951.4 of the Civil Code of the State of California or any successor code section (Landlord may continue the Lease in effect after Tenant's breach and abandonment and recover rent as it becomes due, if Tenant has the right to sublet or assign, subject only to reasonable limitations). Acts of maintenance, preservation or efforts to lease the Premises or the appointment of receiver upon application of Landlord to protect Landlord's interest under this Lease shall not constitute an election to terminate Tenant's right to possession.

21. Termination of Lease and Lessee's Right to Possession. Section 15.02(C) of the Lease shall be deemed deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

"If an event of default occurs, Landlord shall have the right, with or without notice or demand, immediately (after expiration of the applicable grace periods) to terminate this Lease, and at any time thereafter recover possession of the Premises or any part thereof and expel and remove therefrom Tenant and any other person occupying the same, by any lawful means, and again repossess and enjoy the Premises without prejudice to any of the remedies that Landlord may have under this Lease, or at law or equity by reason of Tenant's default or of such termination. Should Landlord terminate this Lease pursuant to foregoing, Landlord shall have all the rights and remedies of a landlord provided by Section 1951.2 of the Civil Code of the State of California, or successor code section. Upon such termination, in addition to any other rights and remedies to which Landlord may be entitled at law or in equity, Landlord shall be entitled to recover from Tenant:

- (1) the worth at the time of award of the unpaid Rent which had been earned at the time of termination;
- (2) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent which would have been earned after termination until the time of award exceeds the amount of such Rent loss that the Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided;
- (3) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent for the balance of the Term after the time of award exceeds the amount of such Rent loss that the Tenant proves could be reasonably avoided;
- (4) any other amount, and court costs, necessary to compensate Landlord for all the detriment proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform its obligations under this Lease or which, in the ordinary course of things, would be likely to result therefrom; and
- (5) for any other sums due."

22. Notices. The notices provisions of the Lease, as the case may be, shall be deemed deleted in their entirety and replaced with the following:

(a) Except as otherwise expressly and specifically in this Lease provided, a bill, demand, statement, consent, notice or other communication (“notice”) which either party may desire or be required to give to the other party shall be deemed sufficiently given or rendered if in writing, delivered personally to the party to be charged therewith or sent by certified mail (return receipt requested) or private express mail courier service (postage or delivery or courier fees fully prepaid) addressed to such party at the addresses set forth in subparagraph (c) below (including the addresses for copies of notices) and/or at such other address(es) as such party shall designate to the other party by notice given as herein provided. If Landlord is notified of the identity and address of Tenant’s Leasehold Mortgagee, Landlord shall give such party any notice served upon Tenant hereunder to the last known address of such Leasehold Mortgagee as provided by Tenant to Landlord by certified mail or private express courier service. If Tenant is notified of the identity and address of Landlord’s mortgagee, Tenant shall give such mortgagee any notice served upon Landlord hereunder to the last known address of such mortgagee as provided by Landlord to Tenant, by certified mail or private express courier service.

(b) Any notice given in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section shall be deemed effective upon the earlier of (i) if the notice is personally delivered, the date actually received by intended recipient, (ii) if the notice is sent by certified mail, five (5) days after the same is mailed, or (iii) if the notice is sent by private overnight courier service (e.g., Federal Express, DHL or similar courier), one (1) day after the same is delivered to or picked up by such courier. Rejection or refusal to accept a notice or the inability to deliver same because of a changed address of which no notice was given shall be deemed to be a receipt of the notice sent. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Lease, no provision in this Lease shall preclude service of notices in accordance with Section 1162 of the California Code of Civil Procedure or any similar and/or successor code sections.

(c) Addresses for Notices to Landlord and Tenant.

Notices are to be delivered, mailed or couriered to the following address(es):

23. Miscellaneous Amendments. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, whenever any of the terms “Leased Premises”, “Demised Premises” or “Premises” (and whether or not capitalized) is used herein, it shall be understood to mean the “premises leased hereby”; and whenever the term “Entire Premises” is used herein (and whether or not capitalized), it shall be understood to mean all of the contiguous land and buildings owned by Landlord at this location, which include the premises leased hereby. In the event that the Consumer Price Index is not available, the successor or substitute index shall be used for the computations herein set forth. In the event that the Consumer Price Index or such successor or substitute index is not published, a reliable governmental or other non-partisan publication evaluating the information theretofore used in determining the Consumer Price Index shall be used by Landlord for the computations herein set forth. For the purposes of the computations herein set forth, the basis for any substitute or successor index or such governmental or non-partisan publication shall be converted to a basis of 100 only in the event that the basis used in such index or publication is less than 100.

4.02 Percentage Rent. In addition to the payment of Base Rent, Tenant shall pay to Landlord for each Lease Year during the Term of this Lease, as Percentage Rent a sum equal to the amount by which  of the Gross Sales for such Lease Year exceeds the Base Rent which is payable for such Lease Year equal to the quotient obtained by dividing the annual fixed rate for such Lease year by the percentage rate.

Gross Sales shall mean all box office receipts, sales of goods, merchandise, beverages, food, vending machines and video games. Tenant shall concurrently with the delivery of such statement, pay to Landlord any Percentage Rent due for such Lease Year.

The receipt by Landlord of any statement or any payment of Percentage Rent for any period shall not bind it as to the correctness of the statement or the Payment. Landlord shall within three years after the receipt of any such statement be entitled to an audit of such Gross Sales. Such audit shall be limited to the determination of the Gross Sales as defined in this Lease and shall be conducted during normal business hours at the principal place of business of Tenant. If it is determined as a result of such audit that there has been a deficiency in the payment of Percentage Rent, then such deficiency shall become immediately due any payable with interest at the annual rate of 18% from the date when said payment should have been made until paid. Any information gained from such statements or inspection shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed other than to carry out the purposes hereof. If such audit shall disclose that Tenant has understated the Gross Sales for such Lease Year by more than three (3%) and Landlord is entitled to any additional Annual Percentage Rent, Tenant shall pay to Landlord all of Landlord's reasonable cost of such audit.

4.03 Rent Payments. Rent and other sums to be paid by Tenant shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America. All payments shall be made by Tenant to Landlord without notice or demand.

4.04 Place for Payment of Rent. The Annual Rent and any other charges required to be paid by Tenant to Landlord shall be sent to Landlord at its principal place of business, or such other address as Landlord may direct in writing.

4.05 Late Payment of Rent. In the event that any monthly installment of rent is not paid within ten (10) days after first written notice from Landlord that such payment is past due, Tenant shall pay Landlord interest on such unpaid rent at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum computed from the date such rent installment was due until the date actually paid.

ARTICLE V

TAXES, ASSESSMENTS AND UTILITIES

5.01 Impositions.

A) The term "Impositions" shall mean all real estate taxes, duties or assessments (special or otherwise), water and sewer rents, whether ordinary or extraordinary, general or special, foreseen or unforeseen, of any kind and nature whatsoever, which, at any time during the Lease Term, shall be assessed or levied, or be attributable in any manner to the Entire Premises, or the rents receivable therefrom, or any part thereof or any use thereon or any facility located therein or used in connection therewith, whether or not any of the foregoing shall be a so-called "real estate tax" expressly excluding, however, any other items arising directly or indirectly out of any act or omission of Landlord, any of Landlord's predecessors in title or any other person occurring prior to the commencement of the Term. From and after the Initial Rent Due Date, Tenant shall pay all Impositions assessed, levied or attributable to the Entire Premises and/or the Improvements on the Entire Premises. All Impositions or installments thereof payable with respect to the tax year in which this Lease shall commence, and all Impositions or installments thereof with respect to the tax year in which this Lease shall terminate, shall be pro-rated on a daily basis; provided, however, that assessments or escape assessments assessed as a result of this Lease and/or the construction of Tenant Improvements by Tenant shall not be prorated and shall be paid solely by Tenant; and provided further that assessments attributable to Tenant Improvements made in the final year of the Lease shall be paid solely by Tenant if Tenant demolishes the Tenant Building.

B) With respect to Impositions which are assessed on any Buildings exclusive of the Entire Premises, Tenant shall pay all such impositions. With respect to Impositions which by law may be paid in installments over a period of time, Tenant shall be deemed to have elected (the "Installment Election") to pay such Impositions over the longest period of time permitted by law, regardless of whether Tenant has in fact so elected. With respect to each year in which the Installment Election is effective and with respect to the Impositions associated with Landlord's Buildings subject to the Installment Election, Landlord's share of such Imposition(s) for each year shall be the pro rata share of the amount which would be required to be paid to the collecting authority as if Tenant had in fact made the Installment Election. Landlord shall pay all such real property taxes to the Tenant prior to delinquency. In the event Tenant fails to pay to Landlord such real property taxes as provided herein, Landlord shall pay Tenant in addition interest thereon at the rate of 18% per annum from the delinquency date until such payment has been made.

5.02 Exceptions from Impositions; Charges in Lieu of Impositions.

A) Nothing herein contained shall require Tenant to pay any estate, inheritance, succession, capital levy, corporate franchise, gross receipts, transfer, or income tax of Landlord, nor shall any of the same be deemed to be included within the term "Impositions" as defined herein.

B) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article V, if at any time after the date of this Lease the present method of taxation or assessment shall be changed so that in lieu of, as a substitute for (whether in whole or in part) or as a supplement to (provided such supplemental tax relates to real estate or revenues from real estate and not to other property or business as well) the taxes now levied, assessed or imposed on real estate and buildings and Improvements thereon, a tax shall be imposed, assessed or levied wholly or partly on the Rent, or a tax, assessment, levy or charge, measured or based, in whole or in part, on the Entire Premises or on the rents derived therefrom, shall be imposed on Landlord, then Tenant shall pay taxes so measured or based only to the extent that such taxes would be payable if the Entire Premises were the only property of Landlord subject to such taxes, or the income from operation of the Entire Premises were Landlord's only income, as the case may be. In the event of such assessment, Landlord would pay Tenant any such assessment related to any Buildings other than the Leased Premises located on the Entire Premises.

5.04 Contest of Taxes. Tenant at its sole cost and expense may by appropriate legal proceedings conducted in good faith and with due diligence, contest the amount or validity or application, in whole or in part, of any Imposition or lien therefor, or any other lien, encumbrance or charge against the Premises arising from work done or materials provided to or for Tenant. Tenant shall give Landlord reasonable notice of, and information pertaining to, such contest and regular progress reports with respect thereto. Landlord shall cooperate with any effort pursued by Tenant in accordance with this Section 5.04. Tenant shall indemnify, protect and hold harmless Landlord and the Premises from any lien or liability with respect to any such Imposition or contest thereof, including all costs and expenses related thereto. Landlord shall provide Tenant with copies of notice when received by Landlord from the taxing authorities of any assessments or reassessments of the Premises in sufficient time (but in no event later than thirty (30) days after Landlord's receipt of the same) to enable Tenant to contest the same in accordance with the provisions of this Section 5.04.

5.05 Utilities. Tenant shall pay before delinquency, directly to the appropriate company or governmental agency, all charges for all utilities, including, but not limited to, water, gas, electricity, sewer, power, telephone, other communication services and refuse disposal consumed on the Entire Premises including the Common Area but exclusive of Landlord's buildings.

5.06 Personal Property Taxes. During the term of this Lease, Tenant shall pay before delinquency any and all personal property taxes levied or assessed against any personal property located upon the Premises. If Tenant fails to timely pay such taxes and a lien is filed against the Premises, Landlord may discharge such lien, if Tenant fails to discharge such lien within ten (10) days following Tenant's receipt of notice from Landlord, including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees, together with interest at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum from the date of expenditure, such additional rent being due and payable within ten (10) days of notice thereof.

ARTICLE VI
INSURANCE

6.01 Acquisition of Insurance Policies. Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, procure and maintain, or cause to be procured and maintained, during the entire Term the insurance described in this Section (or its then available equivalent), and shall name Landlord and any other parties requested by Landlord as an additional insured

6.02 Types of Required Insurance. Tenant shall procure and maintain the following:

A) Commercial General Liability Insurance. Commercial general liability insurance insuring against injuries or damages to persons or property sustained in, on or about the Entire Premises (exclusive of the interior of Landlord's Buildings), Leased Premises, Common Area and the appurtenances thereto, including the sidewalks and alleyways adjacent thereto, with limits of liability no less than Ten Million Dollars ($10,000,000) per occurrence and in the aggregate.

B) Physical Property Damage Insurance. During the term hereof, Tenant shall keep Tenant's Building (excluding foundations, footings and underground improvements) and personal property as well as all Improvements on the Common area, (Landlord's Buildings excluded), including, but not limited to, signs, outdoor lighting fixtures and fences insured in the name of Landlord and Tenant against damage or destruction by fire and the perils commonly covered under the extended coverage endorsement (with vandalism and malicious mischief coverage) excluding earthquake and flood, but including Builders Risk, to the extent of not less than the full replacement value thereof less any deductible applicable to all of Tenant's theatres insured under a blanket policy. Tenant shall be responsible for determining the amount of fire and extended coverage insurance to be maintained subject to Landlord's consent, which consent is not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The proceeds of such insurance in case of loss or damage shall be held in trust and applied on account of the obligation of Tenant to repair and/or rebuild the Leased Premises pursuant to the Article captioned "Damage Clause" to the extent that such proceeds are required for such purpose. The insurance required to be carried by Tenant under this paragraph may be covered under a so-called "blanket" policy covering other operations of Tenant and its affiliates. Tenant shall name Landlord and any parties requested by Landlord and any holder of a mortgage on Tenant's Building pursuant to a standard mortgage clause with respect to the foregoing hazard insurance, provided such holder agrees with Landlord in writing to disburse such insurance proceeds to Landlord for, and periodically during the course of, repair and restoration of Tenant's Building as set forth in this Lease.

6.03 Terms of Insurance. The policies required under Section 6.02 shall name Landlord as additional insured Tenant shall provide to Landlord certificates of insurance and copies of policies obtained by Tenant hereunder promptly upon the request of Landlord. Further, all policies of insurance described in Section 6.02 shall:

A) Be written as primary policies not contributing with and not in excess of coverage that Landlord may carry.

B) Contain an endorsement providing that the amount of coverage will not be reduced with respect to Landlord except after thirty (30) days prior written notice from insurance company to Landlord and such coverage may not be canceled with respect to Landlord except after thirty (30) days' prior written notice from insurance company to Landlord.

C) Expressly provide that Landlord shall not be required to give notice of accidents or claims and that Landlord shall have no liability for premiums.

D) Be written by insurance companies having a Bests rating of "A-" or better, and such insurance companies shall be reasonably acceptable to Landlord.

6.04 Landlord's Acquisition of Insurance. If Tenant at any time during the Term fails to procure or maintain insurance required hereunder or to pay the premiums therefor, Landlord shall have the right to procure the same and to pay any and all premiums thereon, and any amounts paid by Landlord in connection with the acquisition of insurance shall be immediately due and payable as additional rent, and Tenant shall pay to Landlord upon demand the full amount so paid and expended by Landlord. Any policies of insurance obtained by Landlord covering physical damage to the Premises shall contain a waiver of subrogation against Tenant if and to the extent such waiver is obtainable and if Tenant pays to Landlord on demand the additional costs, if any, incurred in obtaining such waiver.

6.05 Insurance Money and Other Funds Held in Trust. All insurance money or condemnation proceeds as provided in Article XIV, received by the Tenant shall be turned over to Landlord and held in trust by Landlord and, except as provided otherwise in Section 6.06, shall be applied as follows:

First, to any Leasehold Mortgagee as required under the terms of its Leasehold Mortgage provided that such Mortgage was of record and secured a loan made or committed to Landlord in compliance with all of the terms and conditions of this Lease prior to the occurrence of such loss; second, for the purpose of defraying the cost of repairing, restoring, replacing and/or rebuilding any structure or improvement on or in the Premises as required as provided in Section 6.06 hereof; and third, if the damaged or destroyed structure or improvement is not repaired, restored, replaced or rebuilt as hereinafter provided, said funds shall be disposed of as provided in Section 6.06. Any of said funds in the hands of the Tenant or Landlord at the end of the Term hereof shall be disposed of as set forth in Section 6.06 (A).

6.06 Application or Proceeds of Physical Damage Insurance. In case of any insurance policies as described in Section 6.02 (B) (Physical Property Damage Insurance) the application of insurance proceeds from damage or loss to property shall be determined in part in accordance with Article XVII hereof and, in the event of any such repair, replacement, restoration or rebuilding, the Landlord shall disburse the proceeds of the insurance collected to Tenant to pay the cost of such work upon certificate of satisfactory progress and/or completion in form satisfactory to Landlord by the licensed architect or engineer in charge of the work. Upon completion of such repair, replacement, restoration or rebuilding in accordance with the provisions of this Lease, and the full payment therefor (so no liens, encumbrances or claims with respect thereto can be asserted against the Premises, this Lease, Landlord or Tenant), any insurance proceeds received by the Landlord or Tenant with respect to the damage or destruction involved, and not used, shall remain the property of Landlord.

A) Distribution of Unutilized Proceeds. At the termination of this Lease, such insurance proceeds or condemnation awards received and held by the Landlord and not used for repair, replacement or reconstruction ("Available Proceeds"), shall be disposed as follows:

(1) First, Landlord shall be awarded an amount sufficient to remove any improvements not repaired and to return the Property to the level of adjacent streets ("grade level"); and

(2) Second, any remainder shall be paid to Landlord..

6.07 Cooperation for Insurance Proceeds. Landlord and Tenant shall each cooperate with the other in order to obtain the largest possible recovery and execute any and all consents and other instruments and take all other actions reasonably necessary or desirable to effectuate the same and cause such proceeds to be paid as hereinbefore provided. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, neither party shall carry any insurance concurrent in coverage and contributing in the event of loss with any insurance required to be furnished by the other hereunder if the effect of separate insurance would be to reduce the protection or the payment to be made under such party's insurance or under the insurance required to be furnished by the other.

6.08 Waiver of Right of Recovery. Landlord and Tenant hereby release each other from any and all liability and responsibility to one another and, to the extent legally possible to do so on behalf of their respective insurers and anyone claiming through or under either of them, by way of subrogation or otherwise, hereby waive any liability for any and all loss or damage which is of the type covered by fire and extended coverage insurance described in this Article, irrespective of any negligence on the part of the other party which may have contributed to or caused such loss. Every insurance policy carried by either party with respect to the Premises or Tenant's Building or land or improvements adjoining the Premises owned or leased by Landlord shall (if it can be so written and does not result in a material additional premium) include provisions denying to the insurer subrogation rights against the other party and any fee or leasehold mortgage to the extent such rights have been waived by the insured prior to the occurrence of damage or loss. If the waiver of subrogation otherwise is not effective, each party covenants that it will obtain for the benefit of the other party an express waiver of any right of subrogation which the insurer of such party may acquire against the other party by virtue of the payment of any such loss covered by such insurance. In the event either party is by law, statute, governmental regulation, economically unfeasible or other factor beyond such party's reasonable control unable to obtain a waiver of the right of subrogation for the benefit of the other party, then, during any period of time when such waiver is unobtainable, said party shall be deemed not to have released any subrogated claim of its insurance carrier against the other party, and during the same period of time the other party shall be deemed not to have released the party who has been unable to obtain such waiver from any claims they or their insurance carriers may assert which otherwise would have been released pursuant to this Section. In the event that either party is unable to obtain such waiver of the right of subrogation for the benefit of the other party, such party shall, within thirty (30) days of receiving notice of such inability, give the other party written notice of such inability.

ARTICLE VII

7.01 Alterations — Changes.

A) At any time and from time to time during the Lease Term, Tenant may, at its sole expense, make any alterations, additions or changes, whether structural or nonstructural, to any portion or all of any Improvements which may exist at any time and from time to time on any portion of the Premises, and may, at its option, construct new Improvements on the Premises, or remove or demolish Improvements on the Premises, provided that all such alterations or changes in Improvements and new Improvements shall be performed in a first-class manner and must comply with all laws, zoning regulations and ordinances, and any conditions on permits issued pursuant thereto. If the change, alteration or addition is structural or exterior in nature Landlord's written approval shall be first obtained.

B) Tenant shall at all times keep the Premises or any part thereof, free and clear of all liens and claims for labor or material and free and clear of all attachments, executions and notices.

(C) Upon termination of this Lease, Tenant may not remove any personal property and trade fixtures including, but not limited to theatre seats, projection and sound equipment, snack bar equipment and computers.

7.02 Repairs — Maintenance. Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, maintain the Entire Premises which shall include the Common Area, driveways, parking, landscaping, signs, fences, lighting and any and all improvements (exclusive of Landlord's Buildings) in first class condition and make such structural and non-structural, ordinary and extraordinary, foreseen and unforeseen repairs such that the Entire Premises (exclusive of Landlord's Buildings) shall not be in violation of any law or covenant recorded as of the Effective Date.

ARTICLE VIII

8.02 Tenant's Responsibilities and Landlord Indemnity.

A) Tenant shall not cause or permit any Hazardous Materials to be brought upon, stored, used, generated, released into the environment or disposed of, on, in, under or about the Entire Premises, the Common Area, or any other portion of the Premises by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees, in violation of any law. Upon the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease, Tenant covenants to remove from the Premises, and/or Entire Premises at its sole cost and expense, any and all Hazardous Materials, including any equipment or systems containing Hazardous Materials, which are brought upon, stored, used, generated or released into the environment at or above actionable levels by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Tenant hereby indemnifies and defends (with counsel experienced and competent in litigating issues of Hazardous Materials) Landlord and agrees to hold Landlord, the Premises and the Entire Premises free and harmless from and against any and all claims, judgments, damages, penalties, fines, costs, liabilities and losses (including, without limitation, diminution in the value of the Premises, damages for the loss or restriction on use of rentable space or of any amenity of the Premises, and sums paid in settlement of claims, attorneys' fees, consultant fees and expert fees) which arise directly or indirectly from the presence of actionable levels of Hazardous Materials on, in or about the Premises which is through Tenant's (or its agents, employees, contractors or invitees) acts or omissions brought upon, stored, used, generated or released into the environment by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees (referred to as "Tenant's Environmental Acts"). This indemnification by Tenant of Landlord includes, without limitation, any and all costs incurred in connection with any investigation of site conditions or any clean up, remedial, removal or restoration work required by any federal, state or local governmental agency or political subdivision because of the presence of such Hazardous Materials in, on or about the Premises, or the soil or ground water on or under the Premises or any portion thereof due to Tenant's Environmental Acts. Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of any release of Hazardous Materials in the Premises, which Tenant becomes aware of during the term of this Lease, caused by Tenant's Environmental Acts. Landlord agrees to indemnify, defend and hold Tenant harmless from all claims, judgments, damages, penalties, fines, costs, resulting from the presence of Hazardous Materials on or about the Premises, (i) on the Commencement Date of this Lease, and/or (ii) during or after the term of this Lease, if the presence of Hazardous Materials results from any cause other than Tenant's Environmental Acts.

B) Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of, and shall promptly provide Landlord with true, correct, complete and legible copies of all of the following environmental items relating to the Premises which may be filed or prepared by or on behalf of, or delivered to or served upon Tenant: reports filed pursuant to any self-reporting requirements, reports filed pursuant to any applicable laws or this Lease, all permit applications, permits, monitoring reports, workplace exposure and community exposure warnings or notices and all other reports, disclosures, plans or documents (excluding those which may be reasonably characterized as confidential) relating to water discharges, air pollution, waste generation or disposal, underground storage tanks or Hazardous Materials.

C) In addition to Tenant's routine reporting obligations described in (B) above, Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of, and shall promptly provide Landlord with true, correct, complete and legible copies of, all of the following environmental items relating to the Premises which may be filed or prepared by or on behalf of, or delivered to or served upon, Tenant: all orders, reports, listings and correspondence (excluding those which may be reasonably considered confidential) of or concerning the release, investigation of, compliance, clean up, remedial and corrective actions, and abatement of Hazardous Materials whether or not required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by or given pursuant to any applicable laws, and all complaints, pleading and other legal documents filed against Tenant related to Tenant's use, handling, storage or disposal of Hazardous Materials. In the event of a release of any Hazardous Materials in, on or about the Premises, Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord and provide Landlord with copies of all reports and correspondence with or from all governmental agencies, authorities or any other persons relating to such release.

D) Landlord, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall have the right, but not the obligation, to join and participate in any legal proceedings or actions initiated in connection with any claims or causes of action arising out of the storage, generation, use or disposal by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees, of Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises caused by Tenant's Environmental Acts which results in (i) injury to any person, (ii) injury to or any contamination of the Premises or (iii) injury to or contamination of any real or personal property wherever situated. Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall promptly take all actions necessary to return the Premises to the condition existing prior to the introduction of such Hazardous Materials to the Premises and to remedy or repair any such injury or contamination. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall not, without Landlord's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or denied or conditioned or delayed, take any remedial action in response to the presence of any Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises or enter into any settlement agreement, consent decree or other compromise with any governmental agency with respect to any Hazardous Materials claims; provided, however, Landlord's prior written consent shall not be necessary in the event that the presence of Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises (i) poses an immediate threat to the health, safety or welfare of any individual or (ii) is of such nature that an immediate remedial response is necessary and it is not possible to obtain Landlord's consent before taking such action.

8.03 Remedial Work. In the event any investigation or monitoring of site conditions or any clean-up, containment, restoration, removal or other remedial work ("Remedial Work") is required (a) under any applicable federal, state or local law or regulation, (b) by any judicial, arbitral or administrative order, (c) to comply with any agreements affecting the Premises or (d) to maintain the Premises in a standard of environmental condition which presents no risk to safety or health, prevents the release of any hazardous materials to adjacent property and otherwise is consistent with the prudent ownership of property of the character of the Premises and/or Tenant's Building and if such Remedial Work is required as a direct result of Tenant's Environmental Acts, then Tenant at Tenant's sole cost and expense, including without limitation, any taxes or penalties assessed in connection with the Remedial Work, shall perform or cause to be performed such Remedial Work; and if such Remedial Work is required for any reason other than Tenant's Environmental Acts, then, Landlord, at Landlord's sole cost and expense, including without limitation, any taxes or penalties assessed in connection with the Remedial Work, shall perform or cause to be performed such Remedial Work. All Remedial Work shall be conducted (i) in a diligent and timely fashion by licensed contractors acting under the supervision of a consulting environmental engineer, (ii) pursuant to a detailed written plan for the Remedial Work approved by any public or private agencies or persons with a legal or contractual right to such approval, (iii) with such insurance coverage pertaining to liabilities arising out of the Remedial Work as is then customarily maintained with respect to such activities, and (iv) only following receipt of any required permits, licenses or approvals. The selection of the Remedial Work contractors, any disclosures to or agreements with any public or private agencies or parties relating to Remedial Work and the written plan for the Remedial Work (and any changes thereto) each shall be subject to the other party's prior written approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, denied, conditioned or delayed. In addition, the party doing the Remedial Work shall submit to the other party, promptly upon receipt or preparation, copies of any and all reports, studies, analyses, correspondence, governmental comments or approvals, proposed removal or other remedial work contracts and similar information prepared or received by such party in connection with any Remedial Work or Hazardous Materials relating to the Premises. In the event the party responsible therefor should fail to commence or cause to be commenced in a timely fashion, or fail diligently to prosecute to completion, such Remedial Work, the other party (following written notice) may, but shall not be required to, cause such Remedial Work to be performed, and all costs and expenses thereof, or incurred in connection therewith (i) in the case where Tenant is the responsible party, shall be paid as additional rent due and payable within thirty (30) days of Landlord's invoice therefor, or (ii) in the case where Landlord is the responsible party, shall be paid by Landlord to Tenant within thirty (30) days of Tenant's invoice therefor, and if not timely paid by Landlord, in addition to all other rights and remedies, Tenant shall have the right of offset against rent which may become due. Neither party shall be obligated to perform Remedial Work under this Section while it is contesting the application of any law, regulation or order, provided the other party is not exposed to any additional liability, risk or damages. Obligations under this Section are solely for the benefit of the parties, their successors, and assigns and any subtenants of this Lease, and not for any other third parties.

8.04 Maintenance of Premises.

A) Subject to Tenant's obligation under Section 8.02(A), Tenant at its sole cost and expense shall keep and maintain the Premises in compliance with, and shall not cause or permit the Premises to be in violation of, any federal, state or local laws, statutes, ordinances, orders, guidelines, rules or regulations relating to health and safety, to industrial hygiene or to environmental conditions on, under or about the Premises, including, but not limited to, air, soil and ground water conditions.

B) Tenant shall be liable and responsible for any Hazardous Materials which Tenant causes to be brought onto the Premises.

8.05 Landlord's Responsibilities and Tenant's Indemnity.

A) Landlord shall not, without prior advance notice to Tenant, cause or permit any Hazardous Materials to be brought upon, stored, used, generated, released into the environment or disposed of, on, in, under or about the Entire Premises, the Common Area, or any other portion of the Premises by Landlord, its agents, employees, tenants, contractors or invitees, in violation of any law.

B) Landlord shall promptly notify Tenant of, and shall promptly provide Tenant with true, correct, complete and legible copies of, all of the following environmental items relating to the Entire Premises which may be filed or prepared by or on behalf of, or delivered to or served upon, Landlord: all orders, reports, listings and correspondence (even those which may be considered confidential) of or concerning the release, investigation of, compliance, clean up, remedial and corrective actions, and abatement of Hazardous Materials whether or not required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by or given pursuant to any applicable laws, and all complaints, pleading and other legal documents filed against Landlord related to Landlord's or Landlord's other tenant's use, handling, storage or disposal of Hazardous Materials. In the event of a release of any Hazardous Materials in, on or about the Entire Premises, Landlord shall promptly notify Tenant and provide Tenant with copies of all reports and correspondence with or from all governmental agencies, authorities or any other persons relating to such release.

C) Except for the obligations of Tenant as set forth in this Article VIII, Landlord shall exonerate, indemnify, pay and protect, defend and hold harmless (with counsel reasonably approved by Tenant) and save Tenant and Tenant's successors and assigns, and their directors, trustees, beneficiaries, officers, shareholders, employees and agents (collectively, Tenant's "Related Parties"), harmless from and against any claims (including, without limitation, third party claims for personal injury or real or personal property damage), actions, administrative proceedings (including informal proceedings), judgments, damages, punitive damages, penalties, fines, costs, taxes, assessments, liabilities (including sums paid in settlement of claims), interest or losses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses (including any such fees and expenses incurred in enforcing this provision or collecting any sums due hereunder), consultant fees, and expert fees, together with all other costs and expenses of any kind or nature (collectively, the "Costs") that arise directly or indirectly in connection with the presence, suspected presence, release or suspected release of any Hazardous Materials in or into the air, soil, groundwater, surface water or improvements at, on, about, under or within the Premises, or any portion thereof, or elsewhere in connection with the transportation of Hazardous Materials to or from the Premises or the Entire Premises. In the event Tenant or any of its Related Parties shall suffer or incur any such Costs, Landlord shall pay to Tenant or such Related Party the total of all such Costs suffered or incurred by Tenant or such Related party upon demand therefor. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the indemnification provided by this Section 8.05 shall specifically cover Costs, including capital, operating and maintenance costs, incurred in connection with any investigation or monitoring of site conditions, any clean-up, containment, remedial, removal or restoration work required or performed by any federal, state or local governmental agency or political subdivision or performed by any nongovernmental entity or person because of the presence, suspected presence, release or suspected release of any Hazardous Materials in or into the air, soil, groundwater, surface water or improvements, at, on, about, under or within the Premises (or any portion thereof), or elsewhere in connection with the transportation of, Hazardous Materials to or from the Premises and any claims of third parties for loss or damage due to such Hazardous Materials.

8.06 Landlord Inspection. Landlord and Landlord's agents and employees shall have the right, but not the obligation, to inspect, investigate, sample and/or monitor the Premises, including any soil, water, ground water or other sampling, and any other testing, digging, drilling or analyses, at any time to determine whether Tenant is complying with the terms of this Article VIII, and in connection therewith, Tenant shall provide Landlord with full access to all relevant facilities, records and personnel. If Tenant is in default with any of the provisions of this Article VIII, Landlord and Landlord's agents and employees shall have the right, but not the obligation, without limitation upon any of Landlord's other rights and remedies under this Lease, to immediately enter upon the Premises and to discharge Tenant's obligations under this Article VIII at Tenant's expense, notwithstanding any other provisions of this Lease. Landlord and Landlord's agents and employees shall endeavor to minimize interference with Tenant's business. All sums reasonably disbursed, deposited or incurred by Landlord in connection therewith, including, but not limited to, all costs, expenses and actual attorneys' fees, shall be due and payable by Tenant to Landlord, as an item of additional rent, on demand by Landlord, together with interest thereon at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum.

8.07 Effect of Termination.

A) Upon termination of this Lease, Tenant shall advise Landlord in writing whether or not, to the best of Tenant's knowledge, Tenant is in default of any provision of this Article VIII and if it is in default, the specific nature of such default.

B) All liabilities of Landlord and Tenant, respectively, under this Article VIII, accrued as of the date this Lease terminates, shall survive such termination.

ARTICLE IX

(A) Except for signs located on the Premises at the commencement date of this lease or signs which are located wholly within the interior of the premises and which are not visible from the exterior of the premises, no signs shall be placed, erected, maintained or painted at any place upon the Premises without the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. All such signs shall be maintained at Tenant's sole expense.

Further no such installation or removal thereof shall affect the structural portion of the Premises and that Tenant shall repair and restore any damage or injury to the Premises or the Property caused thereby. Any such replacement equipment, furniture or fixtures shall become the property of the Landlord at the termination of this lease.

ARTICLE XIII

As a further condition of such subordination, Landlord, Tenant and the Mortgagee shall enter into a non-disturbance and attornment agreement in a form reasonably acceptable to all parties executing such instrument.

ARTICLE XIV
CONDEMNATION — EMINENT DOMAIN

14.01 Definitions. The following definitions apply in construing provisions of this Lease relating to a taking of or damage to all or any part of the Entire Premises or Improvements or Parking or any interest in them by eminent domain or inverse condemnation:

A) "Taking" means that taking or damaging, including severance damage, by eminent domain or by inverse condemnation for any public or quasi-public use under any statute. The transfer of title may be either a transfer resulting from the recording of a final order in condemnation or a voluntary transfer or conveyance to the condemning agency or entity under threat of condemnation, in avoidance of an exercise of eminent domain, or while condemnation proceedings are pending. The Taking shall be considered to take place as of the date on which the right to compensation and damages accrues under the law applicable to the Premises, unless the condemnor also takes actual physical possession of the Premises or a part thereof, in which case the date of Taking for the purposes of this Lease shall be the later of the date on which the right to compensation and damages accrues or the date physical possession is taken by the condemnor.

B) "Total Taking" means the Taking of the fee title to all the Premises and the Improvements on the Premises, which shall be considered to include any offsite improvements effected by Tenant to serve the Premises or the improvements or the parking on the Premises.

C) "Partial Taking" means any Taking (including any damaging) of a portion of the Premises, the Common Area, or any Improvements or parking thereon which is not a Total Taking.

D) "Notice of Intended Taking" means any notice or notification on which a reasonably prudent man would rely and which he would interpret as expressing an existing intention of Taking as distinguished from a mere preliminary inquiry or proposal. It includes, but is not limited to, the service of a condemnation summons and complaint on a party to this Lease. The notice is considered to have been received when a party to this Lease receives from the condemning agency or entity a Notice of Intended Taking, in writing, containing a description or map of the Taking reasonably defining the extent of the Taking.

E) "Award" means compensation paid for the Taking, whether pursuant to judgment or by agreement or otherwise.

14.02 Notice to Other Party. The party hereto receiving any notice of the kinds specified below shall promptly give the other party notice of the receipt, contents, and date of the notice received:

- A) Notice of Intended Taking;
- B) Service of any legal process relating to condemnation of the Premises or improvements;
- C) Notice in connection with any proceedings or negotiations with respect to such a condemnation; or
- D) Notice of intent or willingness to make or negotiate a private purchase, sale or transfer in lieu of condemnation.

14.03 Total Taking — Effect on Rent and Term. On a Total Taking, Tenant's obligation to pay Rent shall terminate on, and Tenant's interest in the leasehold shall continue until, the date of Taking, at which time this Lease shall terminate.

14.04 Distribution of Award for Taking. On a Taking, all sums, including, but not limited to, damages and interest awarded for the value of the real estate taken, shall be apportioned and paid by the governmental body taking the Premises as follows:

- A) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any, for the Fair Market Value of all buildings and other improvements on the Premises;
- B) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any, for severance damages
- C) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any, for the "bonus value" of this leasehold estate. The bonus value is the amount by which the fair market rental value on the open market exceeds the contract rent (the amount called for in this Lease);
- D) To Tenant, the amount awarded, if any, for loss of goodwill and relocation expenses;
- E) To Landlord, any other award which will not reduce the amount which otherwise would be awarded to Tenant; and
- F) To Landlord, any balance.

Tenant shall only be entitled to payments under this Section 14.04 out of amounts awarded by the governmental body taking the Premises.

14.05 Partial Taking — Rent Adjustments. On a Partial Taking, the Lease shall remain in full force and effect covering the remaining Premises, except that the total Rent as otherwise provided herein shall be reduced in the same ratio as the percentage of the area of the Premises taken bears to the total area of the Premises.

14.06 Partial Taking — Option to Terminate. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event of a Partial Taking, if more than thirty percent (30%) of the Building or fifty (50%) of the parking is taken by a condemnation or sold under the threat of condemnation, then Tenant may terminate this Lease as of the date the condemning authority takes title or possession, whichever occurs first, by delivering written notice to the other within ten (10) days after receipt of written notice of such taking (or in the absence of such notice, within ten (10) days after the condemning authority takes possession).

14.07 Separate Tenant's Award. In the event of a Taking, Tenant may make a separate claim with respect to lost business, lost profits, goodwill, moving expenses and other related damages against the acquiring governmental Agency.

ARTICLE XV

DEFAULT

15.01 Tenant's Default. The occurrence of any of the following shall constitute a default or event of default by Tenant:

A) Failure to pay Annual Rent or any other monetary amount when due as provided herein, if the failure continues for ten (10) days after first written notice has been given to Tenant by Landlord;

B) Failure to perform any of Tenant's non-monetary obligations under this Lease, provided however, Tenant shall have thirty (30) days from receipt of written notice by Landlord to cure each such default. If Tenant cannot reasonably cure such default within said thirty (30) day period, Tenant shall not be in default of this Lease if Tenant commences to cure the breach within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the breach.

C) Tenant shall file a petition in voluntary bankruptcy under the bankruptcy code of the United States or any similar Law, State or Federal Law, now or hereafter in effect.

15.02 Landlord's Remedies Cumulative. Landlord shall have the following remedies set forth in subsections (A) through (G) below if Tenant commits a default except as provided in Section 15.03. These remedies are not exclusive and may be exercised concurrently or successively; they are cumulative in addition to any remedies now or later allowed by law or equity:

A) Bring Suit for Performance. Landlord may bring suit for the collection of the Rent or other amounts for which Tenant is then in default, or for the performance of any other covenant or agreement devolving upon Tenant, all without having to enter into possession or terminate this Lease;

B) Re-Entry Without Termination. Pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1954.4, Landlord may re-enter the Premises, by legal proceedings (or without legal proceedings if the Premises have been abandoned), and take possession thereof, without thereby terminating this Lease, and thereupon Landlord may expel all persons and remove all property therefrom, without becoming liable to prosecution therefor, and relet the Premises or a portion or portions thereof, and receive the rent therefrom, applying the same first to the payment of the reasonable expenses of such re-entry and the reasonable cost of such reletting, and then to the payment of the Rent and other amounts for which Tenant is then in default; the balance, if any, to be paid to Tenant, who, whether or not the Premises are relet, shall remain liable for any deficiency. It is agreed that the commencement and prosecution of any action by Landlord in forcible entry and detainer, ejectment, or otherwise, or the appointment of a receiver, or any execution of any decree obtained in any action to recover possession of the Premises, or any re-entry, shall not be construed as an election to terminate this Lease unless Landlord shall, in writing, expressly exercise its election to declare the Lease Term hereunder ended and to terminate this Lease, and unless this Lease be expressly terminated, such re-entry or entry by Landlord, whether had or taken under summary proceedings or otherwise, shall not be deemed to have absolved or discharged Tenant from any of its obligations and liabilities for the remainder of the Lease Term. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary or other provisions of this Section 15.02(B), Tenant shall have the right to sublet the Premises, assign its interest in the Lease, or both, subject to Landlord's prior right, during any continuance of Tenant's default, to relet the Premises or a portion or portions thereof.

C) Termination of Lease and Lessee's Right to Possession. No act by Landlord, other than giving Tenant written notice of termination of this Lease, shall in fact terminate the Lease. Upon termination of the Lease, neither Landlord nor Tenant shall have any future rights or obligations under the Lease except that Landlord shall have the right to recover from Tenant the following:

- (1) The worth, at the time of the award, of the unpaid Rent that had been earned at the time of termination of this Lease;
- (2) The worth, at the time of the award, of the amount by which the unpaid Rent that would have been earned after the date of termination of this Lease until the time of award exceeds the amount of the loss of Rent that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided;
- (3) The worth, at the time of the award, of the amount by which the unpaid Rent for the balance of the Term after the time of award exceeds the amount of the loss of Rent that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided; and
- (4) Any other amount, and court costs, necessary to compensate Landlord for all detriment proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform his obligations under the Lease or which, in the ordinary course of things, would be likely to result therefrom.
- (5) For any other sums due.

D) Definitions. As used herein, the following phrases shall be interpreted as follows:

(1) "The worth, at the time of the award," as used in subsections 15.02(C)(1) and (2) above, is to be computed by allowing interest at the maximum lawful rate. "The worth, at the time of the award," as referred to in subsection 15.02(C)(3) above, is to be computed by discounting the amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco at the time of the award, plus one percent (1%).

(2) As used herein, the term "time of award" shall mean either the date upon which Tenant pays to Landlord the amount recoverable by Landlord as hereinabove set forth or the date of entry of any determination, order, or judgment of any court or other legally constituted body determining the amount recoverable, whichever first occurs.

E) Surrender. Promptly after notice of termination, Tenant shall surrender and vacate the Premises and all improvements in broom-clean condition, and Landlord may re-enter and take possession of the Premises and all remaining improvements and eject all parties in possession or eject some and not others, or eject none. Termination under subsection 15.02(C) shall not relieve Tenant from the payment of any sum due to Landlord or from any claim for damages previously accrued or then accruing against Tenant.

F) Appointment of Receiver. If Tenant defaults under Section 15.02 Landlord shall have the right to have a receiver appointed to collect rent from any subtenants. Neither the filing of a petition for the appointment of a receiver nor the appointment itself shall constitute an election by Landlord to terminate this Lease.

G) Landlord's Right to Cure Tenant's Default. Landlord, at any time after Tenant is in default under Section 15.01 herein, may cure the default at Tenant's expense. If Landlord, at any time, by reason of Tenant's default, pays any sum or does any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Landlord shall be immediately reimbursed from Tenant to Landlord, together with interest at eighteen percent (18%) per annum computed from the date of such expenditure until the date of reimbursement by Tenant.

15.03 Landlord's Default.

A) The occurrence of the following shall constitute a default by Landlord: Breach of any provision of this Lease if the breach is not cured within thirty (30) days after written notice by Tenant; provided, however, that if the breach cannot reasonably be cured within such thirty (30) day period, Landlord shall not be in default of this Lease if Landlord commences to cure the breach within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the default.

B) Tenant, at any time after Landlord is in default under paragraph (A) above, may cure the default at Landlord's expense. If Tenant at any time, by reason of Landlord's default, pays any sum or does any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Tenant shall be immediately reimbursed by Landlord, together with interest at eighteen percent (18%) per annum determined at the time the expenditure is made by Tenant computed from the date of such expenditure until the date of reimbursement by Landlord. If Landlord fails to make such payments) within fifteen (15) days after Tenant's written demand, Tenant shall be entitled to offset any amount due from Landlord against the next Rent payment due under this Lease.

15.04 Waiver of Redemption. Tenant hereby expressly waives any and all rights of redemption granted by or under any present or future laws in the event of Tenant being dispossessed or removed from the Premises upon the termination of this Lease because of default by Tenant hereunder.

15.05 Dispute Resolution. Landlord and Tenant desire by provisions of this Section 15.05 to establish procedures to facilitate the informal and inexpensive resolution of any dispute arising out of this Lease by mutual cooperation and without resort to litigation. To accomplish this objective, Landlord and Tenant agree to follow the procedures set forth below if and when a dispute arises between them under this Lease.

A) Description of Dispute. The complaining party shall provide by notice a written description of the alleged breach by the other party. This description shall explain the nature of the complaint and the Lease provision(s) on which it is based. The complaining party shall also set forth a proposed solution to the problem including a specific time frame within which the parties must act. The party receiving the letter of complaint must respond in writing within ten (10) days with an explanation, including references to the relevant parts of the Lease and a response to the proposed solution. Within ten (10) days of receipt of this response, the parties must meet and discuss options for resolving the dispute. The complaining party must initiate the scheduling of the resolution meeting.

B) Mediation. A settlement conference shall be held within thirty (30) days of the unsuccessful resolution meeting or as soon as practical thereafter. The settlement conference shall be held in the County of San Francisco, California.

C) Arbitration. With respect to disputes which the parties have been unable to resolve informally or by mediation, the parties agree to submit the dispute for final and binding arbitration if the dispute has not otherwise been settled. The parties agree that the arbitration must be initiated within one (1) year after the date of the written description of the alleged breach and that the failure to initiate arbitration within the one (1) year period constitutes an absolute bar to the initiation of any proceedings. An arbitration shall be deemed initiated for the purposes of this section by demand therefor being sent by certified mail to the other party which notice shall contain a description of the dispute, the amount involved and the remedies sought. The parties shall have the right to representation by counsel throughout the arbitration proceedings. All rulings, decisions, and awards of the arbitrators shall be in conformance with California law. The award may be judicially enforced pursuant to § 1285 et seq of the California Code of Civil Procedure. Each party shall bear their own costs of legal counsel and the fees for witnesses, unless otherwise determined by the arbitrator as part of the award. The parties may establish the scope of discovery by agreement. If the parties cannot agree, the arbitrator will have discretion to define the limits of discovery and to allow discovery upon a showing of good cause, utilizing the following guidelines:

(1) The arbitrator shall balance the benefits of discovery against the burdens and expenses to the parties and the goals of arbitration as an alternative to traditional litigation.

(2) The arbitrator shall have discretion to order pre-hearing exchange of information, including but not limited to, the production of requested documents and exchanges of summaries of testimony of proposed witnesses.

(3) The deposition of the claimants(s) and respondent(s) and form sets of interrogatories approved by the Judicial Council shall be allowed as a matter of right. There shall be an early and prompt designation and exchange of the names and addresses of expert witnesses who may be called upon to testify at the arbitration hearing. Their depositions, special interrogatories, requests for admission and all other discovery shall be allowed only upon a showing of good cause.

15.06 Attorneys' Fees. Should any action or proceeding, be commenced between the parties to this Lease concerning said Premises, this Lease, or the rights and duties of either in relation thereto, the party, Landlord, or Tenant, prevailing in such action or proceeding shall be entitled, in addition to such other relief as may be granted in the action or proceeding, to a reasonable sum as and for its attorneys' fees therein which shall be determined by the arbitrator(s) hearing such action or proceeding.

In the event of any transfer or assignment of Landlord's interest in this Lease or any change in, or transfer of, title in and to the Premises of any part thereof, whether voluntary or involuntary, or by act of Landlord or by operation of law, Tenant shall be under no obligation to pay rent or other charges payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder, thereafter accruing, until Tenant shall have been notified in writing of such transfer, assignment, or change in title, and given satisfactory proof thereof, and the withholding of rent or other charges payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder, in the meantime shall not be deemed a default upon the part of Tenant. 18.15 Estoppel Certificate. Either party hereto shall, within twenty (20) days notice from the other party (referred to as the "Requesting Party"), execute and deliver to the Requesting Party, in recordable form, a certificate stating that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect, or in full force and effect as modified, and stating the modifications. The certificate also shall state the amount of current monthly rent, the dates to which the rent has been paid in advance, the amount of prepaid rent, and any other information with respect to this Lease reasonably requested by the Requesting Party. Failure to deliver the certificate within the twenty (20) days shall be conclusive upon the party failing to deliver the certificate for the benefit of the party requesting the certificate and any successor to the party requesting the certificate, that this Lease is in full force and effect, and has not been modified except as may be represented by the party requesting the certificate, and that rent and other charges have not been paid for any period after date of the notice requesting the certificate.

18.16 Number and Gender. Whenever the context requires the singular number, it shall include the plural, the plural the singular, and the use of any gender shall include all genders.

18.17 No Holding Over. Tenant shall have no right to holdover after the end of the Term. Should Tenant or any Leasehold Mortgagee succeeding to the interest of Tenant hold over in possession after the expiration date, such holding over shall not be deemed to extend the Lease or renew this Lease; and Tenant shall pay a pro-rated daily amount equal to one hundred twenty percent (120%) of the Annual Rent in effect immediately preceding the expiration date until Tenant vacates the Premises.

18.18 Mechanics Liens. Tenant shall discharge, by payment, bonding or otherwise, any mechanics liens filed against the Premises or the Entire Premises in connection with Tenant's work and/or any alterations or other work done by or on behalf of Tenant in the Premises within thirty (30) days after Tenant receives notice of the filing of such lien, and Landlord shall cooperate with Tenant at no expense to Landlord, in order to accomplish such discharge. Should Tenant fail to so discharge any such mechanics lien, Landlord shall have the right to remove such mechanics liens and charge all costs thereof, including without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, to Tenant as additional rent plus interest at 18%.

18.19 Relationship of Parties. Nothing contained in this Lease shall be construed to create the relationship of principal and agent, partnership, joint venture or any other relationship between the parties hereto other than the relationship of Landlord and Tenant. Nothing contained herein shall in any way impose any liability upon the stockholders, officers or directors of Landlord or stockholders, officers, directors or trustees of Tenant should such parties be corporate entities.

18.20 Time of the Essence. Time is of the essence with respect to Tenant's payment of rent and other monetary obligations to Landlord under this Lease.

18.21 Facsimile Copies. Tenant and Landlord (i) have each agreed to permit the use, from time to time and where appropriate, of telecopied signatures in order to expedite the transaction contemplated by this Lease, (ii) each intend to be bound by its respective telecopied signature, (iii) are each aware that the other will rely on the telecopied signature, and (iv) each acknowledge such reliance and waive any defenses to the enforcement of the documents effecting the transaction contemplated by this Lease based on a telecopied signature.

18.22 Anti-Merger. The voluntary or otherwise surrender of this Lease by Tenant, or a mutual cancellation of this Lease shall not work a merger but shall at the option of Landlord either:

A) Terminate any existing subleases or subtenancies; or

B) Operate as an assignment to Landlord (and assumption by Landlord) of any subleases or subtenancies.

Executed as of the date first written above.

Witnesseth:

Whereas, Landlord and Century Theatres of California, Inc., a California corporation, entered into a lease dated September 30, 1995, as amended by that certain First Amendment to Lease, dated October 31, 1996, between Landlord and Century Theatres of California, Inc., a California corporation, and as further amended by that certain Second Amendment to Lease, dated September 1, 2000 between Landlord and Century Theatres, Inc., a Delaware corporation (as amended, the “Lease”), for a motion picture building and related parking (the “Premises”) located at Century Plaza, 410 Noor Avenue, So. San Francisco, California; capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Lease; and

Whereas, Century Theatres, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Century Theatres (DE)”), succeeded Century Theatres of California, Inc., as Tenant; and

Whereas, Century Theatres (DE) assumed all obligations of Century Theatres of California, Inc., as set forth in the Lease; and

Whereas, the parties desire now to amend the Lease to revise and clarify certain obligations between the parties, as hereinafter provided;

Now, Therefore, the parties hereto mutually agree that the Lease shall be amended as follows:

A. Right to Terminate

At any time on or after the date the movie theatre operated by Tenant and located at  (also known as the ) opens for business, either Landlord or Tenant may terminate the Lease by delivering written notice (the “Termination Notice”) to the other party, indicating the date on which the Lease shall terminate (the “Termination Date”). If either party delivers a Termination Notice to the other party as set forth above, then, as of the Termination Date, the parties shall have no further rights under the Lease nor further obligations with respect to the Premises, with the exception of any rights or obligations which expressly survive the termination of the Lease in accordance with the provisions thereof or at law.

Century Plaza 10 — So. San Francisco, California

B. Landlord's Right to Develop

1. The second sentence of Section 2.01(a) of the Lease is hereby deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

Tenant expressly agrees that Landlord shall have the right, but shall have no obligation, to demolish, renovate, remodel, reconstruct or otherwise alter or develop in any manner the Entire Premises or any portion thereof for any and all uses beyond the Permitted Use (the "Development") without Tenant's consent; provided, however, that the Development shall not materially interfere with the Permitted Use or Tenant's access to the Premises. In addition to developing some or all of the Entire Premises that are outside of the Building, Landlord's Development rights set forth above shall include all roof-top and other exterior communication and advertising rights on or about the Entire Premises, including, without limitation, the exclusive right to install, locate, maintain, use, replace and repair satellite dishes and other roof-top communications equipment on the roof of the Building. In connection with the foregoing, Tenant agrees that Tenant shall have no right to lease or otherwise allow any third party to access or use the roof of the Building or any portion of the Premises for any use other than the Permitted Use.

2. Tenant hereby waives all claims of any nature whatsoever Tenant may now have or may hereafter have against Landlord relating in any manner to, directly or indirectly, the Development. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Landlord shall not be liable for any damage to persons or property located in, on or about the Premises resulting from or in connection with the Development, and Tenant waives and shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Landlord from any and all claims asserted by Tenant or Tenant's officers, agents, employees, contractors, licensees, invitees or guests arising from damage resulting from or in connection with the Development (except to the extent such damage is caused by the willful act or gross negligence of Landlord; provided, however, that Landlord shall not be liable for any consequential damages, including, without limitation, any claim for loss of profit or business).

C. Surrender

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease, upon the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease and promptly following Tenant's receipt of a cost estimate thereof from Landlord, Tenant shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to the cost of demolishing the improvements located on the Premises and removing all surface debris therefrom to Landlord's reasonable satisfaction, as such cost estimate is determined by Landlord in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion; provided, however, that Tenant may remove any or all of Tenant's furniture, fixtures and equipment (the "FF&E") from the Premises, so long as such removal occurs within forty-five (45) days after the Termination Date and Tenant repairs all extraordinary damage caused by such removal. Except as set forth above, from and after the Termination Date, the parties shall have no further rights under the Lease nor further obligations with respect to the Premises, except for any rights or obligations which expressly survive the termination of the Lease in accordance with the provisions thereof or at law.

Execution VersionFIFTH AMENDMENT TO LEASE

(South SF 10)

THIS FIFTH AMENDMENT TO LEASE AGREEMENT (this “Amendment”) is entered into as of August 7, 2006 to be effective as of the Effective Date (as defined hereinbelow) by and between SYUFY ENTERPRISES, L.P., a California limited partnership (“Landlord”), and CENTURY THEATRES, INC., a California corporation (“Tenant”).

RECITALS:

A. Landlord (then known as Syufy Enterprises (“Original Landlord”)) and Century Theatres of California Inc., a California corporation (“Original Tenant”), entered into a certain Lease dated as of September 30, 1995 (the “Original Lease”), for certain premises located in San Francisco, California.

B. The Original Lease has been previously amended by that certain (i) First Amendment to Lease dated as of October 31, 1996 (the “First Amendment”), (ii) Second Amendment to Lease dated as of September 1, 2000 (the “Second Amendment”), (iii) Third Amendment to Lease dated as of April 15, 2005 (the “Third Amendment”), and (iv) Fourth Amendment to Lease dated as of September 29, 2005 (the “Fourth Amendment”; the Original Lease as heretofore amended is referred to herein as the “Lease”).

C. Tenant has succeeded to the interests and assumed the obligations of Original Tenant as the lessee under the Lease.

D. Landlord has succeeded to the interests and assumed the obligation of Original Landlord as the lessor under the Lease.

E. Landlord and Tenant now desire to further amend the Amended Lease, upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Amendment.

NOW THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt, adequacy and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Lease is hereby modified and amended, and Landlord and Tenant hereby agree, as follows:

1. Recitals Incorporated; Certain Defined Terms. The Recitals set forth above are incorporated into this Amendment and shall be deemed terms and provisions hereof, the same as if fully set forth in this Paragraph 1. Capitalized terms that are used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed to such terms in the Lease.

2. Effectiveness. The parties are entering into this Amendment in connection with the contemplated acquisition of all the outstanding capital stock of Century Theatres, Inc. by Cinemark Holdings, Inc. and Cinemark USA, Inc. (the “Acquisition”) pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement dated as of the date hereof (the “Stock Purchase Agreement”). This Amendment shall become automatically effective upon, and only upon, the closing of the Acquisition (the “Effective Date”). In the event the Acquisition is not consummated and the Stock Purchase Agreement is terminated, this Agreement shall become void ab initio and of no force and effect.

3. Initial Term of Lease and Extension Options. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease but subject to the provisions of the Lease applicable to the exercise and validity of such Renewal Terms, the Initial Term of the Lease is hereby extended to and shall expire on  and rather than  Renewal Terms of  each (as provided in the Lease), Tenant shall have the option to extend the Initial Term for  consecutive Renewal Terms of  each, followed by  additional and final Renewal Term of ***

4. Landlord's Recapture Right. If, at any time during the term of the Lease, Tenant fails to satisfy the Operating Condition (defined below), for reasons other than Excused Closure (defined below), and such failure continues for six (6) consecutive months or more, then upon notice from Landlord to Tenant at any time thereafter (provided that the Operating Condition remains unsatisfied), Landlord shall have the right to terminate the Lease and to recapture the Leased Premises, without payment to Tenant, effective upon the date set forth in Landlord's termination notice (but not sooner than 30 days after the date of the termination notice).

The term "Operating Condition" shall mean and require that the entire Leased Premises is being continuously operated and regularly open for business to the general public as a motion picture theater complex in accordance with the Lease, at least on such days and at such times that a majority of Century's and Cinemark's other motion picture theater complexes in the County of San Francisco typically are open and operating. The term "Excused Closure" shall mean (i) periods of construction, alterations, renovation, remodeling and repair of the Leased Premises undertaken in accordance with this Lease (including repairs and restoration following damage or destruction due to fire or other casualty) provided that Tenant (A) prosecutes such work to completion with reasonable diligence, (B) exercises its reasonable efforts to minimize the length of time of such closure, and (C) exercises its reasonable efforts to limit the number of motion picture screens at the Premises that are not operated due to such closure; (ii) periods when Tenant cannot practicably operate its business in the Premises as a consequence of force majeure; and (iii) additional periods, not to exceed four (4) days in any Lease Year, when Tenant in its sole discretion elects not to operate its business in the Leased Premises.

5. Self-Insurance of Property/Casualty Risks. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Lease, during any period in which Tenant maintains a Net Worth (as defined below) of at least One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000.00), Tenant may self insure the so-called "physical property damage insurance" otherwise required to be maintained by Tenant pursuant to the Lease. As used herein, the "Net Worth" of Tenant at any given time shall mean an amount equal to the sum of (A) the product of (1) Tenant's so-called EBITDA (i.e., earnings before interest, income taxes, depreciation and amortization), calculated in accordance with commercially reasonable past practice preceding the Effective Date by Tenant's parent corporation, over the 12-month period immediately preceding the time of measurement, multiplied by (2) eight (8), plus (B) the amount of cash and cash equivalents held by Tenant on the most recent anniversary of Tenant's annual insurance renewal date, minus (C) the amount of outstanding funded debt of Tenant on such determination date.

6. Damage and Destruction — Repairs by Tenant. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, the following shall apply to repairs and restoration upon damage or destruction:

(A) Tenant's Obligation to Repair. If the Leased Premises are damaged or destroyed by any peril after the Commencement Date of this Lease, then Tenant shall repair the damage and restore the Leased Premises in accordance with this Section, except as provided in subsection (B) below. Unless Tenant is not required to effect the repairs and restoration pursuant to subsection (B) below, Tenant shall promptly apply for and diligently seek to obtain all necessary governmental permits and approvals for the repair and restoration of the Leased Premises and, upon issuance of such governmental permits and approvals, promptly commence and diligently prosecute the completion of the repairs and restoration of the Leased Premises (to the extent permitted by applicable law) to substantially the same condition in which the Leased Premises were immediately prior to such damage or destruction (subject to any alterations which Tenant would be permitted to make to the Leased Premises pursuant to this Lease).

(B) Damage in Excess of 20%. If the Leased Premises are damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty which occurs after the Effective Date hereof, and if the cost to repair such damage or to restore the Leased Premises as required in Section (A) exceeds twenty percent (20%) of the replacement cost of the Leased Premises (as determined by an independent architect selected by Tenant and approved by Landlord in Landlord's reasonable discretion) and such damage makes it impracticable to operate the Leased Premises in the reasonable business judgment of Tenant, then (i) Tenant shall have the option, upon notice to Landlord not later than one hundred eighty (180) days following the occurrence of the applicable casualty, not to undertake the repairs and restoration of the Leased Premises, and (ii) if Tenant so elects not to undertake the repairs and restoration, then Tenant nevertheless shall raze Tenant's Building and remove from the Leased Premises all building materials and debris and all underground installations that serve only the Leased Premises (including the footings and foundations of Tenant's Building and the utility lines serving Tenant's Building) and restore the surface of the Premises to a graded and landscaped surface.

7. Permitted Assignments and Release. Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, the following shall apply and control:

Subject to the next sentence, Tenant may sublet or assign this Lease only upon receipt of Landlord's written consent which consent Landlord agrees shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned. Notwithstanding anything in this Lease to the contrary, it is agreed that at any time during the term of this Lease, Tenant may, without Landlord's consent or approval (but only upon prior written notice to Landlord), assign this Lease or sublet the Leased Premises to: (i) any wholly-owned subsidiary of Tenant, and (ii) any corporation, trust, partnership or individual that owns fifty percent (50%) or more of the issued and outstanding stock of Tenant. A change in control of Tenant shall not constitute an assignment of this Lease requiring Landlord's consent or approval, provided, however, that if any assignee under clause (i) above ceases to be a wholly owned subsidiary of Tenant, then the same shall be deemed to constitute an assignment which is prohibited without Landlord's approval under Article XI of the Lease.

No assignment, subletting or other transfer of the Lease or the Leased Premises shall relieve or release Tenant from any liabilities or obligations arising under the Lease.

8. Leasehold Financing. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, Tenant shall have the right, without Landlord's consent to encumber the leasehold estate created under the Lease and/or to grant a security interest in Tenant's removable trade fixtures, furnishings and equipment located within the Leased Premises (but not to encumber Landlord's fee interest in the Premises), to secure financing provided to Tenant by any bank, thrift institution, insurance company or other institutional lender. Tenant agrees to notify Landlord of any such encumbrance. With respect to any such leasehold financing (and provided that Tenant is not in default under the Lease beyond any applicable notice or cure period), upon thirty (30) days' prior written request from Tenant, Landlord will execute and deliver to the secured lender a "Landlord's Agreement" in the form attached hereto as Exhibit "A-1".

9. Memorandum of Lease. On the Effective Date, Landlord and Tenant will enter into and record a short form memorandum of the Lease, in the form of Exhibit "A-2" attached hereto or otherwise in proper form for recording. Tenant shall be solely responsible for the cost of recording the memorandum, including (if applicable) any transfer taxes that may be due and payable in connection with the Lease.

10. Gross Sales. Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary the definition of Gross Sales shall be as follows:

"Gross Sales" shall mean the total amount of all revenues (whether in cash or credit) generated or derived from the conduct of any business at the Leased Premises, including (without limitation) all box office receipts of or at the Leased Premises (including receipts from tickets or gift certificates redeemed at the Leased Premises regardless of the point of sale), as well as any and all receipts from the sale of goods, services, merchandise, beverages, food, vending machines and video games at the Leased Premises; provided, however, that the following shall be excluded from "Gross Sales" (i) credits and refunds made with respect to admissions or other sales otherwise included in Gross Sales, (ii) all federal, state, county and city admission taxes, sales and use taxes, entertainment taxes, royalty taxes, gross receipt taxes and other similar taxes now or hereafter imposed and owing to the taxing authority by Tenant (whether such taxes are collected from customers separately from the selling price of admission tickets or absorbed by Tenant); (iii) receipts from the sale of gift certificates or tickets sold but not redeemed at the Leased Premises; (iv) with respect to any tickets or admissions ordered or paid for over the internet and redeemed at the Leased Premises, the portion (if any) of the sale price that exceeds Tenant's actual box-office ticket price; (v) sales price for merchandise returned, (vi) amounts retained by credit card issuers, (vii) sales outside of the ordinary course of business, (viii) amount of credit card sales deemed uncollectible, (ix) advertising revenues including without limitation media, sponsorship, and promotional advertising of any kind, and (x)

the receipts of or from so-called "four-wall deals" with a party that is not affiliated with Tenant, except that the portion thereof or other amounts paid to Tenant in connection with such "four-wall deals" shall be included in "Gross Sales" under this Lease. Commissions or surcharges paid to agencies or other third parties not affiliated with Tenant for selling tickets or processing credit card transactions, and any sums paid to third parties not affiliated with Tenant for the use or rental of vending machines, pay telephones, amusement machines and other similar devices shall be deducted from "Gross Sales" (if and to the extent previously included in "Gross Sales").

11. Taxes. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Lease or this Amendment to the contrary, if during the ten (10) year period immediately following the Effective Date, any sale or change in ownership of the Premises (or against the Entire Premises, if the Premises are not separately assessed) is consummated by Landlord and, as a result, all or part of the Premises (or Entire Premises, if applicable) are reassessed (a "Reassessment") for real property tax purposes by the appropriate governmental authority under the terms of Proposition 13 (as adopted by the voters of the State of California in the June 1978 election) or the terms of Article XIII A of the Constitution of the State of California, then the terms of this Section shall apply. For purposes of this Section, the term "Tax Increase" shall mean that portion of the annual real estate taxes assessed against the Premises (or the Entire Premises, if applicable), as calculated immediately following the Reassessment, that is attributable solely to the Reassessment. Accordingly, a Tax Increase shall not include any portion of the real estate taxes, as calculated immediately following the Reassessment, that is:

- (i) Attributable to the assessment of the value of the Premises (or Entire Premises, if applicable) prior to the Effective Date;
- (ii) Attributable to the annual inflationary increases in real estate taxes; or
- (iii) Attributable to the sale of Landlord's ownership interest in Tenant on or about the Effective Date, or attributable to the execution of this Amendment or any extension of the Term of this Lease on the Effective Date or thereafter.

During the five (5) year period immediately following the Effective Date, Tenant shall not be obligated to pay any portion of any Tax Increase relating to a Reassessment.

Commencing on the fifth anniversary of the Effective Date, and continuing until the tenth anniversary of the Effective Date, Tenant shall be obligated to pay annually only the portion of a Tax Increase relating to a Reassessment that is equal to (or less than) an increase of four percent (4%) per annum, compounded annually, from the Effective Date, in the annual amount owed by Tenant for real estate taxes under the terms of the Lease, from the annual amount owed by Tenant for real estate taxes under the terms of the Lease in calendar 2006.

The terms and provisions of this Section shall not apply to any increase in real estate taxes which results from or is attributable to any occurrence, fact or circumstance other than a sale by Landlord of Landlord's interest in the Premises or a transfer effected by Landlord which is treated as a sale by the local taxing authorities under Proposition 13 (excluding those matters identified in clause (iii) above). This Section shall not apply from and after the tenth (10th) anniversary of the Effective Date of this Amendment.

12. Alterations by Tenant.

Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, the following shall apply and control:

Tenant shall have the right from time to time, at its sole cost and expense, to make interior alterations, improvements, or changes in the Leased Premises as Tenant shall deem necessary or beneficial in Tenant's use of the Leased Premises as a motion picture theatre complex, including (without limitation) the conversion to stadium seating of the auditoria (if any) in the Leased Premises. Tenant shall fully and completely indemnify Landlord against any mechanics' or other liens in connection with the making of such alterations and changes, and shall pay all costs, expenses, and charges thereof. Any alterations, improvements or changes by Tenant must be consistent with the use and operation of the Leased Premises as a motion picture theatre complex. Tenant shall be required to complete all alterations, improvements or changes that Tenant undertakes. Alterations, changes and improvements shall be performed in a first-class manner and must comply with all laws, zoning regulations and ordinances, and any conditions on permits issued pursuant thereto. If it is necessary in Tenant's reasonable judgment to close any of the motion picture screens during the period in which any of Tenant's work permitted hereunder is performed, said closure(s) shall be effected only in accordance with the provisions governing an "Excused Closure", as that term is defined in Section 4 of this Amendment.

13. Rooftop Equipment and Access. Tenant shall have the exclusive right to install, operate, repair, replace and maintain satellite dishes and/or other communication transmission devices (collectively "Rooftop Equipment") on the roof of the theatre necessary or appropriate to accept any transmission of signals to the theatre for all permitted uses, including without limitation, for movies, advertising, concerts, telecasts, corporate meetings or communications and the like; but Tenant shall be prohibited from entering into any leases or licenses with any third parties for retransmission from such Rooftop Equipment, and Tenant shall not retransmit such signals to a third party outside of the Leased Premises. Landlord shall not use, or permit any person or entity (other than Tenant), to use the roof or exterior walls of the theatre for any purpose whatsoever, and Landlord agrees not to enter into any leases or licenses with third parties for the use of the theater rooftop. Landlord shall be responsible for any damage to the rooftop caused by the Landlord or a third party that enters onto the theatre rooftop with Landlord's permission, and Landlord shall indemnify and hold Tenant harmless from all loss, cost, damage or expense which Tenant incurs as a result of the acts or omissions of said third party or their agents or employer. Tenant hereby indemnifies and agrees to hold Landlord and Landlord's successors and assigns harmless from all loss, cost, damage or expense which Landlord incurs as a result of the actions of Tenant, or its agents or employees in installing and utilizing Rooftop Equipment as permitted hereunder.

14. Alterations and Development by Landlord. Landlord agrees that with respect to the Entire Premises, the following restrictions shall apply to Landlord's usage and improvement thereof:

- (i) Any alterations or new construction to the Entire Premises or contiguous property owned or controlled by Landlord or its affiliates as of the Effective Date (the "Contiguous Property") may be made without Tenant's consent only if such alterations or new construction do not materially and adversely affect Tenant's operations (including, without limitation, parking, access, ingress and egress to the theatre building and visibility of the theatre building and/or on-building theatre signage). Any such alterations or new construction on the Entire Premises and any cross parking or cross access arrangements between the Entire Premises and the Contiguous Property will first be submitted to Tenant for approval, not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed, and Tenant shall be required to identify the manner in which Tenant's operations are so affected. If Landlord and Tenant are unable to agree on whether such alteration or new construction materially and adversely affects Tenant's operations, including without limitation, parking, access, ingress and egress and visibility, the parties agree to submit the issue to binding arbitration pursuant to the Lease.
- (ii) Landlord shall not lease, sell or use any space on Non-leased Premises or the Contiguous Property for operating a motion picture theatre.
- (iii) Subject to existing leases, licenses and operating agreements, Landlord shall not lease, license, enter into an operating agreement for, sell or use any space on Non-leased Premises for operating the following: a bowling alley; a bar or lounge (other than a bar or lounge that is connected with a restaurant, deriving 50% of its revenues from the sale of food); a liquor store (other than first-class or upper-end wine or liquor store such as "BevMo"); a bulk candy store, (other than upper-end candy stores such as Godiva, Sees, Rocky Mountain Chocolates and similar concepts); a popcorn store; a massage parlor or adult (i.e., pornographic) book store.
- (iv) Landlord shall not place any carts, kiosks or other temporary structures selling food and/or beverages within common areas of the Entire Premises unless such carts, kiosks or other structures are more than 500 feet from the theatre. Such carts and kiosks may not sell any food or beverages sold in the theatre. Landlord shall not place any vending machines selling food and/or beverages on the common areas of the Entire Premises unless such vending machines are more than 500 feet from the theatre
- (v) Any new buildings shall be limited to retail, restaurant, residential and/or office uses.

15. Permitted Use and Operations. From and after the Effective Date, Tenant shall be permitted to use and operate the Leased Premises as and only as a first-class motion picture theatre complex (whether operated as a so-called "first-run" theatre and/or an "art house" theatre). In no event shall Tenant be permitted to operate the Leased Premises as a so-called "second run" theatre complex or a so-called "adult" theater complex.

16. Removal of Equipment, Surrender and Demolition. Upon the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of the Lease, and provided Tenant is not in default under the Lease beyond applicable notice and cure periods, and said earlier termination is not due to Tenant's default under the Lease, then for a period extending forty-five (45) days beyond the date of said expiration or termination, Tenant shall be permitted to remove any and all furniture, fixtures and equipment owned and installed by Tenant in, on or to the Leased Premises. Such removal shall be: (a) at Tenant's sole cost and expense; (b) conducted in such manner that no liens or claims shall arise or exist in connection therewith; (c) conducted in a manner to avoid unreasonable interference with the activities of Landlord and subsequent tenants or occupants upon the Leased Premises and Tenant shall repair all damages caused by such removal.

Upon surrender of the Leased Premises by Tenant and removal of its equipment pursuant to the terms of the Lease and this Amendment, Landlord shall be responsible for the cost of any demolition of the Leased Premises and site grading and restoration as a result. Such demolition shall be undertaken in Landlord's sole discretion and at such times, manner and upon such events as Landlord solely shall determine.

17. Early Termination — Opening of Nearby Theatre. As of the Effective Date hereof, Tenant is the lessee under a lease agreement (the "Nearby Theatre Lease") for the motion picture theatre complex located or to be located at the proposed "*" in San Bruno, California (the "Nearby Theatre"). As of the date the Nearby Theater opens for business to the public, the Lease shall be terminated.

18. Early Termination — Cancellation of Nearby Theatre Lease. In the event, during any consecutive twelve (12) calendar month period from the Effective Date (the "Test Period"), the Nearby Theatre is not constructed and open for business to the general public, and if the Theatre Level Cash Flow ("TLCF"), as defined in Exhibit "A-3" hereto, for the Leased Premises over the Test Period is less than , then Tenant shall have the right, to be exercised by written notice to Landlord at any time when the TLCF for the most current trailing twelve (12) month period was  or forty-five (45) days after the expiration of such Test Period, to terminate the Lease as provided below in this Section 18; provided, however, that Tenant shall have concurrently or previously terminated the Nearby Theatre Lease; and provided further, that such notice and Tenant's right to terminate the Lease for the applicable Test Period shall be void and ineffective unless Tenant shall have satisfied the Operating Condition (defined above) continuously throughout the applicable Test Period subject to Excused Closure. Further, in order to be effective, Tenant's notice to Landlord under this Section 18 shall include a written "certification to Landlord from Tenant's chief financial officer or controller confirming that the TLCF for the Test Period calculated in accordance with Tenant's normal accounting practices is less than . Provided Tenant has satisfied the aforesaid conditions, then this Lease shall be terminated effective as of the date which is thirty (30) days after the termination notice of the Test Period.

19. Restrictive Covenant. Landlord covenants and agrees that if, upon the termination of the Lease for any reason, other than the default of Tenant, Tenant or an affiliate of Tenant is leasing and operating a Nearby Theater pursuant to the Nearby Theater Lease, then no portion of the Entire Premises including the Leased Premises shall be used or operated as a motion picture theater complex prior to the date which is the first to occur of (i) 15 years from the date that the Nearby Theater is or was first open to the general public and operated as a motion picture theater complex or (ii) the termination or expiration of the Nearby Theater Lease or (iii) the Nearby Theater ceasing to be open to the public and operating as a first-run motion picture theater complex, for reasons other than Excused Closures for a continuous period of eighteen (18) months or more. The terms and provisions of the Section shall survive the termination of the Lease except that the foregoing restrictive covenant shall not apply if the Lease is terminated as a consequence of a default by Tenant. Such restrictive covenant shall run with the land. Landlord agrees to execute within thirty (30) days after request by Tenant a restrictive covenant in form appropriate for recording containing the restrictions contained herein. Tenant shall be responsible for the costs of all such recording fees.

20. California Remedies. Landlord's remedies upon a default under the Lease shall include, without limitation, the following:

Even though Tenant has breached the Lease and/or abandoned the Premises, this Lease shall continue in effect for so long as Landlord does not terminate Tenant's right to possession, and Landlord may enforce all of its rights and remedies under this Lease, including (but without limitation) the right to recover Rent as it becomes due. Landlord has the remedy described in Section 1951.4 of the Civil Code of the State of California or any successor code section (Landlord may continue the Lease in effect after Tenant's breach and abandonment and recover rent as it becomes due, if Tenant has the right to sublet or assign, subject only to reasonable limitations). Acts of maintenance, preservation or efforts to lease the Premises or the appointment of receiver upon application of Landlord to protect Landlord's interest under this Lease shall not constitute an election to terminate Tenant's right to possession.

21. Termination of Lease and Lessee's Right to Possession. Section 15.02(C) of the Lease shall be deemed deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

"If an event of default occurs, Landlord shall have the right, with or without notice or demand, immediately (after expiration of the applicable grace periods) to terminate this Lease, and at any time thereafter recover possession of the Premises or any part thereof and expel and remove therefrom Tenant and any other person occupying the same, by any lawful means, and again repossess and enjoy the Premises without prejudice to any of the remedies that Landlord may have under this Lease, or at law or equity by reason of Tenant's default or of such termination. Should Landlord terminate this Lease pursuant to foregoing, Landlord shall have all the rights and remedies of a landlord provided by Section 1951.2 of the Civil Code of the State of California, or successor code section. Upon such termination, in addition to any other rights and remedies to which Landlord may be entitled at law or in equity, Landlord shall be entitled to recover from Tenant:

- (1) the worth at the time of award of the unpaid Rent which had been earned at the time of termination;
- (2) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent which would have been earned after termination until the time of award exceeds the amount of such Rent loss that the Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided;

(3) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent for the balance of the Term after the time of award exceeds the amount of such Rent loss that the Tenant proves could be reasonably avoided;

(4) any other amount, and court costs, necessary to compensate Landlord for all the detriment proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform its obligations under this Lease or which, in the ordinary course of things, would be likely to result therefrom; and

(5) for any other sums due."

22. Notices. The notices provisions of the Lease, as the case may be, shall be deemed deleted in their entirety and replaced with the following:

- (a) Except as otherwise expressly and specifically in this Lease provided, a bill, demand, statement, consent, notice or other communication ("notice") which either party may desire or be required to give to the other party shall be deemed sufficiently given or rendered if in writing, delivered personally to the party to be charged therewith or sent by certified mail (return receipt requested) or private express mail courier service (postage or delivery or courier fees fully prepaid) addressed to such party at the addresses set forth in subparagraph (c) below (including the addresses for copies of notices) and/or at such other address(es) as such party shall designate to the other party by notice given as herein provided. If Landlord is notified of the identity and address of Tenant's Leasehold Mortgagee, Landlord shall give such party any notice served upon Tenant hereunder to the last known address of such Leasehold Mortgagee as provided by Tenant to Landlord by certified mail or private express courier service. If Tenant is notified of the identity and address of Landlord's mortgagee, Tenant shall give such mortgagee any notice served upon Landlord hereunder to the last known address of such mortgagee as provided by Landlord to Tenant, by certified mail or private express courier service.
- (b) Any notice given in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section shall be deemed effective upon the earlier of (i) if the notice is personally delivered, the date actually received by intended recipient, (ii) if the notice is sent by certified mail, five (5) days after the same is mailed, or (iii) if the notice is sent by private overnight courier service (e.g., Federal Express, DHL or similar courier), one (1) day after the same is delivered to or picked up by such courier. Rejection or refusal to accept a notice or the inability to deliver same because of a changed address of which no notice was given shall be deemed to be a receipt of the notice sent. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Lease, no provision in this Lease shall preclude service of notices in accordance with Section 1162 of the California Code of Civil Procedure or any similar and/or successor code sections.
- (c) Addresses for Notices to Landlord and Tenant.

23. Miscellaneous Amendments. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, whenever any of the terms “Leased Premises”, “Demised Premises” or “Premises” (and whether or not capitalized) is used herein, it shall be understood to mean the “premises leased hereby”; and whenever the term “Entire Premises” is used herein (and whether or not capitalized), it shall be understood to mean all of the contiguous land and buildings owned by Landlord at this location, which include the premises leased hereby. C) Landlord shall deliver possession of the Premises to Tenant on the Effective Date, free of all leases, tenancies and occupancies.

2.02 Term of Lease.

A) Tenant shall at all times during the Term of this Lease have the right to peacefully and quietly have, hold, occupy and enjoy the Premises, subject to the terms of this Lease without hindrance or molestation from Landlord or any person claiming by, from or under Landlord.

The "Initial Term" of this Lease shall begin on the Commencement Date and shall terminate  thereafter. References herein to the "Lease Term" shall mean the Initial Term of this Lease or the Initial Term as extended under Section 2.02.

2.03 Option to Extend Lease Term.

A) Tenant may, at Tenant's option, extend the Initial Term of this Lease for up to consecutive additional periods of  each (individually called a "Renewal Term"), subject to all the provisions of this Lease. The Renewal Term in question shall commence at the expiration of the Initial Term (or the immediately preceding Renewal Term, as the case may be), and shall terminate on the  of the date of commencement of the Renewal Term in question, unless sooner terminated as provided herein.

B) Failure to duly exercise the option for any Renewal Term shall nullify the option for the remaining Renewal Terms.

C) Tenant's right to the options to extend the Lease Term and Tenant's rights to the Renewal Term are subject to:

(1) This Lease being in full force and effect on the last day of the Initial Term or the then current Renewal Term, as applicable.

(2) Compliance with the following procedure for exercising the option in question:

(a) At least nine (9) months before the last day of the Initial Term, or the then current Renewal Term, as the case may be, Tenant shall give Landlord written notice exercising the option.

(b) Each party shall, at the request of the other, execute a memorandum acknowledging the fact that the option in question has been exercised. If an option is properly exercised by Tenant, the failure of Landlord to execute such memorandum shall not invalidate such option or the exercise thereof.

(3) Tenant is not in default at time of the exercise of the renewal and at the commencement of the renewal term.

2.04 Covenant of Title; Authority and Quiet Possession; Transfer of Title.

(A) Landlord represents and warrants to Tenant that: (i) Landlord has full right and lawful authority to enter into and perform Landlord's obligations under this Lease for the term hereof, and has good and marketable title to the Entire Premises in fee simple, free and clear of all contracts, leases, tenancies, agreements, restrictions, violations, encumbrances or defects in title of any nature whatsoever which would restrict or prevent the use of or enjoyment by Tenant of the Leased Premises or the rights, easements or privileges granted Tenant under this Lease; (ii) this Lease shall not be subject or subordinate to any Mortgage except for such subordination as may be accomplished in accordance with the provisions of the article captioned "Estoppel Certificate, ect."; (iii) if Tenant shall have discharged the obligations herein set forth to be performed by Tenant, Tenant shall have and enjoy, during the term hereof, the quiet and undisturbed possession of the Leased Premises and all appurtenances appertaining thereto.

ARTICLE III
USE OF PREMISES

3.01 Use.

A) The Premises may be used for the Permitted Use and for no other purpose.

B) Tenant shall not use the Premises, or permit the use of the premises, in any manner which constitutes a violation of any laws, regulations, ordinances, statutes or rules governing the premises, or which constitutes a nuisance or waste of which would increase Landlord's insurance or liability.

4.01 Minimum Monthly Rent.

A) Beginning on the Initial Rent Due Date, Tenant shall pay to Landlord during the Lease Term a "Base Rent" of . The Base Rent is sometimes referred to herein as the "Minimum Monthly Rent" and shall be subject to adjustment every  after the Initial Rent Due Date as set forth in Section 4.01 B below.

B) The Minimum Monthly Rent shall apply from the Rent Commencement Date through the end of the  Lease Year of the Term. The Minimum Monthly Rent shall be increased (but never decreased) on the first day of the  Lease Year and on the first day of each  Lease Year thereafter during the Term by a percentage equal to the percentage of increase from the "base period" (as hereinafter defined in this Section) of the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers, San Francisco-Oakland-San Jose Average, Subgroup "All Items", (1982-84=100) (the "Consumer Price Index"); provided, however, in no event shall the Minimum Monthly Rent be increased by an amount that is less than  greater than the Minimum Monthly Rent payable before the adjustment date in question.

In the event that the Consumer Price Index is not available, the successor or substitute index shall be used for the computations herein set forth. In the event that the Consumer Price Index or such successor or substitute index is not published, a reliable governmental or other non-partisan publication evaluating the information theretofore used in determining the Consumer Price Index shall be used by Landlord for the computations herein set forth. For the purposes of the computations herein set forth, the basis for any substitute or successor index or such governmental or non-partisan publication shall be converted to a basis of 100 only in the event that the basis used in such index or publication is less than 100.

4.02 Percentage Rent. In addition to the payment of Base Rent, Tenant shall pay to Landlord for each Lease Year during the Term of this Lease, as Percentage Rent a sum equal to the amount by  which of the Gross Sales for such Lease Year exceeds the Base Rent which is payable for such Lease Year equal to the quotient obtained by dividing the annual fixed rate for such Lease year by the percentage rate.

Gross Sales shall mean all box office receipts, sales of goods, merchandise, beverages, food, vending machines and video games. Gross sales shall exclude credits and refunds made with respect to admissions or other sales; all federal, state, county and city admission taxes, sales taxes and other similar taxes now or hereafter imposed (whether such taxes are collected from customers separately from the selling price of admission tickets or absorbed therein, and actually paid over to the taxing authority by Tenant; commissions paid to agencies or other third parties for selling tickets; returned, exchanged, waived or "Pass Admissions" including EBF charges on "Pass Admissions" and any sums paid to third parties for the use or rental of vending machines, pay telephones or other amusement machines.

Tenant agrees to furnish Landlord a statement certified by its chief financial or similar office of its Gross Sales within ninety (90) days after the close of each Lease Year and calculation of Percentage Rent, if any, due for such Lease Year. Tenant shall concurrently with the delivery of such statement, pay to Landlord any Percentage Rent due for such Lease Year.

The receipt by Landlord of any statement or any payment of Percentage Rent for any period shall not bind it as to the correctness of the statement or the Payment. Landlord shall within three years after the receipt of any such statement be entitled to an audit of such Gross Sales. Such audit shall be limited to the determination of the Gross Sales as defined in this Lease and shall be conducted during normal business hours at the principal place of business of Tenant. If it is determined as a result of such audit that there has been a deficiency in the payment of Percentage Rent, then such deficiency shall become immediately due any payable with interest at the annual rate of 18% from the date when said payment should have been made until paid. Any information gained from such statements or inspection shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed other than to carry out the purposes hereof. If such audit shall disclose that Tenant has understated the Gross Sales for such Lease Year by more than three (3%) and Landlord is entitled to any additional Annual Percentage Rent, Tenant shall pay to Landlord all of Landlord's reasonable cost of such audit.

4.03 Rent Payments. Rent and other sums to be paid by Tenant shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America. All payments shall be made by Tenant to Landlord without notice or demand.

4.04 Place for Payment of Rent. The Annual Rent and any other charges required to be paid by Tenant to Landlord shall be sent to Landlord at its principal place of business, or such other address as Landlord may direct in writing.

4.05 Late Payment of Rent. In the event that any monthly installment of rent is not paid within ten (10) days after first written notice from Landlord that such payment is past due, Tenant shall pay Landlord interest on such unpaid rent at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum computed from the date such rent installment was due until the date actually paid.

ARTICLE V

TAXES, ASSESSMENTS AND UTILITIES

5.01 Impositions.

A) The term "Impositions" shall mean all real estate taxes, duties or assessments (special or otherwise), water and sewer rents, whether ordinary or extraordinary, general or special, foreseen or unforeseen, of any kind and nature whatsoever, which, at any time during the Lease Term, shall be assessed or levied, or be attributable in any manner to the Premises, or the rents receivable therefrom, or any part thereof or any use thereon or any facility located therein or used in connection therewith, whether or not any of the foregoing shall be a so-called "real estate tax" expressly excluding, however, any such items arising directly or indirectly out of any act or omission of Landlord, any of Landlord's predecessors in title or any other person occurring prior to the commencement of the Term. From and after the Initial Rent Due Date, Tenant shall pay all Impositions assessed, levied or attributable to the Premises and/or the Improvements on the Premises. All Impositions or installments thereof payable with respect to the tax year in which this Lease shall commence, and all Impositions or installments thereof with respect to the tax year in which this Lease shall terminate, shall be pro-rated on a daily basis; provided, however, that assessments or escape assessments assessed as a result of this Lease and/or the construction of Tenant Improvements by Tenant shall not be prorated and shall be paid solely by Tenant; and provided further that assessments attributable to Tenant Improvements made in the final year of the Lease shall be paid solely by Tenant if Tenant demolishes the Tenant Building.

B) With respect to Impositions which by law may be paid in installments over a period of time, Landlord shall be deemed to have elected (the "Installment Election") to pay such Impositions over the longest period of time permitted by law, regardless of whether Landlord has in fact so elected. With respect to each year in which the Installment Election is effective and with respect to the Impositions associated with Tenant's premises subject to the Installment Election, Tenant's share of such Imposition(s) for each year shall be the pro rata share of the amount which would be required to be paid to the collecting authority as if Landlord had in fact made the Installment Election.

C) In the event the Premises are separately assessed by the taxing authority, Tenant shall pay all such real property taxes directly to the taxing authority prior to delinquency. In the event Tenant fails to pay such real property taxes as provided herein, Landlord may, but shall not be required to, pay the same, and any amount so paid by Landlord shall immediately thereafter become due to Landlord from Tenant as Additional Rent with interest thereon at the rate of 18% per annum from the date of Landlord's payment plus any fine, penalty, interest or cost which is levied by the taxing authority for such late payment.

D) In the event the Premises are not separately assessed by the taxing authority, Tenant shall pay all such real property taxes to the Landlord prior to delinquency. In the event Tenant fails to pay to Landlord such real property taxes as provided herein, Tenant shall pay Landlord in addition interest thereon at the rate of 18% per annum from the delinquency date until such payment has been made.

5.02 Proration of Taxes. If the Premises comprise a tax lot or lots with other property owned by Landlord or other parties ("Other Premises") assessed for real estate tax purposes, together with said Other Premises, immediately after the Commencement Date, Landlord and Tenant shall attempt to cause the appropriate taxing authorities to assess the Premises for real estate tax purposes separately from all Other Premises. During any period in which the Premises are assessed for real estate purposes, together with any Other Premises, Landlord will pay, before the last day on which payment may be made without penalty or interest, all Impositions which shall be levied against the Other Premises.

5.03 Exceptions from Impositions; Charges in Lieu of Impositions.

A) Nothing herein contained shall require Tenant to pay any estate, inheritance, succession, capital levy, corporate franchise, gross receipts, transfer, or income tax of Landlord, nor shall any of the same be deemed to be included within the term "Impositions" as defined herein.

B) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article V, if at any time after the date of this Lease the present method of taxation or assessment shall be changed so that in lieu of, as a substitute for (whether in whole or in part) or as a supplement to (provided such supplemental tax relates to real estate or revenues from real estate and not to other property or business as well) the taxes now levied, assessed or imposed on real estate and buildings and Improvements thereon, a tax shall be imposed, assessed or levied wholly or partly on the Rent, or a tax, assessment, levy or charge, measured or based, in whole or in part, on the Premises or on the rents derived therefrom, shall be imposed on Landlord, then Tenant shall pay taxes so measured or based only to the extent that such taxes would be payable if the Premises were the only property of Landlord subject to such taxes, or the income from operation of the Premises were Landlord's only income, as the case may be.

5.04 Contest of Taxes. Tenant at its sole cost and expense may by appropriate legal proceedings conducted in good faith and with due diligence, contest the amount or validity or application, in whole or in part, of any Imposition or lien therefor, or any other lien, encumbrance or charge against the Premises arising from work done or materials provided to or for Tenant. Tenant shall give Landlord reasonable notice of, and information pertaining to, such contest and regular progress reports with respect thereto.

Landlord shall cooperate with any effort pursued by Tenant in accordance with this Section 5.05. Tenant shall indemnify, protect and hold harmless Landlord and the Premises from any lien or liability with respect to any such Imposition or contest thereof, including all costs and expenses related thereto. Landlord shall provide Tenant with copies of notice when received by Landlord from the taxing authorities of any assessments or reassessments of the Premises in sufficient time (but in no event later than thirty (30) days after Landlord's receipt of the same) to enable Tenant to contest the same in accordance with the provisions of this Section 5.05.

5.05 Utilities. Tenant shall pay before delinquency, directly to the appropriate company or governmental agency, all charges for all utilities, including, but not limited to, water, gas, electricity, sewer, power, telephone, other communication services and refuse disposal consumed on the Premises.

5.06 Personal Property Taxes. During the term of this Lease, Tenant shall pay before delinquency any and all personal property taxes levied or assessed against any personal property located upon the Premises. If Tenant fails to timely pay such taxes and a lien is filed against the Premises, Landlord may discharge such lien, if Tenant fails to discharge such lien within ten (10) days following Tenant's receipt of notice from Landlord, including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees, together with interest at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum from the date of expenditure, such additional rent being due and payable within ten (10) days of notice thereof.

INSURANCE

6.01 Acquisition of Insurance Policies. Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, procure and maintain, or cause to be procured and maintained, during the entire Term the insurance described in this Section (or its then available equivalent), and shall name Landlord and any other parties requested by Landlord as an additional insured.

6.02 Types of Required Insurance. Tenant shall procure and maintain the following:

A) Commercial General Liability Insurance. Commercial general liability insurance insuring against injuries or damages to persons or property sustained in, on or about the Premises, Common Area and the appurtenances thereto, including the sidewalks and alleyways adjacent thereto, with limits of liability no less than Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000) per occurrence and in the aggregate.

B) Builder's Risk Insurance. During any restorations, alterations or changes in the Premises that may be made by Tenant at a cost in excess of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000) per job, contingent liability and builder's risk insurance upon the entire work on the Premises to the current one hundred percent (100%) replacement value thereof against "all risks" of physical loss or damage to the property insured, excluding earthquake and/or other earth movements and flood.

C) Physical Property Damage Insurance. During the term hereof, Tenant shall keep Tenant's Building (excluding foundations and footings), all improvements on the Premises and personal property insured in the name of Landlord and Tenant against damage or destruction by fire and the perils commonly covered under the extended coverage endorsement (with vandalism and malicious mischief coverage) excluding earthquake and flood to the extent of not less than the full replacement value thereof less any deductible applicable to all of Tenant's theatres insured under a blanket policy. Tenant shall be responsible for determining the amount of fire and extended coverage insurance to be maintained subject to Landlord's consent, which consent is not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The proceeds of such insurance in case of loss or damage shall be held in trust and applied on account of the obligation of Tenant to repair and/or rebuild the Leased Premises pursuant to the Article captioned "Damage Clause" to the extent that such proceeds are required for such purpose. The insurance required to be carried by Tenant under this paragraph may be covered under a so-called "blanket" policy covering other operations of Tenant and its affiliates. Tenant shall name Landlord and any parties requested by Landlord and any holder of a mortgage on Tenant's Building pursuant to a standard mortgage clause with respect to the foregoing hazard insurance, provided such holder agrees with Landlord in writing to disburse such insurance proceeds to Landlord for, and periodically during the course of, repair and restoration of Tenant's Building as set forth in this Lease.

6.03 Terms of Insurance. The policies required under Section 6.02 shall name Landlord as additional insured Tenant shall provide to Landlord certificates of insurance and copies of policies obtained by Tenant hereunder promptly upon the request of Landlord. Further, all policies of insurance described in Section 6.02 shall:

A) Be written as primary policies not contributing with and not in excess of coverage that Landlord may carry.

B) Contain an endorsement providing that the amount of coverage will not be reduced with respect to Landlord except after twenty (20) days prior written notice from insurance company to Landlord and such coverage may not be canceled with respect to Landlord except after thirty (30) days' prior written notice from insurance company to Landlord.

C) Expressly provide that Landlord shall not be required to give notice of accidents or claims and that Landlord shall have no liability for premiums.

D) Be written by insurance companies having a Bests rating of "A-" or better, and such insurance companies shall be reasonably acceptable to Landlord.

6.04 Landlord's Acquisition of Insurance. If Tenant at any time during the Term fails to procure or maintain insurance required hereunder or to pay the premiums therefor, Landlord shall have the right to procure the same and to pay any and all premiums thereon, and any amounts paid by Landlord in connection with the acquisition of insurance shall be immediately due and payable as additional rent, and Tenant shall pay to Landlord upon demand the full amount so paid and expended by Landlord. Any policies of insurance obtained by Landlord covering physical damage to the Premises shall contain a waiver of subrogation against Tenant if and to the extent such waiver is obtainable and if Tenant pays to Landlord on demand the additional costs, if any, incurred in obtaining such waiver.

6.05 Insurance Money and Other Funds Held in Trust. All insurance money or condemnation proceeds as provided in Article VIII, received by the Tenant shall be turned over to Landlord and held in trust by Landlord and, except as provided otherwise in Section 6.06, shall be applied as follows:

First, to any Leasehold Mortgagee as required under the terms of its Leasehold Mortgage provided that such Mortgage was of record and secured a loan made or committed to Landlord in compliance with all of the terms and conditions of this Lease prior to the occurrence of such loss; second, for the purpose of defraying the cost of repairing, restoring, replacing and/or rebuilding any structure or improvement on or in the Premises as required as provided in Section 6.06 hereof, and third, if the damaged or destroyed structure or improvement is not repaired, restored, replaced or rebuilt as hereinafter provided, said funds shall be disposed of as provided in Section 6.06. Any of said funds in the hands of the Tenant or Landlord at the end of the Term hereof shall be disposed of as set forth in Section 6.06 (A).

6.06 Application or Proceeds of Physical Damage Insurance. In case of any insurance policies as described in Section 6.02 (C) (Physical Property Damage Insurance) the application of insurance proceeds from damage or loss to property shall be determined in part in accordance with Article XVII hereof and, in the event of any such repair, replacement, restoration or rebuilding, the Landlord shall disburse the proceeds of the insurance collected to Tenant to pay the cost of such work upon certificate of satisfactory progress and/or completion in form satisfactory to Landlord by the licensed architect or engineer in charge of the work. Upon completion of such repair, replacement, restoration or rebuilding in accordance with the provisions of this Lease, and the full payment therefor (so no liens, encumbrances or claims with respect thereto can be asserted against the Premises, this Lease, Landlord or Tenant), any insurance proceeds received by the Landlord or Tenant with respect to the damage or destruction involved, and not used, shall remain the property of Landlord.

A) Distribution of Unutilized Proceeds. At the termination of this Lease, such insurance proceeds or condemnation awards received and held by the Landlord and not used for repair, replacement or reconstruction ("Available Proceeds"), shall be disposed as follows:

(1) First, Landlord shall be awarded an amount sufficient to remove any improvements not repaired and to return the Property to the level of adjacent streets ("grade level"); and

(2) Second, any remainder shall be paid to Landlord.

6.07 Cooperation for Insurance Proceeds. Landlord and Tenant shall each cooperate with the other in order to obtain the largest possible recovery and execute any and all consents and other instruments and take all other actions reasonably necessary or desirable to effectuate the same and cause such proceeds to be paid as hereinbefore provided. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, neither party shall carry any insurance concurrent in coverage and contributing in the event of loss with any insurance required to be furnished by the other hereunder if the effect of separate insurance would be to reduce the protection or the payment to be made under such party's insurance or under the insurance required to be furnished by the other.

6.08 Waiver of Right of Recovery. Landlord and Tenant hereby release each other from any and all liability and responsibility to one another and, to the extent legally possible to do so on behalf of their respective insurers and anyone claiming through or under either of them, by way of subrogation or otherwise, hereby waive any liability for any and all loss or damage which is of the type covered by fire and extended coverage insurance described in this Article, irrespective of any negligence on the part of the other party which may have contributed to or caused such loss. Every insurance policy carried by either party with respect to the Premises or Tenant's Building or land or improvements adjoining the Premises owned or leased by Landlord shall (if it can be so written and does not result in a material additional premium) include provisions denying to the insurer subrogation rights against the other party and any fee or leasehold mortgage to the extent such rights have been waived by the insured prior to the occurrence of damage or loss. If the waiver of subrogation otherwise is not effective, each party covenants that it will obtain for the benefit of the other party an express waiver of any right of subrogation which the insurer of such party may acquire against the other party by virtue of the payment of any such loss covered by such insurance. In the event either party is by law, statute, governmental regulation, economically unfeasible or other factor beyond such party's reasonable control unable to obtain a waiver of the right of subrogation for the benefit of the other party, then, during any period of time when such waiver is unobtainable, said party shall be deemed not to have released any subrogated claim of its insurance carrier against the other party, and during the same period of time the other party shall be deemed not to have released the party who has been unable to obtain such waiver from any claims they or their insurance carriers may assert which otherwise would have been released pursuant to this Section. In the event that either party is unable to obtain such waiver of the right of subrogation for the benefit of the other party, such party shall, within thirty (30) days of receiving notice of such inability, give the other party written notice of such inability.

ARTICLE VII

7.01 Alterations — Changes.

A) At any time and from time to time during the Lease Term, Tenant may, at its sole expense, make any alterations, additions or changes, whether structural or nonstructural, to any portion or all of any Improvements which may exist at any time and from time to time on any portion of the Premises, and may, at its option, construct new Improvements on the Premises, or remove or demolish Improvements on the Premises, provided that all such alterations or changes in Improvements and new Improvements shall be performed in a first-class manner and must comply with all laws, zoning regulations and ordinances, and any conditions on permits issued pursuant thereto. If the change, alteration or addition is structural or exterior in nature Landlord's written approval shall be first obtained.

B) Tenant shall at all times keep the Premises or any part thereof, free and clear of all liens and claims for labor or material and free and clear of all attachments, executions and notices.

(C) Upon termination of this Lease, Tenant may not remove any personal property and trade fixtures including, but not limited to theatre seats, projection and sound equipment, snack bar equipment and computers.

7.02 Repairs — Maintenance. Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, maintain the Premises in first class condition for a building of like kind and place and make such structural and non-structural, ordinary and extraordinary, foreseen and unforeseen repairs such that the Premises shall not be in violation of any law or covenant recorded as of the Effective Date.

ARTICLE VIII

ENVIRONMENTAL MATTERS

8.01 Definition For purposes of this Article VIII, the term “Hazardous Material” means (a) any substance, product, waste or other material of any nature whatsoever which is or becomes listed, regulated, or addressed pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 9601, et seq. (“CERCLA”); the Hazardous Materials Transportation Act, 49 U.S.C. Section 1801, et seq.; the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 6901, et seq. (“RCRA”); the Toxic Substances Control Act, 15 U.S.C. Section 2601 et seq.; the Clean Water Act, 33 U.S.C. Section 1251, et seq.; the California Hazardous Waste Control Act, Health and Safety Code Section 25100, et seq.; the California Hazardous Substance Account Act, Health and Safety Code Section 25330, et seq.; the California Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act, Health and Safety Code Section 25249.5, et seq.; California Health and Safety Code Section 25280, et seq. (Underground Storage of Hazardous Substances); the California Hazardous Waste Management Act, Health and Safety Code Section 25170.1, et seq.; California Health and Safety Code Section 25501, et seq. (Hazardous Materials Response Plans and Inventory); or the California Porter-Cologne Water Quality Control Act, Water Code Section 13000, et seq., all as amended, or any other federal, state or local statute, law, ordinance, resolution, code, rule, regulation, order or decree regulating, relating to, or imposing liability or standards of conduct concerning any hazardous, toxic or dangerous waste, substance or material, as now or at any time hereafter in effect; (b) any substance, product, waste or other material of any nature whatsoever which may give rise to liability under any of the above statutes or under any statutory or common law theory based on negligence, trespass, intentional tort, nuisance or strict liability or under any reported decisions of a state or federal court; (c) petroleum or crude oil, other than petroleum and petroleum products contained within regularly operated motor vehicles; (d) asbestos; (e) subsurface gas; (f) urea formaldehyde foam insulation; (g) poly chlorinated byphenyls (“PCBs”); and freon and other chlorofluorocarbons.

8.02 Tenant’s Responsibilities and Landlord Indemnity.

A) Tenant shall not cause or permit any Hazardous Materials to be brought upon, stored, used, generated, released into the environment or disposed of, on, in, under or about the Entire Premises, the Common Area, or any other portion of the Premises by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees, in violation of any law. Upon the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease, Tenant covenants to remove from the Premises, and/or Entire Premises at its sole cost and expense, any and all Hazardous Materials, including any equipment or systems containing Hazardous Materials, which are brought upon, stored, used, generated or released into the environment at or above actionable levels by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Tenant hereby indemnifies and defends (with counsel experienced and competent in litigating issues of Hazardous Materials) Landlord and agrees to hold Landlord, the Premises and the Entire Premises free and harmless from and against any and all claims, judgments, damages, penalties, fines, costs, liabilities and losses (including, without limitation, diminution in the value of the Premises, damages for the loss or restriction on use of rentable space or of any amenity of the Premises, and sums paid in settlement of claims, attorney’ fees, consultant fees and expert fees) which arise directly or indirectly from the presence of actionable levels of Hazardous Materials on in or about the Premises which is through Tenant’s (or its agents, employees, contractors or invitees) acts or omissions brought upon, stored, used, generated or released into the environment by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees (referred to as "Tenant's Environmental Acts"). This indemnification by Tenant of Landlord includes, without limitation, any and all costs incurred in connection with any investigation of site conditions or any clean up, remedial, removal or restoration work required by any federal, state or local governmental agency or political subdivision because of the presence of such Hazardous Materials in, on or about the Premises, or the soil or ground water on or under the Premises or any portion thereof due to Tenant's Environmental Acts. Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of any release of Hazardous Materials in the Premises, which Tenant becomes aware of during the term of this Lease, caused by Tenant's Environmental Acts. Landlord agrees to indemnify, defend and hold Tenant harmless from all claims, judgments, damages, penalties, fines, costs, resulting from the presence of Hazardous Materials on or about the Premises, (i) on the Commencement Date of this Lease, and/or (ii) during or after the term of this Lease, if the presence of Hazardous Materials results from any cause other than Tenant's Environmental Acts.

B) Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of, and shall promptly provide Landlord with true, correct, complete and legible copies of all of the following environmental items relating to the Premises which may be filed or prepared by or on behalf of, or delivered to or served upon Tenant: reports filed pursuant to any self-reporting requirements, reports filed pursuant to any applicable laws or this Lease, all permit applications, permits, monitoring reports, workplace exposure and community exposure warnings or notices and all other reports, disclosures, plans or documents (excluding those which may be reasonably characterized as confidential) relating to water discharges, air pollution, waste generation or disposal, underground storage tanks or Hazardous Materials.

C) In addition to Tenant's routine reporting obligations described in (B) above, Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of, and shall promptly provide Landlord with true, correct, complete and legible copies of, all of the following environmental items relating to the Premises which may be filed or prepared by or on behalf of, or delivered to or served upon, Tenant: all orders, reports, listings and correspondence (excluding those which may be reasonably considered confidential) of or concerning the release, investigation of, compliance, clean up, remedial and corrective actions, and abatement of Hazardous Materials whether or not required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by or given pursuant to any applicable laws, and all complaints, pleading and other legal documents filed against Tenant related to Tenant's use, handling, storage or disposal of Hazardous Materials. In the event of a release of any Hazardous Materials in, on or about the Premises, Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord and provide Landlord with copies of all reports and correspondence with or from all governmental agencies, authorities or any other persons relating to such release.

D) Landlord, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall have the right, but not the obligation, to join and participate in any legal proceedings or actions initiated in connection with any claims or causes of action arising out of the storage, generation, use or disposal by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees, of Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises caused by Tenant's Environmental Acts which results in (i) injury to any person, (ii) injury to or any contamination of the Premises or (iii) injury to or contamination of any real or personal property wherever situated. Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall promptly take all actions necessary to return the Premises to the condition existing prior to the introduction of such Hazardous Materials to the Premises and to remedy or repair any such injury or contamination. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall not, without Landlord's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or denied or conditioned or delayed, take any remedial action in response to the presence of any Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises or enter into any settlement agreement, consent decree or other compromise with any governmental agency with respect to any Hazardous Materials claims; provided, however, Landlord's prior written consent shall not be necessary in the event that the presence of Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises (i) poses an immediate threat to the health, safety or welfare of any individual or (ii) is of such nature that an immediate remedial response is necessary and it is not possible to obtain Landlord's consent before taking such action.

8.03 Remedial Work. In the event any investigation or monitoring of site conditions or any clean-up, containment, restoration, removal or other remedial work ("Remedial Work") is required (a) under any applicable federal, state or local law or regulation, (b) by any judicial, arbitral or administrative order, (c) to comply with any agreements affecting the Premises or (d) to maintain the Premises in a standard of environmental condition which presents no risk to safety or health, prevents the release of any hazardous materials to adjacent property and otherwise is consistent with the prudent ownership of property of the character of the Premises and/or Tenant's Building and if such Remedial Work is required as a direct result of Tenant's Environmental Acts, then Tenant at Tenant's sole cost and expense, including without limitation, any taxes or penalties assessed in connection with the Remedial Work, shall perform or cause to be performed such Remedial Work; and if such Remedial Work is required for any reason other than Tenant's Environmental Acts, then, Landlord, at Landlord's sole cost and expense, including without limitation, any taxes or penalties assessed in connection with the Remedial Work, shall perform or cause to be performed such Remedial Work. All Remedial Work shall be conducted (i) in a diligent and timely fashion by licensed contractors acting under the supervision of a consulting environmental engineer, (ii) pursuant to a detailed written plan for the Remedial Work approved by any public or private agencies or persons with a legal or contractual right to such approval, (iii) with such insurance coverage pertaining to liabilities arising out of the Remedial Work as is then customarily maintained with respect to such activities, and (iv) only following receipt of any required permits, licenses or approvals. ARTICLE XIV CONDEMNATION — EMINENT DOMAIN

14.01 Definitions. The following definitions apply in construing provisions of this Lease relating to a taking of or damage to all or any part of the Entire Premises or Improvements or Parking or any interest in them by eminent domain or inverse condemnation:

A) "Taking" means that taking or damaging, including severance damage, by eminent domain or by inverse condemnation for any public or quasi-public use under any statute. The transfer of title may be either a transfer resulting from the recording of a final order in condemnation or a voluntary transfer or conveyance to the condemning agency or entity under threat of condemnation, in avoidance of an exercise of eminent domain, or while condemnation proceedings are pending. The Taking shall be considered to take place as of the date on which the right to compensation and damages accrues under the law applicable to the Premises, unless the condemnor also takes actual physical possession of the Premises or a part thereof, in which case the date of Taking for the purposes of this Lease shall be the later of the date on which the right to compensation and damages accrues or the date physical possession is taken by the condemnor.

B) "Total Taking" means the Taking of the fee title to all the Premises and the Improvements on the Premises, which shall be considered to include any offsite improvements effected by Tenant to serve the Premises or the improvements or the parking on the Premises.

C) "Partial Taking" means any Taking (including any damaging) of a portion of the Premises, the Common Area, or any Improvements or parking thereon which is not a Total Taking.

D) "Notice of Intended Taking" means any notice or notification on which a reasonably prudent man would rely and which he would interpret as expressing an existing intention of Taking as distinguished from a mere preliminary inquiry or proposal. It includes, but is not limited to, the service of a condemnation summons and complaint on a party to this Lease. The notice is considered to have been received when a party to this Lease receives from the condemning agency or entity a Notice of Intended Taking, in writing, containing a description or map of the Taking reasonably defining the extent of the Taking.

E) "Award" means compensation paid for the Taking, whether pursuant to judgment or by agreement or otherwise.

14.02 Notice to Other Party. The party hereto receiving any notice of the kinds specified below shall promptly give the other party notice of the receipt, contents, and date of the notice received:

A) Notice of Intended Taking;

B) Service of any legal process relating to condemnation of the Premises or improvements;

C) Notice in connection with any proceedings or negotiations with respect to such a condemnation; or

D) Notice of intent or willingness to make or negotiate a private purchase, sale or transfer in lieu of condemnation.

14.03 Total Taking — Effect on Rent and Term. On a Total Taking, Tenant's obligation to pay Rent shall terminate on, and Tenant's interest in the leasehold shall continue until, the date of Taking, at which time this Lease shall terminate.

14.04 Distribution of Award for Taking. On a Taking, all sums, including, but not limited to, damages and interest awarded for the value of the real estate taken, shall be apportioned and paid by the governmental body taking the Premises as follows:

A) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any, for the Fair Market Value of all buildings and other improvements on the Premises;

B) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any, for severance damages

C) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any, for the "bonus value" of this leasehold estate without improvements. The bonus value is the amount by which the fair market rental value on the open market exceeds the contract rent (the amount called for in this Lease);

D) To Tenant, the amount awarded, if any, for loss of goodwill and relocation expenses;

E) To Tenant, any other award which will not reduce the amount which otherwise would be awarded to Landlord; and

F) To Landlord, any balance.

Tenant shall only be entitled to payments under this Section 14.04 out of amounts awarded by the governmental body taking the Premises.

14.05 Partial Taking — Rent Adjustments. On a Partial Taking, the Lease shall remain in full force and effect covering the remaining Premises, except that the total Rent as otherwise provided herein shall be reduced in the same ratio as the percentage of the area of the Premises taken bears to the total area of the Premises.

14.06 Partial Taking — Option to Terminate. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event of a Partial Taking, if more than thirty percent (30%) of the Building or fifty (50%) of the parking is taken by a condemnation or sold under the threat of condemnation, then Tenant may terminate this Lease as of the date the condemning authority takes title or possession, whichever occurs first, by delivering written notice to the other within ten (10) days after receipt of written notice of such taking (or in the absence of such notice, within ten (10) days after the condemning authority takes possession).

14.07 Separate Tenant's Award. In the event of a Taking, Tenant may make a separate claim with respect to lost business, lost profits, moving expenses and other related damages against the acquiring governmental Agency.

ARTICLE XV

DEFAULT

15.01 Tenant's Default The occurrence of any of the following shall constitute a default or event of default by Tenant:

A) Failure to pay Annual Rent or any other monetary amount when due as provided herein, if the failure continues for ten (10) days after first written notice has been given to Tenant by Landlord;

B) Failure to perform any of Tenant's non-monetary obligations under this Lease, provided however, Tenant shall have thirty (30) days from receipt of written notice by Landlord to cure each such default. If Tenant cannot reasonably cure such default within said thirty (30) day period, Tenant shall not be in default of this Lease if Tenant commences to cure the breach within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the breach.

C) Tenant shall file a petition in voluntary bankruptcy under the bankruptcy code of the United States or any similar Law, State or Federal Law, now or hereafter in effect.

15.02 Landlord's Remedies Cumulative. Landlord shall have the following remedies set forth in subsections (A) through (G) below if Tenant commits a default, except as provided in Section 15.03. These remedies are not exclusive and may be exercised concurrently or successively, they are cumulative in addition to any remedies now or later allowed by law or equity:

A) Bring Suit for Performance. Landlord may bring suit for the collection of the Rent or other amounts for which Tenant is then in default, or for the performance of any other covenant or agreement devolving upon Tenant, all without having to enter into possession or terminate this Lease;

B) Re-Entry Without Termination. Pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1954.4, Landlord may re-enter the Premises, by legal proceedings (or without legal proceedings if the Premises have been abandoned), and take possession thereof, without thereby terminating this Lease, and thereupon Landlord may expel all persons and remove all property therefrom, without becoming liable to prosecution therefor, and relet the Premises or a portion or portions thereof, and receive the rent therefrom, applying the same first to the payment of the reasonable expenses of such re-entry and the reasonable cost of such reletting, and then to the payment of the Rent and other amounts for which Tenant is then in default; the balance, if any, to be paid to Tenant, who, whether or not the Premises are relet, shall remain liable for any deficiency. It is agreed that the commencement and prosecution of any action by Landlord in forcible entry and detainer, ejectment, or otherwise, or the appointment of a receiver, or any execution of any decree obtained in any action to recover possession of the Premises, or any re-entry, shall not be construed as an election to terminate this Lease unless Landlord shall, in writing, expressly exercise its election to declare the Lease Term hereunder ended and to terminate this Lease, and unless this Lease be expressly terminated, such re-entry or entry by Landlord, whether had or taken under summary proceedings or otherwise, shall not be deemed to have absolved or discharged Tenant from any of its obligations and liabilities for the remainder of the Lease Term. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary or other provisions of this Section 15.02(B), Tenant shall have the right to sublet the Premises, assign its interest in the Lease, or both, subject to Landlord's prior right, during any continuance of Tenant's default, to relet the Premises or a portion or portions thereof.

C) Termination of Lease and Lessee's Right to Possession. No act by Landlord, other than giving Tenant written notice of termination of this Lease, shall in fact terminate the Lease. Upon termination of the Lease, neither Landlord nor Tenant shall have any future rights or obligations under the Lease except that Landlord shall have the right to recover from Tenant the following:

(1) The worth, at the time of the award, of the unpaid Rent that had been earned at the time of termination of this Lease;

(2) The worth, at the time of the award, of the amount by which the unpaid Rent that would have been earned after the date of termination of this Lease until the time of award exceeds the amount of the loss of Rent that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided;

(3) The worth, at the time of the award, of the amount by which the unpaid Rent for the balance of the Term after the time of award exceeds the amount of the loss of Rent that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided; and

(4) Any other amount, and court costs, necessary to compensate Landlord for all detriment proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform his obligations under the Lease or which, in the ordinary course of things, would be likely to result therefrom.

(5) For any other sums due.

D) Definitions. As used herein, the following phrases shall be interpreted as follows:

(1) The worth, at the time of the award," as used in subsections 15.02(C)(1) and (2) above, is to be computed by allowing interest at the maximum lawful rate. "The worth, at the time of the award," as referred to in subsection 15.02(C)(3) above, is to be computed by discounting the amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco at the time of the award, plus one percent (1%).

(2) As used herein, the term "time of award" shall mean either the date upon which Tenant pays to Landlord the amount recoverable by Landlord as hereinabove set forth or the date of entry of any determination, order, or judgment of any court or other legally constituted body determining the amount recoverable, whichever first occurs.

E) Surrender. Promptly after notice of termination, Tenant shall surrender and vacate the Premises and all improvements in broom-clean condition, and Landlord may re-enter and take possession of the Premises and all remaining improvements and eject all parties in possession or eject some and not others, or eject none. Termination under subsection 15.02(C) shall not relieve Tenant from the payment of any sum due to Landlord or from any claim for damages previously accrued or then accruing against Tenant.

F) Appointment of Receiver. If Tenant defaults under Section 15.02 Landlord shall have the right to have a receiver appointed to collect rent from any subtenants. Neither the filing of a petition for the appointment of a receiver nor the appointment itself shall constitute an election by Landlord to terminate this Lease.

G) Landlord's Right to Cure Tenant's Default Landlord, at any time after Tenant is in default under Section 15.01 herein, may cure the default at Tenant's expense. If Landlord, at any time, by reason of Tenant's default, pays any sum or does any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Landlord shall be immediately reimbursed from Tenant to Landlord, together with interest at eighteen percent (18%) per annum computed from the date of such expenditure until the date of reimbursement by Tenant.

15.03 Landlord's Default.

A) The occurrence of the following shall constitute a default by Landlord: Breach of any provision of this Lease if the breach is not cured within thirty (30) days after written notice by Tenant; provided, however, that if the breach cannot reasonably be cured within such thirty (30) day period, Landlord shall not be in default of this Lease if Landlord commences to cure the breach within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the default.

B) Tenant, at any time after Landlord is in default under paragraph (A) above, may cure the default at Landlord's expense. If Tenant at any time, by reason of Landlord's default, pays any sum or does any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Tenant shall be immediately reimbursed by Landlord, together with interest at eighteen percent (18%) per annum determined at the time the expenditure is made by Tenant computed from the date of such expenditure until the date of reimbursement by Landlord. If Landlord fails to make such payment(s) within fifteen (15) days after Tenant's written demand, Tenant shall be entitled to offset any amount due from Landlord against the next Rent payment due under this Lease.

15.04 Waiver of Redemption. Tenant hereby expressly waives any and all rights of redemption granted by or under any present or future laws in the event of Tenant being dispossessed or removed from the Premises upon the termination of this Lease because of default by Tenant hereunder.

15.05 Dispute Resolution. Landlord and Tenant desire by provisions of this Section 15.05 to establish procedures to facilitate the informal and inexpensive resolution of any dispute arising out of this Lease by mutual cooperation and without resort to litigation. To accomplish this objective, Landlord and Tenant agree to follow the procedures set forth below if and when a dispute arises between them under this Lease.

A) Description of Dispute. The complaining party shall provide by notice a written description of the alleged breach by the other party. This description shall explain the nature of the complaint and the Lease provision(s) on which it is based. The complaining party shall also set forth a proposed solution to the problem including a specific time frame within which the parties must act. The party receiving the letter of complaint must respond in writing within ten (10) days with an explanation, including references to the relevant parts of the Lease and a response to the proposed solution. Within ten (10) days of receipt of this response, the parties must meet and discuss options for resolving the dispute. The complaining party must initiate the scheduling of the resolution meeting.

B) Mediation. A settlement conference shall be held within thirty (30) days of the unsuccessful resolution meeting or as soon as practical thereafter. The settlement conference shall be held in the County of San Francisco, California.

C) Arbitration. With respect to disputes which the parties have been unable to resolve informally or by mediation, the parties agree to submit the dispute for final and binding arbitration if the dispute has not otherwise been settled. The parties agree that the arbitration must be initiated within one (1) year after the date of the written description of the alleged breach and that the failure to initiate arbitration within the one (1) year period constitutes an absolute bar to the initiation of any proceedings. An arbitration shall be deemed initiated for the purposes of this section by demand therefor being sent by certified mail to the other party which notice shall contain a description of the dispute, the amount involved and the remedies sought. The parties shall have the right to representation by counsel throughout the arbitration proceedings. All rulings, decisions, and awards of the arbitrators shall be in conformance with California law. The award may be judicially enforced pursuant to §1285 et seq of the California Code of Civil Procedure. Each party shall bear their own costs of legal counsel and the fees for witnesses, unless otherwise determined by the arbitrator as part of the award. The parties may establish the scope of discovery by agreement. If the parties cannot agree, the arbitrator will have discretion to define the limits of discovery and to allow discovery upon a showing of good cause, utilizing the following guidelines:

(1) The arbitrator shall balance the benefits of discovery against the burdens and expenses to the parties and the goals of arbitration as an alternative to traditional litigation.

(2) The arbitrator shall have discretion to order pre-hearing exchange of information, including but not limited to, the production of requested documents and exchanges of summaries of testimony of proposed witnesses.

(3) The deposition of the claimant(s) and respondent(s) and form sets of interrogatories approved by the Judicial Council shall be allowed as a matter of right. There shall be an early and prompt designation and exchange of the names and addresses of expert witnesses who may be called upon to testify at the arbitration hearing. Their depositions, special interrogatories, requests for admission and all other discovery shall be allowed only upon a showing of good cause.

15.06 Attorneys' Fees. Should any action or proceeding, be commenced between the parties to this Lease concerning said Premises, this Lease, or the rights and duties of either in relation thereto, the party, Landlord, or Tenant, prevailing in such action or proceeding shall be entitled, in addition to such other relief as may be granted in the action or proceeding, to a reasonable sum as and for its attorneys' fees therein which shall be determined by the arbitrator(s) hearing such action or proceeding.

ARTICLE XVII

17.01 Repairs, Alterations and Further Improvements.

A) Tenant's Obligation to Repair. If the Premises are damaged by any peril after the Commencement date of the Lease, Tenant shall restore the Leased Premises unless the Lease is terminated pursuant to Section 17.01 B. If this Lease is not so terminated, then upon receipt of the insurance proceeds by Landlord (if insurance proceeds are available) and the issuance of all necessary governmental permits, Tenant shall promptly commence and diligently prosecute to completion the restoration of the Leased Premises to the extent then allowed by Law, to substantially the same condition in which the Leased Premises were immediately prior to such damage..

(B) Damage in Excess of Fifty Percent (50%). If the cost of repairing or reconstructing said damage or destruction to its former condition and form is in excess of Fifty percent (50%) and if such reconstruction or rebuilding cannot be made under then existing laws, ordinances, statutes or regulations of any governmental authority applicable thereto the Term shall end as of the date of such damage or destruction. If, however, such reconstruction or rebuilding can be made under such existing laws, ordinances, statutes and regulations (or can be so made with minor and non-material changes to the former condition and form of the property damaged or destroyed), Tenant shall effect such repair or restoration.

17.02 Prompt Repair. If Tenant, pursuant to the terms hereof, is obligated to repair, replace, reconstruct or rebuild any structures, improvements or other property as hereinabove provided, the same shall be effected at Tenant's cost and expense (which may be paid from insurance proceeds available as above provided) and Tenant shall diligently commence and continuously carry out such repair, replacement, reconstruction or rebuilding, to full completion as soon as possible, except to the extent of delays due to strikes, lookouts, shortages of labor or materials after due diligence in obtaining the same, governmental restrictions, fire, casualty, riot act of God, act of the public enemy, or other causes beyond the reasonable control of Tenant after the exercise of due diligence, including diligence in contracting, and the exercise of rights under contracts, with contractors and suppliers.

17.03 Rent Adjustment. This Lease and the Term shall not terminate or be terminated because of damage to or destruction of any structure or improvement on or in the Premises except under and in accordance with the provisions hereinabove contained. Tenant shall not be entitled to any compensation or damages from Landlord for loss of Tenant's property or any inconvenience or annoyance caused by such restoration.

ARTICLE XVIII

MISCELLANEOUS

18.01 Limitation on Liability. The liability of Landlord hereunder or in connection with the Premises or Entire Premises shall be limited to its interest in the Premises and/or Entire Premises, as the case may be, and in no event shall any other assets of Landlord be subject to any claim arising out of or in connection with the Lease, Premises, or Entire Premises.

18.02 Modification. No modification, waiver, amendment discharge, or change of this Lease shall be valid unless the same is in writing and signed by the party against which the enforcement of such modification, waiver, amendment, discharge, or change is or may be sought.

18.03 Severability. In the event any term, covenant, condition, provision, or agreement contained herein is held to be invalid, void, or otherwise unenforceable, by any court of competent jurisdiction, such holding shall in no way affect the validity or enforceability of any other term, covenant, condition, provision, or agreement contained herein.

18.07 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise herein provided, this Lease shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns.

18.08 Captions. Article and section titles or captions contained herein are inserted as a matter of convenience and for reference, and in no way define, limit, extend, or describe the scope of this Lease or any provisions hereof. C) The time of the rendition of such bills or statements and of the giving of such consents, notices, demands, requests or communications (collectively "notice") by Tenant or Landlord shall be deemed to be the earlier of (i) the date received by Tenant with respect to a notice to Tenant, and the date received by Landlord with respect to a notice to Landlord (ii) if the notice is sent by certified mail, five (5) days after the same is mailed, or (iii) if the notice is sent by private overnight courier (e.g., Federal Express or similar courier), one (1) day after the same is delivered to or picked up by such courier. Rejection or refusal to accept a notice, request, demand, or the inability to deliver same because of a changed address of which no notice was given shall be deemed to be a receipt of the notice, request or demand sent. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Lease, no provision in this Lease shall preclude service of notices in accordance with Section 1162 of the California Code of Civil Procedure or any similar and/or successor code sections.

18.10 Addresses for Notices to Landlord and Tenant.

18.11 Entire Agreement. This Lease and the exhibits attached set forth the entire agreement between the parties. Except as specifically set forth herein, there are no agreements, representations, or warranties whatsoever as to any matter. Any prior agreements, conversations, or writings are merged herein, superseded hereby, and extinguished.

18.12 Sale or Transfer of Premises. Landlord shall promptly notify Tenant in writing of any sale or transfer of the Premises or any assignment of Landlord's interest in this Lease, giving the name and address of the assignee or new owner, as the case may be, and instructions regarding the payment of rent or any other amount required to be paid by Tenant hereunder. In the event of any transfer or assignment of Landlord's interest in this Lease or any change in, or transfer of, title in and to the Premises, of any part thereof, whether voluntary or involuntary, or by act of Landlord or by operation of law, Tenant shall be under no obligation to pay rent or other charges payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder, thereafter accruing, until Tenant shall have been notified in writing of such transfer, assignment, or change in title, and given satisfactory proof thereof, and the withholding of rent or other charges payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder, in the meantime shall not be deemed a default upon the part of Tenant. Landlord may assign this Lease and convey its title to the Premises, subject to this Lease, at any time. In the event of such assignment of this Lease, Landlord shall have no further obligations under this Lease, except for Liabilities which shall have accrued prior to the date of such assignment and transfer and that the assignee assumes in writing Landlord's obligations hereunder accruing on and after the effective date of the assignment.

18.13 Force Maieure. In the event that Tenant shall be delayed or hindered in or prevented from the performance of any act other than Tenant's obligation to make payments of rent, and other charges required hereunder, by reason of strikes, lockouts, unavailability of materials, failure of power, restrictive governmental laws or regulations, riots, insurrections, the default of Landlord, war, or other reason beyond its control, then performance of such act shall be excused for the period of the delay, and the period for the performance of such act shall be extended for a period equivalent to the period of such delay. Notwithstanding the foregoing, lack of funds shall not be deemed to be a cause beyond the control of Tenant.

18.14 Waiver. No term, covenant, or condition of this Lease can be waived except in writing, signed by the party making the waiver, Landlord or Tenant, as the case may be. No waiver of any default hereunder shall be implied from any omission by either party to take any action on account of such default if such default persists or is repeated, and no express waiver shall affect any default other than the default specified in the express waiver, and that only for the time and to the extent therein stated. The acceptance by Landlord of Rent or partial Rent with knowledge of the breach of any of the covenants of this Lease by Tenant shall not be deemed a waiver of any such breach. One or more waivers of any breach of any covenant, term, or condition of this Lease shall not be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same covenant, term, or condition. The consent or approval by either party shall not be deemed to waive or render unnecessary that party's consent to or approval of any subsequent similar act.

18.15 Estoppel Certificate. Either party hereto shall, within twenty (20) days notice from the other party (referred to as the "Requesting Party"), execute and deliver to the Requesting Party, in recordable form, a certificate stating that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect, or in full force and effect as modified, and stating the modifications. The certificate also shall state the amount of current monthly rent, the dates to which the rent has been paid in advance, the amount of prepaid rent, and any other information with respect to this Lease reasonably requested by the Requesting Party. Failure to deliver the certificate within the twenty (20) days shall be conclusive upon the party failing to deliver the certificate for the benefit of the party requesting the certificate and any successor to the party requesting the certificate, that this Lease is in full force and effect, and has not been modified except as may be represented by the party requesting the certificate, and that rent and other charges have not been paid for any period after date of the notice requesting the certificate.

18.16 Number and Gender. Whenever the context requires the singular number, it shall include the plural, the plural the singular, and the use of any gender shall include all genders.

18.17 No Holding Over. Tenant shall have no right to holdover after the end of the Term. Should Tenant or any Leasehold Mortgagee succeeding to the interest of Tenant hold over in possession after the expiration date, such holding over shall not be deemed to extend the Lease or renew this Lease; and Tenant shall pay a pro-rated daily amount equal to one hundred twenty percent (120%) of the Annual Rent in effect immediately preceding the expiration date until Tenant vacates the Premises.

18.18 Mechanics Liens. Tenant shall discharge, by payment, bonding or otherwise, any mechanics liens filed against the Premises or the Entire Premises in connection with Tenant's work and/or any alterations or other work done by or on behalf of Tenant in the Premises within thirty (30) days after Tenant receives notice of the filing of such lien, and Landlord shall cooperate with Tenant at no expense to Landlord, in order to accomplish such discharge. Should Tenant fail to so discharge any such mechanics lien, Landlord shall have the right to remove such mechanics liens and charge all costs thereof, including without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, to Tenant as additional rent plus interest at 18%.

18.19 Relationship of Parties. Nothing contained in this Lease shall be construed to create the relationship of principal and agent, partnership, joint venture or any other relationship between the parties hereto other than the relationship of Landlord and Tenant. Nothing contained herein shall in any way impose any liability upon the stockholders, officers or directors of Landlord or stockholders, officers, directors or trustees of Tenant should such parties be corporate entities.

18.20 Time of the Essence. Time is of the essence with respect to Tenant's payment of rent and other monetary obligations to Landlord under this Lease.

18.21 Facsimile Copies. Tenant and Landlord (i) have each agreed to permit the use, from time to time and where appropriate, of telecopied signatures in order to expedite the transaction contemplated by this Lease, (ii) each intend to be bound by its respective telecopied signature, (iii) are each aware that the other will rely on the telecopied signature, and (iv) each acknowledge such reliance and waive any defenses to the enforcement of the documents effecting the transaction contemplated by this Lease based on a telecopied signature.

18.22 Anti-Merger. The voluntary or otherwise surrender of this Lease by Tenant, or a mutual cancellation of this Lease shall not work a merger but shall at the option of Landlord either:

A) Terminate any existing subleases or subtenancies; or

B) Operate as an assignment to Landlord (and assumption by Landlord) of any subleases or subtenancies.

Witnesseth:

Whereas, Landlord and Century Theatres of California, Inc., a California corporation, entered into a lease dated September 30, 1995, as amended by that certain First Amendment to Lease, dated September 1, 2000 between Landlord and Century Theatres, Inc., a Delaware corporation (as amended, the “Lease”), for a motion picture building and related parking (the “Premises”) located at Cinedome Fremont, 39153 Farwell Drive, Fremont, California; capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Lease; and

Now, Therefore, the parties hereto mutually agree that the Lease shall be amended as follows:

A. Right to Terminate

At any time after the date the movie theatre operated by Tenant and located at the  in Newark opens for business, either Landlord or Tenant may terminate the Lease by delivering written notice (the “Termination Notice”) to the other party, indicating the date on which the Lease shall terminate (the “Termination Date”). If either party delivers a Termination Notice to the other party as set forth above, then, as of the Termination Date, the parties shall have no further rights under the Lease nor further obligations with respect to the Premises, with the exception of any rights or obligations which expressly survive the termination of the Lease in accordance with the provisions thereof or at law.

Cinedome Fremont — Fremont, California

B. Landlord's Right to Develop

1. The second sentence of Section 2.01(a) of the Lease is hereby deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

Tenant expressly agrees that Landlord shall have the right, but shall have no obligation, to demolish, renovate, remodel, reconstruct or otherwise alter or develop in any manner the Entire Premises or any portion thereof for any and all uses beyond the Permitted Use (the "Development") without Tenant's consent; provided, however, that the Development shall not materially interfere with the Permitted Use or Tenant's access to the Premises. In addition to developing some or all of the Entire Premises that are outside of the Building, Landlord's Development rights set forth above shall include all roof-top and other exterior communication and advertising rights on or about the Entire Premises, including, without limitation, the exclusive right to install, locate, maintain, use, replace and repair satellite dishes and other roof-top communications equipment on the roof of the Building. 2. Tenant hereby waives all claims of any nature whatsoever Tenant may now have or may hereafter have against Landlord relating in any manner to, directly or indirectly, the Development. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Landlord shall not be liable for any damage to persons or property located in, on or about the Premises resulting from or in connection with the Development, and Tenant waives and shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Landlord from any and all claims asserted by Tenant or Tenant's officers, agents, employees, contractors, licensees, invitees or guests arising from damage resulting from or in connection with the Development (except to the extent such damage is caused by the willful act or gross negligence of Landlord; provided, however, that Landlord shall not be liable for any consequential damages, including, without limitation, any claim for loss of profit or business).

C. Surrender

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease, upon the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease and promptly following Tenant's receipt of a cost estimate thereof from Landlord, Tenant shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to the cost of demolishing the improvements located on the Premises and removing all surface debris therefrom to Landlord's reasonable satisfaction, as such cost estimate is determined by Landlord in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion; provided, however, that Tenant may remove any or all of Tenant's furniture, fixtures and equipment (the "FF&E") from the Premises, so long as such removal occurs within forty-five (45) days after the Termination Date and Tenant repairs all extraordinary damage caused by such removal. Except as set forth above, from and after the Termination Date, the parties shall have no further rights under the Lease nor further obligations with respect to the Premises, except for any rights or obligations which expressly survive the termination of the Lease in accordance with the provisions thereof or at law.

B. The Original Lease has been previously amended by that certain (i) First Amendment to Lease dated as of September 1, 2000 (the "First Amendment"), (ii) Second Amendment to Lease dated as of April 15, 2005 (the "Second Amendment"), and (iii) Third Amendment to Lease dated as of September 29, 2005 (the "Third Amendment"; the Original Lease as heretofore amended is referred to herein as the "Lease").

C. Tenant has succeeded to the interests and assumed the obligations of Original Tenant as the lessee under the Lease.

D. Landlord has succeeded to the interests and assumed the obligations of Original Landlord as the lessor under the Lease.

E. Landlord and Tenant now desire to further amend the Lease, upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Amendment.

NOW THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt, adequacy and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Lease is hereby modified and amended, and Landlord and Tenant hereby agree, as follows:

1. Recitals Incorporated; Certain Defined Terms. The Recitals set forth above are incorporated into this Amendment and shall be deemed terms and provisions hereof, the same as if fully set forth in this Paragraph 1. Capitalized terms that are used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed to such terms in the Lease.

2. Effectiveness. The parties are entering into this Amendment in connection with the contemplated acquisition of all the outstanding capital stock of Century Theatres, Inc. by Cinemark Holdings, Inc. and Cinemark USA, Inc. (the "Acquisition") pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement dated as of the date hereof (the "Stock Purchase Agreement"). This Amendment shall become automatically effective upon, and only upon, the closing of the Acquisition (the "Effective Date"). In the event the Acquisition is not consummated and the Stock Purchase Agreement is terminated, this Agreement shall become void ab initio and of no force and effect.

3. Annual Rent. Annual Base Rent for the remainder of the Initial Term of the Lease shall be fixed at  per year, payable monthly as set forth in the lease.

4. Landlord's Recapture Right. If, at any time during the term of the Lease, Tenant fails to satisfy the Operating Condition (defined below), for reasons other than Excused Closure (defined below), and such failure continues for six (6) consecutive months or more, then upon notice from Landlord to Tenant at any time thereafter (provided that the Operating Condition remains unsatisfied), Landlord shall have the right to terminate the Lease and to recapture the Leased Premises, without payment to Tenant, effective upon the date set forth in Landlord's termination notice (but not sooner than 30 days after the date of the termination notice).

The term "Operating Condition" shall mean and require that the entire Leased Premises is being continuously operated and regularly open for business to the general public as a motion picture theater complex in accordance with the Lease, at least on such days and at such times that a majority of Century's and Cinemark's other motion picture theater complexes in Alameda County, California typically are open and operating. The term "Excused Closure" shall mean (i) periods of construction, alterations, renovation, remodeling and repair of the Leased Premises undertaken in accordance with this Lease (including repairs and restoration following damage or destruction due to fire or other casualty) provided that Tenant (A) prosecutes such work to completion with reasonable diligence, (B) exercises its reasonable efforts to minimize the length of time of such closure, and (C) exercises its reasonable efforts to limit the number of motion picture screens at the Premises that are not operated due to such closure; (ii) periods when Tenant cannot practicably operate its business in the Premises as a consequence of force majeure; and (iii) additional periods, not to exceed four (4) days in any Lease Year, when Tenant in its sole discretion elects not to operate its business in the Leased Premises.

5. Self-Insurance of Property/Casualty Risks. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Lease, during any period in which Tenant maintains a Net Worth (as defined below) of at least One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000.00), Tenant may self insure the so-called "physical property damage insurance" otherwise required to be maintained by Tenant pursuant to the Lease. As used herein, the "Net Worth" of Tenant at any given time shall mean an amount equal to the sum of (A) the product of (1) Tenant's so-called EBITDA (i.e., earnings before interest, income taxes, depreciation and amortization), calculated in accordance with commercially reasonable past practice preceding the Effective Date by Tenant's parent corporation, over the 12-month period immediately preceding the time of measurement, multiplied by (2) eight (8), plus (B) the amount of cash and cash equivalents held by Tenant on the most recent anniversary of Tenant's annual insurance renewal date, minus (C) the amount of outstanding funded debt of Tenant on such determination date.

6. Damage and Destruction — Repairs by Tenant Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, the following shall apply to repairs and restoration upon damage or destruction:

(A) Tenant's Obligation to Repair. If the Leased Premises are damaged or destroyed by any peril after the Commencement Date of this Lease, then Tenant shall repair the damage and restore the Leased Premises in accordance with this Section, except as provided in subsection (B) below. Unless Tenant is not required to effect the repairs and restoration pursuant to subsection (B) below, Tenant shall promptly apply for and diligently seek to obtain all necessary governmental permits and approvals for the repair and restoration of the Leased Premises and, upon issuance of such governmental permits and approvals, promptly commence and diligently prosecute the completion of the repairs and restoration of the Leased Premises (to the extent permitted by applicable law) to substantially the same condition in which the Leased Premises were immediately prior to such damage or destruction (subject to any alterations which Tenant would be permitted to make to the Leased Premises pursuant to this Lease).

(B) Damage in Excess of 20%. If the Leased Premises are damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty which occurs after the Effective Date as required in subsection (A) hereof, and if the cost to repair such damage or to restore the Leased Premises exceeds twenty percent (20%) of the replacement cost of the Leased Premises (as determined by an independent architect selected by Tenant and approved by Landlord in Landlord's reasonable discretion) and such damage makes it impracticable to operate the Leased Premises in the reasonable business judgment of Tenant, then (i) Tenant shall have the option, upon notice to Landlord not later than one hundred eighty (180) days following the occurrence of the applicable casualty, not to undertake the repairs and restoration of the Leased Premises, and (ii) if Tenant so elects not to undertake the repairs and restoration, then Tenant nevertheless shall raze Tenant's Building and remove from the Leased Premises all building materials and debris and all underground installations that serve only the Leased Premises (including the footings and foundations of Tenant's Building and the utility lines serving Tenant's Building) and restore the surface of the Premises to a graded and landscaped surface.

7. Permitted Assignments. Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, the following shall apply and control:

Subject to the next sentence, Tenant may sublet or assign this Lease only upon receipt of Landlord's written consent which consent Landlord agrees shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned. Notwithstanding anything in this Lease to the contrary, it is agreed that at any time during the term of this Lease, Tenant may, without Landlord's consent or approval (but only upon prior written notice to Landlord), assign this Lease or sublet the Leased Premises to: (i) any wholly-owned subsidiary of Tenant, and (ii) any corporation, trust, partnership or individual that owns fifty percent (50%) or more of the issued and outstanding stock of Tenant. A change in control of Tenant shall not constitute an assignment of this Lease requiring Landlord's consent or approval, provided, however, that if any assignee under clause (i) above ceases to be a wholly owned subsidiary of Tenant, then the same shall be deemed to constitute an assignment which is prohibited without Landlord's approval under Article XI of the Lease. No assignment, subletting or other transfer of the Lease or the Leased Premises shall relieve or release Tenant from any liabilities or obligations arising under the Lease.

8. Leasehold Financing. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, Tenant shall have the right, without Landlord's consent to encumber the leasehold estate created under the Lease and/or to grant a security interest in Tenant's removable trade fixtures, furnishings and equipment located within the Leased Premises (but not to encumber Landlord's fee interest in the Premises), to secure financing provided to Tenant by any bank, thrift institution, insurance company or other institutional lender. Tenant agrees to notify Landlord of any such encumbrance. With respect to any such leasehold financing (and provided that Tenant is not in default under the Lease beyond any applicable notice or cure period), upon thirty (30) days' prior written request from Tenant, Landlord will execute and deliver to the secured lender a "Landlord's Agreement" in the form attached hereto as Exhibit "A".

9. Gross Sales. Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary the definition of Gross Sales shall be as follows:

"Gross Sales" shall mean the total amount of all revenues (whether in cash or credit) generated or derived from the conduct of any business at the Leased Premises, including (without limitation) all box office receipts of or at the Leased Premises (including receipts from tickets or gift certificates redeemed at the Leased Premises regardless of the point of sale), as well as any and all receipts from the sale of goods, services, merchandise, beverages, food, vending machines and video games at the Leased Premises; provided, however, that the following shall be excluded from "Gross Sales" (i) credits and refunds made with respect to admissions or other sales otherwise included in Gross Sales, (ii) all federal, state, county and city admission taxes, sales and use taxes, entertainment taxes, royalty taxes, gross receipt taxes and other similar taxes now or hereafter imposed and owing to the taxing authority by Tenant (whether such taxes are collected from customers separately from the selling price of admission tickets or absorbed by Tenant); (iii) receipts from the sale of gift certificates or tickets sold but not redeemed at the Leased Premises; (iv) with respect to any tickets or admissions ordered or paid for over the internet and redeemed at the Leased Premises, the portion (if any) of the sale price that exceeds Tenant's actual box-office ticket price; (v) sales price for merchandise returned, (vi) amounts retained by credit card issuers, (vii) sales outside of the ordinary course of business, (viii) amount of credit card sales deemed uncollectible, (ix) advertising revenues including without limitation media, sponsorship, and promotional advertising of any kind, and (x) the receipts of or from so-called "four-wall deals" with a party that is not affiliated with Tenant, except that the portion thereof or other amounts paid to Tenant in connection with such "four-wall deals" shall be included in "Gross Sales" under this Lease. Commissions or surcharges paid to agencies or other third parties not affiliated with Tenant for selling tickets or processing credit card transactions, and any sums paid to third parties not affiliated with Tenant for the use or rental of vending machines, pay telephones, amusement machines and other similar devices shall be deducted from "Gross Sales" (if and to the extent previously included in "Gross Sales").

10. Taxes. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Lease or this Amendment to the contrary, if during the ten (10) year period immediately following the Effective Date, any sale or change in ownership of the Premises (or against the Entire Premises, if the Premises are not separately assessed) is consummated by Landlord and, as a result, all or part of the Premises

(or Entire Premises, if applicable) are reassessed (a "Reassessment") for real property tax purposes by the appropriate governmental authority under the terms of Proposition 13 (as adopted by the voters of the State of California in the June 1978 election) or the terms of Article XIII A of the Constitution of the State of California, then the terms of this Section shall apply. For purposes of this Section, the term "Tax Increase" shall mean that portion of the annual real estate taxes assessed against the Premises (or the Entire Premise, if applicable), as calculated immediately following the Reassessment, that is attributable solely to the Reassessment. Accordingly, a Tax Increase shall not include any portion of the real estate taxes, as calculated immediately following the Reassessment, that is:

- (i) Attributable to the assessment of the value of the Premises (or Entire Premises, if applicable) prior to the Effective Date;
- (ii) Attributable to the annual inflationary increases in real estate taxes; or
- (iii) Attributable to the sale of Landlord's ownership interest in Tenant on or about the Effective Date, or attributable to the execution of this Amendment or any extension of the Term of this Lease on the Effective Date or thereafter.

During the five (5) year period immediately following the Effective Date, Tenant shall not be obligated to pay any portion of any Tax Increase relating to a Reassessment.

Commencing on the fifth anniversary of the Effective Date, and continuing until the tenth anniversary of the Effective Date, Tenant shall be obligated to pay annually only the portion of a Tax Increase relating to a Reassessment that is equal to (or less than) an increase of four percent (4%) per annum, compounded annually, from the Effective Date, in the annual amount owed by Tenant for real estate taxes under the terms of the Lease, from the annual amount owed by Tenant for real estate taxes under the terms of the Lease in calendar 2006.

The terms and provisions of this Section shall not apply to any increase in real estate taxes which results from or is attributable to any occurrence, fact or circumstance other than a sale by Landlord of Landlord's interest in the Premises or a transfer effected by Landlord which is treated as a sale by the local taxing authorities under Proposition 13 (excluding those matters identified in clause (iii) above). This Section shall not apply from and after the tenth (10th) anniversary of the Effective Date of this Amendment.

11. Alterations by Tenant.

Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, the following shall apply and control:

Tenant shall have the right from time to time, at its sole cost and expense, to make non-structural interior alterations, improvements, or changes in the Leased Premises as Tenant shall deem necessary or beneficial consistent with Tenant's exclusive use of the Leased Premises as a motion picture theatre complex and if Tenant undertakes such work, Tenant must pursue such work until completion. Tenant shall fully and completely indemnify Landlord against any mechanics' or other liens in connection with the making of such alterations and changes, and shall pay all costs, expenses, and charges thereof. Alterations, changes and improvements shall be performed in a first-class manner and must comply with all laws, zoning regulations and ordinances, and any conditions on permits issued pursuant thereto. If it is necessary in Tenant's reasonable judgment to close any of the motion picture screens during the period in which any of Tenant's work permitted hereunder is performed, said closure(s) shall be effected only in accordance with the provisions governing an "Excused Closure", as that term is defined in Section 4 of this Amendment.

12. Rooftop Equipment and Access. Tenant shall have the exclusive right to install, operate, repair, replace and maintain satellite dishes and/or other communication transmission devices (collectively "Rooftop Equipment") on the roof of the theatre necessary or appropriate to accept any transmission of signals to the theatre for all permitted uses, including without limitation, for movies, advertising, concerts, telecasts, corporate meetings or communications and the like; but Tenant shall be prohibited from entering into any leases or licenses with any third parties for retransmission from such Rooftop Equipment, and Tenant shall not retransmit such signals to a third party outside of the Leased Premises. Landlord shall not use, or permit any person or entity (other than Tenant), to use the roof or exterior walls of the theatre for any purpose whatsoever, and Landlord agrees not to enter into any leases or licenses with third parties for the use of the theater rooftop. Landlord shall be responsible for any damage to the rooftop caused by the Landlord or a third party that enters onto the theatre rooftop with Landlord's permission, and Landlord shall indemnify and hold Tenant harmless from all loss, cost, damage or expense which Tenant incurs as a result of the acts or omissions of said third party or their agents or employer. Tenant hereby indemnifies and agrees to hold Landlord and Landlord's successors and assigns harmless from all loss, cost, damage or expense which Landlord incurs as a result of the actions of Tenant, or its agents or employees in installing and utilizing Rooftop Equipment as permitted hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant's exclusive rights are subject to any agreements existing on the date hereof and any extensions thereof that may be exercised by the licensee or lessee thereunder regarding Rooftop Equipment. The lessee's or licensee's under such agreements may unilaterally extend or renew if and to the extent provided under such agreements, but Landlord may not renew or extend such agreements or extend such agreements unilaterally if such systems interfere with the transmission received by Tenant's Rooftop Equipment installed pursuant to this Section.

13. Permitted Use and Operations. From and after the Effective Date, Tenant shall be permitted to use and operate the Leased Premises as and only as a first-class motion picture theatre complex (whether operated as a so-called "first run" theater and/or an "art house" theatre). In no event shall Tenant be permitted to operate the Leased Premises as a so-called "second-run" theater complex or as a so-called "adult" theater complex.

14. Removal of Equipment, Surrender and Demolition. Upon the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of the Lease, and provided Tenant is not in default under the Lease beyond applicable notice and cure periods, and such earlier termination is not due to Tenant's default under the Lease, then for a period extending forty-five (45) days beyond the date of said expiration or termination, Tenant shall be permitted to remove any and all furniture, fixtures and equipment owned and installed by Tenant in, on or to the Leased Premises. Such removal shall be: (a) at Tenant's sole cost and expense; (b) conducted in such manner that no liens or claims shall arise or exist in connection therewith; (c) conducted in a manner to avoid unreasonable interference with the activities of Landlord and subsequent tenants or occupants upon the Leased Premises and Tenant shall repair all damages caused by such removal.

Upon surrender of the Leased Premises by Tenant and removal of its equipment pursuant to the terms of the Lease and this Amendment, Landlord shall be responsible for the cost of any demolition of the Leased Premises and site grading and restoration as a result, except as otherwise provided in the Lease. Such demolition shall be undertaken in Landlord's sole discretion and at such times, manner and upon such events as Landlord solely shall determine.

15. Early Termination. As of the Effective Date hereof, Tenant is the lessee under a lease agreement (the "Protected Theater Lease") for the motion picture theater complex located or to be located at the "*" located in Newark, California (the "Protected Theater"). Tenant is also the lessee under a lease agreement (the "Newark 7 Lease") for the motion picture theater complex known as the "Newark 7" theater located in Newark, California, pursuant which Tenant shall have the right and option to expand the Newark 7 theater (the "Newark 7 Expansion") if the lessor under the Protected Theater Lease fails to commence construction of the Protected Theater within  after the Effective Date.

At the election of either Landlord or Tenant, upon not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice to the other party, the Lease shall be terminated and the term shall expire if: (i) , or (ii)  or (iii) ***.

16. Restrictive Covenant. Landlord covenants and agrees that if, upon the termination of the Lease for any reason other than the default of Tenant, Tenant or an affiliate of Tenant is leasing and operating the Protected Theater pursuant to the Protected Theater Lease or Newark 7 pursuant to the Newark 7 Expansion, then no portion of the Entire Premises, including the Leased Premises shall be used or operated as a motion picture theater complex prior to the date which is the first to occur of (i) twenty (20) years from the date that the Protected Theater or the Newark 7 Expansion (whichever opens first) is or was first open to the general public and operated as a motion picture theater complex, or (ii) the termination or expiration of Protected Theater Lease or the Newark 7 Expansion, as the case may be, or (iii) the Protected Theater or Newark 7 Expansion, as the case may be, ceasing to be open to the public and operating as a first run motion picture theater complex, for reasons other than Excused Closure, for a continuous period of eighteen (18) consecutive months or more. The terms and provisions of this Paragraph shall survive the termination of the Lease (except that the foregoing restrictive covenant shall not apply if the Lease is terminated as a consequence of a default by Tenant). Such restrictive covenants shall run with the land. Landlord agrees to execute within thirty (30) days after request by Tenant a restrictive covenant in form appropriate for recording containing the restrictions contained herein. Tenant shall be responsible for the cost of all such recording fees.

17. California Remedies. Landlord's remedies upon a default under the Lease shall include, without limitation, the following:

Even though Tenant has breached the Lease and/or abandoned the Premises, this Lease shall continue in effect for so long as Landlord does not terminate Tenant's right to possession, and Landlord may enforce all of its rights and remedies under this Lease, including (but without limitation) the right to recover Rent as it becomes due. Landlord has the remedy described in Section 1951.4 of the Civil Code of the State of California or any successor code section (Landlord may continue the Lease in effect after Tenant's breach and abandonment and recover rent as it becomes due, if Tenant has the right to sublet or assign, subject only to reasonable limitations). Acts of maintenance, preservation or efforts to lease the Premises or the appointment of receiver upon application of Landlord to protect Landlord's interest under this Lease shall not constitute an election to terminate Tenant's right to possession.

18. Termination of Lease and Lessee's Right to Possession. Section 15.02(C) of the Lease shall be deemed deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

"If an event of default occurs, Landlord shall have the right, with or without notice or demand, immediately (after expiration of the applicable grace periods) to terminate this Lease, and at any time thereafter recover possession of the Premises or any part thereof and expel and remove therefrom Tenant and any other person occupying the same, by any lawful means, and again repossess and enjoy the Premises without prejudice to any of the remedies that Landlord may have under this Lease, or at law or equity by reason of Tenant's default or of such termination. Should Landlord terminate this Lease pursuant to foregoing, Landlord shall have all the rights and remedies of a landlord provided by Section 1951.2 of the Civil Code of the State of California, or successor code section. Upon such termination, in addition to any other rights and remedies to which Landlord may be entitled at law or in equity, Landlord shall be entitled to recover from Tenant:

(A) the worth at the time of award of the unpaid Rent which had been earned at the time of termination;

(B) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent which would have been earned after termination until the time of award exceeds the amount of such Rent loss that the Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided;

(C) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent for the balance of the Term after the time of award exceeds the amount of such Rent loss that the Tenant proves could be reasonably avoided;

(D) any other amount, and court costs, necessary to compensate Landlord for all the detriment proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform its obligations under this Lease or which, in the ordinary course of things, would be likely to result therefrom; and

(E) for any other sums due."

19. Notices. The notices provisions of the Lease, as the case may be, shall be deemed deleted in their entirety and replaced with the following:

(a) Except as otherwise expressly and specifically in this Lease provided, a bill, demand, statement, consent, notice or other communication ("notice") which either party may desire or be required to give to the other party shall be deemed sufficiently given or rendered if in writing, delivered personally to the party to be charged therewith or sent by certified mail (return receipt requested) or private express mail courier service (postage or delivery or courier fees fully prepaid) addressed to such party at the addresses set forth in subparagraph (c) below (including the addresses for copies of notices) and/or at such other address(es) as such party shall designate to the other party by notice given as herein provided. If Landlord is notified of the identity and address of Tenant's Leasehold Mortgagee, Landlord shall give such party any notice served upon Tenant hereunder to the last known address of such Leasehold Mortgagee as provided by Tenant to Landlord by certified mail or private express courier service. If Tenant is notified of the identity and address of Landlord's mortgagee, Tenant shall give such mortgagee any notice served upon Landlord hereunder to the last known address of such mortgagee as provided by Landlord to Tenant, by certified mail or private express courier service.

(b) Any notice given in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section shall be deemed effective upon the earlier of (i) if the notice is personally delivered, the date actually received by intended recipient, (ii) if the notice is sent by certified mail, five (5) days after the same is mailed, or (iii) if the notice is sent by private overnight courier service (e.g., Federal Express, DHL or similar courier), one (1) day after the same is delivered to or picked up by such courier. Rejection or refusal to accept a notice or the inability to deliver same because of a changed address of which no notice was given shall be deemed to be a receipt of the notice sent. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Lease, no provision in this Lease shall preclude service of notices in accordance with Section 1162 of the California Code of Civil Procedure or any similar and/or successor code sections.

(c) Addresses for Notices to Landlord and Tenant.

Notices are to be delivered, mailed or couriered to the following address(es):

To Landlord:	Syufy Enterprises, L.P. 150 Pelican Way San Rafael, California 94901 Attention: President with a copy to:	Syufy Enterprises, L.P. 150 Pelican Way San Rafael, California 94901 Attention: General Counsel and a copy to:	DLA Piper 203 North LaSalle Suite 1900 Chicago, IL 60601 Attention: David Sickie, Esq.

Tenant and Landlord may change their respective addresses for purposes of this Section by giving written notice of such change to the other.

20. Miscellaneous Amendments. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, whenever any of the terms “Leased Premises”, “Demised Premises” or “Premises” (and whether or not capitalized) is used herein, it shall be understood to mean the “premises leased hereby”; and whenever the term “Entire Premises” is used herein (and whether or not capitalized), it shall be understood to mean all of the contiguous land and buildings owned by Landlord at this location, which include the premises leased hereby. The term “Non-leased Premises” shall mean the Entire Premises less the Leased Premises.

21. Prior Amendments. All of the provisions of the First Amendment are hereby deleted in their entirety and of no further force and effect except for (i) the first grammatical paragraph of Paragraph A concerning the definition of Consumer Price Index and (ii) Paragraph E concerning the Indemnity and Hold Harmless. The Second Amendment and the Third Amendment are hereby deemed to be void ab initio — it being the intent of the parties hereto that this Amendment shall supersede such Second Amendment and Third Amendment in their entirety.

22. Effect of Amendment. The Amendment modifies and amends the Lease, and the terms and provisions hereof shall supersede and govern over any contrary or inconsistent terms and provisions set forth in the Lease. The Lease, as previously amended and as hereby further amended and modified, remains in full force and effect and is hereby ratified and confirmed. All future references in the Lease to the “Lease” shall mean and refer to the Lease, as amended and modified by this Amendment.

B) Tenant shall not use the Premises, or permit the use of the premises, in any manner which constitutes a violation of any laws, regulations, ordinances, statutes or rules governing the premises, or which constitutes a nuisance or waste of which would increase Landlord's insurance or liability.

4.01 Minimum Monthly Rent.

A) Beginning on the Initial Rent Due Date, Tenant shall pay to Landlord during the Lease Term a "Base Rent" of . The Base Rent is sometimes referred to herein as the "Minimum Monthly Rent" and shall be subject to adjustment every  after the Initial Rent Due Date as set forth in Section 4.01 B below.

B) The Minimum Monthly Rent shall apply from the Rent Commencement Date through the end of the  Lease Year of the Term. The Minimum Monthly Rent shall be increased (but never decreased) on the first day of the  Lease Year and on the first day of each  Lease Year thereafter during the Term by a percentage equal to the percentage of increase from the "base period" (as hereinafter defined in this Section) of the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers, San Francisco-Oakland-San Jose Average, Subgroup "All Items", (1982-84=100) (the "Consumer Price Index"); provided, however, in no event shall the Minimum Monthly Rent be increased by an amount that is less than  greater than the Minimum Monthly Rent payable before the adjustment date in question.

In the event that the Consumer Price Index is not available, the successor or substitute index shall be used for the computations herein set forth. In the event that the Consumer Price Index or such successor or substitute index is not published, a reliable governmental or other non-partisan publication evaluating the information theretofore used in determining the Consumer Price Index shall be used by Landlord for the computations herein set forth. For the purposes of the computations herein set forth, the basis for any substitute or successor index or such governmental or non-partisan publication shall be converted to a basis of 100 only in the event that the basis used in such index or publication is less than 100.

4.02 Percentage Rent. In addition to the payment of Base Rent, Tenant shall pay to Landlord for each Lease Year during the Term of this Lease, as Percentage Rent a sum equal to the amount by which  of the Gross Sales for such Lease Year exceeds the Base Rent which is payable for such Lease Year equal to the quotient obtained by dividing the annual fixed rate for such Lease year by the percentage rate.

Gross Sales shall mean all box office receipts, sales of goods, merchandise, beverages, food, vending machines and video games. Gross sales shall exclude credits and refunds made with respect to admissions or other sales; all federal, state, county and city admission taxes, sales taxes and other similar taxes now or hereafter imposed (whether such taxes are collected from customers separately from the selling price of admission tickets or absorbed therein, and actually paid over to the taxing authority by Tenant; commissions paid to agencies or other third parties for selling tickets; returned, exchanged, waived or "Pass Admissions" including EBF charges on "Pass Admissions" and any sums paid to third parties for the use or rental of vending machines, pay telephones or other amusement machines.

Tenant agrees to furnish Landlord a statement certified by its chief financial or similar office of its Gross Sales within ninety (90) days after the close of each Lease Year and calculation of Percentage Rent, if any, due for such Lease Year. Tenant shall concurrently with the delivery of such statement, pay to Landlord any Percentage Rent due for such Lease Year.

The receipt by Landlord of any statement or any payment of Percentage Rent for any period shall not bind it as to the correctness of the statement or the Payment. Landlord shall within three years after the receipt of any such statement be entitled to an audit of such Gross Sales. Such audit shall be limited to the determination of the Gross Sales as defined in this Lease and shall be conducted during normal business hours at the principal place of business of Tenant. If it is determined as a result of such audit that there has been a deficiency in the payment of Percentage Rent, then such deficiency shall become immediately due any payable with interest at the annual rate of 18% from the date when said payment should have been made until paid. Any information gained from such statements or inspection shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed other than to carry out the purposes hereof. If such audit shall disclose that Tenant has understated the Gross Sales for such Lease Year by more than three (3%) and Landlord is entitled to any additional Annual Percentage Rent, Tenant shall pay to Landlord all of Landlord's reasonable cost of such audit.

4.03 Rent Payments. Rent and other sums to be paid by Tenant shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America. All payments shall be made by Tenant to Landlord without notice or demand.

4.04 Place for Payment of Rent. The Annual Rent and any other charges required to be paid by Tenant to Landlord shall be sent to Landlord at its principal place of business, or such other address as Landlord may direct in writing.

4.05 Late Payment of Rent. In the event that any monthly installment of rent is not paid within ten (10) days after first written notice from Landlord that such payment is past due, Tenant shall pay Landlord interest on such unpaid rent at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum computed from the date such rent installment was due until the date actually paid.

ARTICLE V

TAXES, ASSESSMENTS AND UTILITIES

5.01 Impositions.

A) The term "Impositions" shall mean all real estate taxes, duties or assessments (special or otherwise), water and sewer rents, whether ordinary or extraordinary, general or special, foreseen or unforeseen, of any kind and nature whatsoever, which, at any time during the Lease Term, shall be assessed or levied, or be attributable in any manner to the Premises, or the rents receivable therefrom, or any part thereof or any use thereon or any facility located therein or used in connection therewith, whether or not any of the foregoing shall be a so-called "real estate tax" expressly excluding, however, any such items arising directly or indirectly out of any act or omission of Landlord, any of Landlord's predecessors in title or any other person occurring prior to the commencement of the Term. From and after the Initial Rent Due Date, Tenant shall pay all Impositions assessed, levied or attributable to the Premises and/or the Improvements on the Premises. All Impositions or installments thereof payable with respect to the tax year in which this Lease shall commence, and all Impositions or installments thereof with respect to the tax year in which this Lease shall terminate, shall be pro-rated on a daily basis; provided, however, that assessments or escape assessments assessed as a result of this Lease and/or the construction of Tenant Improvements by Tenant shall not be prorated and shall be paid solely by Tenant; and provided further that assessments attributable to Tenant Improvements made in the final year of the Lease shall be paid solely by Tenant if Tenant demolishes the Tenant Building.

B) With respect to Impositions which by law may be paid in installments over a period of time, Landlord shall be deemed to have elected (the "Installment Election") to pay such Impositions over the longest period of time permitted by law, regardless of whether Landlord has in fact so elected. With respect to each year in which the Installment Election is effective and with respect to the Impositions associated with Tenant's premises subject to the Installment Election, Tenant's share of such Imposition(s) for each year shall be the pro rata share of the amount which would be required to be paid to the collecting authority as if Landlord had in fact made the Installment Election.

C) In the event the Premises are separately assessed by the taxing authority, Tenant shall pay all such real property taxes directly to the taxing authority prior to delinquency. In the event Tenant fails to pay such real property taxes as provided herein, Landlord may, but shall not be required to, pay the same, and any amount so paid by Landlord shall immediately thereafter become due to Landlord from Tenant as Additional Rent with interest thereon at the rate of 18% per annum from the date of Landlord's payment plus any fine, penalty, interest or cost which is levied by the taxing authority for such late payment.

D) In the event the Premises are not separately assessed by the taxing authority, Tenant shall pay all such real property taxes to the Landlord prior to delinquency. In the event Tenant fails to pay to Landlord such real property taxes as provided herein, Tenant shall pay Landlord in addition interest thereon at the rate of 18% per annum from the delinquency date until such payment has been made.

5.02 Proration of Taxes. If the Premises comprise a tax lot or lots with other property owned by Landlord or other parties ("Other Premises") assessed for real estate tax purposes, together with said Other Premises, immediately after the Commencement Date, Landlord and Tenant shall attempt to cause the appropriate taxing authorities to assess the Premises for real estate tax purposes separately from all Other Premises. During any period in which the Premises are assessed for real estate purposes, together with any Other Premises, Landlord will pay, before the last day on which payment may be made without penalty or interest, all Impositions which shall be levied against the Other Premises.

5.03 Exceptions from Impositions: Charges in Lieu of Impositions.

A) Nothing herein contained shall require Tenant to pay any estate, inheritance, succession, capital levy, corporate franchise, gross receipts, transfer, or income tax of Landlord, nor shall any of the same be deemed to be included within the term "Impositions" as defined herein.

B) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article V, if at any time after the date of this Lease the present method of taxation or assessment shall be changed so that in lieu of, as a substitute for (whether in whole or in part) or as a supplement to (provided such supplemental tax relates to real estate or revenues from real estate and not to other property or business as well) the taxes now levied, assessed or imposed on real estate and buildings and Improvements thereon, a tax shall be imposed, assessed or levied wholly or partly on the Rent, or a tax, assessment, levy or charge, measured or based, in whole or in part, on the Premises or on the rents derived therefrom, shall be imposed on Landlord, then Tenant shall pay taxes so measured or based only to the extent that such taxes would be payable if the Premises were the only property of Landlord subject to such taxes, or the income from operation of the Premises were Landlord's only income, as the case may be.

5.04 Contest of Taxes. Tenant at its sole cost and expense may by appropriate legal proceedings conducted in good faith and with due diligence, contest the amount or validity or application, in whole or in part, of any Imposition or lien therefor, or any other lien, encumbrance or charge against the Premises arising from work done or materials provided to or for Tenant. Tenant shall give Landlord reasonable notice of, and information pertaining to, such contest and regular progress reports with respect thereto.

Landlord shall cooperate with any effort pursued by Tenant in accordance with this Section 5.05. Tenant shall indemnify, protect and hold harmless Landlord and the Premises from any lien or liability with respect to any such Imposition or contest thereof, including all costs and expenses related thereto. Landlord shall provide Tenant with copies of notice when received by Landlord from the taxing authorities of any assessments or reassessments of the Premises in sufficient time (but in no event later than thirty (30) days after Landlord's receipt of the same) to enable Tenant to contest the same in accordance with the provisions of this Section 5.05.

5.05 Utilities. Tenant shall pay before delinquency, directly to the appropriate company or governmental agency, all charges for all utilities, including, but not limited to, water, gas, electricity, sewer, power, telephone, other communication services and refuse disposal consumed on the Premises.

5.06 Personal Property Taxes. During the term of this Lease, Tenant shall pay before delinquency any and all personal property taxes levied or assessed against any personal property located upon the Premises. If Tenant fails to timely pay such taxes and a lien is filed against the Premises, Landlord may discharge such lien, if Tenant fails to discharge such lien within ten (10) days following Tenant's receipt of notice from Landlord, including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees, together with interest at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum from the date of expenditure, such additional rent being due and payable within ten (10) days of notice thereof.

ARTICLE VI

INSURANCE

6.01 Acquisition of Insurance Policies. Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, procure and maintain, or cause to be procured and maintained, during the entire Term the insurance described in this Section (or its then available equivalent), and shall name Landlord and any other parties requested by Landlord as an additional insured.

6.02 Types of Required Insurance. Tenant shall procure and maintain the following:

A) Commercial General Liability Insurance. Commercial general liability insurance insuring against injuries or damages to persons or property sustained in, on or about the Premises, Common Area and the appurtenances thereto, including the sidewalks and alleyways adjacent thereto, with limits of liability no less than Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000) per occurrence and in the aggregate.

B) Builder's Risk Insurance. During any restorations, alterations or changes in the Premises that may be made by Tenant at a cost in excess of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000) per job, contingent liability and builder's risk insurance upon the entire work on the Premises to the current one hundred percent (100%) replacement value thereof against "all risks" of physical loss or damage to the property insured, excluding earthquake and/or other earth movements and flood.

C) Physical Property Damage Insurance. During the term hereof, Tenant shall keep Tenant's Building (excluding foundations and footings), all improvements on the Premises and personal property insured in the name of Landlord and Tenant against damage or destruction by fire and the perils commonly covered under the extended coverage endorsement (with vandalism and malicious mischief coverage) excluding earthquake and flood to the extent of not less than the full replacement value thereof less any deductible applicable to all of Tenant's theatres insured under a blanket policy. Tenant shall be responsible for determining the amount of fire and extended coverage insurance to be maintained subject to Landlord's consent, which consent is not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The proceeds of such insurance in case of loss or damage shall be held in trust and applied on account of the obligation of Tenant to repair and/or rebuild the Leased Premises pursuant to the Article captioned "Damage Clause" to the extent that such proceeds are required for such purpose. The insurance required to be carried by Tenant under this paragraph may be covered under a so-called "blanket" policy covering other operations of Tenant and its affiliates. Tenant shall name Landlord and any parties requested by Landlord and any holder of a mortgage on Tenant's Building pursuant to a standard mortgage clause with respect to the foregoing hazard insurance, provided such holder agrees with Landlord in writing to disburse such insurance proceeds to Landlord for, and periodically during the course of, repair and restoration of Tenant's Building as set forth in this Lease.

6.03 Terms of Insurance. The policies required under Section 6.02 shall name Landlord as additional insured. Tenant shall provide to Landlord certificates of insurance and copies of policies obtained by Tenant hereunder promptly upon the request of Landlord. Further, all policies of insurance described in Section 6.02 shall:

A) Be written as primary policies not contributing with and not in excess of coverage that Landlord may carry.

B) Contain an endorsement providing that the amount of coverage will not be reduced with respect to Landlord except after twenty (20) days prior written notice from insurance company to Landlord and such coverage may not be canceled with respect to Landlord except after thirty (30) days' prior written notice from insurance company to Landlord.

C) Expressly provide that Landlord shall not be required to give notice of accidents or claims and that Landlord shall have no liability for premiums.

D) Be written by insurance companies having a Bests rating of "A-" or better, and such insurance companies shall be reasonably acceptable to Landlord.

6.04 Landlord's Acquisition of Insurance. If Tenant at any time during the Term fails to procure or maintain insurance required hereunder or to pay the premiums therefor, Landlord shall have the right to procure the same and to pay any and all premiums thereon, and any amounts paid by Landlord in connection with the acquisition of insurance shall be immediately due and payable as additional rent, and Tenant shall pay to Landlord upon demand the full amount so paid and expended by Landlord. Any policies of insurance obtained by Landlord covering physical damage to the Premises shall contain a waiver of subrogation against Tenant if and to the extent such waiver is obtainable and if Tenant pays to Landlord on demand the additional costs, if any, incurred in obtaining such waiver.

6.05 Insurance Money and Other Funds Held in Trust. All insurance money or condemnation proceeds as provided in Article VIII, received by the Tenant shall be turned over to Landlord and held in trust by Landlord and, except as provided otherwise in Section 6.06, shall be applied as follows:

First, to any Leasehold Mortgagee as required under the terms of its Leasehold Mortgage provided that such Mortgage was of record and secured a loan made or committed to Landlord in compliance with all of the terms and conditions of this Lease prior to the occurrence of such loss; second for the purpose of defraying the cost of repairing, restoring, replacing and/or rebuilding any structure or improvement on or in the Premises as required as provided in Section 6.06 hereof, and third if the damaged or destroyed structure or improvement is not repaired, restored, replaced or rebuilt as hereinafter provided, said funds shall be disposed of as provided in Section 6.06. Any of said funds in the hands of the Tenant or Landlord at the end of the Term hereof shall be disposed of as set forth in Section 6.06 (A).

6.06 Application or Proceeds of Physical Damage Insurance. In case of any insurance policies as described in Section 6.02 (C) (Physical Property Damage Insurance) the application of insurance proceeds from damage or loss to property shall be determined in part in accordance with Article XVII hereof and, in the event of any such repair, replacement, restoration or rebuilding, the Landlord shall disburse the proceeds of the insurance collected to Tenant to pay the cost of such work upon certificate of satisfactory progress and/or completion in form satisfactory to Landlord by the licensed architect or engineer in charge of the work. Upon completion of such repair, replacement, restoration or rebuilding in accordance with the provisions of this Lease, and the full payment therefor (so no liens, encumbrances or claims with respect thereto can be asserted against the Premises, this Lease, Landlord or Tenant), any insurance proceeds received by the Landlord or Tenant with respect to the damage or destruction involved, and not used, shall remain the property of Landlord.

A) Distribution of Unutilized Proceeds. At the termination of this Lease, such insurance proceeds or condemnation awards received and held by the Landlord and not used for repair, replacement or reconstruction ("Available Proceeds"), shall be disposed as follows:

(1) First, Landlord shall be awarded an amount sufficient to remove any improvements not repaired and to return the Property to the level of adjacent streets ("grade level"); and

(2) Second, any remainder shall be paid to Landlord.

6.07 Cooperation for Insurance Proceeds. Landlord and Tenant shall each cooperate with the other in order to obtain the largest possible recovery and execute any and all consents and other instruments and take all other actions reasonably necessary or desirable to effectuate the same and cause such proceeds to be paid as hereinbefore provided. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, neither party shall carry any insurance concurrent in coverage and contributing in the event of loss with any insurance required to be furnished by the other hereunder if the effect of separate insurance would be to reduce the protection or the payment to be made under such party's insurance or under the insurance required to be furnished by the other.

6.08 Waiver of Right of Recovery. Landlord and Tenant hereby release each other from any and all Liability and responsibility to one another and, to the extent legally possible to do so on behalf of their respective insurers and anyone claiming through or under either of them, by way of subrogation or otherwise, hereby waive any liability for any and all loss or damage which is of the type covered by fire and extended coverage insurance described in this Article, irrespective of any negligence on the part of the other party which may have contributed to or caused such loss. Every insurance policy carried by either party with respect to the Premises or Tenant's Building or land or improvements adjoining the Premises owned or leased by Landlord shall (if it can be so written and does not result in a material additional premium) include provisions denying to the insurer subrogation rights against the other party and any fee or leasehold mortgage to the extent such rights have been waived by the insured prior to the occurrence of damage or loss. If the waiver of subrogation otherwise is not effective, each party covenants that it will obtain for the benefit of the other party an express waiver of any right of subrogation which the insurer of such party may acquire against the other party by virtue of the payment of any such loss covered by such insurance. In the event either party is by law, statute, governmental regulation, economically unfeasible or other factor beyond such party's reasonable control unable to obtain a waiver of the right of subrogation for the benefit of the other party, then, during any period of time when such waiver is unobtainable, said party shall be deemed not to have released any subrogated claim of its insurance carrier against the other party, and during the same period of time the other party shall be deemed not to have released the party who has been unable to obtain such waiver from any claims they or their insurance carriers may assert which otherwise would have been released pursuant to this Section. In the event that either party is unable to obtain such waiver of the right of subrogation for the benefit of the other party, such party shall, within thirty (30) days of receiving notice of such inability, give the other party written notice of such inability.

ARTICLE VII

7.01 Alterations — Changes.

A) At any time and from time to time during the Lease Term-Tenant may, at its sole expense, make any alterations, additions or changes, whether structural or nonstructural, to any portion or all of any Improvements which may exist at any time and from time to time on any portion of the Premises, and may, at its option, construct new Improvements on the Premises, or remove or demolish Improvements on the Premises, provided that all such alterations or changes in Improvements and new Improvements shall be performed in a first-class manner and must comply with all laws, zoning regulations and ordinances, and any conditions on permits issued pursuant thereto if the change, alteration or addition is structural or exterior in nature Landlord's written approval shall be-first obtained.

B) Tenant shall at all times keep the Premises or any part thereof, free and clear of all liens and claims for labor or material and free and clear of all attachments, executions and notices.

(C) Upon termination of this Lease, Tenant may not remove any personal property and trade fixtures including, but not limited to theatre seats, projection and sound equipment, snack bar equipment and computers.

7.02 Repairs — Maintenance. Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, maintain the Premises in first class condition for a building of like kind and place and make such structural and non-structural, ordinary and extraordinary, foreseen and unforeseen repairs such that the Premises shall not be in violation of any law or covenant recorded as of the Effective Date.

ARTICLE VIII

8.02 Tenant’s Responsibilities and Landlord Indemnity.

A) Tenant shall not cause or permit any Hazardous Materials to be brought upon, stored, used, generated, released into the environment or disposed of, on, in, under or about the Entire Premises, the Common Area, or any other portion of the Premises by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees, in violation of any law. Upon the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease, Tenant covenants to remove from the Premises, and/or Entire Premises at its sole cost and expense, any and all Hazardous Materials, including any equipment or systems containing Hazardous Materials, which are brought upon, stored, used, generated or released into the environment at or above actionable levels by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Tenant hereby indemnifies and defends (with counsel experienced and competent in litigating issues of Hazardous Materials) Landlord and agrees to hold Landlord, the Premises and the Entire Premises free and harmless from and against any and all claims, judgments, damages, penalties, fines, costs, liabilities and losses (including, without limitation, diminution in the value of the Premises, damages for the loss or restriction on use of rentable space or of any amenity of the Premises, and sums paid in settlement of claims, attorneys’ fees, consultant fees and expert fees) which arise directly or indirectly from the presence of actionable levels of Hazardous Materials on, in or about the Premises which is through Tenant’s (or its agents, employees, contractors or invitees) acts or omissions brought upon, stored, used, generated or released into the environment by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees (referred to as "Tenant's Environmental Acts"). This indemnification by Tenant of Landlord includes, without limitation, any and all costs incurred in connection with any investigation of site conditions or any clean up, remedial, removal or restoration work required by any federal, state or local governmental agency or political subdivision because of the presence of such Hazardous Materials in, on or about the Premises, or the soil or ground water on or under the Premises or any portion thereof due to Tenant's Environmental Acts. Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of any release of Hazardous Materials in the Premises, which Tenant becomes aware of during the term of this Lease, caused by Tenant's Environmental Acts. Landlord agrees to indemnify, defend and hold Tenant harmless from all claims, judgments, damages, penalties, fines, costs, resulting from the presence of Hazardous Materials on or about the Premises, (i) on the Commencement Date of this Lease, and/or (ii) during or after the term of this Lease, if the presence of Hazardous Materials results from any cause other than Tenant's Environmental Acts.

B) Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of, and shall promptly provide Landlord with true, correct, complete and legible copies of all of the following environmental items relating to the Premises which may be filed or prepared by or on behalf of, or delivered to or served upon Tenant: reports filed pursuant to any self-reporting requirements, reports filed pursuant to any applicable laws or this Lease, all permit applications, permits, monitoring reports, workplace exposure and community exposure warnings or notices and all other reports, disclosures, plans or documents (excluding those which may be reasonably characterized as confidential) relating to water discharges, air pollution, waste generation or disposal, underground storage tanks or Hazardous Materials.

C) In addition to Tenant's routine reporting obligations described in (B) above, Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of, and shall promptly provide Landlord with true, correct, complete and legible copies of, all of the following environmental items relating to the Premises which may be filed or prepared by or on behalf of, or delivered to or served upon, Tenant: all orders, reports, listings and correspondence (excluding those which may be reasonably considered confidential) of or concerning the release, investigation of, compliance, clean up, remedial and corrective actions, and abatement of Hazardous Materials whether or not required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by any applicable laws, including, but not limited to, reports and notices required by or given pursuant to any applicable laws, and all complaints, pleading and other legal documents filed against Tenant related to Tenant's use, handling, storage or disposal of Hazardous Materials. In the event of a release of any Hazardous Materials in, on or about the Premises, Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord and provide Landlord with copies of all reports and correspondence with or from all governmental agencies, authorities or any other persons relating to such release.

D) Landlord, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall have the right, but not the obligation, to join and participate in any legal proceedings or actions initiated in connection with any claims or causes of action arising out of the storage, generation, use or disposal by Tenant, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees, of Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises caused by Tenant's Environmental Acts which results in (i) injury to any person, (ii) injury to or any contamination of the Premises or (iii) injury to or contamination of any real or personal property wherever situated. Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall promptly take all actions necessary to return the Premises to the condition existing prior to the introduction of such Hazardous Materials to the Premises and to remedy or repair any such injury or contamination. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall not, without Landlord's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or denied or conditioned or delayed, take any remedial action in response to the presence of any Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises or enter into any settlement agreement, consent decree or other compromise with any governmental agency with respect to any Hazardous Materials claims; provided, however, Landlord's prior written consent shall not be necessary in the event that the presence of Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises (i) poses an immediate threat to the health, safety or welfare of any individual or (ii) is of such nature that an immediate remedial response is necessary and it is not possible to obtain Landlord's consent before taking such action.

8.03 Remedial Work. In the event any investigation or monitoring of site conditions or any clean-up, containment, restoration, removal or other remedial work ("Remedial Work") is required (a) under any applicable federal, state or local law or regulation, (b) by any judicial, arbitral or administrative order, (c) to comply with any agreements affecting the Premises or (d) to maintain the Premises in a standard of environmental condition which presents no risk to safety or health, prevents the release of any hazardous materials to adjacent property and otherwise is consistent with the prudent ownership of property of the character of the Premises and/or Tenant's Building and if such Remedial Work is required as a direct result of Tenant's Environmental Acts, then Tenant at Tenant's sole cost and expense, including without limitation, any taxes or penalties assessed in connection with the Remedial Work, shall perform or cause to be performed such Remedial Work; and if such Remedial Work is required for any reason other than Tenant's Environmental Acts, then, Landlord, at Landlord's sole cost and expense, including without limitation, any taxes or penalties assessed in connection with the Remedial Work, shall perform or cause to be performed such Remedial Work. The selection of the Remedial Work contractors, any disclosures to or agreements with any public or private agencies or parties relating to Remedial Work and the written plan for the Remedial Work (and any changes thereto) each shall be subject to the other party's prior written approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, denied, conditioned or delayed. In addition, the party doing the Remedial Work shall submit to the other party, promptly upon receipt or preparation, copies of any and all reports, studies, analyses, correspondence, governmental comments or approvals, proposed removal or other remedial work contracts and similar information prepared or received by such party in connection with any Remedial Work or Hazardous Materials relating to the Premises. In the event the party responsible therefor should fail to commence or cause to be commenced in a timely fashion, or fail diligently to prosecute to completion, such Remedial Work, the other party (following written notice) may, but shall not be required to, cause such Remedial Work to be performed, and all costs and expenses thereof, or incurred in connection therewith (i) in the case where Tenant is the responsible party, shall be paid as additional rent due and payable within thirty (30) days of Landlord's invoice therefor, or (ii) in the case where Landlord is the responsible party, shall be paid by Landlord to Tenant within thirty (30) days of Tenant's invoice therefor, and if not timely paid by Landlord, in addition to all other rights and remedies, Tenant shall have the right of offset against rent which may become due. Neither party shall be obligated to perform Remedial Work under this Section while it is contesting the application of any law, regulation or order, provided the other party is not exposed to any additional liability, risk or damages. Obligations under this Section are solely for the benefit of the parties, their successors, and assigns and any subtenants of this Lease, and not for any other third parties.

In the event of a release of any Hazardous Materials in, on or about the Entire Premises, Landlord shall promptly notify Tenant and provide Tenant with copies of all reports and correspondence with or from all governmental agencies, authorities or any other persons relating to such release.

C) Except for the obligations of Tenant as set forth in this Article VIII Landlord shall exonerate, indemnify, pay and protect, defend and hold harmless (with counsel reasonably approved by Tenant) and save Tenant and Tenant's successors and assigns, and their directors, trustees, beneficiaries, officers, shareholders, employees and agents (collectively, Tenant's "Related Parties"), harmless from and against any claims (including, without limitation, third party claims for personal injury or real or personal property damage), actions, administrative proceedings (including informal proceedings), judgments, damages, punitive damages, penalties, fines, costs, taxes, assessments, liabilities (including sums paid in settlement of claims), interest or losses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses (including any such fees and expenses incurred in enforcing this provision or collecting any sums due hereunder), consultant fees, and expert fees, together with all other costs and expenses of any kind or nature (collectively, the "Costs") that arise directly or indirectly in connection with the presence, suspected presence, release or suspected release of any Hazardous Materials in or into the air, soil, groundwater, surface water or improvements at, on, about, under or within the Premises, or any portion thereof, or elsewhere in connection with the transportation of Hazardous Materials to or from the Premises or the Entire Premises. As a further condition of such subordination, Landlord, Tenant and the Mortgagee shall enter into a non-disturbance and attornment agreement in a form reasonably acceptable to all parties executing such instrument.

ARTICLE XIV
CONDEMNATION — EMINENT DOMAIN

14.01 Definitions. The following definitions apply in construing provisions of this Lease relating to a taking of or damage to all or any part of the Entire Premises or Improvements or Parking or any interest in them by eminent domain or inverse condemnation:

A) "Taking" means that taking or damaging, including severance damage, by eminent domain or by inverse condemnation for any public or quasi-public use under any statute. The transfer of title may be either a transfer resulting from the recording of a final order in condemnation or a voluntary transfer or conveyance to the condemning agency or entity under threat of condemnation, in avoidance of an exercise of eminent domain, or while condemnation proceedings are pending. The Taking shall be considered to take place as of the date on which the right to compensation and damages accrues under the law applicable to the Premises, unless the condemnor also takes actual physical possession of the Premises or a part thereof, in which case the date of Taking for the purposes of this Lease shall be the later of the date on which the right to compensation and damages accrues or the date physical possession is taken by the condemnor.

B) "Total Taking" means the Taking of the fee title to all the Premises and the Improvements on the Premises, which shall be considered to include any offsite improvements effected by Tenant to serve the Premises or the improvements or the parking on the Premises.

C) "Partial Taking" means any Taking (including any damaging) of a portion of the Premises, the Common Area, or any Improvements or parking thereon which is not a Total Taking.

D) "Notice of Intended Taking" means any notice or notification on which a reasonably prudent man would rely and which he would interpret as expressing an existing intention of Taking as distinguished from a mere preliminary inquiry or proposal. It includes, but is not limited to, the service of a condemnation summons and complaint on a party to this Lease. The notice is considered to have been received when a party to this Lease receives from the condemning agency or entity a Notice of Intended Taking, in writing, containing a description or map of the Taking reasonably defining the extent of the Taking.

E) "Award" means compensation paid for the Taking, whether pursuant to judgment or by agreement or otherwise.

14.02 Notice to Other Party. The party hereto receiving any notice of the kinds specified below shall promptly give the other party notice of the receipt, contents, and date of the notice received:

A) Notice of Intended Taking;

B) Service of any legal process relating to condemnation of the Premises or improvements;

C) Notice in connection with any proceedings or negotiations with respect to such a condemnation, or

D) Notice of intent or willingness to make or negotiate a private purchase, sale or transfer in lieu of condemnation.

14.03 Total Taking — Effect on Rent and Term. On a Total Taking, Tenant's obligation to pay Rent shall terminate on, and Tenant's interest in the leasehold shall continue until, the date of Taking, at which time this Lease shall terminate.

14.04 Distribution of Award for Taking. On a Taking, all sums, including, but not limited to, damages and interest awarded for the value of the real estate taken, shall be apportioned and paid by the governmental body taking the Premises as follows:

A) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any, for the Fair Market Value of all buildings and other improvements on the Premises;

B) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any, for severance damages

C) To Landlord, the amount awarded, if any, for the "bonus value" of this leasehold estate without improvements. The bonus value is the amount by which the fair market rental value on the open market exceeds the contract rent (the amount called for in this Lease);

D) To Tenant, the amount awarded, if any, for loss of goodwill and relocation expenses;

E) To Tenant, any other award which will not reduce the amount which otherwise would be awarded to Landlord; and

F) To Landlord, any balance.

Tenant shall only be entitled to payments under this Section 14.04 out of amounts awarded by the governmental body taking the Premises.

14.05 Partial Taking — Rent Adjustments. On a Partial Taking, the Lease shall remain in full force and effect covering the remaining Premises, except that the total Rent as otherwise provided herein shall be reduced in the same ratio as the percentage of the area of the Premises taken bears to the total area of the Premises.

14.06 Partial Taking — Option to Terminate. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event of a Partial Taking, if more than thirty percent (30%) of the Building or fifty (50%) of the parking is taken by a condemnation or sold under the threat of condemnation, then Tenant may terminate this Lease as of the date the condemning authority takes title or possession, whichever occurs first, by delivering written notice to the other within ten (10) days after receipt of written notice of such taking (or in the absence of such notice, within ten (10) days after the condemning authority takes possession).

14.07 Separate Tenant's Award. In the event of a Taking, Tenant may make a separate claim with respect to lost business, lost profits, moving expenses and other related damages against the acquiring governmental Agency.

ARTICLE XV

DEFAULT

15.01 Tenant's Default. The occurrence of any of the following shall constitute a default or event of default by Tenant:

A) Failure to pay Annual Rent or any other monetary amount when due as provided herein, if the failure continues for ten (10) days after first written notice has been given to Tenant by Landlord;

B) Failure to perform any of Tenant's non-monetary obligations under this Lease, provided however, Tenant shall have thirty (30) days from receipt of written notice by Landlord to cure each such default. If Tenant cannot reasonably cure such default within said thirty (30) day period, Tenant shall not be in default of this Lease if Tenant commences to cure the breach within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the breach.

C) Tenant shall file a petition in voluntary bankruptcy under the bankruptcy code of the United States or any similar Law, State or Federal Law, now or hereafter in effect.

15.02 Landlord's Remedies Cumulative. Landlord shall have the following remedies set forth in subsections (A) through (G) below if Tenant commits a default, except as provided in Section 15.03. These remedies are not exclusive and may be exercised concurrently or successively; they are cumulative in addition to any remedies now or later allowed by law or equity:

A) Bring Suit for Performance. Landlord may bring suit for the collection of the Rent or other amounts for which Tenant is then in default, or for the performance of any other covenant or agreement devolving upon Tenant, all without having to enter into possession or terminate this Lease;

B) Re-Entry Without Termination. Pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1954.4, Landlord may re-enter the Premises, by legal proceedings (or without legal proceedings if the Premises have been abandoned), and take possession thereof, without thereby terminating this Lease, and thereupon Landlord may expel all persons and remove all property therefrom, without becoming liable to prosecution therefor, and relet the Premises or a portion or portions thereof, and receive the rent therefrom, applying the same first to the payment of the reasonable expenses of such re-entry and the reasonable cost of such reletting, and then to the payment of the Rent and other amounts for which Tenant is then in default; the balance, if any, to be paid to Tenant, who, whether or not the Premises are relet, shall remain liable for any deficiency. It is agreed that the commencement and prosecution of any action by Landlord in forcible entry and detainer, ejectment, or otherwise, or the appointment of a receiver, or any execution of any decree obtained in any action to recover possession of the Premises, or any re-entry, shall not be construed as an election to terminate this Lease unless Landlord shall, in writing, expressly exercise its election to declare the Lease Term hereunder ended and to terminate this Lease, and unless this Lease be expressly terminated, such re-entry or entry by Landlord, whether had or taken under summary proceedings or otherwise, shall not be deemed to have absolved or discharged Tenant from any of its obligations and liabilities for the remainder of the Lease Term. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary or other provisions of this Section 15.02(B), Tenant shall have the right to sublet the Premises, assign its interest in the Lease, or both, subject to Landlord's prior right, during any continuance of Tenant's default, to relet the Premises or a portion or portions thereof.

C) Termination of Lease and Lessee's Right to Possession. No act by Landlord, other than giving Tenant written notice of termination of this Lease, shall in fact terminate the Lease. Upon termination of the Lease, neither Landlord nor Tenant shall have any future rights or obligations under the Lease except that Landlord shall have the right to recover from Tenant the following:

(1) The worth, at the time of the award, of the unpaid Rent that had been earned at the time of termination of this Lease;

(2) The worth, at the time of the award, of the amount by which the unpaid Rent that would have been earned after the date of termination of this Lease until the time of award exceeds the amount of the loss of Rent that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided;

(3) The worth, at the time of the award, of the amount by which the unpaid Rent for the balance of the Term after the time of award exceeds the amount of the loss of Rent that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided; and

(4) Any other amount, and court costs, necessary to compensate Landlord for all detriment proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform his obligations under the Lease or which, in the ordinary course of things, would be likely to result therefrom.

(5) For any other sums due.

D) Definitions. As used herein, the following phrases shall be interpreted as follows:

(1) "The worth, at the time of the award," as used in subsections 15.02(C)(1) and (2) above, is to be computed by allowing interest at the maximum lawful rate. "The worth, at the time of the award," as referred to in subsection 15.02(C)(3) above, is to be computed by discounting the amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco at the time of the award, plus one percent (1%).

(2) As used herein, the term "time of award" shall mean either the date upon which Tenant pays to Landlord the amount recoverable by Landlord as hereinabove set forth or the date of entry of any determination, order, or judgment of any court or other legally constituted body determining the amount recoverable, whichever first occurs.

E) Surrender. Promptly after notice of termination, Tenant shall surrender and vacate the Premises and all improvements in broom-clean condition, and Landlord may re-enter and take possession of the Premises and all remaining improvements and eject all parties in possession or eject some and not others, or eject none. Termination under subsection 15.02(C) shall not relieve Tenant from the payment of any sum due to Landlord or from any claim for damages previously accrued or then accruing against Tenant.

F) Appointment of Receiver. If Tenant defaults under Section 15.02 Landlord shall have the right to have a receiver appointed to collect rent from any subtenants. Neither the filing of a petition for the appointment of a receiver nor the appointment itself shall constitute an election by Landlord to terminate this Lease.

G) Landlord's Right to Cure Tenant's Default. Landlord, at any time after Tenant is in default under Section 15.01 herein, may cure the default at Tenant's expense. If Landlord, at any time, by reason of Tenant's default, pays any sum or does any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Landlord shall be immediately reimbursed from Tenant to Landlord, together with interest at eighteen percent (18%) per annum computed from the date of such expenditure until the date of reimbursement by Tenant.

15.03 Landlord's Default.

A) The occurrence of the following shall constitute a default by Landlord: Breach of any provision of this Lease if the breach is not cured within thirty (30) days after written notice by Tenant; provided, however, that if the breach cannot reasonably be cured within such thirty (30) day period, Landlord shall not be in default of this Lease if Landlord commences to cure the breach within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the default.

B) Tenant, at any time after Landlord is in default under paragraph (A) above, may cure the default at Landlord's expense. If Tenant at any time, by reason of Landlord's default, pays any sum or does any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Tenant shall be immediately reimbursed by Landlord, together with interest at eighteen percent (18%) per annum determined at the time the expenditure is made by Tenant computed from the date of such expenditure until the date of reimbursement by Landlord. If Landlord fails to make such payment(s) within fifteen (15) days after Tenant's written demand, Tenant shall be entitled to offset any amount due from Landlord against the next Rent payment due under this Lease.

15.04 Waiver of Redemption. Tenant hereby expressly waives any and all rights of redemption granted by or under any present or future laws in the event of Tenant being dispossessed or removed from the Premises upon the termination of this Lease because of default by Tenant hereunder.

15.05 Dispute Resolution. Landlord and Tenant desire by provisions of this Section 15.05 to establish procedures to facilitate the informal and inexpensive resolution of any dispute arising out of this Lease by mutual cooperation and without resort to litigation. To accomplish this objective, Landlord and Tenant agree to follow the procedures set forth below if and when a dispute arises between them under this Lease.

A) Description of Dispute. The complaining party shall provide by notice a written description of the alleged breach by the other party. This description shall explain the nature of the complaint and the Lease provision(s) on which it is based. The complaining party shall also set forth a proposed solution to the problem including a specific time frame within which the parties must act. The party receiving the letter of complaint must respond in writing within ten (10) days with an explanation, including references to the relevant parts of the Lease and a response to the proposed solution. Within ten (10) days of receipt of this response, the parties must meet and discuss options for resolving the dispute. The complaining party must initiate the scheduling of the resolution meeting.

B) Mediation. A settlement conference shall be held within thirty (30) days of the unsuccessful resolution meeting or as soon as practical thereafter. The settlement conference shall be held in the County of San Francisco, California.

C) Arbitration. (3) The deposition of the claimant(s) and respondent(s) and form sets of interrogatories approved by the Judicial Council shall be allowed as a matter of right. There shall be an early and prompt designation and exchange of the names and addresses of expert witnesses who may be called upon to testify at the arbitration hearing. Their depositions, special interrogatories, requests for admission and all other discovery shall be allowed only upon a showing of good cause.

The acceptance by Landlord of Rent or partial Rent with knowledge of the breach of any of the covenants of this Lease by Tenant shall not be deemed a waiver of any such breach. One or more waivers of any breach of any covenant, term, or condition of this Lease shall not be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same covenant, term, or condition. Should Tenant fail to so discharge any such mechanics lien, Landlord shall have the right to remove such mechanics liens and charge all costs thereof, including without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, to Tenant as additional rent plus interest at 18%.

18.22 Anti-Merger. The voluntary or otherwise surrender of this Lease by Tenant, or a mutual cancellation of this Lease shall not work a merger but shall at the option of Landlord either:

A) Terminate any existing subleases or subtenancies; or

B) Operate as an assignment to Landlord (and assumption by Landlord) of any subleases or subtenancies.

R E C I T A L S:

A. Landlord (then known as Syufy Enterprises, a California limited partnership (“Original Landlord”)) and Century Theatres of California, Inc., a California corporation (“Original Tenant”), entered into a certain Lease dated as of September 30, 1995 (the “Original Lease”), for certain premises located in Newark, California.

B. The Original Lease has been previously amended by (i) that certain First Amendment to Lease dated as of September 1, 2000 (the “First Amendment”), (ii) that certain Second Amendment to Lease dated as of April 15, 2005 (the “Second Amendment”), and (iii) that certain Third Amendment to Lease dated as of September 29, 2005 (the “Third Amendment”; the Original Lease as heretofore amended is referred to herein as the “Lease”).

C. Tenant has succeeded to the interests and assumed the obligations of Original Tenant as the lessee under the Lease.

D. Landlord has succeeded to the interests and assumed the obligation of Original Landlord as the lessor under the Lease.

E. Landlord and Tenant now desire to further amend the Amended Lease, upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Amendment.

NOW THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt, adequacy and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Lease is hereby modified and amended, and Landlord and Tenant hereby agree, as follows:

1. Recitals Incorporated: Certain Defined Terms. The Recitals set forth above are incorporated into this Amendment and shall be deemed terms and provisions hereof, the same as if fully set forth in this Paragraph 1. Capitalized terms that are used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed to such terms in the Lease.

2. Effectiveness. The parties are entering into this Amendment in connection with the contemplated acquisition of all the outstanding capital stock of Century Theatres, Inc. by Cinemark Holdings, Inc. and Cinemark USA, Inc. (the “Acquisition”) pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement dated as of the date hereof (the “Stock Purchase Agreement”). This Amendment shall become automatically effective upon, and only upon, the closing of the Acquisition (the “Effective Date”). In the event the Acquisition is not consummated and the Stock Purchase Agreement is terminated, this Agreement shall become void ab initio and of no force and effect.

3. Initial Term of Lease and Extension Options. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease, the Initial Term of the Lease is hereby extended to and shall expire on , but subject to the provisions of the Lease applicable to the exercise and validity of such Renewal Terms, and rather than  Renewal Terms of  each (as provided in the Lease), Tenant shall have the option to extend the Initial Term for consecutive Renewal Terms of  each, followed by  additional and final Renewal Term of ***

4. Annual Rent. Annual Base Rent for the remainder of the Initial Term of the Lease shall be fixed at  per annum, payable monthly as set forth in the Lease.

5. Landlord's Recapture Right. If, at any time during the term of the Lease, Tenant fails to satisfy the Operating Condition (defined below), for reasons other than Excused Closure (defined below), and such failure continues for six (6) consecutive months or more, then upon notice from Landlord to Tenant at any time thereafter (provided that the Operating Condition remains unsatisfied), Landlord shall have the right to terminate the Lease and to recapture the Leased Premises, without payment to Tenant, effective upon the date set forth in Landlord's termination notice (but not sooner than 30 days after the date of the termination notice).

The term "Operating Condition" shall mean and require that the entire Leased Premises is being continuously operated and regularly open for business to the general public as a motion picture theater complex in accordance with the Lease, at least on such days and at such times that a majority of Century's and Cinemark's other motion picture theater complexes in the County of Alameda typically are open and operating. The term "Excused Closure" shall mean (i) periods of construction, alterations, renovation, remodeling and repair of the Leased Premises undertaken in accordance with this Lease (including repairs and restoration following damage or destruction due to fire or other casualty) provided that Tenant (A) prosecutes such work to completion with reasonable diligence, (B) exercises its reasonable efforts to minimize the length of time of such closure, and (C) exercises its reasonable efforts to limit the number of motion picture screens at the Premises that are not operated due to such closure; (ii) periods when Tenant cannot practicably operate its business in the Premises as a consequence of force majeure; and (iii) additional periods, not to exceed four (4) days in any Lease Year, when Tenant in its sole discretion elects not to operate its business in the Leased Premises.

6. Self-Insurance of Property/Casualty Risks. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Lease, during any period in which Tenant maintains a Net Worth (as defined below) of at least One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000.00), Tenant may self insure the so-called "physical property damage insurance" otherwise required to be maintained by Tenant pursuant to the Lease. As used herein, the "Net Worth" of Tenant at any given time shall mean an amount equal to the sum of (A) the product of (1) Tenant's so-called EBITDA (i.e., earnings before interest, income taxes, depreciation and amortization), calculated in accordance with commercially reasonable past practice preceding the Effective Date by Tenant's parent corporation, over the 12-month period immediately preceding the time of measurement, multiplied by (2) eight (8), plus (B) the amount of cash and cash equivalents held by Tenant on the most recent anniversary of Tenant's annual insurance renewal date, minus (C) the amount of outstanding funded debt of Tenant on such determination date.

7. Damage and Destruction — Repairs by Tenant. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, the following shall apply to repairs and restoration upon damage or destruction:

(a) Tenant's Obligation to Repair. If the Leased Premises are damaged or destroyed by any peril after the Commencement Date of this Lease, then Tenant shall repair the damage and restore the Leased Premises in accordance with this Section, except as provided in subsection (b) below. Unless Tenant is not required to effect the repairs and restoration pursuant to subsection (b) below, Tenant shall promptly apply for and diligently seek to obtain all necessary governmental permits and approvals for the repair and restoration of the Leased Premises and, upon issuance of such governmental permits and approvals, promptly commence and diligently prosecute the completion of the repairs and restoration of the Leased Premises (to the extent permitted by applicable law) to substantially the same condition in which the Leased Premises were immediately prior to such damage or destruction (subject to any alterations which Tenant would be permitted to make to the Leased Premises pursuant to this Lease).

(b) Damage in Excess of 20%. If the Leased Premises are damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty which occurs after the Effective Date hereof, and if the cost to repair such damage or to restore the Leased Premises as required in subsection (a) exceeds twenty percent (20%) of the replacement cost of the Leased Premises (as determined by an independent architect selected by Tenant and approved by Landlord in Landlord's reasonable discretion) and such damage makes it impracticable to operate the Leased Premises in the reasonable business judgment of Tenant, then (i) Tenant shall have the option, upon notice to Landlord not later than one hundred eighty (180) days following the occurrence of the applicable casualty, not to undertake the repairs and restoration of the Leased Premises, and (ii) if Tenant so elects not to undertake the repairs and restoration, then Tenant nevertheless shall raze Tenant's Building and remove from the Leased Premises all building materials and debris and all underground installations that serve only the Leased Premises (including the footings and foundations of Tenant's Building and the utility lines serving Tenant's Building) and restore the surface of the Premises to a graded and landscaped surface.

8. Permitted Assignments and Release. Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, the following shall apply and control:

Subject to the next sentence, Tenant may sublet or assign this Lease only upon receipt of Landlord's written consent which consent Landlord agrees shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned. Notwithstanding anything in this Lease to the contrary, it is agreed that at any time during the term of this Lease, Tenant may, without Landlord's consent or approval (but only upon prior written notice to Landlord), assign this Lease or sublet the Leased Premises to: (i) any wholly-owned subsidiary of Tenant, and (ii) any corporation, trust, partnership or individual that owns fifty percent (50%) or more of the issued and outstanding stock of Tenant. A change in control of Tenant shall not constitute an assignment of this Lease requiring Landlord's consent or approval, provided, however, that if any assignee under clause (i) above ceases to be a wholly owned subsidiary of Tenant, then the same shall be deemed to constitute an assignment which is prohibited without Landlord's approval under Article XI of the Lease. No assignment, subletting or other transfer of the Lease or the Leased Premises shall relieve or release Tenant from any liabilities or obligations arising under the Lease.

9. Leasehold Financing. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, Tenant shall have the right, without Landlord's consent to encumber the leasehold estate created under the Lease and/or to grant a security interest in Tenant's removable trade fixtures, furnishings and equipment located within the Leased Premises (but not to encumber Landlord's fee interest in the Premises), to secure financing provided to Tenant by any bank, thrift institution, insurance company or other institutional lender. Tenant agrees to notify Landlord of any such encumbrance. With respect to any such leasehold financing (and provided that Tenant is not in default under the Lease beyond any applicable notice or cure period), upon thirty (30) days' prior written request from Tenant, Landlord will execute and deliver to the secured lender a "Landlord's Agreement" in the form attached hereto as Exhibit "A-1".

10. Memorandum of Lease. On the Effective Date, Landlord and Tenant will enter into and record a short form memorandum of the Lease, in the form of Exhibit "A-2" attached hereto or otherwise in proper form for recording. Tenant shall be solely responsible for the cost of recording the memorandum, including (if applicable) any transfer taxes that may be due and payable in connection with the Lease.

11. Gross Sales. Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary the definition of Gross Sales shall be as follows:

"Gross Sales" shall mean the total amount of all revenues (whether in cash or credit) generated or derived from the conduct of any business at the Leased Premises, including (without limitation) all box office receipts of or at the Leased Premises (including receipts from tickets or gift certificates redeemed at the Leased Premises regardless of the point of sale), as well as any and all receipts from the sale of goods, services, merchandise, beverages, food, vending machines and video games at the Leased Premises; provided, however, that the following shall be excluded from "Gross Sales" (i) credits and refunds made with respect to admissions or other sales otherwise included in Gross Sales, (ii) all federal, state, county and city admission taxes, sales and use taxes, entertainment taxes, royalty taxes, gross receipt taxes and other similar taxes now or hereafter imposed and owing to the taxing authority by Tenant (whether such taxes are collected from customers separately from the selling price of admission tickets or absorbed by Tenant); (iii) receipts from the sale of gift certificates or tickets sold but not redeemed at the Leased Premises; (iv) with respect to any tickets or admissions ordered or paid for over the internet and redeemed at the Leased Premises, the portion (if any) of the sale price that exceeds Tenant's actual box-office ticket price; (v) sales price for merchandise returned, (vi) amounts retained by credit card issuers, (vii) sales outside of the ordinary course of business, (viii) amount of credit card sales deemed uncollectible, (ix) advertising revenues including without limitation media, sponsorship, and promotional advertising of any kind, and (x) the receipts of or from so-called "four-wall deals" with a party that is not affiliated with Tenant, except that the portion thereof or other amounts paid to Tenant in connection with such "four-wall deals" shall be included in "Gross Sales" under this Lease. Commissions or surcharges paid to agencies or other third parties not affiliated with Tenant for selling tickets or processing credit card transactions, and any sums paid to third parties not affiliated with Tenant for the use or rental of vending machines, pay telephones, amusement machines and other similar devices shall be deducted from "Gross Sales" (if and to the extent previously included in "Gross Sales").

12. Taxes. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Lease or this Amendment to the contrary, if during the ten (10) year period immediately following the Effective Date, any sale or change in ownership of the Premises (or against the Entire Premises, if the Premises are not separately assessed) is consummated by Landlord and, as a result, all or part of the Premises (or Entire Premises, if applicable) are reassessed (a "Reassessment") for real property tax purposes by the appropriate governmental authority under the terms of Proposition 13 (as adopted by the voters of the State of California in the June 1978 election) or the terms of Article XIII A of the Constitution of the State of California, then the terms of this Section shall apply. For purposes of this Section, the term "Tax Increase" shall mean that portion of the annual real estate taxes assessed against the Premises (or the Entire Premises, if applicable), as calculated immediately following the Reassessment, that is attributable solely to the Reassessment. Accordingly, a Tax Increase shall not include any portion of the real estate taxes, as calculated immediately following the Reassessment, that is:

- (i) Attributable to the assessment of the value of the Premises (or Entire Premises, if applicable) prior to the Effective Date;
- (ii) Attributable to the annual inflationary increases in real estate taxes; or
- (iii) Attributable to the sale of Landlord's ownership interest in Tenant to on or about the Effective Date, or attributable to the execution of this Amendment or any extension of the Term of this Lease on the Effective Date or thereafter.

During the five (5) year period immediately following the Effective Date, Tenant shall not be obligated to pay any portion of any Tax Increase relating to a Reassessment.

Commencing on the fifth (5th) anniversary of the Effective Date, and continuing until the tenth (10th) anniversary of the Effective Date, Tenant shall be obligated to pay annually only the portion of a Tax Increase relating to a Reassessment that is equal to (or less than) an increase of four percent (4%) per annum, compounded annually, from the Effective Date, in the annual amount owed by Tenant for real estate taxes under the terms of the Lease, from the annual amount owed by Tenant for real estate taxes under the terms of the Lease in calendar 2006.

The terms and provisions of this Section shall not apply to any increase in real estate taxes which results from or is attributable to any occurrence, fact or circumstance other than a sale by Landlord of Landlord's interest in the Premises or a transfer effected by Landlord which is treated as a sale by the local taxing authorities under Proposition 13 (excluding those matters identified in clause (iii) above). This Section shall not apply from and after the tenth (10th) anniversary of the Effective Date.

13. Alterations by Tenant.

Notwithstanding anything in the Lease to the contrary, the following shall apply and control:
